10 fetters, and are held in cords of affliction; Then he showeth 11 them their work, and their transgressions that they have ex-12 ceeded. He openeth also their ear to discipline, and comman-13 deth that they return from iniquity. If they obey and serve 14 him, they shall spend their days in prosperity, and their years 15 in pleasures. But if they obey not, they shall perish by the 16 sword, and they shall die without knowledge. But the hyp-17 ocrites in heart heap up wrath: they cry not when he bindeth 18 them. They die in youth, and their life is among the unclean.
19 He delivereth the poor in his affliction, and openeth their ears 20 in oppression. Even so would he have removed thee out of the 21 strait into a broad place, where there is no straitness; and that 22 which should be set on thy table would be full of fatness. But 23 thou hast fulfilled the judgment of the wicked: judgment and 24 justice take hold on thee. Because there is wrath, beware lest 25 he take thee away with his stroke: then a great ransom cannot 26 deliver thee. Will he esteem thy riches? no, not gold, nor all 27 the forces of strength. Desire not the night, when people are 28 cut off in their place. Take heed, regard not iniquity: for this 29 hast thou chosen rather than affliction. Behold, God exalteth 30 by his power: who teacheth like him? Who hath enjoined him 31 his way? or who can say, Thou hast wrought iniquity? Re-32 member that thou magnify his work, which men behold. Ev-33 ery man may see it; man may behold it afar off. Behold, God 34 is great, and we know him not, neither can the number of his 35 years be searched out. For he maketh small the drops of wa-36 ter: they pour down rain according to the vapor of it. Which 37 the clouds do drop and distill upon man abundantly. Also can 38 any understand the spreadings of the clouds, or the noise of 39 his tabernacle? Behold, he spreadeth his light upon it, and 40 covereth the bottom of the sea. For by them he judgeth the 41 people; he giveth food in abundance. With clouds he covereth 42 the light; and commandeth it not to shine by the intervening 43 cloud. The noise of it showeth concerning it, the cattle also 44 concerning the vapor.

37 At this also my heart trembleth, and is moved out of its 2 place. Hear attentively the noise of his voice, and the sound that goeth out of his mouth. He directeth it under the whole 3 heaven, and his lightning to the ends of the earth. After 4 it a voice roareth: he thundereth with the voice of his excellence; and he will not stay them when his voice is heard. God 5 thundereth marvelously with his voice; great things he doeth, which we cannot comprehend. For he saith to the snow, Be 6 thou on the earth; likewise to the small rain, and to the great rain of his strength. He sealeth up the hand of every man; 7 that all men may know his work. Then the beasts go into 8 dens, and remain in their places. From the south cometh 9 the whirlwind: and cold from the north. By the breath of 10 God frost is given: and the breadth of the waters is straitened.

 Also by watering he wearieth the thick cloud: he scattereth his 11 bright cloud: And it is turned around by his counsels: that 12 they may do whatever he commandeth them upon the face of the world on the earth. He causeth it to come, whether for cor- 13 rection, or for his land, or for mercy. Hearken to this, O Job: 14 stand still, and consider the wondrous works of God. Dost 15 thou know when God disposed them, and caused the light of his cloud to shine? Dost thou know the balancings of the clouds, 16 the wondrous works of him who is perfect in knowledge? How 17 thy garments are warm, when he quieteth the earth by the south wind? Hast thou with him spread out the sky which 18 is strong, and as a molten looking-glass? Teach us what we 19 shall say to him; for we cannot order our speech by reason of darkness. Shall it be told him that I speak? If a man shall 20 speak, surely he will be swallowed up. And now men see not 21 the bright light which is in the clouds: but the wind passeth, and cleanseth them. Fair weather cometh from the north: 22 with God is terrible majesty. Touching the Almighty, we can- 23 not find him out: he is excellent in power, and in judgment, and in abundance of justice: he will not afflict. Men therefore 24 fear him: he respecteth not any that are wise of heart.

Then the LORD answered Job out of the whirlwind, and 38 said, Who is this that darkeneth counsel by words without 2 knowledge? Gird up now thy loins like a man; for I will de- 3 mand of thee, and answer thou me. Where wast thou when 4 I laid the foundations of the earth? declare, if thou hast understanding. Who hath laid the measures of it, if thou know- 5 est? or who hath stretched the line upon it? Upon what are 6 the foundations of it fastened? or who laid its corner stone; 7 When the morning stars sang together, and all the sons of God 8 shouted for joy? Or who shut up the sea with doors, when it 9 broke forth, as if it had issued out of the womb? When I made a cloud its garment, and thick darkness a swaddling band for 10 it, And broke up for it my decreed place, and set bars and 11 doors, And said, Hitherto shalt thou come, but no further: and 12 here shall thy proud waves be stayed. Hast thou commanded the morning since thy days; and caused the day-spring to know 13 its place; That it might take hold of the ends of earth, that the 14 wicked might be shaken out of it? It is turned as clay to the 15 seal; and they stand as a garment. And from the wicked their 16 light is withheld, and the high arm shall be broken. Hast thou entered into the springs of the sea? or hast thou walked in the 17 search of the depth? Have the gates of death been opened to thee? or hast thou seen the doors of the shades of death?

18 Hast thou perceived the breadth of the earth? declare if thou 19 knowest it all. Where is the way where light dwelleth? and 20 as for darkness, where is its place, That thou shouldest take it to its bound, and that thou shouldest know the paths to its 21 house? Knowest thou it, because thou wast then born? or be-22 cause the number of thy days is great? Hast thou entered into the treasures of the snow? or hast thou seen the treasures of 23 the hail, Which I have reserved against the time of trouble, 24 against the day of battle and war? By what way is the light 25 parted, which scattereth the east wind upon the earth? Who hath divided a watercourse for the overflowing of waters, or a 26 way for the lightning of thunder; To cause it to rain on the earth, where no man is; on the wilderness in which there is no 27 man; To satisfy the desolate and waste ground; and to cause 28 the bud of the tender herb to spring forth? Hath the rain a 29 father? or who hath begotten the drops of the dew? Out of whose womb came the ice? and the hoary frost of heaven, who 30 hath gendered it? The waters are hid as with a stone, and 31 the face of the deep is frozen. Canst thou bind the sweet in-32 fluences of Pleiades, or loose the bands of Orion? Canst thou bring forth Mazzaroth in its season? or canst thou guide Arc-33 turus with its sons? Knowest thou the ordinances of heaven?
34 canst thou set its dominion on the earth? Canst thou lift thy voice to the clouds, that abundance of waters may cover thee?

Canst thou send lightnings, that they may go, and say to thee, 35 Here we are? Who hath put wisdom in the inward parts? or 36 who hath given understanding to the heart? Who can number 37 the clouds in wisdom? or who can stay the bottles of heaven, When the dust groweth into hardness, and the clods cleave fast 38 together? Wilt thou hunt the prey for the lion? or fill the ap- 39 petite of the young lions, When they couch in their dens, and 40 abide in the covert to lie in wait? Who provideth for the raven 41 his food? when his young ones cry to God, they wander for want of food.

Knowest thou the time when the wild goats of the rock bring 39 forth? or canst thou mark when the hinds do calve? Canst 2 thou number the months that they fulfill? or knowest thou the time when they bring forth? They bow themselves, they bring 3 forth their young ones, they cast out their sorrows. Their 4 young ones are in good liking, they grow up with corn; they go forth, and return not to them. Who hath sent out the wild 5 ass free? or who hath loosed the bands of the wild ass? Whose 6 house I have made the wilderness, and the barren land his dwellings. He scorneth the multitude of the city, neither re- 7 gardeth he the crying of the driver. The range of the moun- 8 tains is his pasture, and he searcheth after every green thing.
 Will the unicorn be willing to serve thee, or abide by thy crib? 9 Canst thou bind the unicorn with his band in the furrow? or 10 will he harrow the valleys after thee? Wilt thou trust him, be- 11 cause his strength is great? or wilt thou leave thy labor to him?
 Wilt thou believe him, that he will bring home thy seed, and 12 gather it into thy barn? Gavest thou the goodly wings to the 13 peacocks? or wings and feathers to the ostrich! Which leaveth 14 her eggs in the earth, and warmeth them in the dust, And 15 forgetteth that the foot may crush them, or that the wild beast may break them. She is hardened against her young ones, as 16 though they were not hers: her labor is in vain without fear; Because God hath withheld wisdom from her, neither hath he 17 imparted to her understanding. When she lifteth herself on 18 high, she scorneth the horse and his rider. Hast thou given 19 the horse strength? hast thou clothed his neck with thunder?
 Canst thou make him afraid as a grasshopper? the glory of his 20 nostrils is terrible. He paweth in the valley, and rejoiceth in 21 his strength: he goeth on to meet the armed men. He mocketh 22 at fear, and is not affrighted; neither turneth he back from the 23 sword. The quiver rattleth against him, the glittering spear 24 and the shield. He swalloweth the ground with fierceness and rage: neither believeth he that it is the sound of the trumpet.

25 He saith among the trumpets, Ha, ha; and he smelleth the battle afar off, the thunder of the captains, and the shouting.
26 Doth the hawk fly by thy wisdom, and stretch her wings to-27 wards the south? Doth the eagle mount up at thy command, 28 and make her nest on high? She dwelleth and abideth on the 29 rock, upon the crag of the rock, and the strong place. From 30 thence she seeketh the prey, and her eyes behold afar off. Her young ones also suck up blood: and where the slain are, there is she.

40, 2 Moreover, the LORD answered Job, and said, Shall he that contendeth with the Almighty instruct him? he that reproveth 3 God, let him answer it. Then Job answered the LORD, and 4 said, Behold, I am vile; what shall I answer thee? I will lay 5 my hand upon my mouth. Once have I spoken; but I will not 6 answer: yes, twice; but I will proceed no further. Then the 7 LORD answered Job out of the whirlwind, and said, Gird up thy loins now like a man: I will demand of thee, and declare 8 thou to me. Wilt thou also disannul my judgment? wilt thou 9 condemn me, that thou mayest be righteous? Hast thou an arm like God? or canst thou thunder with a voice like his?
10 Deck thyself now with majesty and excellence; and array thy-11 self with glory and beauty. Cast abroad the rage of thy wrath: 12 and behold every one that is proud, and abase him. Look on every one that is proud, and bring him low; and tread down 13 the wicked in their place. Hide them in the dust together; 14 bind their faces in secret. Then will I also confess to thee that 15 thy own right hand can save thee. Behold now behemoth, 16 which I made with thee; he eateth grass as an ox. Lo now, his strength is in his loins, and his force is in the navel of his belly.
17 He moveth his tail like a cedar: the sinews of his male organs 18 are wrapped together. His bones are as strong pieces of brass; 19 his bones are like bars of iron. He is the chief of the ways of God: he that made him can make his sword to approach 20 him. Surely the mountains bring him forth food, where all 21 the beasts of the field play. He lieth under the shady trees, in 22 the covert of the reed, and fens. The shady trees cover him with their shadow; the willows of the brook encompass him. Behold, he drinketh up a river, and hasteth not: he trusteth that he can draw up Jordan into his mouth. He taketh it with his eyes: his nose pierceth through snares. 23 24

Canst thou draw out leviathan with a hook? or his tongue with a cord which thou lettest down? Canst thou put a hook into his nose? or bore his jaw through with a thorn? Will he make many supplications to thee? will he speak soft words to thee? Will he make a covenant with thee? wilt thou take him for a servant for ever? Wilt thou play with him as with a bird? or wilt thou bind him for thy maidens? Shall the companions make a banquet of him? shall they part him among the merchants. Canst thou fill his skin with barbed irons? or his head with fish spears? Lay thy hand upon him, remember the battle, do no more. Behold, the hope of him is in vain: shall not one be cast down even at the sight of him? None is so fierce that he dare rouse him: who then is able to stand before me? Who hath first benefited me, that I should repay him? whatever is under the whole heaven is mine. I will not conceal his parts, nor his power, nor his comely proportion. Who can discover the face of his garment? or who can come to him with his double bridle? Who can open the doors of his face? his teeth are terrible around. His scales are his pride, shut together as with a close seal. One is so near to another, that no air can come between them. They are joined one to another, they stick together, that they cannot be sundered. His sneezings flash light, and his eyes are like the eyelids of the morning. Out of his mouth go burning lamps, and sparks of fire dart forth. Out of his nostrils issueth smoke, as out of a seething pot or caldron. His breath kindleth coals, and a flame issueth from his mouth. In his neck remaineth strength, and sorrow is turned into joy before him. The flakes of his flesh are joined together: they are firm in themselves; they cannot be moved. His heart is as firm as a stone; yes, as hard as a piece of the nether millstone. When he raiseth himself, the mighty are afraid: by reason of breakings they purify themselves. The sword of him that attacketh him cannot hold: the spear, the dart, nor the habergeon. He esteemeth iron as straw, and brass as rotten wood. The arrow cannot make him flee: slingstones are turned with him into stubble. Darts are counted as 41 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25 26 27 28 29

30 stubble: he laugheth at the shaking of a spear. Sharp stones 31 are under him: he spreadeth sharp pointed things upon the 32 mire. He maketh the deep to boil like a pot: he maketh the 33 sea like a pot of ointment. He maketh a path to shine after 34 him; one would think the deep to be hoary. Upon earth there is not his like, who is made without fear. He beholdeth all high things: he is a king over all the children of pride.

42, 2 Then Job answered the LORD, and said, I know that thou canst do every thing, and that no thought can be withheld 3 from thee. Who is he that hideth counsel without knowledge? therefore have I uttered that which I understood not; things 4 too wonderful for me, which I knew not. Hear, I beseech thee, and I will speak: I will ask of thee, and declare thou to me.
5 I have heard of thee by the hearing of the ear: but now my 6 eye seeth thee. Wherefore I abhor myself, and repent in dust 7 and ashes. And it was so, that after the LORD had spoken these words to Job, the LORD said to Eliphaz the Temanite, My wrath is kindled against thee, and against thy two friends: 8 for ye have not spoken of me the thing that is right, as my servant Job hath. Therefore take to you now seven bullocks and seven rams, and go to my servant Job, and offer for yourselves a burnt-offering; and my servant Job shall pray for you: for 9 him will I accept: lest I deal with you after your folly, in that ye have not spoken of me the thing which is right, like my ser-10 vant Job. So Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite went, and did according as the LORD commanded them: the LORD also accepted Job. And 11 the LORD turned the captivity of Job, when he prayed for his friends: also the LORD gave Job twice as much as he had before. Then came there to him all his brethren, and all his sis-12 ters, and all they that had been of his acquaintance before, and ate bread with him in his house: and they condoled with him, and comforted him over all the evil that the LORD had brought upon him: every man also gave him a piece of money, and ev-13 ery one an ear-ring of gold. So the LORD blessed the latter end of Job more than his beginning: for he had fourteen thou-14 sand sheep, and six thousand camels, and a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand she asses. He had also seven sons, and three daughters. And he called the name of the first, Jemima; and the name of the second, Kezia; and the name of the third,

Keren-happuch. And in all the land were no women found so 15 fair as the daughters of Job: and their father gave them inher- 16 itance among their brethren. After this Job lived a hundred and forty years, and saw his sons, and his sons' sons, even four generations. So Job died, being old and full of days. 17

THE BOOK OF PSALMS.

- 1 lessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor 2 sitteth in the seat of scoffers. But his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in his law doth he meditate day 3 and night. And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth its fruit in season; its leaf also shall 4 not wither; and whatever he doeth shall prosper. The ungodly are not so: but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away.
5 Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment, nor 6 sinners in the congregation of the righteous. For the LORD knoweth the way of the righteous: but the way of the ungodly shall perish.
- 2 Why do the heathen rage, and the people imagine a vain 2 thing? The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the LORD, and against his anointed, 3 saying, Let us break their bands asunder, and cast away their 4 cords from us. He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh: the 5 LORD shall have them in derision. Then shall he speak to them in his wrath, and trouble them in his sore displeasure.
6, 7 Yet have I set my king upon my holy hill of Zion. I will declare the decree: the LORD hath said to me, Thou art my Son; 8 this day have I begotten thee. Ask of me, and I will give thee the heathen for thy inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the 9 earth for thy possession. Thou shalt break them with a rod of iron; thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel.
10 Be wise now therefore, O ye kings: be instructed, ye judges of 11 the earth. Serve the LORD with fear, and rejoice with trem-12 bling. Kiss the Son, lest he be angry, and ye perish from the way, when his wrath is kindled but a little. Blessed are all they that put their trust in him.
- 3 A Psalm of David, when he fled from Absalom his son. LORD, how are they multiplied that trouble me? many are they that 2 rise up against me. Many there are who say of my soul, There 3 is no help for him in God. Selah. But thou, O LORD, art a 4 shield for me; my glory, and the lifter up of my head. I cried to the LORD with my voice, and he heard me from his holy hill. Selah. I laid me down and slept; I awaked; for the LORD 5 sustained me. I will not be afraid of ten thousands of peo- 6 ple, that have set themselves against me on all sides. Arise, 7 O LORD; save me, O my God: for thou hast smitten all my enemies upon the cheek bone; thou hast broken the teeth of the ungodly. Salvation belongeth to the LORD: thy blessing is 8 upon thy people. Selah.

To the chief Musician on Neginoth, A Psalm of David. Hear 4 me when I call, O God of my righteousness: thou hast enlarged me when I was in distress; have mercy upon me, and hear my prayer. O ye sons of men, how long will ye turn my glory 2 into shame? how long will ye love vanity, and seek after falsehood? Selah. But know that the LORD hath set apart him 3 that is godly for himself: the LORD will hear when I call to him. Stand in awe, and sin not: commune with your own 4 heart upon your bed, and be still. Selah. Offer the sacrifices 5 of righteousness, and put your trust in the LORD. There are 6 many that say, Who will show us any good? LORD, lift thou upon us the light of thy countenance. Thou hast put gladness 7 in my heart, more than in the time when their corn and their wine increased. I will both lay me down in peace, and sleep; 8 for thou only, LORD, makest me dwell in safety.

To the chief Musician upon Nehiloth, A Psalm of David. 5 Give ear to my words, O LORD, consider my meditation. Hear- 2 ken to the voice of my cry, my King, and my God: for to thee will I pray. My voice shalt thou hear in the morning, O LORD; 3 in the morning will I direct my prayer to thee, and will look up. For thou art not a God that hath pleasure in wickedness: 4 neither shall evil dwell with thee. The foolish shall not stand 5 in thy sight: thou hatest all workers of iniquity. Thou shalt 6 destroy them that speak falsehood: the LORD will abhor the bloody and deceitful man. But as for me, I will come into thy 7 house in the multitude of thy mercy: and in thy fear will I worship towards thy holy temple. Lead me, O LORD, in thy 8 righteousness, because of my enemies; make thy way straight before my face. For there is no faithfulness in their mouth; 9 their inward part is very wickedness; their throat is an open sepulcher; they flatter with their tongue. Destroy thou them, 10 O God; let them fall by their own counsels; cast them out in the multitude of their transgressions; for they have rebelled 11 against thee. But let all those that put their trust in thee re-joyce: let them ever shout for joy, because thou defendest them: 12 let them also that love thy name be joyful in thee. For thou, LORD, wilt bless the righteous; with favor wilt thou compass him as with a shield.

6 To the chief Musician on Neginoth upon Sheminith, A Psalm of David. O LORD, rebuke me not in thy anger, neither chasten 2 me in thy hot displeasure. Have mercy upon me, O LORD; for 3 I am weak: O LORD, heal me; for my bones are agitated. My soul is also greatly disquieted: but thou, O LORD, how long?
4 Return, O LORD, deliver my soul: Oh save me for thy mer-5 cies sake. For in death there is no remembrance of thee: in 6 the grave who will give thee thanks? I am weary with my groaning; all the night I make my bed to swim; I water my 7 couch with my tears. My eye is consumed because of grief; it 8 groweth old because of all my enemies. Depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity; for the LORD hath heard the voice of my 9 weeping. The LORD hath heard my supplication; the LORD 10 will receive my prayer. Let all my enemies be ashamed and greatly disquieted: let them return and be suddenly ashamed.

7 Shiggaion of David, which he sang to the LORD, concerning the words of Cush the Benjaminite. O LORD my God, in thee do I put my trust: save me from all them that persecute 2 me, and deliver me: Lest he tear my soul like a lion, rend-3 ing it in pieces, while there is none to deliver. O LORD my 4 God, if I have done this; if there is iniquity in my hands; If I have rewarded evil to him that was at peace with me; (yes, 5 I have delivered him that without cause is my enemy:) Let the enemy persecute my soul, and take it; yes, let him tread down my life upon the earth, and lay my honor in the dust.
6 Selah. Arise, O LORD, in thy anger, lift up thyself because of the rage of my enemies: and awake for me to the judgment 7 that thou hast commanded. So shall the congregation of the people encompass thee: for their sakes therefore return thou 8 on high. The LORD shall judge the people: judge me, O LORD, according to my righteousness, and according to my integrity 9 that is in me. Oh let the wickedness of the wicked come to an end; but establish the just: for the righteous God trieth the 10 hearts and reins. My defense is from God, who saveth the up-11 right in heart. God judgeth the righteous, and God is angry with the wicked every day. If he turn not, he will whet his sword; he hath bent his bow, and made it ready. He hath also prepared for him the instruments of death; he ordaineth his arrows against the persecutors. Behold, he travaileth with iniquity, and hath conceived mischief, and brought forth falsehood. He made a pit, and digged it, and hath fallen into the ditch which he made. His mischief shall return upon his own head, and his violent dealing shall come down upon his own pate. I will praise the LORD according to his righteousness: and will sing praise to the name of the LORD most high.

To the chief Musician upon Gittith, A Psalm of David. O LORD our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth! who hast set thy glory above the heavens. Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings hast thou ordained strength because of thy enemies, that thou mightest still the enemy and the avenger. When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers; the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained; What is man, that thou art mindful of him? and the son of man, that thou visitest him? For thou hast made him a little lower than the angels, and hast crowned him with glory and honor. Thou hast made him to have dominion over the works of thy hands; thou hast put all things under his feet: All sheep and oxen, yes, and the beasts of the field; The fowl of the air, and the fish of the sea, and whatever passeth through the paths of the seas. O LORD our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth!

To the chief Musician upon Muthlabben, A Psalm of David. I will praise thee, O LORD, with my whole heart; I will show forth all thy wonderful works. I will be glad and rejoice in thee: I will sing praise to thy name, O thou most High. When my enemies are turned back, they shall fall and perish at thy presence. For thou hast maintained my right and my cause; thou sittest on the throne judging right. Thou hast rebuked the heathen, thou hast destroyed the wicked, thou hast put out their name for ever and ever. O thou enemy, destructions are come to a perpetual end: and thou hast destroyed cities; their memorial hath perished with them. But the LORD shall endure for ever: he hath prepared his throne for judgment. And he shall judge the world in righteousness, he shall minister judgment to the people in uprightness. The LORD also will be

10 a refuge for the oppressed, a refuge in times of trouble. And they that know thy name will put their trust in thee: for thou, 11 LORD, hast not forsaken them that seek thee. Sing praises to the LORD, who dwelleth in Zion: declare among the people 12 his doings. When he maketh inquisition for blood, he remembereth them: he forgetteth not the cry of the humble. Have 13 mercy upon me, O LORD; consider my trouble which I suffer from them that hate me, thou that liftest me up from the gates 14 of death: That I may show forth all thy praise in the gates 15 of the daughter of Zion: I will rejoice in thy salvation. The heathen are sunk down in the pit that they made: in the net 16 which they hid is their own foot taken. The LORD is known by the judgment which he executeth: the wicked is snared in the 17 work of his own hands. Higgaion. Selah. The wicked shall 18 be turned into hell, and all the nations that forget God. For the needy shall not always be forgotten: the expectation of the 19 poor shall not perish for ever. Arise, O LORD; let not man pre-20 vail: let the heathen be judged in thy sight. Put them in fear, O LORD: that the nations may know themselves to be but men.
Selah.

10 Why standest thou afar off, O LORD? why hidest thou thy-2 self in times of trouble? The wicked in his pride doth persecute the poor: let them be taken in the devices that they 3 have imagined. For the wicked boasteth of his heart's desire, 4 and blesseth the covetous, whom the LORD abhorreth. The wicked, through the pride of his countenance, will not seek 5 after God: God is not in all his thoughts. His ways are always grievous; thy judgments are far above out of his sight: 6 as for all his enemies, he puffeth at them. He hath said in his heart, I shall not be moved: for I shall never be in adver-7 sity. His mouth is full of cursing and deceit and fraud: under 8 his tongue is mischief and vanity. He sitteth in the lurking places of the villages: in the secret places doth he murder the 9 innocent: his eyes are privily set against the poor. He lieth in wait secretly as a lion in his den: he lieth in wait to catch the poor: he doth catch the poor, when he draweth him into his net.
10 He croucheth, and humbleth himself, that the poor may fall by 11 his strong ones. He hath said in his heart, God hath forgot-12 ten: he hideth his face; he will never see it. Arise, O LORD; 13 O God, lift up thy hand: forget not the humble. Why doth the wicked contemn God? he hath said in his heart, Thou wilt not require it. Thou hast seen it; for thou beholdest mischief and spite, to requite it with thy hand: the poor committeth himself to thee; thou art the helper of the fatherless. Break thou the arm of the wicked and the evil man: seek out his wickedness till thou shalt find none. The LORD is King for ever and ever: the heathen have perished out of his land. LORD, thou hast heard the desire of the humble: thou wilt prepare their heart, thou wilt cause thy ear to hear: To judge the fatherless and the oppressed, that the man of the earth may no more oppress.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David. In the LORD I put my trust: how say ye to my soul, Flee as a bird to your mountain? For lo, the wicked bend their bow, they make ready their arrow upon the string, that they may privily shoot at the upright in heart. If the foundations be destroyed, what can the righteous do? The LORD is in his holy temple, the LORD'S throne is in heaven: his eyes behold, his eyelids try the children of men. The LORD trieth the righteous: but the wicked and him that loveth violence his soul hateth. Upon the wicked he shall rain snares, fire and brimstone, and a horrible tempest: this shall be the portion of their cup. For the righteous LORD loveth righteousness; his countenance beholdeth the upright.

To the chief Musician upon Sheminith. A Psalm of David. Help, LORD; for the godly man ceaseth; for the faithful fail from among the children of men. They speak vanity every one with his neighbor: with flattering lips and with a double heart do they speak. The LORD shall cut off all flattering lips, and the tongue that speaketh proud things: Who have said, With our tongue will we prevail; our lips are our own: who is lord over us? For the oppression of the poor, for the sighing of the needy, now will I arise, saith the LORD; I will set him in safety from him that puffeth at him. The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times. Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever. The wicked walk on every side, when the vilest men are exalted.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David. How long wilt thou forget me, O LORD? for ever? how long wilt thou hide thy face from me? How long shall I take counsel in my soul, having

- sorrow in my heart daily? how long shall my enemy be exalted 3 over me? Consider and hear me, O LORD my God: lighten my 4 eyes, lest I sleep the sleep of death; Lest my enemy say, I have prevailed against him; and those that trouble me rejoice when 5 I am moved. But I have trusted in thy mercy; my heart shall 6 rejoice in thy salvation. I will sing to the LORD, because he hath dealt bountifully with me.
- 14 To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David. The fool hath said in his heart, There is no God. They are corrupt, they have done 2 abominable works, there is none that doeth good. The LORD looked down from heaven upon the children of men, to see if 3 there were any that did understand, and seek God. They are all gone aside, they are all together become filthy: there is none 4 that doeth good, no, not one. Have all the workers of iniquity no knowledge? who eat up my people as they eat bread, and 5 call not upon the LORD. There were they in great fear: for 6 God is in the generation of the righteous. Ye have shamed the 7 counsel of the poor, because the LORD is his refuge. Oh that the salvation of Israel were come out of Zion! when the LORD bringeth back the captivity of his people, Jacob shall rejoice, and Israel shall be glad.
- 15 A Psalm of David. LORD, who shall abide in thy taberna-2 cle? who shall dwell in thy holy hill? He that walketh up-rightly, and worketh righteousness, and speaketh the truth in 3 his heart. He that backbiteth not with his tongue, nor doeth evil to his neighbor, nor taketh up a reproach against his neigh-4 bor. In whose eyes a vile person is contemned; but he honoreth them that fear the LORD. He that sweareth to his own hurt, 5 and changeth not. He that putteth not out his money to usury, nor taketh reward against the innocent. He that doeth these things shall never be moved.
- 16 Michtam of David. Preserve me, O God: for in thee do I 2 put my trust. O my soul, thou hast said to the LORD, Thou 3 art my LORD: my goodness extendeth not to thee; But to the saints that are in the earth, and to the excellent, in whom is 4 all my delight. Their sorrows shall be multiplied that hasten after another god: their drink-offerings of blood will I not offer, 5 nor take their names into my lips. The LORD is the portion of my inheritance and of my cup: thou maintainest my lot.
6 The lines have fallen to me in pleasant places; yes, I have a goodly heritage. I will bless the LORD, who hath given me 7 counsel: my reins also instruct me in the night season. I have 8 set the LORD always before me: because he is at my right hand, I shall not be moved. Therefore my heart is glad, and my glory 9 rejoiceth: my flesh also shall rest in hope. For thou wilt not 10 leave my soul in hell; neither wilt thou suffer thy Holy One to see corruption. Thou wilt show me the path of life: in thy 11 presence is fullness of joy; at thy right hand are pleasures for evermore.

A Prayer of David. Hear the right, O LORD, attend to my 17 cry, give ear to my prayer, that goeth not out of feigned lips.
 Let my sentence come forth from thy presence; let thy eyes be- 2 hold the things that are equal. Thou hast proved my heart; 3 thou hast visited me in the night; thou hast tried me, and shalt find nothing; I have purposed that my mouth shall not transgress. Concerning the works of men, by the word of thy 4 lips I have kept me from the paths of the destroyer. Uphold my 5 goings in thy paths, that my footsteps slip not. I have called 6 upon thee, for thou wilt hear me, O God: incline thy ear to me, and hear my speech. Show thy wonderful loving-kindness, O 7 thou that savest by thy right hand them who put their trust in thee from those that rise up against them. Keep me as the 8 apple of the eye, hide me under the shade of thy wings. From 9 the wicked that oppress me, from my deadly enemies, who encompass me, They are inclosed in their own fat: with their 10 mouth they speak proudly. They have now compassed us in 11 our steps: they have set their eyes bowing down to the earth; Like as a lion that is greedy of his prey, and as it were a young 12 lion lurking in secret places. Arise, O LORD disappoint him, 13 cast him down: deliver my soul from the wicked, who is thy sword: From men who are thy hand, O LORD, from men of 14 the world, who have their portion in this life, and whose belly thou fillest with thy hid treasure: they are full of children, and leave the rest of their substance to their babes. As for me, 15 I shall behold thy face in righteousness: I shall be satisfied, when I awake, with thy likeness.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David, the servant of the 18 LORD, who spoke to the LORD the words of this song in the day that the LORD delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul: And he said, I will love thee, O

2 LORD, my strength. The LORD is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer; my God, my strength, in whom I will trust; my buckler, and the horn of my salvation, and my high tower.
3 I will call upon the LORD, who is worthy to be praised: so shall 4 I be saved from my enemies. The sorrows of death compassed 5 me, and the floods of ungodly men made me afraid. The sorrows of hell encompassed me: the snares of death seized me.
6 In my distress I called upon the LORD, and cried to my God: he heard my voice out of his temple, and my cry came before him, 7 even into his ears. Then the earth shook and trembled; the foundations also of the hills moved and were shaken, because 8 he was wroth. There went up a smoke out of his nostrils, and 9 fire out of his mouth devoured: coals were kindled by it. He bowed the heavens also, and came down: and darkness was 10 under his feet. And he rode upon a cherub, and flew; yes, he 11 flew upon the wings of the wind. He made darkness his secret place; his pavilion around him were dark waters and thick 12 clouds of the skies. At the brightness that was before him his 13 thick clouds passed, hail stones and coals of fire. The LORD also thundered in the heavens, and the Highest gave his voice; 14 hail stones and coals of fire. Yes, he sent out his arrows, and scattered them; and he shot out lightnings, and discomfited 15 them. Then the channels of waters were seen, and the foundations of the world were uncovered at thy rebuke, O LORD, 16 at the blast of the breath of thy nostrils. He sent from above, 17 he took me, he drew me out of many waters. He delivered me from my strong enemy, and from them who hated me: for they 18 were too strong for me. They attacked me in the day of my 19 calamity: but the LORD was my stay. He brought me forth also in a large place; he delivered me, because he delighted 20 in me. The LORD rewarded me according to my righteousness; according to the cleanness of my hands hath he recom-21 pensed me. For I have kept the ways of the LORD, and have 22 not wickedly departed from my God. For all his judgments were before me, and I did not put away his statutes from me.
23 I was also upright before him, and I kept myself from my iniq-24 uity. Therefore hath the LORD recompensed me according to my righteousness, according to the cleanness of my hands in 25 his sight. With the merciful thou wilt show thyself merciful; 26 with an upright man thou wilt show thyself upright; With the pure thou wilt show thyself pure; and with the froward thou wilt contend. For thou wilt save the afflicted people; but 27 wilt bring down high looks. For thou wilt light my candle: 28 the LORD my God will enlighten my darkness. For by thee I 29 have run through a troop; and by my God have I leaped over a wall. As for God, his way is perfect: the word of the LORD is 30 tried: he is a buckler to all those that trust in him. For who 31 is God save the LORD? or who is a rock save our God? It is 32 God that girdeth me with strength, and maketh my way per- 33 fect. He maketh my feet like hinds' feet, and setteth me upon 34 my high places. He teacheth my hands to war, so that a bow 35 of steel is broken by my arms. Thou hast also given me the shield of thy salvation: and thy right hand hath held me up and thy gentleness hath made me great. Thou hast enlarged 36 my steps under me, that my feet did not slip. I have pursued 37 my enemies, and overtaken them: neither did I turn again till they were consumed. I have wounded them that they were 38 not able to rise: they have fallen under my feet. For thou 39 hast girded me with strength to battle: thou hast subdued under me those that rose up against me. Thou hast also given 40 me the necks of my enemies; that I might destroy them that hate me. They cried, but there was none to save them: even 41 to the LORD, but he answered them not. Then I beat them 42 small as the dust before the wind: I cast them out as the dirt in the streets. Thou hast delivered me from the strivings of 43 the people; and thou hast made me the head of the heathen: a people whom I have not known shall serve me. As soon as 44 they hear of me, they shall obey me: the strangers shall submit themselves to me. The strangers shall fade away, and be 45 afraid from their close places. The LORD liveth; and blessed 46 be my rock; and let the God of my salvation be exalted. It 47 is God that avengeth me, and subdueth the people under me.

 He delivereth me from my enemies: yes, thou liftest me up 48 above those that rise up against me: thou hast delivered me from the violent man. Therefore will I give thanks to thee, O 49 LORD, among the heathen, and sing praises to thy name. He 50 giveth great deliverance to his king; and showeth mercy to his anointed, to David, and to his seed for ever.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David. The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament showeth the work 19

2 of his hands. Day to day uttereth speech, and night to night 3 showeth knowledge. There is no speech nor language, where 4 their voice is not heard. Their line hath gone out through all the earth, and their words to the end of the world. In them 5 hath he set a tabernacle for the sun, Which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber, and rejoiceth as a strong man to 6 run a race. His going forth is from the end of the heaven, and his circuit to the ends of it: and there is nothing hid from his 7 heat. The law of the LORD is perfect, converting the soul: the 8 testimony of the LORD is sure, making wise the simple. The statutes of the LORD are right, rejoicing the heart: the com-9 mandment of the LORD is pure, enlightening the eyes. The fear of the LORD is clean, enduring for ever: the judgments of 10 the LORD are true and righteous altogether. More to be desired are they than gold, yes, than much fine gold: sweeter also 11 than honey and the honey-comb. Moreover, by them is thy servant warned: and in keeping of them there is great reward.
12 Who can understand his errors? cleanse thou me from secret 13 faults. Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins; let them not have dominion over me: then shall I be upright, 14 and I shall be innocent from the great transgression. Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, O LORD, my strength, and my redeemer.

20 To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David. The LORD hear thee in the day of trouble; the name of the God of Jacob de-2 fend thee. Send thee help from the sanctuary, and strengthen 3 thee out of Zion. Remember all thy offerings, and accept thy 4 burnt-sacrifice. Selah. Grant thee according to thy own heart, 5 and fulfill all thy counsel. We will rejoice in thy salvation, and in the name of our God we will set up our banners: the LORD 6 fulfill all thy petitions. Now I know that the LORD saveth his anointed; he will hear him from his holy heaven with the 7 saving strength of his right hand. Some trust in chariots, and some in horses: but we will remember the name of the 8 LORD our God. They are brought down and fallen: but we are 9 raised, and stand upright. Save, LORD: let the king hear us when we call.

21 To the chief Musician, a Psalm of David. The king shall joy in thy strength, O LORD; and in thy salvation how greatly shall 2 he rejoice! Thou hast given him his heart's desire, and hast not withheld the request of his lips. Selah. For thou hast met 3 him with the blessings of goodness: thou hast set a crown of 4 pure gold on his head. He asked life of thee, and thou gavest 4 it to him, even length of days for ever and ever. His glory is 5 great in thy salvation: honor and majesty hast thou laid upon 6 him. For thou hast made him most blessed for ever: thou 6 hast made him exceeding glad with thy countenance. For the 7 king trusteth in the LORD, and through the mercy of the most 7 High he shall not be moved. Thy hand shall find out all thy 8 enemies: thy right hand shall find out those that hate thee. 8 Thou shalt make them as a fiery oven in the time of thy anger: 9 the LORD shall swallow them up in his wrath, and the fire 9 shall devour them. Their fruit shalt thou destroy from the 10 earth, and their seed from among the children of men. For 11 they intended evil against thee: they imagined a mischievous 11 device, which they are not able to perform. Therefore shalt 12 thou make them turn their back, when thou shalt make ready 12 thy arrows upon thy strings against the face of them. Be thou 13 exalted, LORD, in thy own strength: so will we sing and praise 13 thy power.

To the chief Musician upon Ajeleth Shahar, A Psalm of 22 David. My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? why art thou so far from helping me, and from the words of my roaring?
 O my God, I cry in the day-time, but thou hearest not; and in 2 the night season, and am not silent. But thou art holy, O thou 3 that inhabitest the praises of Israel. Our fathers trusted in 4 thee: they trusted, and thou didst deliver them. They cried 5 to thee, and were delivered: they trusted in thee, and were not 5 confounded. But I am a worm, and no man; a reproach of men, 6 and despised by the people. All they that see me deride me: 7 they shoot out the lip, they shake the head, saying, He trusted 8 on the LORD that he would deliver him: let him deliver him, 8 seeing he delighted in him. But thou art he that brought me 9 forth into life: thou didst make me hope when I was upon my 9 mother's breasts. I was cast upon thee from my birth: thou 10 art my God from the time I was born. Be not far from me; 11 for trouble is near; for there is none to help. Many bulls have 12 compassed me: strong bulls of Bashan have beset me round. 12 They gaped upon me with their mouths, as a ravening and a 13 roaring lion. I am poured out like water, and all my bones are 14 out of joint: my heart is like wax; it is melted in the midst of 15 my bowels. My strength is dried up like a potsherd; and my tongue cleaveth to my jaws; and thou hast brought me into the 16 dust of death. For dogs have compassed me: the assembly of the wicked have inclosed me: they pierced my hands and my 17 feet. I may number all my bones: they look and stare upon 18 me. They part my garments among them, and cast lots upon 19 my vesture. But be not thou far from me, O LORD: O my 20 strength, haste thee to help me. Deliver my soul from the 21 sword; my darling from the power of the dog. Save me from the lion's mouth: for thou hast heard me from the horns of the 22 unicorns. I will declare thy name to my brethren: in the midst 23 of the congregation will I praise thee. Ye that fear the LORD, praise him; all ye the seed of Jacob, glorify him; and fear him, 24 all ye the seed of Israel. For he hath not despised nor abhorred the affliction of the afflicted; neither hath he hid his face from 25 him; but when he cried to him, he heard. My praise shall be of thee in the great congregation: I will pay my vows before 26 them that fear him. The meek shall eat and be satisfied: they shall praise the LORD that seek him: your heart shall live for 27 ever. All the ends of the world shall remember and turn to the LORD: and all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before 28 thee. For the kingdom is the LORD'S: and he is the governor 29 among the nations. All they that are fat upon earth shall eat and worship: all they that go down to the dust shall bow before 30 him: and none can keep alive his own soul. A seed shall serve 31 him; it shall be accounted to the LORD for a generation. They shall come, and shall declare his righteousness to a people that shall be born, that he hath done this.

23 A Psalm of David. The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not 2 want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he lead-3 eth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he lead-4 eth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yes, though I walk through the valley of the shades of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they 5 comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of my enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup run-6 neth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

A Psalm of David. The earth is the LORD'S, and the fullness 24 thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein. For he hath 2 founded it upon the seas, and established it upon the floods.
 Who shall ascend upon the hill of the LORD? and who shall 3 stand in his holy place? He that hath clean hands, and a pure 4 heart; who hath not lifted up his soul to vanity, nor sworn de-ceitfully. He shall receive the blessing from the LORD, and 5 righteousness from the God of his salvation. This is the gen- 6 eration of them that seek him, that seek thy face, O Jacob.
 Selah. Lift up your heads, O ye gates; and be ye lifted up, ye 7 everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in. Who 8 is this King of glory? the LORD strong and mighty, the LORD mighty in battle. Lift up your heads, O ye gates; even lift them 9 up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in.
 Who is this King of glory? the LORD of hosts, he is the King of 10 glory. Selah.

A Psalm of David. To thee, O LORD, do I lift up my soul. 25 O my God, I trust in thee: let me not be ashamed, let not my 2 enemies triumph over me, Also, let none that wait on thee be 3 ashamed: let them be ashamed who transgress without cause.
 Show me thy ways, O LORD; teach me thy paths. Lead me in 4, 5 thy truth, and teach me: for thou art the God of my salvation; on thee do I wait all the day. Remember, O LORD, thy tender 6 mercies and thy loving kindnesses; for they have been ever of old. Remember not the sins of my youth, nor my transgres- 7 sions: according to thy mercy remember thou me for thy goodness' sake, O LORD. Good and upright is the LORD: therefore 8 will he teach sinners in the way. The meek will he guide in 9 judgment: and the meek will he teach his way. All the paths 10 of the LORD are mercy and truth to such as keep his covenant and his testimonies. For thy name's sake, O LORD, pardon 11 my iniquity; for it is great. What man is he that feareth the 12 LORD? him shall he teach in the way that he shall choose. His 13 soul shall dwell at ease; and his seed shall inherit the earth.
 The secret of the LORD is with them that fear him; and he 14 will show them his covenant. My eyes are ever towards the 15 LORD; for he will pluck my feet out of the net. Turn thee to 16 me, and have mercy upon me; for I am desolate and afflicted.
 The troubles of my heart are enlarged: O bring thou me out 17 of my distresses. Look upon my affliction and my pain; and 18 19 forgive all my sins. Consider my enemies, for they are many; 20 and they hate me with cruel hatred. O keep my soul, and deliver me: let me not be ashamed; for I put my trust in thee.

21 Let integrity and uprightness preserve me; for I wait on thee.
22 Redeem Israel, O God, out of all his troubles.

26 A Psalms of David. Judge me, O LORD; for I have walked in my integrity: I have trusted also in the LORD; therefore 2 I shall not slide. Examine me, O LORD, and prove me; try 3 my reins and my heart. For thy loving-kindness is before my 4 eyes: and I have walked in thy truth. I have not sat with 5 vain persons, neither will I go in with dissemblers. I have hated the congregation of evil doers; and will not sit with the 6 wicked. I will wash my hands in innocence: so will I compass thy altar, O LORD: That I may publish with the voice 7 of thanksgiving, and tell of all thy wondrous works. LORD, I have loved the habitation of thy house, and the place where thy 8 honor dwelleth. Gather not my soul with sinners, nor my life 9 with bloody men: In whose hands is mischief, and their right 10 hand is full of bribes. But as for me, I will walk in my integrity: redeem me, and be merciful to me. My foot standeth in an even place: in the congregations will I bless the LORD.

27 A Psalms of David. The LORD is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? the LORD is the strength of my life; of 2 whom shall I be afraid? When the wicked, even my enemies and my foes, came upon me to eat up my flesh, they stumbled 3 and fell. Though a host should encamp against me, my heart shall not fear: though war should rise against me, in this will 4 I be confident. One thing have I desired of the LORD, that will I seek after; that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the LORD, and 5 to inquire in his temple. For in the time of trouble he will hide me in his pavilion: in the secret of his tabernacle will he 6 hide me; he will set me up upon a rock. And now shall my head be lifted above my enemies around me: therefore will I offer in his tabernacle sacrifices of joy; I will sing, yes, I will 7 sing praises to the LORD. Hear, O LORD, when I cry with my 8 voice: have mercy also upon me, and answer me. When thou saidst, Seek ye my face; my heart said to thee, Thy face, LORD, 9 will I seek. Hide not thy face from me; put not thy servant away in anger: thou hast been my help; leave me not, neither forsake me, O God of my salvation. When my father and my mother forsake me, then the LORD will take me up. Teach me thy way, O LORD, and lead me in a plain path, because of my enemies. Deliver me not over to the will of my enemies: for false witnesses have risen against me, and such as breathe out cruelty. I had fainted, unless I had believed to see the goodness of the LORD in the land of the living. Wait on the LORD: be of good courage, and he will strengthen thy heart: wait, I say, on the LORD.

A Psalm of David. To thee will I cry, O LORD my rock; 28 be not silent to me: lest, if thou shouldst be silent to me, I should become like them that go down into the pit. Hear the voice of my supplications, when I cry to thee, when I lift my hands towards thy holy oracle. Draw me not away with the wicked, and with the workers of iniquity, who speak peace to their neighbors, but mischief is in their hearts. Give them according to their deeds, and according to the wickedness of their endeavors: give them after the work of their hands; render to them their desert. Because they regard not the works of the LORD, nor the operation of his hands, he will destroy them, and not build them up. Blessed be the LORD, because he hath heard the voice of my supplications. The LORD is my strength, and my shield; my heart trusted in him, and I am helped: therefore my heart greatly rejoiceth; and with my song will I praise him. The LORD is their strength, and he is the saving strength of his anointed. Save thy people, and bless thy inheritance: feed them also, and lift them up for ever.

A Psalm of David. Give to the LORD, O ye mighty, give to the LORD glory and strength. Give to the LORD, the glory due to his name; worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness. The voice of the LORD is upon the waters: the God of glory thundereth: the LORD is upon many waters. The voice of the LORD is powerful; the voice of the LORD is full of majesty. The voice of the LORD breaketh the cedars; yes, the LORD breaketh the cedars of Lebanon. He maketh them also to skip like a calf; Lebanon and Sirion like a young unicorn. The voice of the LORD divideth the flames of fire. The voice of the LORD shaketh the wilderness; the LORD shaketh the wilderness of Kadesh. The voice of the LORD maketh the hinds to calve, and maketh bare the forests: and in his temple doth every one 29

10 speak of his glory. The LORD sitteth upon the flood; yes, the 11 LORD sitteth king for ever. The LORD will give strength to his people; the LORD will bless his people with peace.

30 A Psalm and Song, at the dedication of the house of David. I will extol thee, O LORD; for thou hast lifted me up, and hast not 2 made my foes to rejoice over me. O LORD my God, I cried to 3 thee, and thou hast healed me. O LORD, thou hast brought up my soul from the grave: thou hast kept me alive, that I should 4 not go down to the pit. Sing to the LORD, O ye saints of his, 5 and give thanks at the remembrance of his holiness. For his anger endureth but a moment; in his favor is life: weeping may 6 endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning. And in my 7 prosperity I said, I shall never be moved. LORD, by thy favor thou hast made my mountain to stand strong: thou didst hide 8 thy face, and I was troubled. I cried to thee, O LORD; and 9 to the LORD I made supplication. What profit is there in my blood, when I go down to the pit? Shall the dust praise thee?
10 shall it declare thy truth? Hear, O LORD, and have mercy 11 upon me: LORD, be thou my helper. Thou hast turned for me my mourning into dancing: thou hast put off my sackcloth, and 12 girded me with gladness; To the end that my glory may sing praise to thee, and not be silent. O LORD my God, I will give thanks to thee for ever.

31 To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David. In thee, O LORD, do I put my trust; let me never be ashamed: deliver me in thy 2 righteousness. Bow down thy ear to me; deliver me speedily: 3 be thou my strong rock, for a house of defense to save me. For thou art my rock and my fortress; therefore for thy name's sake 4 lead me, and guide me. Pull me out of the net that they have 5 laid privily for me: for thou art my strength. Into thy hand I commit my spirit: thou hast redeemed me, O LORD God of 6 truth. I have hated them that regard lying vanities: but I 7 trust in the LORD. I will be glad and rejoice in thy mercy: for thou hast considered my trouble; thou hast known my soul 8 in adversities; And hast not shut me up into the hand of the 9 enemy: thou hast set my foot in a large room. Have mercy upon me, O LORD, for I am in trouble: my eye is consumed 10 with grief, yes, my soul and my belly. For my life is spent with grief, and my years with sighing: my strength faileth because 11 of my iniquity, and my bones are consumed. I was a reproach among all my enemies, but especially among my neighbors, and a fear to my acquaintance: they that saw me without fled from me. I am forgotten as a dead man out of mind: I am like 12 a broken vessel. For I have heard the slander of many: fear 13 was on every side: while they took counsel together against me, they devised to take away my life. But I trusted in thee, 14 O LORD: I said, Thou art my God. My times are in thy hand: 15 deliver me from the hand of my enemies, and from them that persecute me. Make thy face to shine upon thy servant: save 16 me for thy mercies' sake. Let me not be ashamed, O LORD; 17 for I have called upon thee: let the wicked be ashamed, and let them be silent in the grave. Let the lying lips be put to 18 silence; which speak grievous things proudly and contemptuously against the righteous. Oh how great is thy goodness, 19 which thou hast laid up for them that fear thee; which thou hast wrought for them that trust in thee before the sons of men! Thou shalt hide them in the secret of thy presence from 20 the pride of man: thou shalt keep them secretly in a pavilion from the strife of tongues. Blessed be the LORD: for he hath 21 showed me his wonderful kindness in a strong city. For I said 22 in my haste, I am cut off from before thy eyes: nevertheless thou heardest the voice of my supplications when I cried to thee. O love the LORD, all ye his saints: for the LORD pre- 23 serveth the faithful, and plentifully rewardeth the proud doer.

 Be of good courage, and he will strengthen your heart, all ye 24 that hope in the LORD.

A Psalm of David, Maschil. Blessed is he whose transgression 32 is forgiven, whose sin is covered. Blessed is the man 2 to whom the LORD imputeth not iniquity, and in whose spirit there is no guile. When I kept silence, my bones became 3 old through my roaring all the day long. For day and night 4 thy hand was heavy upon me: my moisture is turned into the drouth of summer. Selah. I acknowledged my sin to thee, and 5 my iniquity have I not hid. I said, I will confess my transgressions to the LORD; and thou forgavest the iniquity of my sin.
 Selah. For this shall every one that is godly pray to thee in a 6 time when thou mayest be found: surely in the floods of great waters they shall not come nigh to him. Thou art my hiding 7 place; thou wilt preserve me from trouble; thou wilt compass me about with songs of deliverance. Selah. I will instruct 8 thee, and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go: I will 9 guide thee with my eye. Be ye not as the horse, or as the mule, which have no understanding: whose mouth must be held in 10 with bit and bridle, lest they come near to thee. Many sorrows shall be to the wicked: but he that trusteth in the LORD, 11 mercy shall encompass him. Be glad in the LORD, and rejoice, ye righteous: and shout for joy, all ye that are upright in heart.

33 Rejoice in the LORD, O ye righteous: for praise is comely 2 for the upright. Praise the LORD with harp: sing to him with 3 the psaltery and an instrument of ten strings. Sing to him a 4 new song; play skillfully with a loud noise. For the word of 5 the LORD is right; and all his works are done in truth. He loveth righteousness and judgment: the earth is full of the 6 goodness of the LORD. By the word of the LORD were the heavens made; and all the host of them by the breath of his 7 mouth. He gathereth the waters of the sea together as a heap: 8 he layeth up the depth in store-houses. Let all the earth fear the LORD: let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe 9 of him. For he spoke, and it was done; he commanded, and 10 it stood fast. The LORD bringeth the counsel of the heathen to naught: he maketh the devices of the people of no effect.
11 The counsel of the LORD standeth for ever, the thoughts of his 12 heart to all generations. Blessed is the nation whose God is the LORD; and the people whom he hath chosen for his own 13 inheritance. The LORD looketh from heaven; he beholdeth all 14 the sons of men. From the place of his habitation he looketh 15 upon all the inhabitants of the earth. He fashioneth their 16 hearts alike; he considereth all their works. There is no king saved by the multitude of a host: a mighty man is not delivered 17 by much strength. A horse is a vain thing for safety: neither 18 shall he deliver any by his great strength. Behold, the eye of the LORD is upon them that fear him, upon them that hope in 19 his mercy; To deliver their soul from death, and to keep them 20 alive in famine. Our soul waiteth for the LORD: he is our help 21 and our shield. For our heart shall rejoice in him, because we 22 have trusted in his holy name. Let thy mercy, O LORD, be upon us, according as we hope in thee.

34 A Psalm of David, when he changed his behavior before Abimelech; who drove him away, and he departed. I will bless the LORD at all times: his praise shall continually be in my mouth. My soul shall make her boast in the LORD: the humble shall hear of it and be glad. O magnify the LORD with me, and let us exalt his name together. I sought the LORD, and he heard me, and delivered me from all my fears. They looked to him, and were lightened: and their faces were not ashamed. This poor man cried, and the LORD heard him, and saved him out of all his troubles. The angel of the LORD encampeth around them that fear him, and delivereth them. O taste and see that the LORD is good: blessed is the man that trusteth in him. O fear the LORD, ye his saints: for there is no want to them that fear him. The young lions do lack, and suffer hunger: but they that seek the LORD shall not want any good thing. Come, ye children, hearken to me; I will teach you the fear of the LORD. What man is he that desireth life, and loveth many days, that he may see good? Keep thy tongue from evil, and thy lips from speaking guile. Depart from evil, and do good; seek peace, and pursue it. The eyes of the LORD are upon the righteous, and his ears are open to their cry. The face of the LORD is against them that do evil, to cut off the remembrance of them from the earth. The righteous cry, and the LORD heareth, and delivereth them out of all their troubles. The LORD is nigh to them that are of a broken heart; and saveth such as are of a contrite spirit. Many are the afflictions of the righteous: but the LORD delivereth him out of them all. He keepeth all his bones: not one of them is broken. Evil shall slay the wicked: and they that hate the righteous shall be desolate. The LORD redeemeth the soul of his servants: and none of them that trust in him shall be desolate.

A Psalm of David. Plead my cause, O LORD, with them that strive with me: fight against them that fight against me. Take hold of shield and buckler, and stand up for my help. Draw out also the spear, and stop the way against them that persecute me: say to my soul, I am thy salvation. Let them be confounded and put to shame that seek after my soul: let them be turned back and brought to confusion that devise my hurt. Let them be as chaff before the wind: and let the angel of the LORD chase them. Let their way be dark and slippery: and let the angel of the LORD persecute them. For without cause they have hid for me their net in a pit, which without cause they have digged for my soul. Let destruction come upon him 8 at unawares; and let his net that he hath hid catch himself: 9 into that very destruction let him fall. And my soul shall be 10 joyful in the LORD: it shall rejoice in his salvation. All my bones shall say, LORD, who is like thee, who deliverest the poor from him that is too strong for him, even the poor and 11 the needy from him that spoileth him? False witnesses arose; 12 they laid to my charge things that I knew not. They rewarded 13 me evil for good to the spoiling of my soul. But as for me, when they were sick, my clothing was sackcloth: I humbled my soul 14 with fasting; and my prayer returned into my own bosom. I behaved myself as though he had been my friend or brother: I 15 bowed down heavily, as one that mourneth for his mother. But in my adversity they rejoiced, and assembled themselves: yes, the objects assembled themselves against me, and I knew it 16 not; they did tear me, and ceased not: With hypocritical mock-17 ers in feasts, they gnashed upon me with their teeth. LORD, how long wilt thou look on? rescue my soul from their destruc-18 tions, my darling from the lions. I will give thee thanks in the 19 great congregation: I will praise thee among many people. Let not them that are my enemies wrongfully rejoice over me: nei- ther let them wink with the eye that hate me without a cause.

20 For they speak not peace: but they devise deceitful matters 21 against them that are quiet in the land. Yes, they opened their mouth wide against me, and said, Aha, aha, our eye hath seen 22 it. This thou hast seen, O LORD: keep not silence: O LORD, be 23 not far from me. Stir up thyself, and awake to my judgment, 24 even to my cause, my God and my LORD. Judge me, O LORD my God, according to thy righteousness; and let them not re-25 joice over me. Let them not say in their hearts, Ah, so would 26 we have it: let them not say, We have swallowed him up. Let them be ashamed and brought to confusion together that rejoice at my hurt: let them be clothed with shame and dishonor 27 that magnify themselves against me. Let them shout for joy, and be glad, that favor my righteous cause: yes, let them say continually, Let the LORD be magnified, who hath pleasure in 28 the prosperity of his servant. And my tongue shall speak of thy righteousness and of thy praise all the day long.

36 To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David the servant of the LORD. The transgression of the wicked saith within my heart, 2 that there is no fear of God before his eyes. For he flattereth himself in his own eyes, until his iniquity is found to be hateful. The words of his mouth are iniquity and deceit: he hath 3 ceased to be wise, and to do good. He deviseth mischief upon 4 his bed; he setteth himself in a way that is not good; he abhorreth not evil. Thy mercy, O LORD, is in the heavens; and thy 5 faithfulness reacheth to the clouds. Thy righteousness is like 6 the great mountains; thy judgments are a great deep: O LORD, thou preservest man and beast. How excellent is thy loving- 7 kindness, O God! therefore the children of men put their trust under the shadow of thy wings. They shall be abundantly 8 satisfied with the fatness of thy house; and thou shalt make them drink of the river of thy pleasures. For with thee is the 9 fountain of life: in thy light shall we see light. O continue thy 10 loving-kindness to them that know thee; and thy righteousness to the upright in heart. Let not the foot of pride come against 11 me, and let not the hand of the wicked remove me. There are 12 the workers of iniquity fallen: they are cast down, and shall not be able to rise.

A Psalm of David. Fret not thyself because of evil doers, nei- 37 ther be thou envious against the workers of iniquity. For they 2 shall soon be cut down like the grass, and wither as the green herb. Trust in the LORD, and do good; so shalt thou dwell in 3 the land, and verily thou shalt be fed. Delight thyself also in 4 the LORD; and he will give thee the desires of thy heart. Com- 5 mit thy way to the LORD; trust also in him; and he will bring it to pass. And he will bring forth thy righteousness as the 6 light, and thy judgment as the noon-day. Rest in the LORD, 7 and wait patiently for him: fret not thyself because of him who prospereth in his way, because of the man who bringeth 8 wicked devices to pass. Cease from anger, and forsake wrath: 8 fret not thyself in any wise to do evil. For evil doers shall be 9 cut off: but those that wait upon the LORD, they shall inherit the earth. For yet a little while, and the wicked shall not be: 10 yes, thou shalt diligently consider his place, and it shall not be. But the meek shall inherit the earth; and shall delight 11 themselves in the abundance of peace. The wicked plotteth 12 against the just, and gnasheth upon him with his teeth. The 13 LORD will laugh at him: for he seeth that his day is coming.
 The wicked have drawn out the sword, and have bent their 14 bow, to cast down the poor and needy, and to slay such as are 15 of upright deportment. Their sword shall enter into their own 16 heart, and their bows shall be broken. A little that a righteous 17 man hath is better than the riches of many wicked. For the arms of the wicked shall be broken: but the LORD upholdeth 18 the righteous. The LORD knoweth the days of the upright: 19 and their inheritance shall be for ever. They shall not be ashamed in the evil time: and in the days of famine they shall 20 be satisfied. But the wicked shall perish, and the enemies of the LORD shall be as the fat of lambs: they shall consume; 21 into smoke shall they consume away. The wicked borroweth, and payeth not again: but the righteous showeth mercy, and 22 giveth. For such as are blessed by him shall inherit the earth; 23 and they that are cursed by him shall be cut off. The steps of a good man are ordered by the LORD: and he delighteth in 24 his way. Though he should fall, he shall not be utterly cast 25 down: for the LORD upholdeth him with his hand. I have been young, and now am old; yet I have not seen the righteous 26 forsaken, nor his seed begging bread. He is ever merciful, and 27 lendeth; and his seed is blessed. Depart from evil, and do 28 good; and dwell for evermore. For the LORD loveth judgment, and forsaketh not his saints; they are preserved for ever: but 29 the seed of the wicked shall be cut off. The righteous shall 30 inherit the land, and dwell therein for ever. The mouth of the righteous speaketh wisdom, and his tongue talketh of judg-31 ment. The law of his God is in his heart; none of his steps 32 shall slide. The wicked watcheth the righteous, and seeketh 33 to slay him. The LORD will not leave him in his hand, nor 34 condemn him when he is judged. Wait on the LORD, and keep his way, and he will exalt thee to inherit the land: when the 35 wicked are cut off, thou shalt see it. I have seen the wicked in 36 great power, and spreading himself like a green bay tree. Yet he passed away, and lo, he was not: yes, I sought him, but he 37 could not be found. Mark the perfect man, and behold the up-38 right: for the end of that man is peace. But the transgressors shall be destroyed together: the end of the wicked shall be cut 39 off. But the salvation of the righteous is of the LORD: he is 40 their strength in the time of trouble. And the LORD will help them, and deliver them: he will deliver them from the wicked, and save them, because they trust in him.

38 A Psalm of David, to bring to remembrance. O LORD, rebuke me not in thy wrath: neither chasten me in thy hot displeasure. For thy arrows stick fast in me, and thy hand falleth 2 heavy upon me. There is no soundness in my flesh because of 3 thy anger; neither is there any rest in my bones because of my sin. For my iniquities have gone over my head: as a heavy 4 burden they are too heavy for me. My wounds are offensive, 5 and are corrupt because of my foolishness. I am troubled; I 6 am bowed down greatly; I go mourning all the day long. For 7 my loins are filled with a loathsome disease: and there is no soundness in my flesh. I am feeble and grievously broken: I 8 have roared by reason of the disquietness of my heart. LORD, 9 all my desire is before thee; and my groaning is not hid from thee. My heart panteth, my strength faileth me: as for the 10 light of my eyes, that also is gone from me. My lovers and 11 my friends stand aloof from my affliction; and my kinsmen stand afar off. They also that seek after my life lay snares for 12 me: and they that seek my hurt speak mischievous things, and imagine deceits all the day long. But I, as a deaf man, heard 13 not; and I was as a dumb man that openeth not his mouth.

Thus I was as a man that heareth not, and in whose mouth are 14 no reproofs. For in thee, O LORD, do I hope: thou wilt hear, 15 O LORD my God. For I said, Hear me, lest otherwise they 16 should rejoice over me: when my foot slippeth, they magnify themselves against me. For I am ready to halt, and my sor- 17 row is continually before me. For I will declare my iniquity; I will be sorry for my sin. But my enemies are lively, and they 18 are strong: and they that hate me wrongfully are multiplied.
They also that render evil for good are my adversaries; because 20
I follow the thing that is good. Forsake me not, O LORD: O my 21 God, be not far from me. Make haste to help me, O LORD my 22 salvation.

To the chief Musician, even to Jeduthun, A Psalm of David. 39 I said, I will take heed to my ways, that I sin not with my tongue: I will keep my mouth with a bridle, while the wicked is before me. I was dumb with silence, I held my peace, even 2 from good; and my sorrow was stirred. My heart was hot 3 within me, while I was musing the fire burned: then I spoke with my tongue. LORD, make me to know my end, and the 4 measure of my days, what it is; that I may know how frail I am. Behold, thou hast made my days as a hand-breadth; and 5 my age is as nothing before thee: verily every man at his best 6 state is altogether vanity. Selah. Surely every man walketh in a vain show: surely they are disquieted in vain: he heapeth 7 up riches, and knoweth not who shall gather them. And now, 8 LORD, what wait I for? my hope is in thee. Deliver me from all my transgressions: make me not the reproach of the fool-9 ish. I was dumb, I opened not my mouth; because thou didst 10 it. Remove thy stroke away from me; I am consumed by the 11 blow of thy hand. When thou with rebukes dost correct man for iniquity, thou makest his beauty to consume away like a 12 moth: surely every man is vanity. Selah. Hear my prayer, O LORD, and give ear to my cry; hold not thy peace at my tears:

for I am a stranger with thee, and a sojourner, as all my fa-13 thers were. O spare me, that I may recover strength, before I go hence, and be no more.

40 To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David. I waited patiently 2 for the LORD; and he inclined to me, and heard my cry. He brought me up also out of a horrible pit, out of the miry clay, 3 and set my feet upon a rock, and established my goings. And he hath put a new song in my mouth, even praise to our God: 4 many shall see it, and fear, and shall trust in the LORD. Blessed is that man that maketh the LORD his trust, and respecteth 5 not the proud, nor such as turn aside to lies. Many, O LORD, my God, are thy wonderful works which thou hast done, and thy thoughts which are toward us, they cannot be reckoned up in order to thee: if I would declare and speak of them, they 6 are more than can be numbered. Sacrifice and offering thou didst not desire; my ears hast thou opened: burnt-offering and 7 sin-offering hast thou not required. Then said I, Lo, I come: 8 in the volume of the book it is written of me, I delight to do 9 thy will, O my God: yea, thy law is within my heart. I have preached righteousness in the great congregation: lo, I have 10 not refrained my lips, O LORD, thou knowest. I have not hid thy righteousness within my heart; I have declared thy faithfulness and thy salvation: I have not concealed thy loving-11 kindness and thy truth from the great congregation. Withhold not thou thy tender mercies from me, O LORD: let thy 12 loving-kindness and thy truth continually preserve me. For innumerable evils have encompassed me: my iniquities have taken hold upon me, so that I am not able to look up; they are more than the hairs of my head: therefore my heart faileth me.

 Be pleased, O LORD, to deliver me: O LORD, make haste to 13 help me. Let them be ashamed and confounded together that 14 seek after my soul to destroy it; let them be driven backward and put to shame that wish me evil. Let them be desolate 15 for a reward of their shame that say to me, Aha, aha. Let all 16 those that seek thee rejoice and be glad in thee: let such as love thy salvation say continually, The LORD be magnified. But I 17 am poor and needy; yet the LORD thinketh upon me: thou art my help and my deliverer; make no delay, O my God.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David. Blessed is he that 41 considereth the poor: the LORD will deliver him in the time of trouble. The LORD will preserve him, and keep him alive; and 2 he shall be blessed upon the earth: and thou wilt not deliver him to the will of his enemies. The LORD will strengthen him 3 upon the bed of languishing: thou wilt make all his bed in his sickness. I said, LORD, be merciful to me: heal my soul; for 4 I have sinned against thee. My enemies speak evil of me, 5 When shall he die, and his name perish? And if he cometh 6 to see me, he speaketh vanity: his heart gathereth iniquity to itself; when he goeth abroad, he telleth it. All that hate 7 me whisper together against me: against me do they devise my hurt. An evil disease, say they, cleaveth fast to him: and 8 now that he lieth he shall rise no more. Yes, my own familiar 9 friend, in whom I trusted, who ate of my bread, hath lifted up his heel against me. But thou, O LORD, be merciful to me, 10 and raise me up, that I may requite them. By this I know 11 that thou favorest me, because my enemy doth not triumph over me. And as for me, thou upholdest me in my integrity, 12 and settest me before thy face for ever. Blessed be the LORD 13 God of Israel from everlasting, and to everlasting. Amen, and
 amen.

To the chief Musician, Maschil, for the sons of Korah. As 42 the hart panteth after the water brooks, so my soul panteth after thee, O God. My soul thirsteth for God, for the living 2 God: when shall I come and appear before God? My tears 3 have been my food day and night, while they continually say to me, Where is thy God? When I remember these things, I 4 pour out my soul in me: for I had gone with the multitude, I went with them to the house of God, with the voice of joy and

- 5 praise, with a multitude that kept holy-day. Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted in me? hope thou in God: for I shall yet praise him for the help of 6 his countenance. O my God, my soul is cast down within me: therefore will I remember thee from the land of Jordan, and 7 of the Hermonites, from the hill Mizar. Deep calleth to deep at the noise of thy water-spouts: all thy waves and thy billows 8 are gone over me. Yet the LORD will command his loving-kindness in the day-time, and in the night his song shall be 9 with me, and my prayer to the God of my life. I will say to God my rock, Why hast thou forgotten me? why go I mourning 10 because of the oppression of the enemy? As with a sword in my bones, my enemies reproach me; while they say daily to me, 11 Where is thy God? Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted within me? hope thou in God: for I shall yet praise him, who is the health of my countenance, and my God.
- 43 Judge me, O God, and plead my cause against an ungodly 2 nation: O deliver me from the deceitful and unjust man. For thou art the God of my strength: why dost thou cast me off?
3 why go I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy? O send out thy light and thy truth: let them lead me; let them 4 bring me to thy holy hill, and to thy tabernacles. Then will I go to the altar of God, to God, my exceeding joy: yes, upon 5 the harp will I praise thee, O God my God. Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted within me? hope in God: for I shall yet praise him, who is the health of my countenance, and my God.
- 44 To the chief Musician for the sons of Korah, Maschil. We have heard with our ears, O God, our fathers have told us, 2 what work thou didst in their days, in the times of old. How thou didst drive out the heathen with thy hand, and didst plant 3 them; how thou didst afflict the people, and cast them out. For they obtained not the land in possession by their own sword, neither did their own arm save them: but thy right hand, and thy arm, and the light of thy countenance, because thou hadst 4 a favor to them. Thou art my King, O God: command de-5 liverances for Jacob. Through thee will we push down our enemies: through thy name we will tread them under that rise 6 up against us. For I will not trust in my bow, neither shall my sword save me. But thou hast saved us from our enemies, 7 and hast put them to shame that hated us. In God we boast 8 all the day long, and praise thy name for ever. Selah. But 9 thou hast cast off, and put us to shame; and goest not forth with our armies. Thou makest us to turn back from the enemy 10

 : and they who hate us plunder for themselves. Thou 11 hast given us like sheep appointed for food; and hast scattered us among the heathen. Thou sellest thy people for naught, 12 and dost not increase thy wealth by their price. Thou mak- 13 est us a reproach to our neighbors, a scorn and a derision to them that are around us. Thou makest us a by-word among 14 the heathen, a shaking of the head among the people. My 15 confusion is continually before me, and the shame of my face hath covered me, For the voice of him that reproacheth and 16 blasphemeth; by reason of the enemy and avenger. All this is 17 come upon us; yet we have not forgotten thee, neither have we dealt falsely in thy covenant. Our heart is not turned back, 18 neither have our steps declined from thy way; Though thou 19 hast severely broke us in the place of dragons, and covered us with the shades of death. If we have forgotten the name of our 20 God, or stretched out our hands to a strange god; Will not God 21 search out this? for he knoweth the secrets of the heart. Yes, 22 for thy sake are we killed all the day long; we are counted as sheep for the slaughter. Awake, why sleepest thou, O LORD? 23 arise, cast us not off for ever. Why hidest thou thy face, and 24 forgettest our affliction and our oppression? For our soul is 25 bowed down to the dust: our belly cleaveth to the earth. Arise 26 for our help, and redeem us for thy mercies' sake.

To the chief Musician upon Shoshannim, for the sons of Ko- 45 rah, Maschil, A Song of loves. My heart is inditing a good matter: I speak of the things which I have made concerning the king: my tongue is the pen of a ready writer. Thou art fairer 2 than the children of men: grace is poured into thy lips: therefore God hath blessed thee for ever. Gird thy sword upon thy 3 thigh, O most mighty, with thy glory and thy majesty. And in 4 thy majesty ride prosperously because of truth and meekness and righteousness; and thy right hand shall teach thee terrible things. Thy arrows are sharp in the heart of the king's ene- 5 mies; by which the people fall under thee. Thy throne, O God, 6 is for ever and ever: the scepter of thy kingdom is a scepter 7 of justice. Thou lovest righteousness, and hatest wickedness: therefore God, thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of glad-8 ness above thy fellows. All thy garments smell of myrrh, and aloes, and cassia, out of the ivory palaces, by which they have 9 made thee glad. Kings daughters were among thy honorable women: upon thy right hand stood the queen in gold of Ophir.

10 Hearken, O daughter, and consider, and incline thy ear; forget also thy own people, and thy father's house; So shall the 11 king greatly desire thy beauty: for he is thy lord; and worship thou him. And the daughter of Tyre shall be there with a gift; even the rich among the people shall entreat thy favor.
12 The king's daughter is all glorious within: her clothing is of wrought gold. She shall be brought to the king in raiment of 13 needlework: the virgins her companions that follow her shall be brought to thee. With gladness and rejoicing shall they be 14 brought: they shall enter into the king's palace. Instead of thy fathers shall be thy children, whom thou mayest make princes 15 in all the earth. I will make thy name to be remembered in all generations: therefore shall the people praise thee for ever and ever.

46 To the chief Musician for the sons of Korah, A Song upon Alamoth. God is our refuge and strength, a very present help 2 in trouble. Therefore will we not fear, though the earth shall be removed, and though the mountains shall be carried into 3 the midst of the sea; Though its waters shall roar and be disturbed, though the mountains shake with the swelling of it.
4 Selah. There is a river, the streams of which shall make glad the city of God, the holy place of the tabernacles of the Most 5 High. God is in the midst of her; she shall not be moved: God 6 shall help her, and that right early. The heathen raged, the kingdoms were moved: he uttered his voice, the earth melted.
7 The LORD of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge.
8 Selah. Come, behold the works of the LORD, what desolations 9 he hath made in the earth. He maketh wars to cease to the end of the earth; he breaketh the bow, and cutteth the spear 10 asunder; he burneth the chariot in the fire. Be still, and know that I am God: I will be exalted among the heathen, I will be 11 exalted in the earth. The LORD of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah.

47 To the chief Musician, A Psalm for the sons of Korah. O clap your hands, all ye people; shout to God with the voice of triumph. For the LORD most high is terrible; he is a great King 2 over all the earth. He shall subdue the people under us, and 3 the nations under our feet. He shall choose our inheritance 4 for us, the excellence of Jacob whom he loved. Selah. God is 5 gone up with a shout, the LORD with the sound of a trumpet.

 Sing praises to God, sing praises: sing praises to our King, sing 6 praises. For God is the King of all the earth: sing ye praises 7 with understanding. God reigneth over the heathen: God sitteth 8 upon the throne of his holiness. The princes of the people 9 are assembled, even the people of the God of Abraham: for the shields of the earth belong to God: he is greatly exalted.

A Song and Psalm for the sons of Korah. Great is the LORD, 48 and greatly to be praised in the city of our God, in the mountain of his holiness. Beautiful for situation, the joy of the whole 2 earth, is mount Zion, on the sides of the north, the city of the great King. God is known in her palaces for a refuge. For lo, 3, 4 the kings were assembled, they passed by together. They saw 5 it, and so they wondered; they were troubled, and hasted away.
 Fear took hold upon them there, and pain, as of a woman in 6 travail. Thou breakest the ships of Tarshish with an east 7 wind. As we have heard, so have we seen in the city of the 8 LORD of hosts, in the city of our God: God will establish it for ever. Selah. We have thought of thy loving-kindness, O 9 God, in the midst of thy temple. According to thy name, O 10 God, so is thy praise to the ends of the earth: thy right hand is full of righteousness. Let mount Zion rejoice, let the daugh- 11 ters of Judah be glad, because of thy judgments. Walk about 12 Zion, and go round her: number her towers. Mark ye well her 13 bulwarks, consider her palaces; that ye may tell it to the generation following. For this God is our God for ever and ever: 14 he will be our guide even to death.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm for the sons of Korah. Hear 49 this, all ye people; give ear, all ye inhabitants of the world: Both low and high, rich and poor together. My mouth shall 2, 3 speak of wisdom; and the meditation of my heart shall be of understanding. I will incline my ear to a parable: I will open 4 my dark saying upon the harp. Why should I fear in the days 5 of evil, when the iniquity of my heels shall encompass me?
 They that trust in their wealth, and boast themselves in the 6 7 multitude of their riches; None of them can by any means re-8 deem his brother, nor give to God a ransom for him: (For the redemption of their soul is precious, and it ceaseth for ever:) 9, 10 That he should still live for ever, and not see corruption. For he seeth that wise men die, likewise the fool and the brutish 11 person perish, and leave their wealth to others. Their inward thought is, that their houses shall continue for ever, and their dwelling places to all generations; they call their lands after 12 their own names. Nevertheless man being in honor abideth 13 not: he is like the beasts that perish. This their way is their 14 folly: yet their posterity approve their sayings. Selah. Like sheep they are laid in the grave; death shall feed on them; and the upright shall have dominion over them in the morning; and their beauty shall consume in the grave from their 15 dwelling. But God will redeem my soul from the power of the 16 grave: for he shall receive me. Selah. Be not thou afraid when 17 one is made rich, when the glory of his house is increased; For when he dieth he shall carry nothing away: his glory shall not 18 descend after him. Though while he lived he blessed his soul: 19 and men will praise thee, when thou doest well to thyself. He shall go to the generation of his fathers; they shall never see 20 light. Man that is in honor, and understandeth not, is like the beasts that perish.

50 A Psalm of Asaph. The mighty God, even the LORD, hath spoken, and called the earth from the rising to the setting 2 of the sun. Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty, God hath 3 shined. Our God shall come, and shall not keep silence: a fire shall devour before him, and it shall be very tempestuous 4 around him. He shall call to the heavens from above, and to 5 the earth, that he may judge his people. Gather my saints together to me; those that have made a covenant with me by 6 sacrifice. And the heavens shall declare his righteousness: 7 for God is judge himself. Selah. Hear, O my people, and I will speak; O Israel, and I will testify against thee: I am God, 8 even thy God. I will not reprove thee for thy sacrifices or thy 9 burnt-offerings, to have been continually before me. I will take 10 no bullock out of thy house, nor he-goats out of thy folds. For every beast of the forest is mine, and the cattle upon a thou-11 sand hills. I know all the fowls of the mountains: and the 12 wild beasts of the field are mine. If I were hungry, I would not tell thee: for the world is mine, and the fullness thereof. Will I eat the flesh of bulls, or drink the blood of goats? Offer to God thanksgiving; and pay thy vows to the Most High: 13, 14 And call upon me in the day of trouble: I will deliver thee, 15 and thou shalt glorify me. But to the wicked God saith, What 16 hast thou to do to declare my statutes, or that thou shouldst take my covenant in thy mouth? Seeing thou hatest instruc- 17 tion, and castest my words behind thee. When thou sawest 18 a thief, then thou consentedst with him, and hast been partaker with adulterers. Thou givest thy mouth to evil, and thy 19 tongue frameth deceit. Thou sittest and speakest against thy 20 brother; thou slanderest thy own mother's son. These things 21 hast thou done, and I kept silence; thou thoughtest that I was altogether such an one as thyself: but I will reprove thee, and set them in order before thine eyes. Now consider this, ye 22 that forget God, lest I tear you in pieces, and there be none to deliver. Whoever offereth praise glorifieth me: and to him 23 that ordereth his deportment aright will I show the salvation of God.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David, when Nathan the 51 prophet came to him, after he had gone in to Bath-sheba. Have mercy upon me, O God, according to thy loving-kindness: according to the multitude of thy tender mercies, blot out my transgressions. Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity, and 2 cleanse me from my sin. For I acknowledge my transgres- 3 sions: and my sin is ever before me. Against thee, thee only, 4 have I sinned, and done this evil in thy sight: that thou mayest be justified when thou speakest, and be clear when thou judgest.
 Behold, I was shapen in iniquity; and in sin did my mother 5 conceive me. Behold, thou desirest truth in the inward parts: 6 and in the hidden part thou shalt make me to know wisdom.
 Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean: wash me, and I 7 shall be whiter than snow. Make me to hear joy and gladness; 8 that the bones which thou hast broken may rejoice. Hide thy 9 face from my sins, and blot out all my iniquities. Create in 10 me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me.
 Cast me not away from thy presence; and take not thy holy 11 spirit from me. Restore to me the joy of thy salvation; and 12 uphold me with thy free spirit. Then will I teach transgres- 13 sors thy ways; and sinners shall be converted to thee. De- 14 liver me from blood-guiltiness, O God, thou God of my salvation: and my tongue shall sing aloud of thy righteousness. O LORD, open thou my lips; and my mouth shall show forth thy praise. For thou desirest not sacrifice: else would I give it: thou delightest not in burnt-offering. The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit: a broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise. Do good in thy good pleasure to Zion: build thou the walls of Jerusalem. Then shalt thou be pleased with the sacrifices of righteousness, with burnt-offering and whole burnt-offering: then shall they offer bullocks upon thy altar.

52 To the chief Musician, Maschil, A Psalm of David, when Doeg the Edomite came and told Saul, and said to him, David is come to the house of Ahimelech. Why boastest thou thyself in mischief, O mighty man? the goodness of God endureth continually. Thy tongue deviseth mischiefs; like a sharp razor, working deceitfully. Thou lovest evil more than good; and lying rather than to speak righteousness. Selah. Thou lovest all devouring words, O thou deceitful tongue. God shall likewise destroy thee for ever, he shall take thee away, and pluck thee out of thy dwelling-place, and root thee out of the land of the living. Selah. The righteous also shall see, and fear, and shall laugh at him: Lo, this is the man that made not God his strength; but trusted in the abundance of his riches, and strengthened himself in his wickedness. But I am like a green olive tree in the house of God: I trust in the mercy of God for ever and ever. I will praise thee for ever, because thou hast done it: and I will wait on thy name; for it is good before thy saints.

53 To the chief Musician upon Mahalath, Maschil, A Psalm of David. The fool hath said in his heart, There is no God. They are corrupt, and have done abominable iniquity: there is none that doeth good. God looked down from heaven upon the children of men, to see if there were any that did understand, that did seek God. Every one of them is gone back: they are altogether become filthy; there is none that doeth good, no, not one. Have the workers of iniquity no knowledge? who eat up my people as they eat bread! they have not called upon God. There they were in great fear, where no fear was: for God hath scattered the bones of him that encampeth against thee: thou hast put them to shame, because God hath despised them. O that the salvation of Israel were come out of Zion! when God bringeth back the captivity of his people, Jacob shall rejoice, and Israel shall be glad.

To the chief Musician on Neginoth, Maschil, A Psalm of 54 David, when the Ziphims came and said to Saul, Doth not David hide himself with us? Save me, O God, by thy name, and judge me by thy strength. Hear my prayer, O God; give 2 ear to the words of my mouth. For strangers have risen up 3 against me, and oppressors seek after my soul: they have not set God before them. Selah. Behold, God is my helper: the 4 LORD is with them that uphold my soul. He will reward evil 5 to my enemies; cut them off in thy truth. I will freely sacrifice 6 to thee: I will praise thy name, O LORD; for it is good. For he 7 hath delivered me out of all trouble: and my eye hath seen its desire upon my enemies.

To the chief Musician on Neginoth, Maschil, A Psalm of 55 David. Give ear to my prayer, O God; and hide not thyself from my supplication. Attend to me, and hear me: I mourn in 2 my complaint, and make a noise; Because of the voice of the 3 enemy, because of the oppression of the wicked: for they cast iniquity upon me, and in wrath they hate me. My heart is 4 severely pained within me: and the terrors of death have fallen upon me. Fearfulness and trembling have come upon me, and 5 horror hath overwhelmed me. And I said, O that I had wings like a dove! for then I would fly away, and be at rest. Lo, then 7 I would wander far off, and remain in the wilderness. Selah. I would hasten my escape from the windy storm and tempest. 8 Destroy, O LORD, and divide their tongues: for I have seen violence and strife in the city. Day and night they go about it 9 upon its walls: mischief also and sorrow are in the midst of it. Wickedness is in the midst of it: deceit and guile depart not 11 from her streets. For it was not an enemy that reproached me; then I could have borne it: neither was it he that hated 12 me that magnified himself against me; then I would have hid myself from him: But it was thou, a man my equal, my guide, 13 and my acquaintance. We took sweet counsel together, and 14 walked to the house of God in company. Let death seize upon them, and let them go down quick into hell: for wickedness is 15 in their dwellings, and among them. As for me, I will call upon 16 God: and the LORD will save me. Evening, and morning, and 17 at noon, will I pray, and cry aloud: and he will hear my voice.

18 He hath delivered my soul in peace from the battle that was 19 against me: for there were many with me. God will hear and afflict them, even he that abideth of old. Selah. Because they 20 have no changes, therefore they fear not God. He hath put forth his hands against such as are at peace with him: he hath 21 broken his covenant. The words of his mouth were smoother than butter, but war was in his heart: his words were softer 22 than oil, yet were they drawn swords. Cast thy burden upon the LORD, and he will sustain thee: he will never suffer the 23 righteous to be moved. But thou, O God, wilt bring them down into the pit of destruction: bloody and deceitful men shall not live out half their days; but I will trust in thee.

56 To the chief Musician upon Jonathelem-rechokim, Michtam of David, when the Philistines took him in Gath. Be merciful to me, O God: for man would swallow me up; he fighting daily 2 oppresseth me. My enemies would daily swallow me up: for 3 they are many that fight against me, O thou Most High. In 4 the time when I am afraid, I will trust in thee. In God I will praise his word, in God I have put my trust; I will not fear what 5 flesh can do to me. Every day they wrest my words: all their 6 thoughts are against me for evil. They assemble themselves, they hide themselves, they mark my steps, when they wait for 7 my soul. Shall they escape by iniquity; in thy anger cast down 8 the people, O God. Thou numberest my wanderings: put thou 9 my tears into thy bottle: are they not in thy book? When I cry to thee, then shall my enemies turn back: this I know; for 10 God is for me. In God will I praise his word: in the LORD will 11 I praise his word. In God have I put my trust: I will not be 12 afraid what man can do to me. Thy vows are upon me, O God: 13 I will render praises to thee. For thou hast delivered my soul from death: wilt thou not deliver my feet from falling, that I may walk before God in the light of the living?

57 To the chief Musician, Al-taschith, Michtam of David, when he fled from Saul in the cave. Be merciful to me, O God, be merciful to me: for my soul trusteth in thee: yes, in the shadow of thy wings will I make my refuge, until these calamities are 2 overpast. I will cry to God most high; to God that performeth 3 all things for me. He shall send from heaven, and save me from the reproach of him that would swallow me up. Selah.

God shall send forth his mercy and his truth. My soul is 4 among lions: and I lie even among them that are set on fire, even the sons of men, whose teeth are spears and arrows, and their tongue a sharp sword. Be thou exalted, O God, above 5 the heavens; let thy glory be above all the earth. They have 6 prepared a net for my steps; my soul is bowed down: they have dugged a pit before me, into the midst of which they have fallen themselves. Selah. My heart is fixed, O God, my heart is 7 fixed: I will sing and give praise. Awake, my glory; awake, 8 psaltery and harp: I myself will awake early. I will praise 9 thee, O LORD, among the people: I will sing to thee among the nations. For thy mercy is great to the heavens, and thy truth 10 to the clouds. Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens: let 11 thy glory be above all the earth.

To the chief Musician, Al-taschith, Michtam of David. Do 58 ye indeed speak righteousness, O congregation? do ye judge uprightly, O ye sons of men? Yes, in heart ye work wicked- 2 ness; ye weigh the violence of your hands in the earth. The 3 wicked are estranged from their birth: they go astray as soon as they are born, speaking lies. Their poison is like the poi- 4 son of a serpent: they are like the deaf adder that stoppeth her ear; Which will not hearken to the voice of charmers, 5 charming never so wisely. Break their teeth, O God, in their 6 mouth: break out the great teeth of the young lions, O LORD.
Let them melt away as waters which run continually: when 7 he bendeth his bow to shoot his arrows, let them be as cut in pieces. As a snail which melteth, let every one of them pass 8 away: like the untimely birth of a woman, that they may not see the sun. Before your pots can feel the thorns, he shall take 9 them away as with a whirlwind, both living, and in his wrath.
The righteous shall rejoice when he seeth the vengeance: he 10 shall wash his feet in the blood of the wicked. So that a man 11 shall say, Verily there is a reward for the righteous: verily he is a God that judgeth in the earth.

To the chief Musician, Al-taschith, Michtam of David; when 59
Saul sent, and they watched the house to kill him. Deliver me from my enemies, O my God: defend me from them that rise up against me. Deliver me from the workers of iniquity, and 2 save me from bloody men. For lo, they lie in wait for my soul: 3 the mighty are gathered against me; not for my transgression, 4 nor for my sin, O LORD. They run and prepare themselves 5 without my fault: awake to help me, and behold. Thou therefore, O LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel, awake to visit all the heathen: be not merciful to any wicked transgressors. Se-6 lah. They return at evening: they make a noise like a dog, and 7 go about the city. Behold, they belch out with their mouth: 8 swords are in their lips: for who, say they, doth hear? But thou, O LORD, shalt laugh at them; thou shalt have all the 9 heathen in derision. Because of his strength will I wait upon 10 thee: for God is my defense. The God of my mercy will suc-11 cor me: God will let me see my desire upon my enemies. Slay them not, lest my people forget: scatter them by thy power; 12 and bring them down, O LORD our shield. For the sin of their mouth and the words of their lips let them even be taken in 13 their pride: and for cursing and lying which they speak. Consume them in wrath, consume them, that they may not be: and let them know that God ruleth in Jacob to the ends of the earth.

14 Selah. And at evening let them return; and let them make a 15 noise like a dog, and go about the city. Let them wander up 16 and down for food, and grudge if they are not satisfied. But I will sing of thy power; yes, I will sing aloud of thy mercy in the 17 morning: for thou hast been my defense and refuge in the day of my trouble. To thee, O my strength, will I sing: for God is my defense, and the God of my mercy.

60 To the chief Musician upon Shushan-eduth, Michtam of David, to teach; when he strove with Aram-naharaim and with Aram-zobah, when Joab returned, and smote of Edom in the valley of salt twelve thousand. O God, thou hast cast us off, thou hast scattered us, thou hast been displeased; O turn thyself to us 2 again. Thou hast made the earth to tremble; thou hast bro-3 ken it: heal its breaches; for it shaketh. Thou hast shown thy people hard things: thou hast made us to drink the wine of as-4 tonishment. Thou hast given a banner to them that fear thee, 5 that it may be displayed because of the truth. Selah. That thy beloved may be delivered; save with thy right hand, and hear 6 me. God hath spoken in his holiness; I will rejoice, I will di-7 vide Shechem, and measure out the valley of Succoth. Gilead is mine, and Manasseh is mine; Ephraim also is the strength 8 of my head; Judah is my lawgiver; Moab is my washpot; over Edom will I cast out my shoe: Philistia, triumph thou because of me. Who will bring me into the strong city? who will lead 9 me into Edom? Wilt thou not, O God, who hadst cast us off? 10 and thou, O God, who didst not go out with our armies? Give 11 us help from trouble: for vain is the help of man. Through 12 God we shall do valiantly: for he will tread down our enemies.

To the chief Musician upon Neginah, A Psalm of David. 61 Hear my cry, O God; attend to my prayer. From the end of 2 the earth will I cry to thee, when my heart is overwhelmed: lead me to the rock that is higher than I. For thou hast been 3 a shelter for me, and a strong tower from the enemy. I will 4 abide in thy tabernacle for ever: I will trust in the covert of thy wings. Selah. For thou, O God, hast heard my vows: thou 5 hast given me the heritage of those that fear thy name. Thou 6 wilt prolong the king's life: and his years as many generations.
He shall abide before God for ever: O prepare mercy and truth, 7 which may preserve him. So will I sing praise to thy name for 8 ever, that I may daily perform my vows.

To the chief Musician, to Jeduthun, A Psalm of David. Truly 62 my soul waiteth upon God: from him cometh my salvation. He 2 only is my rock and my salvation; he is my defense; I shall not be greatly moved. How long will ye imagine mischief against 3 a man? ye shall be slain all of you: as a bowing wall shall ye be, and as a tottering fence. They only consult to cast him down 4 from his excellence: they delight in lies: they bless with their mouth, but they curse inwardly. Selah. My soul, wait thou 5 only upon God; for my expectation is from him. He only is my 6 rock and my salvation: he is my defense; I shall not be moved.
In God is my salvation and my glory: the rock of my strength, 7 and my refuge, is in God. Trust in him at all times; ye people, 8 pour out your heart before him: God is a refuge for us. Selah.
Surely men of low degree are vanity, and men of high degree 9 are a lie: to be laid in the balance, they are altogether lighter than vanity. Trust not in oppression, and become not vain 10 in robbery: if riches increase, set not your heart upon them.
God hath spoken once; twice have I heard this; that power 11 belongeth to God. Also to thee, O LORD, belongeth mercy: for 12 thou renderest to every man according to his work.

A Psalm of David, when he was in the wilderness of Ju- 63
dah. O God, thou art my God; early will I seek thee: my soul thirsteth for thee, my flesh longeth for thee in a dry and thirsty

2 land, where no water is; To see thy power and thy glory, so as I 3 have seen thee in the sanctuary. Because thy loving-kindness 4 is better than life, my lips shall praise thee. Thus will I bless 5 thee while I live: I will lift up my hands in thy name. My soul 6 shall be satisfied as with marrow and fatness; and my mouth 7 shall praise thee with joyful lips: When I remember thee upon 8 my bed, and meditate on thee in the night watches. Because 9 thou hast been my help, therefore in the shadow of thy wings 10 will I rejoice. My soul followeth hard after thee: thy right 11 hand upholdeth me. But those that seek my soul to destroy it, shall go into the lower parts of the earth. They shall fall by the sword: they shall be a portion for foxes. But the king shall rejoice in God; every one that sweareth by him shall glory: but the mouth of them that speak lies shall be stopped.

64 To the chief Musician, a Psalm of David. Hear my voice, O God, in my prayer: preserve my life from fear of the enemy.
2 Hide me from the secret counsel of the wicked; from the insur-3 rection of the workers of iniquity: Who whet their tongue like 4 a sword, and bend their bows to shoot their arrows, even bitter 5 words: That they may shoot in secret at the perfect: suddenly 6 do they shoot at him, and fear not. They encourage them-7 selves in an evil matter: they commune of laying snares priv-8 ily; they say, Who will see them? They search out iniquities; 9 they accomplish a diligent search: both the inward thought of 10 every one of them, and the heart, is deep. But God shall shoot 11 at them with an arrow; suddenly shall they be wounded. So they shall make their own tongue to fall upon themselves: all that see them shall flee away. And all men shall fear, and shall declare the work of God; for they shall wisely consider of his doing. The righteous shall be glad in the LORD, and shall trust in him; and all the upright in heart shall glory.

65 To the chief Musician, A Psalm and Song of David. Praise waiteth for thee, O God, in Zion: and to thee shall the vow 2 be performed. O thou that hearest prayer, to thee shall all 3 flesh come. Iniquities prevail against me: as for our trans-4 gressions, thou shalt purge them away. Blessed is the man 5 whom thou choosest, and causest to approach to thee, that he may dwell in thy courts: we shall be satisfied with the goodness of thy house, even of thy holy temple. By terrible things in righteousness wilt thou answer us, O God of our salvation; who art the confidence of all the ends of the earth, and of them that are afar off upon the sea: Who by his strength setteth 6 fast the mountains; being girded with power: Who stilleth the 7 noise of the seas, the noise of their waves, and the tumult of the people. They also that dwell in the uttermost parts are afraid 8 at thy tokens: thou makest the outgoings of the morning and evening to rejoice. Thou visitest the earth, and waterest it: 9 thou greatly enrichest it with the river of God, which is full of water: thou preparest them corn, when thou hast so provided for it. Thou waterest the ridges of it abundantly: thou set- 10 tlest the furrows of it: thou makest it soft with showers: thou blessest the springing of it. Thou crownest the year with thy 11 goodness; and thy paths drop fatness. They drop upon the 12 pastures of the wilderness: and the little hills rejoice on every side. The pastures are clothed with flocks; the valleys also are 13 covered over with corn; they shout for joy, they also sing.

To the chief Musician, A Song or Psalm. Make a joyful noise 66 to God, all ye lands: Sing forth the honor of his name: make 2 his praise glorious. Say to God, How terrible art thou in thy 3 works! through the greatness of thy power shall thy enemies submit themselves to thee. All the earth shall worship thee, 4 and shall sing to thee; they shall sing to thy name. Selah.
 Come and see the works of God: he is terrible in his doing 5 towards the children of men. He turned the sea into dry land: 6 they went through the flood on foot: there we rejoiced in him.
 He ruleth by his power for ever; his eyes behold the nations: 7 let not the rebellious exalt themselves. Selah. O bless our 8 God, ye people, and make the voice of his praise to be heard: Who holdeth our soul in life, and suffereth not our feet to be 9 moved. For thou, O God, hast proved us: thou hast tried us, 10 as silver is tried. Thou hast brought us into the net; thou hast 11 laid affliction upon our loins. Thou hast caused men to ride 12 over our heads; we went through fire and through water: but thou broughtest us out into a wealthy place. I will go into thy 13 house with burnt-offerings: I will pay thee my vows, Which 14 my lips have uttered, and my mouth hath spoken, when I was in trouble. I will offer to thee burnt-sacrifices of fatlings, with 15 the incense of rams; I will offer bullocks with goats. Selah.
 Come and hear, all ye that fear God, and I will declare what he 16 hath done for my soul. I cried to him with my mouth, and he 17 18 was extolled with my tongue. If I regard iniquity in my heart, 19 the LORD will not hear me: But verily God hath heard me; he 20 hath attended to the voice of my prayer. Blessed be God, who hath not turned away my prayer, nor his mercy from me.

67 To the chief Musician on Neginoth, A Psalm or Song. God be merciful to us, and bless us; and cause his face to shine 2 upon us. Selah. That thy way may be known upon earth, thy 3 saving health among all nations. Let the people praise thee, 4 O God; let all the people praise thee. O let the nations be glad and sing for joy: for thou shalt judge the people righteously, 5 and govern the nations upon earth. Selah. Let the people 6 praise thee, O God; let all the people praise thee. Then shall the earth yield her increase; and God, even our own God, will 7 bless us. God will bless us, and all the ends of the earth shall fear him.

68 To the chief Musician, A Psalm or Song of David. Let God arise, let his enemies be scattered: let them also that hate him 2 flee before him. As smoke is driven away, so drive them away: as wax melteth before the fire, so let the wicked perish at the 3 presence of God. But let the righteous be glad; let them rejoice 4 before God: yes, let them exceedingly rejoice. Sing to God, sing praises to his name: extol him that rideth upon the heav-5 ens by his name JAH, and rejoice before him. A father of the fatherless, and a judge of the widows, is God in his holy habi-6 tation. God setteth the solitary in families: he bringeth out those who are bound with chains: but the rebellious dwell in a 7 dry land. O God, when thou wentest forth before thy people, 8 when thou didst march through the wilderness; Selah: The earth shook, the heavens also dropped at the presence of God: even Sinai itself was moved at the presence of God, the God of 9 Israel. Thou, O God, didst send a plentiful rain, by which thou 10 didst confirm thy inheritance, when it was weary. Thy congregation hath dwelt therein: thou, O God, hast prepared of thy 11 goodness for the poor. The LORD gave the word: great was 12 the company of those that published it. Kings of armies fled 13 apace: and she that tarried at home divided the spoil. Though ye have lain among the pots, yet shall ye be as the wings of a dove covered with silver, and her feathers with yellow gold.
14 When the Almighty scattered kings in it, it was white as snow 15 in Salmon. The hill of God is as the hill of Bashan; a high hill as the hill of Bashan. Why leap ye, ye lofty hills? this is the 16 hill which God desireth to dwell in; yes, the LORD will dwell in it for ever. The chariots of God are twenty thousand, even 17 thousands of angels: the LORD is among them, as in Sinai, in the holy place. Thou hast ascended on high, thou hast led 18 captivity captive: thou hast received gifts for men; yes, for the rebellious also, that the LORD God might dwell among them.

 Blessed be the LORD, who daily loadeth us with benefits, even 19 the God of our salvation. Selah. He that is our God is the 20 God of salvation; and to God the LORD belong the issues from death. But God will wound the head of his enemies, and the 21 hairy scalp of such one as goeth on still in his trespasses. The 22 LORD said, I will bring again from Bashan, I will bring my people again from the depths of the sea. That thy foot may 23 be dipped in the blood of thy enemies, and the tongue of thy dogs in the same. They have seen thy goings, O God; even 24 the goings of my God, my King, in the sanctuary. The singers 25 went before, the players on instruments followed after; among them were the damsels playing with timbrels. Bless ye God 26 in the congregations, even the LORD, from the fountain of Israel. There is little Benjamin with their ruler, the princes 27 of Judah and their counsel, the princes of Zebulun, and the princes of Naphtali. Thy God hath commanded thy strength: 28 strengthen, O God, that which thou hast wrought for us. Be- 29 cause of thy temple at Jerusalem shall kings bring presents to thee. Rebuke the company of spearmen, the multitude of 30 the bulls, with the calves of the people, till every one shall submit himself with pieces of silver: scatter thou the people that delight in war. Princes shall come out of Egypt; Cush shall 31 soon stretch out her hands to God. Sing to God, ye kingdoms 32 of the earth; O sing praises to the LORD; Selah: To him that 33 rideth upon the heavens of heavens, which were of old; lo, he doth send out his voice, and that a mighty voice. Ascribe ye 34 strength to God: his excellence is over Israel, and his strength is in the clouds. O God, thou art terrible out of thy holy places: 35 the God of Israel is he that giveth strength and power to his people. Blessed be God.

To the chief Musician upon Shoshannim, A Psalm of David. 69 Save me, O God; for the waters are come in to my soul. I sink 2 in deep mire, where there is no standing: I am come into deep 3 waters, where the floods overflow me. I am weary of my crying: my throat is dried: my eyes fail while I wait for my God.

4 They that hate me without a cause are more than the hairs of my head: they that would destroy me, being my enemies wrongfully, are mighty: then I restored that which I took not 5 away. O God, thou knowest my foolishness; and my sins are 6 not hid from thee. Let not them that wait on thee, O LORD God of hosts, be ashamed for my sake: let not those that seek 7 thee be confounded for my sake, O God of Israel. Because for thy sake I have borne reproach; shame hath covered my 8 face. I am become a stranger to my brethren, and an alien to 9 my mother's children. For the zeal of thy house hath eaten me up; and the reproaches of them that reproached thee have 10 fallen upon me. When I wept, and chastened my soul with 11 fasting, that was to my reproach. I made sackcloth also my garment; and I became a proverb to them. They that sit in the 12 gate speak against me; and I was the song of the drunkards.
13 But as for me, my prayer is to thee, O LORD, in an acceptable time: O God, in the multitude of thy mercy hear me, in the 14 truth of thy salvation. Deliver me out of the mire, and let me not sink: let me be delivered from them that hate me, and out 15 of the deep waters. Let not the water-flood overflow me, neither let the deep swallow me up, and let not the pit shut her 16 mouth upon me. Hear me, O LORD; for thy loving-kindness is good: turn to me according to the multitude of thy tender 17 mercies. And hide not thy face from thy servant; for I am in 18 trouble: hear me speedily. Draw nigh to my soul, and redeem 19 it: deliver me because of my enemies. Thou hast known my reproach, and my shame, and my dishonor: my adversaries 20 are all before thee. Reproach hath broken my heart; and I am full of heaviness: and I looked for some to take pity, but 21 there was none; and for comforters, but I found none. They gave me also gall for my food; and in my thirst they gave me 22 vinegar to drink. Let their table become a snare before them: and that which should have been for their welfare, let it become a trap. Let their eyes be darkened, that they see not;
23 and make their loins continually to shake. Pour out thy indignation upon them, and let thy wrathful anger take hold of 24 them. Let their habitation be desolate; and let none dwell in 25 their tents. For they persecute him whom thou hast smitten; and they talk to the grief of those whom thou hast wounded. Add iniquity to their iniquity: and let them not come into thy righteousness. Let them be blotted out of the book of the living, and not be written with the righteous. But I am poor and sorrowful: let thy salvation, O God, set me up on high. I will praise the name of God with a song, and will magnify him with thanksgiving. This also shall please the LORD better than an ox or bullock that hath horns and hoofs. The humble shall see this, and be glad: and your heart shall live that seek God. For the LORD heareth the poor, and despiseth not his prisoners. Let the heaven and earth praise him, the seas, and every thing that moveth therein. For God will save Zion, and will build the cities of Judah: that they may dwell there, and have it in possession. The seed also of his servants shall inherit it: and they that love his name shall dwell therein.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David to bring to remembrance. Make haste, O God, to deliver me; make haste to help me, O LORD. Let them be ashamed and confounded that seek after my soul: let them be turned backward, and put to confusion, that desire my hurt. Let them be turned back for a reward of their shame that say, Aha, aha. Let all those that seek thee rejoice and be glad in thee: and let such as love thy salvation say continually, Let God be magnified. But I am poor and needy: make haste to me, O God: thou art my help and my deliverer; O LORD, make no delay. 70

In thee, O LORD, do I put my trust: let me never be put to confusion. Deliver me in thy righteousness, and cause me to escape: incline thy ear to me, and save me. Be thou my strong habitation, to which I may continually resort: thou hast given commandment to save me; for thou art my rock and my fortress. Deliver me, O my God, from the hand of the wicked, from the hand of the unrighteous and cruel man. For thou art my hope, O LORD God: thou art my trust from my youth. By thee have I been sustained from my birth: thou art he that brought me into life: my praise shall be continually of thee. I am as a wonder to many; but thou art my strong refuge. Let my mouth be filled with thy praise and with thy honor all the day. Cast me not off in the time of old age; forsake me not when my strength faileth. For my enemies speak against me; and they that lay wait for my soul take counsel together, Say- 71

ing, God hath forsaken him: persecute and take him; for there 12 is none to deliver him. O God, be not far from me: O my 13 God, make haste for my help. Let them be confounded and consumed that are adversaries to my soul; let them be cov-14 ered with reproach and dishonor that seek my hurt. But I will hope continually, and will yet praise thee more and more.
15 My mouth shall show forth thy righteousness and thy salva-16 tion all the day; for I know not the numbers thereof. I will go in the strength of the Lord GOD: I will make mention of thy 17 righteousness, even of thine only. O God, thou hast taught me from my youth: and hitherto have I declared thy won-18 drous works. Now also when I am old and gray-headed, O God, forsake me not; until I have shown thy strength to this 19 generation, and thy power to every one that is to come. Thy righteousness also, O God, is very high, who hast done great 20 things: O God, who is like to thee! Thou, who hast shown me great and severe troubles, wilt revive me again, and wilt bring 21 me again from the depths of the earth. Thou wilt increase my 22 greatness, and comfort me on every side. I will also praise thee with the psaltery, even thy truth, O my God: to thee will 23 I sing with the harp, O thou Holy One of Israel. My lips shall greatly rejoice when I sing to thee; and my soul, which thou 24 hast redeemed. My tongue also shall talk of thy righteousness all the day long: for they are confounded, for they are brought to shame, that seek my hurt.

72 A Psalm for Solomon. Give the king thy judgments, O God, 2 and thy righteousness to the king's son. He shall judge thy 3 people with righteousness, and thy poor with judgment. The mountains shall bring peace to the people, and the little hills, 4 by righteousness. He shall judge the poor of the people, he shall save the children of the needy, and shall break in pieces 5 the oppressor. They shall fear thee as long as the sun and 6 moon endure, throughout all generations. He shall come down like rain upon the mown grass: as showers that water the 7 earth. In his days shall the righteous flourish; and abundance 8 of peace so long as the moon endureth. He shall have dominion also from sea to sea, and from the river to the ends of the 9 earth. They that dwell in the wilderness shall bow before him; 10 and his enemies shall lick the dust. The kings of Tarshish and of the isles shall bring presents: the kings of Sheba and Seba shall offer gifts. Yes, all kings shall fall down before him: all 11 nations shall serve him. For he shall deliver the needy when 12 he crieth; the poor also, and him that hath no helper. He shall 13 spare the poor and needy, and shall save the souls of the needy.

 He shall redeem their soul from deceit and violence: and pre- 14 cious shall be their blood in his sight. And he shall live, and 15 to him shall be given of the gold of Sheba: prayer also shall be made for him continually; and daily shall he be praised.
 There shall be a handful of corn in the earth upon the top of 16 the mountains; the fruit of it shall shake like Lebanon: and they of the city shall flourish like grass of the earth. His name 17 shall endure for ever: his name shall be continued as long as the sun: and men shall be blessed in him: all nations shall call him blessed. Blessed be the LORD God, the God of Israel, who 18 only doeth wondrous things. And blessed be his glorious name 19 for ever: and let the whole earth be filled with his glory; Amen, and amen. The prayers of David the son of Jesse are ended. 20

A Psalm of Asaph. Truly God is good to Israel, even to such 73 as are of a clean heart. But as for me, my feet were almost 2 gone; my steps had well nigh slipped. For I was envious at 3 the foolish, when I saw the prosperity of the wicked. For there 4 are no bands in their death: but their strength is firm. They 5 are not in trouble as other men; neither are they afflicted like other men. Therefore pride encompasseth them as a chain; 6 violence covereth them as a garment. Their eyes stand out 7 with fatness: they have more than heart could wish. They 8 are corrupt, and speak wickedly concerning oppression: they speak loftily. They set their mouth against the heavens, and 9 their tongue walketh through the earth. Therefore his people 10 return hither: and waters of a full cup are wrung out to them.
 And they say, How doth God know? and is there knowledge in 11 the Most High? Behold, these are the ungodly, who prosper 12 in the world; they increase in riches. Verily I have cleansed 13 my heart in vain, and washed my hands in innocence. For all 14 the day long have I been afflicted, and chastened every morning. If I say, I will speak thus; behold, I should offend against 15 the generation of thy children. When I thought to know this, 16 it was too painful for me; Until I went into the sanctuary of 17 God; then I understood their end. Surely thou didst set them 18 in slippery places: thou didst cast them down into destruction.

19 How are they brought into desolation, as in a moment! they 20 are utterly consumed with terrors. As a dream when one awaketh; so, O LORD, when thou awakest, thou wilt despise 21 their image. Thus my heart was grieved, and I was pricked 22 in my reins. So foolish was I, and ignorant: I was as a beast 23 before thee. Nevertheless I am continually with thee: thou 24 hast held me by my right hand. Thou wilt guide me with thy 25 counsel, and afterward receive me to glory. Whom have I in heaven but thee? and there is none upon earth that I desire 26 besides thee. My flesh and my heart faileth: but God is the 27 strength of my heart, and my portion for ever. For lo, they that are far from thee shall perish: thou hast destroyed all 28 them that go astray from thee. But it is good for me to draw near to God: I have put my trust in the Lord GOD, that I may declare all thy works.

74 Maschil of Asaph. O God, why hast thou cast us off for ever? why doth thy anger smoke against the sheep of thy 2 pasture? Remember thy congregation, which thou hast purchased of old: the rod of thy inheritance, which thou hast re-3 deemed; this mount Zion, in which thou hast dwelt. Lift up thy feet to the perpetual desolations; even all that the enemy 4 hath done wickedly in the sanctuary. Thy enemies roar in the midst of thy congregations; they set up their ensigns for 5 signs. A man was famous according as he had lifted up axes 6 upon the thick trees. But now they break down the carved 7 work of it at once with axes and hammers. They have cast fire into thy sanctuary, they have defiled by casting down the 8 dwelling-place of thy name to the ground. They said in their hearts, Let us destroy them together: they have burned up all 9 the synagogues of God in the land. We see not our signs: there is no more any prophet: neither is there among us any that 10 knoweth how long. O God, how long shall the adversary re-11 proach? shall the enemy blaspheme thy name for ever? Why withdrawest thou thy hand, even thy right hand? pluck it out 12 of thy bosom. For God is my King of old, working salvation 13 in the midst of the earth. Thou didst divide the sea by thy strength: thou didst break the heads of the dragons in the wa-14 ters. Thou didst break the head of leviathan in pieces, and didst give him to be food to the people inhabiting the wilder-15 ness. Thou didst cleave the fountain and the flood: thou didst dry up mighty rivers. The day is thine, the night also is thine: 16 thou hast prepared the light and the sun. Thou hast set all 17 the borders of the earth: thou hast made summer and winter.

 Remember this, the enemy hath reproached, O LORD, and the 18 foolish people have blasphemed thy name. O deliver not the 19 soul of thy turtle dove to the multitude of the wicked: forget not the congregation of thy poor for ever. Have respect to the 20 covenant: for the dark places of the earth are full of the habitations of cruelty. O let not the oppressed return ashamed: let 21 the poor and needy praise thy name. Arise, O God, plead thy 22 own cause: remember how the foolish man reproacheth thee daily. Forget not the voice of thy enemies: the tumult of those 23 that rise against thee increaseth continually.

To the chief Musician, Al-taschith, A Psalm or Song of As- 75
 aph. To thee, O God, do we give thanks, to thee do we give thanks: for that thy name is near, thy wondrous works declare.
 When I shall receive the congregation I will judge uprightly. 2
 The earth and all its inhabitants are dissolved: I bear up the 3 pillars of it. Selah. I said to the fools, Deal not foolishly; and 4 to the wicked, Lift not up the horn: Lift not up your horn on 5 high: speak not with a stiff neck. For promotion cometh nei- 6 ther from the east, nor from the west, nor from the south. But 7 God is the judge: he putteth down one, and setteth up another.
 For in the hand of the LORD there is a cup, and the wine is red; 8 it is full of mixture, and he poureth out of the same: but the dregs of it all the wicked of the earth shall wring them out, and drink them. But I will declare for ever; I will sing praises to 9 the God of Jacob. All the horns of the wicked also will I cut 10 off; but the horns of the righteous shall be exalted.

To the chief Musician on Neginoth, A Psalm or Song of As- 76
 aph. In Judah is God known: his name is great in Israel. In 2 Salem also is his tabernacle, and his dwelling place in Zion.
 There he broke the arrows of the bow, the shield, and the sword, 3 and the battle. Selah. Thou art more glorious and excellent 4 than the mountains of prey. The stout-hearted are spoiled, 5 they have slept their sleep: and none of the men of might have found their hands. At thy rebuke, O God of Jacob, both the 6 chariot and horse are cast into a dead sleep. Thou, even thou, 7 art to be feared: and who may stand in thy sight when once thou art angry? Thou didst cause judgment to be heard from 8 9 heaven; the earth feared, and was still, When God arose to 10 judgment, to save all the meek of the earth. Selah. Surely the wrath of man shall praise thee: the remainder of wrath 11 wilt thou restrain. Vow, and pay to the LORD your God: let all that are about him bring presents to him that ought to be 12 feared. He shall cut off the spirit of princes: he is terrible to the kings of the earth.

77 To the chief Musician, to Jeduthun, A Psalm of Asaph. I cried to God with my voice, even to God with my voice; and he 2 gave ear to me. In the day of my trouble I sought the LORD: my sore ran in the night, and ceased not: my soul refused to 3 be comforted. I remembered God, and was troubled: I com-4 plained, and my spirit was overwhelmed. Selah. Thou hold-5 est my eyes waking: I am so troubled that I cannot speak. I 6 have considered the days of old, the years of ancient times. I call to remembrance my song in the night: I commune with 7 my own heart: and my spirit made diligent search. Will the 8 LORD cast off for ever? and will he be favorable no more? Is his mercy wholly gone for ever? doth his promise fail for ever-9 more? Hath God forgotten to be gracious? hath he in anger 10 shut up his tender mercies? Selah. And I said, This is my infirmity: but I will remember the years of the right hand of the 11 Most High. I will remember the works of the LORD: surely 12 I will remember thy wonders of old. I will meditate also of 13 all thy work, and talk of thy doings. Thy way, O God, is in 14 the sanctuary: who is so great a God as our God! Thou art the God that doest wonders: thou hast declared thy strength 15 among the people. Thou hast with thy arm redeemed thy peo-16 ple, the sons of Jacob and Joseph. Selah. The waters saw thee, O God, the waters saw thee; they were afraid: the depths 17 also were disturbed. The clouds poured out water: the skies 18 sent out a sound: thy arrows also went abroad. The voice of thy thunder was in the heaven: the lightnings lightened the 19 world: the earth trembled and shook. Thy way is in the sea, and thy path in the great waters, and thy footsteps are not 20 known. Thou leddest thy people like a flock by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

78 Maschil of Asaph. Give ear, O my people, to my law: incline 2 your ear to the words of my mouth. I will open my mouth in a 3 parable: I will utter dark sayings of old: Which we have heard and known, and our fathers have told us. We will not hide 4 them from their children, showing to the generation to come the praises of the LORD, and his strength, and his wonderful works that he hath done. For he established a testimony in 5 Jacob, and appointed a law in Israel, which he commanded our fathers, that they should make them known to their children: That the generation to come might know them, even the chil- 6 dren who should be born; who should arise and declare them to their children: That they might set their hope in God, and not 7 forget the works of God, but keep his commandments: And 8 might not be as their fathers, a stubborn and rebellious generation; a generation that set not their heart aright, and whose spirit was not steadfast with God. The children of Ephraim, 9 being armed, and carrying bows, turned back in the day of battle. They kept not the covenant of God, and refused to walk 10 in his law; And forgot his works, and his wonders that he had shown them. Marvelous things did he in the sight of their 12 fathers, in the land of Egypt, in the field of Zoan. He di- 13 vided the sea, and caused them to pass through; and he made the waters to stand as a heap. In the day-time also he led 14 them with a cloud, and all the night with a light of fire. He 15 cleaved the rocks in the wilderness, and gave them drink as out of the great depths. He brought streams also out of the 16 rock, and caused waters to run down like rivers. And they 17 sinned yet more against him by provoking the Most High in the wilderness. And they tempted God in their heart by ask- 18 ing food for their desire. Yes, they spoke against God; they 19 said, Can God furnish a table in the wilderness? Behold, he 20 smote the rock, that the waters gushed out, and the streams overflowed; can he give bread also? can he provide flesh for his people? Therefore the LORD heard this, and was wroth: 21 so a fire was kindled against Jacob, and anger also came up against Israel; Because they believed not in God, and trusted 22 not in his salvation: Though he had commanded the clouds 23 from above, and opened the doors of heaven, And had rained 24 down manna upon them to eat, and had given them of the corn of heaven. Man ate angels' food: he sent them food to the 25 full. He caused an east wind to blow in the heaven: and by his 26 power he brought in the south wind. He rained flesh also upon 27 them as dust, and feathered fowls like as the sand of the sea:

28 And he let it fall in the midst of their camp, around their habi-29 tations. So they ate, and were well filled: for he gave them 30 their own desire; They were not estranged from their desire: 31 but while their meat was yet in their mouths, The wrath of God came upon them, and slew the fattest of them, and smote 32 down the chosen men of Israel. For all this they sinned still, 33 and believed not for his wondrous works. Therefore their days 34 did he consume in vanity, and their years in trouble. When he slew them, then they sought him: and they returned and in-35 quired early after God. And they remembered that God was 36 their rock, and the high God their redeemer. Nevertheless they flattered him with their mouth, and they lied to him with 37 their tongues. For their heart was not right with him, nei-38 ther were they steadfast in his covenant. But he, being full of compassion, forgave their iniquity, and destroyed them not:
yes, many a time he turned his anger away, and did not stir 39 up all his wrath. For he remembered that they were but flesh; 40 a wind that passeth away, and cometh not again. How oft did they provoke him in the wilderness, and grieve him in the 41 desert! Yes, they turned back and tempted God, and limited 42 the Holy One of Israel. They remembered not his hand, nor 43 the day when he delivered them from the enemy. How he had wrought his signs in Egypt, and his wonders in the field of 44 Zoan: And had turned their rivers into blood; and their floods, 45 that they could not drink. He sent divers sorts of flies among them, which devoured them; and frogs, which destroyed them.
46 He gave also their increase to the caterpillar, and their labor 47 to the locust. He destroyed their vines with hail, and their 48 sycamore trees with frost. He gave up their cattle also to the 49 hail, and their flocks to hot thunderbolts. He cast upon them the fierceness of his anger, wrath, and indignation, and trou-50 ble, by sending evil angels among them. He made a way to his anger; he spared not their soul from death, but gave their life 51 over to the pestilence; And smote all the first-born in Egypt; 52 the chief of their strength in the tabernacles of Ham: But made his own people to go forth like sheep, and guided them in 53 the wilderness like a flock. And he led them on safely, so that 54 they feared not: but the sea overwhelmed their enemies. And he brought them to the border of his sanctuary, even to this 55 mountain, which his right hand had purchased. He cast out the heathen also before them, and divided them an inheritance by line, and made the tribes of Israel to dwell in their tents. Yet they tempted and provoked the most high God, and kept not his testimonies: But turned back, and dealt unfaithfully like their fathers: they were turned aside like a deceitful bow. For they provoked him to anger with their high places, and moved him to jealousy with their graven images. When God heard this, he was wroth, and greatly abhorred Israel: So that he forsook the tabernacle of Shiloh, the tent which he placed among men; And delivered his strength into captivity, and his glory into the enemy's hand. He gave over his people also to the sword; and was wroth with his inheritance. The fire consumed their young men; and their maidens were not given to marriage. Their priests fell by the sword; and their widows made no lamentation. Then the LORD awaked as one out of sleep, and like a mighty man that shouteth by reason of wine. And he smote his enemies in the hinder part: he put them to a perpetual reproach. Moreover he refused the tabernacle of Joseph, and chose not the tribe of Ephraim: But chose the tribe of Judah, the mount Zion which he loved. And he built his sanctuary like high palaces, like the earth which he hath established for ever. He chose David also his servant, and took him from the sheep-folds: From following the ewes great with young he brought him to feed Jacob his people, and Israel his inheritance. So he fed them according to the integrity of his heart; and guided them by the skillfulness of his hands.

A Psalm of Asaph. O God, the heathen have come into thy inheritance; thy holy temple have they defiled; they have laid Jerusalem on heaps. The dead bodies of thy servants have they given to be food to the fowls of the heaven, the flesh of thy saints, to the beasts of the earth. Their blood have they shed like water around Jerusalem; and there was none to bury them. We have become a reproach to our neighbors, a scorn and derision to them that are around us. How long, LORD? wilt thou be angry for ever? shall thy jealousy burn like fire? Pour out thy wrath upon the heathen that have not known thee, and upon the kingdoms that have not called upon thy name. For they have devoured Jacob, and laid waste his dwelling-place. O remember not against us former iniquities: let thy tender mercies speedily succor us: for we are brought very low. Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of thy name: and deliver us, and purge away our sins, for thy name's sake. Why should the heathen say, Where is their God? let him be known among the heathen in our sight by avenging the blood of thy servants which is shed. Let the sighing of the prisoner come before thee; according to the greatness of thy power preserve thou those that are appointed to die; And render to our neighbors seven-fold into their bosom their reproach, with which they have reproached thee, O LORD. So we thy people and sheep of thy pasture will give thee thanks for ever: we will show forth thy praise to all generations.

80 To the chief Musician upon Shoshannim Eduth, A Psalm of Asaph. Give ear, O Shepherd of Israel, thou that leadest Joseph like a flock; thou that dwellest between the cherubim, shine forth. Before Ephraim and Benjamin and Manasseh stir up thy strength, and come and save us. Turn us again, O God, and cause thy face to shine; and we shall be saved. O LORD God of hosts, how long wilt thou be angry against the prayer of thy people? Thou feedest them with the bread of tears; and givest them tears to drink in great measure. Thou makest us a strife to our neighbors: and our enemies laugh among themselves. Turn us again, O God of hosts, and cause thy face to shine; and we shall be saved. Thou hast brought a vine out of Egypt: thou hast cast out the heathen, and planted it. Thou preparedst room before it, and didst cause it to take deep root, and it filled the land. The hills were covered with the shade of it, and its boughs were like the goodly cedars. She sent out her boughs to the sea, and her branches to the river. Why hast thou then broke down her hedges, so that all they who pass by the way do pluck her? The boar from the wood doth waste it, and the wild beast of the field doth devour it. Return, we beseech thee, O God of hosts: look down from heaven, and behold, and visit this vine; And the vineyard which thy right hand planted, and the branch that thou madest strong for thyself. It is burnt with fire, it is cut down: they perish at the rebuke of thy countenance. Let thy hand be upon the man of thy right hand, upon the son of man whom thou madest strong for thyself. So will we not go back from thee: revive us, and we will call upon thy name. Turn us again, O LORD God of hosts, cause thy face to shine; and we shall be saved.

To the chief Musician upon Gittith, A Psalm of Asaph. Sing 81 aloud to God our strength: make a joyful noise to the God of Jacob. Take a psalm, and bring hither the timbrel, the pleasant 2 harp with the psaltery. Blow the trumpet in the new moon, 3 in the time appointed, on our solemn feast day. For this was 4 a statute for Israel, and a law of the God of Jacob. This he 5 ordained in Joseph for a testimony, when he went out through the land of Egypt: where I heard a language that I understood not. I removed his shoulder from the burden: his hands were 6 delivered from the pots. Thou calledst in trouble, and I de- 7 livered thee; I answered thee in the secret place of thunder: I proved thee at the waters of Meribah. Selah. Hear, O my 8 people, and I will testify to thee; O Israel, if thou wilt hearken to me; There shall no strange god be in thee; neither 9 shalt thou worship any strange god. I am the LORD thy God 10 who brought thee out of the land of Egypt: open thy mouth wide, and I will fill it. But my people would not hearken to 11 my voice; and Israel would not obey me. So I gave them up 12 to their own hearts lust: and they walked in their own counsels. O that my people had hearkened to me, and Israel had 13 walked in my ways! I should soon have subdued their en- 14 emies, and turned my hand against their adversaries. The 15 haters of the LORD should have submitted themselves to him: and their time should have endured for ever. He would have 16 fed them also with the finest of the wheat: and with honey out of the rock I should have satisfied thee.

A Psalm of Asaph. God standeth in the congregation of the 82 mighty; he judgeth among the gods. How long will ye judge 2 unjustly, and accept the persons of the wicked? Selah. Defend 3 the poor and fatherless: do justice to the afflicted and needy.
 Deliver the poor and needy: deliver them from the hand of the 4 wicked. They know not, neither will they understand; they 5 walk on in darkness: all the foundations of the earth are out of course. I have said, Ye are gods; and all of you are children 6 of the Most High. But ye shall die like men, and fall like one 7 of the princes. Arise, O God, judge the earth: for thou wilt 8 inherit all nations.

A song, or Psalm of Asaph. Keep not thou silence, O God: 83 hold not thy peace, and be not still, O God. For lo, thy ene- 2 mies make a tumult: and they that hate thee have lifted up the 3 head. They have taken crafty counsel against thy people, and 4 consulted against thy hidden ones. They have said, Come, and let us cut them off from being a nation; that the name of 5 Israel may be no more in remembrance. For they have consulted together with one consent: they are confederate against 6 thee, The tabernacles of Edom, and the Ishmaelites; of Moab, 7 and the Hagarenes; Gebal, and Ammon, and Amalek; the 8 Philistines with the inhabitants of Tyre; Assur also is joined 9 with them: they have helped the children of Lot. Selah. Do to them as to the Midianites; as to Sisera, as to Jabin, at the 10 brook of Kison: Who perished at En-dor: they became as dung 11 for the earth. Make their nobles like Oreb, and like Zeeb: yes, 12 all their princes as Zebah, and as Zalmunna: Who said, Let 13 us take to ourselves the houses of God in possession. O my God, make them like a wheel; as the stubble before the wind.

 14 As the fire burneth a wood, and as the flame setteth the moun-15 tains on fire; So persecute them with thy tempest, and make 16 them afraid with thy storm. Fill their faces with shame; that 17 they may seek thy name, O LORD. Let them be confounded and troubled for ever; yes, let them be put to shame, and per-18 ish: That men may know that thou, whose name alone is JE-HOVAH, art the most high over all the earth.

84 To the chief Musician upon Gittith, A Psalm for the sons of Korah. How amiable are thy tabernacles, O LORD of hosts!
 2 My soul longeth, and even fainteth for the courts of the LORD: 3 my heart and my flesh crieth out for the living God. Yes, the sparrow hath found a house, and the swallow a nest for herself, where she may lay her young, even thy altars, O LORD of hosts, 4 my King, and my God. Blessed are they that dwell in thy 5 house: they will be still praising thee. Selah. Blessed is the man whose strength is in thee; in whose heart are the ways 6 of them. Who passing through the valley of Baca make it a 7 well; the rain also filleth the pools. They go from strength to 8 strength, every one of them in Zion appeareth before God. O LORD God of hosts, hear my prayer: give ear, O God of Jacob.
 9 Selah. Behold, O God our shield, and look upon the face of thy 10 anointed. For a day in thy courts is better than a thousand.
 I had rather be a door-keeper in the house of my God, than to 11 dwell in the tents of wickedness. For the LORD God is a sun and shield: the LORD will give grace and glory: no good will he withhold from them that walk uprightly. O LORD of hosts, 12 blessed is the man that trusteth in thee.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm for the sons of Korah. LORD, 85 thou hast been favorable to thy land: thou hast brought back the captivity of Jacob. Thou hast forgiven the iniquity of thy 2 people, thou hast covered all their sin. Selah. Thou hast 3 taken away all thy wrath; thou hast turned thyself from the fierceness of thy anger. Turn us, O God of our salvation, and 4 cause thy anger towards us to cease. Wilt thou be angry with 5 us for ever? wilt thou draw out thy anger to all generations?
Wilt thou not revive us again: that thy people may rejoice in 6 thee? Show us thy mercy, O LORD, and grant us thy salva- 7 tion. I will hear what God the LORD will speak: for he will 8 speak peace to his people, and to his saints: but let them not turn again to folly. Surely his salvation is nigh them that fear 9 him; that glory may dwell in our land. Mercy and truth are 10 met together; righteousness and peace have kissed each other.
Truth shall spring out of the earth; and righteousness shall 11 look down from heaven. Yes, the LORD will give that which 12 is good; and our land shall yield her increase. Righteousness 13 shall go before him; and shall set us in the way of his steps.

A Prayer of David. Bow down thy ear, O LORD, hear me: for 86
I am poor and needy. Preserve my soul; for I am holy: O thou 2 my God, save thy servant that trusteth in thee. Be merciful 3 to me, O LORD: for I cry to thee daily. Rejoice the soul of thy 4 servant: for to thee, O LORD, do I lift up my soul. For thou, 5 LORD, art good, and ready to forgive; and abundant in mercy to all them that call upon thee. Give ear, O LORD, to my prayer; 6 and attend to the voice of my supplications. In the day of my 7 trouble I will call upon thee: for thou wilt answer me. Among 8 the gods there is none like thee, O LORD; neither are there any works like thy works. All nations whom thou hast made 9 shall come and worship before thee, O LORD; and shall glorify thy name. For thou art great, and doest wondrous things: 10 thou art God alone. Teach me thy way, O LORD; I will walk 11 in thy truth: unite my heart to fear thy name. I will praise 12 thee, O LORD my God, with all my heart: and I will glorify thy name for evermore. For great is thy mercy towards me: 13 and thou hast delivered my soul from the lowest hell. O God, 14 the proud have risen against me, and the assemblies of violent men have sought after my soul; and have not set thee before them. But thou, O LORD, art a God full of compassion, and gracious; long-suffering, and abundant in mercy and truth. O turn to me, and have mercy upon me; give thy strength to thy servant, and save the son of thy handmaid. Show me a token for good; that they who hate me may see it, and be ashamed: because thou, LORD, hast helped me, and comforted me.

87 A Psalm or Song for the sons of Korah. His foundation is in the holy mountains. The LORD loveth the gates of Zion more than all the dwellings of Jacob. Glorious things are spoken of thee, O city of God. Selah. I will make mention of Rahab and Babylon to them that know me: behold Philistia, and Tyre, with Cush; this man was born there. And of Zion it shall be said, This and that man was born in her: and the Highest himself shall establish her. The LORD shall count, when he writeth up the people, that this man was born there. Selah. As well the singers as the players on instruments shall be there: all my springs are in thee.

88 A Song or Psalm for the sons of Korah, to the chief Musician upon Mahalath Leannoth, Maschil of Heman the Ezrahite. O LORD God of my salvation, I have cried day and night before thee: Let my prayer come before thee: incline thy ear to my cry; For my soul is full of troubles: and my life draweth nigh to the grave. I am counted with them that go down into the pit: I am as a man that hath no strength: Free among the dead, like the slain that lie in the grave, whom thou rememberest no more: and they are cut off from thy hand. Thou hast laid me in the lowest pit, in darkness, in the deeps. Thy wrath lieth hard upon me, and thou hast afflicted me with all thy waves. Selah. Thou hast put away my acquaintance far from me; thou hast made me an abomination to them: I am shut up, and I cannot come forth. My eye mourneth by reason of affliction: LORD, I have called daily upon thee, I have stretched out my hands to thee. Wilt thou show wonders to the dead? shall the dead arise and praise thee? Selah. Shall thy loving-kindness be declared in the grave? or thy faithfulness in destruction? Shall thy wonders be known in the dark? and thy righteousness in the land of forgetfulness? But to thee have I cried, O LORD; and in the morning shall my prayer come before thee. LORD, why castest thou off my soul? why 14 hidest thou thy face from me? I am afflicted and ready to die 15 from my youth up: while I suffer thy terrors I am distracted.

 Thy fierce wrath goeth over me; thy terrors have cut me off. 16 They came around me daily like water; they encompassed me 17 together. Lover and friend hast thou put far from me, and my 18 acquaintance into darkness.

Maschil of Ethan the Ezrahite. I will sing of the mercies 89 of the LORD for ever: with my mouth will I make known thy faithfulness to all generations. For I have said, Mercy shall 2 be built up for ever: thy faithfulness wilt thou establish in the very heavens. I have made a covenant with my chosen, 3 I have sworn to David my servant, Thy seed will I establish 4 for ever, and build up thy throne to all generations. Selah.
 And the heavens shall praise thy wonders, O LORD; thy faith- 5 fulness also in the congregation of the saints. For who in the 6 heaven can be compared to the LORD? who among the sons of the mighty can be likened to the LORD? God is greatly to be 7 feared in the assembly of the saints, and to be had in reverence by all them that are about him. O LORD God of hosts, who is 8 a strong LORD like to thee? or to thy faithfulness around thee?
 Thou rulest the raging of the sea: when its waves arise, thou 9 stillest them. Thou hast broken Rahab in pieces, as one that 10 is slain; thou hast scattered thy enemies with thy strong arm.
 The heavens are thine, the earth also is thine: as for the world, 11 and the fullness of it, thou hast founded them. The north and 12 the south thou hast created them: Tabor and Hermon shall rejoice in thy name. Thou hast a mighty arm: strong is thy 13 hand, and high is thy right hand. Justice and judgment are 14 the habitation of thy throne: mercy and truth shall go before thy face. Blessed are the people that know the joyful sound: 15 they shall walk, O LORD, in the light of thy countenance. In 16 thy name shall they rejoice all the day: and in thy righteousness shall they be exalted. For thou art the glory of their 17 strength: and in thy favor our horn shall be exalted. For the 18 LORD is our defense; and the Holy One of Israel is our king.
 Then thou didst speak in vision to thy holy one, and say, I have 19 laid help upon one that is mighty; I have exalted one chosen out of the people. I have found David my servant; with my 20 holy oil have I anointed him: With whom my hand shall be 21 22 established: my arm also shall strengthen him. The enemy shall not exact upon him; nor the son of wickedness afflict him.

23 And I will beat down his foes before his face, and afflict them 24 that hate him. But my faithfulness and my mercy shall be 25 with him: and in my name shall his horn be exalted. I will set 26 his hand also in the sea, and his right hand in the rivers. He shall cry to me, Thou art my father, my God, and the rock of my 27 salvation. Also I will make him my first-born, higher than the 28 kings of the earth. My mercy will I keep for him for evermore, 29 and my covenant shall stand fast with him. His seed also will I make to endure for ever, and his throne as the days of heaven.
30 If his children forsake my law, and walk not in my judgments; 31 If they break my statutes, and keep not my commandments; 32 Then will I visit their transgression with the rod, and their 33 iniquity with stripes. Nevertheless my loving-kindness will I not utterly take from him, nor suffer my faithfulness to fail.
34 My covenant will I not break, nor alter the thing that hath gone out of my lips. Once have I sworn by my holiness that I 35 will not lie to David. His seed shall endure for ever, and his throne as the sun before me. It shall be established for ever 36 as the moon, and as a faithful witness in heaven. Selah. But thou hast cast off and abhorred, thou hast been wroth with 37 thy anointed. Thou hast made void the covenant of thy servant: thou hast profaned his crown by casting it to the ground.
38 Thou hast broken down all his hedges; thou hast brought his strong holds to ruin. All that pass by the way plunder him: 39 he is a reproach to his neighbors. Thou hast set up the right hand of his adversaries; thou hast made all his enemies to re-40 joyce. Thou hast also turned the edge of his sword, and hast not made him to stand in the battle. Thou hast made his 41 glory to cease, and cast his throne down to the ground. The days of his youth hast thou shortened: thou hast covered him 42 with shame. Selah. How long, LORD, wilt thou hide thyself?
43 for ever? shall thy wrath burn like fire? Remember how short my time is: why hast thou made all men in vain? What man is he that liveth, and shall not see death? shall he deliver his soul 44 from the hand of the grave? Selah. LORD, where are thy former loving-kindnesses, which thou didst swear to David in thy 45 truth? Remember, LORD, the reproach of thy servants; how I do bear in my bosom the reproach of all the mighty people;

With which thy enemies have reproached, O LORD; with which 51 they have reproached the footsteps of thy anointed Blessed be 52 the LORD for evermore. Amen and amen.

A prayer of Moses the man of God. LORD, thou hast been 90 our dwelling-place in all generations. Before the mountains 2 were brought forth, or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting, thou art God.
 Thou turnest man to destruction; and sayest, Return, ye chil- 3 dren of men. For a thousand years in thy sight are but as 4 yesterday when it is past, and as a watch in the night. Thou 5 carriest them away as with a flood; they are as a sleep; in the morning they are like grass which groweth. In the morning 6 it flourisheth, and groweth; in the evening it is cut down, and withereth. For we are consumed by thy anger, and by thy 7 wrath are we troubled. Thou hast set our iniquities before 8 thee, our secret sins in the light of thy countenance. For all 9 our days are passed away in thy wrath: we spend our years, as a tale that is told. The days of our years are seventy years; 10 and if by reason of strength they are eighty years, yet is their strength labor and sorrow; for it is soon cut off, and we fly 11 away. Who knoweth the power of thy anger? even according to thy fear, so is thy wrath. So teach us to number our days, 12 that we may apply our hearts to wisdom. Return, O LORD, 13 how long? and repent thou concerning thy servants. O satisfy 14 us early with thy mercy; that we may rejoice and be glad all our days. Make us glad according to the days in which thou hast 15 afflicted us, and the years in which we have seen evil. Let thy 16 work appear to thy servants, and thy glory to their children.
 And let the beauty of the LORD our God be upon us: and estab- 17 lish thou the work of our hands upon us; yes, the work of our hands establish thou it.

He that dwelleth in the secret place of the Most High shall 91 abide under the shadow of the Almighty. I will say of the 2 LORD, He is my refuge and my fortress: my God; in him will I trust. Surely he shall deliver thee from the snare of the 3 fowler, and from the noisome pestilence. He shall cover thee 4 with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust: his truth shall be thy shield and buckler. Thou shalt not be afraid 5 for the terror by night; nor for the arrow that flieth by day; Nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkness; nor for the 6 7 destruction that wasteth at noon-day. A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall 8 not come nigh thee. Only with thy eyes shalt thou behold and 9 see the reward of the wicked. Because thou hast made the LORD who is my refuge, even the Most High, thy habitation; 10 There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come 11 nigh thy dwelling. For he shall give his angels charge over 12 thee, to keep thee in all thy ways. They shall bear thee up 13 in their hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone. Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the 14 dragon shalt thou trample under feet. Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him 15 on high, because he hath known my name. He shall call upon me, and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble; I will 16 deliver him, and honor him. With long life will I satisfy him, and show him my salvation.

92 A Psalm or Song for the sabbath day. It is a good thing to give thanks to the LORD, and to sing praises to thy name, O 2 Most High. To show forth thy loving-kindness in the morning, 3 and thy faithfulness every night. Upon an instrument of ten strings, and upon the psaltery; upon the harp with a solemn 4 sound. For thou, LORD, hast made me glad through thy work: 5 I will triumph in the works of thy hands. O LORD, how great 6 are thy works! and thy thoughts are very deep. A brutish man 7 knoweth not; neither doth a fool understand this. When the wicked spring as the grass, and when all the workers of iniquity 8 do flourish; it is that they shall be destroyed for ever: But 9 thou, LORD, art most high for evermore. For lo, thy enemies, O LORD, for lo, thy enemies shall perish; all the workers of iniquity 10 shall be scattered. But my horn shalt thou exalt like 11 the horn of an unicorn: I shall be anointed with fresh oil. My eye also shall see my desire on my enemies, and my ears shall 12 hear my desire of the wicked that rise up against me. The righteous shall flourish like the palm-tree; he shall grow like a 13 cedar in Lebanon. Those that are planted in the house of the 14 LORD shall flourish in the courts of our God. They shall still bring forth fruit in old age; they shall be fat and flourishing; 15 To show that the LORD is upright: he is my rock, and there is no unrighteousness in him.

93 The LORD reigneth, he is clothed with majesty; the LORD is clothed with strength, with which he hath girded himself: the world also is established, that it cannot be moved. Thy throne 2 is established of old: thou art from everlasting. The floods 3 have lifted up, O LORD, the floods have lifted up their voice; the floods lift their waves. The LORD on high is mightier than 4 the noise of many waters, yes, than the mighty waves of the sea. Thy testimonies are very sure: holiness becometh thy 5 house, O LORD, for ever.

O LORD God, to whom vengeance belongeth; O God, to whom 94 vengeance belongeth, show thyself. Lift up thyself, thou judge 2 of the earth: render a reward to the proud. LORD, how long 3 shall the wicked, how long shall the wicked triumph? How 4 long shall they utter and speak hard things? and all the workers of iniquity boast themselves? They break in pieces thy 5 people, O LORD, and afflict thy heritage. They slay the widow 6 and the stranger, and murder the fatherless. Yet they say, 7
 The LORD will not see, neither will the God of Jacob regard it.
 Understand, ye brutish among the people: and ye fools, when 8 will ye be wise? He that planted the ear, shall he not hear? he 9 that formed the eye, shall he not see? He that chastiseth the 10 heathen, shall he not correct? he that teacheth man knowledge, shall he not know? The LORD knoweth the thoughts 11 of man, that they are vanity. Blessed is the man whom thou 12 chastenest, O LORD, and teachest him out of thy law; That 13 thou mayest give him rest from the days of adversity, until the pit be digged for the wicked. For the LORD will not cast 14 off his people, neither will he forsake his inheritance. But 15 judgment shall return to righteousness: and all the upright in heart shall follow it. Who will rise up for me against the 16 evil-doers? or who will stand up for me against the workers of iniquity? Unless the LORD had been my help, my soul had 17 almost dwelt in silence. When I said, My foot slippeth; thy 18 mercy, O LORD, held me up. In the multitude of my thoughts 19 within me, thy comforts delight my soul. Shall the throne of 20 iniquity have fellowship with thee, which frameth mischief by a law? They assemble themselves against the soul of the righ- 21 teous, and condemn the innocent blood. But the LORD is my 22 defense; and my God is the rock of my refuge. And he will 23 bring upon them their own iniquity, and will cut them off in their own wickedness; yes, the LORD our God will cut them off.

95 O come, let us sing to the LORD: let us make a joyful noise 2 to the rock of our salvation. Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving, and make a joyful noise to him with psalms.
3 For the LORD is a great God, and a great King above all gods.
4 In his hand are the deep places of the earth: the strength of 5 the hills is his also. The sea is his, and he made it: and his 6 hands formed the dry land. O come, let us worship and bow 7 down: let us kneel before the LORD our maker. For he is our God; and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of 8 his hand. To-day, if ye will hear his voice, Harden not your heart, as in the provocation, and as in the day of temptation in 9 the wilderness: When your fathers tempted me, proved me, 10 and saw my work. Forty years long was I grieved with this generation, and said, It is a people that do err in their heart, 11 and they have not known my ways: To whom I swore in my wrath, that they should not enter into my rest.

96 O sing to the LORD a new song: sing to the LORD, all the 2 earth. Sing to the LORD, bless his name; show forth his sal-3 vation from day to day. Declare his glory among the heathen, 4 his wonders among all people. For the LORD is great, and 5 greatly to be praised: he is to be feared above all gods. For all the gods of the nations are idols: but the LORD made the 6 heavens. Honor and majesty are before him: strength and 7 beauty are in his sanctuary. Give to the LORD, O ye kindreds 8 of the people, give to the LORD glory and strength. Give to the LORD the glory due to his name: bring an offering, and come 9 into his courts. O worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness: 10 fear before him, all the earth. Say among the heathen that the LORD reigneth: the world also shall be established that it 11 shall not be moved: he will judge the people righteously. Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad; let the sea roar, 12 and the fullness of it. Let the field be joyful, and all that is in it: then shall all the trees of the wood rejoice before the LORD: 13 For he cometh, for he cometh to judge the earth: he will judge the world with righteousness, and the people with his truth.

97 The LORD reigneth; let the earth rejoice; let the multitude 2 of isles be glad. Clouds and darkness surround him: righ-3 teousness and judgment are the habitation of his throne. A fire goeth before him, and burneth up his enemies round about.
4 His lightnings enlightened the world: the earth saw, and trembled. The hills melted like wax at the presence of the LORD, 5 at the presence of the LORD of the whole earth. The heav- 6 ens declare his righteousness, and all the people see his glory.

 Confounded be all they that serve graven images, that boast 7 themselves of idols; worship him, all ye gods. Zion heard, and 8 was glad; and the daughters of Judah rejoiced because of thy judgments, O LORD. For thou, LORD, art high above all the 9 earth: thou art exalted far above all gods. Ye that love the 10 LORD, hate evil: he preserveth the souls of his saints; he delivereth them out of the hand of the wicked. Light is sown for the 11 righteous, and gladness for the upright in heart. Rejoice in 12 the LORD, ye righteous; and give thanks at the remembrance of his holiness.

A Psalm. O sing to the LORD a new song; for he hath done 98 marvelous things: his right hand, and his holy arm, hath gotten him the victory. The LORD hath made known his salva- 2 tion: his righteousness hath he openly shown in the sight of the heathen. He hath remembered his mercy and his truth 3 towards the house of Israel: all the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God. Make a joyful noise to the LORD, 4 all the earth: make a loud noise, and rejoice, and sing praise.
 Sing to the LORD with the harp; with the harp, and the voice 5 of a psalm. With trumpets and sound of cornet make a joyful noise before the LORD, the King. Let the sea roar, and the 6 fullness of it, the world, and they that dwell therein. Let the 7 floods clap their hands: let the hills be joyful together Before 8 the LORD; for he cometh to judge the earth: with righteousness will he judge the world, and the people with equity. 9

The LORD reigneth; let the people tremble: he setteth 99 between the cherubim; let the earth be moved. The LORD is 2 great in Zion; and he is high above all people. Let them 3 praise thy great and terrible name; for it is holy. The king's 4 strength also loveth judgment; thou dost establish equity, thou executest judgment and righteousness in Jacob. Exalt ye the 5 LORD our God, and worship at his footstool; for he is holy.
 Moses and Aaron among his priests, and Samuel among them 6 that call upon his name; they called upon the LORD, and he answered them. He spoke to them in the cloudy pillar: they kept 7 his testimonies, and the ordinance that he gave them. Thou 8 didst answer them, O LORD our God: thou wast a God that forgavest them, though thou tookest vengeance of their inventions. Exalt the LORD our God, and worship at his holy hill; for the LORD our God is holy.

100 A Psalm of praise. Make a joyful noise to the LORD, all ye lands. Serve the LORD with gladness: come before his presence with singing. Know ye that the LORD he is God: it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture. Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankful to him, and bless his name. For the LORD is good; his mercy is everlasting; and his truth endureth to all generations.

101 A Psalm of David. I will sing of mercy and judgment: to thee, O LORD, will I sing. I will behave myself wisely in a perfect way. O when wilt thou come to me? I will walk within my house with a perfect heart. I will set no wicked thing before my eyes: I hate the work of them that turn aside; it shall not cleave to me. A froward heart shall depart from me: I will not know a wicked person. Whoever privily slandereth his neighbor, him will I cut off: him that hath a high look and a proud heart I will not suffer. My eyes shall be upon the faithful of the land, that they may dwell with me: he that walketh in a perfect way, he shall serve me. He that worketh deceit shall not dwell within my house: he that telleth lies shall not tarry in my sight. I will early destroy all the wicked of the land; that I may cut off all who practice wickedness from the city of the LORD.

102 A Prayer of the afflicted, when he is overwhelmed, and poureth out his complaint before the LORD. Hear my prayer, O LORD, and let my cry come to thee. Hide not thy face from me in the day when I am in trouble; incline thy ear to me: in the day when I call, answer me speedily. For my days are consumed like smoke, and my bones are burned as an hearth. My heart is smitten, and withered like grass; so that I forget to eat my bread. By reason of the voice of my groaning, my bones cleave to my skin. I am like a pelican of the wilderness: I am like an owl of the desert. I watch, and am as a sparrow alone upon the house top. My enemies reproach me all the day; and they that are enraged against me are sworn against me. For I have eaten ashes like bread, and mingled my drink with weeping, Because of thy indignation and thy wrath: for thou hast lifted me up, and cast me down. My days are like a shadow 11 that declineth; and I am withered like grass. But thou, O 12 LORD, shalt endure for ever; and thy remembrance to all gen- 13 erations. Thou shalt arise, and have mercy upon Zion: for the 14 time to favor her, yes, the set time, is come. For thy servants 15 take pleasure in her stones, and favor the dust thereof. So 16 the heathen shall fear the name of the LORD: and all the kings 17 of the earth thy glory. When the LORD shall build up Zion, 18 he will appear in his glory. He will regard the prayer of the 19 destitute, and not despise their prayer. This shall be written 20 for the generation to come: and the people which shall be cre- 21 ated shall praise the LORD. For he hath looked down from 22 the hight of his sanctuary; from heaven hath the LORD beheld 23 the earth; To hear the groaning of the prisoner; to loose those 24 that are appointed to death; To declare the name of the LORD 25 in Zion, and his praise in Jerusalem; When the people are as- 26 sembled, and the kingdoms, to serve the LORD. He weakened 27 my strength in the way; he shortened my days. I said, O my 28 God, take me not away in the midst of my days: thy years are throughout all generations. Of old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the work of thy hands.

 They shall perish, but thou wilt endure: yes, all of them shall grow old like a garment; as a vesture wilt thou change them, and they shall be changed: But thou art the same, and thy years will have no end. The children of thy servants shall continue, and their seed shall be established before thee.

A Psalm of David. Bless the LORD, O my soul: and all that 103 is within me, bless his holy name. Bless the LORD, O my 2 soul, and forget not all his benefits: Who forgiveth all thy in- 3 iquities; who healeth all thy diseases; Who redeemeth thy life 4 from destruction; who crowneth thee with loving-kindness and tender mercies; Who satisfieth thy mouth with good things; 5 so that thy youth is renewed like the eagle's. The LORD exe- 6 cuteth righteousness and judgment for all that are oppressed.
 He made known his ways to Moses, his acts to the children of 7 Israel. The LORD is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and 8 abundant in mercy. He will not always chide: neither will he 9 keep his anger for ever. He hath not dealt with us according 10 to our sins; nor rewarded us according to our iniquities. For 11 as the heaven is high above the earth, so great is his mercy to-12 wards them that fear him. As far as the east is from the west, 13 so far hath he removed our transgressions from us. Like as a father pitieth his children, so the LORD pitieth them that fear 14 him. For he knoweth our frame; he remembereth that we are 15 dust. As for man, his days are as grass: as a flower of the field, 16 so he flourisheth. For the wind passeth over it, and it is gone; 17 and its place shall know it no more. But the mercy of the LORD is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear 18 him, and his righteousness to children's children; To such as keep his covenant, and to those that remember his command-19 ments to do them. The LORD hath prepared his throne in the 20 heavens; and his kingdom ruleth over all. Bless the LORD, ye his angels, that excel in strength, that do his commandments, 21 hearkening to the voice of his word. Bless ye the LORD, all 22 ye his hosts; ye ministers of his, that do his pleasure. Bless the LORD, all his works in all places of his dominion: bless the LORD, O my soul.

104 Bless the LORD, O my soul. O LORD my God, thou art very 2 great; thou art clothed with honor and majesty. Who coverest thyself with light as with a garment: who stretchest out the 3 heavens like a curtain: Who layeth the beams of his chambers in the waters: who maketh the clouds his chariot: who walketh 4 upon the wings of the wind: Who maketh his angels spirits; 5 his ministers a flaming fire: Who laid the foundations of the 6 earth, that it should not be removed for ever. Thou coveredst it with the deep as with a garment: the waters stood above the 7 mountains. At thy rebuke they fled; at the voice of thy thun-8 der they hasted away. They go up by the mountains; they go down by the valleys to the place which thou hast founded for 9 them. Thou hast set a bound that they may not pass over; that 10 they turn not again to cover the earth. He sendeth the springs 11 into the valleys, which run among the hills. They give drink to every beast of the field: the wild asses quench their thirst.
12 By them shall the fowls of the heaven have their habitation, 13 which sing among the branches. He watereth the hills from his chambers: the earth is satisfied with the fruit of thy works.
14 He causeth the grass to grow for the cattle, and herb for the service of man: that he may bring forth food out of the earth; 15 And wine that maketh glad the heart of man, and oil to make his face to shine, and bread which strengtheneth man's heart.

The trees of the LORD are full of sap; the cedars of Lebanon, 16 which he hath planted; Where the birds make their nests: 17 as for the stork, the fir-trees are her house. The high hills 18 are a refuge for the wild goats; and the rocks for the conies.
 He appointeth the moon for seasons: the sun knoweth his going 19 down. Thou makest darkness, and it is night: in which 20 all the beasts of the forest do creep forth. The young lions 21 roar after their prey, and seek their food from God. The sun 22 ariseth, they collect, and lay themselves down in their dens.
 Man goeth forth to his work and to his labor until the evening. 23 O LORD, how manifold are thy works! in wisdom hast thou 24 made them all: the earth is full of thy riches. So is this 25 great and wide sea, in which are creeping animals innumerable, both small and great beasts. There go the ships: there is 26 that leviathan, which thou hast made to play therein. These 27 wait all upon thee; that thou mayest give them their food in due season. That which thou givest them, they gather: thou open- 28 est thy hand, they are filled with good. Thou hidest thy face, 29 they are troubled: thou takest away their breath, they die, and return to their dust. Thou sendest forth thy spirit, they are 30 created: and thou renewest the face of the earth. The glory of 31 the LORD shall endure for ever: the LORD shall rejoice in his works. He looketh on the earth, and it trembleth: he toucheth 32 the hills, and they smoke. I will sing to the LORD as long as I 33 live: I will sing praise to my God while I have my being. My 34 meditation of him shall be sweet: I will be glad in the LORD.
 Let sinners be consumed out of the earth, and let the wicked 35 be no more. Bless thou the LORD, O my soul. Praise ye the LORD.

O give thanks to the LORD; call upon his name: make known 105 his deeds among the people. Sing to him, sing psalms to him: 2 talk ye of all his wondrous works. Glory ye in his holy name: 3 let the heart of them rejoice that seek the LORD. Seek the 4 LORD, and his strength: seek his face evermore. Remember 5 his wonderful works that he hath done; his wonders, and the judgments of his mouth; O ye seed of Abraham his servant, 6 ye children of Jacob his chosen. He is the LORD our God: 7 his judgments are in all the earth. He hath remembered his 8 covenant for ever, the word which he commanded to a thousand generations. Which covenant he made with Abraham, and his 9 10 oath to Isaac; And confirmed the same to Jacob for a law, and 11 to Israel for an everlasting covenant: Saying, To thee will I 12 give the land of Canaan, the lot of your inheritance: When they were a few men in number; yes, very few, and strangers in 13 it. When they went from one nation to another, from one king-14 dom to another people; He suffered no man to do them wrong: 15 yes, he reprov'd kings for their sakes; Saying, Touch not my 16 anointed, and do my prophets no harm. Moreover he called for 17 a famine upon the land: he broke the whole staff of bread. He sent a man before them, even Joseph, who was sold for a ser-18 vant: Whose feet they hurt with fetters: he was laid in iron: 19 Until the time that his word came: the word of the LORD tried 20 him. The king sent and loosed him; even the ruler of the peo-21 ple, and let him go free. He made him lord of his house, and 22 ruler of all his substance: To bind his princes at his pleasure; 23 and teach his senators wisdom. Israel also came into Egypt; 24 and Jacob sojourn'd in the land of Ham. And he increased his people greatly; and made them stronger than their enemies.

25 He turned their heart to hate his people, to deal subtilly with 26 his servants. He sent Moses his servant; and Aaron whom he 27 had chosen. They showed his signs among them, and won-28 ders in the land of Ham. He sent darkness, and made it dark; 29 and they rebelled not against his word. He turned their wa-30 ters into blood, and slew their fish. Their land brought forth 31 frogs in abundance, in the chambers of their kings. He spoke, and there came divers sorts of flies, and lice in all their bor-32 ders. He gave them hail for rain, and flaming fire in their 33 land. He smote their vines also and their fig-trees; and broke 34 the trees of their borders. He spoke, and the locusts came, 35 and caterpillars, and that without number, And ate up all the herbs in their land, and devoured the fruit of their ground.
36 He smote also all the first-born in their land, the chief of all 37 their strength. He brought them forth also with silver and gold: and there was not one feeble person among their tribes.
38 Egypt was glad when they departed: for the fear of them fell 39 upon them. He spread a cloud for a covering; and fire to give 40 light in the night. The people asked, and he brought quails, 41 and satisfied them with the bread of heaven. He opened the rock, and the waters gushed out; they ran in the dry places like 42 a river. For he remembered his holy promise, and Abraham his servant. And he brought forth his people with joy, and his chosen with gladness: And gave them the lands of the heathen: and they inherited the labor of the people; That they might observe his statutes, and keep his laws. Praise ye the LORD.

Praise ye the LORD. O give thanks to the LORD; for he 106 is good: for his mercy endureth for ever. Who can utter the mighty acts of the LORD? who can show forth all his praise?
 Blessed are they that keep judgment, and he that doeth righteousness at all times. Remember me, O LORD, with the favor that thou bearest to thy people: O visit me with thy salvation; That I may see the good of thy chosen, that I may rejoice in the gladness of thy nation, that I may glory with thy inheritance. We have sinned with our fathers, we have committed iniquity, we have done wickedly. Our fathers understood not thy wonders in Egypt; they remembered not the multitude of thy mercies; but provoked him at the sea, even at the Red sea. Nevertheless he saved them for his name's sake, that he might make his mighty power to be known. He rebuked the Red sea also, and it was dried up: so he led them through the depths, as through the wilderness. And he saved them from the hand of him that hated them, and redeemed them from the hand of the enemy. And the waters covered their enemies: there was not one of them left. Then they believed his words; they sang his praise. They soon forgot his works; they waited not for his counsel: But lusted exceedingly in the wilderness, and tempted God in the desert. And he gave them their request; but sent leanness into their soul. They envied Moses also in the camp, and Aaron the saint of the LORD. The earth opened and swallowed up Dathan, and covered the company of Abiram. And a fire was kindled in their company; the flame burned up the wicked. They made a calf in Horeb, and worshiped the molten image. Thus they changed their glory into the similitude of an ox that eateth grass. They forgot God their savior, who had done great things in Egypt; Wondrous works in the land of Ham, and terrible things by the Red sea. Therefore he said that he would destroy them, had not Moses his chosen stood before him in the breach, to turn away his wrath, lest he should destroy them. Yes, they despised the pleasant land, they believed not his word: But murmured in their tents, and hearkened not to the voice of the 26 LORD. Therefore he lifted up his hand against them, to over-27 throw them in the wilderness: To overthrow their seed also 28 among the nations, and to scatter them in the lands. They joined themselves also to Baal-peor, and ate the sacrifices of 29 the dead. Thus they provoked him to anger with their in-30 ventions: and the plague broke in upon them. Then stood up Phinehas, and executed judgment: and so the plague was 31 stayed. And that was counted to him for righteousness to all 32 generations for ever. They angered him also at the waters 33 of strife, so that it went ill with Moses for their sakes: Because they provoked his spirit, so that he spoke unadvisedly 34 with his lips. They did not destroy the nations, concerning 35 whom the LORD commanded them: But were mingled among 36 the heathen, and learned their works. And they served their 37 idols: which were a snare to them. Yes, they sacrificed their 38 sons and their daughters to demons, And shed innocent blood, even the blood of their sons and of their daughters, whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan: and the land was polluted 39 with blood. Thus were they defiled with their own works, 40 and went astray with their own inventions. Therefore was the wrath of the LORD kindled against his people, insomuch 41 that he abhorred his own inheritance. And he gave them into the hand of the heathen; and they that hated them ruled 42 over them. Their enemies also oppressed them, and they were 43 brought into subjection under their hand. Many times did he deliver them; but they provoked him with their counsel; and 44 were brought low for their iniquity. Nevertheless he regarded 45 their affliction, when he heard their cry: And he remembered for them his covenant, and repented according to the multitude 46 of his mercies. He made them also to be pitied by all those 47 that carried them captives. Save us, O LORD our God, and gather us from among the heathen, to give thanks to thy holy 48 name, and to triumph in thy praise. Blessed be the LORD God of Israel from everlasting to everlasting: and let all the people say, Amen. Praise ye the LORD.

107 O give thanks to the LORD, for he is good; for his mercy en-2 dureth for ever. Let the redeemed of the LORD say so, whom 3 he hath redeemed from the hand of the enemy; And gathered them out of the lands, from the east, and from the west, from the north, and from the south. They wandered in the wilderness in a solitary way; they found no city to dwell in. Hungry and thirsty, their soul fainted in them. Then they cried to the LORD in their trouble, and he delivered them out of their distresses. And he led them forth by the right way, that they might go to a city of habitation. Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men! For he satisfieth the longing soul, and filleth the hungry soul with goodness. Such as sit in darkness and in the shades of death, being bound in affliction and iron; Because they rebelled against the words of God, and contemned the counsel of the Most High: Therefore he brought down their heart with labor; they fell down, and there was none to help. Then they cried to the LORD in their trouble, and he saved them out of their distresses. He brought them out of darkness and the shades of death, and broke their bands asunder. Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men! For he hath broken the gates of brass, and cut the bars of iron asunder. Fools, because of their transgression, and because of their iniquities, are afflicted. Their soul abhorreth all manner of food; and they draw near to the gates of death. Then they cry to the LORD in their trouble, he saveth them out of their distresses. He sent his word, and healed them, and delivered them from their destructions. Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men! And let them sacrifice the sacrifices of thanksgiving, and declare his works with rejoicing. They that go down to the sea in ships, that do business on great waters; These see the works of the LORD, and his wonders in the deep. For he commandeth, and raiseth the stormy wind, which lifteth up its waves. They mount up to the heaven, they go down again to the depths: their soul is melted because of trouble. They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man, and are at their wit's end. Then they cry to the LORD in their trouble, and he bringeth them out of their distresses. He maketh the storm a calm, so that the waves of the sea are still. Then are they glad because they are quiet; so he bringeth them to their desired haven. Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

32 Let them exalt him also in the congregation of the people, and 33 praise him in the assembly of the elders. He turneth rivers 34 into a wilderness, and the water-springs into dry ground; A fruitful land into barrenness, for the wickedness of them that 35 dwell in it. He turneth the wilderness into a standing wa-36 ter, and dry ground into water-springs. And there he maketh the hungry to dwell, that they may prepare a city for habi-37 tation; And sow the fields, and plant vineyards, which may 38 yield fruits of increase. He blesseth them also, so that they are multiplied greatly; and suffereth not their cattle to de-39 crease. Again, they are diminished and brought low through 40 oppression, affliction, and sorrow. He poureth contempt upon princes, and causeth them to wander in the wilderness, where 41 there is no way. Yet he setteth the poor on high from affliction, 42 and maketh him families like a flock. The righteous shall see 43 it, and rejoice: and all iniquity shall stop her mouth. Whoever is wise, and will observe these things, even they shall understand the loving-kindness of the LORD.

108 A Song or Psalm of David. O God, my heart is fixed; I will 2 sing and give praise, even with my glory. Awake, psaltery and 3 harp: I myself will awake early. I will praise thee, O LORD, among the people: and I will sing praises to thee among the na-4 tions. For thy mercy is great above the heavens: and thy truth 5 reacheth to the clouds. Be thou exalted, O God, above the 6 heavens: and thy glory above all the earth; That thy beloved may be delivered: save with thy right hand, and answer me.
7 God hath spoken in his holiness; I will rejoice, I will divide 8 Shechem, and measure out the valley of Succoth. Gilead is mine; Manasseh is mine; Ephraim also is the strength of my 9 head; Judah is my lawgiver; Moab is my washpot; over Edom 10 will I cast out my shoe; over Philistia will I triumph. Who will bring me into the strong city: who will lead me into Edom?
11 Wilt not thou, O God, who hast cast us off? and wilt not thou, O 12 God, go forth with our armies? Give us help from trouble: for 13 vain is the help of man. Through God we shall do valiantly: for he will tread down our enemies.

109 To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David. Hold not thy 2 peace, O God of my praise; For the mouth of the wicked and the mouth of the deceitful are opened against me: they have 3 spoken against me with a lying tongue. They encompassed me also with words of hatred; and fought against me without a cause. For my love they are my adversaries: but I give myself 4 to prayer. And they have rewarded me evil for good, and ha- 5 tred for my love. Set thou a wicked man over him: and let Sa- 6 tan stand at his right hand. When he shall be judged, let him 7 be condemned: and let his prayer become sin. Let his days 8 be few; and let another take his office. Let his children be fa- 9 therless, and his wife a widow. Let his children be continually 10 vagabonds, and beg: let them seek their bread also out of their desolate places. Let the extortioner catch all that he hath; 11 and let strangers spoil his labor. Let there be none to extend 12 mercy to him: neither let there be any to favor his fatherless children. Let his posterity be cut off; and in the generation 13 following let their name be blotted out. Let the iniquity of 14 his fathers be remembered with the LORD; and let not the sin of his mother be blotted out. Let them be before the LORD 15 continually, that he may cut off the memory of them from the earth. Because that he remembered not to show mercy, but 16 persecuted the poor and needy man, that he might even slay the broken in heart. As he loved cursing, so let it come to him: 17 as he delighted not in blessing, so let it be far from him. As he 18 clothed himself with cursing like as with his garment, so let it come into his bowels like water, and like oil into his bones. Let 19 it be to him as the garment which covereth him, and for a girdle with which he is girded continually. Let this be the reward 20 of my adversaries from the LORD, and of them that speak evil against my soul. But do thou for me, O GOD the Lord, for thy 21 name's sake: because thy mercy is good, deliver thou me. For 22 I am poor and needy, and my heart is wounded within me. I 23 am gone like the shadow when it declineth: I am tossed up and down as the locust. My knees are weak through fasting; and 24 my flesh faileth of fatness. I became also a reproach to them: 25 when they looked upon me they shook their heads. Help me, 26 O LORD my God: O save me according to thy mercy: That 27 they may know that this is thy hand; that thou, LORD, hast done it. Let them curse, but bless thou: when they arise, let 28 them be ashamed; but let thy servant rejoice. Let my adver- 29 saries be clothed with shame, and let them cover themselves with their own confusion, as with a mantle. I will greatly 30 praise the LORD with my mouth; yes, I will praise him among 31 the multitude. For he will stand at the right hand of the poor, to save him from those that condemn his soul.

110 A Psalm of David. The LORD said to my Lord, Sit thou at 2 my right hand, until I make thy enemies thy footstool. The LORD will send the rod of thy strength out of Zion: rule thou 3 in the midst of thy enemies. Thy people shall be willing in the day of thy power, in the beauties of holiness: from the womb of 4 the morning, thou hast the dew of thy youth. The LORD hath sworn, and will not repent, Thou art a priest for ever after the 5 order of Melchisedek. The LORD at thy right hand will strike 6 through kings in the day of his wrath. He will judge among the heathen, he will fill the places with the dead bodies; he will 7 wound the heads over many countries. He will drink of the brook in the way: therefore will he lift up the head.

111 Praise ye the LORD. I will praise the LORD with my whole heart, in the assembly of the upright, and in the congrega-2 tion. The works of the LORD are great, sought out by all them 3 that have pleasure in them. His work is honorable and glori-4 ous: and his righteousness endureth for ever. He hath made his wonderful works to be remembered: the LORD is gracious 5 and full of compassion. He hath given food to them that fear 6 him: he will ever be mindful of his covenant. He hath shown his people the power of his works, that he may give them the 7 heritage of the heathen. The works of his hands are verity 8 and judgment; all his commandments are sure. They stand fast for ever and ever, and are done in truth and uprightness.
9 He sent redemption to his people: he hath commanded his 10 covenant for ever: holy and reverend is his name. The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom: a good understanding have all they that do his commandments: his praise endureth for ever.

112 Praise ye the LORD. Blessed is the man that feareth the 2 LORD, that delighteth greatly in his commandments. His seed shall be mighty upon earth: the generation of the up-3 right shall be blessed. Wealth and riches shall be in his house: 4 and his righteousness endureth for ever. To the upright there ariseth light in darkness: he is gracious, and full of compas-5 sion, and righteous. A good man showeth favor, and lendeth: 6 he will guide his affairs with discretion. Surely he shall not be moved for ever: the righteous shall be in everlasting remembrance. He shall not be afraid of evil tidings: his heart is 7 fixed, trusting in the LORD. His heart is established, he shall 8 not be afraid, until he seeth his desire upon his enemies. He 9 hath dispersed, he hath given to the poor; his righteousness endureth for ever; his horn shall be exalted with honor. The 10 wicked shall see it, and be grieved; he shall gnash with his teeth, and melt away: the desire of the wicked shall perish.

Praise ye the LORD. Praise, O ye servants of the LORD, 113 praise the name of the LORD. Blessed be the name of the 2 LORD from this time forth and for evermore. From the rising 3 of the sun to the going down of the same the LORD'S name is to be praised. The LORD is high above all nations, and his 4 glory above the heavens. Who is like to the LORD our God, 5 who dwelleth on high. Who humbleth himself to behold the 6 things that are in heaven, and in the earth! He raiseth the 7 poor out of the dust, and lifteth the needy out of the dunghill; That he may set him with princes, even with the princes of his 8 people. He maketh the barren woman to keep house, and to 9 be a joyful mother of children. Praise ye the LORD.

When Israel went out of Egypt, the house of Jacob from a 114 people of a foreign language; Judah was his sanctuary, and 2 Israel his dominion. The sea saw it, and fled: Jordan was 3 driven back. The mountains skipped like rams, and the lit- 4 tle hills like lambs. What ailed thee, O thou sea, that thou 5 fleddest? thou Jordan, that thou wast driven back? Ye moun- 6 tains, that ye skipped like rams; and ye little hills, like lambs?
 Tremble, thou earth, at the presence of the LORD, at the pres- 7 ence of the God of Jacob; Who turned the rock into a standing 8 water, the flint into a fountain of waters.

Not to us, O LORD, not to us, but to thy name give glory, for 115 thy mercy, and for thy truth's sake. Why should the heathen 2 say, Where is now their God? But our God is in the heavens: 3 he hath done whatever he pleased. Their idols are silver and 4 gold; the work of men's hands. They have mouths, but they 5 speak not: eyes have they, but they see not: They have ears, 6 but they hear not: noses have they, but they smell not: They 7 have hands, but they handle not: feet have they, but they walk 8 not: neither speak they through their throat. They that make 8 them are like them; so is every one that trusteth in them. O 9 Israel, trust thou in the LORD: he is their help and their shield.

10 O house of Aaron, trust in the LORD: he is their help and their 11 shield. Ye that fear the LORD, trust in the LORD: he is their 12 help and their shield. The LORD hath been mindful of us: he will bless us; he will bless the house of Israel; he will bless 13 the house of Aaron. He will bless them that fear the LORD, 14 both small and great. The LORD will increase you more and 15 more, you and your children. Ye are blessed of the LORD who 16 made heaven and earth. The heaven, even the heavens, are the LORD'S: but the earth hath he given to the children of men.
17 The dead praise not the LORD, neither any that go down into 18 silence. But we will bless the LORD from this time forth and for ever. Praise the LORD.

116 I love the LORD, because he hath heard my voice and my 2 supplications. Because he hath inclined his ear to me, there-3 fore will I call upon him as long as I live. The sorrows of death encompassed me, and the pains of hell came upon me: I 4 found trouble and sorrow. Then I called upon the name of the 5 LORD; O LORD, I beseech thee, deliver my soul. Gracious is 6 the LORD, and righteous; yes, our God is merciful. The LORD preserveth the simple: I was brought low, and he helped me.
7 Return to thy rest, O my soul; for the LORD hath dealt bounti-8 fully with thee. For thou hast delivered my soul from death, 9 my eyes from tears, and my feet from falling. I will walk be-10 fore the LORD in the land of the living. I believed, therefore 11 have I spoken: I was greatly afflicted: I said in my haste, All 12 men are liars. What shall I render to the LORD for all his 13 benefits towards me? I will take the cup of salvation, and call 14 upon the name of the LORD. I will pay my vows to the LORD 15 now in the presence of all his people. Precious in the sight of 16 the LORD is the death of his saints. O LORD, truly I am thy servant; I am thy servant, the son of thy handmaid: thou hast 17 loosed my bonds. I will offer to thee the sacrifice of thanksgiv-18 ing, and will call upon the name of the LORD. I will pay my 19 vows to the LORD now in the presence of all his people, In the courts of the LORD'S house, in the midst of thee, O Jerusalem.
Praise ye the LORD.

117 O praise the LORD, all ye nations: praise him, all ye people.
2 For his merciful kindness is great towards us: and the truth of the LORD endureth for ever. Praise ye the LORD.

118 O give thanks to the LORD; for he is good: because his mercy endureth for ever. Let Israel now say, that his mercy endureth 2 for ever. Let the house of Aaron now say, that his mercy en- 3 dureth for ever. Let them now that fear the LORD say, that 4 his mercy endureth for ever. I called upon the LORD in dis- 5 tress: the LORD answered me, and set me in a large place. 6 The LORD is on my side; I will not fear: what can man do to 7 me? The LORD taketh my part with them that help me: there- 8 fore shall I see my desire upon them that hate me. It is better 9 to trust in the LORD than to put confidence in man. It is bet- 10 ter to trust in the LORD than to put confidence in princes. All 11 nations encompassed me: but in the name of the LORD will I 12 destroy them. They encompassed me; yes, they encompassed 13 me: but in the name of the LORD I will destroy them. They 14 encompassed me like bees; they are quenched as the fire of 15 thorns: for in the name of the LORD I will destroy them. Thou 16 hast violently thrust at me that I might fall: but the LORD 17 helped me. The LORD is my strength and song, and is become 18 my salvation. The voice of rejoicing and salvation is in the 19 tabernacles of the righteous: the right hand of the LORD doeth 20 valiantly. The right hand of the LORD is exalted: the right 21 hand of the LORD doeth valiantly. I shall not die, but live, and 22 declare the works of the LORD. The LORD hath chastened me 23 severely: but he hath not given me over to death. Open to me 24 the gates of righteousness: I will enter them, and I will praise 25 the LORD: This gate of the LORD, into which the righteous 26 shall enter. I will praise thee: for thou hast heard me, and art 27 become my salvation. The stone which the builders refused 28 is become the head stone of the corner. This is the LORD'S 29 doing; it is wonderful in our eyes. This is the day which the LORD hath made; we will rejoice and be glad in it. Save now, I beseech thee, O LORD: O LORD, I beseech thee, send now prosperity. Blessed be he that cometh in the name of the LORD: 26 we have blessed you out of the house of the LORD. God is the 27 LORD, who hath shown us light: bind the sacrifice with cords, even to the horns of the altar. Thou art my God, and I will 28 praise thee: thou art my God, I will exalt thee. O give thanks 29 to the LORD; for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever.

ALEPH. Blessed are the undefiled in the way, who walk in 119 the law of the LORD. Blessed are they that keep his testi- 2 monies, and that seek him with the whole heart. They also do 3 4 no iniquity: they walk in his ways. Thou hast commanded us 5 to keep thy precepts diligently. O that my ways were directed 6 to keep thy statutes! Then shall I not be ashamed, when I 7 have respect to all thy commandments. I will praise thee with uprightness of heart, when I shall have learned thy righteous 8 judgments. I will keep thy statutes: O forsake me not ut-9 terly. BETH. Wherewith shall a young man cleanse his way?

10 by taking heed to it, according to thy word. With my whole heart have I sought thee: O let me not wander from thy com-11 mandments. Thy word have I hid in my heart, that I might 12 not sin against thee. Blessed art thou, O LORD: teach me 13 thy statutes. With my lips have I declared all the judgments 14 of thy mouth. I have rejoiced in the way of thy testimonies, 15 as much as in all riches. I will meditate in thy precepts, and 16 have respect to thy ways. I will delight myself in thy statutes: 17 I will not forget thy word. GIMEL. Deal bountifully with thy 18 servant, that I may live, and keep thy word. Open thou my 19 eyes, that I may behold wondrous things out of thy law. I am a stranger in the earth: hide not thy commandments from me.
20 My soul breaketh for the longing that it hath to thy judgments 21 at all times. Thou hast rebuked the proud that are cursed, 22 who do err from thy commandments. Remove from me re-23 proach and contempt; for I have kept thy testimonies. Princes also did sit and speak against me: but thy servant did medi-24 tate in thy statutes. Thy testimonies also are my delight, and 25 my counselors. DALETH. My soul cleaveth to the dust: revive 26 thou me according to thy word. I have declared my ways, and 27 thou heardest me: teach me thy statutes. Make me to understand the way of thy precepts: so shall I talk of thy wondrous 28 works. My soul melteth for heaviness: strengthen thou me 29 according to thy word. Remove from me the way of lying: and 30 grant me thy law graciously. I have chosen the way of truth: 31 thy judgments have I laid before me. I have adhered to thy 32 testimonies: O LORD, put me not to shame. I will run the way of thy commandments, when thou shalt enlarge my heart.
33 HE. Teach me, O LORD, the way of thy statutes; and I shall 34 keep it to the end. Give me understanding, and I shall keep 35 thy law; yes, I shall observe it with my whole heart. Make me to go in the path of thy commandments; for in that do I delight.
36 Incline my heart to thy testimonies, and not to covetousness.

Turn away my eyes from beholding vanity; and revive thou 37 me in thy way. Establish thy word to thy servant, who is de- 38 voted to thy fear. Turn away my reproach which I fear: for 39 thy judgments are good. Behold, I have longed after thy pre- 40 cepts: revive me in thy righteousness. VAU. Let thy mercies 41 come also to me, O LORD, even thy salvation, according to thy 42 word. So shall I have with which to answer him that reproa- 43 cheth me: for I trust in thy word. And take not the word of 44 truth utterly out of my mouth; for I have hoped in thy judg- 45 ments. So shall I keep thy law continually for ever and ever. 46 And I will walk at liberty: for I seek thy precepts. I will speak 47 of thy testimonies also before kings, and will not be ashamed. 48 And I will delight myself in thy commandments, which I have 49 loved. My hands also will I lift to thy commandments, which 50 I have loved; and I will meditate in thy statutes. ZAIN. Re- 51 member the word to thy servant, upon which thou hast caused 52 me to hope. This is my comfort in my affliction: for thy word 53 hath revived me. The proud have had me greatly in derision: 54 yet I have not declined from thy law. I remembered thy judg- 55 ments of old, O LORD; and have comforted myself. Horror 56 hath taken hold upon me because of the wicked that forsake 57 thy law. Thy statutes have been my songs in the house of 58 my pilgrimage. I have remembered thy name, O LORD, in 59 the night, and have kept thy law. This I had, because I kept 60 thy precepts. CHETH. Thou art my portion, O LORD: I have 61 said that I would keep thy words. I entreated thy favor with 62 my whole heart: be merciful to me according to thy word. I 63 thought on my ways, and turned my feet to thy testimonies. I 64 made haste, and delayed not to keep thy commandments. The 65 bands of the wicked have robbed me: but I have not forgotten 66 thy law. At midnight I will rise to give thanks to thee, because 67 of thy righteous judgments. I am a companion of all them that 68 fear thee, and of them that keep thy precepts. The earth, O 69 LORD, is full of thy mercy: teach me thy statutes. TETH. 70 Thou hast dealt well with thy servant, O LORD, according to 71 thy word. Teach me good judgment and knowledge: for I have 72 believed thy commandments. Before I was afflicted I went 73 astray: but now have I kept thy word. Thou art good, and 74 doest good; teach me thy statutes. The proud have forged a lie 75 against me: but I will keep thy precepts with my whole heart. 76

70, 71 Their heart is as gross as fat; but I delight in thy law. It is 72 good for me that I have been afflicted; that I might learn thy 73 statutes. The law of thy mouth is better to me than thousands 74 of gold and silver. JOD. Thy hands have made me and fash-75 ioned me: give me understanding, that I may learn thy com-76 mandments. They that fear thee will be glad when they see 77 me; because I have hoped in thy word. I know, O LORD, that 78 thy judgments are right, and that thou in faithfulness hast af-79 flicted me. Let, I pray thee, thy merciful kindness be for my 80 comfort, according to thy word to thy servant. Let thy tender 81 mercies come to me, that I may live: for thy law is my delight.
82 Let the proud be ashamed; for they dealt perversely with me 83 without a cause: but I will meditate in thy precepts. Let those 84 that fear thee turn to me, and those that have known thy testi-85 monies. Let my heart be sound in thy statutes; that I may not 86 be ashamed. CAPH. My soul fainteth for thy salvation: but I 87 hope in thy word. My eyes fail for thy word, saying, When wilt 88 thou comfort me? For I am become like a bottle in the smoke; 89 yet I do not forget thy statutes. How many are the days of thy 90 servant? when wilt thou execute judgment on them that per-91 secute me? The proud have digged pits for me, which are not 92 according to thy law. All thy commandments are faithful: they 93 persecute me wrongfully; help thou me. They had almost con-94 sumed me upon earth; but I forsook not thy precepts. Revive 95 me after thy loving-kindness; so shall I keep the testimony of 96 thy mouth. LAMED. For ever, O LORD, thy word is settled in 97 heaven. Thy faithfulness is to all generations: thou hast es-98 tablished the earth, and it abideth. They continue this day ac-99 cording to thy ordinances: for all are thy servants. Unless thy 100 law had been my delights, I should then have perished in my 101 affliction. I will never forget thy precepts: for with them thou hast revived me. I am thine, save me; for I have sought thy precepts. The wicked have waited for me to destroy me: but I will consider thy testimonies. I have seen an end of all perfection: but thy commandment is exceeding broad. MEM. O how I love thy law! it is my meditation all the day. Thou through thy commandments hast made me wiser than my enemies: for they are ever with me. I have more understanding than all my teachers: for thy testimonies are my meditation. I understand more than the ancients, because I keep thy precepts. I have refrained my feet from every evil way, that I might keep thy word. I have not departed from thy judgments: for thou hast 102 taught me. How sweet are thy words to my taste! yes, sweeter 103 than honey to my mouth! Through thy precepts I get under- 104 standing: therefore I hate every false way. NUN. Thy word is 105 a lamp to my feet, and a light to my path. I have sworn, and I 106 will perform it, that I will keep thy righteous judgments. I am 107 afflicted very much: revive me, O LORD, according to thy word.

 Accept, I beseech thee, the free-will-offerings of my mouth, O 108 LORD, and teach me thy judgments. My soul is continually in 109 my hand: yet I do not forget thy law. The wicked have laid 110 a snare for me: yet I erred not from thy precepts. Thy testi- 111 monies have I taken as an heritage for ever: for they are the rejoicing of my heart. I have inclined my heart to perform 112 thy statutes always, even to the end. SAMECH. I hate vain 113 thoughts: but thy law do I love. Thou art my hiding place 114 and my shield: I hope in thy word. Depart from me, ye evil- 115 doers: for I will keep the commandments of my God. Uphold 116 me according to thy word, that I may live: and let me not be ashamed of my hope. Support me, and I shall be safe: and I 117 will have respect to thy statutes continually. Thou hast trod- 118 den down all them that err from thy statutes: for their deceit is falsehood. Thou puttest away all the wicked of the earth 119 like dross: therefore I love thy testimonies. My flesh trem- 120 bleth for fear of thee; and I am afraid of thy judgments. AIN. 121 I have done judgment and justice; leave me not to my oppressors. Be surety for thy servant for good: let not the proud 122 oppress me. My eyes fail for thy salvation, and for the word 123 of thy righteousness. Deal with thy servant according to thy 124 mercy, and teach me thy statutes. I am thy servant; give me 125 understanding, that I may know thy testimonies. It is time for 126 thee, LORD, to work: for they have made void thy law. There- 127 fore I love thy commandments above gold; yes, above fine gold.
 Therefore I esteem all thy precepts concerning all things to be 128 right; and I hate every false way. PE. Thy testimonies are 129 wonderful: therefore doth my soul keep them. The entrance 130 of thy words giveth light; it giveth understanding to the simple. I opened my mouth, and panted: for I longed for thy 131 commandments. Look thou upon me, and be merciful to me, 132 as thou usest to do to those that love thy name. Order my 133 steps in thy word: and let not any iniquity have dominion over 134 me. Deliver me from the oppression of man: so will I keep thy 135 precepts. Make thy face to shine upon thy servant: and teach 136 me thy statutes. Rivers of waters run down my eyes, because 137 they keep not thy law. TSADDI. Righteous art thou, O LORD, 138 and upright are thy judgments. Thy testimonies that thou 139 hast commanded are righteous and very faithful. My zeal hath consumed me; because my enemies have forgotten thy 140 words. Thy word is very pure: therefore thy servant loveth it.

141, 142 I am small and despised: yet I do not forget thy precepts. Thy righteousness is an everlasting righteousness, and thy law is 143 the truth. Trouble and anguish have taken hold on me: yet 144 thy commandments are my delights. The righteousness of thy testimonies is everlasting: give me understanding, and I 145 shall live. KOPH. I cried with my whole heart; hear me, O 146 LORD: I will keep thy statutes. I cried to thee; save me, and I 147 shall keep thy testimonies. I came before the dawning of the 148 morning, and cried: I hoped in thy word. My eyes anticipated 149 the night watches, that I might meditate in thy word. Hear my voice, according to thy loving-kindness: O LORD, revive me 150 according to thy judgment. They draw nigh that follow after 151 mischief: they are far from thy law. Thou art near, O LORD; 152 and all thy commandments are truth. Concerning thy testimonies, I have known of old that thou hast founded them for 153 ever. RESH. Consider my affliction, and deliver me: for I do 154 not forget thy law. Plead my cause, and deliver me: revive me 155 according to thy word. Salvation is far from the wicked: for 156 they seek not thy statutes. Great are thy tender mercies, O 157 LORD: revive me according to thy judgments. Many are my persecutors and my enemies; yet I do not decline from thy testi-158 monies. I beheld the transgressors, and was grieved; because 159 they kept not thy word. Consider how I love thy precepts: re-160 vive me, O LORD, according to thy loving-kindness. Thy word is true from the beginning: and every one of thy righteous judg-161 ments endureth for ever. SCHIN. Princes have persecuted me 162 without a cause; but my heart standeth in awe of thy word. I 163 rejoice at thy word, as one that findeth great spoil. I hate and 164 abhor lying: but thy law do I love. Seven times a day do I 165 praise thee, because of thy righteous judgments. Great peace have they who love thy law: and nothing shall cause them to stumble. LORD, I have hoped for thy salvation, and performed 166 thy commandments. My soul hath kept thy testimonies; and I 167 love them exceedingly. I have kept thy precepts and thy testi- 168 monies: for all my ways are before thee. TAU. Let my cry come 169 near before thee, O LORD: give me understanding according to thy word. Let my supplication come before thee: deliver me 170 according to thy word. My lips shall utter praise, when thou 171 hast taught me thy statutes. My tongue shall speak of thy 172 word: for all thy commandments are righteousness. Let thy 173 hand help me; for I have chosen thy precepts. I have longed 174 for thy salvation, O LORD; and thy law is my delight. Let my 175 soul live, and it shall praise thee; and let thy judgments help me. I have gone astray like a lost sheep; seek thy servant; for 176 I do not forget thy commandments.

A Song of degrees. In my distress I cried to the LORD, and 120 he heard me. Deliver my soul, O LORD, from lying lips, and 2 from a deceitful tongue. What shall be given to thee? or what 3 shall be done to thee, thou false tongue? Sharp arrows of the 4 mighty, with coals of juniper. Woe is me, that I sojourn in 5 Mesech, that I dwell in the tents of Kedar! My soul hath long 6 dwelt with him that hateth peace. I am for peace: but when I 7 speak, they are for war.

A Song of degrees. I will lift up my eyes to the hills, from 121 whence cometh my help. My help cometh from the LORD, 2 who made heaven and earth. He will not suffer thy foot to be 3 moved: he that keepeth thee will not slumber. Behold, he that 4 keepeth Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep. The LORD is 5 thy keeper: the LORD is thy shade upon thy right hand. The 6 sun shall not smite thee by day, nor the moon by night. The 7 LORD will preserve thee from all evil: he will preserve thy soul.
 The LORD will preserve thy going out and thy coming in from 8 this time forth, and even for ever.

A Song of degrees of David. I was glad when they said to 122 me, Let us go into the house of the LORD. Our feet shall 2 stand within thy gates, O Jerusalem. Jerusalem is built as 3 a city that is compact together: Whither the tribes go up, the 4 tribes of the LORD, to the testimony of Israel, to give thanks to the name of the LORD. For there are set thrones of judg- 5 ment, the thrones of the house of David. Pray for the peace of 6 Jerusalem: they shall prosper that love thee. Peace be within 7

- 8 thy walls, and prosperity within thy palaces. For my brethren and companions' sake, I will now say, Peace be within thee.
- 9 Because of the house of the LORD our God I will seek thy good.
- 123 A Song of degrees. To thee I raise my eyes, O thou that 2 dwellest in the heavens. Behold, as the eyes of servants look to the hand of their masters, and as the eyes of a maiden to the hand of her mistress; so our eyes wait upon the LORD our God, 3 until he shall have mercy upon us. Have mercy upon us, O LORD, have mercy upon us; for we are exceedingly filled with 4 contempt. Our soul is exceedingly filled with the scorning of those that are at ease, and with the contempt of the proud.
- 124 A Song of degrees of David. If it had not been the LORD 2 who was on our side, now may Israel say; If it had not been the LORD who was on our side, when men rose up against us: 3 Then they had swallowed us up quick, when their wrath was 4 kindled against us: Then the waters had overwhelmed us, 5 the stream had gone over our soul: Then the proud waters 6 had gone over our soul. Blessed be the LORD, who hath not 7 given us as a prey to their teeth. Our soul hath escaped as a bird out of the snare of the fowlers: the snare is broken, and 8 we have escaped. Our help is in the name of the LORD, who made heaven and earth.
- 125 A Song of degrees. They that trust in the LORD, shall be as mount Zion, which cannot be removed, but abideth for ever.
2 As the mountains are round Jerusalem, so the LORD is around 3 his people from henceforth even for ever. For the rod of the wicked shall not rest upon the lot of the righteous; lest the 4 righteous put forth their hands to iniquity. Do good, O LORD, to those that are good, and to them that are upright in their 5 hearts. As for such as turn aside to their crooked ways, the LORD shall lead them forth with the workers of iniquity: but peace shall be upon Israel.
- 126 A Song of degrees. When the LORD turned again the cap-2 tivity of Zion, we were like them that dream. Then was our mouth filled with laughter, and our tongue with singing: then said they among the heathen, The LORD hath done great things 3 for them. The LORD hath done great things for us; of which 4 we are glad. Turn again our captivity, O LORD, as the streams 5, 6 in the south. They that sow in tears shall reap in joy. He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless return with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.

A Song of degrees for Solomon. Except the LORD shall build 127 the house, they labor in vain that build it: except the LORD shall keep the city, the watchman waketh in vain. It is vain for 2 you to rise early, to sit up late, to eat the bread of sorrows: for so he giveth his beloved sleep. Lo, children are a heritage of 3 the LORD: and the fruit of the womb is his reward. As arrows 4 are in the hand of a mighty man: so are children of the youth.
 Happy is the man that hath his quiver full of them: they shall 5 not be ashamed, but they shall speak with the enemies in the gate.

A Song of degrees. Blessed is every one that feareth the 128 LORD; that walketh in his ways. For thou shalt eat the labor 2 of thy hands: happy shalt thou be, and it shall be well with thee. Thy wife shall be as a fruitful vine by the sides of thy 3 house: thy children like olive plants around thy table. Behold, 4 that thus shall the man be blessed that feareth the LORD. The 5 LORD shall bless thee out of Zion: and thou shalt see the good of Jerusalem all the days of thy life. Yes, thou shalt see thy 6 children's children, and peace upon Israel.

A Song of degrees. Many a time have they afflicted me from 129 my youth, may Israel now say: Many a time have they af- 2 flicted me from my youth: yet they have not prevailed against me. The plowers plowed upon my back: they made long their 3 furrows. The LORD is righteous: he hath cut asunder the 4 cords of the wicked. Let them all be confounded and turned 5 back that hate Zion. Let them be as the grass upon the house- 6 tops, which withereth before it groweth up: With which the mower filleth not his hand; nor he that bindeth sheaves, his 7 bosom. Neither do they who go by, say, The blessing of the 8 LORD be upon you: we bless you in the name of the LORD.

A Song of degrees. Out of the depths have I cried to thee, 130 O LORD. LORD, hear my voice: let thy ears be attentive to 2 the voice of my supplications. If thou, LORD, shouldst mark 3 iniquities, O LORD, who shall stand? But there is forgiveness with thee, that thou mayest be feared. I wait for the LORD, 5 my soul doth wait, and in his word do I hope. My soul waiteth 6 for the LORD more than they that watch for the morning: I say, more than they that watch for the morning. Let Israel hope 7 in the LORD: for with the LORD there is mercy, and with him

8 is plenteous redemption. And he shall redeem Israel from all his iniquities.

131 A Song of degrees of David. LORD, my heart is not haughty, nor my eyes lofty: neither do I exercise myself in great matters, or in things too high for me. Surely I have behaved and quieted myself as a child that is weaned by his mother: my soul is even as a weaned child. Let Israel hope in the LORD from henceforth and for ever.

132 A Song of degrees. LORD, remember David and all his afflictions; How he swore to the LORD, and vowed to the mighty God of Jacob; Surely I will not come into the tabernacle of my house, nor go up into my bed; I will not give sleep to my eyes, or slumber to my eyelids, Until I find a place for the LORD, a habitation for the mighty God of Jacob. Lo, we heard of it at Ephratah: we found it in the fields of the wood. We will go into his tabernacles: we will worship at his footstool. Arise, O LORD, into thy rest; thou, and the ark of thy strength. Let thy priests be clothed with righteousness; and let thy saints shout for joy. For thy servant David's sake turn not away the face of thy anointed. The LORD hath sworn in truth to David; he will not turn from it; Of the fruit of thy body will I set upon thy throne. If thy children will keep my covenant and my testimony that I shall teach them; their children also shall sit upon thy throne for ever. For the LORD hath chosen Zion; he hath desired it for his habitation. This is my rest for ever: here will I dwell; for I have desired it. I will abundantly bless her provision: I will satisfy her poor with bread. I will also clothe her priests with salvation, and her saints shall shout aloud for joy. There will I make the horn of David to bud, I have ordained a lamp for my anointed. His enemies will I clothe with shame: but upon himself shall his crown flourish.

133 A Song of degrees of David. Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity! It is like the precious ointment upon the head, that ran down upon the beard, even Aaron's beard: that went down to the skirts of his garment; As the dew of Hermon, and as the dew that descended upon the mountains of Zion: for there the LORD commanded the blessing, even life for ever.

134 A Song of degrees. Behold, bless ye the LORD, all ye servants of the LORD, who by night stand in the house of the LORD. Lift up your hands in the sanctuary, and bless the 2 LORD. The LORD that made heaven and earth bless thee out 3 of Zion.

Praise ye the LORD. Praise ye the name of the LORD; praise 135 him, O ye servants of the LORD. Ye that stand in the house 2 of the LORD, in the courts of the house of our God, Praise the 3 LORD; for the LORD is good; sing praises to his name; for it is pleasant. For the LORD hath chosen Jacob to himself, and 4 Israel for his peculiar treasure. For I know that the LORD 5 is great, and that our LORD is above all gods. Whatever the 6 LORD pleased, that did he in heaven, and in earth, in the seas, and all deep places. He causeth the vapors to ascend from 7 the ends of the earth; he maketh lightnings for the rain; he bringeth the wind out of his treasuries. Who smote the first- 8 born of Egypt, both of man and beast. Who sent tokens and 9 wonders into the midst of thee, O Egypt, upon Pharaoh, and upon all his servants. Who smote great nations, and slew 10 mighty kings; Sihon king of the Amorites, and Og king of 11 Bashan, and all the kingdoms of Canaan: And gave their land 12 for a heritage, a heritage to Israel his people. Thy name, O 13 LORD, endureth for ever; and thy memorial, O LORD, throughout all generations. For the LORD will judge his people, and 14 he will repent concerning his servants. The idols of the hea- 15 then are silver and gold, the work of men's hands. They have 16 mouths, but they speak not; eyes have they, but they see not.
 They have ears, but they hear not; neither is there any breath 17 in their mouths. They that make them are like them: so is 18 every one that trusteth in them. Bless the LORD, O house of 19 Israel: bless the LORD, O house of Aaron: Bless the LORD, O 20 house of Levi: ye that fear the LORD, bless the LORD. Blessed 21 be the LORD out of Zion, who dwelleth at Jerusalem. Praise ye the LORD.

O give thanks to the LORD; for he is good: for his mercy 136 endureth for ever. O give thanks to the God of gods: for his 2 mercy endureth for ever. O give thanks to the LORD of lords: 3 for his mercy endureth for ever. To him who alone doeth great 4 wonders: for his mercy endureth for ever. To him that by 5 wisdom made the heavens: for his mercy endureth for ever.
 To him that stretched out the earth above the waters: for his 6 mercy endureth for ever. To him that made great lights: for 7 8 his mercy endureth for ever: The sun to rule by day: for his 9 mercy endureth for ever: The moon and stars to rule by night: 10 for his mercy endureth for ever. To him that smote Egypt in 11 their first-born: for his mercy endureth for ever: And brought out Israel from among them: for his mercy endureth for ever: 12 With a strong hand, and with an out-stretched arm: for his 13 mercy endureth for ever. To him who divided the Red sea into 14 parts: for his mercy endureth for ever. And made Israel to pass through the midst of it: for his mercy endureth for ever: 15 But overthrew Pharaoh and his army in the Red sea: for his 16 mercy endureth for ever. To him who led his people through 17 the wilderness: for his mercy endureth for ever. To him who 18 smote great kings: for his mercy endureth for ever: And slew 19 famous kings: for his mercy endureth for ever. Sihon king of 20 the Amorites: for his mercy endureth for ever: And Og king 21 of Bashan: for his mercy endureth for ever: And gave their 22 land for a heritage: for his mercy endureth for ever: Even a heritage to Israel his servant: for his mercy endureth for ever.

 23 Who remembered us in our low estate: for his mercy endureth 24 for ever: And hath redeemed us from our enemies: for his 25 mercy endureth for ever. Who giveth food to all flesh: for his 26 mercy endureth for ever. O give thanks to the God of heaven: for his mercy endureth for ever.

137 By the rivers of Babylon, there we sat down, yes, we wept, 2 when we remembered Zion. We hung our harps upon the wil-3 lows in the midst of it. For there they that carried us away captive required of us a song; and they that wasted us required 4 of us mirth, saying, Sing us one of the songs of Zion. How shall 5 we sing the LORD'S song in a foreign land? If I forget thee, O 6 Jerusalem, let my right hand forget her skill. If I do not remember thee, let my tongue cleave to the roof of my mouth; 7 if I prefer not Jerusalem above my chief joy. Remember, O LORD, the children of Edom in the day of Jerusalem; who said, 8 Raze it, raze it, even to its foundation. O daughter of Babylon, who art to be destroyed; happy shall he be, that rewardeth 9 thee as thou hast served us. Happy shall he be, that taketh and dasheth thy little ones against the stones.

138 A Psalms of David. I will praise thee with my whole heart: 2 before the gods will I sing praise to thee. I will worship towards thy holy temple, and praise thy name for thy loving-kindness and for thy truth: for thou hast magnified thy word above all thy name. In the day when I cried thou didst an- 3 swer me, and strengthen me with strength in my soul. All 4 the kings of the earth shall praise thee, O LORD, when they hear the words of thy mouth. Yes, they shall sing in the ways 5 of the LORD: for great is the glory of the LORD. Though the 6 LORD is high, yet hath he respect to the lowly: but the proud he knoweth afar off. Though I walk in the midst of trouble, 7 thou wilt revive me: thou wilt stretch forth thy hand against the wrath of my enemies, and thy right hand will save me.

 The LORD will perfect that which concerneth me: thy mercy, O 8 LORD, endureth for ever: forsake not the works thy own hands.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David. O LORD, thou 139 hast searched me, and known me. Thou knowest my down- 2 sitting and my up rising, thou understandest my thought afar off. Thou compassest my path and my lying down, and art 3 acquainted with all my ways. For there is not a word on my 4 tongue, but lo, O LORD, thou knowest it altogether. Thou 5 hast beset me behind and before, and laid thy hand upon me.
Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is high, I cannot 6 attain to it. Whither shall I go from thy spirit? or whither 7 shall I flee from thy presence? If I ascend into heaven, thou 8 art there: if I make my bed in hell, behold, thou art there. If 9 I take the wings of the morning, and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea; Even there shall thy hand lead me, and thy 10 right hand shall hold me. If I say, Surely the darkness shall 11 cover me; even the night shall be light about me. Yes, the 12 darkness hideth not from thee; but the night shineth as the day: the darkness and the light are both alike to thee. For 13 thou hast possessed my reins: thou hast covered me in my mother's womb. I will praise thee: for I am fearfully and won- 14 derfully made: wonderful are thy works; and that my soul well knoweth. My substance was not hid from thee when I was 15 made in secret, and curiously formed in the lowest parts of the earth. Thy eyes saw my substance, yet being imperfect; and in 16 thy book all my members were written, which in continuance were fashioned, when as yet there was none of them. How 17 precious also are thy thoughts to me, O God! how great is the sum of them! If I should count them, they are more in num- 18 ber than the sand: when I awake, I am still with thee. Surely 19 thou wilt slay the wicked, O God: depart from me therefore, 20 ye bloody men. For they speak against thee wickedly, and thy 21 enemies take thy name in vain. Do not I hate them, O LORD, that hate thee? and am not I grieved with those that rise up 22 against thee? I hate them with perfect hatred: I count them 23 my enemies. Search me, O God, and know my heart; try me, 24 and know my thoughts: And see if there is any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting.

140 To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David. Deliver me, O LORD, from the evil man: preserve me from the violent man; 2 Who imagine mischiefs in their heart; continually are they as-3 sembled for war. They have sharpened their tongues like a 4 serpent; adder's poison is under their lips. Selah. Keep me, O LORD, from the hands of the wicked; preserve me from the 5 violent man; who have purposed to overthrow my goings. The proud have hid a snare for me, and cords; they have spread a 6 net by the way side: they have set gins for me. Selah. I said to the LORD, Thou art my God: hear the voice of my supplica-7 tions, O LORD. O GOD the Lord, the strength of my salvation, 8 thou hast covered my head in the day of battle. Grant not, O LORD, the desires of the wicked: further not his wicked device; 9 lest they exalt themselves. Selah. As for the head of those that encompass me, let the mischief of their own lips cover 10 them. Let burning coals fall upon them: let them be cast into 11 the fire; into deep pits, that they rise not again. Let not an evil speaker be established on the earth: evil shall hunt the violent 12 man to overthrow him. I know that the LORD will maintain 13 the cause of the afflicted, and the right of the poor. Surely the righteous shall give thanks to thy name: the upright shall dwell in thy presence.

141 A Psalm of David. LORD, I cry to thee: make haste to me; 2 give ear to my voice, when I cry to thee. Let my prayer be set forth before thee as incense; and the lifting up of my hands as 3 the evening sacrifice. Set a watch, O LORD, before my mouth; 4 keep the door of my lips. Incline not my heart to any evil thing, to practice wicked works with men that work iniquity: 5 and let me not eat of their dainties. Let the righteous smite me; it shall be a kindness: and let him reprove me; it shall be an excellent oil, which shall not break my head: for yet my 6 prayer also shall be in their calamities. When their judges are overthrown in stony places, they shall hear my words; for they are sweet. Our bones are scattered at the grave's mouth, as 7 when one cutteth and cleaveth wood upon the earth. But my 8 eyes are to thee, O GOD the LORD: in thee is my trust; leave not my soul destitute. Keep me from the snare which they 9 have laid for me, and the gins of the workers of iniquity. Let 10 the wicked fall into their own nets, whilst I escape.

Maschil of David; a prayer when he was in the cave. I cried 142 to the LORD with my voice; with my voice to the LORD I made my supplication. I poured out my complaint before him; I 2 showed before him my trouble. When my spirit was over- 3 whelmed within me, then thou knewest my path. In the way in which I walked have they privily laid a snare for me. I 4 looked on my right hand, and beheld, but there was no man that would know me: refuge failed me; no man cared for my soul. I cried to thee, O LORD: I said, Thou art my refuge and 5 my portion in the land of the living. Attend to my cry; for I 6 am brought very low: deliver me from my persecutors; for they are stronger than I. Bring my soul out of prison, that I may 7 praise thy name: the righteous shall encompass me; for thou wilt deal bountifully with me.

A Psalm of David. Hear my prayer, O LORD, give ear to 143 my supplications: in thy faithfulness answer me, and in thy righteousness. And enter not into judgment with thy servant: 2 for in thy sight shall no man living be justified. For the en- 3 emy hath persecuted my soul; he hath smitten my life down to the ground; he hath made me to dwell in darkness, as those that have been long dead. Therefore is my spirit overwhelmed 4 within me; my heart within me is desolate. I remember the 5 days of old, I meditate on all thy works; I muse on the work of thy hands. I stretch forth my hands to thee: my soul thirsteth 6 after thee, as a thirsty land. Selah. Hear me speedily, O 7 LORD: my spirit faileth: hide not thy face from me, lest I be like them that go down into the pit. Cause me to hear thy 8 loving-kindness in the morning; for in thee do I trust: cause me to know the way in which I should walk; for I lift up my soul to thee. Deliver me, O LORD, from my enemies: I flee to 9 thee to hide me. Teach me to do thy will; for thou art my God: 10 thy spirit is good; lead me into the land of uprightness. Re- 11 vive me, O LORD, for thy name's sake: for thy righteousness'

12 sake bring my soul out of trouble. And of thy mercy cut off my enemies, and destroy all them that afflict my soul: for I am thy servant.

144 A Psalm of David. Blessed be the LORD my strength, who 2 teacheth my hands to war, and my fingers to fight; My goodness, and my fortress; my high tower, and my deliverer; my shield, and he in whom I trust; who subdueth my people under 3 me. LORD, what is man, that thou takest knowledge of him!
4 or the son of man, that thou makest account of him! Man is like to vanity: his days are as a shadow that passeth away.
5 Bow thy heavens, O LORD, and come down: touch the mountains, and they shall smoke. Cast forth lightning, and scatter 6 them: shoot thy arrows, and destroy them. Send thy hand from above; rid me, and deliver me out of great waters, from 8 the hand of strange children; Whose mouth speaketh vanity, 9 and their right hand is a right hand of falsehood. I will sing a new song to thee, O God: upon a psaltery and an instrument of ten strings will I sing praises to thee. It is he that giveth salvation to kings: who delivereth David his servant 11 from the hurtful sword. Rid me, and deliver me from the hand of strange children, whose mouth speaketh vanity, and their 12 right hand is a right hand of falsehood: That our sons may be as plants grown up in their youth; that our daughters may be as corner stones, polished after the similitude of a palace:
13 That our granaries may be full, affording all manner of store; that our sheep may bring forth thousands and ten thousands 14 in our streets: That our oxen may be strong to labor; that there be no breaking in, nor going out; that there be no complaining in our streets. Happy is that people, that is in such a case: yes, happy is that people, whose God is the LORD.

145 David's Psalm of praise. I will extol thee, my God, O king; 2 and I will bless thy name for ever and ever. Every day will I 3 bless thee; and I will praise thy name for ever and ever. Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised; and his greatness is un-4 searchable. One generation shall praise thy works to another, 5 and shall declare thy mighty acts. I will speak of the glorious 6 honor of thy majesty, and of thy wondrous works. And men shall speak of the might of thy terrible acts: and I will declare 7 thy greatness. They shall abundantly utter the memory of 8 thy great goodness, and shall sing of thy righteousness. The LORD is gracious, and full of compassion; slow to anger, and of great mercy. The LORD is good to all: and his tender mercies are over all his works. All thy works shall praise thee, O LORD; and thy saints shall bless thee. They shall speak of the glory of thy kingdom, and talk of thy power; To make known to the sons of men his mighty acts, and the glorious majesty of his kingdom. Thy kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and thy dominion endureth throughout all generations. The LORD upholdeth all that fall, and raiseth up all those that are bowed down. The eyes of all wait upon thee; and thou givest them their food in due season. Thou openest thy hand, and satisfiest the desire of every living creature. The LORD is righteous in all his ways, and holy in all his works. The LORD is nigh to all them that call upon him, to all that call upon him in truth. He will fulfill the desire of them that fear him: he also will hear their cry, and will save them. The LORD preserveth all them that love him: but all the wicked will he destroy. My mouth shall speak the praise of the LORD: and let all flesh bless his holy name for ever and ever.

Praise ye the LORD. Praise the LORD, O my soul. While I live will I praise the LORD: I will sing praises to my God while I have any being. Put not your trust in princes, nor in the son of man, in whom there is no help. His breath goeth forth, he returneth to his earth; in that very day his thoughts perish. Happy is he that hath the God of Jacob for his help, whose hope is in the LORD his God: Who made heaven, and earth, the sea, and all that is in them: who keepeth truth for ever: Who executeth judgment for the oppressed: who giveth food to the hungry. The LORD looseth the prisoners: The LORD openeth the eyes of the blind: the LORD raiseth them that are bowed down: the LORD loveth the righteous: The LORD preserveth the strangers; he relieveth the fatherless and widow: but the way of the wicked he turneth upside down. The LORD will reign for ever, even thy God, O Zion, to all generations. Praise ye the LORD. 146, 2

Praise ye the LORD: for it is good to sing praises to our God; for it is pleasant; and praise is comely. The LORD buildeth up Jerusalem: he gathereth together the outcasts of Israel. He healeth the broken in heart, and bindeth up their wounds. He telleth the number of the stars; he calleth them all by 147

5 their names. Great is our LORD, and of great power: his un-6 derstanding is infinite. The LORD lifteth up the meek: he 7 casteth the wicked down to the ground. Sing to the LORD with 8 thanksgiving; sing praise upon the harp to our God: Who cov-9 ereth the heaven with clouds, who prepareth rain for the earth, 10 who maketh grass to grow upon the mountains. He giveth to 11 the beast his food, and to the young ravens which cry. He del-12 lighteth not in the strength of the horse: he taketh not pleasure 13 in the legs of a man. The LORD taketh pleasure in them that 14 fear him, in those that hope in his mercy. Praise the LORD, 15 O Jerusalem; praise thy God, O Zion. For he hath strength-16 ened the bars of thy gates; he hath blessed thy children within 17 thee. He maketh peace in thy borders, and filleth thee with 18 the finest of the wheat. He sendeth forth his commandment 19 upon earth: his word runneth very swiftly. He giveth snow 20 like wool: he scattereth the hoar-frost like ashes. He casteth forth his ice like morsels: who can stand before his cold? He sendeth out his word, and melteth them: he causeth his wind to blow, and the waters flow. He showeth his word to Jacob, his statutes and his judgments to Israel. He hath not dealt so with any nation: and as for his judgments, they have not known them. Praise ye the LORD.

148 Praise ye the LORD. Praise ye the LORD from the heavens: 2 praise him in the heights. Praise ye him, all his angels: praise 3 ye him, all his hosts. Praise ye him, sun and moon: praise 4 him, all ye stars of light. Praise him, ye heavens of heavens, 5 and ye waters that are above the heavens. Let them praise the name of the LORD: for he commanded, and they were cre-6 ated. He hath also established them for ever and ever: he 7 hath made a decree which shall not pass. Praise the LORD 8 from the earth, ye dragons, and all deeps: Fire, and hail; snow, 9 and vapors; stormy wind fulfilling his word: Mountains, and 10 all hills; fruitful trees, and all cedars: Beasts, and all cattle; 11 creeping animals, and flying fowl: Kings of the earth, and 12 all people; princes, and all judges of the earth: Both young 13 men, and maidens; old men, and children: Let them praise the name of the LORD: for his name alone is excellent; his glory 14 is above the earth and heaven. He also exalteth the horn of his people, the praise of all his saints; even of the children of Israel, a people near to him. Praise ye the LORD.

Praise ye the LORD. Sing to the LORD a new song, and his 149 praise in the congregation of saints. Let Israel rejoice in him 2 that made him: let the children of Zion be joyful in their King.
Let them praise his name in the dance: let them sing praises to 3 him with the timbrel and harp: For the LORD taketh pleasure 4 in his people: he will beautify the meek with salvation. Let 5 the saints be joyful in glory: let them sing aloud upon their beds. Let the high praises of God be in their mouth, and a 6 two-edged sword in their hand; To execute vengeance upon 7 the heathen, and punishments upon the people; To bind their 8 kings with chains, and their nobles with fetters of iron; To 9 execute upon them the judgment written: this honor have all his saints. Praise ye the LORD.

Praise ye the LORD. Praise God in his sanctuary: praise 150 him in the firmament of his power. Praise him for his mighty 2 acts: praise him according to his excellent greatness. Praise 3 him with the sound of the trumpet: praise him with the psaltery and harp. Praise him with the timbrel and dance: praise 4 him with stringed instruments and organs. Praise him upon 5 the loud cymbals: praise him upon the high sounding cymbals.
Let every thing that hath breath praise the LORD. Praise ye 6
the LORD.

THE PROVERBS.

1  he proverbs of Solomon the son of David, king of Is-2 rael; To know wisdom and instruction; to perceive 3 the words of understanding; To receive the instruc-4 tion of wisdom, justice, and judgment, and equity; To 5 give subtilty to the simple, to the young man knowledge and 6 discretion. A wise man will hear, and will increase learning; 7 and a man of understanding shall attain to wise counsels: To 8 understand a proverb, and the interpretation; the words of the 9 wise, and their dark sayings. The fear of the LORD is the 10 beginning of knowledge: but fools despise wisdom and instruc-11 tion. My son, hear the instruction of thy father, and forsake 12 not the law of thy mother: For they shalt be an ornament of 13 grace to thy head, and chains about thy neck. My son, if sin-14 ners entice thee, consent thou not. If they say, Come with 15 us, let us lay wait for blood, let us lurk privily for the innocent 16 without cause: Let us swallow them up alive as the grave; and 17 whole, as those that go down into the pit: We shall find all pre-18 cious substance, we shall fill our houses with spoil: Cast in thy 19 lot among us; let us all have one purse: My son, walk not thou 20 in the way with them; refrain thy foot from their path: For 21 their feet run to evil, and make haste to shed blood. Surely in 22 vain the net is spread in the sight of any bird. And they lay 23 wait for their own blood; they lurk privily for their own lives.
24 So are the ways of every one that is greedy of gain; who taketh 25 away the life of its owners. Wisdom crieth without; she ut-26 tereth her voice in the streets: She crieth in the chief place 27 of concourse, in the openings of the gates: in the city she ut-28 tereth her words, saying, How long, ye simple ones, will ye 29 love simplicity? and the scorers delight in their scorning, and 30 fools hate knowledge? Turn you at my reproof: behold, I will 31 pour out my spirit to you, I will make known to you my words.
32 Because I have called, and ye refused; I have stretched out 33 my hand, and no man regarded; But ye have set at naught 34 all my counsel, and rejected my reproof: I also will laugh 35 at your calamity; I will mock when your fear cometh; When 36 your fear cometh as desolation, and your destruction cometh as a whirlwind; when distress and anguish cometh upon you. Then shall they call upon me, but I will not answer; they shall seek me early, but they shall not find me: For that they hated knowledge, and did not choose the fear of the LORD: They rejected my counsel: they despised all my reproof. Therefore shall they eat of the fruit of their own way, and be filled with their own devices. For the turning away of the simple shall slay them, and the prosperity of fools shall destroy them. But whoever hearkeneth to me shall dwell in safety, and shall be quiet from fear of evil.

My son, if thou wilt receive my words, and hide my commandments with thee; So that thou incline thy ear to wisdom, and apply thy heart to understanding; Yes, if thou criest after knowledge, and liftest up thy voice for understanding; If thou seekest her as silver, and searchest for her as for hid treasures; Then shalt thou understand the fear of the LORD, and find the knowledge of God. For the LORD giveth wisdom: out of his mouth cometh knowledge and understanding. He layeth up sound wisdom for the righteous: he is a buckler to them that walk uprightly. He keepeth the paths of judgment, and preserveth the way of his saints. Then shalt thou understand righteousness, and judgment, and equity; and every good path. When wisdom entereth into thy heart, and knowledge is pleasant to thy soul; Discretion shall preserve thee, understanding shall keep thee: To deliver thee from the way of the evil man, from the man that speaketh froward things; Who leave the paths of uprightness, to walk in the ways of darkness; Who rejoice to do evil, and delight in the frowardness of the wicked; Whose ways are crooked, and they froward in their paths: To deliver thee from the strange woman, even from the stranger who flattereth with her words; Who forsaketh the guide of her youth, and forgetteth the covenant of her God. For her house inclineth to death, and her paths to the dead. None that go to her return again, neither do they take hold of the paths of life. That thou mayest walk in the way of good men, and keep the paths of the righteous. For the upright shall dwell in the land, and the perfect shall remain in it. But the wicked shall be cut off from the earth, and the transgressors shall be rooted out of it.

My son, forget not my law; but let thy heart keep my com- 3 2 mandments; For length of days, and long life, and peace, shall 3 they add to thee. Let not mercy and truth forsake thee: bind 4 them about thy neck; write them upon the table of thy heart: 5 So shalt thou find favor and good understanding in the sight 6 of God and man. Trust in the LORD with all thy heart; and 7 lean not to thy own understanding. In all thy ways acknowl-8 edge him, and he will direct thy paths. Be not wise in thy 9 own eyes: fear the LORD, and depart from evil. It shall be 10 health to thy navel, and marrow to thy bones. Honor the 11 LORD with thy substance, and with the first-fruits of all thy 12 increase: So shall thy barns be filled with plenty, and thy 13 presses shall burst out with new wine. My son, despise not 14 the chastening of the LORD; neither be weary of his correction: 15 For whom the LORD loveth he correcteth; even as a father the 16 son in whom he delighteth. Happy is the man that findeth 17 wisdom, and the man that getteth understanding. For the 18 merchandise of it is better than the merchandise of silver, and 19 the gain of it than fine gold. She is more precious than rubies: 20 and all the things thou canst desire are not to be compared 21 to her. Length of days is in her right hand; and in her left 22 hand riches and honor. Her ways are ways of pleasantness, 23 and all her paths are peace. She is a tree of life to them that 24 lay hold upon her: and happy is every one that retaineth her.

25 The LORD by wisdom hath founded the earth; by understand-26 ing hath he established the heavens. By his knowledge the 27 depths are broken up, and the clouds drop down the dew. My 28 son, let not them depart from thy eyes: keep sound wisdom 29 and discretion: So shall they be life to thy soul, and grace to 30 thy neck. Then shalt thou walk in thy way safely, and thy foot 31 shall not stumble. When thou liest down, thou shalt not be afraid: but thou shalt lie down, and thy sleep shall be sweet.
Be not afraid of sudden fear, neither of the desolation of the wicked, when it cometh. For the LORD will be thy confidence, and will keep thy foot from being taken. Withhold not good from them to whom it is due, when it is in the power of thy hand to do it. Say not to thy neighbor, Go, and come again, and to-morrow I will give; when thou hast it by thee. Devise not evil against thy neighbor, seeing he dwelleth securely by thee. Strive not with a man without cause, if he hath done thee no harm. Envy thou not the oppressor, and choose none of his ways. For the froward is abomination to the LORD: but 32 his secret is with the righteous. The curse of the LORD is in 33 the house of the wicked: but he blesseth the habitation of the just. Surely he scorneth the scorners: but he giveth grace to 34 the lowly. The wise shall inherit glory: but shame shall be the 35 promotion of fools.

Hear, ye children, the instruction of a father, and attend to 4 know understanding. For I give you good doctrine, forsake ye 2 not my law. For I was my father's son, tender and only beloved 3 in the sight of my mother. He taught me also, and said to me, 4 Let thy heart retain my words: keep my commandments, and live. Get wisdom, get understanding: forget it not; neither de- 5 cline from the words of my mouth. Forsake her not, and she 6 shall preserve thee: love her, and she shall keep thee. Wisdom 7 is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom: and with all thy getting get understanding. Exalt her, and she shall promote 8 thee: she shall bring thee to honor, when thou dost embrace her. She shall give to thy head an ornament of grace: a crown 9 of glory shall she deliver to thee. Hear, O my son, and re- 10 ceive my sayings; and the years of thy life shall be many. I 11 have taught thee in the way of wisdom; I have led thee in right paths. When thou goest, thy steps shall not be straitened; and 12 when thou runnest, thou shalt not stumble. Take fast hold of 13 instruction; let her not go: keep her; for she is thy life. Enter not into the path of the wicked, and go not in the way of evil 14 men. Avoid it, pass not by it, turn from it, and pass away. For 15, 16 they sleep not, except they have done mischief; and their sleep is taken away, unless they cause some to fall. For they eat the 17 bread of wickedness, and drink the wine of violence. But the 18 path of the just is as the shining light, that shineth more and more to the perfect day. The way of the wicked is as dark- 19 ness: they know not at what they stumble. My son, attend to 20 my words; incline thy ear to my sayings. Let them not depart 21 from thy eyes; keep them in the midst of thy heart. For they 22 are life to those that find them, and health to all their flesh.
 Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of 23 life. Put away from thee a froward mouth, and perverse lips 24 put far from thee. Let thy eyes look right on, and let thy eye- 25 lids look straight before thee. Ponder the path of thy feet, and 26 let all thy ways be established. Turn not to the right hand nor 27 to the left: remove thy foot from evil.

5 My son, attend to my wisdom, and bow thy ear to my understanding: That thou mayest regard discretion, and that thy lips may keep knowledge. For the lips of a strange woman drop as a honey-comb, and her mouth is smoother than oil: But her end is bitter as wormwood, sharp as a two-edged sword. Her feet go down to death; her steps take hold on hell. Lest thou shouldst ponder the path of life, her ways are movable, that thou canst not know them. Hear me now therefore, O ye children, and depart not from the words of my mouth. Remove thy way far from her, and come not nigh the door of her house: Lest thou give thy honor to others, and thy years to the cruel: Lest strangers be filled with thy wealth; and thy labors be in the house of a stranger; And thou mourn at the last, when thy flesh and thy body are consumed, And say, How have I hated instruction, and my heart despised reproof; And have not obeyed the voice of my teachers, nor inclined my ear to them that instructed me! I was almost in all evil in the midst of the congregation and assembly. Drink waters out of thy own cistern, and running waters out of thy own well. Let thy fountains be dispersed abroad, and rivers of waters in the streets. Let them be only thy own, and not for strangers with thee. Let thy fountain be blessed: and rejoice with the wife of thy youth. Let her be as the loving hind and pleasant roe; let her breasts satisfy thee at all times; and be thou ravished always with her love. And why wilt thou, my son, be ravished with a strange woman, and embrace the bosom of a stranger? For the ways of man are before the eyes of the LORD, and he pondereth all his goings. His own iniquities shall take the wicked himself, and he shall be held with the cords of his sins. He shall die without instruction; and in the greatness of his folly he shall go astray.

6 My son, if thou art surety for thy friend, if thou hast stricken thy hand with a stranger, Thou art snared with the words of thy mouth, thou art taken with the words of thy mouth. Do this now, my son, and deliver thyself, when thou art come into the hand of thy friend; go, humble thyself, and make sure thy friend. Give not sleep to thy eyes, nor slumber to thy eyelids. Deliver thyself as a roe from the hand of the hunter, and as a bird from the hand of the fowler. Go to the ant, thou sluggard; consider her ways, and be wise: Which having no guide, overseer, or ruler, Provideth her provisions in the summer, and gathereth her food in the harvest. How long wilt thou sleep, O sluggard? when wilt thou arise out of thy sleep? Yet a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep: So shall thy poverty come as one that travelth, and thy want as an armed man. A naughty person, a wicked man, walketh with a froward mouth. He winketh with his eyes, he speaketh with his feet, he teacheth with his fingers; Frowardness is in his heart, he deviseth mischief continually; he soweth discord. Therefore shall his calamity come suddenly; suddenly shall he be broken without remedy. These six things doth the LORD hate: yes, seven are an abomination to him: A proud look, a lying tongue, and hands that shed innocent blood. A heart that deviseth wicked imaginations, feet that are swift in running to mischief, A false witness that speaketh lies, and him that soweth discord among brethren. My son, keep thy father's commandment, and forsake not the law of thy mother: Bind them continually upon thy heart, and tie them about thy neck. When thou goest, it shall lead thee; when thou sleepest, it shall keep thee; and when thou awakest, it shall talk with thee. For the commandment is a lamp; and the law is light; and reproofs of instruction are the way of life: To keep thee from the evil woman, from the flattery of the tongue of a strange woman. Lust not after her beauty in thy heart; neither let her take thee with her eyelids. For by means of a lewd woman a man is brought to a piece of bread: and the adulteress will hunt for the precious life. Can a man take fire in his bosom, and his clothes not be burned? Can one go upon hot coals, and his feet not be burned? So he that goeth in to his neighbor's wife; whoever toucheth her shall not be innocent. Men do not despise a thief, if he stealeth to satisfy his soul when he is hungry; But if he is found, he shall restore sevenfold; he shall give all the substance of his house. But whoever committeth adultery with a woman lacketh understanding: he that doeth it destroyeth his own soul. A wound and dishonor shall he get; and his reproach shall not be wiped away. For jealousy is the rage of a man: therefore he will not spare in the day of vengeance. He will not regard any ransom; neither will he rest content, though thou givest many gifts.

7 My son, keep my words, and lay up my commandments with thee. Keep my commandments, and live; and my law as the apple of thy eye. Bind them upon thy fingers, write them upon the table of thy heart. Say to wisdom, Thou art my sister; and call understanding thy kinswoman: That they may keep thee from the strange woman, from the stranger which flattereth with her words. For at the window of my house I looked through my casement, And beheld among the simple ones, I discerned among the youths, a young man void of understanding, Passing through the street near her corner; and he went the way to her house. In the twilight, in the evening, in the black and dark night: And behold, there met him a woman with the attire of a harlot, and subtil of heart. (She is loud and stubborn; her feet abide not in her house: Now is she without, now in the streets, and lieth in wait at every corner.) So she caught him, and kissed him, and with an impudent face said to him, I have peace-offerings with me; this day have I paid my vows. Therefore I came forth to meet thee, diligently to seek thy face, and I have found thee. I have decked my bed with coverings of tapestry, with carved works, with fine linen of Egypt. I have perfumed my bed with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon. Come, let us take our fill of love until the morning: let us solace ourselves with loves. For the good man is not at home, he is gone a long journey: He hath taken a bag of money with him, and will come home at the day appointed. With her much fair speech she caused him to yield, with the flattering of her lips she impelled him. He goeth after her quickly, as an ox goeth to the slaughter, or as a fool to the correction of the stocks; Till a dart striketh through his liver; as a bird hasteth to the snare, and knoweth not that it is for his life. Now therefore hearken to me, O ye children, and attend to the words of my mouth. Let not thy heart decline to her ways, go not astray in her paths. For she hath cast down many wounded: yes, many strong men have been slain by her. Her house is the way to hell, going down to the chambers of death.

8 Doth not wisdom cry? and understanding put forth her voice? She standeth on the top of high places, by the way in the places of the paths. She crieth at the gates, at the entry of the city, at the entrance of the doors. To you, O men, I call; and my voice is to the sons of man. O ye simple, understand wisdom: and ye fools, be ye of an understanding heart. Hear; for I will speak of excellent things; and the opening of my lips shall be right things. For my mouth shall speak truth; and wickedness is an abomination to my lips. All the words of my mouth are in righteousness; there is nothing froward or perverse in them. They are all plain to him that understandeth, and right to them that find knowledge. Receive my instruction, and not silver; and knowledge rather than choice gold. For wisdom is better than rubies; and all the things that may be desired are not to be compared to it. I wisdom dwell with prudence, and find out knowledge of ingenious inventions. The fear of the LORD is to hate evil: pride, and arrogance, and the evil way, and the froward mouth, do I hate. Counsel is mine, and sound wisdom: I am understanding; I have strength. By me kings reign, and princes decree justice. By me princes rule, and nobles, even all the judges of the earth. I love them that love me; and those that seek me early shall find me. Riches and honor are with me; durable riches and righteousness. My fruit is better than gold, yes, than fine gold; and my revenue than choice silver. I lead in the way of righteousness, in the midst of the paths of judgment. That I may cause those that love me to inherit substance; and I will fill their treasures. The LORD possessed me in the beginning of his way, before his works of old. I was set up from everlasting, from the beginning, or ever the earth was. When there were no depths, I was brought forth; when there were no fountains abounding with water. Before the mountains were settled, before the hills was I brought forth. While as yet he had not made the earth, nor the fields, nor the highest part of the dust of the world. When he prepared the heavens, I was there: when he set a compass upon the face of the depth: When he established the clouds above: when he strengthened the fountains of the deep: When he gave to the sea his decree, that the waters should not pass his commandment: when he appointed the foundations of the earth: Then I was by him, as one brought up with him: and I was daily his delight, rejoicing always before him; Rejoicing in the habitable part of his earth; and my delights were with the sons of men. Now therefore hearken to me, O ye children: for blessed are they

33 that keep my ways. Hear instruction, and be wise, and refuse 34 it not. Blessed is the man that heareth me, watching daily 35 at my gates, waiting at the posts of my doors. For whoever findeth me findeth life, and shall obtain favor from the LORD.
36 But he that sinneth against me wrongeth his own soul: all they that hate me love death.

9 Wisdom hath built her house, she hath hewn out her seven 2 pillars: She hath killed her beasts; she hath mingled her 3 wine; she hath also furnished her table. She hath sent forth her maidens: she crieth upon the highest places of the city, 4 Whoever is simple, let him turn in hither: as for him that wanteth 5 understanding, she saith to him, Come, eat of my bread, 6 and drink of the wine which I have mingled. Forsake the foolish 7 ish, and live; and go in the way of understanding. He that reproveth a scorner, getteth to himself shame: and he that re-8 buketh a wicked man getteth himself a blot. Reprove not a scorner, lest he shall hate thee: rebuke a wise man, and he 9 will love thee. Give instruction to a wise man, and he will be yet wiser: teach a just man, and he will increase in learn-10 ing. The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom: and 11 the knowledge of the holy is understanding. For by me thy days shall be multiplied, and the years of thy life shall be in-12 creased. If thou art wise, thou shalt be wise for thyself: but 13 if thou scornest, thou alone shalt bear it. A foolish woman is 14 clamorous: she is simple, and knoweth nothing. For she sitteth at the door of her house, on a seat in the high places of the 15, 16 city, To call passengers who go right on their ways: Whoever is simple, let him turn in hither: and as for him that wanteth 17 understanding, she saith to him, Stolen waters are sweet, and 18 bread eaten in secret is pleasant. But he knoweth not that the dead are there; and that her guests are in the depths of hell.

10 The proverbs of Solomon. A wise son maketh a glad father: 2 but a foolish son is the heaviness of his mother. Treasures of wickedness profit nothing: but righteousness delivereth from 3 death. The LORD will not suffer the soul of the righteous to 4 famish: but he casteth away the substance of the wicked. He becometh poor that dealeth with a slack hand: but the hand 5 of the diligent maketh rich. He that gathereth in summer is a wise son: but he that sleepeth in harvest is a son that 6 causeth shame. Blessings are upon the head of the just: but violence covereth the mouth of the wicked. The memory of 7 the just is blessed: but the name of the wicked shall perish.

 The wise in heart will receive commandments: but a prating 8 fool shall fall. He that walketh uprightly walketh surely: but 9 he that perverteth his ways shall be known. He that winketh 10 with the eye causeth sorrow: but a prating fool shall fall. The 11 mouth of a righteous man is a well of life: but violence covereth the mouth of the wicked. Hatred stirreth up strifes: but love 12 covereth all sins. In the lips of him that hath understanding 13 wisdom is found: but a rod is for the back of him that is void of understanding. Wise men lay up knowledge: but the mouth 14 of the foolish is near destruction. The rich man's wealth is his 15 strong city: the destruction of the poor is their poverty. The 16 labor of the righteous tendeth to life: the fruit of the wicked to sin. He is in the way of life that keepeth instruction: but he 17 that refuseth reproof erreth. He that hideth hatred with lying 18 lips, and he that uttereth a slander, is a fool. In the multitude 19 of words there wanteth not sin: but he that restraineth his lips is wise. The tongue of the just is as choice silver: the heart of 20 the wicked is little worth. The lips of the righteous feed many: but fools die for want of wisdom. The blessing of the LORD, it 22 maketh rich, and he addeth no sorrow with it. It is as sport to 23 a fool to do mischief: but a man of understanding hath wisdom.
 The fear of the wicked, it shall come upon him: but the desire 24 of the righteous shall be granted. As the whirlwind passeth, 25 so is the wicked no more: but the righteous is an everlasting foundation. As vinegar to the teeth, and as smoke to the eyes, so is the sluggard to them that send him. The fear of the 27 LORD prolongeth days: but the years of the wicked shall be shortened. The hope of the righteous shall be gladness: but 28 the expectation of the wicked shall perish. The way of the 29 LORD is strength to the upright: but destruction shall be to the workers of iniquity. The righteous shall never be removed: 30 but the wicked shall not inhabit the earth. The mouth of the 31 just bringeth forth wisdom: but the froward tongue shall be cut out. The lips of the righteous know what is acceptable: 32 but the mouth of the wicked speaketh frowardness.

A false balance is abomination to the LORD: but a just 11 weight is his delight. When pride cometh, then cometh shame: 2 but with the lowly is wisdom. The integrity of the upright 3 shall guide them: but the perverseness of transgressors shall 4 destroy them. Riches profit not in the day of wrath: but righ-5 teousness delivereth from death. The righteousness of the perfect shall direct his way: but the wicked shall fall by his own 6 wickedness. The righteousness of the upright shall deliver them: but transgressors shall be taken in their own naughti-7 ness. When a wicked man dieth, his expectation shall perish: 8 and the hope of unjust men perisheth. The righteous is de-9 livered out of trouble, and the wicked cometh in his stead. A hypocrite with his mouth destroyeth his neighbor: but through 10 knowledge shall the just be delivered. When the righteous prosper, the city rejoiceth: and when the wicked perish, there 11 is shouting. By the blessing of the upright the city is exalted: 12 but it is overthrown by the mouth of the wicked. He that is void of wisdom despiseth his neighbor: but a man of under-13 standing holdeth his peace. A tale-bearer revealeth secrets: 14 but he that is of a faithful spirit concealeth the matter. Where no counsel is, the people fall: but in the multitude of coun-15 selors there is safety. He that is surety for a stranger shall 16 smart for it: and he that hateth suretiship is sure. A gracious 17 woman retaineth honor: and strong men retain riches. The merciful man doeth good to his own soul: but he that is cruel 18 troubleth his own flesh. The wicked worketh a deceitful work: but to him that soweth righteousness shall be a sure reward.

19 As righteousness tendeth to life: so he that pursueth evil pur-20 sueth it to his own death. They that are of a froward heart are abomination to the LORD: but such as are upright in their way 21 are his delight. Though hand join in hand, the wicked shall not be unpunished: but the seed of the righteous shall be deliv-22 ered. As a jewel of gold in a swine's snout, so is a fair woman 23 who is without discretion. The desire of the righteous is only 24 good: but the expectation of the wicked is wrath. There is that scattereth, and yet increaseth; and there is that withhold-25 eth more than is meet, but it tendeth to poverty. The liberal soul shall be made fat: and he that watereth shall be watered 26 also himself. He that withholdeth corn, the people shall curse him: but blessing shall be upon the head of him that selleth it.
27 He that diligently seeketh good procureth favor: but he that 28 seeketh mischief, it shall come to him. He that trusteth in his riches shall fall: but the righteous shall flourish as a branch.

He that troubleth his own house shall inherit the wind: and 29 the fool shall be servant to the wise of heart. The fruit of the 30 righteous is a tree of life; and he that winneth souls is wise.
 Behold, the righteous shall be recompensed upon the earth: 31 much more the wicked and the sinner.

Whoever loveth instruction loveth knowledge: but he that 12 hateth reproof is brutish. A good man obtaineth favor from 2 the LORD: but a man of wicked devices he will condemn. A 3 man shall not be established by wickedness: but the root of the righteous shall not be moved. A virtuous woman is a crown 4 to her husband: but she that maketh ashamed is as rottenness in his bones. The thoughts of the righteous are right: but the 5 counsels of the wicked are deceit. The words of the wicked 6 are to lie in wait for blood: but the mouth of the upright shall deliver them. The wicked are overthrown, and are not: but 7 the house of the righteous shall stand. A man shall be com- 8 mended according to his wisdom: but he that is of a perverse heart shall be despised. He that is despised, and hath a ser- 9 vant, is better than he that honoreth himself, and is destitute of bread. A righteous man regardeth the life of his beast: but 10 the tender mercies of the wicked are cruel. He that tilleth 11 his land shall be satisfied with bread: but he that followeth vain persons is void of understanding. The wicked desireth 12 the net of evil men: but the root of the righteous yieldeth fruit.
 The wicked is snared by the transgression of his lips: but the 13 just shall come out of trouble. A man shall be satisfied with 14 good by the fruit of his mouth: and the recompense of a man's hands shall be rendered to him. The way of a fool is right in 15 his own eyes: but he that hearkeneth to counsel is wise. A 16 fool's wrath is presently known: but a prudent man covereth shame. He that speaketh truth showeth forth righteousness: 17 but a false witness, deceit. There is that speaketh like the 18 piercings of a sword: but the tongue of the wise is health. The 19 lip of truth shall be established for ever: but a lying tongue is but for a moment. Deceit is in the heart of them that imag- 20 ine evil: but to the counselors of peace is joy. There shall no 21 evil happen to the just: but the wicked shall be filled with mischief. Lying lips are abomination to the LORD: but they that 22 deal truly are his delight. A prudent man concealeth knowl- 23 edge: but the heart of fools proclaimeth foolishness. The hand 24 of the diligent shall bear rule: but the slothful shall be under 25 tribute. Heaviness in the heart of man depresseth it: but a 26 good word maketh it glad. The righteous is more excellent than his neighbor: but the way of the wicked seduceth them.

27 The slothful man roasteth not that which he took in hunting: 28 but the substance of a diligent man is precious. In the way of righteousness is life; and in the path of it there is no death.

13 A wise son heareth his father's instruction: but a scorner 2 heareth not rebuke. A man shall eat good by the fruit of his 3 mouth: but the soul of the transgressors shall eat violence. He that keepeth his mouth keepeth his life: but he that openeth 4 wide his lips shall have destruction. The soul of the sluggard desireth, and hath nothing: but the soul of the diligent shall be 5 made fat. A righteous man hateth lying: but a wicked man is 6 lothsome, and cometh to shame. Righteousness keepeth him that is upright in the way: but wickedness overthroweth the 7 sinner. There is that maketh himself rich, yet hath nothing: 8 there is that maketh himself poor, yet hath great riches. The ransom of a man's life is his riches: but the poor heareth not 9 rebuke. The light of the righteous rejoiceth: but the lamp of 10 the wicked shall be extinguished. Only by pride cometh con-11 tention: but with the well-advised is wisdom. Wealth gotten by vanity shall be diminished: but he that gathereth by la-12 bor shall increase. Hope deferred maketh the heart sick: but 13 when the desire cometh, it is a tree of life. Whoever despiseth the word shall be destroyed: but he that feareth the command-14 ment shall be rewarded. The law of the wise is a fountain of 15 life, to depart from the snares of death. Good understanding 16 giveth favor: but the way of transgressors is hard. Every prudent man dealeth with knowledge: but a fool layeth open his 17 folly. A wicked messenger falleth into mischief: but a faith-18 ful ambassador is health. Poverty and shame shall be to him that refuseth instruction: but he that regardeth reproof shall 19 be honored. The desire accomplished is sweet to the soul: but 20 it is abomination to fools to depart from evil. He that walketh with wise men shall be wise: but a companion of fools shall be 21 destroyed. Evil pursueth sinners: but to the righteous good 22 shall be repaid. A good man leaveth an inheritance to his children's children: and the wealth of the sinner is laid up for 23 the just. Much food is in the tillage of the poor: but there is that is destroyed for want of judgment. He that spareth his rod hateth his son: but he that loveth him chasteneth him betimes. The righteous eateth to the satisfying of his soul: but the belly of the wicked shall want.

Every wise woman buildeth her house: but the foolish plucketh it down with her hands. He that walketh in his uprightness feareth the LORD: but he that is perverse in his ways despiseth him. In the mouth of the foolish is a rod of pride: but the lips of the wise shall preserve them. Where no oxen are, the crib is clean: but much increase is by the strength of the ox. A faithful witness will not lie: but a false witness will utter lies. A scorner seeketh wisdom, and findeth it not: but knowledge is easy to him that understandeth. Go from the presence of a foolish man, when thou perceivest not in him the lips of knowledge. The wisdom of the prudent is to understand his way: but the folly of fools is deceit. Fools make a mock at sin: but among the righteous there is favor. The heart knoweth its own bitterness; and a stranger doth not intermeddle with its joy. The house of the wicked shall be overthrown: but the tabernacle of the upright shall flourish. There is a way which seemeth right to a man, but the end of it are the ways of death. Even in laughter the heart is sorrowful; and the end of that mirth is heaviness. The backslider in heart shall be filled with his own ways: and a good man shall be satisfied from himself. The simple believeth every word: but the prudent man looketh well to his going. A wise man feareth, and departeth from evil: but the fool rageth, and is confident. He that is soon angry dealeth foolishly: and a man of wicked devices is hated. The simple inherit folly: but the prudent are crowned with knowledge. The evil bow before the good; and the wicked at the gates of the righteous. The poor is hated even by his own neighbor: but the rich hath many friends. He that despiseth his neighbor sinneth: but he that hath mercy on the poor, happy is he. Do they not err that devise evil? but mercy and truth shall be to them that devise good. In all labor there is profit: but the talk of the lips tendeth only to penury. The crown of the wise is their riches: but the foolishness of fools is folly. A true witness delivereth souls: but a deceitful witness speaketh lies. In the fear of the LORD is strong confidence: and his children shall have a place of refuge. The fear of the LORD is a fountain of life, to depart from the snares of death. In the multitude of people is the king's honor: but in the want of people is the destruction of the prince. He that is slow to wrath is of great understanding: but he that is hasty of spirit exalteth folly. A sound heart is the life of the flesh: but envy the rottenness of the bones. He that oppresseth the poor reproacheth his Maker: but he that honoreth him hath mercy on the poor. The wicked is driven away in his wickedness: but the righteous hath hope in his death. Wisdom resteth in the heart of him that hath understanding: but that which is in the midst of fools is made known. Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people. The king's favor is towards a wise servant: but his wrath is against him that causeth shame.

15 A soft answer turneth away wrath: but grievous words stir up anger. The tongue of the wise useth knowledge aright: but the mouth of fools poureth out foolishness. The eyes of the LORD are in every place, beholding the evil and the good. A wholesome tongue is a tree of life: but perverseness in it is a breach in the spirit. A fool despiseth his father's instruction: but he that regardeth reproof is prudent. In the house of the righteous is much treasure: but in the revenues of the wicked is trouble. The lips of the wise diffuse knowledge: but the heart of the foolish doeth not so. The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to the LORD: but the prayer of the upright is his delight. The way of the wicked is an abomination to the LORD; but he loveth him that followeth after righteousness. Correction is grievous to him that forsaketh the way: and he that hateth reproof shall die. Hell and destruction are before the LORD: how much more then the hearts of the children of men? A scorner loveth not one that reproveth him: neither will he go to the wise. A merry heart maketh a cheerful countenance: but by sorrow of the heart the spirit is broken. The heart of him that hath understanding seeketh knowledge: but the mouth of fools feedeth on foolishness. All the days of the afflicted are evil: but he that is of a merry heart hath a continual feast. Better is little with the fear of the LORD, than great treasure and trouble with it. Better is a dinner of herbs where love is, than a stalled ox and hatred with it. A wrathful man stirreth up strife: but he that is slow to anger appeaseth strife. The way of the slothful man is as a hedge of 19 thorns: but the way of the righteous is made plain. A wise son 20 maketh a glad father: but a foolish man despiseth his mother.

 Folly is joy to him that is destitute of wisdom: but a man of 21 understanding walketh uprightly. Without counsel purposes 22 are disappointed: but in the multitude of counselors they are established. A man hath joy by the answer of his mouth: and 23 a word spoken in due season, how good it is! The way of life is 24 above to the wise, that he may depart from hell beneath. The 25 LORD will destroy the house of the proud: but he will establish the border of the widow. The thoughts of the wicked are an 26 abomination to the LORD: but the words of the pure are pleasant words. He that is greedy of gain troubleth his own house; 27 but he that hateth gifts shall live. The heart of the righteous 28 studieth to answer: but the mouth of the wicked poureth out evil things. The LORD is far from the wicked: but he heareth 29 the prayer of the righteous. The light of the eyes rejoiceth 30 the heart; and a good report maketh the bones fat. The ear 31 that heareth the reproof of life abideth among the wise. He 32 that refuseth instruction despiseth his own soul: but he that heareth reproof getteth understanding. The fear of the LORD 33 is the instruction of wisdom: and before honor is humility.

The preparations of the heart in man, and the answer of the 16 tongue, are from the LORD. All the ways of a man are clean 2 in his own eyes; but the LORD weigheth the spirits. Com- 3 mit thy works to the LORD, and thy thoughts shall be established. The LORD hath made all things for himself: yes, even 4 the wicked for the day of evil. Every one that is proud in 5 heart is an abomination to the LORD: though hand join in hand, he shall not be unpunished. By mercy and truth in- 6 iquity is purged: and by the fear of the LORD men depart from evil. When a man's ways please the LORD, he maketh even his 7 enemies to be at peace with him. Better is a little with righ- 8 teousness, than great revenues without right. A man's heart 9 deviseth his way: but the LORD directeth his steps. A divine 10 sentence is in the lips of the king: his mouth transgresseth not in judgment. A just weight and balance are the LORD'S: all 11 the weights of the bag are his work. It is an abomination to 12 kings to commit wickedness: for the throne is established by righteousness. Righteous lips are the delight of kings; and 13 14 they love him that speaketh right. The wrath of a king is as 15 messengers of death: but a wise man will pacify it. In the light of a king's countenance is life; and his favor is as a cloud 16 of the latter rain. How much better is it to get wisdom than gold? and to get understanding rather to be chosen than sil-17 ver? The highway of the upright is to depart from evil: he 18 that keepeth his way preserveth his soul. Pride goeth before 19 destruction, and a haughty spirit before a fall. Better it is to be of a humble spirit with the lowly, than to divide the spoil 20 with the proud. He that handleth a matter wisely shall find 21 good: and whoever trusteth in the LORD, happy is he. The wise in heart shall be called prudent: and the sweetness of 22 the lips increaseth learning. Understanding is a well-spring of life to him that hath it: but the instruction of fools is folly.

23 The heart of the wise teacheth his mouth, and addeth learning 24 to his lips. Pleasant words are as a honey-comb, sweet to the 25 soul, and health to the bones. There is a way that seemeth 26 right to a man, but the end of it is the ways of death. He that laboreth laboreth for himself; for his mouth craveth it of him.
27 An ungodly man diggeth up evil: and in his lips there is as a 28 burning fire. A froward man soweth strife: and a whisperer 29 separateth chief friends. A violent man enticeth his neighbor, 30 and leadeth him into the way that is not good. He shutteth his eyes to devise froward things: moving his lips he bringeth evil 31 to pass. The hoary head is a crown of glory, if it is found in the 32 way of righteousness. He that is slow to anger is better than the mighty; and he that ruleth his spirit, than he that taketh 33 a city. The lot is cast into the lap: but the whole disposing of it is from the LORD.

17 Better is a dry morsel, and quietness with it, than a house 2 full of sacrifices with strife. A wise servant shall have rule over a son that causeth shame, and shall have part of the in-3 heritance among the brethren. The fining-pot is for silver, 4 and the furnace for gold: but the LORD trieth the hearts. A wicked doer giveth heed to false lips: and a liar giveth ear to 5 a naughty tongue. He that mocketh the poor reproacheth his Maker; and he that is glad at calamities shall not be unpun-6 ished. Children's children are the crown of old men; and the 7 glory of children is their fathers. Excellent speech becometh 8 not a fool: much less do lying lips a prince. A gift is as a precious stone in the eyes of him that hath it: whithersoever it turneth, it prospereth. He that covereth a transgression 9 seeketh love; but he that repeateth a matter separateth very friends. A reproof entereth more into a wise man than a hun- 10 dred stripes into a fool. An evil man seeketh only rebellion: 11 therefore a cruel messenger shall be sent against him. Let 12 a bear robbed of her whelps meet a man, rather than a fool in his folly. Whoever rewardeth evil for good, evil shall not 13 depart from his house. The beginning of strife is as when 14 one letteth out water: therefore withdraw from contention, before it be meddled with. He that justifieth the wicked, and 15 he that condemneth the just, even they both are abomination to the LORD. Why is there a price in the hand of a fool to 16 get wisdom, seeing he hath no heart to it? A friend loveth 17 at all times, and a brother is born for adversity. A man void 18 of understanding striketh hands, and becometh surety in the presence of his friend. He loveth transgression that loveth 19 strife: and he that exalteth his gate seeketh destruction. He 20 that hath a froward heart findeth no good: and he that hath a perverse tongue falleth into mischief. He that begetteth a 21 fool doeth it to his sorrow: and the father of a fool hath no joy.

 A merry heart doeth good like a medicine: but a broken spirit 22 drieth the bones. A wicked man taketh a gift out of the bosom 23 to pervert the ways of judgment. Wisdom is before him that 24 hath understanding; but the eyes of a fool are in the ends of the earth. A foolish son is a grief to his father, and bitterness 25 to her that bore him. Also to punish the just is not good, nor to 26 strike princes for equity. He that hath knowledge spareth his 27 words: and a man of understanding is of an excellent spirit.
 Even a fool, when he holdeth his peace, is counted wise: and 28 he that shutteth his lips is esteemed a man of understanding.

Through desire a man, having separated himself, seeketh 18 and intermeddleth with all wisdom. A fool hath no delight 2 in understanding, but that his heart may reveal itself. When 3 the wicked cometh, then cometh also contempt, and with ignominy reproach. The words of a man's mouth are as deep 4 waters, and the well-spring of wisdom as a flowing brook. It 5 is not good to accept the person of the wicked, to overthrow the righteous in judgment. A fool's lips enter into contention, and 6 his mouth calleth for strokes. A fool's mouth is his destruc- 7 8 tion, and his lips are the snare of his soul. The words of a 9 tale-bearer are as wounds, and they go down into the inner-10 most parts of the belly. He also that is slothful in his work is 11 brother to him that is a great waster. The name of the LORD is 12 a strong tower: the righteous runneth into it, and is safe. The 13 rich man's wealth is his strong city, and as a high wall in his 14 own conceit. Before destruction the heart of man is haughty, 15 and before honor is humility. He that answereth a matter be-16 fore he heareth it, it is folly and shame to him. The spirit 17 of a man will sustain his infirmity; but a wounded spirit who 18 can bear? The heart of the prudent getteth knowledge; and 19 the ear of the wise seeketh knowledge. A man's gift maketh 20 room for him, and bringeth him before great men. He that is 21 first in his own cause seemeth just; but his neighbor cometh 22 and searcheth him. The lot causeth contentions to cease, and 23 parteth between the mighty. A brother offended is harder to 24 be won than a strong city: and their contentions are like the bars of a castle. A man's belly shall be satisfied with the fruit of his mouth; and with the increase of his lips shall he be filled.

Death and life are in the power of the tongue: and they that love it shall eat the fruit of it. Whoever findeth a wife findeth a good thing, and obtaineth favor from the LORD. The poor useth entreaties; but the rich answereth roughly. A man that hath friends must show himself friendly: and there is a friend that sticketh closer than a brother.

19 Better is the poor that walketh in his integrity, than he that 2 is perverse in his lips, and is a fool. Also, that the soul be without knowledge, it is not good; and he that hasteth with his 3 feet sinneth. The foolishness of man perverteth his way: and 4 his heart fretteth against the LORD. Wealth maketh many 5 friends; but the poor is separated from his neighbor. A false witness shall not be unpunished, and he that speaketh lies 6 shall not escape. Many will entreat the favor of the prince: 7 and every man is a friend to him that giveth gifts. All the brethren of the poor do hate him: how much more do his friends 8 go far from him? he pursueth them with words, yet they are 9 wanting to him. He that getteth wisdom loveth his own soul: he that keepeth understanding shall find good. A false witness shall not be unpunished, and he that speaketh lies shall 10 perish. Delight is not seemly for a fool; much less for a servant to have rule over princes. The discretion of a man defer- 11 reth his anger; and it is his glory to pass over a transgression.

 The king's wrath is as the roaring of a lion; but his favor is as 12 dew upon the grass. A foolish son is the calamity of his fa- 13 ther: and the contentions of a wife are a continual dropping.
 House and riches are the inheritance of fathers: and a pru- 14 dent wife is from the LORD. Slothfulness casteth into a deep 15 sleep; and an idle soul shall suffer hunger. He that keepeth 16 the commandment keepeth his own soul; but he that despiseth his ways shall die. He that hath pity upon the poor, lendeth to 17 the LORD; and that which he hath given will he pay him again.
 Chasten thy son while there is hope, and let not thy soul spare 18 for his crying. A man of great wrath shall suffer punishment: 19 for if thou deliver him, yet thou must do it again. Hear coun- 20 sel, and receive instruction, that thou mayest be wise in thy latter end. There are many devices in a man's heart; never- 21 theless the counsel of the LORD, that shall stand. The desire 22 of a man is his kindness: and a poor man is better than a liar.
 The fear of the LORD tendeth to life: and he that hath it shall 23 abide satisfied; he shall not be visited with evil. A slothful 24 man hideth his hand in his bosom, and will not so much as bring it to his mouth again. Smite a scorner and the simple 25 will beware: and reprove one that hath understanding, and he will understand knowledge. He that wasteth his father, 26 and chaseth away his mother, is a son that causeth shame, and bringeth reproach. Cease, my son, to hear the instruction 27 that causeth to err from the words of knowledge. An ungodly 28 witness scorneth judgment: and the mouth of the wicked devoureth iniquity. Judgments are prepared for scorners, and 29 stripes for the back of fools.

Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging: and whoever is 20 deceived by it is not wise. The fear of a king is as the roaring 2 of a lion: whoever provoketh him to anger sinneth against his own soul. It is an honor for a man to cease from strife: but 3 every fool will be meddling. The sluggard will not plow by 4 reason of the cold; therefore shall he beg in harvest, and have nothing. Counsel in the heart of man is like deep water; but 5 a man of understanding will draw it out. Most men will pro- 6 claim every one his own goodness: but a faithful man who can find? The just man walketh in his integrity: his children are 7 8 blessed after him. A king that sitteth on the throne of judgment scattereth away all evil with his eyes. Who can say, I 9 have made my heart clean, I am pure from my sin? Divers 10 weights, and divers measures, both of them are alike abom-11 ination to the LORD. Even a child is known by his doings, 12 whether his work is pure, and whether it is right. The hearing 13 ear, and the seeing eye, the LORD hath made even both 14 eyes, and thou shalt be satisfied with bread. It is naught, it is 15 naught, saith the buyer: but when he is gone, then he boasteth.

16 There is gold, and a multitude of rubies: but the lips of knowl-17 edge are a precious jewel. Take his garment that is surety 18 for a stranger: and take a pledge of him for a strange woman.
19 Bread of deceit is sweet to a man; but afterwards his mouth 20 shall be filled with gravel. Every purpose is established by 21 counsel: and with good advice make war. He that goeth about 22 as a tale-bearer revealeth secrets; therefore meddle not with 23 him that flattereth with his lips. Whoever curseth his father 24 or his mother, his lamp shall be put out in obscure darkness.
25 An inheritance may be gotten hastily at the beginning; but the 26 end of it shall not be blessed. Say not thou, I will recompense 27 evil; but wait on the LORD, and he shall save thee. Divers 28 weights are an abomination to the LORD; and a false balance is 29 not good. Man's goings are of the LORD; how can a man then 30 understand his own way? It is a snare to the man who devoureth that which is holy, and after vows to make inquiry. A wise king scattereth the wicked, and bringeth the wheel over them. The spirit of man is the candle of the LORD, searching all the inward parts of the belly. Mercy and truth preserve the king: and his throne is upheld by mercy. The glory of young men is their strength: and the beauty of old men is the gray head. The blueness of a wound cleanseth away evil: so do stripes the inward parts of the belly.

21 The king's heart is in the hand of the LORD, as the rivers of water: he turneth it whithersoever he will. Every way of a man is right in his own eyes: but the LORD pondereth the hearts. To do justice and judgment is more acceptable to the LORD than sacrifice. A high look, and a proud heart, and the plowing of the wicked, is sin. The thoughts of the diligent tend only to plenteousness; but of every one that is hasty only to want. The getting of treasures by a lying tongue is a 6 vanity tossed to and fro by them that seek death. The rob- 7 bery of the wicked shall destroy them; because they refuse to do judgment. The way of man is froward and strange: but as 8 for the pure, his work is right. It is better to dwell in a cor- 9 ner of the house-top, than with a brawling woman in a wide house. The soul of the wicked desireth evil: his neighbor find- 10 eth no favor in his eyes. When the scorner is punished, the simple is made wise: and when the wise is instructed, he re- 11 ceiveth knowledge. The righteous man wisely considereth the 12 house of the wicked: but God overthroweth the wicked for their wickedness. Whoever stoppeth his ears at the cry of the poor, 13 he also shall cry himself, but shall not be heard. A gift in se- 14 cret pacifieth anger: and a reward in the bosom, strong wrath.

It is joy to the just to do judgment: but destruction shall be to 15 the workers of iniquity. The man that wandereth out of the way of understanding shall remain in the congregation of the 16 dead. He that loveth pleasure shall be a poor man: he that loveth wine and oil shall not be rich. The wicked shall be a 17 ransom for the righteous, and the transgressor for the upright.
It is better to dwell in the wilderness, than with a contentious 18 and an angry woman. There is a treasure to be desired, and oil in the dwelling of the wise; but a foolish man spendeth it 19 up. He that followeth after righteousness and mercy findeth 20 life, righteousness, and honor. A wise man scaleth the city of the mighty, and casteth down the strength of its confidence.
Whoever keepeth his mouth and his tongue keepeth his soul 21 from troubles. Proud and haughty scorner is his name, who 22 dealeth in proud wrath. The desire of the slothful killeth him; for his hands refuse to labor. He coveteth greedily all the day 23 long: but the righteous giveth and spareth not. The sacri- 24 fice of the wicked is abomination: how much more, when he bringeth it with a wicked mind? A false witness shall perish: 25 but the man that heareth speaketh constantly. A wicked man 26 hardeneth his face: but as for the upright, he directeth his way.
There is no wisdom nor understanding nor counsel against the 27 LORD. The horse is prepared against the day of battle: but 28 safety is from the LORD. 29

A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches, and 22 loving favor rather than silver and gold. The rich and poor 2 3 meet together: the LORD is the maker of them all. A prudent 4 man foreseeth the evil, and hideth himself: but the simple pass 5 on, and are punished. By humility and the fear of the LORD 6 are riches, and honor, and life. Thorns and snares are in the 7 way of the froward: he that doth keep his soul shall be far 8 from them. Train up a child in the way he should go: and 9 when he is old, he will not depart from it. The rich ruleth 10 over the poor, and the borrower is servant to the lender. He 11 that soweth iniquity shall reap vanity: and the rod of his anger 12 shall fail. He that hath a bountiful eye shall be blessed; for 13 he giveth of his bread to the poor. Cast out the scorner, and 14 contention shall end; yes, strife and reproach shall cease. He 15 that loveth pureness of heart, for the grace of his lips the king 16 shall be his friend. The eyes of the LORD preserve knowl-17 edge, and he overthroweth the words of the transgressor. The 18 slothful man saith, There is a lion without, I shall be slain in 19 the streets. The mouth of strange women is a deep pit: he 20 that is abhorred by the LORD shall fall therein. Foolishness 21 is bound in the heart of a child; but the rod of correction shall 22 drive it far from him. He that oppresseth the poor to increase 23 his riches, and he that giveth to the rich, shall surely come 24 to want. Bow down thy ear, and hear the words of the wise, 25 and apply thy heart to my knowledge. For it is a pleasant 26 thing if thou keepest them within thee; they shall withal be 27 fitted in thy lips. That thy trust may be in the LORD, I have 28 made known to thee this day, even to thee. Have not I writ-29 ten to thee excellent things in counsels and knowledge, That I might make thee know the certainty of the words of truth; that thou mightest answer the words of truth to them that send to thee? Rob not the poor, because he is poor: neither oppress the afflicted in the gate: For the LORD will plead their cause, and spoil the soul of those that spoiled them. Make no friendship with an angry man; and with a furious man thou shalt not go: Lest thou learn his ways, and get a snare to thy soul.

Be not thou one of them that strike hands, or of them that are sureties for debts. If thou hast nothing to pay, why should he take away thy bed from under thee? Remove not the ancient landmark, which thy fathers have set. Seest thou a man diligent in his business? he shall stand before kings; he shall not stand before mean men.

When thou sittest to eat with a ruler, consider diligently 23 what is before thee: And put a knife to thy throat, if thou art 2 a man given to appetite. Be not desirous of his dainties: for 3 they are deceitful food. Labor not to be rich: cease from thy 4 own wisdom. Wilt thou set thy eyes upon that which is not? 5 for riches certainly make to themselves wings; they fly away as an eagle towards heaven. Eat thou not the bread of him that 6 hath an evil eye, neither desire thou his dainties: For as he 7 thinketh in his heart, so is he: Eat and drink, saith he to thee; but his heart is not with thee. The morsel which thou hast 8 eaten shalt thou vomit up, and lose thy sweet words. Speak 9 not in the ears of a fool: for he will despise the wisdom of thy words. Remove not the old landmark; and enter not into the 10 fields of the fatherless: For their redeemer is mighty; he will plead their cause with thee. Apply thy heart to instruction, 11 and thy ears to the words of knowledge. Withhold not correc- 12 tion from the child: for if thou beatest him with the rod, he shall not die. Thou shalt beat him with the rod, and shalt de- 13 liver his soul from hell. My son, if thy heart be wise, my heart 14 shall rejoice, even mine. Yes, my reins shall rejoice, when thy 15 lips speak right things. Let not thy heart envy sinners: but be 16 thou in the fear of the LORD all the day long. For surely there 17 is an end; and thy expectation shall not be cut off. Hear thou, 18 my son, and be wise, and guide thy heart in the way. Be not 19 among wine-bibbers; among riotous eaters of flesh: For the 20 drunkard and the glutton shall come to poverty: and drowsi- 21 ness shall clothe a man with rags. Harken to thy father that begat thee, and despise not thy mother when she is old. Buy 22 the truth, and sell it not; also wisdom, and instruction, and understanding. The father of the righteous shall greatly re- 23 joice: and he that begetteth a wise child shall have joy of him. 24 Thy father and thy mother shall be glad, and she that bore 25 thee shall rejoice. My son, give me thy heart, and let thy eyes 26 observe my ways. For a lewd woman is a deep ditch; and a 27 strange woman is a narrow pit. She also lieth in wait as for 28 a prey, and increaseth the transgressors among men. Who 29 hath woe? who hath sorrow? who hath contentions? who hath babbling? who hath wounds without cause? who hath redness of eyes? They that tarry long at the wine; they that go 30 to seek mixed wine. Look not thou upon the wine when it is 31 red, when it giveth its color in the cup, when it moveth itself 32 aright. At the last it biteth like a serpent, and stingeth like an 33 adder. Thy eyes shall behold strange women, and thy heart 34 shall utter perverse things. And thou shalt be as he that lieth down in the midst of the sea, or as he that lieth upon the top 35 of a mast. They have stricken me, wilt thou say, and I was not sick; they have beaten me, and I felt it not: when shall I awake? I will seek it yet again.

24 Be not thou envious against evil men, neither desire to be 2 with them. For their heart studieth destruction, and their 3 lips talk of mischief. Through wisdom is a house built; and 4 by understanding it is established: And by knowledge shall the chambers be filled with all precious and pleasant riches.
5 A wise man is strong; and a man of knowledge increaseth 6 strength. For by wise counsel thou shalt make thy war: and in 7 multitude of counselors there is safety. Wisdom is too high for 8 a fool: he openeth not his mouth in the gate. He that deviseth 9 to do evil shall be called a mischievous person. The thought of foolishness is sin: and the scorner is an abomination to men.
10 If thou faintest in the day of adversity, thy strength is small.
11 If thou forbearst to deliver them that are drawn to death, and 12 those that are ready to be slain; If thou sayest, Behold, we knew it not; doth not he that pondereth the heart consider it? and he that keepeth thy soul, doth not he know it? and will 13 not he render to every man according to his works? My son, eat thou honey, because it is good; and the honey-comb, which 14 is sweet to thy taste: So shall the knowledge of wisdom be to thy soul: when thou hast found it, then there shall be a re-15 ward, and thy expectation shall not be cut off. Lay not wait, O wicked man, against the dwelling of the righteous; destroy 16 not his resting-place: For a just man falleth seven times, and 17 riseth again: but the wicked shall fall into mischief. Rejoice not when thy enemy falleth, and let not thy heart be glad when 18 he stumbleth: Lest the LORD see it, and it displease him, and 19 he turn away his wrath from him. Fret not thyself because 20 of evil men, neither be thou envious at the wicked; For there shall be no reward to the evil man; the candle of the wicked 21 shall be extinguished. My son, fear thou the LORD and the 22 king: and meddle not with them that are given to change: For their calamity shall rise suddenly; and who knoweth the ruin of them both? These things also belong to the wise. It is not 23 good to have respect of persons in judgment. He that saith 24 to the wicked, Thou art righteous; him shall the people curse, nations shall abhor him: But to them that rebuke him shall 25 be delight, and a good blessing shall come upon them. Every 26 man shall kiss his lips that giveth a right answer. Prepare thy 27 work without, and make it fit for thyself in the field; and afterwards build thy house. Be not a witness against thy neighbor 28 without cause; and deceive not with thy lips. Say not, I will 29 do so to him as he hath done to me: I will render to the man according to his work. I went by the field of the slothful, and by 30 the vineyard of the man void of understanding; And lo, it was 31 all grown over with thorns, and nettles had covered the face of it, and its stone wall was broken down. Then I saw, and 32 considered it well: I looked upon it, and received instruction.

 Yet a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands 33 to sleep: So shall thy poverty come as one that traveleth; and 34 thy want as an armed man.

These are also proverbs of Solomon, which the men of Hezekia²⁵ king of Judah copied out. It is the glory of God to conceal a 2 thing: but the honor of kings is to search out a matter. The 3 heaven for height, and the earth for depth, and the heart of kings is unsearchable. Take away the dross from the silver, 4 and there shall come forth a vessel for the finer. Take away 5 the wicked from before the king, and his throne shall be established in righteousness. Put not forth thyself in the presence 6 of the king, and stand not in the place of great men: For bet- 7 ter it is that it be said to thee, Come up hither; than that thou shouldst be put lower in the presence of the prince whom thy 8 eyes have seen. Go not forth hastily to strive, lest thou know not what to do in the end thereof, when thy neighbor hath put 9 thee to shame. Debate thy cause with thy neighbor himself; and reveal not a secret to another: Lest he that heareth it put 10 thee to shame, and thy infamy turn not away. A word fitly spoken is like apples of gold in pictures of silver. As an ear- 11 ring of gold, and an ornament of fine gold, so is a wise reprove upon an obedient ear. As the cold of snow in the time of har- 12 vest, so is a faithful messenger to them that send him: for he refresheth the soul of his masters. Whoever boasteth himself 13 of a false gift is like clouds and wind without rain. By long 14 15 forbearing is a prince persuaded, and a soft tongue breaketh 16 the bone. Hast thou found honey? eat so much as is sufficient 17 for thee, lest thou be filled with it, and vomit it. Withdraw thy foot from thy neighbor's house; lest he be weary of thee, 18 and so hate thee. A man that beareth false witness against 19 his neighbor is a maul, and a sword, and a sharp arrow. Confidence in an unfaithful man in time of trouble is like a broken 20 tooth, and a foot out of joint. As he that taketh away a garment in cold weather, and as vinegar upon nitre; so is he that 21 singeth songs to a heavy heart. If thy enemy shall hunger, give him bread to eat; and if he shall thirst, give him water to 22 drink: For thou shalt heap coals of fire upon his head, and the 23 LORD will reward thee. The north wind driveth away rain: 24 so doth an angry countenance a backbiting tongue. It is better to dwell in a corner of the house-top, than with a brawling 25 woman and in a wide house. As cold waters to a thirsty soul, 26 so is good news from a far country. A righteous man falling down before the wicked is as a turbid fountain, and a corrupt 27 spring. It is not good to eat much honey: so for men to search 28 their own glory is not glory. He that hath no rule over his own spirit is like a city that is broken down, and without walls.

26 As snow in summer, and as rain in harvest; so honor is not 2 seemly for a fool. As the bird by wandering, as the swallow 3 by flying, so the curse causeless shall not come. A whip for the horse, a bridle for the ass, and a rod for the fool's back.
4 Answer not a fool according to his folly, lest thou also be like 5 him. Answer a fool according to his folly, lest he be wise in 6 his own conceit. He that sendeth a message by the hand of a 7 fool cutteth off the feet, and drinketh damage. The legs of the 8 lame are not equal: so is a parable in the mouth of fools. As he that bindeth a stone in a sling, so is he that giveth honor to 9 a fool. As a thorn goeth up into the hand of a drunkard, so is 10 a parable in the mouth of fools. The great God that formed all things both rewardeth the fool, and rewardeth transgressors.
11 As a dog returneth to his vomit, so a fool returneth to his folly.
12 Seest thou a man wise in his own conceit? there is more hope of 13 a fool than of him. The slothful man saith, There is a lion in 14 the way; a lion is in the streets. As the door turneth upon its 15 hinges, so doth the slothful upon his bed. The slothful hideth his hand in his bosom; it grieveth him to bring it again to his mouth. The sluggard is wiser in his own conceit than seven 16 men that can render a reason. He that passeth by, and med- 17 dleth with strife belonging not to him, is like one that taketh a dog by the ears. As a mad man who casteth fire-brands, 18 arrows, and death, So is the man that deceiveth his neigh- 19 bor, and saith, Am not I in sport? Where no wood is, there 20 the fire goeth out: so where there is no tale-bearer, the strife ceaseth. As coals are to burning coals, and wood to fire; so is 21 a contentious man to kindle strife. The words of a tale-bearer 22 are as wounds, and they go down into the innermost parts of the belly. Burning lips and a wicked heart are like a potsherd 23 covered with silver dross. He that hateth dissembleth with 24 his lips, and layeth up deceit within him; When he speaketh 25 fair, believe him not: for there are seven abominations in his heart. Whose hatred is covered by deceit, his wickedness shall 26 be shown before the whole congregation. Whoever diggeth a 27 pit shall fall into it: and he that rolleth a stone, it will return upon him. A lying tongue hateth those that are afflicted by it; 28 and a flattering mouth worketh ruin.

Boast not thyself of to-morrow; for thou knowest not what 27 a day may bring forth. Let another man praise thee, and not 2 thy own mouth; a stranger, and not thy own lips. A stone is 3 heavy, and the sand weighty; but a fool's wrath is heavier than both. Wrath is cruel, and anger is outrageous; but who is able 4 to stand before envy? Open rebuke is better than secret love. 5 Faithful are the wounds of a friend; but the kisses of an en- 6 emy are deceitful. The full soul lotheth a honey-comb; but to 7 the hungry soul every bitter thing is sweet. As a bird that 8 wandereth from her nest, so is a man that wandereth from his place. Ointment and perfume rejoice the heart: so doth 9 the sweetness of a man's friend by hearty counsel. Thy own 10 friend, and thy father's friend, forsake not; neither go into thy brother's house in the day of thy calamity: for better is a neigh- 11 bor that is near, than a brother far off. My son, be wise, and make my heart glad, that I may answer him that reproacheth 12 me. A prudent man foreseeth the evil, and hideth himself; 13 but the simple pass on, and are punished. Take his garment that is surety for a stranger, and take a pledge of him for a 14 strange woman. He that blesseth his friend with a loud voice, rising early in the morning, it shall be counted a curse to him.

15 A continual dropping in a very rainy day and a contentious 16 woman are alike. Whoever hideth her hideth the wind, and 17 the ointment of his right hand which bewrayeth itself. Iron sharpeneth iron; so a man sharpeneth the countenance of his 18 friend. He that keepeth the fig-tree shall eat the fruit of it: so 19 he that waiteth on his master shall be honored. As in water 20 face answereth to face, so the heart of man to man. Hell and destruction are never full; so the eyes of man are never satis-21 fied. As the fining-pot for silver, and the furnace for gold; so 22 is a man to his praise. Though thou shouldst bray a fool in a mortar among wheat with a pestle, yet his foolishness will not 23 depart from him. Be thou diligent to know the state of thy 24 flocks, and look well to thy herds. For riches are not for ever: 25 and doth the crown endure to every generation? The plant appeareth, and the tender grass showeth itself, and herbs of 26 the mountains are gathered. The lambs are for thy clothing, 27 and the goats are the price of the field. And thou shalt have goats milk enough for thy food, for the food of thy household, and for maintenance for thy maidens.

28 The wicked flee when no man pursueth: but the righteous 2 are bold as a lion. For the transgression of a land many are its princes: but by a man of understanding and knowledge the 3 state thereof shall be prolonged. A poor man that oppresseth 4 the poor is like a sweeping rain which leaveth no food. They that forsake the law praise the wicked: but such as keep the 5 law contend with them. Evil men understand not judgment: 6 but they that seek the LORD understand all things. Better is the poor that walketh in his uprightness, than he that is per-7 verse in his ways, though he is rich. He who keepeth the law is a wise son: but he that is a companion of riotous men shameth 8 his father. He that by usury and unjust gain increaseth his substance, he shall gather it for him that will pity the poor.
9 He that turneth away his ear from hearing the law, even his 10 prayer shall be abomination. Whoever causeth the righteous to go astray in an evil way, he shall fall himself into his own pit: 11 but the upright shall have good things in possession. The rich man is wise in his own conceit; but the poor man that hath un-12 derstanding searcheth him out. When righteous men rejoice, there is great glory: but when the wicked rise, a man is hidden.
13 He that covereth his sins shall not prosper: but he who confes-seth and forsaketh them shall have mercy. Happy is the man 14 that feareth always: but he that hardeneth his heart shall fall into mischief. As a roaring lion, and a ranging bear; so is a 15 wicked ruler over the poor people. The prince that wanteth 16 understanding is also a great oppressor: but he that hateth covetousness shall prolong his days. A man that doeth vio- 17 lence to the blood of any person shall flee to the pit; let no man stay him. He who walketh uprightly shall be saved: but he 18 that is perverse in his ways shall fall at once. He that tilleth 19 his land shall have plenty of bread: but he that followeth after vain persons shall have poverty enough. A faithful man 20 shall abound with blessings: but he that maketh haste to be rich shall not be innocent. To have respect of persons is not 21 good: for, for a piece of bread that man will transgress. He 22 that hasteth to be rich hath an evil eye, and considereth not that poverty shall come upon him. He that rebuketh a man 23 afterward shall find more favor than he that flattereth with the tongue. He that robbeth his father or his mother, and saith, It 24 is no transgression; the same is the companion of a destroyer.

 He that is of a proud heart stirreth up strife: but he that put- 25 teth his trust in the LORD shall be made fat. He that trusteth 26 in his own heart is a fool: but whoever walketh wisely, he shall be delivered. He that giveth to the poor shall not want: but 27 he that hideth his eyes shall have many a curse. When the 28 wicked rise, men hide themselves: but when they perish, the righteous increase.

He, that being often reprov'd hardeneth his neck, shall sud- 29 denly be destroyed, and that without remedy. When the righ- 2 teous are in authority, the people rejoice: but when the wicked beareth rule, the people mourn. He that loveth wisdom re- 3 joiceth his father: but he that keepeth company with harlots spendeth his substance. The king by judgment establisheth 4 the land: but he that receiveth gifts overthroweth it. A man 5 that flattereth his neighbor spreadeth a net for his feet. In the 6 transgression of an evil man there is a snare: but the righteous doth sing and rejoice. The righteous considereth the cause 7 of the poor: but the wicked regardeth not to know it. Scorn- 8 ful men bring a city into a snare: but wise men turn away wrath. If a wise man contendeth with a foolish man, whether 9 he rageth or laugheth, there is no rest. The blood-thirsty hate 10 11 the upright: but the just seek his soul. A fool uttereth all 12 his mind: but a wise man keepeth it in till afterwards. If a 13 ruler hearkeneth to lies, all his servants are wicked. The poor and the deceitful man meet together: the LORD enlighteneth 14 both their eyes. The king that faithfully judgeth the poor, 15 his throne shall be established for ever. The rod and reproof give wisdom: but a child left to himself bringeth his mother 16 to shame. When the wicked are multiplied, transgression in-17 creaseth: but the righteous shall see their fall. Correct thy son, and he shall give thee rest; yes, he shall give delight to 18 thy soul. Where there is no vision, the people perish: but 19 he that keepeth the law, happy is he. A servant will not be corrected by words: for though he understandeth, he will not 20 answer. Seest thou a man that is hasty in his words? there is 21 more hope of a fool than of him. He that delicately bringeth up his servant from a child shall have him at length become 22 his son. An angry man stirreth up strife, and a furious man 23 aboundeth in transgression. A man's pride shall bring him 24 low: but honor shall uphold the humble in spirit. Whoever is partner with a thief, hateth his own soul: he heareth curs-25 ing, and discloseth it not. The fear of man bringeth a snare: 26 but he who putteth his trust in the LORD shall be safe. Many seek the ruler's favor; but every man's judgment cometh from 27 the LORD. An unjust man is an abomination to the just: and he that is upright in the way is abomination to the wicked.

30 The words of Agur the son of Jakeh, even the prophecy: the 2 man spoke to Ithiel, even to Ithiel and Ucal, Surely I am more brutish than any man, and have not the understanding of a 3 man. I neither learned wisdom, nor have the knowledge of 4 the holy. Who hath ascended into heaven, or descended? who hath gathered the wind in his fists? who hath bound the waters in a garment? who hath established all the ends of the earth?
what is his name, and what is his son's name, if thou canst 5 tell? Every word of God is pure: he is a shield to them that put 6 their trust in him. Add thou not to his words, lest he reprove 7 thee, and thou be found a liar. Two things have I required 8 of thee; deny them not to me before I die: Remove far from me vanity and lies; give me neither poverty nor riches; feed 9 me with food convenient for me: Lest I be full, and deny thee, and say, Who is the LORD? or lest I be poor, and steal, and take the name of my God in vain. Accuse not a servant to his master, lest he curse thee, and thou be found guilty. There is a generation that curseth their father, and doth not bless their mother. There is a generation that are pure in their own eyes, and yet are not washed from their filthiness. There is a generation, O how lofty are their eyes! and their eyelids are lifted up. There is a generation, whose teeth are as swords, and their jaw-teeth as knives, to devour the poor from off the earth, and the needy from among men. The horse-leech hath two daughters, crying, Give, give. There are three things that are never satisfied, yes, four things say not, It is enough: The grave; and the barren womb; the earth that is not filled with water; and the fire that saith not, It is enough. The eye that mocketh at its father, and despiseth to obey its mother, the ravens of the valley shall pick it out, and the young eagles shall eat it. There are three things which are too wonderful for me, yes, four which I know not: The way of an eagle in the air; the way of a serpent upon a rock; the way of a ship in the midst of the sea; and the way of a man with a maid. Such is the way of an adulterous woman; she eateth, and wipeth her mouth, and saith, I have done no wickedness. For three things the earth is disquieted, and for four which it cannot bear: For a servant when he reigneth; and a fool when he is filled with food. For an odious woman when she is married; and a handmaid that is heir to her mistress. There are four things which are little upon the earth, but they are very wise: The ants are a people not strong, yet they prepare their food in the summer; The conies are but a feeble people, yet they make their houses in the rocks; The locusts have no king, yet go they forth all of them by bands; The spider taketh hold with her hands, and is in king's palaces. There are three things which go well, yes, four are comely in going: A lion, which is strongest among beasts, and turneth not away for any; A greyhound; a he-goat also; and a king, against whom there is no rising up. If thou hast done foolishly in lifting up thyself, or if thou hast thought evil, lay thy hand upon thy mouth. Surely the churning of milk bringeth forth butter, and the wringing of the nose bringeth forth blood: so the forcing of wrath bringeth forth strife.

The words of king Lemuel, the prophecy that his mother 31 taught him. What, my son? and what, the son of my womb? 2 3 and what, the son of my vows? Give not thy strength to 4 women, nor thy ways to that which destroyeth kings. It is not for kings, O Lemuel, it is not for kings to drink wine; nor 5 for princes strong drink: Lest they drink, and forget the law, 6 and pervert the judgment of any of the afflicted. Give strong drink to him that is ready to perish, and wine to those that are 7 of heavy hearts. Let him drink, and forget his poverty, and 8 remember his misery no more. Open thy mouth for the dumb 9 in the cause of all such as are appointed to destruction. Open thy mouth, judge righteously, and plead the cause of the poor 10 and needy. Who can find a virtuous woman? for her price is 11 far above rubies. The heart of her husband doth safely trust 12 in her, so that he shall have no need of spoil. She will do him 13 good and not evil all the days of her life. She seeketh wool, 14 and flax, and worketh willingly with her hands. She is like the 15 merchant's ships; she bringeth her food from afar. She riseth also while it is yet night, and giveth food to her household, and 16 a portion to her maidens. She considereth a field, and buyeth 17 it: with the fruit of her hands she planteth a vineyard. She girdeth her loins with strength, and strengtheneth her arms.

18 She perceiveth that her merchandise is good: her candle goeth 19 not out by night. She layeth her hands to the spindle, and 20 her hands hold the distaff. She stretcheth out her hand to 21 the poor; yes, she reacheth forth her hands to the needy. She is not afraid of the snow for her household: for all her house-22 hold are clothed with scarlet. She maketh herself coverings 23 of tapestry; her clothing is silk and purple. Her husband is known in the gates, when he sitteth among the elders of the 24 land. She maketh fine linen, and selleth it; and delivereth 25 girdles to the merchant. Strength and honor are her clothing; 26 and she shall rejoice in time to come. She openeth her mouth 27 with wisdom; and on her tongue is the law of kindness. She looketh well to the ways of her household, and eateth not the 28 bread of idleness. Her children rise up, and call her blessed; 29 her husband also, and he praiseth her. Many daughters have 30 done virtuously, but thou excellest them all. Favor is deceitful, and beauty is vain: but a woman that feareth the LORD, 31 she shall be praised. Give her of the fruit of her hands; and let her own works praise her in the gates.

ECCLESIASTES;

OR, THE PREACHER.

The words of the preacher, the son of David, king of 1 Jerusalem. Vanity of vanities, saith the preacher, 2 vanity of vanities; all is vanity. What profit hath a 3 man of all his labor, which he taketh under the sun?
One generation passeth away, and another generation cometh: 4 but the earth abideth for ever. The sun also riseth, and the 5 sun goeth down, and hasteth to his place where he arose. The 6 wind goeth towards the south, and turneth about to the north; it whirleth about continually, and the wind returneth again ac- 7 cording to its circuits. All the rivers run into the sea; yet the 8 sea is not full; to the place from whence the rivers come, thither they return again. All things are full of labor; man cannot ut- 8 ter it: the eye is not satisfied with seeing, nor the ear filled with hearing. The thing that hath been, it is that which shall be; 9 and that which is done is that which shall be done: and there is no new thing under the sun. Is there any thing of which 10 it may be said, See, this is new? it hath been already of old time, which was before us. There is no remembrance of former 11 things; neither shall there be any remembrance of things that are to come with those that shall come after. I the preacher 12 was king over Israel in Jerusalem. And I gave my heart to 13 seek and search out by wisdom concerning all things that are done under heaven: this grievous labor hath God given to the sons of man to be exercised with it. I have seen all the works 14 that are done under the sun; and behold, all is vanity and vexation of spirit. That which is crooked cannot be made straight: 15 and that which is wanting cannot be numbered. I communed 16 with my own heart, saying, Lo, I have come to great estate, and have gained more wisdom than all they that have been before me in Jerusalem: and my heart had great experience of wisdom and knowledge. And I gave my heart to know wisdom, 17 and to know madness and folly: I perceived that this also is vexation of spirit. For in much wisdom is much grief: and he 18 that increaseth knowledge increaseth sorrow.

I said in my heart, Come now, I will prove thee with mirth, 2

2 therefore enjoy pleasure: and behold, this also is vanity. I 3 said of laughter, It is mad: and of mirth, What doeth it? I sought in my heart, to give myself to wine, yet acquainting my heart with wisdom; and to lay hold on folly, till I might see 4 what was that good for the sons of men, which they should do under the heaven all the days of their life. I made me great 5 works; I built me houses; I planted me vineyards: I made me gardens and orchards, and I planted trees in them of all 6 kind of fruits: I made me pools of water, to water with them 7 the wood that bringeth forth trees: I procured me servants and maidens, and had servants born in my house; also I had great possessions of great and small cattle above all that were 8 in Jerusalem before me: I gathered me also silver and gold, and the peculiar treasure of kings, and of the provinces: I procured me men-singers and women-singers, and the delights of 9 the sons of men, as musical instruments, and of all sorts. So I was great, and increased more than all that were before me 10 in Jerusalem: also my wisdom remained with me. And whatever my eyes desired I kept not from them, I withheld not my heart from any joy; for my heart rejoiced in all my labor: and 11 this was my portion of all my labor. Then I looked on all the works that my hands had wrought, and on the labor that I had labored to do: and behold, all was vanity and vexation of spirit, 12 and there was no profit under the sun. And I turned myself to behold wisdom, and madness, and folly: for what can the man do that cometh after the king? even that which hath been 13 already done. Then I saw that wisdom excelleth folly, as far 14 as light excelleth darkness. The wise man's eyes are in his head; but the fool walketh in darkness: and I myself perceived 15 also that one event happeneth to them all. Then said I in my heart, As it happeneth to the fool, so it happeneth even to me; and why was I then more wise? Then I said in my heart, that 16 this also is vanity. For there is no remembrance of the wise more than of the fool for ever; seeing that which now is in the days to come shall all be forgotten. And how dieth the wise 17 man? as the fool. Therefore I hated life; because the work that is wrought under the sun is grievous to me: for all is van-18 ity and vexation of spirit. Yes, I hated all my labor which I had taken under the sun: because I should leave it to the man 19 that shall be after me. And who knoweth whether he shall be a wise man or a fool? yet shall he have rule over all my labor in which I have labored, and in which I have showed myself wise under the sun. This is also vanity. Therefore I went about to cause my heart to despair of all the labor which I took under the sun. For there is a man whose labor is in wisdom, and in knowledge, and in equity; yet to a man that hath not labored in it, shall he leave it for his portion. This also is vanity and a great evil. For what hath man of all his labor, and of the vexation of his heart, in which he hath labored under the sun? For all his days are sorrows, and his labor grief; yes, his heart taketh not rest in the night. This is also vanity. There is nothing better for a man than that he should eat and drink, and that he should make his soul enjoy good in his labor. This also I saw, that it was from the hand of God. For who can eat, or who else can hasten to it more than I? For God giveth to a man who is good in his sight, wisdom, and knowledge, and joy: but to the sinner he giveth toil, to gather, and to amass, that he may give to him that is good before God. This also is vanity and vexation of spirit.

To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven: A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted; A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up; A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance; A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing; A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away; A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak; A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace. What profit hath he that worketh in that in which he laboreth? I have seen the labor, which God hath given to the sons of men to be exercised in it. He hath made every thing beautiful in its time: also he hath set the world in their heart, so that no man can find out the work that God maketh from the beginning to the end. I know that there is no good in them, but for a man to rejoice, and to do good in his life. And also that every man should eat and drink, and enjoy the good of all his labor, it is the gift of God. I know that, whatever God doeth, it shall be for ever: nothing can be added to it, nor any thing taken from 15 it: and God doeth it, that men should fear before him. That which hath been is now; and that which is to be hath already 16 been; and God requireth that which is past. And moreover I saw under the sun the place of judgment, that wickedness was there; and the place of righteousness, that iniquity was there.

17 I said in my heart, God will judge the righteous and the wicked: for there is a time there for every purpose and for every work.
18 I said in my heart concerning the state of the sons of men, that God might manifest them, and that they might see that they 19 themselves are beasts. For that which befalleth the sons of men befalleth beasts; even one thing befalleth them: as the one dieth, so dieth the other; yes, they have all one breath; so that a man hath no pre-eminence above a beast: for all is vanity.
20 All go to one place; all are of the dust, and all turn to dust 21 again. Who knoweth the spirit of man that goeth upward, and the spirit of the beast that goeth downward to the earth?
22 Wherefore I perceive that there is nothing better, than that a man should rejoice in his own works; for that is his portion: for who shall bring him to see what shall be after him?

4 So I returned, and considered all the oppressions that are done under the sun: and behold the tears of such as were oppressed, and they had no comforter; and on the side of their op-2 pressors there was power; but they had no comforter. Wherefore I praised the dead who are already dead more than the 3 living who are yet alive. Yes, better is he than both they, who hath not yet been, who hath not seen the evil work that is 4 done under the sun. Again, I considered all labor, and every right work, that for this a man is envied by his neighbor.
5 This is also vanity and vexation of spirit. The fool foldeth his 6 hands together, and eateth his own flesh. Better is a handful with quietness, than both the hands full with toil and vexa-7 tion of spirit. Then I returned, and I saw vanity under the 8 sun. There is one alone, and there is not a second; yes, he hath neither child nor brother: yet is there no end of all his labor; neither is his eye satisfied with riches; neither saith he,
For whom do I labor, and bereave my soul of good? This is also 9 vanity, yes, it is a grievous labor. Two are better than one; 10 because they have a good reward for their labor. For if they fall, the one will lift up his fellow: but woe to him that is alone when he falleth; for he hath not another to help him to rise.

Again, if two lie together, then they have heat: but how can one be warm alone? And if one prevaileth against him, two shall withstand him; and a three-fold cord is not quickly broken. Better is a poor and a wise child, than an old and foolish king, who will no more be admonished. For out of prison he cometh to reign; whereas also he that is born in his kingdom becometh poor. I considered all the living who walk under the sun, with the second child that shall stand up in his stead. There is no end of all the people, even of all that have been before them: they also that come after shall not rejoice in him. Surely this also is vanity and vexation of spirit.

5 Keep thy foot when thou goest to the house of God, and be more ready to hear, than to give the sacrifice of fools: for they consider not that they do evil. Be not rash with thy mouth, 2 and let not thy heart be hasty to utter any thing before God: for God is in heaven, and thou upon earth: therefore let thy words be few. For a dream cometh through the multitude of 3 business; and a fool's voice is known by a multitude of words. When thou vowest a vow to God, defer not to pay it; for he hath 4 no pleasure in fools: pay that which thou hast vowed. Better 5 is it that thou shouldst not vow, than that thou shouldst vow and not pay. Suffer not thy mouth to cause thy flesh to sin; 6 neither say thou before the angel, that it was an error: why should God be angry at thy voice, and destroy the work of thy hands? For in the multitude of dreams and many words there 7 are also divers vanities: but fear thou God. If thou seest the oppression of the poor, and violent perversion of judgment and justice in a province, wonder not at the matter: for he that is 8 higher than the highest regardeth; and there are higher than they. Moreover, the profit of the earth is for all: the king him- 9 self is served by the field. He that loveth silver shall not be satisfied with silver; nor he that loveth abundance with increase: this is also vanity. When goods increase, they are in- 11 creased that eat them: and what good is there to the owners of them, saving the beholding of them with their eyes? The sleep of a laboring man is sweet, whether he eateth little or much: but the abundance of the rich will not suffer him to sleep. There is a grievous evil which I have seen under the 13 sun, namely, riches kept for the owners of them to their hurt. But those riches perish by evil labor: and he begetteth a son, 14 15 and there is nothing in his hand. As he came into the world, naked shall he return to go as he came, and shall take noth-16 ing of his labor, which he may carry away in his hand. And this also is a grievous evil, that in all points as he came, so shall he go: and what profit hath he that hath labored for the 17 wind? All his days also he eateth in darkness, and he hath 18 much sorrow and wrath with his sickness. Behold that which I have seen: it is good and comely for one to eat and to drink, and to enjoy the good of all his labor that he taketh under the sun all the days of his life, which God giveth him: for it is his 19 portion. Every man also to whom God hath given riches and wealth, and hath given him power to eat of it, and to take his 20 portion, and to rejoice in his labor; this is the gift of God. For he shall not much remember the days of his life; because God answereth him in the joy of his heart.

6 There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, and it is 2 common among men: A man to whom God hath given riches, wealth, and honor, so that he wanteth nothing for his soul of all that he desireth, yet God giveth him not power to eat of it, but a stranger eateth it: this is vanity, and it is an evil 3 disease. If a man begetteth a hundred children, and liveth many years, so that the days of his years are many, and his soul is not filled with good, and also that he hath no burial; I 4 say, that an untimely birth is better than he. For he cometh with vanity, and departeth in darkness, and his name shall be 5 covered with darkness. Moreover he hath not seen the sun, 6 nor known any thing: this hath more rest than the other. Yes, though he liveth a thousand years twice told, yet hath he seen 7 no good: do not all go to one place? All the labor of man is for 8 his mouth, and yet the appetite is not filled. For what hath the wise more than the fool? what hath the poor, that knoweth 9 to walk before the living? Better is the sight of the eyes than the wandering of the desire: this is also vanity and vexation 10 of spirit. That which hath been is named already, and it is known that it is man: neither may he contend with him that is 11 mightier than he. Seeing there are many things that increase 12 vanity, what is man the better? For who knoweth what is good for man in this life, all the days of his vain life which he spendeth as a shadow? for who can tell a man what shall be after him under the sun?

A good name is better than precious ointment; and the day 7 of death than the day of one's birth. It is better to go to the 2 house of mourning, than to go to the house of feasting: for that is the end of all men; and the living will lay it to his heart.
Sorrow is better than laughter: for by the sadness of the coun- 3 tenance the heart is made better. The heart of the wise is in 4 the house of mourning; but the heart of fools is in the house of mirth. It is better to hear the rebuke of the wise, than 5 for a man to hear the song of fools. For as the crackling of 6 thorns under a pot, so is the laughter of the fool: this also is vanity. Surely oppression maketh a wise man mad; and a gift 7 destroyeth the heart. Better is the end of a thing than its 8 beginning: and the patient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit. Be not hasty in thy spirit to be angry: for anger 9 resteth in the bosom of fools. Say not thou, What is the cause 10 that the former days were better than these? for thou dost not inquire wisely concerning this. Wisdom is good with an in- 11 heritance: and by it there is profit to them that see the sun.
For wisdom is a defense, and money is a defense: but the ex- 12 cellence of knowledge is, that wisdom giveth life to them that have it. Consider the work of God: for who can make that 13 straight, which he hath made crooked? In the day of prosper- 14 ity be joyful, but in the day of adversity consider: God also hath set the one over against the other, to the end that man should find nothing after him. All things have I seen in the days 15 of my vanity: there is a just man that perisheth in his righteousness, and there is a wicked man that prolongeth his life in his wickedness. Be not righteous over much; neither make 16 thyself over wise: why shouldst thou destroy thyself? Be not 17 over much wicked, neither be thou foolish: why shouldst thou die before thy time? It is good that thou shouldst take hold 18 of this; yes, also from this withdraw not thy hand: for he that feareth God shall escape from them all. Wisdom strength- 19 eneth the wise more than ten mighty men who are in the city.
For there is not a just man upon earth, that doeth good, and 20 sinneth not. Also take no heed to all words that are spoken; 21 lest thou hear thy servant curse thee: For often also thy own 22 heart knoweth that thou thyself likewise hast cursed others.
All this have I proved by wisdom: I said, I will be wise; but it 23 was far from me. That which is far off, and exceedingly deep, 24 25 who can find it out? I applied my heart to know, and to search, and to seek out wisdom, and the reason of things, and to know 26 the wickedness of folly, even of foolishness and madness: And I find more bitter than death the woman whose heart is snares and nets, and her hands as bands: whoever pleaseth God shall 27 escape from her; but the sinner shall be taken by her. Behold, this have I found, saith the preacher, counting one by one, to 28 find out the account: Which yet my soul seeketh, but I find not: one man among a thousand have I found; but a woman 29 among all those have I not found. Lo, this only have I found, that God hath made man upright; but they have sought out many inventions.

8 Who is as the wise man? and who knoweth the interpretation of a thing? a man's wisdom maketh his face to shine, and 2 the boldness of his face shall be changed. I counsel thee to keep the king's commandment, and that in regard of the oath 3 of God. Be not hasty to go out of his sight: stand not in an evil 4 thing; for he doeth whatever pleaseth him. Where the word of a king is, there is power: and who may say to him, what 5 doest thou? He who keepeth the commandment shall feel no evil thing: and a wise man's heart discerneth both time and 6 judgment. Because to every purpose there is time and judg-7 ment, therefore the misery of man is great upon him. For he knoweth not that which shall be: for who can tell him when 8 it shall be? There is no man that hath power over the spirit to retain the spirit; neither hath he power in the day of death: and there is no discharge in that war; neither shall wicked-9 ness deliver those that are given to it. All this have I seen, and applied my heart to every work that is done under the sun: there is a time in which one man ruleth over another to 10 his own hurt. And so I saw the wicked buried, who had come and gone from the place of the holy, and they were forgotten 11 in the city where they had so done: this is also vanity. Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to 12 do evil. Though a sinner doeth evil a hundred times, and his days are prolonged, yet surely I know that it will be well with 13 them that fear God, who fear before him: But it will not be well with the wicked, neither will he prolong his days, which 14 are as a shadow; because he feareth not before God. There is a vanity which is done upon the earth; that there are just men, to whom it happeneth according to the work of the wicked; again, there are wicked men, to whom it happeneth according to the work of the righteous: I said that this also is vanity. Then I commended mirth, because a man hath no better thing under the sun, than to eat, and to drink, and to be merry: for that shall abide with him of his labor the days of his life, which God giveth him under the sun. When I applied my heart to know wisdom, and to see the business that is done upon the earth: (for also there is that neither day nor night seeth sleep with his eyes:) Then I beheld all the work of God, that a man cannot find out the work that is done under the sun: because though a man may labor to seek it out, yet he shall not find it; yes further; though a wise man thinketh to know it, yet shall he not be able to find it.

For all this I considered in my heart even to declare all this, that the righteous, and the wise, and their works, are in the hand of God: no man knoweth either love or hatred by all that is before them. All things come alike to all: there is one event to the righteous, and to the wicked; to the good and to the clean, and to the unclean; to him that sacrificeth, and to him that sacrificeth not: as is the good, so is the sinner; and he that sweareth, as he that feareth an oath. This is an evil among all things that are done under the sun, that there is one event to all: yes, also the heart of the sons of men is full of evil, and madness is in their heart while they live, and after that they go to the dead. For to him that is joined to all the living there is hope: for a living dog is better than a dead lion. For the living know that they shall die: but the dead know not any thing, neither have they any more a reward; for the memory of them is forgotten. Also their love, and their hatred, and their envy, hath now perished; neither have they any more a portion for ever in any thing that is done under the sun. Go thy way, eat thy bread with joy, and drink thy wine with a merry heart; for God now accepteth thy works. Let thy garments be always white; and let thy head lack no ointment. Live joyfully with the wife whom thou lovest all the days of the life of thy vanity, which he hath given thee under the sun, all the days of thy vanity: for that is thy portion in this life, and in thy labor which thou takest under the sun. Whatever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in the grave, whither thou goest.

11 I returned, and saw under the sun, that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favor to men 12 of skill; but time and chance happeneth to them all. For man also knoweth not his time: as the fishes that are taken in an evil net, and as the birds that are caught in the snare; so are the sons of men snared in an evil time, when it falleth suddenly 13 upon them. This wisdom have I seen also under the sun, and 14 it seemed to me great: There was a little city, and few men within it; and there came a great king against it, and besieged 15 it, and built great bulwarks against it: Now there was found in it a poor wise man, and he by his wisdom delivered the city; 16 yet no man remembered that same poor man. Then said I, wisdom is better than strength: nevertheless the poor man's 17 wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard. The words of wise men are heard in quiet more than the cry of him that 18 ruleth among fools. Wisdom is better than weapons of war: but one sinner destroyeth much good.

10 Dead flies cause the ointment of the apothecary to send forth an offensive odor: so doth a little folly him that is in 2 reputation for wisdom and honor. A wise man's heart is at 3 his right hand; but a fool's heart is at his left. Also, when he that is a fool walketh by the way, his wisdom faileth him, 4 and he saith to every one that he is a fool. If the spirit of the ruler riseth against thee, leave not thy place; for yielding paci-5 fieth great offenses. There is an evil which I have seen under 6 the sun, as an error which proceedeth from the ruler: Folly 7 is set in great dignity, and the rich sit in low place. I have 8 seen servants upon horses, and princes walking as servants 9 upon the earth. He that diggeth a pit shall fall into it; and 10 whoever breaketh a hedge, a serpent shall bite him. Whoever removeth stones shall be hurt by them; and he that cleaveth 11 wood shall be endangered by it. If the iron is blunt, and he doth not whet the edge, then must he use more strength: but 12 wisdom is profitable to direct. Surely the serpent will bite 13 without enchantment; and a babbler is no better. The words of a wise man's mouth are gracious; but the lips of a fool will swallow up himself. The beginning of the words of his mouth is foolishness: and the end of his talk is mischievous madness. A fool also is full of words: a man cannot tell what shall be; and what shall be after him, who can tell him? The labor of the foolish wearieth every one of them, because he knoweth not how to go to the city. Woe to thee, O land, when thy king is a child, and thy princes eat in the morning! Blessed art thou, O land, when thy king is the son of nobles, and thy princes eat in due season, for strength, and not for drunkenness! By much slothfulness the building decayeth; and through idleness of the hands the house droppeth through. A feast is made for laughter, and wine maketh merry: but money answereth all things. Curse not the king, no not in thy thought; and curse not the rich in thy bed-chamber: for a bird of the air will carry the voice, and that which hath wings will tell the matter.

Cast thy bread upon the waters: for thou shalt find it after many days. Give a portion to seven, and also to eight; for thou knowest not what evil shall be upon the earth. If the clouds are full of rain, they empty themselves upon the earth: and if the tree falleth towards the south, or towards the north, in the place where the tree falleth, there it shall be. He that observeth the wind shall not sow; and he that regardeth the clouds shall not reap. As thou knowest not what is the way of the spirit, nor the structure of the parts of conception in her that is with child: even so thou knowest not the works of God who maketh all. In the morning sow thy seed, and in the evening withhold not thy hand: for thou knowest not whether shall prosper, either this or that, or whether they both shall be alike good. Truly the light is sweet, and a pleasant thing it is for the eyes to behold the sun: But if a man shall live many years, and rejoice in them all; yet let him remember the days of darkness; for they shall be many. All that cometh is vanity. Rejoice, O young man, in thy youth; and let thy heart cheer thee in the days of thy youth, and walk in the ways of thy heart, and in the sight of thy eyes: but know thou, that for all these things God will bring thee into judgment. Therefore remove sorrow from thy heart, and put away evil from thy flesh: for childhood and youth are vanity.

Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth, while the evil days come not, nor the years draw nigh, when thou shalt say, I have no pleasure in them; While the sun, or the light, or the moon, or the stars, are not darkened, nor the 3 clouds return after the rain: In the day when the keepers of the house shall tremble, and the strong men shall bow themselves, and the grinders cease because they are few, and those 4 that look out of the windows shall be darkened, And the doors shall be shut in the streets, when the sound of the grinding shall be low, and he shall rise up at the voice of the bird, and all 5 the daughters of music shall be brought low. Also when they shall be afraid of that which is high, and fears shall be in the way, and the almond tree shall flourish, and the grasshopper shall be a burden, and desire shall fail: because man goeth to 6 his long home, and the mourners go about the streets: Or ever the silver cord shall be loosed, or the golden bowl be broken, or the pitcher be broken at the fountain, or the wheel broken at 7 the cistern. Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was: 8 and the spirit shall return to God who gave it. Vanity of van-9 ities saith the preacher; all is vanity. And moreover, because the preacher was wise, he still taught the people knowledge: yes, he gave good heed, and sought out, and set in order many 10 proverbs. The preacher sought to find out acceptable words: and that which was written was upright, even words of truth.

11 The words of the wise are as goads, and as nails fastened by the masters of assemblies, which are given from one shepherd.
12 And further, by these, my son, be admonished: of making many books there is no end; and much study is a weariness of the 13 flesh. Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty 14 of man. For God will bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it is good, or whether it is evil.

THE SONG OF SOLOMON.

She song of songs, which is Solomon's. Let him kiss 1, 2 me with the kisses of his mouth: for thy love is better than wine. Because of the savor of thy good oint- 3 ments thy name is as ointment poured forth, therefore do the virgins love thee. Draw me, we will run after 4 thee: the king hath brought me into his chambers; we will be glad and rejoice in thee, we will remember thy love more than wine: the upright love thee. I am black, but comely, O ye 5 daughters of Jerusalem, as the tents of Kedar, as the curtains of Solomon. Look not upon me, because I am black, because 6 the sun hath looked upon me: my mother's children were angry with me; they made me the keeper of the vineyards; but my own vineyard have I not kept. Tell me, O thou whom my soul 7 loveth, where thou feedest, where thou makest thy flock to rest at noon: for why should I be as one that turneth aside by the flocks of thy companions? If thou knowest not, O thou fairest 8 among women, go forth by the footsteps of the flock, and feed thy kids beside the shepherds tents. I have compared thee, O 9 my love, to a company of horses in Pharaoh's chariots. Thy 10 cheeks are comely with rows of jewels, thy neck with chains of gold. We will make for thee borders of gold with studs of sil- 11 ver. While the king sitteth at his table, my spikenard sendeth 12 forth its smell. A bundle of myrrh is my well beloved to me; 13 he shall lie all night betwixt my breasts. My beloved is to me as a cluster of camphor in the vineyards of En-gedi. Behold, 15 thou art fair, my love; behold, thou art fair; thou hast doves' eyes. Behold, thou art fair, my beloved, yes, pleasant: also 16 our bed is green. The beams of our house are cedar, and our 17 rafters of fir.

I am the rose of Sharon, and the lily of the valleys. As 2, 2 the lily among thorns, so is my love among the daughters. As 3 the apple-tree among the trees of the wood, so is my beloved among the sons. I sat down under his shadow with great delight, and his fruit was sweet to my taste. He brought me to 4 the banqueting house, and his banner over me was love. Stay 5 me with flagons, comfort me with apples: for I am sick with 6 love. His left hand is under my head, and his right hand doth 7 embrace me. I charge you, O ye daughters of Jerusalem, by the roes, and by the hinds of the field, that ye stir not, nor 8 awake my love, till he please. The voice of my beloved! behold, he cometh leaping upon the mountains, skipping upon 9 the hills. My beloved is like a roe, or a young hart: behold, he standeth behind our wall, he looketh forth at the windows, 10 showing himself through the lattice. My beloved spoke, and 11 said to me, Rise, my love, my fair one, and come away. For lo, 12 the winter is past, the rain is over and gone. The flowers appear on the earth; the time of the singing of birds is come, and 13 the voice of the turtle is heard in our land; The fig-tree put-teth forth her green figs, and the vines with the tender grape give a good smell. Arise, my love, my fair one, and come away.

14 O my dove, that art in the clefts of the rock, in the secret places of the stairs, let me see thy countenance, let me hear thy voice; 15 for sweet is thy voice, and thy countenance is comely. Take for us the foxes, the little foxes, that spoil the vines: for our 16 vines have tender grapes. My beloved is mine, and I am his: 17 he feedeth among the lilies. Until the day shall break, and the shadows flee away, turn, my beloved, and be thou like a roe or a young hart upon the mountains of Bether.

3 By night on my bed I sought him whom my soul loveth: I 2 sought him, but I found him not. I will rise now, and go about the city in the streets, and in the broad ways I will seek him 3 whom my soul loveth: I sought him, but I found him not. The watchmen that go about the city found me: to whom I said, 4 Saw ye him whom my soul loveth? It was but a little that I passed from them, but I found him whom my soul loveth: I held him, and would not let him go, until I had brought him into my mother's house, and into the chamber of her that con-5 ceived me. I charge you, O ye daughters of Jerusalem, by the roes, and by the hinds of the field, that ye stir not up, nor 6 awake my love, till he please. Who is this that cometh out of the wilderness like pillars of smoke, perfumed with myrrh 7 and frankincense, with all powders of the merchant? Behold his bed, which is Solomon's; sixty valiant men are about it, 8 of the valiant of Israel. They all hold swords, being expert in war: every man hath his sword upon his thigh because of 9 fear in the night. King Solomon made himself a chariot of the wood of Lebanon. He made its pillars of silver, the bottom 10 of it of gold, the covering of it of purple, the midst of it being 11 paved with love, for the daughters of Jerusalem. Go forth, O ye daughters of Zion, and behold king Solomon with the crown with which his mother crowned him in the day of his espousals, and in the day of the gladness of his heart.

Behold, thou art fair, my love; behold, thou art fair; thou 4 hast doves' eyes within thy locks: thy hair is as a flock of goats, 4 that appear from mount Gilead. Thy teeth are like a flock of 2 sheep that are even shorn, which came up from the washing; all of which bear twins, and none is barren among them. Thy 3 lips are like a thread of scarlet, and thy speech is comely: thy temples are like a piece of pomegranate within thy locks. Thy 4 neck is like the tower of David built for an armory, on which hang a thousand bucklers, all shields of mighty men. Thy 5 two breasts are like two young roes that are twins, which feed among the lilies. Until the day shall break, and the shadows 6 flee away, I will repair to the mountain of myrrh, and to the hill of frankincense. Thou art all fair, my love; there is no 7 spot in thee. Come with me from Lebanon, my spouse, with 8 me from Lebanon: look from the top of Amana, from the top of Shenir and Hermon, from the lions' dens, from the mountains of the leopards. Thou hast ravished my heart, my sister, 9 my spouse; thou hast ravished my heart with one of thy eyes, with one chain of thy neck. How fair is thy love, my sister, 10 my spouse! how much better is thy love than wine! and the smell of thy ointments than all spices! Thy lips, O my 11 spouse, drop as the honey-comb; honey and milk are under thy tongue; and the smell of thy garments is like the smell of Lebanon. A garden inclosed is my sister, my spouse; a spring 12 shut up, a fountain sealed. Thy plants are an orchard of 13 pomegranates, with pleasant fruits; camphor, with spikenard, Spikenard and saffron; calamus and cinnamon, with all trees 14 of frankincense; myrrh and aloes, with all the chief spices: A 15 fountain of gardens, a well of living waters, and streams from Lebanon. Awake, O north wind; and come, thou south; blow 16 upon my garden, that its spices may flow out. Let my beloved come into his garden, and eat his pleasant fruits.

I have come into my garden, my sister, my spouse: I have 5 gathered my myrrh, with my spice; I have eaten my honeycomb with my honey; I have drank my wine with my milk: eat, 2 O friends; drink, yes, drink abundantly, O beloved. I sleep, but my heart waketh: it is the voice of my beloved that knocketh, saying, Open to me, my sister, my love, my dove, my un-defiled: for my head is filled with dew, and my locks with the 3 drops of the night. I have put off my coat; how shall I put 4 it on? I have washed my feet; how shall I defile them? My beloved put in his hand by the hole of the door, and my bowels 5 were moved for him. I rose up to open to my beloved: and my hands dropped with myrrh, and my fingers with sweet-6 smelling myrrh, upon the handles of the lock. I opened to my beloved; but my beloved had withdrawn himself, and was gone: my soul failed when he spoke: I sought him, but I could 7 not find him; I called him, but he gave me no answer. The watchmen that went about the city found me, they smote me, they wounded me; the keepers of the walls took away my vail 8 from me. I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, if ye find 9 my beloved, that ye tell him, that I am sick with love. What is thy beloved more than another beloved, O thou fairest among women? what is thy beloved more than another beloved, that 10 thou dost so charge us? My beloved is white and ruddy, the 11 chief among ten thousand. His head is as the most fine gold, 12 his locks are bushy, and black as a raven. His eyes are as the eyes of doves by the rivers of waters, washed with milk, and 13 fitly set. His cheeks are as a bed of spices, as sweet flowers: 14 his lips like lilies, dropping sweet-smelling myrrh. His hands are as gold rings set with the beryl: his belly is as bright ivory 15 overlaid with sapphires. His legs are as pillars of marble, set upon sockets of fine gold: his countenance is as Lebanon, ex-16 cellent as the cedars. His mouth is most sweet: yes, he is altogether lovely. This is my beloved, and this is my friend, O daughters of Jerusalem.

6 Whither is thy beloved gone, O thou fairest among women? whither is thy beloved turned aside? that we may seek him 2 with thee. My beloved is gone down into his garden, to the 3 beds of spices, to feed in the gardens, and to gather lilies. I am my beloved's, and my beloved is mine: he feedeth among 4 the lilies. Thou art beautiful, O my love, as Tirzah, comely 5 as Jerusalem, terrible as an army with banners. Turn away thy eyes from me, for they have overcome me: thy hair is as a flock of goats that appear from Gilead. Thy teeth are as a flock of sheep which go up from the washing, of which every one beareth twins, and there is not one barren among them. As a piece of pomegranate are thy temples within thy locks. There are sixty queens, and eighty concubines, and virgins without number. My dove, my undefiled is but one; she is the only one of her mother, she is the choice one of her that bore her. The daughters saw her, and blessed her; yes, the queens and the concubines, and they praised her. Who is she that looketh forth as the morning, fair as the moon, clear as the sun, and terrible as an army with banners? I went down into the garden of nuts to see the fruits of the valley, and to see whether the vine flourished, and the pomegranates budded. Or ere I was aware, my soul made me like the chariots of Amminadib. Return, return, O Shulamite; return, return, that we may look upon thee. What will ye see in the Shulamite? As it were the company of two armies.

How beautiful are thy feet with shoes, O prince's daughter! the joints of thy thighs are like jewels, the work of the hands of a skillful workman. Thy navel is like a round goblet, which wanteth not liquor: thy belly is like a heap of wheat set about with lilies. Thy two breasts are like two young roes that are twins. Thy neck is as a tower of ivory; thy eyes like the fish-pools in Heshbon, by the gate of Bath-rabbim: thy nose is as the tower of Lebanon which looketh towards Damascus. Thy head upon thee is like Carmel, and the hair of thy head like purple; the king is held in the galleries. How fair and how pleasant art thou, O love, for delights! This thy stature is like to a palm tree, and thy breasts to clusters of grapes. I said, I will go up to the palm tree, I will take hold of its boughs: now also thy breasts shall be as clusters of the vine, and the smell of thy nose like apples; And the roof of thy mouth like the best wine for my beloved, that goeth down sweetly, causing the lips of those that are asleep to speak. I am my beloved's, and his desire is towards me. Come, my beloved, let us go forth into the field; let us lodge in the villages. Let us get up early to the vineyards; let us see if the vine flourisheth, whether the tender grape appeareth, and the pomegranates bud forth: there will I give thee my loves. The mandrakes give a smell, and at our gates are all manner of pleasant fruits, new and old, which I have laid up for thee, O my beloved.

- 8 O that thou wert as my brother, that was nourished at the breasts of my mother! when I should find thee without, I would 2 kiss thee; yes, I should not be despised. I would lead thee, and bring thee into my mother's house, who would instruct me: I would cause thee to drink of spiced wine of the juice of my 3 pomegranate. His left hand should be under my head, and 4 his right hand should embrace me. I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, that ye stir not, nor awake my love, until he 5 please. Who is this that cometh up from the wilderness, leaning upon her beloved? I raised thee up under the apple-tree: there thy mother brought thee forth: there she brought thee 6 forth that bore thee. Set me as a seal upon thy heart, as a seal upon thy arm: for love is strong as death; jealousy is cruel as the grave: the coals of it are coals of fire, which hath a most 7 vehement flame. Many waters cannot quench love, neither can the floods drown it: if a man would give all the substance 8 of his house for love, it would utterly be contemned. We have a little sister, and she hath no breasts: what shall we do for our 9 sister in the day when she shall be spoken for? If she is a wall, we will build upon her a palace of silver: and if she is a door, 10 we will inclose her with boards of cedar. I am a wall, and my breasts like towers: then was I in his eyes as one that found 11 favor. Solomon had a vineyard at Baal-hamon; he let out the vineyard to keepers; every one for the fruit of it was to bring 12 a thousand pieces of silver. My vineyard which is mine, is before me: thou, O Solomon, must have a thousand, and those 13 that keep the fruit of it two hundred. Thou that dwellest in the gardens, the companions hearken to thy voice: cause me to 14 hear it. Make haste, my beloved, and be thou like a roe or a young hart upon the mountains of spices.

THE BOOK OF THE PROPHET ISAIAH.

She vision of Isaiah the son of Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah. Hear, O heavens, and give ear, O earth: for the LORD hath spoken, I have nourished and brought up children, and they have rebelled against me. The ox knoweth his owner, and the ass his master's crib: but Israel doth not know, my people doth not consider. Ah sinful nation, a people laden with iniquity, a seed of evil-doers, children that are corrupters: they have forsaken the LORD, they have provoked the Holy One of Israel to anger, they are gone away backward. Why should ye be stricken any more? ye will revolt more and more: the whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint. From the sole of the foot even to the head there is no soundness in it; but wounds, and bruises, and putrifying sores: they have not been closed, neither bound up, neither mollified with ointment. Your country is desolate, your cities are burned with fire: your land, strangers devour it in your presence, and it is desolate, as overthrown by strangers. And the daughter of Zion is left as a cottage in a vineyard, as a lodge in a garden of cucumbers, as a besieged city. Except the LORD of hosts had left to us a very small remnant, we should have been as Sodom; we should have been like Gomorrah. Hear the word of the LORD, ye rulers of Sodom; give ear to the law of our God, ye people of Gomorrah. To what purpose is the multitude of your sacrifices to me? saith the LORD: I am full of the burnt-offerings of rams, and the fat of fed beasts; and I delight not in the blood of bullocks, or of lambs, or of he-goats. When ye come to appear before me, who hath required this at your hand, to tread my courts? Bring no more vain oblations; incense is an abomination to me; the new moons and sabbaths, the calling of assemblies, I cannot endure; it is iniquity, even the solemn meeting. Your new moons and your appointed feasts my soul hateth: they are a trouble to me; I am weary to bear them. And when ye spread forth your hands, I will hide my eyes from you: yes, when ye make many 16 prayers, I will not hear: your hands are full of blood. Wash ye, make yourselves clean; put away the evil of your doings from 17 before my eyes; cease to do evil; Learn to do well; seek judgment, relieve the oppressed, judge the fatherless, plead for the 18 widow. Come now, and let us reason together, saith the LORD: though your sins are as scarlet, they shall be white as snow, 19 though they are red like crimson, they shall be as wool. If ye are willing and obedient, ye shall eat the good of the land: 20 But if ye refuse and rebel, ye shall be devoured with the sword: 21 for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it. How is the faithful city become a harlot! it was full of judgment; righteousness 22 lodged in it; but now murderers. Thy silver is become dross, 23 thy wine mixed with water: Thy princes are rebellious, and companions of thieves: every one loveth gifts, and followeth after rewards: they judge not the fatherless, neither doth the 24 cause of the widow come to them. Therefore saith the LORD, the LORD of hosts, the mighty One of Israel, Ah, I will ease 25 me of my adversaries, and avenge me of my enemies: And I will turn my hand upon thee, and thoroughly purge away 26 thy dross, and take away all thy tin: And I will restore thy judges as at the first, and thy counselors as at the beginning: afterward thou shalt be called, The city of righteousness, the 27 faithful city. Zion shall be redeemed with judgment, and her 28 converts with righteousness. And the destruction of the trans-gressors and of the sinners shall be together, and they that for-29 sake the LORD shall be consumed. For they shall be ashamed of the oaks which ye have desired, and ye shall be confounded 30 for the gardens that ye have chosen. For ye shall be as an oak 31 whose leaf fadeth, and as a garden that hath no water. And the strong shall be as tow, and the maker of it as a spark, and they shall both burn together, and none shall quench them.

2 The word that Isaiah the son of Amoz saw concerning Judah 2 and Jerusalem. And it shall come to pass in the last days, that the mount of the LORD'S house shall be established on the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; and all 3 nations shall flow to it. And many people shall go and say, Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem. And he will 4 judge among the nations, and will rebuke many people: and they shall beat their swords into plow-shares, and their spears into pruning-hooks: nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more. O house of Jacob, 5 come ye, and let us walk in the light of the LORD. Therefore 6 thou hast forsaken thy people the house of Jacob, because they are replenished from the east, and are sooth-sayers like the Philistines, and they please themselves in the children of strangers. Their land also is full of silver and gold, neither 7 is there any end of their treasures; their land is also full of horses, neither is there any end of their chariots: Their land 8 also is full of idols; they worship the work of their own hands, that which their own fingers have made: And the mean man 9 boweth down, and the great man humbleth himself: therefore forgive them not. Enter into the rock, and hide thee in the 10 dust, for fear of the LORD, and for the glory of his majesty.

The lofty looks of man shall be humbled, and the haughtiness 11 of men shall be abased, and the LORD alone shall be exalted in that day. For the day of the LORD of hosts shall be upon every 12 one that is proud and lofty, and upon every one that is lifted up; and he shall be brought low: And upon all the cedars of 13 Lebanon, that are high and lifted up, and upon all the oaks of Bashan, And upon all the high mountains, and upon all the 14 hills that are lifted up, And upon every high tower, and upon 15 every fortified wall, And upon all the ships of Tarshish, and 16 upon all pleasant pictures. And the loftiness of man shall be 17 abased, and the haughtiness of men shall be made low: and the LORD alone shall be exalted in that day. And the idols he will 18 utterly abolish. And they shall go into the holes of the rocks, 19 and into the caves of the earth, for fear of the LORD, and for the glory of his majesty, when he ariseth to shake terribly the earth. In that day a man shall cast his idols of silver, and his 20 idols of gold, which they made each one for himself to worship, to the moles and to the bats; To go into the clefts of the rocks, 21 and into the tops of the ragged rocks, for fear of the LORD, and for the glory of his majesty, when he ariseth to shake terribly the earth. Cease ye from man, whose breath is in his nostrils: 22 for wherein is he to be accounted of?

For behold, the LORD, the LORD of hosts, doth take away 3 from Jerusalem and from Judah the rod and the staff, the 2 whole support of bread, and the whole support of water, The mighty man, and the man of war, the judge, and the prophet, 3 and the prudent, and the ancient, The captain of fifty, and the honorable man, and the counselor, and the skillful artifi-4 cer, and the eloquent orator. And I will give children to be 5 their princes, and babes shall rule over them. And the people shall be oppressed, every one by another, and every one by his neighbor: the child shall behave himself proudly against 6 the elder, and the base against the honorable. When a man shall take hold of his brother of the house of his father, saying, 7 Thou hast clothing, be thou our ruler, and let this ruin be under thy hand: In that day shall he swear, saying, I will 8 not be a healer; for in my house is neither bread nor clothing: make me not a ruler of the people. For Jerusalem is ruined, and Judah is fallen: because their tongue and their doings are against the LORD, to provoke the eyes of his glory.

9 The show of their countenance doth witness against them; and they declare their sin as Sodom, they hide it not. Woe to their 10 soul! for they have rewarded evil to themselves. Say ye to the righteous, that it shall be well with him: for they shall eat 11 the fruit of their doings. Woe to the wicked! it shall be ill 12 with him: for the reward of his hands shall be given him. As for my people, children are their oppressors, and women rule over them. O my people, they who lead thee cause thee to err, 13 and destroy the way of thy paths. The LORD standeth up to plead, and standeth to judge the people. The LORD will en-14 ter into judgment with the elders of his people, and with their princes: for ye have eaten up the vineyard; the spoil of the 15 poor is in your houses. What mean ye that ye beat my people to pieces, and grind the faces of the poor? saith the LORD God 16 of hosts. Moreover the LORD saith, Because the daughters of Zion are haughty, and walk with extended necks and wanton eyes, walking and mincing as they go, and making a tinkling 17 with their feet: Therefore the LORD will smite with a scab the crown of the head of the daughters of Zion, and the LORD 18 will uncover their secret parts. In that day the LORD will take away the show of their tinkling ornaments about their feet, and 19 their cauls, and their round tires like the moon. The chains, 20 and the bracelets, and the mufflers, The bonnets, and the ornaments of the legs, and the head-bands, and the tablets, and the ear-rings, The rings, and nose-jewels, The changeable 21, 22 suits of apparel, and the mantles, and the wimples, and the cringing-pins, The glasses, and the fine linen, and the hoods, 23 and the veils. And it shall come to pass, that instead of sweet 24 smell there shall be an offensive odor; and instead of a girdle a rent; and instead of well set hair baldness; and instead of a stomacher a girding of sackcloth; and burning instead of beauty. Thy men shall fall by the sword, and thy mighty in 25 the war. And her gates shall lament and mourn; and she be- 26 ing desolate, shall sit upon the ground.

And in that day seven women shall take hold of one man, 4 saying, We will eat our own bread, and wear our own apparel: only let us be called by thy name, to take away our reproach.
 In that day shall the branch of the LORD be beautiful and glori- 2 ous, and the fruit of the earth shall be excellent and comely for them that have escaped of Israel. And it shall come to pass, 3 that he that is left in Zion, and he that remaineth in Jerusalem, shall be called holy, even every one that is written among the living in Jerusalem: When the LORD shall have washed away 4 the filth of the daughters of Zion, and shall have purged the blood of Jerusalem from the midst of it by the spirit of judg- 5 ment, and by the spirit of burning. And the LORD will create upon every dwelling place of mount Zion, and upon her assemblies, a cloud and smoke by day, and the shining of a flaming fire by night: for upon all the glory shall be a defense. And 6 there shall be a tabernacle for a shade in the day time from the heat, and for a place of refuge, and for a covert from storm and from rain.

Now will I sing to my well-beloved a song of my beloved 5 concerning his vineyard. My well-beloved hath a vineyard in a very fruitful hill: And he fenced it, and gathered out the 2 stones of it, and planted it with the choicest vine, and built a tower in the midst of it, and also made a wine-press therein: and he expected that it would bring forth grapes, and it brought forth wild grapes. And now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem, and 3 men of Judah, judge, I pray you, betwixt me and my vineyard.
 What more could have been done to my vineyard, that I have 4 not done in it? Why, when I expected that it would bring forth grapes, brought it forth wild grapes? And now come; I will 5 tell you what I will do to my vineyard: I will take away its hedge, and it shall be eaten up; and break down the wall of it, and it shall be trodden down: And I will lay it waste: it shall not be pruned, nor digged; but there shall come up briars and thorns: I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain upon it. For the vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah his pleasant plant: and he looked for judgment, but behold oppression; for righteousness, but behold a cry. Woe to them that join house to house, that lay field to field, till there is no place, that they may be placed alone in the midst of the earth! In my ears said the LORD of hosts, Of a truth many houses shall be desolate, even great and fair, without inhabitant. Yes, ten acres of vineyard shall yield one bath, and the seed of a homer shall yield an ephah. Woe to them that rise early in the morning, that they may follow strong drink; that continue until night, till wine inflameth them! And the harp, and the viol, the tabret, and pipe, and wine, are in their feasts: but they regard not the work of the LORD, neither consider the operation of his hands. Therefore my people have gone into captivity, because they have no knowledge: and their honorable men are famished, and their multitude dried up with thirst. Therefore hell hath enlarged herself, and opened her mouth without measure: and their glory, and their multitude, and their pomp, and he that rejoiceth, shall descend into it. And the mean man shall be brought down, and the mighty man shall be humbled, and the eyes of the lofty shall be abased. But the LORD of hosts shall be exalted in judgment, and God that is holy shall be sanctified in righteousness. Then shall the lambs feed after their manner, and the waste places of the fat ones shall strangers eat. Woe to them that draw iniquity with cords of vanity, and sin as it were with a cart-ropes: That say, Let him make speed, and hasten his work, that we may see it: and let the counsel of the Holy One of Israel draw nigh and come, that we may know it! Woe to them that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter! Woe to them that are wise in their own eyes, and prudent in their own sight! Woe to them that are mighty to drink wine, and men of strength to mingle strong drink: Who justify the wicked for reward, and take away the righteousness of the righteous from him! Therefore as the fire 24 devoureth the stubble, and the flame consumeth the chaff, so their root shall be as rottenness, and their blossom shall go up as dust: because they have cast away the law of the LORD of hosts, and despised the word of the Holy One of Israel. There- 25 fore is the anger of the LORD kindled against his people, and he hath stretched forth his hand against them, and hath smitten them: and the hills trembled, and their carcasses were torn in the midst of the streets. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still. And he will lift up 26 an ensign to the nations from afar, and will hiss to them from the end of the earth: and behold, they shall come with speed swiftly: None shall be weary nor stumble among them; none 27 shall slumber nor sleep; neither shall the girdle of their loins be loosed, nor the latchet of their shoes be broken: Whose 28 arrows are sharp, and all their bows bent, their horses' hoofs shall be counted like flint, and their wheels like a whirlwind: Their roaring shall be like a lion, they shall roar like young 29 lions: yes, they shall roar, and lay hold of the prey, and shall carry it away safe, and none shall deliver it. And in that day 30 they shall roar against them like the roaring of the sea: and if one looketh to the land, behold darkness and sorrow, and the light is darkened in its heavens.

In the year that king Uzziah died I saw also the LORD sit- 6 ting upon a throne, high and elevated, and his train filled the temple. Above it stood seraphim: each one had six wings; with 2 two he covered his face, and with two he covered his feet, and with two he flew. And one cried to another, and said, Holy, 3 holy, holy is the LORD of hosts: the whole earth is full of his glory. And the posts of the door moved at the voice of him 4 that cried, and the house was filled with smoke. Then said I, 5 Woe is me! for I am undone; because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips: for my eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts. Then one of 6 the seraphim flew to me, having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from off the altar: And he laid it 7 upon my mouth, and said, Lo, this hath touched thy lips; and thy iniquity is taken away, and thy sin purged. Also I heard 8 the voice of the LORD, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Then said I, Here am I; send me. And he said, 9

Go, and tell this people, Hear ye indeed, but understand not; 10 and see ye indeed, but perceive not. Make the heart of this people fat, and make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes; lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and un-11 derstand with their heart, and convert, and be healed. Then said I, Lord, how long? And he answered, Until the cities shall be wasted without inhabitant, and the houses without man, 12 and the land be utterly desolate; And the LORD shall have removed men far away, and there be a great forsaking in the 13 midst of the land. But yet in it shall be a tenth, and it shall return, and shall be eaten: as a teil-tree, and as an oak whose substance is in them, when they cast their leaves: so the holy seed shall be the substance of it.

7 And it came to pass in the days of Ahaz the son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, that Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up towards Jerusalem to war against it, but could not prevail against it.
2 And it was told the house of David, saying, Syria is confederate with Ephraim. And his heart was moved, and the heart of his people, as the trees of the wood are moved with the wind.
3 Then said the LORD to Isaiah, Go forth now to meet Ahaz, thou, and Shear-jashub thy son, at the end of the conduit of 4 the upper pool in the highway of the fuller's field; And say to him, Take heed, and be quiet; fear not, neither be faint-hearted for the two tails of these smoking fire-brands, for the fierce anger of Rezin with Syria, and of the son of Remaliah.
5 Because Syria, Ephraim, and the son of Remaliah, have taken 6 evil counsel against thee, saying, Let us go up against Judah, and harass it, and let us make a breach therein for us, and set 7 a king in the midst of it, even the son of Tabeal: Thus saith the Lord GOD, It shall not stand, neither shall it come to pass.
8 For the head of Syria is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin; and within sixty five years shall Ephraim be broken, 9 that it be not a people. And the head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is Remaliah's son. If ye will not be-10 lieve, surely ye shall not be established. Moreover, the LORD 11 spoke again to Ahaz, saying, Ask thee a sign from the LORD 12 thy God; ask it either in the depth, or in the high above. But 13 Ahaz said, I will not ask, neither will I tempt the LORD. And he said, Hear ye now, O house of David? Is it a small thing for you to weary men, but will ye weary my God also? Therefore the LORD himself will give you a sign; Behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel. Butter and honey shall he eat, that he may know to refuse the evil, and choose the good. For before the child shall know to refuse the evil, and choose the good, the land that thou abhorrest shall be forsaken by both her kings. The LORD will bring upon thee, and upon thy people, and upon thy father's house, days that have not come, from the day that Ephraim departed from Judah; even the king of Assyria. And it shall come to pass in that day, that the LORD will hiss for the fly that is in the uttermost part of the rivers of Egypt, and for the bee that is in the land of Assyria. And they shall come, and shall rest all of them in the desolate valleys, and in the holes of the rocks, and upon all thorns, and upon all bushes. In the same day will the LORD shave with a razor that is hired, namely, by them beyond the river, by the king of Assyria, the head, and the hair of the feet: and it shall also consume the beard. And it shall come to pass in that day, that a man shall nourish a young cow, and two sheep; And it shall come to pass, for the abundance of milk that they shall give, he shall eat butter: for butter and honey shall every one eat that is left in the land. And it shall come to pass in that day, that every place shall be, where there were a thousand vines at a thousand pieces of silver, it shall even be for briers and thorns. With arrows and with bows shall men come thither; because all the land shall become briers and thorns. And on all hills that shall be digged with the mattock, there shall not come thither the fear of briers and thorns: but it shall be for the sending forth of oxen, and for the treading of lesser cattle.

Moreover, the LORD said to me, Take thee a great roll, and write in it with a man's pen concerning Maher-shalal-hash-baz. And I took to me faithful witnesses to record, Uriah the priest, and Zechariah the son of Jeberechiah. And I went to the prophetess; and she conceived, and bore a son. Then said the LORD to me, Call his name Maher-shalal-hash-baz. For before the child shall have knowledge to cry, My father, and my mother, the riches of Damascus and the spoil of Samaria shall be taken away before the king of Assyria. The LORD spoke also to me again, saying, Forasmuch as this people refuseth the waters of Shiloah that flow gently, and rejoice in Rezin and 7 Remaliah's son; Now therefore, behold, the LORD bringeth up upon them the waters of the river, strong and many, even the king of Assyria, and all his glory: and he shall come up over 8 all its channels, and go over all its banks: And he shall pass through Judah; he shall overflow and go over, he shall reach even to the neck; and the extension of his wings shall fill the 9 breadth of thy land, O Immanuel. Associate yourselves, O ye people, and ye shall be broken in pieces; and give ear, all ye of far countries: gird yourselves, and ye shall be broken in pieces; 10 gird yourselves, and ye shall be broken in pieces. Take counsel together, and it shall come to naught; speak the word, and 11 it shall not stand: for God is with us. For the LORD spoke thus to me with a strong hand, and instructed me that I should not 12 walk in the way of this people, saying, Say ye not, A confederacy, to all them to whom this people shall say, A confederacy; 13 neither fear ye their fear, nor be afraid. Sanctify the LORD of hosts himself; and let him be your fear, and let him be your 14 dread. And he will be for a sanctuary; but for a stone of stumbling and for a rock of offense to both the houses of Israel, for 15 a trap and for a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem. And many among them shall stumble, and fall, and be broken, and 16 be ensnared, and be taken. Bind up the testimony, seal the law among my disciples. And I will wait upon the LORD, that 17 hideth his face from the house of Jacob, and I will look for him.

18 Behold, I and the children whom the LORD hath given me are for signs and for wonders in Israel from the LORD of hosts, 19 who dwelleth in mount Zion. And when they shall say to you, Seek to them that have familiar spirits, and to wizards that peep, and that mutter: should not a people seek to their God?
20 for the living to the dead? To the law and to the testimony: if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is 21 no light in them. And they shall pass through it, distressed and hungry: and it shall come to pass, that when they shall be hungry, they shall fret themselves, and curse their king and 22 their God, and look upward. And they shall look to the earth; and behold trouble and darkness, dimness of anguish; and they shall be driven to darkness.

9 Nevertheless the dimness shall not be such as was in her distress, when at the first he lightly afflicted the land of Zebu-lun, and the land of Naphtali, and afterward did more grievously afflict her by the way of the sea, beyond Jordan, in Galilee of the nations. The people that walked in darkness have seen a 2 great light: they that dwell in the land of the shades of death, upon them hath the light shined. Thou hast multiplied the 3 nation, and not increased the joy: they joy before thee according to the joy in harvest, and as men rejoice when they divide the spoil. For thou hast broken the yoke of his burden, and the 4 staff of his shoulder, the rod of his oppressor, as in the day of Midian. For every battle of the warrior is with confused noise, 5 and garments rolled in blood; but this shall be with burning and fuel of fire. For to us a child is born, to us a son is given: 6 and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counselor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace. Of the increase of his 7 government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice from henceforth even for ever. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will perform this. The LORD 8 sent a word into Jacob, and it hath lighted upon Israel. And 9 all the people shall know, even Ephraim and the inhabitant of Samaria, that say in the pride and stoutness of heart, The 10 bricks have fallen down, but we will build with hewn stones; the sycamores are cut down, but we will change them into cedars. Therefore the LORD will set up the adversaries of 11 Rezin against him, and join his enemies together; The Syrians before, and the Philistines behind; and they shall devour Israel with open mouth. For all this his anger is not turned 12 away, but his hand is stretched out still. For the people turn 13 not to him that smiteth them, neither do they seek the LORD of hosts. Therefore the LORD will cut off from Israel head and 14 tail, branch and rush, in one day. The ancient and honorable, 15 he is the head; and the prophet that teacheth lies, he is the tail. For the leaders of this people cause them to err; and they that 16 are led by them are destroyed. Therefore the LORD will have 17 no joy in their young men, neither will have mercy on their fatherless and widows: for every one is a hypocrite and an evil-doer, and every mouth speaketh folly. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still. For 18 wickedness burneth as the fire: it shall devour the briars and thorns, and shall kindle in the thickets of the forest, and they 19 shall mount up like the rising of smoke. Through the wrath of the LORD of hosts is the land darkened, and the people shall 20 be as the fuel of the fire: no man shall spare his brother. And he shall snatch on the right hand, and be hungry; and he shall eat on the left hand, and they shall not be satisfied: they shall 21 eat every man the flesh of his own arm: Manasseh, Ephraim; and Ephraim, Manasseh: and they together shall be against Judah. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

10 Woe to them that decree unrighteous decrees, and that write 2 grievousness which they have prescribed; To turn aside the needy from judgment, and to take away the right from the poor of my people, that widows may be their prey, and that 3 they may rob the fatherless! And what will ye do in the day of visitation, and in the desolation which shall come from far? to whom will ye flee for help? and where will ye leave your 4 glory? Without me they shall bow down under the prisoners, and they shall fall under the slain. For all this his anger is 5 not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still. O Assyrian, the rod of my anger, and the staff in their hand is my 6 indignation. I will send him against a hypocritical nation, and against the people of my wrath will I give him a charge, to take the spoil, and to take the prey, and to tread them down 7 like the mire of the streets. Howbeit he meaneth not so, neither doth his heart think so; but it is in his heart to destroy and 8 cut off nations not a few. For he saith, Are not my princes al-9 together kings? Is not Calno as Carchemish? is not Hamath 10 as Arpad? is not Samaria as Damascus? As my hand hath found the kingdoms of the idols, and whose graven images ex-11 celled them of Jerusalem and of Samaria; Shall I not, as I have done to Samaria and her idols, so do to Jerusalem and 12 her idols? Wherefore it shall come to pass, that when the LORD hath performed his whole work upon mount Zion and on Jerusalem, I will punish the fruit of the stout heart of the 13 king of Assyria, and the glory of his high looks. For he saith, By the strength of my hand I have done it, and by my wisdom; for I am prudent: and I have removed the bounds of the people, and have robbed their treasures, and I have put down 14 the inhabitants like a valiant man: And my hand hath found as a nest the riches of the people: and as one gathereth eggs that are left, have I gathered all the earth; and there was none that moved the wing, or opened the mouth, or peeped. Shall 15 the ax boast itself against him that heweth with it? or shall the saw magnify itself against him that moveth it? as if the rod should shake itself against them that lift it, or as if the staff should lift itself, as if it were no wood. Therefore will the 16 LORD, the LORD of hosts, send among his fat ones leanness; and under his glory he will kindle a burning like the burning of a fire. And the light of Israel shall be for a fire, and his 17 Holy One for a flame: and it shall burn and devour his thorns and his briars in one day; And shall consume the glory of his 18 forest, and of his fruitful field, both soul and body: and they shall be as when a standard-bearer fainteth. And the rest 19 of the trees of his forest shall be few, that a child may write them. And it shall come to pass in that day, that the remnant of Israel, and such as have escaped of the house of Jacob, shall no more again lean upon him that smote them; but shall lean upon the LORD, the Holy One of Israel, in truth. The rem- 21 nant shall return, even the remnant of Jacob, to the mighty God. For though thy people Israel be as the sand of the sea, 22 yet a remnant of them shall return: the consumption decreed shall overflow with righteousness. For the Lord GOD of hosts 23 will make a consumption, even determined, in the midst of all the land. Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD of hosts, O my 24 people that dwellest in Zion, be not afraid of the Assyrian: he shall smite thee with a rod, and shall lift up his staff against thee, after the manner of Egypt. For yet a very little while, 25 and the indignation shall cease, and my anger in their destruction. And the LORD of hosts will raise up a scourge for him 26 according to the slaughter of Midian at the rock of Oreb: and as his rod was upon the sea, so shall he lift it up after the manner of Egypt. And it shall come to pass in that day, that his 27 burden shall be taken away from off thy shoulder, and his yoke from off thy neck, and the yoke shall be destroyed because of the anointing. He is come to Aiath, he is passed to Migron; at 28 Michmash he hath laid up his furniture. They have gone over 29 the passage: they have taken up their lodging at Geba; Ramah is afraid; Gibeah of Saul hath fled. Lift up thy voice, O daugh- 30 ter of Gallim: cause it to be heard to Laish, O poor Anathoth.

31 Madmenah is removed; the inhabitants of Gebim gather them-32 selves to flee. As yet shall he remain at Nob that day: he shall shake his hand against the mount of the daughter of Zion, the 33 hill of Jerusalem. Behold, the LORD, the LORD of hosts will lop the bough with terror: and the high ones of stature shall be 34 hewn down, and the haughty shall be humbled. And he shall cut down the thickets of the forests with iron, and Lebanon shall fall by a mighty one.

11 And there shall come forth a rod out of the stem of Jesse, 2 and a branch shall grow out of his roots: And the spirit of the LORD will rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and 3 of the fear of the LORD; And will make him of quick understanding in the fear of the LORD: and he will not judge after the sight of his eyes, neither reprove after the hearing of his 4 ears: But with righteousness will he judge the poor, and reprove with equity for the meek of the earth: and he will smite the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of 5 his lips will he slay the wicked. And righteousness shall be the girdle of his loins, and faithfulness the girdle of his reins.
6 The wolf also shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid; and the calf and the young lion and the 7 fatling together; and a little child shall lead them. And the cow and the bear shall feed; their young ones shall lie down 8 together: and the lion shall eat straw like the ox. And the suckling child shall play on the hole of the asp, and the weaned 9 child shall put his hand on the den of the basilisk. They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain: for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the LORD, as the waters cover 10 the sea. And in that day there shall be a root of Jesse, which shall stand for an ensign of the people; to it shall the Gen-11 tiles seek: and his rest shall be glorious. And it shall come to pass in that day, that the LORD will set his hand again the second time to recover the remnant of his people, which shall be left, from Assyria, and from Egypt, and from Pathros, and from Cush, and from Elam, and from Shinar, and from Hamath, and 12 from the isles of the sea. And he shall set up an ensign for the nations, and shall assemble the outcasts of Israel, and gather 13 the dispersed of Judah from the four corners of the earth. The envy also of Ephraim shall depart, and the adversaries of Judah shall be cut off: Ephraim shall not envy Judah, and Judah shall not distress Ephraim. But they shall fly upon the shoulders of the Philistines towards the west; they shall spoil them of the east together: they shall lay their hand upon Edom and Moab; and the children of Ammon shall obey them. And the LORD will utterly destroy the tongue of the Egyptian sea; and with his mighty wind will he shake his hand over the river, and will smite it in the seven streams, and make men go over dry shod. And there shall be a highway for the remnant of his people, which shall be left, from Assyria; as it was to Israel in the day that he came up from the land of Egypt. 14 15 16

And in that day thou shalt say, O LORD, I will praise thee: 12 though thou wast angry with me, thy anger is turned away, and thou hast comforted me. Behold, God is my salvation; I will trust, and not be afraid: for the LORD JEHOVAH is my strength and my song; he also is become my salvation. Therefore with joy shall ye draw water out of the wells of salvation. And in that day shall ye say, Praise the LORD, call upon his name, declare his doings among the people, make mention that his name is exalted. Sing to the LORD; for he hath done excellent things: this is known in all the earth. Cry aloud and shout, thou inhabitant of Zion: for great is the Holy One of Israel in the midst of thee. 2 3 4 5 6

The burden of Babylon, which Isaiah the son of Amoz saw. 13 Lift ye up a banner upon the high mountain, exalt the voice to them, shake the hand, that they may go into the gates of the nobles. I have commanded my sanctified ones, I have also called my mighty ones for my anger, even them that rejoice in my highness. The noise of a multitude in the mountains, as of a great people; a tumultuous noise of the kingdoms of nations assembled: the LORD of hosts mustereth the host of the battle. They come from a far country, from the end of heaven, even the LORD, and the weapons of his indignation, to destroy the whole land. Howl ye; for the day of the LORD is at hand; it shall come as a destruction from the Almighty. Therefore shall all hands be faint, and every man's heart shall melt: And they shall be afraid: pangs and sorrows shall take hold of them; they shall be in pain as a woman that travaileth: they shall be amazed one at another; their faces shall be as flames. Behold, the day of the LORD cometh, cruel both with 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 wrath and fierce anger, to lay the land desolate: and he will 10 destroy its sinners out of it. For the stars of heaven and its constellations shall not give their light: the sun shall be darkened in his going forth, and the moon shall not cause her light 11 to shine. And I will punish the world for their evil, and the wicked for their iniquity; and I will cause the arrogance of the proud to cease, and will lay low the haughtiness of the terri-12 ble. I will make a man more precious than fine gold; even a 13 man than the golden wedge of Ophir. Therefore I will shake the heavens, and the earth shall remove out of her place, in the wrath of the LORD of hosts, and in the day of his fierce 14 anger. And it shall be as the chased roe, and as a sheep that no man taketh up: they shall every man turn to his own people, 15 and flee every one to his own land. Every one that is found shall be thrust through; and every one that is joined to them 16 shall fall by the sword. Their children also shall be dashed to pieces before their eyes; their houses shall be plundered, and 17 their wives ravished. Behold, I will stir up the Medes against them, who shall not regard silver; and as for gold, they shall 18 not delight in it. Their bows also shall dash the young men to pieces; and they shall have no pity on the fruit of the womb; 19 their eye shall not spare children. And Babylon, the glory of kingdoms, the beauty of the Chaldees' excellence, shall be as 20 when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah. It shall never be inhabited, neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation: neither shall the Arabian pitch tent there; neither shall 21 the shepherds make their fold there. But wild beasts of the desert shall lie there; and their houses shall be full of doleful creatures; and owls shall dwell there, and satyrs shall dance 22 there. And the wild beasts of the isles shall cry in their desolate houses, and dragons in their pleasant palaces: and her time is near to come, and her days shall not be prolonged.

14 For the LORD will have mercy on Jacob, and will yet choose Israel, and set them in their own land: and the strangers shall be joined with them, and they shall cleave to the house of Ja-2 cob. And the people shall take them, and bring them to their place: and the house of Israel shall possess them in the land of the LORD for servants and handmaids: and they shall take them captives, whose captives they were; and they shall rule 3 over their oppressors. And it shall come to pass in the day that the LORD shall give thee rest from thy sorrow, and from thy fear, and from the hard bondage in which thou wast made to serve, That thou shalt take up this proverb against the king of Babylon, and say, How hath the oppressor ceased! the golden city ceased! The LORD hath broken the staff of the wicked, and the scepter of the rulers. He who smote the people in wrath with a continual stroke, he that ruled the nations in anger, is persecuted, and none hindereth. The whole earth is at rest, and is quiet: they break forth into singing. Yes, the fir-trees rejoice at thee, and the cedars of Lebanon, saying, Since thou art laid down, no feller is come up against us. Hell from beneath is moved for thee to meet thee at thy coming: it stirreth up the dead for thee, even all the chief ones of the earth; it hath raised up from their thrones all the kings of the nations. All they shall speak and say to thee, Art thou also become weak as we? Art thou become like us? Thy pomp is brought down to the grave, and the noise of thy viols: the worm is spread under thee, and the worms cover thee. How art thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning! how art thou cut down to the ground, which didst weaken the nations! For thou hast said in thy heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north: I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the Most High. Yet thou shalt be brought down to hell, to the sides of the pit. They that see thee shall narrowly look upon thee, and consider thee, saying, Is this the man that made the earth to tremble, that shook kingdoms: That made the world as a wilderness, and destroyed its cities; that opened not the house of his prisoners? All the kings of the nations, even all of them, lie in glory, every one in his own house. But thou art cast out of thy grave like an abominable branch, and as the raiment of those that are slain, thrust through with a sword, that go down to the stones of the pit; as a carcass trodden under feet. Thou shalt not be joined with them in burial, because thou hast destroyed thy land, and slain thy people: the seed of evil-doers shall never be renowned. Prepare slaughter for his children for the iniquity of their fathers; that they may not rise, nor possess the land, nor fill the face of the world with cities. For I will arise against them, saith the LORD of hosts, and cut off from Babylon the name, and remnant, and 23 son, and nephew, saith the LORD. I will also make it a possession for the bittern, and pools of water: and I will sweep it 24 with the besom of destruction, saith the LORD of hosts. The LORD of hosts hath sworn, saying, Surely as I have thought, so shall it come to pass; and as I have purposed, so shall it 25 stand. That I will break the Assyrian in my land, and upon my mountains tread him under foot: then shall his yoke depart from off them, and his burden depart from off their shoulders.

26 This is the purpose that is purposed upon the whole earth: and 27 this is the hand that is stretched over all the nations. For the LORD of hosts hath purposed, and who shall disannul it? and 28 his hand is stretched out, and who shall turn it back? In the 29 year that king Ahaz died was this burden. Rejoice not thou, all Palestina, because the rod of him that smote thee is broken: for out of the serpent's root shall come forth a basilisk, and his 30 fruit shall be a fiery flying serpent. And the first-born of the poor shall feed, and the needy shall lie down in safety: and I will kill thy root with famine, and he shall slay thy remnant.
31 Howl, O gate; cry, O city; thou, all Palestina, art dissolved: for there shall come from the north a smoke, and none shall be 32 alone in his appointed times. What shall one then answer the messengers of the nation? That the LORD hath founded Zion, and the poor of his people shall trust in it.

15 The burden of Moab. Because in the night Ar of Moab is laid waste, and brought to silence; because in the night Kir 2 of Moab is laid waste, and brought to silence; He is gone up to Bajith, and to Dibon, the high places, to weep: Moab shall howl over Nebo, and over Medeba: on all their heads shall be 3 baldness, and every beard shorn. In their streets they shall gird themselves with sackcloth: on the tops of their houses, and in their streets, every one shall howl, weeping abundantly.
4 And Heshbon shall cry, and Elealeh: their voice shall be heard even to Jahaz: therefore the armed soldiers of Moab shall cry 5 out; his life shall be grievous to him. My heart shall cry out for Moab; his fugitives shall flee to Zoar, a heifer of three years old: for they shall go up the ascent of Luhith with weeping; for in 6 the way of Horonaim they shall raise a cry of destruction. For the waters of Nimrim shall be desolate: for the herb is withered 7 away, the grass faileth, there is no green thing. Therefore the abundance they have gained, and that which they have laid up, shall they carry away to the brook of the willows. For the cry hath gone round the borders of Moab, her howling to Eglaim, and her howling to Beer-elim. For the waters of Dimon shall be full of blood: for I will bring more upon Dimon, lions upon him that escapeth of Moab, and upon the remnant of the land.

Send ye the lamb to the ruler of the land from Sela to the wilderness, to the mount of the daughter of Zion. For it shall be, that, as a wandering bird cast out of the nest, so the daughters of Moab shall be at the fords of Arnon. Take counsel, execute judgment; make thy shadow as the night in the midst of the noon-day; hide the outcasts; discover not him that wandereth. Let my outcasts dwell with thee, Moab; be thou a covert to them from the face of the spoiler: for the extortioner is at an end, the spoiler ceaseth, the oppressors are consumed out of the land. And in mercy shall the throne be established: and he shall sit upon it in truth in the tabernacle of David, judging, and seeking judgment, and hasting righteousness. We have heard of the pride of Moab; he is very proud: even of his haughtiness, and his pride, and his wrath: but his lies shall not be so. Therefore shall Moab howl for Moab, every one shall howl: for the foundations of Kir-hareseth shall ye mourn; surely they are stricken. For the fields of Heshbon languish, and the vine of Sibmah: the lords of the heathen have broken down her principal plants, they have come even to Jazer, they wandered through the wilderness: her branches are extended, they have gone over the sea. Therefore I will bewail with the weeping of Jazer the vine of Sibmah: I will water thee with my tears, O Heshbon, and Elealeh: for the shouting for thy summer fruits and for thy harvest is fallen. And gladness is taken away, and joy from the plentiful field; and in the vineyards there shall be no singing, neither shall there be shouting: the treaders shall tread out no wine in their presses; I have made their vintage -shouting to cease. Wherefore my bowels shall sound like a harp for Moab, and my inward parts for Kir-harsh. And it shall come to pass, when it is seen that Moab is weary on the high place, that he shall come to his sanctuary to pray; but he shall not prevail. This is the word that the LORD hath spoken concerning Moab since that time. But now the LORD hath spoken, saying, Within three years, as the years of a hireling, and the glory of Moab shall be contemned, with all that great multitude; and the remnant shall be very small and feeble.

17 The burden of Damascus. Behold, Damascus is taken away 2 from being a city, and it shall be a ruinous heap. The cities of Aroer are forsaken: they shall be for flocks, which shall lie 3 down, and none shall make them afraid. The fortress also shall cease from Ephraim, and the kingdom from Damascus, and the remnant of Syria: they shall be as the glory of the 4 children of Israel, saith the LORD of hosts. And in that day it shall come to pass, that the glory of Jacob shall be diminished, 5 and the fatness of his flesh shall become lean. And it shall be as when the harvest-man gathereth the corn, and reapeth the ears with his arm; and it shall be as he that gathereth ears 6 in the valley of Rephaim. Yet gleaning grapes shall be left in it, as the shaking of an olive-tree, two or three berries in the top of the uppermost bough, four or five in the outmost fruitful 7 branches of it, saith the LORD God of Israel. At that day shall a man look to his Maker, and his eyes shall have respect to the 8 Holy One of Israel. And he shall not look to the altars, the work of his hands, neither shall respect that which his fingers 9 have made, either the groves, or the images. In that day shall his strong cities be as a forsaken bough, and an uppermost branch, which they left because of the children of Israel: and 10 there shall be desolation. Because thou hast forgotten the God of thy salvation, and hast not been mindful of the rock of thy strength, therefore shalt thou plant pleasant plants, and 11 shalt set it with foreign slips: In the day shalt thou make thy plant to grow, and in the morning shalt thou make thy seed to flourish: but the harvest shall be a heap in the day of 12 grief and of desperate sorrow. Woe to the multitude of many people, who make a noise like the noise of the seas; and to the rushing of nations, that make a rushing like the rushing 13 of mighty waters! The nations shall rush like the rushing of many waters: but God will rebuke them, and they shall flee far off, and shall be chased as the chaff of the mountains before 14 the wind, and like a rolling thing before the whirlwind. And behold at the time of evening trouble; and before the morning he is not. This is the portion of them that ravage us, and the lot of them that rob us.

Woe to the land shadowing with wings, which is beyond the 18 rivers of Cush: That sendeth ambassadors by the sea, even 2 in vessels of bulrushes upon the waters, saying, Go, ye swift messengers to a nation scattered and peeled, to a people terrible from their beginning hitherto; a nation measured by line and trodden down, whose land the rivers have laid waste. All 3 ye inhabitants of the world, and dwellers on the earth, see ye, when he lifteth up an ensign on the mountains; and when he bloweth a trumpet, hear ye. For so the LORD said to me, I 4 will take my rest, and I will consider in my dwelling-place like a clear heat upon herbs, and like a cloud of dew in the heat of harvest. For before the harvest, when the bud is perfect, and 5 the sour grape is ripening in the flower, he shall both cut off the sprigs with pruning-hooks, and take away and cut down the branches. They shall be left together to the fowls of the 6 mountains, and to the beasts of the earth: and the fowls shall summer upon them, and all the beasts of the earth shall winter upon them. In that time shall the present be brought to 7 the LORD of hosts of a people scattered and peeled, and from a people terrible from their beginning hitherto; a nation measured by line and trodden under foot, whose land the rivers have spoiled, to the place of the name of the LORD of hosts, the mount Zion.

The burden of Egypt. Behold, the LORD rideth upon a swift 19 cloud, and will come into Egypt: and the idols of Egypt shall be moved at his presence, and the heart of Egypt shall melt in the midst of it. And I will set the Egyptians against the 2 Egyptians: and they shall fight every one against his brother, and every one against his neighbor; city against city, and kingdom against kingdom. And the spirit of Egypt shall fail in the 3 midst of her, and I will destroy her counsel: and they shall seek to the idols, and to the charmners, and to them that have familiar spirits, and to the wizards. And the Egyptians will I give 4 over into the hand of a cruel lord; and a fierce king shall rule over them, saith the Lord, the LORD of hosts. And the waters 5 shall fail from the sea, and the rivers shall be wasted and dried up. And they shall turn the rivers far away; and the brooks 6 of defense shall be emptied and dried up: the reeds and flags shall wither. The paper-reeds by the brooks, by the mouth of 7 the brooks, and every thing sown by the brooks, shall wither, 8 be driven away, and be no more. The fishers also shall mourn, and all they that cast angle into the brooks shall lament, and 9 they that spread nets upon the waters shall languish. Moreover they that work in fine flax, and they that weave net-works 10 shall be confounded. And they shall be broken in the purposes 11 thereof, all that make sluices and ponds for fish. Surely the princes of Zoan are fools, the counsel of the wise counselors of Pharaoh is become brutish: how say ye to Pharaoh, I am the 12 son of the wise, the son of ancient kings? Where are they? where are thy wise men? and let them tell thee now, and let them know what the LORD of hosts hath purposed upon Egypt.

13 The princes of Zoan are become fools, the princes of Noph are deceived; they have also seduced Egypt, even they that are the 14 support of its tribes. The LORD hath mingled a perverse spirit in the midst of it: and they have caused Egypt to err in every 15 work of it, as a drunken man staggereth in his vomit. Neither shall there be any work for Egypt, which the head or tail, 16 branch or rush, may perform. In that day shall Egypt be like women: and it shall be afraid and fear because of the shaking of the hand of the LORD of hosts, which he shaketh over 17 it. And the land of Judah shall be a terror to Egypt, every one that maketh mention of it shall be afraid in himself, because of the counsel of the LORD of hosts, which he hath de-18 termined against it. In that day shall five cities in the land of Egypt speak the language of Canaan, and swear to the LORD 19 of hosts; one shall be called, The city of destruction. In that day shall there be an altar to the LORD in the midst of the 20 land of Egypt, and a pillar at its border to the LORD. And it shall be for a sign and for a witness to the LORD of hosts in the land of Egypt: for they shall cry to the LORD because of the oppressors, and he shall send them a savior, and a great 21 one, and he shall deliver them. And the LORD shall be known to Egypt, and the Egyptians shall know the LORD in that day, and shall do sacrifice and oblation; yes, they shall vow a vow to 22 the LORD, and perform it. And the LORD will smite Egypt: he will smite and heal it: and they shall return even to the LORD, 23 and he will be entreated by them, and will heal them. In that day shall there be a highway from Egypt to Assyria, and the Assyrian shall come into Egypt, and the Egyptian into Assyria, 24 and the Egyptians shall serve with the Assyrians. In that day shall Israel be the third with Egypt and with Assyria, even a blessing in the midst of the land: Whom the LORD of hosts will bless, saying, Blessed be Egypt my people, and Assyria the work of my hands, and Israel my inheritance. 25

In the year that Tartan came to Ashdod, (when Sargon the king of Assyria sent him,) and fought against Ashdod, and took it; At the same time spoke the LORD by Isaiah the son of Amoz, saying, Go, and loose the sackcloth from off thy loins, and put off thy shoe from thy foot. And he did so, walking naked and barefoot. And the LORD said, As my servant Isaiah hath walked naked and barefoot three years for a sign and wonder upon Egypt and upon Cush; So shall the king of Assyria lead away the Egyptians prisoners, and the Cushites captives, young and old, naked and barefoot, even with their hind-parts uncovered, to the shame of Egypt. And they shall be afraid and ashamed of Cush their expectation, and of Egypt their glory. And the inhabitant of this isle shall say in that day, Behold, such is our expectation, whither we flee for help to be delivered from the king of Assyria: and how shall we escape? 20

The burden of the desert of the sea. As whirlwinds in the south pass through; so it cometh from the desert, from a terrible land. A grievous vision is declared to me; the treacherous dealer dealeth treacherously, and the spoiler plundereth. Go up, O Elam: besiege, O Media; all her sighing have I made to cease. Therefore are my loins filled with pain: pangs have taken hold upon me, as the pangs of a woman that travaileth: I was bowed down at the hearing of it; I was dismayed at the seeing of it. My heart panted, fearfulness affrighted me: the night of my pleasure hath he turned into fear to me. Prepare the table, watch in the watch-tower, eat, drink: arise, ye princes, and anoint the shield. For thus hath the LORD said to me, Go, set a watchman, let him declare what he seeth. And he saw a chariot with a couple of horsemen, a chariot of asses, and a chariot of camels; and he hearkened diligently with much heed: And he cried, a lion: My lord, I stand continually upon the watch-tower in the day time, and I am set in my ward whole nights. And behold, here cometh a chariot of men, with a couple of horsemen. And he answered and said, Babylon is fallen, is fallen; and all the graven images of 21

10 her gods he hath broken to the ground. O my threshing, and the corn of my floor; that which I have heard from the LORD 11 of hosts, the God of Israel, have I declared to you. The burden of Dumah. He calleth to me out of Seir, Watchman, what 12 of the night? Watchman, what of the night? The watchman said, The morning cometh, and also the night: if ye will in-13 quire, inquire ye: return, come. The burden upon Arabia. In the forest in Arabia shall ye lodge, O ye traveling companies of 14 Dedanim. The inhabitants of the land of Tema brought water to him that was thirsty, they met with their bread him that 15 fled. For they fled from the swords, from the drawn sword, 16 and from the bent bow, and from the grievousness of war. For thus hath the LORD said to me, Within a year, according to the 17 years of a hireling, and all the glory of Kedar shall fail: And the residue of the number of archers, the mighty men of the children of Kedar, shall be diminished: for the LORD God of Israel hath spoken it.

22 The burden of the valley of vision. What aileth thee now, 2 that thou hast wholly gone up to the house-tops? Thou that art full of stirs, a tumultuous city, a joyous city: thy slain men 3 are not slain with the sword, nor dead in battle. All thy rulers have fled together, they are bound by the archers: all that are found in thee are bound together, who have fled from far.
4 Therefore said I, Look away from me; I will weep bitterly, labor not to comfort me, because of the devastation of the daughter 5 of my people. For it is a day of trouble, and of treading down, and of perplexity by the Lord GOD of hosts in the valley of vision, breaking down the walls, and of crying to the moun-6 tains. And Elam bore the quiver with chariots of men and 7 horsemen, and Kir uncovered the shield. And it shall come to pass, that thy choicest valleys shall be full of chariots, and 8 the horsemen shall set themselves in array at the gate. And he uncovered the coverings of Judah, and thou didst look in 9 that day to the armor of the house of the forest. Ye have seen also the breaches of the city of David, that they are many: and 10 ye collected the waters of the lower pool. And ye have numbered the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses have ye bro-11 ken down to fortify the wall. Ye made also a ditch between the two walls for the water of the old pool: but ye have not looked to its maker, neither had respect to him that fashioned it long ago. And in that day did the Lord GOD of hosts call 12 to weeping, and to mourning, and to baldness, and to girding with sackcloth: And behold joy and gladness, slaying oxen, 13 and killing sheep, eating flesh, and drinking wine: let us eat and drink; for to-morrow we shall die. And it was revealed in 14 my ears by the LORD of hosts, Surely this iniquity shall not be purged from you till ye die, saith the Lord GOD of hosts. Thus 15 saith the Lord GOD of hosts, Go, repair to this treasurer, even to Shebna, who is over the house, and say, What hast thou 16 here? and whom hast thou here, that thou hast hewed thee out a sepulcher here, as he that heweth him out a sepulcher on high, and that graveth a habitation for himself in a rock? Be- 17 hold, the LORD will carry thee away with a mighty captivity, and will surely cover thee. With violence he will surely turn 18 and toss thee like a ball into a wide country: there shalt thou die, and there the chariots of thy glory shall be the shame of thy lord's house. And I will drive thee from thy station, and 19 from thy state shall he pull thee down. And it shall come to 20 pass in that day, that I will call my servant Eliakim the son of Hilkiah: And I will clothe him with thy robe, and strengthen 21 him with thy girdle, and I will commit thy government into his hand: and he shall be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to the house of Judah. And the key of the house of David 22 will I lay upon his shoulder; so he shall open, and none shall shut; and he shall shut, and none shall open. And I will fas- 23 ten him as a nail in a sure place; and he shall be for a glorious throne to his father's house. And they shall hang upon him 24 all the glory of his father's house, the offspring and the issue, all vessels of small quantity, from the vessels of cups, even to all the vessels of flagons. In that day, saith the LORD of hosts, 25 shall the nail that is fastened in the sure place be removed, and be cut down, and fall; and the burden that was upon it shall be cut off: for the LORD hath spoken it.

The burden of Tyre. Howl, ye ships of Tarshish; for it is laid 23 waste, so that there is no house, no entering in: from the land of Chittim it is revealed to them. Be still, ye inhabitants of 2 the isle; thou whom the merchants of Zidon, that pass over the sea, have replenished. And by great waters the seed of Sihor, 3 the harvest of the river, is her revenue; and she is a mart of nations. Be thou ashamed, O Zidon: for the sea hath spoken, 4 even the strength of the sea, saying, I travail not, nor bring forth children, neither do I nourish young men, nor bring up virgins. As at the report concerning Egypt, so shall they be sorely pained at the report of Tyre. Pass ye over to Tarshish; howl, ye inhabitants of the isle. Is this your joyous city, whose antiquity is of ancient days? her own feet shall carry her far off to sojourn. Who hath taken this counsel against Tyre, the crowning city, whose merchants are princes, whose traders are the honorable of the earth? The LORD of hosts hath purposed it, to stain the pride of all glory, and to bring into contempt all the honorable of the earth. Pass through thy land as a river, O daughter of Tarshish: there is no more strength. He stretched his hand over the sea, he shook the kingdoms: the LORD hath given a commandment against the merchant city, to destroy its strong holds. And he said, Thou shalt no more rejoice, O thou oppressed virgin, daughter of Zidon: arise, pass over to Chittim; there also shalt thou have no rest. Behold the land of the Chaldeans; this people was not, till the Assyrian founded it for them that dwell in the wilderness: they set up its towers, they raised up its palaces; and he brought it to ruin. Howl, ye ships of Tarshish: for your strength is laid waste. And it shall come to pass in that day, that Tyre shall be forgotten seventy years, according to the days of one king: after the end of seventy years shall Tyre sing as a harlot. Take a harp, go about the city, thou harlot that hast been forgotten; make sweet melody, sing many songs, that thou mayest be remembered. And it shall come to pass after the end of seventy years, that the LORD will visit Tyre, and she shall turn to her hire, and shall commit fornication with all the kingdoms of the world upon the face of the earth. And her merchandise and her hire shall be holiness to the LORD: it shall not be treasured nor laid up; for her merchandise shall be for them that dwell before the LORD, for sufficient food, and for durable clothing.

24 Behold, the LORD maketh the earth empty, and maketh it waste, and turneth it upside down, and scattereth abroad its inhabitants. And it shall be, as with the people, so with the priest; as with the servant, so with his master; as with the maid, so with her mistress; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the lender, so with the borrower; as with the taker of interest, so with the giver of interest to him. The land shall be utterly emptied, and utterly spoiled: for the LORD hath spoken this word. The earth mourneth and fadeth away, 4 the world languisheth and fadeth away, the haughty people of the earth do languish. The earth also is defiled under its inhabitants; because they have transgressed the laws, changed 5 the ordinance, broken the everlasting covenant. Therefore hath the curse devoured the earth, and they that dwell in it are desolate: therefore the inhabitants of the earth are burned, 6 and few men left. The new wine mourneth, the vine languisheth, all the merry-hearted do sigh. The mirth of tabrets 7 ceaseth, the noise of them that rejoice endeth, the joy of the harp ceaseth. They shall not drink wine with a song; strong drink shall be bitter to them that drink it. The city of confusion 10 is broken down: every house is shut up, that no man may enter. There is a crying for wine in the streets; all joy is darkened, the mirth of the land is gone. In the city is left desolation, and the gate is smitten with destruction. When thus it shall be in the midst of the land among the people, there shall be as the shaking of an olive-tree, and as the gleaning grapes when the vintage is done. They shall lift up their voice, they shall sing for the majesty of the LORD, they shall cry aloud from the sea. Wherefore glorify ye the LORD in the fires, even the name of the LORD God of Israel in the isles of the sea. From the uttermost part of the earth have we heard songs, even glory to the righteous. But I said, My leanness, my leanness, woe to me! the treacherous dealers have dealt treacherously; yes, the treacherous dealers have dealt very treacherously. Fear, and the pit, and the snare, are upon thee, O inhabitant of the earth. And it shall come to pass, that he who fleeth from the noise of the fear shall fall into the pit; and he that cometh up out of the midst of the pit shall be taken in the snare: for the windows from on high are open, and the foundations of the earth do shake. The earth is utterly broken down, 19 the earth is entirely dissolved, the earth is exceedingly moved. The earth shall reel to and fro like a drunkard, and shall be removed like a cottage; and the transgression of it shall be heavy upon it; and it shall fall, and not rise again. And it shall come to pass in that day, that the LORD shall punish the host of the high ones that are on high, and the kings of the earth upon the earth. And they shall be gathered, as prisoners are gath- 22

ered in the pit, and shall be shut up in the prison, and after 23 many days shall they be visited. Then the moon shall be confounded, and the sun ashamed, when the LORD of hosts shall reign on mount Zion, and in Jerusalem, and before his ancients gloriously.

25 O LORD, thou art my God; I will exalt thee, I will praise thy name; for thou hast done wonderful things; thy counsels of 2 old are faithfulness and truth. For thou hast made of a city a heap; of a fortified city a ruin: a palace of strangers to be no 3 city; it shall never be built. Therefore shall the strong people 4 glorify thee, the city of the terrible nations shall fear thee. For thou hast been a defense to the poor, a defense to the needy in his distress, a refuge from the storm, a shade from the heat, when the blast of the terrible ones is as a storm against the 5 wall. Thou wilt bring down the noise of strangers, as the heat in a dry place; even the heat with the shade of a cloud: the 6 branch of the terrible ones shall be brought low. And on this mountain will the LORD of hosts make to all people a feast of fat things, a feast of wines on the lees, of fat things full of 7 marrow, of wines on the lees well refined. And he will destroy on this mountain the face of the covering cast over all people, 8 and the vail that is spread over all nations. He will swallow up death in victory; and the Lord GOD will wipe away tears from off all faces; and the rebuke of his people will he remove 9 from all the earth: for the LORD hath spoken it. And it shall be said in that day, Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, and he will save us: this is the LORD, we have waited for 10 him, we will be glad and rejoice in his salvation. For on this mountain shall the hand of the LORD rest, and Moab shall be trodden down under him, even as straw is trodden down for the 11 dunghill. And he will spread forth his hands in the midst of them, as he that swimmeth spreadeth forth his hands to swim: and he will bring down their pride together with the spoils of 12 their hands. And the fortress of the high fort of thy walls will he bring down, lay low, and bring to the ground, even to the dust.

26 In that day shall this song be sung in the land of Judah; We have a strong city; salvation will God appoint for walls and 2 bulwarks. Open ye the gates, that the righteous nation which 3 keepeth the truth may enter in. Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee: because he trusteth in thee. Trust ye in the LORD for ever: for in the LORD JE- 4 HOVAH is everlasting strength: For he bringeth down them 5 that dwell on high; the lofty city, he layeth it low; he layeth it low, even to the ground; he bringeth it even to the dust. The 6 foot shall tread it down, even the feet of the poor, and the steps of the needy. The way of the just is uprightness: thou, most 7 upright, dost weigh the path of the just. Yes, in the way of thy 8 judgments, O LORD, have we waited for thee; the desire of our soul is to thy name, and to the remembrance of thee. With 9 my soul have I desired thee in the night; yes, with my spirit within me will I seek thee early: for when thy judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world will learn righteous- 10 ness. Let favor be shown to the wicked, yet he will not learn righteousness: in the land of uprightness he will deal unjustly, and will not behold the majesty of the LORD. LORD, when thy 11 hand is lifted up, they will not see: but they shall see, and be ashamed for their envy at the people; yes, the fire of thy enemies shall devour them. LORD, thou wilt ordain peace for us: 12 for thou also hast wrought all our works in us. O LORD our 13 God, other lords beside thee have had dominion over us; but by thee only will we make mention of thy name. They are dead, 14 they shall not live; they are deceased, they shall not rise: therefore hast thou visited and destroyed them, and made all their memory to perish. Thou hast increased the nation, O LORD, 15 thou hast increased the nation; thou art glorified: thou hadst removed it far to all the ends of the earth. LORD, in trouble 16 have they visited thee, they poured out a prayer when thy chastening was upon them. As a woman with child, that draweth 17 near the time of her delivery, is in pain, and crieth out in her pangs; so have we been in thy sight, O LORD. We have been 18 with child, we have been in pain, we have as it were brought forth wind; we have not wrought any deliverance on the earth; neither have the inhabitants of the world fallen. Thy dead 19 men shall live, together with my dead body shall they arise.

Awake and sing, ye that dwell in dust: for thy dew is as the dew of herbs, and the earth shall cast out the dead. Come, 20 my people, enter thou into thy chambers, and shut thy doors about thee; hide thyself as it were for a little moment until the indignation shall be overpast. For behold, the LORD cometh 21 out of his place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity: the earth also shall disclose her blood, and shall no more cover her slain.

27 In that day the LORD with his keen and great and strong sword will punish leviathan the piercing serpent, even leviathan that crooked serpent; and he will slay the dragon that is in the sea. In that day sing ye to her, A vineyard of red wine. I the LORD do keep it; I will water it every moment: lest any hurt it, I will keep it night and day. Fury is not in me: who would set the briars and thorns against me in battle? I would go through them, I would burn them together. Or let him take hold of my strength, that he may make peace with me, and he shall make peace with me. He shall cause them that descend from Jacob to take root: Israel shall blossom and bud, and fill the face of the world with fruit. Hath he smitten him, as he smote those that smote him? or is he slain according to the slaughter of them that are slain by him? In measure, when it shooteth forth, thou wilt debate with it: he stayeth his rough wind in the day of the east wind. By this therefore shall the iniquity of Jacob be purged; and this is all the fruit to take away his sin; when he maketh all the stones of the altar as chalk-stones that are beaten asunder, the groves and images shall not stand up. Yet the fortified city shall be desolate, and the habitation forsaken, and left like a wilderness: there shall the calf feed, and there shall he lie down, and consume its branches. When its boughs are withered, they shall be broken off: the women come and set them on fire: for it is a people of no understanding: therefore he that made them will not have mercy on them, and he that formed them will show them no favor. And it shall come to pass in that day, that the LORD shall gather from the channel of the river to the stream of Egypt, and ye shall be gathered one by one, O ye children of Israel. And it shall come to pass in that day, that the great trumpet shall be blown, and they shall come who were ready to perish in the land of Assyria, and the outcasts in the land of Egypt, and shall worship the LORD on the holy mount at Jerusalem.

28 Woe to the crown of pride, to the drunkards of Ephraim, whose glorious beauty is a fading flower; who are on the head of the rich valleys of them that are overcome with wine! Behold, the LORD hath a mighty and strong one, which as a tempest of hail and a destroying storm, as a flood of mighty waters overflowing, shall cast down to the earth with the hand. The crown of pride, the drunkards of Ephraim shall be trodden under feet. And the glorious beauty, which is on the head of the rich valley, shall be a fading flower, and as the early fruit before the summer; which, when he that looketh upon it, seeth while it is yet in his hand he eateth it up. In that day will the LORD of hosts be for a crown of glory, and for a diadem of beauty, to the residue of his people, And for a spirit of judgment to him that sitteth in judgment, and for strength to them that turn the battle to the gate. But they also have erred through wine, and through strong drink are out of the way; the priest and the prophet have erred through strong drink, they are overwhelmed with wine, they are out of the way through strong drink; they err in vision, they stumble in judgment. For all tables are full of vomit and filthiness, so that there is no place clean. Whom shall he teach knowledge? and whom shall he make to understand doctrine? them that are weaned from the milk, and drawn from the breasts. For precept must be upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little: For with stammering lips and another tongue will he speak to this people. To whom he said, This is the rest with which ye may cause the weary to rest; and this is the refreshing: yet they would not hear. But the word of the LORD was to them, precept upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little; that they might go, and fall backward, and be broken, and snared, and taken. Wherefore hear the word of the LORD, ye scornful men, that rule this people which is in Jerusalem. Because ye have said, We have made a covenant with death, and with hell are we in agreement; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, it shall not reach us: for we have made lies our refuge, and under falsehood have we hid ourselves: Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foundation: he that believeth shall not make haste. Judgment also will I lay to the line, and righteousness to the plummet: and the hail shall sweep away the refuge of lies, and the waters shall overflow the hiding-place. And your covenant with death shall be disannulled, and your agreement with hell shall not stand; when the overflowing scourge shall 19 pass through, then ye shall be trodden down by it. From the time that it goeth forth it shall take you: for morning by morning shall it pass over, by day and by night: and it shall be a 20 vexation only to understand the report. For the bed is shorter than that a man can stretch himself on it: and the covering 21 narrower than that he can wrap himself in it. For the LORD will rise as on mount Perazim, he will be wroth as in the valley of Gibeon, that he may do his work, his strange work; and 22 bring to pass his act, his strange act. Now therefore be ye not mockers, lest your bands be made strong: for I have heard from the LORD God of hosts a consumption, even determined upon 23 the whole earth. Give ye ear, and hear my voice; hearken, and 24 hear my speech. Doth the plowman plow all day to sow? doth 25 he open and break the clods of his ground? When he hath made even the face of it, doth he not cast abroad the vetches, and scatter the cummin, and cast in the principal wheat, and 26 the appointed barley, and the rye in their place? For his God 27 doth instruct him to discretion, and doth teach him. For the vetches are not threshed with a threshing instrument, neither is a cart-wheel turned about upon the cummin; but the vetches 28 are beaten out with a staff, and the cummin with a rod. Bread -corn is bruised; because he will not always be threshing it, nor break it with the wheel of his cart, nor bruise it with his horse-29 men. This also cometh forth from the LORD of hosts, who is wonderful in counsel, and excellent in operation.

29 Woe to Ariel, to Ariel, the city where David dwelt! add ye 2 year to year; let them kill sacrifices. Yet I will distress Ariel, and there shall be heaviness and sorrow; and it shall be to 3 me as Ariel. And I will encamp against thee round about, and will lay siege against thee with a mount, and I will raise 4 forts against thee. And thou shalt be brought down, and shalt speak out of the ground, and thy speech shall be low out of the dust, and thy voice shall be, as of one that hath a familiar spirit, out of the ground, and thy speech shall whisper out of 5 the dust. Moreover, the multitude of thy strangers shall be like small dust, and the multitude of the terrible ones shall be as chaff that passeth away: yes, it shall be at an instant 6 suddenly. Thou shalt be visited by the LORD of hosts with thunder, and with earthquake, and great noise, with storm and tempest, and the flame of devouring fire. And the multitude 7 of all the nations that fight against Ariel, even all that fight against her and her munition, and that distress her, shall be as a dream of a night-vision. It shall even be as when a hungry 8 man dreameth, and behold, he eateth; but he awaketh, and his soul is empty: or as when a thirsty man dreameth, and behold, he drinketh; but he awaketh, and behold, he is faint, and his soul hath appetite: so shall the multitude of all the nations be, that fight against mount Zion. Stay yourselves, 9 and wonder; cry ye out, and cry: they are drunken, but not with wine; they stagger, but not with strong drink. For the 10 LORD hath poured out upon you the spirit of deep sleep, and hath closed your eyes: the prophets and your rulers, the seers hath he covered. And the vision of all is become to you as the 11 words of a book that is sealed, which men deliver to one that is learned, saying, Read this, I pray thee: and he saith, I cannot;

for it is sealed: And the book is delivered to him that is not 12 learned, saying, Read this, I pray thee: and he saith, I am not learned. Wherefore the LORD said, Forasmuch as this people 13 draw near me with their mouth, and with their lips do honor me, but have removed their heart far from me, and their fear towards me is taught by the precept of men: Therefore behold, 14 I will proceed to do a marvelous work among this people, even an astonishing work and a wonder: for the wisdom of their wise men shall perish, and the understanding of their prudent men shall be hid. Woe to them that seek deep to hide their counsel 15 from the LORD, and their works are in the dark, and they say, Who seeth us? and who knoweth us? Surely your turning of 16 things upside down shall be esteemed as the potter's clay: for shall the work say of him that made it, He made me not? or shall the thing framed say of him that framed it, He had no understanding? Is it not yet a very little while, and Lebanon 17 shall be turned into a fruitful field, and the fruitful field shall be esteemed as a forest? And in that day shall the deaf hear 18 the words of the book, and the eyes of the blind shall see out of obscurity, and out of darkness. The meek also shall increase 19 their joy in the LORD, and the poor among men shall rejoice in the Holy One of Israel. For the terrible one is brought to 20 naught, and the scoffer is consumed, and all that watch for iniquity are cut off: That make a man an offender for a word, 21 and lay a snare for him that reproveth in the gate, and turn 22 aside the just for a thing of naught. Therefore thus saith the LORD, who redeemed Abraham, concerning the house of Jacob, Jacob shall not now be ashamed, neither shall his face now 23 become pale. But when he seeth his children, the work of my hands, in the midst of him, they shall sanctify my name, and sanctify the Holy One of Jacob, and shall fear the God of Israel.

24 They also that erred in spirit shall come to understanding, and they that murmured shall learn doctrine.

30 Woe to the rebellious children, saith the LORD, that take counsel, but not from me; and that cover with a covering, but 2 not of my spirit, that they may add sin to sin: That walk to go down into Egypt, and have not asked at my mouth; to strengthen themselves in the strength of Pharaoh, and to trust 3 in the shade of Egypt! Therefore shall the strength of Pharaoh be your shame, and the trust in the shade of Egypt your con-4 fusion. For his princes were at Zoan, and his ambassadors 5 came to Hanes. They were all ashamed of a people that could not profit them, nor be a help nor profit, but a shame, and also 6 a reproach. The burden of the beasts of the south: into the land of trouble and anguish, from whence come the young and the old lion, the viper and flying serpent, they will carry their riches upon the shoulders of young asses, and their treasures upon the bunches of camels, to a people that shall not profit 7 them. For the Egyptian shall help in vain, and to no purpose: therefore have I cried concerning this, Their strength is 8 to sit still. Now go, write it before them in a table, and note it in a book, that it may be for the time to come for ever and 9 ever: That this is a rebellious people, lying children, children 10 that will not hear the law of the LORD: Who say to the seers, See not; and to the prophets, Prophecy not to us right things, 11 speak to us smooth things, prophecy deceits: Withdraw from the way, turn aside from the path, cause the Holy One of Israel 12 to cease from before us. Wherefore thus saith the Holy One of Israel, Because ye despise this word, and trust in oppression 13 and perverseness, and lean upon it: Therefore this iniquity shall be to you as a breach ready to fall, swelling out in a high 14 wall, whose breaking cometh suddenly at an instant. And he shall break it as the breaking of the potter's vessel that is broken in pieces; he shall not spare: so that there shall not be found in the bursting of it a piece to take fire from the hearth, or to take water out of the pit. For thus saith the Lord God, 15 the Holy One of Israel; In returning and rest shall ye be saved; in quietness and in confidence shall be your strength: and ye would not. But ye said, No; for we will flee upon horses; there- 16 fore shall ye flee: and, We will ride upon the swift; therefore shall they that pursue you be swift. One thousand shall flee 17 at the rebuke of one; at the rebuke of five shall ye flee: till ye be left as a beacon upon the top of a mountain, and as an ensign on a hill. And therefore will the LORD wait, that he may 18 be gracious to you, and therefore will he be exalted, that he may have mercy upon you: for the LORD is a God of judgment: blessed are all they that wait for him. For the people shall 19 dwell in Zion at Jerusalem: thou shalt weep no more: he will be very gracious to thee at the voice of thy cry; when he shall hear it, he will answer thee. And though the LORD shall give 20 you the bread of adversity, and the water of affliction, yet shall not thy teachers be removed into a corner any more, but thy eyes shall see thy teachers: And thy ears shall hear a word 21 behind thee, saying, This is the way, walk ye in it, when ye turn to the right hand, and when ye turn to the left. Ye shall 22 defile also the covering of thy graven images of silver, and the ornament of thy molten images of gold: thou shalt cast them away as a polluted cloth; thou shalt say to it, Be gone from me.

Then shall he give the rain of thy seed, with which thou shalt 23 sow the ground; and bread of the increase of the earth, and it shall be fat and plenteous: in that day shall thy cattle feed in large pastures. The oxen likewise and the young asses that 24 plow the ground shall eat clean provender, which hath been winnowed with the shovel and with the fan. And there shall 25 be upon every high mountain, and upon every high hill, rivers and streams of waters in the day of the great slaughter, when the towers fall. Moreover the light of the moon shall be as the 26 light of the sun, and the light of the sun shall be seven-fold, as the light of seven days, in the day that the LORD bindeth up the breach of his people, and healeth the stroke of their wound.
Behold, the name of the LORD cometh from far, burning with 27 his anger, and the burden of it is heavy: his lips are full of indignation, and his tongue as a devouring fire: And his breath, 28 as an overflowing stream, shall reach to the midst of the neck, to sift the nations with the sieve of vanity: and there shall be a 29 bridle in the jaws of the people, causing them to err. Ye shall have a song, as in the night, when a holy solemnity is kept; and gladness of heart, as when one goeth with a pipe to come upon the mountain of the LORD, to the mighty One of Israel.

30 And the LORD shall cause his glorious voice to be heard, and shall show the lighting down of his arm, with the indignation of his anger, and with the flame of a devouring fire, with scat-31 tering, and tempest, and hailstones. For through the voice of the LORD shall the Assyrian be beaten down, who smote with 32 a rod. And in every place where the grounded staff shall pass, which the LORD shall lay upon him, it shall be with tabrets 33 and harps: and in battles of shaking will he fight with it. For Tophet is ordained of old; yes, for the king it is prepared; he hath made it deep and large: the pile of it is fire and much wood; the breath of the LORD, like a stream of brimstone, doth kindle it.

31 Woe to them that go down to Egypt for help; and rely on horses, and trust in chariots, because they are many; and in horsemen, because they are very strong; but they look not to 2 the Holy One of Israel, neither seek the LORD! Yet he also is wise, and will bring evil, and will not call back his words: but will arise against the house of the evil-doers, and against the 3 help of them that work iniquity. Now the Egyptians are men, and not God; and their horses flesh, and not spirit. When the LORD shall stretch out his hand, both he that helpeth shall fall, and he that is helped shall fall down, and they all shall 4 fail together. For thus hath the LORD spoken to me, As the lion and the young lion roaring on his prey, when a multitude of shepherds is called forth against him, he will not be afraid of their voice, nor abase himself for the noise of them: so will the LORD of hosts come down to fight for mount Zion, and for the 5 hill thereof. As birds flying, so will the LORD of hosts defend Jerusalem; defending also he will deliver it; and passing over 6 he will preserve it. Turn ye to him from whom the children 7 of Israel have deeply revolted. For in that day every man shall cast away his idols of silver, and his idols of gold, which 8 your own hands have made to you for a sin. Then shall the Assyrian fall with the sword, not of a mighty man; and the sword, not of a mean man, shall devour him: but he shall flee from the sword, and his young men shall be discomfited. And 9 he shall pass over to his strong hold for fear, and his princes shall be afraid of the ensign, saith the LORD, whose fire is in Zion, and his furnace in Jerusalem.

Behold, a king shall reign in righteousness, and princes 32 shall rule in judgment. And a man shall be as a hiding-place 2 from the wind, and a covert from the tempest; as streams of water in a dry place, as the shade of a great rock in a weary land. And the eyes of them that see shall not be dim, and 3 the ears of them that hear shall hearken. The heart also of 4 the rash shall understand knowledge, and the tongue of the stammerers shall be ready to speak plainly. The vile person 5 shall be no more called liberal, nor the churl said to be bountiful. For the vile person will speak villainy, and his heart will 6 work iniquity, to practice hypocrisy, and to utter error against the LORD, to make empty the soul of the hungry; and he will cause the drink of the thirsty to fail. The instruments also 7 of the churl are evil: he deviseth wicked devices to destroy the poor with lying words, even when the needy speaketh right.
 But the liberal deviseth liberal things; and by liberal things 8 shall he stand. Rise up, ye women that are at ease; hear my 9 voice, ye careless daughters; give ear to my speech. Many 10 days and years shall ye be troubled, ye careless women: for the vintage shall fail, the gathering shall not come. Tremble, 11 ye women that are at ease; be troubled, ye careless ones: strip ye, and make you bare, and gird sackcloth upon your loins.
 They shall lament for the breasts, for the pleasant fields, for 12 the fruitful vine. Upon the land of my people shall come up 13 thorns and briers; also, upon all the houses of joy in the joyous city: Because the palaces shall be forsaken; the multitude of 14 the city shall be left; the forts and towers shall be for dens for ever, a joy of wild asses, a pasture of flocks; Until the spirit 15 shall be poured upon us from on high, and the wilderness shall be a fruitful field, and the fruitful field shall be counted for a forest. Then judgment shall dwell in the wilderness, and 16 righteousness remain in the fruitful field. And the work of 17 righteousness shall be peace; and the effect of righteousness, quietness and assurance for ever. And my people shall dwell 18 in a peaceable habitation, and in sure dwellings, and in quiet resting-places; When it shall hail, coming down on the forest; 19 20 and the city shall be low in a low place. Blessed are ye that sow beside all waters, that send forth thither the feet of the ox and the ass.

33 Woe to thee that layest waste, and thou wast not laid waste; and dealest treacherously, and they dealt not treacherously with thee! when thou shalt cease to lay waste, thou shalt be wasted; and when thou shalt make an end to deal treacherously, they shall deal treacherously with thee. O LORD, be gracious to us; we have waited for thee: be thou their arm every morning, our salvation also in the time of trouble. At the noise of the tumult the people fled; at the lifting up of thyself the nations were scattered. And your spoil shall be gathered like the gathering of the caterpillar: as the running to and fro of locusts shall he run upon them. The LORD is exalted; for he dwelleth on high: he hath filled Zion with judgment and righteousness. And wisdom and knowledge shall be the stability of thy times, and strength of salvation: the fear of the LORD is his treasure. Behold, their valiant ones shall cry without: the ambassadors of peace shall weep bitterly. The highways lie waste, the way-faring man ceaseth: he hath broken the covenant, he hath despised the cities, he regardeth no man. The earth mourneth and languisheth: Lebanon is ashamed and hewn down: Sharon is like a wilderness; and Bashan and Carmel shake off their fruits. Now will I rise, saith the LORD; now will I be exalted; now will I lift up myself. Ye shall conceive chaff, ye shall bring forth stubble: your breath, as fire, shall devour you. And the people shall be as the burnings of lime: as thorns cut up shall they be burned in the fire. Ye that are far off, hear what I have done; and ye that are near, acknowledge my might. The sinners in Zion are afraid; fearfulness hath surprised the hypocrites. Who among us shall dwell with the devouring fire? who among us shall dwell with everlasting burnings? He that walketh righteously, and speaketh uprightly; he that despiseth the gain of oppressions, that shaketh his hands from holding of bribes, that stoppeth his ears from hearing of blood, and shutteth his eyes from seeing evil; He shall dwell on high: his place of defense shall be the munitions of rocks: bread shall be given him; his waters shall be sure. Thy eyes shall see the king in his beauty: they shall behold the land that is very far off. Thy heart shall meditate terror. Where is the scribe? where is the receiver? where is he that counted the towers? Thou shalt not see a fierce people, a people of deeper speech than thou canst perceive; of a stammering tongue, that thou canst not understand. Look upon Zion, the city of our solemnities: thy eyes shall see Jerusalem a quiet habitation, a tabernacle that shall not be taken down; not one of its stakes shall ever be removed, neither shall any of its cords be broken. But there the glorious LORD will be to us a place of broad rivers and streams; in which shall go no galley with oars, neither shall gallant ship pass through it. For the LORD is our judge, the LORD is our lawgiver, the LORD is our king; he will save us. Thy tacklings are loosed; they could not well strengthen their mast, they could not spread the sail: then is the prey of a great spoil divided; the lame take the prey. And the inhabitants shall not say, I am sick: the people that dwell therein shall be forgiven their iniquity.

Come near, ye nations, to hear; and hearken, ye people: let the earth hear, and all that is in it; the world, and all things that spring from it. For the indignation of the LORD is upon all nations, and his fury upon all their armies: he hath utterly destroyed them, he hath delivered them to the slaughter. Their slain also shall be cast out, and their ill smell shall come up from their carcasses, and the mountains shall be melted with their blood. And all the host of heaven shall be dissolved, and the heavens shall be rolled together as a scroll: and all their hosts shall fall down, as the leaf falleth from the vine, and as a falling fig from the fig-tree. For my sword shall be bathed in heaven: behold, it shall come down upon Edom, and upon the people of my curse, to judgment. The sword of the LORD is filled with blood, it is made fat with fatness, and with the blood of lambs and goats, with the fat of the kidneys of rams: for the LORD hath a sacrifice in Bozrah, and a great slaughter in the land of Edom. And the unicorns shall come down with them, and the bullocks with the bulls; and their land shall be drenched with blood, and their dust made fat with fatness. For it is the day of the LORD'S vengeance, and the year of recompenses for the controversy of Zion. And its streams shall be turned into pitch, and its dust into brimstone, and its land shall become burning pitch. It shall not be quenched night nor day; the smoke of it shall ascend for ever: from generation to generation it shall lie waste; none shall pass through 11 it for ever and ever. But the cormorant and the bittern shall possess it; the owl also and the raven shall dwell in it: and he shall stretch out upon it the line of confusion, and the stones 12 of emptiness. They shall call her nobles to the kingdom, but none shall be there, and all her princes shall be nothing. And thorns shall come up in her palaces, nettles and brambles in her fortresses, and it shall be a habitation of dragons, and a 14 court for owls. The wild beasts of the desert shall also meet with the wild beasts of the isle, and the satyr shall cry to his fellow; the screech-owl also shall rest there, and find for herself 15 a place of rest. There shall the great owl make her nest, and lay, and hatch, and gather under her shadow: there shall the 16 vultures also be gathered, every one with her mate. Seek ye out of the book of the LORD, and read: no one of these shall fail, none shall want her mate: for my mouth it hath commanded, 17 and his spirit it hath gathered them. And he hath cast the lot for them, and his hand hath divided it to them by line: they shall possess it for ever, from generation to generation shall they dwell therein.

35 The wilderness and the solitary place shall be glad for them; 2 and the desert shall rejoice and blossom as the rose. It shall blossom abundantly, and rejoice, even with joy and singing: the glory of Lebanon shall be given to it, the excellence of Carmel and Sharon, they shall see the glory of the LORD, and the 3 excellence of our God. Strengthen ye the weak hands, and 4 confirm the feeble knees. Say to them that are of a fearful heart, Be strong, fear not: behold, your God will come with vengeance, even God with a recompense; he will come and save 5 you. Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears 6 of the deaf shall be unstopped. Then shall the lame man leap as a hart, and the tongue of the dumb shall sing: for in the wilderness shall waters break out, and streams in the desert.
7 And the parched ground shall become a pool, and the thirsty land springs of water: in the habitation of dragons, where each 8 lay, shall be grass with reeds and rushes. And a highway shall be there, and a way, and it shall be called, The way of holiness; the unclean shall not pass over it; but it shall be for those: the 9 way-faring men, though fools, shall not err therein. No lion shall be there, nor any ravenous beast shall go up thereon, it shall not be found there; but the redeemed shall walk there: And the ransomed of the LORD shall return, and come to Zion 10 with songs and everlasting joy upon their heads: they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

Now it came to pass in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah, 36 that Sennacherib king of Assyria came up against all the fortified cities of Judah, and took them. And the king of Assyria sent Rabshakeh from Lachish to Jerusalem against king Hezekiah with a great army. And he stood by the conduit of the upper pool in the highway of the fuller's field. Then came forth 2 to him Eliakim, Hilkiyah's son, who was over the house, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, Asaph's son, the recorder. And 4 Rabshakeh said to them, Say ye now to Hezekiah, Thus saith the great king, the king of Assyria, What confidence is this in which thou trustest? I say, sayest thou (but they are but vain 5 words) I have counsel and strength for war: now on whom dost thou trust, that thou rebellest against me? Lo, thou trustest 6 in the staff of this broken reed, on Egypt; on which if a man lean, it will enter his hand, and pierce it: so is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all that trust in him. But if thou shalt say to 7 me, We trust in the LORD our God: is it not he, whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah hath taken away, and said to Judah and to Jerusalem, Ye shall worship before this altar? Now therefore give pledges, I pray thee, to my master 8 the king of Assyria, and I will give thee two thousand horses, if thou canst on thy part set riders upon them. How then wilt 9 thou turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put thy trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen? And am I now come up without the LORD against 10 this land to destroy it? the LORD said to me, Go up against this land, and destroy it. Then said Eliakim and Shebna and Joah 11 to Rabshakeh, Speak, I pray thee, to thy servants in the Syrian language; for we understand it: and speak not to us in the Jew's language, in the ears of the people that are on the wall. But Rabshakeh said, Hath my master sent me to thy master 12 and to thee to speak these words? hath he not sent me to the men that sit upon the wall, that they may devour their vilest excretions with you? Then Rabshakeh stood, and cried with a 13 loud voice in the Jew's language, and said, Hear ye the words 14 of the great king, the king of Assyria. Thus saith the king, Let not Hezekiah deceive you: for he will not be able to deliver you.

15 Neither let Hezekiah make you trust in the LORD, saying, the LORD will surely deliver us: this city shall not be delivered into 16 the hand of the king of Assyria. Hearken not to Hezekiah: for thus saith the king of Assyria, Make an agreement with me by a present, and come out to me: and eat ye every one of his vine, and every one of his fig-tree, and drink ye every one the 17 waters of his own cistern; Until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of corn and wine, a land 18 of bread and vineyards. Beware lest Hezekiah persuade you, saying, The LORD will deliver us. Hath any of the gods of the nations delivered his land out of the hand of the king of As-19 syria? Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? where are the gods of Sepharvaim? and have they delivered Samaria out 20 of my hand? Who are they among all the gods of these lands, that have delivered their land out of my hand, that the LORD 21 should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand? But they held their peace, and answered him not a word: for the king's command-22 ment was, saying, Answer him not. Then came Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, that was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, the son of Asaph, the recorder, to Hezekiah with their clothes rent, and told him the words of Rabshakeh.

37 And it came to pass, when king Hezekiah heard it, that he rent his clothes, and covered himself with sackcloth, and went 2 into the house of the LORD. And he sent Eliakim, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah the prophet the 3 son of Amoz. And they said to him, Thus saith Hezekiah, This day is a day of trouble, and of rebuke, and of blasphemy: for the children are come to the birth, and there is not strength to 4 bring forth. It may be the LORD thy God will hear the words of Rabshakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master hath sent to reproach the living God, and will reprove the words which the LORD thy God hath heard: wherefore lift up thy prayer for 5 the remnant that is left. So the servants of king Hezekiah 6 came to Isaiah. And Isaiah said to them, Thus shall ye say to your master, Thus saith the LORD, Be not afraid of the words that thou hast heard, with which the servants of the king of As-7 syria have blasphemed me. Behold, I will send a blast upon him, and he shall hear a rumor, and return to his own land; and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land. So 8 Rabshakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah: for he had heard that he had departed from Lachish. And he heard it said concerning Tirhakah king of 9 Cush, He is come forth to make war with thee. And when he heard it, he sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying, Thus shall ye speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, Let not thy God in whom thou trustest, deceive thee, saying, Jerusalem shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria. Be- 11 hold, thou hast heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands by destroying them utterly; and shalt thou be delivered? Have the gods of the nations delivered them which 12 my fathers have destroyed, as Gozan, and Haran, and Rezep, and the children of Eden who were in Telassar? Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivah? And Hezekiah received 14 the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it: and Hezekiah went up to the house of the LORD, and spread it before the LORD. And Hezekiah prayed to the LORD, saying, O 15, 16 LORD of hosts, God of Israel, that dwellest between the cherubim, thou art the God, even thou alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth: thou hast made heaven and earth. Incline thy 17 ear, O LORD, and hear; open thy eyes, O LORD, and see: and hear all the words of Sennacherib, who hath sent to reproach the living God. Of a truth, LORD, the kings of Assyria have 18 laid waste all the nations, and their countries, And have cast their gods into the fire: for they were no gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone: therefore they have destroyed them. Now therefore, O LORD our God, save us from his hand, 20 that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that thou art the LORD, even thou only. Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to 21 Hezekiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Whereas thou hast prayed to me against Sennacherib king of Assyria: This is the word which the LORD hath spoken concerning him; 22

The virgin, the daughter of Zion, hath despised thee, and derided thee; the daughter of Jerusalem hath shaken her head at thee. Whom hast thou reproached and blasphemed; and 23 against whom hast thou exalted thy voice, and lifted thy eyes on high? even against the Holy One of Israel. By thy ser- 24

vants hast thou reproached the LORD, and hast said, By the multitude of my chariots have I come up to the hight of the mountains, to the sides of Lebanon; and I will cut down its tall cedars, and its choice fir-trees: and I will enter into the 25 hight of its border, and the forest of its Carmel. I have digged, and drank water; and with the sole of my feet have I dried 26 up all the rivers of the besieged places. Hast thou not heard long ago, how I have done it; and of ancient times, that I have formed it? now have I brought it to pass, that thou shouldst be 27 to lay waste fortified cities into ruinous heaps. Therefore their inhabitants were of small power, they were dismayed and confounded: they were as the grass of the field, and as the green herb, as the grass on the house-tops, and as corn blasted before 28 it is grown up. But I know thy abode, and thy going out, and thy coming in, and thy rage against me. Because thy rage against me, and thy tumult, is come up into my ears, therefore I will put my hook in thy nose, and my bridle in thy lips, and I will turn thee back by the way by which thou camest.
30 And this shall be a sign to thee, Ye shall eat this year such as groweth of itself; and the second year that which springeth of the same: and in the third year sow ye, and reap, and plant 31 vineyards, and eat the fruit of them. And the remnant that hath escaped of the house of Judah shall again take root downward, and bear fruit upward: For out of Jerusalem shall go forth a remnant, and they that escape from mount Zion: the 32 zeal of the LORD of hosts will do this. Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning the king of Assyria, He shall not come into this city, nor shoot an arrow there, nor come before it with 33 shields, nor cast a mound against it. By the way that he came, by the same shall he return, and shall not come into this city, saith the LORD. For I will defend this city, to save it for my 34 own sake, and for my servant David's sake. Then the angel of the LORD went forth, and smote in the camp of the Assyrians a hundred and eighty five thousand: and when they arose 35 early in the morning, behold, they were all dead corpses. So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed, and went and returned, and dwelt at Nineveh. And it came to pass, as he was worshipping in the house of Nisroch his god, that Adrammelech and Sharezer his sons smote him with the sword; and they escaped into the land of Armenia: and Esar-haddon his son reigned in his stead.

In those days was Hezekiah sick with a mortal disease. And 38 Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz came to him, and said to him, Thus saith the LORD, Set thy house in order: for thou shalt die, and not live. Then Hezekiah turned his face towards 2 the wall, and prayed to the LORD, And said, Remember now, 3 O LORD, I beseech thee, how I have walked before thee in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in thy sight. And Hezekiah wept bitterly. Then came the 4 word of the LORD to Isaiah, saying, Go and say to Hezekiah, 5 Thus saith the LORD, the God of David thy father, I have heard thy prayer, I have seen thy tears: behold, I will add to thy days fifteen years. And I will deliver thee and this city from 6 the hand of the king of Assyria: and I will defend this city.
And this shall be a sign to thee from the LORD, that the LORD 7 will do this thing that he hath spoken; Behold, I will bring 8 again the shadow of the degrees, which hath gone down on the sun-dial of Ahaz ten degrees backward. So the sun returned ten degrees, by which degrees it had gone down. The writing 9 of Hezekiah king of Judah, when he had been sick, and had recovered from his sickness: I said in the cutting off of my 10 days, I shall go to the gates of the grave: I am deprived of the residue of my years. I said, I shall not see the LORD, even the 11 LORD, in the land of the living: I shall behold man no more with the inhabitants of the world. My age hath departed, and 12 is removed from me as a shepherd's tent: I have cut off like a weaver my life: he will cut me off with pining sickness: from day even to night wilt thou make an end of me. I reckoned till 13 morning, that, as a lion, so will he break all my bones: from day even to night wilt thou make an end of me. Like a crane or a 14 swallow, so I chattered: I mourned as a dove: my eyes fail with looking upward: O LORD, I am oppressed; undertake for me.
What shall I say? he hath both spoken to me, and himself hath 15 done it: I shall go softly all my years in the bitterness of my soul. O LORD, by these things men live, and in all these things 16 is the life of my spirit: so wilt thou recover me, and make me to live. Behold, for peace I had great bitterness: but thou hast in 17 love to my soul delivered it from the pit of corruption: for thou hast cast all my sins behind thy back. For the grave cannot 18 praise thee, death can not celebrate thee: they that go down 19 into the pit cannot hope for thy truth. The living, the living, he shall praise thee, as I do this day: the father to the children 20 shall make known thy truth. The LORD was ready to save me: therefore we will sing my songs to the stringed instruments all 21 the days of our life in the house of the LORD. For Isaiah had said, Let them take a lump of figs, and lay it for a plaster upon 22 the boil, and he will recover. Hezekiah also had said, What is the sign that I shall go up to the house of the LORD?

39 At that time Merodach-baladan, the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah: for he 2 had heard that he had been sick, and had recovered. And Hezekiah was glad of them, and showed them the house of his precious things, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious ointment, and all the house of his armor, and all that was found in his treasures: there was nothing in his house, nor 3 in all his dominion, that Hezekiah did not show them. Then came Isaiah the prophet to king Hezekiah, and said to him, What said these men? and from whence came they to thee?
and Hezekiah said, They have come to me from a far country, 4 even from Babylon. Then said he, What have they seen in thy house? And Hezekiah answered, All that is in my house have they seen: there is nothing among my treasures that I have not 5 showed them. Then said Isaiah to Hezekiah, Hear the word 6 of the LORD of hosts: Behold, the days come, that all that is in thy house, and that which thy fathers have laid up in store until this day, shall be carried to Babylon: nothing shall be left, 7 saith the LORD. And of thy sons that shall issue from thee, which thou shalt beget, shall they take away; and they shall 8 be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon. Then said Hezekiah to Isaiah, Good is the word of the LORD which thou hast spoken. He said moreover, For there shall be peace and truth in my days.

40, 2 Comfort ye, comfort ye my people, saith your God. Speak ye comfortably to Jerusalem, and cry to her, that her warfare is accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned: for she hath re-3 ceived from the LORD'S hand double for all her sins. The voice of him that crieth in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the 4 LORD, make straight in the desert a highway for our God. Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low: and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough places plain. And the glory of the LORD shall be revealed, and all flesh together shall see it: for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it. The voice said, Cry. And he said, What shall I cry? All flesh is grass, and all its goodness is as the flower of the field: The grass withereth, the flower fadeth: because the spirit of the LORD bloweth upon it: surely the people is grass. The grass withereth, the flower fadeth: but the word of our God shall stand forever. O Zion, that bringest good tidings, go up upon the high mountain: O Jerusalem, that bringest good tidings, lift up thy voice with strength; lift it up, be not afraid; say to the cities of Judah, Behold your God! Behold, the LORD GOD will come with strong hand, and his arm will rule for him: behold, his reward is with him, and his work before him. He will feed his flock like a shepherd: he will gather the lambs with his arm, and carry them in his bosom, and will gently lead those that are with young. Who hath measured the waters in the hollow of his hand, and measured heaven with the span, and comprehended the dust of the earth in a measure, and weighed the mountains in scales, and the hills in a balance? Who hath directed the Spirit of the LORD, or being his counselor hath taught him? With whom took he counsel, and who instructed him, and taught him in the path of judgment, and taught him knowledge, and showed to him the way of understanding? Behold, the nations are as a drop of a bucket, and are counted as the small dust of the balance: behold, he taketh up the isles as a very little thing. And Lebanon is not sufficient to burn, nor the beasts of it sufficient for a burnt-offering. All nations before him are as nothing; and they are counted to him less than nothing, and vanity. To whom then will ye liken God? or what likeness will ye compare to him? The workman melteth a graven image, and the goldsmith spreadeth it over with gold, and casteth silver chains. He that is so impoverished that he hath no oblation chooseth a tree that will not rot; he seeketh for himself a skillful workman to prepare a graven image that shall not be moved. Have ye not known? have ye not heard? hath it not been told you from the beginning? have ye not understood from the foundations of the earth? It is he that sitteth upon the circle of the earth, and its inhabitants are as grasshoppers; that stretcheth out the heavens as a curtain, and spreadeth them out as a tent to

- 23 dwell in: That bringeth the princes to nothing; he maketh the 24 judges of the earth as vanity. Yes, they shall not be planted; yes, they shall not be sown: yes, their stock shall not take root in the earth: and he shall also blow upon them, and they shall wither, and the whirlwind shall take them away as stubble.
- 25 To whom then will ye liken me, or shall I be equaled? saith 26 the Holy One. Lift up your eyes on high, and behold who hath created these things, that bringeth out their host by number: he calleth them all by names, by the greatness of his might, 27 for that he is strong in power; not one faileth. Why sayest thou, O Jacob, and speakest, O Israel, My way is hid from the 28 LORD, and my judgment is passed over by my God? Hast thou not known? hast thou not heard, that the everlasting God, the LORD, the Creator of the ends of the earth, fainteth not, nei-29 ther is weary? there is no searching of his understanding. He giveth power to the faint; and to them that have no might he in-30 creaseth strength. Even the youths shall faint and be weary, 31 and the young men shall utterly fall: But they that wait upon the LORD shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; they shall walk, and not faint.
- 41 Keep silence before me, O isles; and let the people renew their strength: let them come near; then let them speak: let us 2 come near together to judgment. Who raised up the righteous man from the east, called him to his foot, gave the nations before him, and made him rule over kings? he gave them as the 3 dust to his sword, and as driven stubble to his bow. He pursued them, and passed safely; even by the way that he had 4 not gone with his feet. Who hath wrought and done it, calling the generations from the beginning? I the LORD, the first, and 5 with the last; I am he. The isles saw it, and feared; the ends 6 of the earth were afraid, drew near, and came. They helped every one his neighbor; and every one said to his brother, Be 7 of good courage. So the carpenter encouraged the goldsmith, and he that smootheth with the hammer him that smote the anvil, saying, It is ready for the sodering: and he fastened it 8 with nails, that it should not be moved. But thou, Israel, art my servant, Jacob whom I have chosen, the seed of Abraham 9 my friend. Thou whom I have taken from the ends of the earth, and called thee from the chief men thereof, and said to thee, Thou art my servant; I have chosen thee, and not cast thee away. Fear thou not; for I am with thee: be not dismayed; 10 for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee; yes, I will help thee; yes, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness. Behold, all they that were incensed against thee shall be 11 ashamed and confounded: they shall be as nothing; and they that contend with thee shall perish. Thou shalt seek them, 12 and shalt not find them, even them that contended with thee: they that war against thee shall be as nothing, and as a thing of naught. For I the LORD thy God will hold thy right hand, 13 saying to thee, Fear not; I will help thee. Fear not, thou worm Jacob, and ye men of Israel; I will help thee, saith the LORD, and thy Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel. Behold, I will make 15 thee a new sharp threshing instrument having teeth: thou shalt thresh the mountains, and beat them small, and shalt make the hills as chaff. Thou shalt fan them, and the wind 16 shall carry them away, and the whirlwind shall scatter them: and thou shalt rejoice in the LORD, and shalt glory in the Holy One of Israel. When the poor and needy seek water, and there 17 is none, and their tongue faileth for thirst, I the LORD will hear them, I the God of Israel will not forsake them. I will 18 open rivers in high places, and fountains in the midst of the valleys: I will make the wilderness a pool of water, and the dry land springs of water. I will plant in the wilderness the cedar, 19 the shittah-tree, and the myrtle, and the oil-tree; I will set in the desert the fir-tree, the pine, and the box-tree together: That they may see, and know, and consider, and understand to- 20 gether, that the hand of the LORD hath done this, and the Holy One of Israel hath created it. Produce your cause, saith the LORD; bring forth your strong reasons, saith the King of Jacob. Let them bring them forth, and show us what shall happen: let 22 them show the former things, what they are that we may consider them, and know the latter end of them; or declare to us things to come. Show the things that are to come hereafter, 23 that we may know that ye are gods: yes, do good, or do evil, that we may be dismayed, and behold it together. Behold, ye 24 are of nothing, and your work of naught: an abomination is he that chooseth you. I have raised up one from the north, and he shall come: from the rising of the sun shall he call upon my name: and he shall come upon princes as upon mortar, and as 25

26 the potter treadeth clay. Who hath declared from the beginning, that we may know? and before time, that we may say, He is righteous? verily, there is none that showeth, verily, there is none that declareth, verily, there is none that heareth your 27 words. The first shall say to Zion, Behold, behold them: and 28 I will give to Jerusalem one that bringeth good tidings. For I beheld, and there was no man; even among them, and there was no counselor, that, when I asked of them, could answer a 29 word. Behold, they are all vanity, their works are nothing: their molten images are wind and confusion.

42 Behold my servant, whom I uphold; my elect, in whom my soul delighteth; I have put my spirit upon him: he shall bring 2 forth judgment to the Gentiles. He shall not cry, nor lift up, 3 nor cause his voice to be heard in the street. A bruised reed shall he not break, and the smoking flax shall he not quench: 4 he shall bring forth judgment to truth. He shall not fail nor be discouraged, till he hath set judgment in the earth: and the 5 isles shall wait for his law. Thus saith God the LORD, he that created the heavens, and expanded them; he that spread forth the earth, and that which it produceth; he that giveth breath to the people upon it, and spirit to them that walk therein.
6 I the LORD have called thee in righteousness, and will hold thy hand, and will keep thee, and give thee for a covenant of 7 the people, for a light of the Gentiles; To open the blind eyes, to bring out the prisoners from the prison, and them that sit 8 in darkness out of the prison-house. I am the LORD: that is my name: and my glory will I not give to another, neither 9 my praise to graven images. Behold, the former things have come to pass, and new things do I declare: before they spring 10 forth I tell you of them. Sing to the LORD a new song, and his praise from the end of the earth, ye that go down to the sea, 11 and all that is in it; the isles, and their inhabitants. Let the wilderness and its cities lift up their voice, the villages that Kedar doth inhabit: let the inhabitants of the rock sing, let 12 them shout from the top of the mountains. Let them give glory to the LORD, and declare his praise in the isles. The LORD will go forth as a mighty man, he will stir up jealousy like a man of war: he will cry, yes, roar; he will prevail against 13 his enemies. I have long time held my peace; I have been still, and restrained myself: now will I cry like a travailing woman; I will destroy and devour at once. I will make waste mountains 15 and hills, and dry up all their herbs; and I will make the rivers to be islands, and I will dry up the pools. And I will bring the 16 blind by a way that they knew not; I will lead them in paths that they have not known: I will make darkness light before them, and crooked things straight. These things will I do for them, and not forsake them. They shall be turned back, they 17 shall be greatly ashamed, that trust in graven images, that say to the molten images, Ye are our gods. Hear, ye deaf; 18 and look, ye blind, that ye may see. Who is blind, but my 19 servant? or deaf, as my messenger that I sent? who is blind as he that is perfect, and blind as the LORD'S servant? Seeing 20 many things, but thou observest not; opening the ears, but he heareth not. The LORD is well pleased for his righteousness' 21 sake; he will magnify the law, and make it honorable. But this 22 is a people robbed and pillaged; they are all of them snared in holes, and they are hid in prison-houses; they are for a prey, and none delivereth; for a spoil, and none saith, Restore. Who 23 among you will give ear to this? who will hearken, and hear for the time to come? Who gave Jacob for a spoil, and Israel 24 to the robbers? did not the LORD, he against whom we have sinned? for they would not walk in his ways, neither were they obedient to his law. Therefore he hath poured upon him the 25 fury of his anger, and the strength of battle: and it hath set him on fire around, yet he knew not; and it burned him, yet he laid it not to heart.

But now thus saith the LORD that created thee, O Jacob, 43 and he that formed thee, O Israel, Fear not: for I have redeemed thee, I have called thee by thy name; thou art mine.
When thou passest through the waters, I will be with thee; 2 and through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee: when thou walkest through the fire, thou shalt not be burned; neither shall the flame kindle upon thee. For I am the LORD thy 3 God, the Holy One of Israel, thy Savior: I gave Egypt for thy ransom, Cush and Seba for thee. Since thou hast been pre- 4 cious in my sight, thou hast been honorable, and I have loved thee: therefore will I give men for thee, and people for thy life.
Fear not: for I am with thee: I will bring thy seed from the 5 east, and gather thee from the west; I will say to the north, 6 Give up; and to the south, Keep not back: bring my sons from 7 far, and my daughters from the ends of the earth; Even every one that is called by my name: for I have created him for my 8 glory, I have formed him; verily, I have made him. Bring forth the blind people that have eyes, and the deaf that have ears.

9 Let all the nations be collected, and let the people be assembled: who among them can declare this, and show us former things? let them bring forth their witnesses, that they may be 10 justified: or let them hear, and say, It is truth. Ye are my witnesses, saith the LORD, and my servant whom I have chosen: that ye may know and believe me, and understand that I am he: before me there was no god formed, neither shall there be after me. I, even 11 I, am the LORD; and besides me there is no savior. I have declared, and have saved, and I have shown, when there was 12 no strange god among you: therefore ye are my witnesses, saith the LORD, that I am God. Yes, before the day was, I am 13 he; and there is none that can deliver out of my hand: I will work, and who shall hinder it? Thus saith the LORD, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel; For your sake I have sent to Babylon, and have brought down all their nobles, and the Chaldeans, 14 whose cry is in the ships. I am the LORD, your Holy One, the Creator of Israel, your King. Thus saith the LORD, who 15 maketh a way in the sea, and a path in the mighty waters; Who bringeth forth the chariot and horse, the army and the power; they shall lie down together, they shall not rise: they are 16 extinct, they are quenched as tow. Remember ye not the former things, neither consider the things of old. Behold, I will do a 17 new thing; now it shall spring forth; shall ye not know it?
I will even make a way in the wilderness, and rivers in the 18 desert. The beast of the field shall honor me, the dragons and the owls: because I give waters in the wilderness, and 19 rivers in the desert, to give drink to my people, my chosen.
This people have I formed for myself; they shall show forth my 20 praise. But thou hast not called upon me, O Jacob; but thou hast been weary of me, O Israel. Thou hast not brought me 21 the small cattle of thy burnt-offerings; neither hast thou honored me with thy sacrifices. I have not caused thee to serve 22 with an offering, nor wearied thee with incense. Thou hast bought me no sweet cane with money, neither hast thou filled 23 me with the fat of thy sacrifices: but thou hast made me to serve with thy sins, thou hast wearied me with thy iniquities.

I, even I, am he that blotteth out thy transgressions for my own sake, and will not remember thy sins. Put me in remembrance: let us plead together: declare thou, that thou mayest be justified. Thy first father hath sinned, and thy teachers have transgressed against me. Therefore I have profaned the princes of the sanctuary, and have given Jacob to the curse, and Israel to reproaches.

Yet now hear, O Jacob my servant; and Israel, whom I have chosen: Thus saith the LORD that made thee, and formed thee from the womb, who will help thee: Fear not, O Jacob, my servant; and thou, Jesurun, whom I have chosen. For I will pour water upon him that is thirsty, and floods upon the dry ground: I will pour my spirit upon thy seed, and my blessing upon thy offspring: And they shall spring up as among the grass, as willows by the watercourses. One shall say, I am the LORD'S; and another shall call himself by the name of Jacob; and another shall subscribe with his hand to the LORD, and surname himself by the name of Israel. Thus saith the LORD the King of Israel, and his redeemer the LORD of hosts; I am the first, and I am the last; and besides me there is no God. And who, as I, shall call, and shall declare it, and set it in order for me, since I appointed the ancient people? and the things that are coming, and shall come, let them show to them. Fear ye not, neither be afraid: have not I told thee from that time, and have declared it? ye are even my witnesses. Is there a God besides me? verily there is no God; I know not any. They that make a graven image are all of them vanity; and their delectable things shall not profit; and they are their own witnesses; they see not, nor know; that they may be ashamed. Who hath formed a god, or cast a graven image that is profitable for nothing? Behold, all his fellows shall be ashamed: and the workmen, they are of men: let them all be assembled, let them stand up; yet they shall fear, and they shall be ashamed together. The smith with the tongs both worketh in the coals, and fashioneth it with hammers, and worketh it with the strength of his arms: yes, he is hungry, and his strength faileth: he drinketh no water, and is faint. The carpenter stretcheth out his rule; he marketh it out with a line; he fitteth it with planes, and he marketh it out with the compass, and maketh it after the figure of a man, according 14 to the beauty of a man; that it may remain in the house. He heweth down cedars for himself, and taketh the cypress and the oak, which he strengtheneth for himself among the trees of the forest: he planteth an ash, and the rain doth nourish it.

15 Then shall it be for a man to burn: for he will take of it, and warm himself; indeed he kindleth it, and baketh bread; yes, he maketh a god, and worshipeth it; he maketh it a graven image, and falleth down to it. He burneth part of it in the fire; with part of it he eateth flesh; he roasteth meat, and is satisfied: yes, he warmeth himself, and saith, Aha, I am warm, 17 I have seen the fire: And the residue of it he maketh a god, even his graven image: he falleth down to it, and worshipeth it, and prayeth to it, and saith, Deliver me; for thou art my god.

18 They have not known nor understood: for he hath shut their eyes, that they cannot see; and their hearts, that they cannot understand. And none considereth in his heart, neither is there knowledge nor understanding to say, I have burned part of it in the fire; I have also baked bread upon its coals; I have roasted flesh, and eaten it: and shall I make the residue of it

20 an abomination? shall I fall down to the stock of a tree? He feedeth on ashes: a deceived heart hath turned him aside, that he cannot deliver his soul, nor say, Is there not a lie in my right

21 hand? Remember these, O Jacob and Israel; for thou art my servant: I have formed thee; thou art my servant: O Israel, thou shalt not be forgotten by me. I have blotted out, as a thick cloud, thy transgressions, and as a cloud, thy sins: return to me; for I have redeemed thee. Sing, O ye heavens;

23 for the LORD hath done it: shout, ye lower parts of the earth: break forth into singing, ye mountains, O forest, and every tree therein: for the LORD hath redeemed Jacob, and glorified himself in Israel. Thus saith the LORD thy Redeemer, and he that

24 formed thee from the womb, I am the LORD that maketh all things; that stretcheth forth the heavens alone; that spreadeth abroad the earth by myself: That frustrateth the tokens of the liars, and maketh diviners mad; that turneth wise men backward, and maketh their knowledge foolish; That confirmeth the word of his servant, and performeth the counsel of his messengers; that saith to Jerusalem, Thou shalt be inhabited; and to the cities of Judah, Ye shall be built, and I will raise up her

27 decayed places: That saith to the deep, Be dry, and I will dry up thy rivers: That saith of Cyrus, He is my shepherd, and he shall perform all my pleasure: even saying to Jerusalem, Thou shalt be built; and to the temple, Thy foundation shall be laid. 28

Thus saith the LORD to his anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I have held to subdue nations before him; and I will loose the loins of kings, to open before him the two-leaved gates, and the gates shall not be shut; I will go before thee, and make the crooked places straight: I will break in pieces the gates of brass, and cut asunder the bars of iron: And I will give thee the treasures of darkness, and hidden riches of secret places, that thou mayest know that I, the LORD, who call thee by thy name, am the God of Israel. For Jacob my servant's sake, and Israel my elect, I have even called thee by thy name: I have surnamed thee, though thou hast not known me: I am the LORD, and there is none else, there is no God besides me: I girded thee, though thou hast not known me: That they may know from the rising of the sun, and from the west, that there is none besides me. I am the LORD, and there is none else. I form the light, and create darkness: I make peace, and create evil: I the LORD do all these things. Drop down, ye heavens, from above, and let the skies pour down righteousness: let the earth open, and let them bring forth salvation, and let righteousness spring up together; I the LORD have created it. Woe to him that contendeth with his Maker! Let the potsherd contend with the potsherds of the earth. Shall the clay say to him that fashioneth it, What makest thou? or thy work, He hath no hands? Woe to him that saith to his father, What begetteth thou? or to the woman, What hast thou brought forth? Thus saith the LORD, the Holy One of Israel, and his Maker, Ask me of things to come concerning my sons, and concerning the work of my hands command ye me. I have made the earth, and created man upon it: I, even my hands, have stretched out the heavens, and all their host have I commanded. I have raised him up in righteousness, and I will direct all his ways: he shall build my city, and he shall let go my captives, not for price nor reward, saith the LORD of hosts. Thus saith the LORD, The labor of Egypt, and merchandise of Cush and of the Sabeans, men of stature, shall come over to thee, and they shall be thine: they shall come after thee; in chains they shall come over, and they shall fall down to thee, they shall make 45 supplication to thee, saying, Surely God is in thee; and there is 15 none else, there is no God. Verily thou art a God that hidest 16 thyself, O God of Israel, the Savior. They shall be ashamed, and also confounded, all of them: they shall go to confusion 17 together that are makers of idols. But Israel shall be saved in the LORD with an everlasting salvation: ye shall not be 18 ashamed nor confounded world without end. For thus saith the LORD that created the heavens; God himself that formed the earth and made it; he hath established it, he created it not in vain, he formed it to be inhabited: I am the LORD; and 19 there is none else. I have not spoken in secret, in a dark place of the earth: I have not said to the seed of Jacob, Seek ye me in vain: I the LORD speak righteousness, I declare things that are 20 right. Assemble yourselves and come; draw near together, ye that have escaped of the nations: they have no knowledge that set up the wood of their graven image, and pray to a god that 21 cannot save. Tell ye, and bring them near; yes, let them take counsel together: who hath declared this from ancient time? who hath told it from that time? have not I the LORD? and there is no God else besides me; a just God and a Savior; there 22 is none besides me. Look to me, and be ye saved, all the ends 23 of the earth: for I am God, and there is none else. I have sworn by myself, the word is gone out of my mouth in righteousness, and shall not return, That to me every knee shall bow, every 24 tongue shall swear. Surely, shall one say, in the LORD have I righteousness and strength: even to him shall men come; and 25 all that are incensed against him shall be ashamed. In the LORD shall all the seed of Israel be justified, and shall glory.

46 Bel boweth down, Nebo stoopeth, their idols were upon the beasts, and upon the cattle: your loads were heavy; they were 2 a burden to the weary beast. They stoop, they bow down together; they could not deliver the burden, but themselves have 3 gone into captivity. Harken to me, O house of Jacob, and all the remnant of the house of Israel, which are borne by me 4 from the birth, which are carried from the womb: And even to your old age I am he; and even to hoary hairs will I carry you: I have made, and I will bear; even I will carry, and will de-5 liver you. To whom will ye liken me, and make me equal, and 6 compare me, that we may be like? They lavish gold out of the bag, and weigh silver in the balance, and hire a goldsmith; and he maketh it a god: they fall down, yes, they worship. They 7 bear him upon the shoulder, they carry him, and set him in his place, and he standeth; from his place shall he not remove: yes, one shall cry to him, yet he cannot answer, nor save him out of his trouble. Remember this, and show yourselves men: bring 8 it again to mind, O ye transgressors. Remember the former 9 things of old: for I am God, and there is none else; I am God, and there is none like me, Declaring the end from the begin- 10 ning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done, saying, My counsel shall stand, and I will do all my pleasure: Calling a ravenous bird from the east, the man that executeth 11 my counsel from a far country: yes, I have spoken it, I will also bring it to pass; I have purposed it, I will also perform it.

 Harken to me, ye stout-hearted, that are far from righteous- 12 ness: I bring near my righteousness; it shall not be far off, 13 and my salvation shall not delay: and I will place salvation in Zion for Israel my glory.

Come down, and sit in the dust, O virgin daughter of Baby- 47 lon, sit on the ground: there is no throne, O daughter of the Chaldeans: for thou shalt no more be called tender and deli- 2 cate. Take the millstones, and grind meal: uncover thy locks, make bare the leg, uncover the thigh, pass over the rivers.
 Thy nakedness shall be uncovered, yes, thy shame shall be 3 seen: I will take vengeance, and I will not meet thee as a man.
As for our Redeemer, the LORD of hosts is his name, the Holy 4 One of Israel. Sit thou silent, and get thee into darkness, O 5 daughter of the Chaldeans: for thou shalt no more be called, The lady of kingdoms. I was wroth with my people, I have 6 polluted my inheritance, and given them into thy hand: thou didst show them no mercy; upon the ancient hast thou very heavily laid thy yoke. And thou saidst, I shall be a lady for 7 ever: so that thou didst not lay these things to thy heart, neither didst remember the latter end of it. Therefore hear now 8 this, thou that art given to pleasures, that dwellest carelessly, that sayest in thy heart, I am, and none else besides me; I shall not sit as a widow, neither shall I know the loss of chil- 9 dren: But these two things shall come to thee in a moment in one day, the loss of children, and widowhood: they shall come upon thee in their perfection, for the multitude of thy sorceries, and for the great abundance of thy enchantments. For thou 10 hast trusted in thy wickedness: thou hast said, None seeth me. Thy wisdom and thy knowledge, it hath perverted thee; and thou hast said in thy heart, I am, and none else besides me.

- 11 Therefore shall evil come upon thee; thou shalt not know from whence it riseth: and mischief shall fall upon thee; thou shalt not be able to put it off: and desolation shall come upon thee
- 12 suddenly, which thou shalt not know. Stand now with thy enchantments, and with the multitude of thy sorceries, in which thou hast labored from thy youth; if thou shalt be able to profit,
- 13 if thou mayest prevail. Thou art wearied in the multitude of thy counsels. Let now the astrologers, the star-gazers, the monthly prognosticators, stand up, and save thee from these
- 14 things that shall come upon thee. Behold, they shall be as stubble; the fire shall burn them; they shall not deliver themselves from the power of the flame: there shall not be a coal to
- 15 warm at, nor fire to sit before it. Thus shall they be to thee with whom thou hast labored, even thy merchants, from thy youth: they shall wander every one to his quarter; none shall save thee.

- 48 Hear ye this, O house of Jacob, who are called by the name of Israel, and have come forth out of the waters of Judah, who swear by the name of the LORD, and make mention of the God
- 2 of Israel, but not in truth, nor in righteousness. For they call themselves of the holy city, and stay themselves upon the God
- 3 of Israel; The LORD of hosts is his name. I have declared the former things from the beginning; and they went forth from my mouth, and I showed them; I did them suddenly, and they
- 4 came to pass. Because I knew that thou art obstinate, and thy neck is an iron sinew, and thy brow brass; I have even from the beginning declared it to thee; before it came to pass I showed it thee: lest thou shouldst say, My idol hath done them, and my graven image, and my molten image, hath commanded
- 6 them. Thou hast heard, see all this; and will not ye declare it? I have showed ye new things from this time, even hidden
- 7 things, and thou didst not know them. They are created now, and not from the beginning; even before the day when thou heardst them not; lest thou shouldst say, Behold, I knew them.
- 8 Yes, thou heardst not; yes, thou knewest not; yes, from that time that thy ear was not opened: for I knew that thou wouldst deal very treacherously, and wast called a transgressor from the womb. For my name's sake will I defer my anger, and for my praise will I refrain for thee, that I cut thee not off. Behold, I have refined thee, but not with silver; I have chosen thee in the furnace of affliction. For my own sake, even for my own sake, will I do it: for how should my name be profaned? and I will not give my glory to another. Harken to me, O Jacob and Israel, my called; I am he; I am the first, I also am the last. My hand also hath laid the foundation of the earth, and my right hand hath spanned the heavens: when I call to them, they stand up together. All ye, assemble yourselves and hear; who among them hath declared these things? The LORD hath loved him: he will do his pleasure on Babylon, and his arm shall be on the Chaldeans. I, even I, have spoken, yes, I have called him: I have brought him, and he shall make his way prosperous. Come ye near to me, hear ye this; I have not spoken in secret from the beginning; from the time that it was, there am I: and now the LORD God, and his Spirit, hath sent me. Thus saith the LORD, thy Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel; I am the LORD thy God, who teacheth thee to profit, who leadeth thee by the way that thou shouldst go. O that thou hadst hearkened to my commandments! then had thy peace been as a river, and thy righteousness as the waves of the sea: Thy seed also had been as the sand, and the offspring of thy bowels like its gravel; his name should not have been cut off nor destroyed from before me. Go ye forth from Babylon, flee ye from the Chaldeans, with a voice of singing declare ye, tell this, utter it even to the end of the earth; say ye, The LORD hath redeemed his servant Jacob. And they thirsted not, when he led them through the deserts: he caused the waters to flow out of the rock for them: he cleaved the rock also, and the waters gushed out. There is no peace, saith the LORD, to the wicked.

Listen to me, O Isles; and hearken, ye people, from far; The LORD hath called me from the womb; from the bowels of my mother hath he made mention of my name. And he hath made my mouth like a sharp sword; in the shade of his hand hath he hid me, and made me a polished shaft; in his quiver hath he hid me; And said to me, Thou art my servant, O Israel, in whom I will be glorified. Then I said, I have labored in vain, I have spent my strength for naught, and in vain; yet surely my judgment is with the LORD, and my work with my God.

5 And now, saith the LORD that formed me from the womb to be his servant, to bring Jacob again to him, Though Israel be not gathered, yet shall I be glorious in the eyes of the LORD, and 6 my God shall be my strength. And he said, It is a light thing that thou shouldst be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob, and to restore the preserved of Israel: I will also give thee 7 for a light to the Gentiles, that thou mayest be my salvation to the end of the earth. Thus saith the LORD, the Redeemer of Israel, and his Holy One, to him whom man despiseth, to him whom the nation abhorreth, to a servant of rulers, kings shall see and arise, princes also shall worship, because of the LORD that is faithful, and the Holy One of Israel, and he shall 8 choose thee. Thus saith the LORD, In an acceptable time have I heard thee, and in a day of salvation have I helped thee: and I will preserve thee, and give thee for a covenant of the people, to establish the earth, to cause to inherit the desolate heritages: 9 That thou mayest say to the prisoners, Go forth; to them that are in darkness, Show yourselves. They shall feed in the ways, 10 and their pastures shall be in all high places. They shall not hunger nor thirst, neither shall the heat nor sun smite them: for he that hath mercy on them shall lead them, even by the 11 springs of water shall he guide them. And I will make all 12 my mountains a way, and my highways shall be exalted. Behold, these shall come from far: and lo, these from the north 13 and from the west; and these from the land of Sinim. Sing, O heavens, and be joyful, O earth; and break forth into singing, O mountains: for the LORD hath comforted his people, and 14 will have mercy upon his afflicted. But Zion said, The LORD 15 hath forsaken me, and my LORD hath forgotten me. Can a woman forget her sucking child, that she should not have compassion on the son of her womb? yes, they may forget, yet 16 I will not forget thee. Behold, I have graven thee upon the 17 palms of my hands; thy walls are continually before me. Thy children shall make haste; thy destroyers and they that made 18 thee waste, shall go forth from thee. Lift up thy eyes around, and behold: all these assemble themselves, and come to thee.
As I live, saith the LORD, thou shalt surely clothe thee with them all, as with an ornament, and bind them on thee, as a 19 bride doeth. For thy waste and thy desolate places, and the land of thy destruction, shall even now be too narrow by reason of the inhabitants, and they that swallowed thee up shall be far away. The children which thou shalt have, after thou hast lost the other, shall say again in thy ears, The place is too narrow for me: give place to me that I may dwell. Then shalt thou say in thy heart, Who hath begotten these for me, seeing I have lost my children, and am desolate, a captive, and removing to and fro? and who hath brought up these? Behold, I was left alone; these, where have they been? Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I will lift up my hand to the Gentiles, and set up my standard to the people: and they shall bring thy sons in their arms, and thy daughters shall be carried upon their shoulders. And kings shall be thy nursing fathers, and their queens thy nursing mothers: they shall bow to thee with their face towards the earth, and lick up the dust of thy feet; and thou shalt know that I am the LORD: for they shall not be ashamed that wait for me. Shall the prey be taken from the mighty, or the lawful captive delivered? But thus saith the LORD, Even the captives of the mighty shall be taken away, and the prey of the terrible shall be delivered: for I will contend with him that contendeth with thee, and I will save thy children. And I will feed them that oppress thee with their own flesh; and they shall be drunken with their own blood, as with sweet wine: and all flesh shall know that I the LORD am thy Savior and thy Redeemer, the mighty One of Jacob.

Thus saith the LORD, Where is the bill of your mother's divorcement, whom I have put away? or which of my creditors is it to whom I have sold you? Behold, for your iniquities have ye sold yourselves, and for your transgressions is your mother put away. Why, when I came, was there no man? when I called, was there none to answer? Is my hand shortened at all, that it cannot redeem? or have I no power to deliver? behold, at my rebuke I dry up the sea, I make the rivers a wilderness: their fish becometh putrid, because there is no water, and dieth for thirst. I clothe the heavens with blackness, and I make sack-cloth their covering. The Lord GOD hath given me the tongue of the learned, that I should know how to speak a word in season to him that is weary: he wakeneth morning by morning, he wakeneth my ear to hear as the learned. The LORD GOD opened my ear, and I was not rebellious, neither turned away

6 back. I gave my back to the smiters, and my cheeks to them that plucked off the hair: I hid not my face from shame and 7 spitting. For the Lord GOD will help me; therefore shall I not be confounded: therefore have I set my face like a flint, 8 and I know that I shall not be ashamed. He is near that justifieth me; who will contend with me? let us stand together; 9 who is my adversary? let him come near to me. Behold the Lord GOD will help me; who is he that shall condemn me? lo, they all shall wax old as a garment; the moth shall eat them 10 up. Who is among you that feareth the LORD, that obeyeth the voice of his servant, that walketh in darkness, and hath no light? let him trust in the name of the LORD, and rely upon his 11 God. Behold, all ye that kindle a fire, that encompass your- selves with sparks: walk in the light of your fire, and in the sparks that ye have kindled. This shall ye have of my hand; ye shall lie down in sorrow.

51 Hearken to me, ye that follow after righteousness, ye that seek the LORD: look to the rock whence ye are hewn, and to the 2 hole of the pit whence ye are digged. Look to Abraham your father, and to Sarah that bore you: for I called him alone, and 3 blessed him, and increased him. For the LORD will comfort Zion: he will comfort all her waste places; and he will make her wilderness like Eden, and her desert like the garden of the LORD; joy and gladness shall be found therein, thanksgiving, 4 and the voice of melody. Hearken to me, my people; and give ear to me, O my nation: for a law shall proceed from me, and 5 I will make my judgment to rest for a light of the people. My righteousness is near; my salvation is gone forth, and my arms shall judge the people; the isles shall wait upon me, and on 6 my arm shall they trust. Lift up your eyes to the heavens, and look upon the earth beneath: for the heavens shall vanish away like smoke, and the earth shall become old like a garment, and its inhabitants shall die in like manner: but my salvation shall be for ever, and my righteousness shall not be abol-7 ished. Hearken to me, ye that know righteousness, the people in whose heart is my law; fear ye not the reproach of men, nei-8 ther be ye afraid of their revilings. For the moth shall eat them like a garment, and the worm shall eat them like wool: but my righteousness shall be for ever, and my salvation from 9 generation to generation. Awake, awake, put on thy strength,

O arm of the LORD; awake, as in the ancient days, in the generations of old. Art thou not that which hath cut Rahab, and wounded the dragon? Art thou not that which hath dried the sea, the waters of the great deep; that hath made the depths of the sea a way for the ransomed to pass over? Therefore the redeemed of the LORD shall return, and come with singing to Zion; and everlasting joy shall be upon their head: they shall obtain gladness and joy; sorrow and mourning shall flee away. I, even I, am he that comforteth you: who art thou, that thou shouldst be afraid of a man that shall die, and of the son of man who shall be made as grass; And forgettest the LORD thy maker, that hath stretched forth the heavens, and laid the foundations of the earth; and hast feared continually every day because of the fury of the oppressor, as if he were ready to destroy? and where is the fury of the oppressor? The captive exile hasteneth that he may be loosed, and that he should not die in the pit, nor that his bread should fail. But I am the LORD thy God, that divided the sea, whose waves roared: The LORD of hosts is his name. And I have put my words in thy mouth, and have covered thee in the shade of my hand, that I may plant the heavens, and lay the foundations of the earth, and say to Zion, Thou art my people. Awake, awake, stand up, O Jerusalem, which hast drank at the hand of the LORD the cup of his fury; thou hast drank the dregs of the cup of trembling, and wrung them out. There is none to guide her among all the sons whom she hath brought forth; neither is there any that taketh her by the hand of all the sons that she hath brought up. These two things have come to thee; who shall be sorry for thee? desolation, and destruction, and famine, and the sword: by whom shall I comfort thee? Thy sons have fainted, they lie at the head of all the streets, as a wild bull in a net: they are full of the fury of the LORD, the rebuke of thy God. Therefore hear now this, thou afflicted, and drunken, but not with wine: Thus saith thy Lord Jehovah, and thy God that pleadeth the cause of his people, Behold, I have taken out of thy hand the cup of trembling, even the dregs of the cup of my fury; thou shalt no more drink it again: But I will put it into the hand of them that afflict thee; who have said to thy soul, Prostrate thyself, that we may go over: and thou hast laid thy body as the ground, and as the street, to them that went over.

52 Awake, awake, put on thy strength, O Zion; put on thy beautiful garments, O Jerusalem, the holy city: for henceforth there shall no more come into thee the uncircumcised and the unclean. Shake thyself from the dust; arise, and sit down, O Jerusalem: loose thyself from the bands of thy neck, O captive daughter of Zion. For thus saith the LORD, Ye have sold yourselves for naught; and ye shall be redeemed without money. For thus saith the Lord GOD, My people went down formerly into Egypt to sojourn there; and the Assyrian oppressed them without cause. Now therefore, what have I here, saith the LORD, that my people is taken away for naught? they that rule over them make them to howl, saith the LORD; and my name continually every day is blasphemed. Therefore my people shall know my name: therefore they shall know in that day that I am he that doth speak: behold, it is I. How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace; that bringeth good tidings of good, that publisheth salvation; that saith to Zion, Thy God reigneth! Thy watchmen shall lift up the voice; with the voice together shall they sing: for they shall see eye to eye, when the LORD shall bring again Zion. Break forth into joy, sing together, ye waste places of Jerusalem: for the LORD hath comforted his people, he hath redeemed Jerusalem. The LORD hath made bare his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations: and all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God. Depart ye, depart ye, go ye out from thence, touch no unclean thing; go ye out of the midst of her; be ye clean, that bear the vessels of the LORD. For ye shall not go out with haste, nor go by flight: for the LORD will go before you; and the God of Israel will be your rear-ward. Behold, my servant shall deal prudently, he shall be exalted and extolled, and be very high. As many were astonished at thee; his visage was so marred more than any man, and his form more than the sons of men: So shall he sprinkle many nations; the kings shall shut their mouths at him: for that which had not been told them shall they see; and that which they had not heard shall they consider.

53 Who hath believed our report? and to whom is the arm of the LORD revealed? For he shall grow up before him as a tender plant, and as a root out of a dry ground: he hath no form nor comeliness; and when we shall see him, there is no beauty that we should desire him. He is despised and rejected by 3 men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief: and we hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised, and we este- 4 teemed him not. Surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows: yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten by God, and afflicted. But he was wounded for our transgression, he 5 was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed. All we 6 like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the LORD hath laid on him the iniquity of us all. He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he opened 7 not his mouth; he is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so he opened not his mouth. He was taken from prison and from judgment: and 8 who shall declare his generation? for he was cut off from the land of the living: for the transgression of my people was he stricken. And he made his grave with the wicked, and with 9 the rich in his death: because he had done no violence, neither was any deceit in his mouth. Yet it pleased the LORD to bruise 10 him; he hath put him to grief: when thou shalt make his soul an offering for sin, he shall see his seed, he shall prolong his days, and the pleasure of the LORD shall prosper in his hand.

He shall see of the travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied: 11 by his knowledge shall my righteous servant justify many; for he shall bear their iniquities. Therefore I will divide to him a 12 portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he hath poured out his soul to death: and he was numbered with the transgressors; and he bore the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors.

Sing, O barren, thou that didst not bear; break forth into 54 singing, and cry aloud, thou that didst not travail with child: for more are the children of the desolate than the children of the married wife, saith the LORD. Enlarge the place of thy 2 tent, and let them extend the curtains of thy habitations: spare not, lengthen thy cords, and strengthen thy stakes; For thou 3 shalt break forth on the right hand and on the left; and thy seed shall inherit the Gentiles, and make the desolate cities to be inhabited. Fear not; for thou shalt not be ashamed: nei- 4 ther be thou confounded; for thou shalt not be put to shame; for thou shalt forget the shame of thy youth, and shalt not re-5 member the reproach of thy widowhood any more. For thy maker is thy husband; the LORD of hosts is his name; and thy Redeemer the Holy One of Israel; The God of the whole earth 6 shall he be called. For the LORD hath called thee as a woman forsaken and grieved in spirit, and a wife of youth, when thou 7 wast refused, saith thy God. For a small moment have I for-8 saken thee; but with great mercies will I gather thee. In a little wrath I hid my face from thee for a moment; but with everlasting kindness will I have mercy on thee, saith the LORD 9 thy Redeemer. For this is as the waters of Noah to me: for as I have sworn that the waters of Noah shall no more overflow the earth; so have I sworn that I will not be wroth with 10 thee, nor rebuke thee. For the mountains shall depart, and the hills be removed, but my kindness shall not depart from thee, neither shall the covenant of my peace be removed, saith 11 the LORD that hath mercy on thee. Oh thou afflicted, tossed with tempest, and not comforted, behold, I will lay thy stones 12 with fair colors, and lay thy foundations with sapphires. And I will make thy windows of agates, and thy gates of carbunc-13 cles, and all thy borders of pleasant stones. And all thy children shall be taught from the LORD; and great shall be the 14 peace of thy children. In righteousness shalt thou be established: thou shalt be far from oppression; for thou shalt not 15 fear: and from terror; for it shall not come near thee. Behold, they shall surely assemble but not by me: whoever shall 16 assemble against thee shall fall for thy sake. Behold, I have created the smith that bloweth the coals in the fire, and that bringeth forth an instrument for his work; and I have created 17 the waster to destroy. No weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper; and every tongue that shall rise against thee in judgment thou shalt condemn. This is the heritage of the servants of the LORD, and their righteousness is from me, saith the LORD.

55 Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy, and eat; yes, come, buy wine 2 and milk without money and without price. Why do ye spend money for that which is not bread? and your labor for that which satisfieth not? hearken diligently to me, and eat ye that 3 which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness. Incline your ear, and come to me: hear, and your soul shall live; and I will make an everlasting covenant with you, even the sure mercies of David. Behold, I have given him for a witness 4 to the people, a leader and commander to the people. Behold, 5 thou shalt call a nation that thou knowest not, and nations that knew not thee shall run to thee because of the LORD thy God, and for the Holy One of Israel, for he hath glorified thee.

Seek ye the LORD while he may be found, call ye upon him 6 while he is near: Let the wicked forsake his way, and the un- 7 righteous man his thoughts: and let him return to the LORD, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon. For my thoughts are not your thoughts, 8 neither are your ways my ways, saith the LORD. For as the 9 heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts. For as the 10 rain cometh down, and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower, and bread to the eater: So shall my word be that proceedeth from my mouth: it 11 shall not return to me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing for which I sent it. For 12 ye shall go out with joy, and be led forth with peace: the mountains and the hills shall break forth before you into singing, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands. Instead 13 of the thorn shall come up the fir-tree, and instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle-tree: and it shall be to the LORD for a name, for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off.

Thus saith the LORD, Keep ye judgment, and do justice: for 56 my salvation is near to come, and my righteousness to be revealed. Blessed is the man that doeth this, and the son of man 2 that layeth hold on it; that keepeth the sabbath from profaning it, and keepeth his hand from doing any evil. Neither let 3 the son of the stranger, that hath joined himself to the LORD, speak, saying, The LORD hath utterly separated me from his people: neither let the eunuch say, Behold, I am a dry tree.
For thus saith the LORD to the eunuchs that keep my sab- 4 baths, and choose the things that please me, and take hold of my covenant; Even to them will I give in my house and within 5 my walls a place and a name better than of sons and of daughters: I will give them an everlasting name, that shall not be cut off. Also the sons of the stranger, that join themselves to 6 the LORD, to serve him, and to love the name of the LORD, to be his servants, every one that keepeth the sabbath from profaning it, and taketh hold of my covenant; Even them will I bring to my holy mountain, and make them joyful in my house of prayer: their burnt-offerings and their sacrifices shall be accepted upon my altar; for my house shall be called a house of prayer for all people. The Lord GOD who gathereth the outcasts of Israel, Yet will I gather others to him, besides those that are gathered to him. All ye beasts of the field, come to devour, yes, all ye beasts in the forest. His watchmen are blind: they are all ignorant, they are all dumb dogs, they cannot bark; sleeping, lying down, loving to slumber. Yes, they are greedy dogs which can never have enough, and they are shepherds that cannot understand: they all look to their own way, every one for his gain, from his quarter. Come ye, say they, I will bring wine, and we will fill ourselves with strong drink; and to-morrow shall be as this day, and much more abundant.

57 The righteous perisheth, and no man layeth it to heart: and merciful men are taken away, none considering that the righteous is taken away from the evil to come. He shall enter into peace: they shall rest in their beds, each one walking in his uprightness. But draw near hither, ye sons of the sorceress, the seed of the adulterer and the lewd. Against whom do ye sport yourselves? against whom make ye a wide mouth, and thrust out the tongue? are ye not children of transgression, a seed of falsehood, Inflaming yourselves with idols under every green tree, slaying the children in the valleys under the cliffs of the rocks? Among the smooth stones of the stream is thy portion; they, they are thy lot: even to them hast thou poured a drink-offering, thou hast offered a meat-offering. Should I receive comfort in these? Upon a lofty and high mountain hast thou set thy bed: even thither thou wentest up to offer sacrifice. Behind the doors also and the posts hast thou set up thy remembrance: for thou hast uncovered thyself to another than me, and hast gone up; thou hast enlarged thy bed, and made thee a covenant with them; thou lovedst their bed where thou sawest it. And thou wentest to the king with ointment, and didst increase thy perfumes, and didst send thy messengers far off, and didst debase thyself even to hell. Thou art wearied in the greatness of thy way; yet saidst thou not, There is no hope:

thou hast found the life of thy hand; therefore thou wast not grieved. And of whom hast thou been afraid or feared, that 11 thou hast lied, and hast not remembered me, nor laid it to thy heart? have not I held my peace even of old, and thou fearest me not? I will declare thy righteousness, and thy works; for 12 they shall not profit thee. When thou criest, let thy compa- 13 nies deliver thee; but the wind shall carry them all away; vanity shall take them: but he that putteth his trust in me shall possess the land, and shall inherit my holy mountain; And 14 shall say, Cast ye up, cast ye up, prepare the way, take up the stumbling-block out of the way of my people. For thus saith 15 the high and lofty One that inhabiteth eternity, whose name is Holy; I dwell in the high and holy place, with him also that is of a contrite and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of the contrite ones. For I will not 16 contend for ever, neither will I be always wroth: for the spirit would fail before me, and the souls which I have made. For 17 the iniquity of his covetousness I was wroth, and smote him: I hid me, and was wroth, and he went on frowardly in the way of his heart. I have seen his ways, and will heal him: I will lead 18 him also, and restore comforts to him and to his mourners. I 19 create the fruit of the lips; Peace, peace to him that is far off, and to him that is near, saith the LORD; and I will heal him.
 But the wicked are like the troubled sea, when it cannot rest, 20 whose waters cast up mire and dirt. There is no peace, saith 21 my God, to the wicked.

Cry aloud, spare not, lift up thy voice like a trumpet, and 58 show my people their transgression, and the house of Jacob their sins. Yet they seek me daily, and delight to know my 2 ways, as a nation that did righteousness, and forsook not the ordinance of their God: they ask of me the ordinances of justice; they take delight in approaching to God. Why have we 3 fasted, say they, and thou seest not? why have we afflicted our soul, and thou takest no knowledge? Behold, in the day of your fast ye find pleasure, and exact all your labors. Behold, ye fast 4 for strife and debate, and to smite with the fist of wickedness: ye shall not fast as ye do this day, to make your voice to be heard on high. Is it such a fast that I have chosen? a day for a 5 man to afflict his soul? is it to bow down his head as a bulrush, and to spread sackcloth and ashes under him? wilt thou call

- 6 this a fast, and an acceptable day to the LORD? Is not this the fast that I have chosen? to loose the bands of wickedness, to undo the heavy burdens, and to let the oppressed go free, and 7 that ye break every yoke? Is it not to deal thy bread to the hungry, and that thou shouldst bring the poor that are cast out to thy house? when thou seest the naked, that thou shouldst cover him; and that thou shouldst not hide thyself from thy 8 own flesh? Then shall thy light break forth as the morning, and thy health shall spring forth speedily: and thy righteousness shall go before thee; the glory of the LORD shall be thy 9 rear-ward. Then shalt thou call, and the LORD will answer; thou shalt cry, and he will say, Here I am. If thou shalt take away from the midst of thee the yoke, the putting forth of the 10 finger, and speaking vanity; And if thou shalt draw out thy soul to the hungry, and satisfy the afflicted soul; then shall thy light rise in obscurity, and thy darkness be as the noon day: 11 And the LORD will guide thee continually, and satisfy thy soul in drouth, and make fat thy bones: and thou shalt be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water, whose waters fail not.
12 And they that shall be of thee shall build the old waste places: thou shalt raise up the foundations of many generations; and thou shalt be called, The repairer of the breach, The restorer 13 of paths to dwell in. If thou shalt turn away thy foot from the sabbath, from doing thy pleasure on my holy day; and call the sabbath a delight, the holy of the LORD, honorable; and shalt honor him, not doing thy own ways, nor finding thy own 14 pleasure, nor speaking thy own words: Then shalt thou delight thyself in the LORD; and I will cause thee to ride upon the high places of the earth, and feed thee with the heritage of Jacob thy father: for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it.
- 59 Behold, the LORD'S hand is not shortened, that it cannot 2 save; neither his ear heavy, that it cannot hear: But your in-iquities have separated between you and your God, and your 3 sins have hid his face from you, that he will not hear. For your hands are defiled with blood, and your fingers with iniquity; your lips have spoken lies, your tongue hath uttered per-4 verseness. None calleth for justice, nor any pleadeth for truth: they trust in vanity, and speak lies; they conceive mischief, and 5 bring forth iniquity. They hatch cockatrice eggs, and weave the spider's web: he that eateth of their eggs dieth, and that which is crushed breaketh out into a viper. Their webs shall 6 not become garments, neither shall they cover themselves with their works: their works are works of iniquity, and the act of violence is in their hands. Their feet run to evil, and they make 7 haste to shed innocent blood: their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity; wasting and destruction are in their paths. The way of 8 peace they know not; and there is no judgment in their goings: they have made them crooked paths: whoever goeth therein shall not know peace. Therefore is judgment far from us, nei- 9 ther doth justice overtake us: we wait for light, but behold obscurity; for brightness, but we walk in darkness. We grope for 10 the wall like the blind, and we grope as if we had no eyes: we stumble at noon day as in the night; we are in desolate places as dead men. We all roar like bears, and mourn bitterly like 11 doves: we look for judgment, but there is none; for salvation, but it is far from us. For our transgressions are multiplied 12 before thee, and our sins testify against us: for our transgressions are with us; and as for our iniquities, we know them; In 13 transgressing and lying against the LORD, and departing away from our God, speaking oppression and revolt, conceiving and uttering from the heart words of falsehood. And judgment is 14 turned away backward, and justice standeth afar off: for truth is fallen in the street, and equity cannot enter. Yes, truth 15 faileth; and he that departeth from evil maketh himself a prey: and the LORD saw it, and it displeased him that there was no judgment. And he saw that there was no man, and wondered 16 that there was no intercessor: therefore his arm brought salvation to him; and his righteousness, it sustained him. For he 17 put on righteousness as a breast-plate, and a helmet of salvation upon his head; and he put on the garments of vengeance for clothing, and was clad with zeal as a cloke. According to 18 their deeds, accordingly he will repay, fury to his adversaries, recompense to his enemies; to the isles he will repay recompense. So shall they fear the name of the LORD from the west, 19 and his glory from the rising of the sun. When the enemy shall come in like a flood, the Spirit of the LORD will lift up a standard against him. And the Redeemer will come to Zion, and 20 to them that turn from transgression in Jacob, saith the LORD.

As for me, this is my covenant with them, saith the LORD; My 21 spirit that is upon thee, and my words which I have put in thy mouth, shall not depart out of thy mouth, nor out of the mouth of thy seed, nor out of the mouth of thy seed's seed, saith the LORD, from henceforth and for ever.

60 Arise, shine; for thy light is come, and the glory of the LORD 2 is risen upon thee. For behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the people: but the LORD will arise 3 upon thee, and his glory will be seen upon thee. And the Gentiles shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy 4 rising. Lift up thy eyes around, and see: all they assemble themselves, they come to thee: thy sons shall come from far, 5 and thy daughters shall be nursed at thy side. Then thou shalt see, and flow together, and thy heart shall fear, and be enlarged; because the abundance of the sea shall be converted 6 to thee, the forces of the Gentiles shall come to thee. The multitude of camels shall cover thee, the dromedaries of Midian and Ephah; all they from Sheba shall come: they shall bring gold and incense; and they shall show forth the praises of the 7 LORD. All the flocks of Kedar shall be gathered to thee, the rams of Nebaioth shall minister to thee: they shall come up with acceptance on my altar, and I will glorify the house of my 8 glory. Who are these that fly as a cloud, and as doves to their 9 windows? Surely the isles shall wait for me, and the ships of Tarshish first, to bring thy sons from far, their silver and their gold with them, to the name of the LORD thy God, and 10 to the Holy One of Israel, because he hath glorified thee. And the sons of strangers shall build up thy walls, and their kings shall minister to thee: for in my wrath I smote thee, but in 11 my favor have I had mercy on thee. Therefore thy gates shall be open continually; they shall not be shut day nor night; that men may bring to thee the forces of the Gentiles, and that their 12 kings may be brought. For the nation and kingdom that will not serve thee shall perish; yes, those nations shall be utterly 13 wasted. The glory of Lebanon shall come to thee, the fir-tree, the pine-tree, and the box together, to beautify the place of my 14 sanctuary; and I will make the place of my feet glorious. The sons also of them that afflicted thee shall come bending to thee; and all they that despised thee shall bow themselves down at the soles of thy feet; and they shall call thee, The city of the 15 LORD, The Zion of the Holy One of Israel. Whereas thou hast been forsaken and hated, so that no man went through thee,

I will make thee an eternal excellence, a joy of many generations. Thou shalt also suck the milk of the Gentiles, and shalt suck the breast of kings: and thou shalt know that I the LORD am thy Savior and thy Redeemer, the mighty one of Jacob. For brass I will bring gold, and for iron I will bring silver, and for wood brass, and for stones iron: I will also make thy officers peace, and thy exactors righteousness. Violence shall no more be heard in thy land, wasting nor destruction within thy borders; but thou shalt call thy walls Salvation, and thy gates Praise. The sun shall be no more thy light by day; neither for brightness shall the moon give light to thee: but the LORD will be to thee an everlasting light, and thy God thy glory. Thy sun shall no more go down; neither shall thy moon withdraw itself: for the LORD will be thy everlasting light, and the days of thy mourning shall be ended. Thy people also shall be all righteous: they shall inherit the land for ever, the branch of my planting, the work of my hands, that I may be glorified. A little one shall become a thousand, and a small one a strong nation: I the LORD will hasten it in its time.

The Spirit of the Lord GOD is upon me; because the LORD 61 hath anointed me to publish good tidings to the meek; he hath sent me to bind up the broken-hearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound; To proclaim the acceptable year of the LORD, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all that mourn; To appoint to them that mourn in Zion, to give to them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they may be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the LORD, that he may be glorified. And they shall build the old wastes, they shall raise up the former desolations, and they shall repair the waste cities, the desolations of many generations. And strangers shall stand and feed your flocks, and the sons of the alien shall be your plowmen and your vine-dressers. But ye shall be named the Priests of the LORD: men shall call you the Ministers of our God: ye shall eat the riches of the Gentiles, and in their glory shall ye boast yourselves. For your shame ye shall have double; and for confusion they shall rejoice in their portion: therefore in their land they shall possess the double: everlasting joy shall be to them. For I the LORD love judgment, I hate robbery for burnt-offering; and I will direct their work in truth, and I will make 9 an everlasting covenant with them. And their seed shall be known among the Gentiles, and their offspring among the people: all that see them shall acknowledge them, that they are 10 the seed which the LORD hath blessed. I will greatly rejoice in the LORD, my soul shall be joyful in my God; for he hath clothed me with the garments of salvation, he hath covered me with the robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom decketh him- self with ornaments, and as a bride adorneth herself with her 11 jewels. For as the earth bringeth forth her bud, and as the garden causeth the things that are sown in it to spring forth; so the Lord GOD will cause righteousness and praise to spring forth before all the nations.

62 For Zion's sake I will not hold my peace, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest, until its righteousness shall go forth as 2 brightness, and its salvation as a lamp that burneth. And the Gentiles shall see thy righteousness, and all kings thy glory: and thou shalt be called by a new name, which the mouth of the 3 LORD shall name. Thou shalt also be a crown of glory in the hand of the LORD, and a royal diadem in the hand of thy God.
4 Thou shalt no more be termed Forsaken; neither shall thy land any more be termed Desolate: but thou shalt be called Hephzibah, and thy land Beulah: for the LORD delighteth in thee, 5 and thy land shall be married. For as a young man marrieth a virgin, so shall thy sons marry thee: and as the bridegroom 6 rejoiceth over the bride, so will thy God rejoice over thee. I have set watchmen upon thy walls, O Jerusalem, which shall never hold their peace day nor night: ye that make mention 7 of the LORD, keep not silence, And give him no rest, till he shall establish, and till he shall make Jerusalem a praise in 8 the earth. The LORD hath sworn by his right hand, and by the arm of his strength, Surely I will no more give thy corn to be food for thy enemies; and the sons of the stranger shall 9 not drink thy wine, for which thou hast labored: But they that have gathered it shall eat it, and praise the LORD; and they that have collected it shall drink it in the courts of my 10 holiness. Go through, go through the gates; prepare ye the way of the people; cast up, cast up the highway; gather out the 11 stones; lift up a standard for the people. Behold, the LORD hath proclaimed to the end of the world, Say ye to the daughter of Zion, Behold, thy salvation cometh; Behold, his reward is 12 with him, and his work before him. And they shall call them, The holy people, The redeemed of the LORD: and thou shalt be called, Sought out, A city not forsaken.

Who is this that cometh from Edom, with dyed garments 63 from Bozrah? this that is glorious in his apparel, traveling in the greatness of his strength? I that speak in righteousness, mighty to save. Why art thou red in thy apparel, and thy gar- 2 ments like him that treadeth in the wine-vat. I have trodden 3 the wine-press alone; and of the people there was none with me: for I will tread them in my anger, and trample them in my fury, and their blood shall be sprinkled upon my garments, and I will stain all my raiment. For the day of vengeance is 4 in my heart, and the year of my redeemed is come. And I 5 looked, and there was none to help; and I wondered that there was none to uphold: therefore my own arm brought salvation to me; and my fury, it upheld me. And I will tread down the 6 people in my anger, and make them drunk in my fury, and I will bring down their strength to the earth. I will mention the 7 loving-kindnesses of the LORD, and the praises of the LORD, according to all that the LORD hath bestowed on us, and the great goodness towards the house of Israel, which he hath bestowed on them according to his mercies, and according to the multitude of his loving-kindnesses. For he said, Surely they 8 are my people, children that will not lie: so he was their Savior. In all their affliction he was afflicted, and the angel of his 9 presence saved them: in his love and in his pity he redeemed them; and he bore them, and carried them all the days of old.
But they rebelled, and vexed his holy Spirit: therefore he was 10 turned to be their enemy, and he fought against them. Then 11 he remembered the days of old, Moses, and his people, saying, Where is he that brought them out of the sea with the shepherd of his flock? where is he that put his holy Spirit within him? That led them by the right hand of Moses with his glo- 12 rious arm, dividing the water before them, to make himself an everlasting name? That led them through the deep, as a 13 horse in the wilderness, that they should not stumble? As a 14 beast goeth down in the valley, the Spirit of the LORD caused him to rest: so didst thou lead thy people, to make thyself a glorious name. Look down from heaven, and behold from the 15 habitation of thy holiness and of thy glory: where is thy zeal and thy strength, the sounding of thy bowels and of thy mercies towards me? are they restrained? Doubtless thou art our father, though Abraham be ignorant of us, and Israel acknowledge us not: thou, O LORD, art our father, our Redeemer; thy name is from everlasting. O LORD, why hast thou made us to err from thy ways, and hardened our heart from thy fear? Return for thy servants' sake, the tribes of thy inheritance. The people of thy holiness have possessed it but a little while: our adversaries have trodden down thy sanctuary. We are thine: thou never didst bear rule over them; they were not called by thy name.

64 Oh that thou wouldst rend the heavens, that thou wouldst come down, that the mountains might flow down at thy presence, As when the melting fire burneth, the fire causeth the waters to boil, to make thy name known to thy adversaries, that the nations may tremble at thy presence! When thou didst terrible things which we looked not for, thou camest down, the mountains flowed down at thy presence. For since the beginning of the world men have not heard, nor perceived by the ear, neither hath the eye seen, O God, besides thee, what he hath prepared for him that waiteth for him. Thou meetest him that rejoiceth, and worketh righteousness, those that remember thee in thy ways: behold, thou art wroth; for we have sinned: in those is continuance, and we shall be saved. But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away. And there is none that calleth upon thy name, that stirreth up himself to take hold of thee: for thou hast hid thy face from us, and hast consumed us, because of our iniquities. But now, O LORD, thou art our father; we are the clay, and thou our potter; and we all are the work of thy hand. Be not very wroth, O LORD, neither remember iniquity for ever: behold, see, we beseech thee, we are all thy people. Thy holy cities are a wilderness, Zion is a wilderness, Jerusalem a desolation. Our holy and our beautiful house, where our fathers praised thee, is burned with fire: and all our pleasant things are laid waste. Wilt thou refrain thyself for these things, O LORD? wilt thou hold thy peace, and grievously afflict us?

I am sought by them that asked not for me; I am found by 65 them that sought me not: I said, Behold me, behold me, to a nation that was not called by my name. I have spread out 2 my hands all the day to a rebellious people, which walketh in a way that is not good, after their own thoughts; A people 3 that provoketh me to anger continually to my face; that sacrificeth in gardens, and burneth incense upon altars of brick; Which remain among the graves, and lodge in the monuments, 4 which eat swine's flesh, and broth of abominable things is in their vessels; Which say, Stand by thyself, come not near to 5 me; for I am holier than thou. These are a smoke in my nose, a fire that burneth all the day. Behold, it is written before 6 me: I will not keep silence, but will recompense, even recompense into their bosom, Your iniquities, and the iniquities of 7 your fathers together, saith the LORD, who have burned incense upon the mountains, and blasphemed me upon the hills:
therefore will I measure their former work into their bosom.
Thus saith the LORD, As the new wine is found in the cluster, 8 and one saith, Destroy it not; for a blessing is in it: so will I do for my servants' sake, that I may not destroy them all.
And I will bring forth a seed out of Jacob, and out of Judah an 9 inheritor of my mountains: and my elect shall inherit it, and my servants shall dwell there. And Sharon shall be a fold of 10 flocks, and the valley of Achor a place for the herds to lie down in, for my people that have sought me. But ye are they that 11 forsake the LORD, that forget my holy mountain, that prepare a table for that troop, and that furnish the drink-offering to that number. Therefore will I number you to the sword, and 12 ye shall all bow down to the slaughter: because when I called, ye did not answer; when I spoke, ye did not hear; but did evil before my eyes, and did choose that in which I delighted not.
Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, my servants shall 13 eat, but ye shall be hungry: behold, my servants shall drink, but ye shall be thirsty: behold, my servants shall rejoice, but ye shall be ashamed: Behold, my servants shall sing for joy of 14 heart, but ye shall cry for sorrow of heart, and shall howl for vexation of spirit. And ye shall leave your name for a curse 15 to my chosen: for the Lord GOD will slay thee, and call his servants by another name: That he who blesseth himself in 16 the earth shall bless himself in the God of truth; and he that swareth in the earth shall swear by the God of truth; because the former troubles are forgotten, and because they are hid 17 from my eyes. For behold, I create new heavens and a new earth: and the former shall not be remembered, nor come into 18 mind. But be ye glad and rejoice for ever in that which I create: for behold, I create Jerusalem a rejoicing, and her people 19 a joy. And I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and joy in my people: and the voice of weeping shall be no more heard in her, nor the 20 voice of crying. There shall be no more thence an infant of days, nor an old man that hath not filled his days: for the child shall die a hundred years old: but the sinner being a hundred 21 years old shall be accursed. And they shall build houses, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and eat the fruit 22 of them. They shall not build, and another inhabit; they shall not plant, and another eat: for as the days of a tree are the days of my people, and my elect shall long enjoy the work of 23 their hands. They shall not labor in vain, nor bring forth for trouble; for they are the seed of the blessed of the LORD, and their offspring with them. And it shall come to pass, that before they call, I will answer; and while they are yet speaking, 24 I will hear. The wolf and the lamb shall feed together, and the lion shall eat straw like the bullock: and dust shall be the serpents' food. They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain, saith the LORD.

66 Thus saith the LORD, The heaven is my throne, and the earth is my footstool: where is the house that ye build to me?
2 and where is the place of my rest? For all these things hath my hand made, and all these things have been, saith the LORD: but to this man will I look, even to him that is poor and of a 3 contrite spirit, and trembleth at my word. He that killeth an ox is as if he slew a man; he that sacrificeth a lamb, as if he cut off a dog's neck; he that offereth an oblation, as if he offered swine's blood; he that burneth incense, as if he blessed an idol. Yes, they have chosen their own ways, and their soul delighteth 4 in their abominations. I also will choose their delusions, and will bring their fears upon them; because when I called, none did answer; when I spoke, they did not hear: but they did evil before my eyes, and chose that in which I delighted not.
5 Hear the word of the LORD, ye that tremble at his word; Your brethren that hated you, that cast you out for my name's sake, said, Let the LORD be glorified: but he shall appear to your joy, and they shall be ashamed. A voice of noise from the city, 6 a voice from the temple, a voice of the LORD that rendereth recompense to his enemies. Before she travailed, she brought 7 forth; before her pain came, she was delivered of a male child. Who hath heard such a thing? who hath seen such things? 8 shall the earth be made to bring forth in one day? or shall a nation be born at once? for as soon as Zion travailed, she brought forth her children. Shall I bring to the birth, and not cause to 9 bring forth? saith the LORD: shall I cause to bring forth, and shut the womb? saith thy God. Rejoice ye with Jerusalem, 10 and be glad with her, all ye that love her: rejoice for joy with her, all ye that mourn for her: That ye may suck, and be satisfied 11 with the breasts of her consolations; that ye may draw milk, and be delighted with the abundance of her glory. For thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will extend peace to her like a river, and the glory of the Gentiles like a flowing stream: then shall ye suck, ye shall be borne upon her sides, and be dandled upon her knees. As one whom his mother comforteth, so will 13 I comfort you; and ye shall be comforted in Jerusalem. And when ye see this, your heart shall rejoice, and your bones shall flourish like an herb: and the hand of the LORD shall be known towards his servants, and his indignation towards his enemies. For behold, the LORD will come with fire, and with his chariots 15 like a whirlwind, to render his anger with fury, and his rebuke with flames of fire. For by fire and by his sword will the LORD 16 plead with all flesh: and the slain of the LORD shall be many. They that sanctify themselves, and purify themselves in the gardens behind one tree in the midst, eating swine's flesh, and the abomination, and the mouse, shall be consumed together, saith the LORD. For I know their works and their thoughts: 18 it shall come, that I will gather all nations and tongues; and they shall come, and see my glory. And I will set a sign among 19 them, and I will send those that escape of them to the nations, to Tarshish, Pul, and Lud, that draw the bow, to Tubal, and Javan, to the isles afar off, that have not heard my fame, neither have seen my glory; and they shall declare my glory among the Gentiles. And they shall bring all your brethren for an offering to the LORD out of all nations upon horses, and in chariots, 20 and in litters, and upon mules, and upon swift beasts, to my holy mountain Jerusalem, saith the LORD, as the children of Israel bring an offering in a clean vessel into the house of the 21 LORD. And I will also take of them for priests and for Levites, 22 saith the LORD. For as the new heavens and the new earth, which I will make, shall remain before me, saith the LORD, so 23 shall your seed and your name remain. And it shall come to pass, that from one new moon to another, and from one sabbath to another, shall all flesh come to worship before me, saith the 24 LORD. And they shall go forth, and look upon the carcasses of the men that have transgressed against me: for their worm shall not die, neither shall their fire be quenched; and they shall be an abhorring to all flesh.

THE BOOK OF THE PROPHET JEREMIAH.

 he words of Jeremiah the son of Hilkiyah, of the priests 1 that were in Anathoth in the land of Benjamin: To 2 whom the word of the LORD came in the days of Josiah 3 the son of Amon king of Judah, in the thirteenth year 4 of his reign. It came also in the days of Jehoiakim the son 5 of Josiah king of Judah, to the end of the eleventh year of 6 Zedekiah the son of Josiah king of Judah, to the carrying away 7 of Jerusalem captive in the fifth month. Then the word of the 8 LORD came to me, saying, Before I formed thee in embryo I 9 knew thee; and before thou wast born I sanctified thee, and 10 I ordained thee a prophet to the nations. Then said I, Ah, 11 Lord GOD! behold, I cannot speak: for I am a child. But the 12 LORD said to me, Say not, I am a child: for thou shalt go to 13 all that I shall send thee, and whatever I command thee thou 14 shalt speak. Be not afraid of their faces: for I am with thee 15 to deliver thee, saith the LORD. Then the LORD put forth 16 his hand, and touched my mouth. And the LORD said to me, Behold, I have put my words in thy mouth. See, I have this day set thee over the nations and over the kingdoms, to root out, and to pull down, and to destroy, and to throw down, to build, and to plant. Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, Jeremiah, What seest thou? And I said, I see a rod of an almond-tree. Then said the LORD to me, Thou hast well seen: for I will hasten my word to perform it. And the word of the LORD came to me the second time, saying, What seest thou? And I said, I see a seething pot; and its face is towards the north. Then the LORD said to me, Out of the north an evil shall break forth upon all the inhabitants of the land.
For lo, I will call all the families of the kingdoms of the north, saith the LORD; and they shall come, and they shall set every one his throne at the entrance of the gates of Jerusalem, and against all its walls around, and against all the cities of Judah.
And I will utter my judgments against them touching all their wickedness, who have forsaken me, and have burned incense to other gods, and worshiped the works of their own hands.

17 Thou therefore gird up thy loins, and arise, and speak to them all that I command thee: be not dismayed at their faces, lest I 18 confound thee before them. For behold, I have made thee this day a fortified city, and an iron pillar, and brazen walls against the whole land, against the kings of Judah, against her princes, 19 against her priests, and against the people of the land. And they shall fight against thee; but they shall not prevail against thee; for I am with thee, saith the LORD, to deliver thee.

2, 2 Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, Go, and cry in the ears of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the LORD; I remember thee, the kindness of thy youth, the love of thy espousals, when thou wentest after me in the wilderness, in 3 a land that was not sown. Israel was holiness to the LORD, and the first-fruits of his increase: all that devour him shall 4 offend; evil shall come upon them, saith the LORD. Hear ye the word of the LORD, O house of Jacob, and all the families of 5 the house of Israel: Thus saith the LORD, What iniquity have your fathers found in me, that they have gone far from me, 6 and have walked after vanity, and have become vain? Neither said they, Where is the LORD that brought us out of the land of Egypt, that led us through the wilderness, through a land of deserts and of pits, through a land of drouth, and of the shades of death, through a land that no man passed through, 7 and where no man dwelt? And I brought you into a plentiful country, to eat the fruit of it, and the goodness of it; but when ye entered, ye defiled my land, and made my heritage an 8 abomination. The priests said not, Where is the LORD? and they that handle the law knew me not: the pastors also transgressed against me, and the prophets prophesied by Baal, and 9 walked after things that do not profit. Wherefore I will yet plead with you, saith the LORD, and with your children's chil-10 dren will I plead. For pass over the isles of Chittim, and see; and send to Kedar, and consider diligently, and see if there is 11 such a thing. Hath a nation changed their gods, which are yet no gods? but my people have changed their glory for that 12 which doth not profit. Be astonished, O ye heavens, at this, and be horribly afraid, be ye very desolate, saith the LORD.
13 For my people have committed two evils; they have forsaken me the fountain of living waters, and hewed out for themselves cisterns, broken cisterns, that can hold no water. Is Israel a 14 servant? is he a home-born slave? why is he laid waste? The 15 young lions roared upon him, and yelled, and they made his land waste: his cities are burned without inhabitant. Also 16 the children of Noph and Tahapanes have broken the crown of thy head. Hast thou not procured this to thyself in that 17 thou hast forsaken the LORD thy God, when he led thee by the way? And now what hast thou to do in the way of Egypt, 18 to drink the waters of Sihor? or what hast thou to do in the way of Assyria, to drink the waters of the river? Thy own 19 wickedness shall correct thee, and thy backslidings shall reprove thee: know therefore and see that it is an evil thing and bitter, that thou hast forsaken the LORD thy God, and that my fear is not in thee, saith the Lord GOD of hosts. For of old 20 time I have broken thy yoke, and burst thy bands; and thou saidst, I will not transgress; when upon every high hill and under every green tree thou wanderest, playing the harlot. Yet 21 I had planted thee a noble vine, wholly a right seed: how then art thou turned into the degenerate plant of a strange vine to me? For though thou shalt wash thee with niter, and take 22 thee much soap, yet thy iniquity is marked before me, saith the Lord GOD. How canst thou say, I am not polluted, I have not 23 gone after Baalim? see thy way in the valley, know what thou hast done: thou art a swift dromedary traversing her ways; A 24 wild ass used to the wilderness, that snuffeth up the wind at her pleasure; in her occasion who can turn her away? all they that seek her will not weary themselves; in her month they shall find her. Withhold thy foot from being unshod, and thy 25 throat from thirst: but thou saidst, There is no hope: no; for I have loved strangers, and after them will I go. As the thief is 26 ashamed when he is found, so is the house of Israel ashamed: they, their kings, their princes, and their priests, and their prophets, Saying to a stock, Thou art my father; and to a 27 stone, Thou hast brought me forth: for they have turned their back to me, and not their face: but in the time of their trouble they will say, Arise, and save us. But where are thy gods that 28 thou hast made for thyself? let them arise, if they can save thee in the time of thy trouble: for according to the number of thy cities are thy gods, O Judah. Why will ye plead with me? 29 ye all have transgressed against me, saith the LORD. In vain 30 have I smitten your children; they have received no correction: your own sword hath devoured your prophets, like a destroying lion. O generation, see ye the word of the LORD. Have I 31 been a wilderness to Israel? a land of darkness? why say my 32 people, We are lords; we will come no more to thee? Can a maid forget her ornaments, or a bride her attire? yet my peo-33 ple have forgotten me days without number. Why trimmest thou thy way to seek love? therefore hast thou also taught the 34 wicked ones thy ways. Also in thy skirts is found the blood of the souls of the poor innocents: I have not found it by se-35 cret search, but upon all these. Yet thou sayest, Because I am innocent, surely his anger will turn from me. Behold, I will 36 plead with thee, because thou sayest, I have not sinned. Why dost thou go about so much to change thy way? thou also shalt 37 be ashamed of Egypt, as thou wast ashamed of Assyria. Yes, thou shalt go forth from him, and thy hands upon thy head: for the LORD hath rejected thy confidences, and thou shalt not prosper in them.

3 They say, If a man shall put away his wife, and she shall go from him, and become another man's, shall he return to her again? shall not that land be greatly polluted? but thou hast played the harlot with many lovers; yet return again to me, 2 saith the LORD. Lift up thy eyes to the high places, and see where thou hast not been lain with. In the ways hast thou sat for them, as the Arabian in the wilderness; and thou hast polluted the land with thy acts of lewdness, and with thy wicked-3 ness. Therefore the showers have been withheld, and there hath been no latter rain? and thou hadst a harlot's forehead, 4 thou refusedst to be ashamed. Wilt thou not from this time 5 cry to me, My father, thou art the guide of my youth? Will he retain his anger for ever? will he keep it to the end? Behold, thou hast spoken and done evil things as thou couldst.
6 The LORD said also to me in the days of Josiah the king, Hast thou seen that which backsliding Israel hath done? she hath gone up upon every high mountain, and under every green 7 tree, and there hath played the harlot. And I said after she had done all these things, Turn thou to me. But she returned 8 not. And her treacherous sister Judah saw it. And I saw, when for all the causes by which backsliding Israel committed adultery I had put her away, and given her a bill of di-voice; yet her treacherous sister Judah feared not, but went and played the harlot also. And it came to pass through the 9 lightness of her lewdness, that she defiled the land, and committed adultery with stones and with stocks. And yet for 10 all this her treacherous sister Judah hath not turned to me with her whole heart, but feignedly, saith the LORD. And the 11 LORD said to me, The backsliding Israel hath justified herself more than treacherous Judah. Go and proclaim these words 12 towards the north, and say, Return, thou backsliding Israel, saith the LORD; and I will not cause my anger to fall upon you: for I am merciful, saith the LORD, and I will not keep anger for ever. Only acknowledge thy iniquity, that thou hast 13 transgressed against the LORD thy God, and hast scattered thy ways to the strangers under every green tree, and ye have not obeyed my voice, saith the LORD. Turn, O backsliding 14 children, saith the LORD; for I am married to you: and I will take you one of a city, and two of a family, and I will bring you to Zion: And I will give you pastors according to my heart, 15 who shall feed you with knowledge and understanding. And it 16 shall come to pass, when ye shall be multiplied and increased in the land, in those days, saith the LORD, they shall say no more, The ark of the covenant of the LORD: neither shall it come to mind: neither shall they remember it; neither shall they visit it; neither shall that be done any more. At that 17 time they shall call Jerusalem the throne of the LORD; and all the nations shall be gathered to it, to the name of the LORD, to Jerusalem; neither shall they walk any more after the imagination of their evil heart. In those days the house of Judah 18 shall walk with the house of Israel, and they shall come together from the land of the north to the land that I have given for an inheritance to your fathers. But I said, How shall I 19 put thee among the children, and give thee a pleasant land, a goodly heritage of the hosts of nations? and I said, Thou shalt call me, My father; and shalt not turn away from me.

Surely as a wife treacherously departeth from her husband, so 20 have ye dealt treacherously with me, O house of Israel, saith the LORD. A voice was heard upon the high places, weeping 21 and supplications of the children of Israel: for they have perverted their way, and they have forgotten the LORD their God.
Return, ye backsliding children, and I will heal your backslid- 22 ings. Behold, we come to thee; for thou art the LORD our God.

23 Truly in vain is salvation hoped for from the hills, and from the multitude of mountains: truly in the LORD our God is the 24 salvation of Israel. For shame hath devoured the labor of our fathers from our youth; their flocks and their herds, their sons 25 and their daughters. We lie down in our shame, and our confusion covereth us: for we have sinned against the LORD our God, we and our fathers, from our youth even to this day, and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God.

4 If thou wilt return, O Israel, saith the LORD, return to me: and if thou wilt put away thy abominations out of my sight, 2 then shalt thou not remove. And thou shalt swear, The LORD liveth, in truth, in judgment, and in righteousness; and the nations shall bless themselves in him, and in him shall they 3 glory. For thus saith the LORD to the men of Judah and Jerusalem, Break up your fallow ground, and sow not among 4 thorns. Circumcise yourselves to the LORD, and take away the foreskins of your heart, ye men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem: lest my fury come forth like fire, and burn that 5 none can quench it, because of the evil of your doings. Declare ye in Judah, and publish in Jerusalem; and say, Blow ye the trumpet in the land: cry, Gather together, and say, Assemble yourselves, 6 and let us go into the fortified cities. Set up the standard towards Zion: retire, stay not: for I will bring evil 7 from the north, and a great destruction. The lion is come up from his thicket, and the destroyer of the Gentiles is on his way; he is gone forth from his place to make thy land desolate; thy cities shall be laid waste, without an inhabitant. For this gird you with sackcloth, lament and howl for the fierce anger of the LORD is not turned back 8 from us. And it shall come to pass at that day, saith the LORD, that the heart of the king shall perish, and the heart of the princes; and the priests shall be astonished, and the prophets shall wonder. Then 9 said I, Ah, Lord GOD! surely thou hast greatly deceived this people and Jerusalem, saying, Ye shall have peace; whereas the sword 10 reacheth to the soul. At that time shall it be said to this people and to Jerusalem, A dry wind of the high places in the wilderness towards the daughter of my people, not to fan, nor to cleanse, 11 Even a full wind from those places shall come to me: now also will I give sentence against them. Behold, he shall come up as clouds, and his chariots shall be as a whirlwind: his horses are swifter than eagles. Woe to us! for we are laid waste. O Jerusalem, wash thy heart from wickedness, that thou mayest be saved. How long shall thy vain thoughts lodge within thee? For a voice declareth from Dan, and publisheth affliction from mount Ephraim. Make ye mention to the nations; behold, publish against Jerusalem, that watchers come from a far country, and give out their voice against the cities of Judah. As keepers of a field they are against her on all sides; because she hath been rebellious against me, saith the LORD. Thy way and thy doings have procured these things to thee; this is thy wickedness, because it is bitter, because it reacheth to thy heart. My bowels, my bowels! I am pained at my very heart; my heart maketh a noise in me; I cannot hold my peace, because thou hast heard, O my soul, the sound of the trumpet, the alarm of war. Destruction upon destruction is cried; for the whole land is laid waste; suddenly are my tents ruined, and my curtains in a moment. How long shall I see the standard, and hear the sound of the trumpet? For my people are foolish, they have not known me; they are sottish children, and they have no understanding: they are wise to do evil, but to do good they have no knowledge. I beheld the earth, and lo, it was without form, and void; and the heavens, and they had no light. I beheld the mountains, and lo, they trembled, and all the hills moved lightly. I beheld, and lo, there was no man, and all the fowls of the heavens had fled. I beheld, and lo, the fruitful place was a wilderness, and all its cities were broken down at the presence of the LORD, and by his fierce anger. For thus hath the LORD said, The whole land shall be desolate; yet will I not make a full end. For this shall the earth mourn, and the heavens above be black: because I have spoken it, I have purposed it, and will not repent, neither will I turn back from it. The whole city shall flee for the noise of the horsemen and bowmen; they shall go into thickets, and climb up upon the rocks: every city shall be forsaken, and not a man dwell therein. And when thou art laid waste, what wilt thou do? Though thou clothest thyself with crimson, though thou deckest thee with ornaments of gold, though thou rendest thy face with painting, in vain shalt thou make thyself fair: thy lovers will despise thee, they will seek thy life. For I have heard a voice as of a woman in travail, and the anguish as of her that bringeth forth her first child, the voice of the daughter of Zion, that bewaileth herself, that spreadeth her hands, saying, Woe is me now! for my soul is wearied because of murderers.

5 Run ye to and fro through the streets of Jerusalem, and see now, and know, and seek in its broad places, if ye can find a man, if there is any that executeth judgment, that seeketh the 2 truth; and I will pardon it. And though they say, The LORD 3 liveth; surely they swear falsely. O LORD, are not thy eyes upon the truth? thou hast stricken them, but they have not grieved; thou hast consumed them, but they have refused to receive correction: they have made their faces harder than a 4 rock; they have refused to return. Therefore I said, Surely these are poor; they are foolish: for they know not the way of 5 the LORD, nor the judgment of their God. I will go to the great men, and will speak to them; for they have known the way of the LORD, and the judgment of their God: but these have al-6 together broken the yoke, and burst the bonds. Wherefore a lion from the forest shall slay them, and a wolf of the evenings shall spoil them, a leopard shall watch over their cities: every one that goeth out thence shall be torn in pieces: because their transgressions are many, and their backslidings are in-
7 creased. How shall I pardon thee for this? thy children have forsaken me, and sworn by them that are no gods: when I had fed them to the full, then they committed adultery, and as-8 sembled themselves by troops in the harlots' houses. They were as fed horses in the morning: every one neighed after his 9 neighbor's wife. Shall I not visit for these things? saith the LORD: and shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as 10 this? Go ye up upon her walls, and destroy; but make not a full end: take away her battlements; for they are not the 11 LORD'S. For the house of Israel and the house of Judah have dealt very treacherously against me, saith the LORD. They have belied the LORD, and said, It is not he; neither shall evil 12 come upon us; neither shall we see sword nor famine: And the prophets shall become wind, and the word is not in them: 13 thus shall it be done to them. Wherefore thus saith the LORD God of hosts, Because ye speak this word, Behold, I will make my words in thy mouth fire, and this people wood, and it shall 14 devour them. Lo, I will bring a nation upon you from far, O house of Israel, saith the LORD: it is a mighty nation, it is an ancient nation, a nation whose language thou knowest not, neither understandest what they say. Their quiver is as an open sepulcher, they are all mighty men. And they shall eat up thy harvest, and thy bread, which thy sons and thy daughters should eat: they shall eat up thy flocks and thy herds: they shall eat up thy vines and thy fig-trees: they shall impoverish with the sword thy fortified cities, in which thou hast trusted. Nevertheless in those days, saith the LORD, I will not make a full end with you. And it shall come to pass, when ye shall say, Why doeth the LORD our God all these things to us? then shalt thou answer them, As ye have forsaken me, and served strange gods in your land, so shall ye serve strangers in a land that is not yours. Declare this in the house of Jacob, and publish it in Judah, saying, Hear now this, O foolish people, and without understanding; who have eyes, and see not; who have ears, and hear not: Fear ye not me? saith the LORD: will ye not tremble at my presence, who have placed the sand for the bound of the sea by a perpetual decree, that it cannot pass it: and though its waves toss themselves, yet can they not prevail; though they roar, yet can they not pass over it? But this people have a revolting and a rebellious heart; they have revolted and gone. Neither say they in their heart, Let us now fear the LORD our God, that giveth rain, both the former and the latter, in its season: he reserveth to us the appointed weeks of harvest. Your iniquities have turned away these things, and your sins have withheld good things from you. For among my people are found wicked men: they lay wait, as he that setteth snares; they set a trap, they catch men. As a cage is full of birds, so are their houses full of deceit: therefore they have become great, and have grown rich. They have become fat, they shine: yes, they surpass the deeds of the wicked: they judge not the cause, the cause of the fatherless, yet they prosper; and the right of the needy do they not judge. Shall I not visit for these things? saith the LORD: shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this? A wonderful and horrible thing is committed in the land; The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof?

O ye children of Benjamin, gather yourselves to flee out of 6 the midst of Jerusalem, and blow the trumpet in Tekoa, and set up a sign of fire in Beth-haccerem: for evil appeareth out 2 of the north, and great destruction. I have likened the daugh-3 ter of Zion to a comely and delicate woman. The shepherds with their flocks shall come to her; they shall pitch their tents against her on every side; they shall feed every one in his 4 place. Prepare ye war against her; arise, and let us go up at noon. Woe to us! for the day departeth, for the shadows of 5 the evening are lengthened. Arise, and let us go by night, and 6 let us destroy her palaces. For thus hath the LORD of hosts said, Hew ye down trees, and cast a mount against Jerusalem: this is the city to be visited; she is wholly oppression in the 7 midst of her. As a fountain casteth out her waters, so she casteth out her wickedness: violence and devastation is heard 8 in her; before me continually are grief and wounds. Be thou instructed, O Jerusalem, lest my soul depart from thee; lest 9 I make thee desolate, a land not inhabited. Thus saith the LORD of hosts, They shall thoroughly glean the remnant of Israel as a vine: turn back thy hand as a grape-gatherer into the 10 baskets. To whom shall I speak, and give warning, that they may hear? Behold, their ear is uncircumcised, and they cannot hearken: behold, the word of the LORD is to them a reproach; 11 they have no delight in it. Therefore I am full of the fury of the LORD; I am weary with holding in: I will pour it out upon the children abroad, and upon the assembly of young men together: for even the husband with the wife shall be taken, the 12 aged with him that is full of days. And their houses shall be turned to others, with their fields and wives together: for I will stretch out my hand upon the inhabitants of the land, saith the 13 LORD. For from the least of them even to the greatest of them every one is given to covetousness; and from the prophet even 14 to the priest every one dealeth falsely. They have healed also the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, saying, Peace, 15 peace; when there is no peace. Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? no, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush: therefore they shall fall among them that fall: at the time that I visit them they shall be cast down, 16 saith the LORD. Thus saith the LORD, Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk in it, and ye shall find rest for your souls. But they said,

We will not walk in it. Also I set watchmen over you, saying, 17 Hearken to the sound of the trumpet. But they said, We will not hearken. Therefore hear, ye nations, and know, O congrega- 18 tion, what is among them. Hear, O earth: behold, I will 19 bring evil upon this people, even the fruit of their thoughts, because they have not hearkened to my words, nor to my law, but have rejected it. To what purpose cometh there to me 20 incense from Sheba, and the sweet cane from a distant country? your burnt-offerings are not acceptable, nor your sacri- 21 fices sweet to me. Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will lay stumbling-blocks before this people, and the fathers and the sons together shall fall upon them; the neighbor and his friend shall perish. Thus saith the LORD, Behold, a peo- 22 ple cometh from the north country, and a great nation shall be raised from the sides of the earth. They shall lay hold on 23 bow and spear; they are cruel, and have no mercy; their voice roareth like the sea; and they ride upon horses, set in array as men for war against thee, O daughter of Zion. We have 24 heard the fame of it: our hands become feeble: anguish hath taken hold of us, and pain, as of a woman in travail. Go not 25 forth into the field, nor walk by the way; for the sword of the enemy and fear is on every side. O daughter of my people, 26 gird thee with sackcloth, and wallow thyself in ashes: make thee mourning, as for an only son, most bitter lamentation: for the spoiler shall suddenly come upon us. I have set thee for a 27 tower and a fortress among my people, that thou mayest know and try their way. They are all grievous revolters, walking 28 with slanders: they are brass and iron; they are all corrupters.
The bellows is burned, the lead is consumed by the fire; the 29 founder melteth in vain: for the wicked are not plucked away.
Reprobate silver shall men call them, because the LORD hath 30 rejected them.

The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, 7 Stand in the gate of the LORD'S house, and proclaim there this 2 word, and say, Hear the word of the LORD, all ye of Judah, that enter in at these gates to worship the LORD. Thus saith the 3 LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Amend your ways and your doings, and I will cause you to dwell in this place. Trust ye 4 not in lying words, saying, The temple of the LORD, The temple of the LORD, The temple of the LORD, are these. For if ye 5 thoroughly amend your ways and your doings; if ye thoroughly 6 execute judgment between a man and his neighbor; If ye oppress not the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, and shed not innocent blood in this place, neither walk after other gods 7 to your hurt: Then will I cause you to dwell in this place, in the land that I gave to your fathers, for ever and ever. Behold, ye trust in lying words, that cannot profit. Will ye steal, murder, and commit adultery, and swear falsely, and burn incense to Baal, and walk after other gods whom ye know not;

10 And come and stand before me in this house, which is called by my name, and say, We are delivered to do all these abominations? Is this house, which is called by my name, become a den of robbers in your eyes? Behold, even I have seen it, saith the LORD. But go ye now to my place which was in Shiloh, where I set my name at the first, and see what I did to it for the wickedness of my people Israel. And now, because ye have done all these works, saith the LORD, and I spoke to you, rising early and speaking, but ye heard not; and I called you, but 14 ye answered not; Therefore will I do to this house, which is called by my name, in which ye trust, and to the place which I gave to you and to your fathers, as I have done to Shiloh.
15 And I will cast you out of my sight, as I have cast out all your brethren, even the whole seed of Ephraim. Therefore pray not thou for this people, neither lift up cry nor prayer for them, neither make intercession to me: for I will not hear thee. Seest thou not what they do in the cities of Judah and in the streets 18 of Jerusalem? The children gather wood, and the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead dough, to make cakes to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink-offerings to other gods, that they may provoke me to anger. Do they provoke me to anger? saith the LORD: do they not provoke themselves to the confusion of their own faces? Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, my anger and my fury shall be poured out upon this place, upon man, and upon beast, and upon the trees of the field, and upon the fruit of the ground; and it shall burn, and shall not be quenched. Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Put your burnt-offerings to your sacrifices, and 22 eat flesh. For I spoke not to your fathers, nor commanded them in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, 23 concerning burnt-offerings or sacrifices: But this thing I commanded them, saying, Obey my voice, and I will be your God, and ye shall be my people: and walk ye in all the ways that I have commanded you, that it may be well to you. But they 24 hearkened not, nor inclined their ear, but walked in the counsels and in the imagination of their evil heart, and went backward, and not forward. Since the day that your fathers came 25 forth from the land of Egypt to this day I have even sent to you all my servants the prophets, daily rising early and sending them: Yet they hearkened not to me, nor inclined their ear, 26 but hardened their neck: they did worse than their fathers. Therefore thou shalt speak all these words to them; but they 27 will not hearken to thee: thou shalt also call to them; but they will not answer thee. But thou shalt say to them, This is a 28 nation that obeyeth not the voice of the LORD their God, nor receiveth correction: truth hath perished, and is cut off from their mouth. Cut off thy hair, O Jerusalem, and cast it away, 29 and take up a lamentation on high places; for the LORD hath rejected and forsaken the generation of his wrath. For the 30 children of Judah have done evil in my sight, saith the LORD: they have set their abominations in the house which is called by my name, to pollute it. And they have built the high places 31 of Tophet, which is in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to burn their sons and their daughters in the fire; which I commanded them not, neither came it into my heart. Therefore, behold, 32 the days come, saith the LORD, that it shall no more be called Tophet, nor the valley of the son of Hinnom, but the valley of slaughter: for they shall bury in Tophet, till there shall be no 33 place. And the carcasses of this people shall be food for the fowls of heaven, and for the beasts of the earth; and none shall frighten them away. Then will I cause to cease from the cities 34 of Judah, and from the streets of Jerusalem, the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride: for the land shall be desolate.

At that time, saith the LORD, they shall bring the bones of 8 the kings of Judah, and the bones of his princes, and the bones of the priests, and the bones of the prophets, and the bones of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, out of their graves: And they 2 shall spread them before the sun, and the moon, and all the host of heaven, whom they have loved, and whom they have served, and after whom they have walked, and whom they have sought, and whom they have worshiped: they shall not be gathered, nor be buried; they shall be for dung upon the face 3 of the earth. And death shall be chosen rather than life by all the residue of them that remain of this evil family, who remain in all the places whither I have driven them, saith the LORD of 4 hosts. Moreover, thou shalt say to them, Thus saith the LORD; Shall they fall, and not arise? shall he turn away, and not re-5 turn? Why then hath this people of Jerusalem slidden back by a perpetual backsliding? they hold fast deceit, they refuse 6 to return. I hearkened and heard, but they spoke not aright: no man repented of his wickedness, saying, What have I done? every one turned to his course, as the horse rusheth to the 7 battle. Yes, the stork in the heaven knoweth her appointed times; and the turtle and the crane and the swallow observe the time of their coming; but my people know not the judg-8 ment of the LORD. How do ye say, We are wise, and the law of the LORD is with us? Lo, certainly in vain he hath made it; 9 the pen of the scribes is in vain. The wise men are ashamed, they are dismayed and taken: lo, they have rejected the word 10 of the LORD; and what wisdom is in them? Therefore will I give their wives to others, and their fields to them that shall inherit them: for every one from the least even to the greatest is given to covetousness, from the prophet even to the priest 11 every one dealeth falsely. For they have healed the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, saying, Peace, peace; when 12 there is no peace. Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? no, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush: therefore shall they fall among them that fall: in the time of their visitation they shall be cast down, 13 saith the LORD. I will surely consume them, saith the LORD: there shall be no grapes on the vine, nor figs on the fig-tree, and the leaf shall fade; and the things that I have given to 14 them shall pass away from them. Why do we sit still? assemble yourselves, and let us enter into the fortified cities, and let us be silent there: for the LORD our God hath put us to silence, and given us water of gall to drink, because we have sinned 15 against the LORD. We looked for peace, but no good came; 16 and for a time of health, and behold, trouble! The snorting of his horses was heard from Dan: the whole land trembled at the sound of the neighing of his strong ones; for they have come, and have devoured the land, and all that is in it; the city, and those that dwell therein. For behold, I will send serpents, cockatrices, among you, which will not be charmed, and they shall bite you, saith the LORD. When I would comfort myself against sorrow, my heart is faint in me. Behold the voice of the cry of the daughter of my people because of them that dwell in a distant country: Is not the LORD in Zion? is not her king in her? Why have they provoked me to anger with their graven images, and with strange vanities? The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved. For the hurt of the daughter of my people am I hurt; I am black; astonishment hath taken hold on me. Is there no balm in Gilead: is there no physician there? why then is not the health of the daughter of my people recovered.

Oh that my head were waters, and my eyes a fountain of tears, that I might weep day and night for the slain of the daughter of my people! Oh that I had in the wilderness a lodging-place of way-faring men; that I might leave my people, and go from them! for they are all adulterers, an assembly of treacherous men. And they bend their tongues like their bow for lies: but they are not valiant for the truth upon the earth; for they proceed from evil to evil, and they know not me, saith the LORD. Take ye heed every one of his neighbor, and trust ye not in any brother: for every brother will utterly supplant, and every neighbor will walk with slanders. And they will deceive every one his neighbor, and will not speak the truth: they have taught their tongue to speak lies, and weary themselves to commit iniquity. Thy habitation is in the midst of deceit; through deceit they refuse to know me, saith the LORD. Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, I will melt them, and try them; for how shall I do for the daughter of my people? Their tongue is as an arrow shot out; it speaketh deceit: one speaketh peaceably to his neighbor with his mouth, but in heart he layeth his wait. Shall I not visit them for these things? saith the LORD: shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this? For the mountains will I take up a weeping and wailing, and for the habitations of the wilderness a lamentation, because they are burned up, so that none can pass through them; neither can men hear the voice of the cattle; both the fowl of the heavens and the beast have 11 fled; they are gone. And I will make Jerusalem heaps, and a 12 den of dragons; and I will make the cities of Judah desolate, 13 without an inhabitant. Who is the wise man that may understand this? and who is he to whom the mouth of the LORD 14 hath spoken, that he may declare it, for what the land per-isheth and is burned up like a wilderness, that none passeth 15 through? And the LORD saith, Because they have forsaken my law which I set before them, and have not obeyed my voice, 16 neither walked therein; But have walked after the imagination of their own heart, and after Baalim, which their fathers 17 taught them: Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will feed them, even this people, with worm-18 wood, and give them water of gall to drink. I will scatter them also among the heathen, whom neither they nor their fathers have known: and I will send a sword after them, till I have 19 consumed them. Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Consider ye, and call for the mourning women, that they may come; and 20 send for skillful women, that they may come: And let them make haste, and take up a wailing for us, that our eyes may run down with tears, and our eyelids gush out with waters.

21 For a voice of wailing is heard out of Zion, How are we laid waste! we are greatly confounded, because we have forsaken 22 the land, because our dwellings have cast us out. Yet hear the word of the LORD, O ye women, and let your ear receive the word of his mouth, and teach your daughters wailing, and 23 every one her neighbor lamentation. For death hath come up into our windows, and hath entered into our palaces, to cut off the children from without, and the young men from the 24 streets. Speak, Thus saith the LORD, Even the carcasses of men shall fall as dung upon the open field, and as the hand-25 ful after the harvest-man, and none shall gather them. Thus saith the LORD, Let not the wise man glory in his wisdom, neither let the mighty man glory in his might, let not the rich man 26 glory in his riches: But let him that glorieth, glory in this, that he understandeth and knoweth me, that I am the LORD who exercise loving-kindness, judgment, and righteousness, in the earth: for in these things I delight, saith the LORD. Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will punish all them who 27 are circumcised with the uncircumcised; Egypt, and Judah, and Edom, and the children of Ammon, and Moab, and all that are in the utmost corners, that dwell in the wilderness: for all these nations are uncircumcised, and all the house of Israel are uncircumcised in the heart.

Hear ye the word which the LORD speaketh to you, O house 10 of Israel: Thus saith the LORD, Learn not the way of the hea- 2 then, and be not dismayed at the signs of heaven; for the heathen are dismayed at them. For the customs of the people 3 are vain: for one cutteth a tree out of the forest, the work of the hands of the workman, with the ax. They deck it with 4 silver and with gold; they fasten it with nails and with hammers, that it may not move. They are upright as the palm 5 tree, but speak not: they must needs be borne, because they cannot go. Be not afraid of them; for they cannot do evil, neither also is it in them to do good. Forasmuch as there is none 6 like to thee, O LORD; thou art great, and thy name is great in might. Who would not fear thee, O King of nations? for to 7 thee doth it appertain: forasmuch as among all the wise men of the nations, and in all their kingdoms, there is none like to thee. But they are altogether brutish and foolish: the stock 8 is a doctrine of vanities. Silver spread into plates is brought 9 from Tarshish, and gold from Uphaz, the work of the workman, and of the hands of the founder: blue and purple is their clothing: they are all the work of skillful men. But the LORD is 10 the true God, he is the living God, and an everlasting king: at his wrath the earth shall tremble, and the nations shall not be able to abide his indignation. Thus shall ye say to them, The 11 gods that have not made the heavens and the earth, even they shall perish from the earth, and from under these heavens.
He hath made the earth by his power, he hath established the 12 world by his wisdom, and hath stretched out the heavens by his discretion. When he uttereth his voice, there is a multi- 13 tude of waters in the heavens, and he causeth the vapors to ascend from the ends of the earth; he maketh lightnings with rain, and bringeth forth the wind out of his treasures. Every 14 man is brutish in his knowledge: every founder is confounded by the graven image: for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them. They are vanity, and the work of 15 errors: in the time of their visitation they shall perish. The 16 portion of Jacob is not like them: for he is the former of all things; and Israel is the rod of his inheritance: The LORD of 17 hosts is his name. Gather up thy wares out of the land, O 18 inhabitant of the fortress. For thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will sling out the inhabitants of the land at this once, and 19 will distress them that they may find it so. Woe is me for my hurt! my wound is grievous: but I said, Truly this is a grief, 20 and I must bear it. My tabernacle is laid waste, and all my cords are broken: my children are gone from me, and they are not: there is none to stretch forth my tent any more, and to 21 set up my curtains. For the pastors have become brutish, and have not sought the LORD: therefore they shall not prosper, 22 and all their flocks shall be scattered. Behold, the sound of the noise is come, and a great commotion from the north country, to make the cities of Judah desolate, and a den of dragons.

23 O LORD, I know that the way of man is not in himself: it is 24 not in man that walketh to direct his steps. O LORD, correct me, but with judgment; not in thy anger, lest thou bring me to 25 nothing. Pour out thy fury upon the heathen that know thee not, and upon the families that call not on thy name: for they have eaten up Jacob, and devoured him, and consumed him, and have made his habitation desolate.

11 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, 2 Hear ye the words of this covenant, and speak to the men of 3 Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem; And say thou to them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel; Cursed be the man 4 that obeyeth not the words of this covenant, Which I commanded your fathers in the day that I brought them forth from the land of Egypt, from the iron furnace, saying, Obey my voice, and do them, according to all which I command you: so shall ye 5 be my people, and I will be your God: That I may perform the oath which I have sworn to your fathers, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey, as it is this day. Then answered 6 I, and said, So be it, O LORD. Then the LORD said to me, Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, saying, Hear ye the words of this covenant, and do 7 them. For I earnestly protested to your fathers in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, even to this day, rising 8 early and protesting, saying, Obey my voice. Yet they obeyed not, nor inclined their ear, but walked every one in the imagination of their evil heart: therefore I will bring upon them all the words of this covenant, which I commanded them to do; but they did them not. And the LORD said to me, A conspiracy is 9 found among the men of Judah, and among the inhabitants of Jerusalem. They have turned back to the iniquities of their 10 forefathers, who refused to hear my words; and they went after other gods to serve them: the house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken my covenant which I made with their fathers. Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil 11 upon them which they shall not be able to escape; and though they shall cry to me, I will not hearken to them. Then shall 12 the cities of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem go, and cry to the gods to which they offer incense: but they shall not save them at all in the time of their trouble. For according to the 13 number of thy cities were thy gods, O Judah; and according to the number of the streets of Jerusalem have ye set up altars to that shameful thing, even altars to burn incense to Baal.

Therefore pray not thou for this people, neither lift up a cry or 14 prayer for them: for I will not hear them in the time when they cry to me for their trouble. What hath my beloved to do in 15 my house, seeing she hath wrought lewdness with many; and the holy flesh is passed from thee? when thou doest evil, then thou rejoicest. The LORD called thy name, A green olive tree, 16 fair, and of goodly fruit: with the noise of a great tumult he hath kindled fire upon it, and the branches of it are broken.
For the LORD of hosts, that planted thee, hath pronounced evil 17 against thee, for the evil of the house of Israel and of the house of Judah, which they have done against themselves to provoke me to anger in offering incense to Baal. And the LORD hath 18 given me knowledge of it, and I know it: then thou showedst me their doings. But I was like a lamb or an ox that is brought 19 to the slaughter; and I knew not that they had devised devices against me, saying, Let us destroy the tree with its fruit, and let us cut him off from the land of the living, that his name may be no more remembered. But, O LORD of hosts, that 20 judgest righteously, that triest the reins and the heart, let me see thy vengeance on them: for to thee have I revealed my cause. Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning the men of 21 Anathoth, that seek thy life, saying, Prophecy not in the name of the LORD, that thou die not by our hand: Therefore thus 22 saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, I will punish them: the young men shall die by the sword; their sons and their daughters

23 shall die by famine: And there shall be no remnant of them: for I will bring evil upon the men of Anathoth, even the year of their visitation.

12 Righteous art thou, O LORD, when I plead with thee: yet let me speak with thee of thy judgments: Why doth the way of the wicked prosper? why are they all happy that deal very treacherously? Thou hast planted them, yes, they have taken root: they grow, yes, they bring forth fruit: thou art near in their mouth, and far from their reins. But thou, O LORD, knowest me: thou hast seen me, and tried my heart towards thee: pull them out like sheep for the slaughter, and prepare them for the day of slaughter. How long shall the land mourn, and the herbs of every field wither, for the wickedness of them that dwell therein? the beasts are consumed, and the birds; because they said, He will not see our last end. If thou hast run with the footmen, and they have wearied thee, then how canst thou contend with horses? and if in the land of peace, in which thou hast trusted, they wearied thee, then how wilt thou do in the swelling of Jordan? For even thy brethren, and the house of thy father, even they have dealt treacherously with thee; yes, they have called a multitude after thee: believe them not, though they speak fair words to thee. I have forsaken my house, I have left my heritage; I have given the dearly beloved of my soul into the hand of her enemies. My heritage is to me as a lion in the forest; it crieth out against me: therefore have I hated it. My heritage is to me as a speckled bird, the birds around are against her; come ye, assemble all the beasts of the field, come to devour. Many pastors have destroyed my vineyard, they have trodden my portion under foot, they have made my pleasant portion a desolate wilderness. They have made it desolate, and being desolate it mourneth to me; the whole land is made desolate, because no man layeth it to heart. The spoilers have come upon all high places through the wilderness: for the sword of the LORD shall devour from the one end of the land even to the other end of the land: no flesh shall have peace. They have sown wheat, but shall reap thorns: they have put themselves to pain, but shall not profit; and they shall be ashamed of your revenues because of the fierce anger of the LORD. Thus saith the LORD against all my evil neighbors, that touch the inheritance which I have caused my people Israel to inherit; Behold, I will pluck them out of their land, and pluck out the house of Judah from among them. And it shall come to pass, after I have plucked them out I will return, and have compassion on them, and will bring them again, every man to his heritage, and every man to his land. And it shall come to pass, if they will diligently learn the ways of my people, to swear by my name, The LORD liveth; as they taught my people to swear by Baal; then shall they be built in the midst of my people. But if they will not obey, I will utterly pluck up and destroy that nation, saith the LORD.

Thus saith the LORD to me, Go and get for thee a linen girdle, and put it upon thy loins, and put it not in water. So I procured a girdle according to the word of the LORD, and put it on my loins. And the word of the LORD came to me the second time, saying, Take the girdle that thou hast procured, which is upon thy loins, and arise, go to Euphrates, and hide it there in a hole of the rock. So I went, and hid it by Euphrates, as the LORD commanded me. And it came to pass after many days, that the LORD said to me, Arise, go to Euphrates, and take the girdle from thence, which I commanded thee to hide there. Then I went to Euphrates, and digged, and took the girdle from the place where I had hid it: and behold, the girdle was marred, it was profitable for nothing. Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying, Thus saith the LORD, After this manner will I mar the pride of Judah, and the great pride of Jerusalem. This evil people, who refuse to hear my words, who walk in the imagination of their heart, and walk after other gods, to serve them, and to worship them, shall even be as this girdle, which is good for nothing. For as the girdle cleaveth to the loins of a man, so have I caused to cleave to me the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah, saith the LORD; that they might be to me for a people, and for a name, and for a praise, and for a glory: but they would not hear. Therefore thou shalt speak to them this word; Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Every bottle shall be filled with wine: and they shall say to thee, Do we not certainly know that every bottle shall be filled with wine? Then shalt thou say to them, Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will fill all the inhabitants of this land, even the kings that sit upon David's throne, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the inhabi-

14 tants of Jerusalem, with drunkenness. And I will dash them one against another, even the fathers and the sons together, saith the LORD: I will not pity, nor spare, nor have mercy, but 15 destroy them. Hear ye, and give ear; be not proud: for the 16 LORD hath spoken. Give glory to the LORD your God, before he shall cause darkness, and before your feet stumble upon the dark mountains, and while ye look for light, he shall turn 17 it into the shades of death, and make it gross darkness. But if ye will not hear it, my soul shall weep in secret places for your pride; and my eye shall weep bitterly, and run down with tears, 18 because the LORD'S flock is carried away captive. Say to the king and to the queen, Humble yourselves, sit down: for your principalities shall come down, even the crown of your glory.
19 The cities of the south shall be shut up, and none shall open them; Judah shall be carried away captive all of it, it shall 20 be wholly carried away captive. Lift up your eyes, and behold them that come from the north: where is the flock that 21 was given thee, thy beautiful flock? What wilt thou say when he shall punish thee? for thou hast taught them to be captains, and as chief over thee: shall not sorrows take thee, as 22 a woman in travail? And if thou shalt say in thy heart, Why come these things upon me? For the greatness of thy iniquity 23 are thy skirts uncovered, and thy heels made bare. Can the Ethiopian change his skin, or the leopard his spots? then may 24 ye also do good, that are accustomed to do evil. Therefore will I scatter them as the stubble that passeth away by the 25 wind of the wilderness. This is thy lot, the portion of thy measures from me, saith the LORD; because thou hast forgotten 26 me, and trusted in falsehood. Therefore will I uncover thy 27 skirts upon thy face, that thy shame may appear. I have seen thy adulteries, and thy neighings, the enormity of thy lewd-ness, and thy abominations on the hills in the fields. Woe to thee O Jerusalem! wilt thou not be made clean? when shall it once be?

14 The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah concerning 2 the dearth. Judah mourneth, and her gates languish; they are black to the ground; and the cry of Jerusalem is gone up.
3 And their nobles have sent their little ones to the waters: they came to the pits, and found no water; they returned with their vessels empty; they were ashamed and confounded, and covered their heads. Because the ground is chapt, for there was 4 no rain on the earth, the plowmen were ashamed, they covered their heads. Yes, the hind also calved in the field, and forsook 5 it, because there was no grass. And the wild asses stood in 6 the high places, they snuffed up the wind like dragons; their eyes failed, because there was no grass. O LORD, though our 7 iniquities testify against us, do thou it for thy name's sake: for our backslidings are many; we have sinned against thee. O 8 the hope of Israel, his Savior in time of trouble, why shouldst thou be as a stranger in the land, and as a way-faring man 9 that turneth aside to tarry for a night? Why shouldst thou be as a man astonished, as a mighty man that cannot save? yet 9 thou, O LORD, art in the midst of us, and we are called by thy name; leave us not. Thus saith the LORD to this people, Thus 10 have they loved to wander, they have not restrained their feet, therefore the LORD doth not accept them; he will now remember their iniquity, and visit their sins. Then said the LORD to 11 me, Pray not for this people for their good. When they fast, I 12 will not hear their cry; and when they offer burnt-offering and an oblation, I will not accept them: but I will consume them by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence. Then 13 said I, Ah Lord GOD! behold, the prophets say to them, Ye shall not see the sword, neither shall ye have famine; but I will give you assured peace in this place. Then the LORD said to me, 14 The prophets prophesy lies in my name: I have not sent them, neither have I commanded them, neither spoken to them: they prophesy to you a false vision and divination, and a thing of 15 naught, and the deceit of their heart. Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning the prophets that prophesy in my name, and I sent them not, yet they say, Sword and famine shall not 16 be in this land; By sword and famine shall those prophets be consumed. And the people to whom they prophesy shall be 16 cast out in the streets of Jerusalem, because of the famine, and the sword; and they shall have none to bury them, them, their wives, nor their sons, nor their daughters: for I will pour their wickedness upon them. Therefore thou shalt say this word to 17 them; Let my eyes run down with tears night and day, and let them not cease: for the virgin daughter of my people is broken with a great breach, with a very grievous blow. If I go forth 18 into the field, then behold the slain with the sword! and if I enter into the city, then behold them that are sick with famine! yes, both the prophet and the priest go about into a land that they know not. Hast thou utterly rejected Judah? hath thy soul loathed Zion? Why hast thou smitten us, and there is no healing for us? we looked for peace, and there is no good; and for the time of healing, and behold trouble! We acknowledge, O LORD, our wickedness, and the iniquity of our fathers; for we have sinned against thee. Do not abhor us, for thy name's sake; do not disgrace the throne of thy glory: remember, break not thy covenant with us. Are there any among the vanities of the Gentiles that can cause rain? or can the heavens give showers? art not thou he, O LORD our God? therefore we will wait upon thee: for thou hast made all these things.

15 Then said the LORD to me, Though Moses and Samuel stood before me, yet my mind could not be towards this people: cast them out of my sight, and let them go forth. And it shall come to pass, if they say to thee, Whither shall we go forth? then thou shalt tell them, Thus saith the LORD; Such as are for death, to death; and such as are for the sword, to the sword; and such as are for the famine, to the famine; and such as are for the captivity, to the captivity. And I will appoint over them four kinds, saith the LORD: the sword to slay, and the dogs to tear, and the fowls of the heaven, and the beasts of the earth, to devour and destroy. And I will cause them to be removed into all kingdoms of the earth, because of Manasseh the son of Hezekiah king of Judah, for that which he did in Jerusalem. For who shall have pity upon thee, O Jerusalem? or who shall bemoan thee? or who shall go aside to ask concerning thy welfare? Thou hast forsaken me, saith the LORD, thou art gone backward: therefore will I stretch out my hand against thee, and destroy thee; I am weary with repenting. And I will fan them with a fan in the gates of the land; I will bereave them of children, I will destroy my people, since they return not from their ways. Their widows are multiplied to me above the sand of the seas: I have brought upon them against the mother of the young men a spoiler at noon-day: I have caused him to fall upon it suddenly, and terrors upon the city. She that hath borne seven languisheth: she hath resigned her breath; her sun is gone down while it was yet day: she hath been ashamed and confounded: and the residue of them will I deliver to the sword before their enemies, saith the LORD. Woe is me, my mother, that thou hast borne me a man of strife and a man of contention to the whole earth! I have neither lent on usury, nor have men lent to me on usury; yet every one of them doth curse me. The LORD said, Verily it shall be well with thy remnant; verily I will cause the enemy to treat thee well in the time of evil and in the time of affliction. Shall iron break the northern iron and the steel? Thy substance and thy treasures will I give to the spoil without price, and that for all thy sins, even in all thy borders. And I will make thee to pass with thy enemies into a land which thou knowest not: for a fire is kindled in my anger, which shall burn upon you. O LORD, thou knowest: remember me, and visit me, and avenge me of my persecutors; take me not away in thy long-suffering: know that for thy sake I have suffered rebuke. Thy words were found, and I did eat them; and thy word was to me the joy and rejoicing of my heart: for I am called by thy name, O LORD God of hosts. I sat not in the assembly of the mockers, nor rejoiced; I sat alone because of thy hand: for thou hast filled me with indignation. Why is my pain perpetual, and my wound incurable, which refuseth to be healed? wilt thou be altogether to me as a liar, and as waters that fail? Therefore thus saith the LORD, If thou shalt return, then will I bring thee again, and thou shalt stand before me: and if thou shalt separate the precious from the vile, thou shalt be as my mouth: let them return to thee; but return not thou to them. And I will make thee to this people a fortified brazen wall: and they shall fight against thee, but they shall not prevail against thee: for I am with thee to save thee and to deliver thee, saith the LORD. And I will deliver thee from the hand of the wicked, and I will redeem thee from the hand of the terrible.

The word of the LORD came also to me, saying, Thou shalt not take thee a wife, neither shalt thou have sons nor daughters in this place. For thus saith the LORD concerning the sons and concerning the daughters that are born in this place, and concerning their mothers that bore them, and concerning their fathers that begat them in this land; They shall die by grievous deaths; they shall not be lamented; neither shall they be buried; but they shall be as dung upon the face of the earth: and they shall be consumed by the sword, and by famine; and their carcasses shall be food for the fowls of heaven, and for the 5 beasts of the earth. For thus saith the LORD, Enter not into the house of mourning, neither go to lament nor bemoan them: for I have taken away my peace from this people, saith the 6 LORD, even loving-kindness and mercies. Both the great and the small shall die in this land: they shall not be buried, neither shall men lament for them, nor cut themselves, nor make 7 themselves bald for them: Neither shall men tear themselves for them in mourning, to comfort them for the dead; neither shall men give them the cup of consolation to drink for their 8 father or for their mother. Also thou shalt not go into the 9 house of feasting, to sit with them to eat and to drink. For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will cause to cease out of this place in your eyes, and in your days, the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the 10 bridegroom, and the voice of the bride. And it shall come to pass, when thou shalt show this people all these words, and they shall say to thee, Why hath the LORD pronounced all this great evil against us? or what is our iniquity? or what is our 11 sin that we have committed against the LORD our God? Then shalt thou say to them, Because your fathers have forsaken me, saith the LORD, and have walked after other gods, and have served them, and have worshiped them, and have forsaken me, 12 and have not kept my law; And ye have done worse than your fathers; for, behold, ye walk every one after the imagination of 13 his evil heart, that they may not hearken to me: Therefore will I cast you out of this land into a land that ye know not, neither ye nor your fathers; and there shall ye serve other gods 14 day and night; where I will not show you favor. Therefore behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that it shall no more be said, The LORD liveth, that brought the children of Israel out 15 of the land of Egypt; But, The LORD liveth, that brought the children of Israel from the land of the north, and from all the lands whither he had driven them: and I will bring them again 16 into their land that I gave to their fathers. Behold, I will send for many fishers, saith the LORD, and they shall fish them; and afterwards will I send for many hunters, and they shall hunt them from every mountain, and from every hill, and out of the 17 holes of the rocks. For my eyes are upon all their ways: they are not hid from my face, neither is their iniquity hid from my eyes. And first I will recompense their iniquity and their sin 18 double; because they have defiled my land, they have filled my inheritance with the carcasses of their detestable and abom- 19 inable things. O LORD, my strength and my fortress, and my refuge in the day of affliction, the Gentiles shall come to thee from the ends of the earth, and shall say, Surely our fathers have inherited lies, vanity, and things in which there is no profit. Shall a man make gods to himself, and they are no 20 gods? Therefore behold, I will this once cause them to know, 21 I will cause them to know my hand and my might; and they shall know that my name is JEHOVAH.

The sin of Judah is written with a pen of iron, and with the 17 point of a diamond: it is graven upon the table of their heart, and upon the horns of your altars; Whilst their children re- 2 member their altars and their groves by the green trees upon the high hills. O my mountain in the field, I will give thy sub- 3 stance and all thy treasures to the spoil, and thy high places for sin, throughout all thy borders. And thou, even thyself, 4 shall discontinue from thy heritage that I gave thee; and I will cause thee to serve thy enemies in the land which thou know-est not: for ye have kindled a fire in my anger, which shall burn for ever. Thus saith the LORD; Cursed be the man that 5 trusteth in man, and maketh flesh his arm, and whose heart departeth from the LORD. For he shall be like the heath in the 6 desert, and shall not see when good cometh; but shall inhabit the parched places in the wilderness, in a salt land and not inhabited. Blessed is the man that trusteth in the LORD, and 7 whose hope the LORD is. For he shall be as a tree planted by 8 the waters, and that spreadeth out her roots by the river, and shall not see when heat cometh, but her leaf shall be green; and shall not be anxious in the year of drouth, neither shall cease from yielding fruit. The heart is deceitful above all things, 9 and desperately wicked: who can know it? I the LORD search 10 the heart, I try the reins, even to give every man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings. As the par- 11 tridge sitteth on eggs, and hatcheth them not; so he that getteth riches, and not by right, shall leave them in the midst of his days, and at his end shall be a fool. A glorious high throne 12 from the beginning is the place of our sanctuary. O LORD, the 13 hope of Israel, all that forsake thee shall be ashamed, and they that depart from me shall be written in the earth, because they 14 have forsaken the LORD, the fountain of living waters. Heal me, O LORD, and I shall be healed; save me, and I shall be 15 saved: for thou art my praise. Behold, they say to me, Where 16 is the word of the LORD? let it come now. As for me, I have not hastened from being a pastor to follow thee: neither have I desired the woeful day; thou knowest: that which was uttered 17 by my lips was right before thee. Be not a terror to me: thou 18 art my hope in the day of evil. Let them be confounded that persecute me, but let not me be confounded: let them be dismayed, but let not me be dismayed: bring upon them the day of 19 evil, and destroy them with double destruction. Thus said the LORD to me; Go and stand in the gate of the children of the people, by which the kings of Judah come in, and by which they 20 go out, and in all the gates of Jerusalem; And say to them, Hear ye the word of the LORD, ye kings of Judah, and all Judah, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, that enter by these 21 gates: Thus saith the LORD; Take heed to yourselves, and bear no burden on the sabbath day, nor bring it in by the gates 22 of Jerusalem; Neither carry forth a burden out of your houses on the sabbath day, neither do ye any work, but hallow ye the 23 sabbath day, as I commanded your fathers. But they obeyed not, neither inclined their ear, but made their neck stiff, that 24 they might not hear, nor receive instruction. And it shall come to pass, if ye diligently hearken to me, saith the LORD, to bring in no burden through the gates of this city on the sabbath day, 25 but hallow the sabbath day, to do no work therein; Then shall there enter into the gates of this city kings and princes sitting upon the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, they and their princes, the men of Judah, and the inhabitants 26 of Jerusalem: and this city shall remain for ever. And they shall come from the cities of Judah, and from the places about Jerusalem, and from the land of Benjamin, and from the plain, and from the mountains, and from the south, bringing burnt-offerings, and sacrifices, and meat-offerings, and incense, and 27 bringing sacrifices of praise, to the house of the LORD. But if ye will not hearken to me to hallow the sabbath day, and not to bear a burden, even entering at the gates of Jerusalem on the sabbath day; then will I kindle a fire in its gates, and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem, and it shall not be quenched.

The word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, 18 Arise, and go down to the potter's house, and there I will cause 2 thee to hear my words. Then I went down to the potter's 3 house, and behold, he wrought a work on the wheels. And 4 the vessel that he made of clay was marred in the hand of the potter: so he made it again another vessel, as it seemed good to the potter to make it. Then the word of the LORD came 5 to me, saying, O house of Israel, cannot I do with you as this 6 potter? saith the LORD. Behold, as the clay is in the potter's hand, so are ye in my hand, O house of Israel. At what instant 7 I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to pluck up, and to pull down, and to destroy it; If that nation 8 against which I have pronounced, shall turn from their evil, I will repent of the evil that I thought to do to them. And at 9 what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to build and to plant it; If it shall do evil in 10 my sight, that it obey not my voice, then I will repent of the good, with which I said I would benefit them. Now therefore 11 come, speak to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I frame evil against you, and devise a device against you: return ye now every one from his evil way, and make your ways and your doings 12 good. And they said, There is no hope: but we will walk after our own devices, and we will every one do the imagination of his evil heart. Therefore thus saith the LORD; Ask ye now 13 among the heathen, who hath heard such things: the virgin of Israel hath done a very horrible thing. Will a man leave the 14 snow of Lebanon which cometh from the rock of the field? or shall the cold flowing waters that come from another place be forsaken? Because my people hath forgotten me, they have 15 burned incense to vanity, and they have caused them to stumble in their ways from the ancient paths, to walk in paths, in a way not cast up; To make their land desolate, and a perpetual 16 hissing; every one that passeth by it shall be astonished, and wag his head. I will scatter them as with an east wind 17 before the enemy; I will show them the back, and not the face, in the day of their calamity. Then said they, Come, and let us 18 devise devices against Jeremiah; for the law shall not perish from the priest, nor counsel from the wise, nor the word from the prophet. Come, and let us smite him with the tongue, and 19 let us not give heed to any of his words. Give heed to me, O LORD, and hearken to the voice of them that contend with me.

20 Shall evil be recompensed for good? for they have digged a pit for my soul. Remember that I stood before thee to speak good 21 for them, and to turn away thy wrath from them. Therefore deliver their children to the famine, and pour out their blood by the force of the sword; and let their wives be bereaved of their children, and be widows; and let their men be put to death; let 22 their young men be slain by the sword in battle. Let a cry be heard from their houses, when thou shalt bring a troop suddenly upon them: for they have digged a pit to take me, and hid 23 snares for my feet. Yet, LORD, thou knowest all their counsel against me to slay me: forgive not their iniquity, neither blot out their sin from thy sight, but let them be overthrown before thee; deal thus with them in the time of thy anger.

19 Thus saith the LORD, Go and get a potter's earthen bottle, and take of the ancients of the people, and of the ancients of 2 the priests; And go forth to the valley of the son of Hinnom, which is by the entry of the east gate, and proclaim there the 3 words that I shall tell thee, And say, Hear ye the word of the LORD, O kings of Judah, and inhabitants of Jerusalem; Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will bring 4 evil upon this place, which whoever heareth, his ears shall tingle. Because they have forsaken me, and have estranged this place, and have burned incense in it to other gods, whom neither they nor their fathers have known, nor the kings of Judah, 5 and have filled this place with the blood of innocents; They have built also the high places of Baal, to burn their sons with fire for burnt-offerings to Baal, which I commanded not, nor 6 spoke it, neither came it into my mind: Therefore behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that this place shall no more be called Tophet, nor The valley of the son of Hinnom, but The 7 valley of slaughter. And I will make void the counsel of Judah and Jerusalem in this place; and I will cause them to fall by the sword before their enemies, and by the hands of them that seek their lives: and their carcasses will I give to be food for the 8 fowls of the heaven, and for the beasts of the earth. And I will make this city desolate, and a hissing; every one that passeth by it shall be astonished and hiss because of all its plagues.
9 And I will cause them to eat the flesh of their sons and the flesh of their daughters, and they shall eat every one the flesh of his friend in the siege and distress with which their enemies, and they that seek their lives, shall distress them. Then shalt thou break the bottle in the sight of the men that go with thee, And shalt say to them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Even so will I break this people and this city, as one breaketh a potter's vessel, that cannot be made whole again: and they shall bury them in Tophet, till there be no place to bury. Thus will I do to this place, saith the LORD, and to its inhabitants, and even make this city as Tophet: And the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses of the kings of Judah, shall be defiled as the place of Tophet, because of all the houses upon whose roofs they have burned incense to all the host of heaven, and have poured out drink-offerings to other gods. Then came Jeremiah from Tophet, whither the LORD had sent him to prophesy; and he stood in the court of the LORD'S house; and said to all the people, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will bring upon this city and upon all her towns all the evil that I have pronounced against it, because they have hardened their necks, that they might not hear my words.

Now Pashur the son of Immer the priest, who was also chief governor in the house of the LORD, heard that Jeremiah prophesied these things. Then Pashur struck Jeremiah the prophet, and put him in the stocks that were in the high gate of Benjamin, which was by the house of the LORD. And it came to pass on the morrow, that Pashur brought forth Jeremiah out of the stocks. Then said Jeremiah to him, The LORD hath not called thy name Pashur, but Magor-missabib. For thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will make thee a terror to thyself, and to all thy friends: and they shall fall by the sword of their enemies, and thy eyes shall behold it: and I will give all Judah into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall carry them captive into Babylon, and shall slay them with the sword. Moreover I will deliver all the strength of this city, and all its labors, and all its precious things, and all the treasures of the kings of Judah will I give into the hand of their enemies, who shall pillage them, and take them, and carry them to Babylon. And thou, Pashur, and all that dwell in thy house shall go into captivity: and thou shalt come to Babylon, and there thou shalt die, and shalt be buried there, thou, and all thy friends, to 7 whom thou hast prophesied lies. O LORD, thou hast deceived me, and I was deceived: thou art stronger than I, and hast 8 prevailed: I am in derision daily, every one mocketh me. For since I spoke, I cried out, I cried violence and spoil; because the word of the LORD was made a reproach to me, and a derision, daily. Then I said, I will not make mention of him, nor speak any more in his name. But his word was in my heart as a burning fire shut up in my bones, and I was weary with 10 forbearing, and I could not stay. For I heard the defaming of many, fear on every side. Report, say they, and we will report it. All my familiars watched for my halting, saying, Perhaps he will be enticed, and we shall prevail against him, and we 11 shall take our revenge on him. But the LORD is with me as a mighty terrible one: therefore my persecutors shall stumble, and they shall not prevail: they shall be greatly ashamed; for they shall not prosper: their everlasting confusion shall never 12 be forgotten. But, O LORD of hosts, that triest the righteous, and seest the reins and the heart, let me see thy vengeance on them: for to thee have I opened my cause. Sing to the LORD, praise ye the LORD: for he hath delivered the soul of the poor 14 from the hand of evil-doers. Cursed be the day in which I was born: let not the day in which my mother bore me be blessed. Cursed be the man who brought tidings to my father, saying, 16 A male child is born to thee; making him very glad. And let that man be as the cities which the LORD overthrew, and repented not: and let him hear the cry in the morning, and the shouting at noon; Because he slew me not at my birth; or that my mother might have been my grave, and she had not been 18 delivered. Why was I brought into the world to see labor and sorrow, that my days should be consumed with shame?

21 The word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD, when king Zedekiah sent to him Pashur the son of Melchiah, and 2 Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest, saying, Inquire, I pray thee, of the LORD for us; for Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon maketh war against us; it may be that the LORD will deal with us according to all his wondrous works, that he may 3 go up from us. Then said Jeremiah to them, Thus shall ye say to Zedekiah: Thus saith the LORD God of Israel; Behold, I will turn back the weapons of war that are in your hands, with which ye fight against the king of Babylon, and against the Chaldeans, who besiege you without the walls, and I will assemble them into the midst of this city. And I myself will fight against you with an out-stretched hand and with a strong arm, even in anger, and in fury, and in great wrath. And I will smite the inhabitants of this city, both man and beast; they shall die by a great pestilence. And afterward, saith the LORD, I will deliver Zedekiah king of Judah, and his servants, and the people, and such as are left in this city from the pestilence, from the sword, and from the famine, into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those that seek their life; and he shall smite them with the edge of the sword; he shall not spare them, neither have pity, nor have mercy. And to this people thou shalt say, Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I set before you the way of life, and the way of death. He that abideth in this city shall die by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence: but he that goeth out, and falleth to the Chaldeans that besiege you, he shall live, and his life shall be to him for a prey. For I have set my face against this city for evil, and not for good, saith the LORD: it shall be given into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire. And concerning the house of the king of Judah, say, Hear ye the word of the LORD; O house of David, thus saith the LORD; Execute judgment in the morning, and deliver him that is made desolate out of the hand of the oppressor, lest my fury go out like fire, and burn that none can quench it, because of the evil of your doings. Behold, I am against thee, O inhabitant of the valley, and rock of the plain, saith the LORD; who say, Who shall come down against us? or who shall enter into our habitations? But I will punish you according to the fruit of your doings, saith the LORD: and I will kindle a fire in the forest thereof, and it shall devour all things around it.

Thus saith the LORD; Go down to the house of the king of Judah, and speak there this word, And say, Hear the word of the LORD, O king of Judah, that sittest upon the throne of David, thou, and thy servants, and thy people that enter by these gates: Thus saith the LORD; Execute ye judgment and righteousness, and deliver him that is laid waste out of the hand of the oppressor: and do no wrong, do no violence to the stranger, the fatherless, nor the widow, neither shed innocent 22 4 blood in this place. For if ye do this thing indeed, then shall there enter, by the gates of this house, kings sitting upon the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, he, and his 5 servants, and his people. But if ye will not hear these words, I swear by myself, saith the LORD, that this house shall become 6 a desolation. For thus saith the LORD to the king's house of Judah; Thou art Gilead to me, and the head of Lebanon; yet surely I will make thee a wilderness, and cities which are 7 not inhabited. And I will prepare destroyers against thee, every one with his weapons: and they shall cut down thy choice 8 cedars, and cast them into the fire. And many nations shall pass by this city, and they shall say every man to his neighbor, 9 Why hath the LORD done thus to this great city? Then they shall answer, Because they have forsaken the covenant of the LORD their God, and worshiped other gods, and served them.

10 Weep ye not for the dead, neither bemoan him: but weep bitterly for him that goeth away: for he shall return no more, nor 11 see his native country. For thus saith the LORD concerning Shallum the son of Josiah king of Judah, who reigned instead of Josiah his father, who went forth from this place; He shall 12 not return thither any more: But he shall die in the place whither they have led him captive, and shall see this land no 13 more. Woe to him that buildeth his house by unrighteousness, and his chambers by wrong; that useth his neighbor's service 14 without wages, and giveth him not for his work; That saith, I will build me a wide house and large chambers, and cutteth him out windows; and it is ceiled with cedar, and painted with 15 vermilion. Shalt thou reign, because thou closest thyself in cedar? did not thy father eat and drink, and do judgment and 16 justice, and then it was well with him? He judged the cause of the poor and needy; then it was well with him: was not this 17 to know me? saith the LORD. But thy eyes and thy heart are only for thy covetousness, and for shedding innocent blood, 18 and for oppression, and for violence, to do it. Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah; They shall not lament for him, saying, Ah my brother! or, Ah sister! they shall not lament for him, saying, Ah lord!
19 or, Ah his glory! He shall be buried with the burial of an ass, 20 drawn and cast forth beyond the gates of Jerusalem. Go up to Lebanon, and cry; and lift up thy voice in Bashan, and cry from the passages: for all thy lovers are destroyed. I spoke to thee 21 in thy prosperity; but thou saidest, I will not hear. This hath been thy manner from thy youth, that thou hast not obeyed my voice. The wind shall eat up all thy pastors, and thy lovers 22 shall go into captivity: surely then shalt thou be ashamed and confounded for all thy wickedness. O inhabitant of Lebanon, 23 that makest thy nest in the cedars, how gracious shalt thou be when pangs come upon thee, the pain as of a woman in travail!

 As I live, saith the LORD, though Coniah the son of Jehoiakim 24 king of Judah were the signet upon my right hand, yet would I pluck thee thence; And I will give thee into the hand of them 25 that seek thy life, and into the hand of them whose face thou fearest, even into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of the Chaldeans. And I will cast thee 26 out, and thy mother that bore thee, into another country, where ye were not born; and there shall ye die. But to the land to 27 which they desire to return, thither shall they not return. Is 28 this man Coniah a despised broken idol? is he a vessel in which is no pleasure? why are they cast out, he and his seed, and are cast into a land which they know not? O earth, earth, earth, 29 hear the word of the LORD. Thus saith the LORD, Write ye 30 this man childless, a man that shall not prosper in his days:
 for no man of his seed shall prosper, sitting upon the throne of David, and ruling any more in Judah.

Woe be to the pastors that destroy and scatter the sheep of 23 my pasture! saith the LORD. Therefore thus saith the LORD 2 God of Israel against the pastors that feed my people; Ye have scattered my flock, and driven them away, and have not visited them: behold, I will visit upon you the evil of your doings, saith 3 the LORD. And I will gather the remnant of my flock from 3 all countries whither I have driven them, and will bring them again to their folds; and they shall be fruitful and increase.
 And I will set shepherds over them who shall feed them: and 4 they shall fear no more, nor be dismayed, neither shall they be lacking, saith the LORD. Behold, the days come, saith the 5 LORD, that I will raise to David a righteous Branch, and a King shall reign and prosper, and shall execute judgment and justice upon the earth. In his days Judah shall be saved, and Israel 6 shall dwell in safety: and this is his name by which he shall be called, JEHOVAH OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS. Therefore, be- 7 hold, the days come, saith the LORD, that they shall no more say, The LORD liveth, who brought the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt; But, the LORD liveth, who brought and who led the seed of the house of Israel out of the north country, and from all countries whither I have driven them; and they shall dwell in their own land. My heart within me is broken because of the prophets; all my bones shake; I am like a drunken man, and like a man whom wine hath overcome, because of the LORD, and because of the words of his holiness. For the land is full of adulterers; for because of swearing the land mourneth; the pleasant places of the wilderness are dried up, and their course is evil, and their force is not right. For both prophet and priest are profane; even in my house have I found their wickedness, saith the LORD. Wherefore their way shall be to them as slippery ways in the darkness: they shall be driven on, and fall therein: for I will bring evil upon them, even the year of their visitation, saith the LORD. And I have seen folly in the prophets of Samaria; they prophesied in Baal, and caused my people Israel to err. I have seen also in the prophets of Jerusalem a horrible thing: they commit adultery, and walk in lies: they strengthen also the hands of evil-doers, that none doth return from his wickedness: they are all of them to me as Sodom, and the inhabitants of it as Gomorrah. Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts concerning the prophets; Behold, I will feed them with wormwood, and make them drink the water of gall: for from the prophets of Jerusalem is profaneness gone forth into all the land. Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Hearken not to the words of the prophets that prophesy to you: they make you vain: they speak a vision of their own heart, and not from the mouth of the LORD. They say still to them that despise me, The LORD hath said, Ye shall have peace; and they say to every one that walketh after the imagination of his own heart, No evil shall come upon you. For who hath stood in the counsel of the LORD, and hath perceived and heard his word? who hath marked his word, and heard it? Behold, a whirlwind of the LORD is gone forth in fury, even a grievous whirlwind: it shall fall grievously upon the head of the wicked. The anger of the LORD shall not return, until he shall have executed, and till he shall have performed the thoughts of his heart: in the latter days ye shall consider it perfectly. I have not sent these prophets, yet they ran: I have not spoken to them, yet they prophesied. But if they had stood in my coun- 22 sel, and had caused my people to hear my words, then they would have turned them from their evil way, and from the evil of their doings. Am I a God at hand, saith the LORD, and not 23 a God afar off. Can any hide himself in secret places that I 24 shall not see him? saith the LORD. Do not I fill heaven and earth? saith the LORD. I have heard what the prophets said, 25 that prophesy lies in my name, saying, I have dreamed, I have dreamed. How long shall this be in the heart of the prophets 26 that prophesy lies? yes, they are prophets of the deceit of their own heart; Who think to cause my people to forget my name 27 by their dreams which they tell every man to his neighbor, as their fathers have forgotten my name for Baal. The prophet 28 that hath a dream, let him tell a dream; and he that hath my word, let him speak my word faithfully. What is the chaff to the wheat? saith the LORD? Is not my word like a fire? saith the 29 LORD? and like a hammer that breaketh the rock in pieces?

Therefore behold, I am against the prophets, saith the LORD, 30 that steal my words every one from his neighbor. Behold, I am 31 against the prophets, saith the LORD, that use their tongues, and say, He saith. Behold, I am against them that proph- 32 esy false dreams, saith the LORD, and do tell them, and cause my people to err by their lies, and by their lightness; yet I sent them not, nor commanded them: therefore they shall not profit this people at all, saith the LORD. And when this people, or 33 the prophet, or a priest, shall ask thee, saying, What is the burden of the LORD? thou shalt then say to them, What burden? I will even forsake you, saith the LORD. And as for the 34 prophet, and the priest, and the people that shall say, The burden of the LORD, I will even punish that man and his house.
Thus shall ye say every one to his neighbor, and every one to 35 his brother, What hath the LORD answered? and, What hath the LORD spoken? And the burden of the LORD shall ye men- 36 tion no more: for every man's word shall be his burden; for ye have perverted the words of the living God, of the LORD of hosts our God. Thus shalt thou say to the prophet, What hath 37 the LORD answered thee? and, What hath the LORD spoken?
But since ye say, The burden of the LORD; therefore thus saith 38 the LORD; Because ye say this word, The burden of the LORD, and I have sent to you, saying, Ye shall not say, The burden of 39 the LORD; Therefore behold, I, even I, will utterly forget you, and I will forsake you, and the city that I gave to you and your 40 fathers, and cast you out of my presence: And I will bring an everlasting reproach upon you, and a perpetual shame, which shall not be forgotten.

24 The LORD showed me, and behold, two baskets of figs were set before the temple of the LORD, after Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon had carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, and the princes of Judah, with the carpenters and smiths, from Jerusalem, and had brought them to 2 Babylon. One basket had very good figs, even like the figs that are first ripe: and the other basket had very poor figs, which 3 could not be eaten, they were so bad. Then said the LORD to me, What seest thou, Jeremiah? and I said, Figs; the good figs, very good; and the bad, very bad, that cannot be eaten, they 4 are so bad. Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 5 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; Like these good figs, so will I acknowledge them that are carried away captive of Judah, whom I have sent out of this place into the land of the 6 Chaldeans for their good. For I will set my eyes upon them for good, and I will bring them again to this land: and I will build them, and not pull them down; and I will plant them, and not 7 pluck them up. And I will give them a heart to know me, that I am the LORD: and they shall be my people, and I will be their 8 God: for they shall return to me with their whole heart. And as the bad figs, which cannot be eaten, they are so bad; surely thus saith the LORD, So will I give Zedekiah the king of Judah, and his princes, and the residue of Jerusalem, that remain in 9 this land, and them that dwell in the land of Egypt: And I will deliver them to be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth for their hurt, to be a reproach and a proverb, a taunt 10 and a curse, in all places whither I shall drive them. And I will send the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, among them, till they are consumed from off the land that I gave to them and to their fathers.

25 The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, that was the first year of Nebuchadrezzar king of 2 Babylon; Which Jeremiah the prophet spoke to all the people of Judah, and to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying, 3 From the thirteenth year of Josiah the son of Amon king of Judah, even to this day, that is the three and twentieth year, the word of the LORD hath come to me, and I have spoken to you, rising early and speaking; but ye have not hearkened. 4 And the LORD hath sent to you all his servants the prophets, rising early and sending them; but ye have not hearkened, nor inclined your ear to hear. They said, Turn ye again now every 5 one from his evil way, and from the evil of your doings, and dwell in the land that the LORD hath given to you and to your fathers for ever and ever: And go not after other gods to serve 6 them, and to worship them, and provoke me not to anger with the works of your hands; and I will do you no hurt. Yet ye 7 have not hearkened to me, saith the LORD; that ye might provoke me to anger with the works of your hands to your own hurt. Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts; Because ye 8 have not heard my words, Behold, I will send and take all the 9 families of the north, saith the LORD, and Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon, my servant, and will bring them against this land, and against its inhabitants, and against all these nations around, and will utterly destroy them, and make them an astonishment, and a hissing, and perpetual desolations. More- 10 over I will take from them the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride, the sound of the millstones, and the light of the candle.

And this whole land shall be a desolation, and an astonish- 11 ment; and these nations shall serve the king of Babylon seventy years. And it shall come to pass, when seventy years are 12 accomplished, that I will punish the king of Babylon, and that nation, saith the LORD, for their iniquity, and the land of the Chaldeans, and will make it perpetual desolations. And I will 13 bring upon that land all my words which I have pronounced against it, even all that is written in this book, which Jeremiah hath prophesied against all the nations. For many nations 14 and great kings shall reduce them to subjection also: and I will recompense them according to their deeds, and according to the works of their own hands. For thus saith the LORD God 15 of Israel to me; Take the wine cup of this fury at my hand, and cause all the nations, to whom I send thee, to drink it. And 16 they shall drink, and be moved, and enraged, because of the 17 sword that I will send among them. Then I took the cup at the LORD'S hand, and made all the nations to drink, to whom 18 the LORD had sent me: To wit, Jerusalem, and the cities of Judah, and her kings, and her princes, to make them a desolation, an astonishment, a hissing, and a curse; as it is this day; 19 Pharaoh king of Egypt, and his servants, and his princes, and 20 all his people; And all the mingled people, and all the kings of the land of Uz, and all the kings of the land of the Philistines, and Ashkelon, and Azzah, and Ekron, and the remnant of Ash-21, 22 dod, Edom, and Moab, and the children of Ammon, And all the kings of Tyre, and all the kings of Zidon, and the kings 23 of the isles which are beyond the sea, Dedan, and Tema, and 24 Buz, and all that are in the utmost corners, And all the kings of Arabia, and all the kings of the mingled people that dwell 25 in the desert, And all the kings of Zimri, and all the kings of 26 Elam, and all the kings of the Medes, And all the kings of the north, far and near, one with another, and all the kingdoms of the world, which are upon the face of the earth: and the king of 27 Sheshach shall drink after them. Therefore thou shalt say to them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Drink ye, and be drunken, and vomit, and fall, and rise no more, be-28 cause of the sword which I will send among you. And it shall be, if they refuse to take the cup at thy hand to drink, then shalt thou say to them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Ye shall 29 certainly drink. For lo, I begin to bring evil on the city which is called by my name, and should ye be utterly unpunished? Ye shall not be unpunished: for I will call for a sword upon all the 30 inhabitants of the earth, saith the LORD of hosts. Therefore prophesy thou against them all these words, and say to them, The LORD shall roar from on high, and utter his voice from his holy habitation; he shall mightily roar upon his habitation; he shall give a shout, as they that tread the grapes, against all 31 the inhabitants of the earth. A noise shall come even to the ends of the earth; for the LORD hath a controversy with the nations, he will plead with all flesh; he will give them that are 32 wicked to the sword, saith the LORD. Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, evil shall go forth from nation to nation, and a great whirlwind shall be raised from the borders of the earth.

33 And the slain of the LORD shall be at that day from one end of the earth even to the other end of the earth: they shall not be lamented, neither gathered, nor buried; they shall be dung upon the ground. Howl, ye shepherds, and cry; and wallow 34 yourselves in the ashes, ye principal of the flock: for the days of your slaughter and of your dispersions are accomplished; and ye shall fall like a pleasant vessel. And the shepherds shall 35 have no way to flee, nor the principal of the flock to escape. A 36 voice of the cry of the shepherds, and a howling of the principal of the flock, shall be heard: for the LORD hath laid waste their pasture. And the peaceable habitations are cut down, because 37 of the fierce anger of the LORD. He hath forsaken his covert, 38 as the lion: for their land is desolate because of the fierceness of the oppressor, and because of his fierce anger.

In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah 26 king of Judah came this word from the LORD, saying, Thus 2 saith the LORD; Stand in the court of the LORD'S house, and speak to all the cities of Judah, which come to worship in the LORD'S house, all the words that I command thee to speak to them; diminish not a word: It may be they will hearken, and 3 turn every man from his evil way, that I may repent of the evil, which I purpose to do to them because of the evil of their doings. And thou shalt say to them, Thus saith the LORD, 4 If ye will not hearken to me to walk in my law, which I have set before you, To hearken to the words of my servants the 5 prophets, whom I have sent to you, both rising early, and sending them, but ye have not hearkened; Then will I make this 6 house like Shiloh, and will make this city a curse to all the nations of the earth. So the priests and the prophets, and all 7 the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of the LORD. Now it came to pass, when Jeremiah had made 8 an end of speaking all that the LORD had commanded him to speak to all the people, that the priests and the prophets and all the people took him, saying, Thou shalt surely die. Why 9 hast thou prophesied in the name of the LORD, saying, This house shall be like Shiloh, and this city shall be desolate without an inhabitant? And all the people were gathered against Jeremiah, in the house of the LORD. When the princes of 10 Judah heard these things, then they came up from the king's house to the house of the LORD, and sat down in the entry of the new gate of the LORD'S house. Then the priests and 11 the prophets spoke to the princes and to all the people, saying,

This man is worthy to die; for he hath prophesied against this city, as ye have heard with your ears. Then Jeremiah spoke to all the princes, and to all the people, saying, The LORD sent me to prophesy against this house and against this city all the words that ye have heard. Therefore now amend your ways and your doings, and obey the voice of the LORD your God; and the LORD will repent of the evil that he hath pronounced against you. As for me, behold, I am in your hand: do with me as it seemeth good and meet to you. But know ye for certain, that if ye put me to death, ye will surely bring innocent blood upon yourselves, upon this city, and upon its inhabitants: for of a truth the LORD hath sent me to you to speak all these words in your ears. Then said the princes and all the people to the priests and to the prophets; This man is not worthy to die: for he hath spoken to us in the name of the LORD our God. Then arose certain of the elders of the land, and spoke to all the assembly of the people, saying, Micah the Morasthite prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, and spoke to all the people of Judah, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Zion shall be plowed like a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of the forest. Did Hezekiah king of Judah and all Judah put him to death? did he not fear the LORD, and beseech the LORD, and the LORD repented of the evil which he had pronounced against them? Thus might we procure great evil against our souls. And there was also a man that prophesied in the name of the LORD, Urijah the son of Shemaiah of Kirjath-jearim, who prophesied against this city and against this land according to all the words of Jeremiah: And when Jehoiakim the king, with all his mighty men, and all the princes, heard his words, the king sought to put him to death: but when Urijah heard it, he was afraid, and fled, and went into Egypt; And Jehoiakim the king sent men into Egypt, namely, Elnathan the son of Achbor, and certain men with him into Egypt. And they brought forth Urijah from Egypt, and brought him to Jehoiakim the king; who slew him with the sword, and cast his dead body into the graves of the common people. Nevertheless the hand of Ahikam the son of Shaphan was with Jeremiah, that they should not give him into the hand of the people to put him to death.

In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah 27 king of Judah, came this word to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, Thus saith the LORD to me; Make for thee bonds and 2 yokes, and put them upon thy neck, And send them to the 3 king of Edom, and to the king of Moab, and to the king of the Ammonites, and to the king of Tyre, and to the king of Zidon, by the hand of the messengers who come to Jerusalem to Zedekiah king of Judah; And command them to say to their 4 masters, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Thus shall ye say to your masters; I have made the earth, the man 5 and the beast that are upon the ground, by my great power and by my out-stretched arm, and have given it to whom it seemed meet to me. And now have I given all these lands 6 into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, my servant; and the beasts of the field have I given him also to serve him. And all nations shall serve him, and his son, and his 7 son's son, until the very time of his land shall come: and then many nations and great kings shall bring him into subjection.
And it shall come to pass, that the nation and kingdom which 8 will not serve the same Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, and that will not put their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, that nation will I punish, saith the LORD, with the sword, and with the famine, and with the pestilence, until I have consumed them by his hand. Therefore hearken ye not to your 9 prophets, nor to your diviners, nor to your dreamers, nor to your enchanters, nor to your sorcerers, who speak to you, saying, Ye shall not serve the king of Babylon: For they prophesy 10 a lie to you, to remove you far from your land; and that I should drive you out, and ye should perish. But the nations that 11 bring their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him, those will I let remain still in their own land, saith the LORD; and they shall till it, and dwell in it. I spoke also 12 to Zedekiah king of Judah according to all these words, saying, Bring your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him and his people, and live. Why will ye die, thou and 13 thy people, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, as the LORD hath spoken against the nation that will not serve the king of Babylon? Therefore hearken not to the words of 14 the prophets that speak to you, saying, Ye shall not serve the king of Babylon; for they prophesy a lie to you. For I have 15 not sent them, saith the LORD, yet they prophesy a lie in my name; that I might drive you out, and that ye might perish, 16 ye, and the prophets that prophesy to you. Also I spoke to the priests and to all this people, saying, Thus saith the LORD; Hearken not to the words of your prophets that prophesy to you, saying, Behold, the vessels of the LORD'S house shall now shortly be brought again from Babylon: for they prophesy a 17 lie to you. Hearken not to them; serve the king of Babylon, and live: why should this city be laid waste? But if they are 18 prophets, and if the word of the LORD is with them, let them now make intercession to the LORD of hosts, that the vessels which are left in the house of the LORD, and in the house of the 19 king of Judah, and at Jerusalem, go not to Babylon. For thus saith the LORD of hosts concerning the pillars, and concerning the sea, and concerning the bases, and concerning the residue 20 of the vessels that remain in this city, Which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took not, when he carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah from Jerusalem 21 to Babylon, and all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem; Yes, thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, concerning the vessels that remain in the house of the LORD, and in the house 22 of the king of Judah and of Jerusalem; They shall be carried to Babylon, and there shall they be until the day that I visit them, saith the LORD; then will I bring them up, and restore them to this place.

28 And it came to pass the same year, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the fourth year, and in the fifth month, that Hananiah the son of Azur the prophet, who was of Gibeon, spoke to me in the house of the LORD, in the presence of the priests, and of all the people, saying, 2 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, 3 I have broken the yoke of the king of Babylon. Within two full years will I bring again into this place all the vessels of the LORD'S house, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took 4 away from this place, and carried them to Babylon: And I will bring again to this place Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, with all the captives of Judah, that went into Babylon, saith the LORD; for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.
5 Then the prophet Jeremiah said to the prophet Hananiah in the presence of the priests, and in the presence of all the people that stood in the house of the LORD, Even the prophet 6 Jeremiah said, Amen: the LORD do so: the LORD perform thy words which thou hast prophesied, to bring again the vessels of the LORD'S house, and all that is carried away captive, from Babylon into this place. Nevertheless, now hear thou this 7 word that I speak in thy ears, and in the ears of all the people: The prophets that have been before me and before thee of 8 old prophesied both against many countries, and against great kingdoms, of war, and of evil, and of pestilence. The prophet 9 who prophesieth of peace, when the word of the prophet shall come to pass, then shall the prophet be known, that the LORD hath truly sent him. Then Hananiah the prophet took the 10 yoke from off the prophet Jeremiah's neck, and broke it. And 11 Hananiah spoke in the presence of all the people, saying, Thus saith the LORD; Even so will I break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon from the neck of all nations within the space of two full years. And the prophet Jeremiah went 12 his way. Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, after Hananiah the prophet had broken the yoke from off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah, saying, Go and tell Hananiah, saying, 13 Thus saith the LORD; Thou hast broken the yokes of wood; but thou shalt make for them yokes of iron. For thus saith the 14 LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; I have put a yoke of iron upon the neck of all these nations, that they may serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and they shall serve him: and I have given him the beasts of the field also. Then said the prophet 15 Jeremiah to Hananiah the prophet, Hear now, Hananiah; The LORD hath not sent thee; but thou makest this people to trust in a lie. Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will cast 16 thee from off the face of the earth: this year thou shalt die, because thou hast taught rebellion against the LORD. So Hana- 17 niah the prophet died the same year in the seventh month.

Now these are the words of the letter that Jeremiah the 29 prophet sent from Jerusalem to the residue of the elders who were carried away captives, and to the priests, and to the prophets, and to all the people whom Nebuchadnezzar had carried away captive from Jerusalem to Babylon; (After Jeconiah the king, 2 and the queen, and the eunuchs, the princes of Judah and Jerusalem, and the carpenters, and the smiths, had departed from Jerusalem;) By the hand of Elasah the son of Shaphan, 3 and Gemariah the son of Hilkiah, (whom Zedekiah king of Judah sent to Babylon to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon) saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, to all that are carried away captives, whom I have caused to be carried away from Jerusalem to Babylon; Build ye houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens, and eat the fruit of them; Take ye wives, and beget sons and daughters; and take wives for your sons, and give your daughters to husbands, that they may bear sons and daughters; that ye may be increased there, and not diminished. And seek the peace of the city whither I have caused you to be carried away captives, and pray to the LORD for it: for in the peace of it ye shall have peace. For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Let not your prophets and your diviners, that are in the midst of you, deceive you, neither hearken to your dreams which ye cause to be dreamed. For they prophesy falsely to you in my name: I have not sent them, saith the LORD. For thus saith the LORD, That after seventy years shall be accomplished at Babylon I will visit you, and perform my good word towards you, in causing you to return to this place. For I know the thoughts that I think towards you, saith the LORD, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an expected end. Then shall ye call upon me, and ye shall go and pray to me, and I will hearken to you. And ye shall seek me, and find me, when ye shall search for me with all your heart. And I will be found by you, saith the LORD: and I will turn away your captivity, and I will gather you from all the nations, and from all the places whither I have driven you, saith the LORD: and I will bring you again into the place whence I caused you to be carried away captive. Because ye have said, The LORD hath raised up for us prophets in Babylon; Know that thus saith the LORD concerning the king that sitteth upon the throne of David, and concerning all the people that dwelleth in this city, and concerning your brethren that are not gone forth with you into captivity; Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Behold, I will send upon them the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, and will make them like vile figs, that cannot be eaten, they are so bad. And I will persecute them with the sword, with the famine, and with the pestilence, and will deliver them to be removed to all the kingdoms of the earth, to be a curse, and an astonishment, and a hissing, and a reproach, among all the nations whither I have driven them: Because they have not hearkened to my words, saith the LORD, which I sent to them by my servants the prophets, rising early and sending them; but ye would not hear, saith the LORD. Hear ye therefore the word of the LORD, all ye of the captivity, whom I have sent from Jerusalem to Babylon: Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, concerning Ahab the son of Kolaiah, and concerning Zedekiah the son of Maaseiah, who prophesy a lie to you in my name; Behold, I will deliver them into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon; and he shall slay them before your eyes; And concerning them shall be taken up a curse by all the captivity of Judah who are in Babylon, saying, The LORD make thee like Zedekiah and like Ahab, whom the king of Babylon roasted in the fire; Because they have committed villainy in Israel, and have committed adultery with their neighbor's wives, and have spoken lying words in my name, which I have not commanded them; even I know, and am a witness, saith the LORD. Thus shalt thou also speak to Shemaiah the Nehelamite, saying, Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, Because thou hast sent letters in thy name to all the people that are at Jerusalem, and to Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest, and to all the priests, saying, The LORD hath made thee priest in the stead of Jehoiada the priest, that ye should be officers in the house of the LORD, for every man that is mad, and maketh himself a prophet, that thou shouldest put him in prison, and in the stocks. Now therefore why hast thou not reprov'd Jeremiah of Anathoth, who maketh himself a prophet to you? For therefore he sent to us in Babylon, saying, This captivity is long: build ye houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens, and eat the fruit of them. And Zephaniah the priest read this letter in the ears of Jeremiah the prophet. Then came the word of the LORD to Jeremiah, saying, Send to all them of the captivity, saying, Thus saith the LORD concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite; Because Shemaiah hath prophesied to you, and I sent him not, and he caused you to trust in a lie: Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite, and his seed: he shall not have a man to dwell among this people; neither shall he behold the good that I will do for my people, saith the LORD; because he hath taught rebellion against the LORD.

- 30 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, 2 Thus speaketh the LORD God of Israel, saying, Write for thee 3 all the words that I have spoken to thee in a book. For lo, the days come, saith the LORD; that I will bring again the captivity of my people Israel and Judah, saith the LORD: and I will cause them to return to the land that I gave to their fa-4 thers, and they shall possess it. And these are the words that 5 the LORD spoke concerning Israel and concerning Judah. For thus saith the LORD; We have heard a voice of trembling, of 6 fear, and not of peace. Ask ye now, and see whether a man doth travail with child? Why do I see every man with his hands on his loins, as a woman in travail, and all faces are 7 turned into paleness? Alas! for that day is great, so that none is like it: it is even the time of Jacob's trouble, but he shall be 8 saved out of it. For it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD of hosts, that I will break his yoke from off thy neck, and will burst thy bonds, and strangers shall no more bring him 9 into subjection: But they shall serve the LORD their God, and 10 David their king, whom I will raise up to them. Therefore fear thou not, O my servant Jacob, saith the LORD; neither be dismayed, O Israel: for lo, I will save thee from afar, and thy seed from the land of their captivity; and Jacob shall return, and shall be in rest, and quiet, and none shall make him afraid.
11 For I am with thee, saith the LORD, to save thee: though I make a full end of all nations whither I have scattered thee, yet will I not make a full end of thee: but I will correct thee in 12 measure, and will not leave thee altogether unpunished. For thus saith the LORD, Thy bruise is incurable, and thy wound is 13 grievous. There is none to plead thy cause, that thou mayest 14 be bound up: thou hast no healing medicines. All thy lovers have forgotten thee; they seek thee not; for I have wounded thee with the wound of an enemy, with the chastisements of a cruel one, for the multitude of thy iniquity; because thy sins 15 were increased. Why criest thou for thy affliction? thy sorrow is incurable for the multitude of thy iniquity: because thy sins 16 were increased, I have done these things to thee. Therefore all they that devour thee shall be devoured; and all thy adversaries, every one of them shall go into captivity; and they that plunder thee shall be a spoil, and all that prey upon thee will

I give for a prey. For I will restore health to thee, and I will 17 heal thee of thy wounds, saith the LORD; because they called thee an Outcast, saying, This is Zion, whom no man seeketh after. Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will bring again the capti- 18 vity of Jacob's tents, and have mercy on his dwelling places; and the city shall be built upon her own heap, and the palace shall remain after its manner. And out of them shall proceed 19 thanksgiving and the voice of them that make merry: and I will multiply them, and they shall not be few; I will also glorify them, and they shall not be small. Their children also shall be 20 as in former time, and their congregation shall be established before me, and I will punish all that oppress them. And their 21 nobles shall be from themselves, and their governor shall proceed from the midst of them; and I will cause him to draw near, and he shall approach time: for who is this that engaged his heart to approach to me? saith the LORD. And ye shall be my 22 people, and I will be your God. Behold, the whirlwind of the 23 LORD goeth forth with fury, a continuing whirlwind: it shall fall with pain upon the head of the wicked. The fierce anger 24 of the LORD shall not return, until he hath done it, and until he hath performed the intents of his heart: in the latter days ye shall consider it.

At the same time, saith the LORD, I will be the God of all the 31 families of Israel, and they shall be my people. Thus saith the 2 LORD, The people who were left by the sword found grace in the wilderness; even Israel, when I went to cause him to rest. The 3 LORD appeared of old to me, saying, I have loved thee with an everlasting love: therefore with loving-kindness have I drawn 4 thee. Again I will build thee, and thou shalt be built, O virgin of Israel; thou shalt again be adorned with thy tabrets, and shalt go forth in the dances of them that make merry.
 Thou shalt yet plant vines upon the mountains of Samaria: 5 the planters shall plant, and shall eat them as common things.
 For there shall be a day, that the watchmen upon the mount 6 Ephraim shall cry, Arise ye, and let us go up to Zion to the LORD our God. For thus saith the LORD; Sing with gladness 7 for Jacob, and shout among the chief of the nations: publish ye, praise ye, and say, O LORD, save thy people, the remnant of Israel. Behold, I will bring them from the north country, 8 and gather them from the borders of the earth, and with them the blind and the lame, the woman with child and her that travaileth with child together: a great company shall return 9 thither. They shall come with weeping, and with supplications will I lead them: I will cause them to walk by the rivers of waters in a straight way, wherein they shall not stumble: for 10 I am a father to Israel, and Ephraim is my first-born. Hear the word of the LORD, O ye nations, and declare it in the isles afar off, and say, He that scattered Israel will gather him, and 11 keep him, as a shepherd doth his flock. For the LORD hath redeemed Jacob, and ransomed him from the hand of him that 12 was stronger than he. Therefore they shall come and sing in the hight of Zion, and shall flow together to the goodness of the LORD, for wheat, and for wine, and for oil, and for the young of the flock and of the herd: and their soul shall be as a watered garden; and they shall not sorrow any more at all. Then shall the virgin rejoice in the dance, both young men and old together: for I will turn their mourning into joy, and will comfort them, and make them rejoice from their sorrow. And I will satiate the soul of the priests with fatness, and my people shall be satisfied with my goodness, saith the LORD. Thus saith the LORD; A voice was heard in Ramah, lamentation, and bitter weeping; Rachel weeping for her children refused to be 16 comforted for her children, because they were not. Thus saith the LORD; Refrain thy voice from weeping, and thy eyes from tears: for thy work shall be rewarded, saith the LORD; and they shall come again from the land of the enemy. And there is hope in thy end, saith the LORD, that thy children shall come 18 again to their own border. I have surely heard Ephraim bemoaning himself thus; Thou hast chastised me, and I was chastised, as a bullock unaccustomed to the yoke: turn thou me, 19 and I shall be turned; for thou art the LORD my God. Surely after I was turned, I repented; and after I was instructed, I smote upon my thigh: I was ashamed, and even confounded, 20 because I bore the reproach of my youth. Is Ephraim my dear son? is he a pleasant child? for since I spoke against him, I do earnestly remember him still: therefore my bowels are troubled for him; I will surely have mercy upon him, saith the 21 LORD. Set thee up way-marks, make thee high heaps: set thy heart towards the highway, even the way which thou wentest; turn again, O virgin of Israel, turn again to these thy cities.

How long wilt thou wander about, O thou backsliding daughter? for the LORD hath created a new thing in the earth, A woman shall compass a man. Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; As yet they shall use this speech in the land of Judah and in her cities, when I shall bring again their captivity; The LORD bless thee, O habitation of justice, mountain of holiness. And there shall dwell in Judah itself, and in all her cities together, husbandmen, and they that go forth with flocks. For I have satiated the weary soul, and I have replenished every sorrowful soul. Upon this I awaked, and beheld; and my sleep was sweet to me. Behold, the days come saith the LORD, that I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the seed of man, and with the seed of beast. And it shall come to pass, that as I have watched over them, to pluck up, and to break down, and to throw down, and to destroy, and to afflict; so will I watch over them, to build and to plant, saith the LORD. In those days they shall say no more, The fathers have eaten a sour grape, and the children's teeth are set on edge. But every one shall die for his own iniquity: every man that eateth the sour grape, his teeth shall be set on edge. Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah: Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day that I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt; which my covenant they broke, although I was a husband to them, saith the LORD: But this shall be the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel; After those days, saith the LORD, I will put my law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts; and will be their God, and they shall be my people. And they shall teach no more every man his neighbor, and every man his brother, saying, Know the LORD: for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest of them, saith the LORD: for I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more. Thus saith the LORD, who giveth the sun for a light by day, and the ordinances of the moon and of the stars for a light by night, who divideth the sea when its waves roar; The LORD of hosts is his name: If those ordinances depart from before me, saith the LORD, then the seed of Israel also shall cease from being a nation before me for ever. Thus saith the LORD; If heaven above can be measured, and the foundations of the earth searched out beneath, I will also cast off all the seed of Israel for all that 38 they have done, saith the LORD. Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that the city shall be built to the LORD from the 39 tower of Hananeel to the gate of the corner. And the measuring line shall yet go forth over against it upon the hill Gareb, 40 and shall compass about to Goath. And the whole valley of the dead bodies, and of the ashes, and all the fields to the brook of Kidron, to the corner of the horse-gate towards the east, shall be holy to the LORD; it shall not be plucked up, nor thrown down any more for ever.

32 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the tenth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, which was the eighteenth year 2 of Nebuchadrezzar. For then the king of Babylon's army besieged Jerusalem: and Jeremiah the prophet was confined in the court of the prison, which was in the king of Judah's house.
3 For Zedekiah king of Judah had confined him, saying, Why dost thou prophesy, and say, Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and 4 he shall take it; And Zedekiah king of Judah shall not escape from the hand of the Chaldeans, but shall surely be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon, and shall speak with him 5 mouth to mouth, and his eyes shall behold his eyes; And he shall lead Zedekiah to Babylon, and there shall he be until I visit him, saith the LORD: though ye fight with the Chaldeans, 6 ye shall not prosper. And Jeremiah said, The word of the 7 LORD came to me, saying, Behold, Hanameel the son of Shalum thy uncle shall come to thee, saying, Buy for thee my field that is in Anathoth: for the right of redemption is thine to 8 buy it. So Hanameel my uncle's son came to me in the court of the prison, according to the word of the LORD, and said to me, Buy my field, I pray thee, that is in Anathoth, which is in the country of Benjamin: for the right of inheritance is thine, and the redemption is thine; buy it for thyself. Then I knew 9 that this was the word of the LORD. And I bought the field of Hanameel my uncle's son, that was in Anathoth, and weighed 10 him the money, even seventeen shekels of silver. And I subscribed the contract, and sealed it, and took witnesses, and 11 weighed him the money in the balances. So I took the evidence of the purchase, both that which was sealed according to the law and custom, and that which was open: And I gave the 12 evidence of the purchase to Baruch the son of Neriah, the son of Maaseiah, in the sight of Hanameel my uncle's son, and in the presence of the witnesses that subscribed the book of the purchase, before all the Jews that sat in the court of the prison.

And I charged Baruch before them, saying, Thus saith the 13, 14 LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Take these evidences, this evidence of the purchase, both that which is sealed, and this evidence which is open; and put them in an earthen vessel, that they may continue many days. For thus saith the LORD 15 of hosts, the God of Israel; Houses and fields and vineyards shall be possessed again in this land. Now when I had deli- 16 vered the evidence of the purchase to Baruch the son of Neriah, I prayed to the LORD, saying, Ah LORD God! behold, 17 thou hast made the heaven and the earth by thy great power and out-stretched arm, and there is nothing too hard for thee: Thou showest loving-kindness to thousands, and recompens- 18 est the iniquity of the fathers into the bosom of their children after them: the Great, the Mighty God, JEHOVAH of hosts, is his name, Great in counsel, and mighty in work: for thy eyes 19 are open upon all the ways of the sons of men: to give every one according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his do- 20 ings: Who hast set signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, even to this day, and in Israel, and among other men; and hast made thee a name, as at this day; And hast brought forth thy 21 people Israel from the land of Egypt with signs, and with wonders, and with a strong hand, and with an out-stretched arm, and with great terror; And hast given them this land, which 22 thou didst swear to their fathers to give them, a land flowing with milk and honey; And they came in, and possessed it; but 23 they obeyed not thy voice, neither walked in thy law; they have done nothing of all that thou commandedst them to do: therefore thou hast caused all this evil to come upon them: Behold 24 the mounts, they are come to the city to take it; and the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans, that fight against it, because of the sword, and of the famine, and of the pestilence:
and what thou hast spoken is come to pass; and behold, thou seest it. And thou hast said to me, O LORD GOD, Buy thee 25 the field for money, and take witnesses; for the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans. Then came the word of the 26 27 LORD to Jeremiah, saying, Behold, I am the LORD, the God of 28 all flesh: is there any thing too hard for me? Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the Chaldeans, and into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of 29 Babylon, and he shall take it: And the Chaldeans, that fight against this city, shall come and set fire on this city, and burn it with the houses, upon whose roofs they have offered incense to Baal, and poured out drink-offerings to other gods, to pro-30 voke me to anger. For the children of Israel and the children of Judah have done evil only before me from their youth: for the children of Israel have only provoked me to anger with the 31 work of their hands, saith the LORD. For this city hath been to me as a provocation of my anger and of my fury from the day that they built it even to this day; that I should remove 32 it from before my face, Because of all the evil of the children of Israel and of the children of Judah, which they have done to provoke me to anger, they, their kings, their princes, their priests, and their prophets, and the men of Judah, and the in-33 habitants of Jerusalem. And they have turned to me the back, and not the face: though I taught them, rising early and teaching them, yet they have not hearkened to receive instruction.

34 But they set their abominations in the house, which is called by 35 my name, to defile it. And they built the high places of Baal, which are in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to cause their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire to Molech; which I commanded them not, neither came it into my mind, that they should do this abomination, to cause Judah to sin.
36 And now therefore thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning this city, of which ye say, It shall be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon by the sword, and by the famine, 37 and by the pestilence; Behold, I will gather them out of all countries, whither I have driven them in my anger, and in my fury, and in great wrath; and I will bring them again to this 38 place, and I will cause them to dwell in safety. And they shall 39 be my people, and I will be their God: And I will give them one heart, and one way, that they may fear me for ever, for 40 the good of them, and of their children after them: And I will make an everlasting covenant with them, that I will not turn away from them, to do them good; but I will put my fear in 41 their hearts, that they shall not depart from me. Yes, I will rejoice over them to do them good, and I will plant them in this land assuredly with my whole heart and with my whole soul. For thus saith the LORD; As I have brought all this great evil upon this people, so will I bring upon them all the good that I have promised them. And fields shall be bought in this land, of which ye say, It is desolate without man or beast; it is given into the hand of the Chaldeans. Men shall buy fields for money, and subscribe evidences, and seal them, and take witnesses in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, and in the cities of the mountains, and in the cities of the valley, and in the cities of the south: for I will cause their captivity to return, saith the LORD.

Moreover the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah the second time, while he was yet confined in the court of the prison, saying, Thus saith the LORD the maker of this, the LORD that formed it, to establish it; the LORD is his name; Call to me, and I will answer thee, and show thee great and mighty things, which thou knowest not. For thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning the houses of this city, and concerning the houses of the kings of Judah, which are thrown down by the mounts, and by the sword; They come to fight with the Chaldeans, but it is to fill them with the dead bodies of men, whom I have slain in my anger and in my fury, and for all whose wickedness I have hid my face from this city. Behold, I will bring it health and cure, and I will cure them, and will reveal to them the abundance of peace and truth. And I will cause the captivity of Judah and the captivity of Israel to return, and will build them, as at the first. And I will cleanse them from all their iniquity, by which they have sinned against me; and I will pardon all their iniquities, by which they have sinned, and by which they have transgressed against me. And it shall be to me a name of joy, a praise, and an honor before all the nations of the earth, which shall hear all the good that I do to them: and they shall fear and tremble for all the goodness and for all the prosperity that I procure to it. Thus saith the LORD; Again there shall be heard in this place, which ye say shall be desolate without man and without beast, even in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, that are desolate, without man, and without inhabitant, and without beast, 33

- 11 The voice of joy, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride, the voice of them that shall say, Praise the LORD of hosts: for the LORD is good; for his mercy endureth for ever: and of them that shall bring the sacrifice of praise into the house of the LORD. For I will cause to return the captivity of the land, as at the first, saith the LORD.
- 12 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Again in this place, which is desolate without man and without beast, and in all its cities, shall be a habitation of shepherds causing their flocks to lie down.
- 13 In the cities of the mountains, in the cities of the vale, and in the cities of the south, and in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, shall the flocks pass again under the hands of him that counteth them,
- 14 saith the LORD. Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will perform that good thing which I have promised to the
- 15 house of Israel and to the house of Judah. In those days, and at that time, will I cause the branch of righteousness to grow up to David; and he shall execute judgment and righteousness in the land. In those days shall Judah be saved, and Jerusalem shall dwell in safety: and this is the name by
- 17 which she shall be called, JEHOVAH our righteousness. For thus saith the LORD; David shall never want a man to sit upon
- 18 the throne of the house of Israel; Neither shall the priests the Levites want a man before me to offer burnt-offerings, and to
- 19 kindle meat-offerings, and to do sacrifice continually. And the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying, Thus saith the
- 20 LORD; If ye can break my covenant of the day, and my covenant of the night, so that there should not be day and night in their
- 21 season; Then also may my covenant be broken with David my servant, that he should not have a son to reign upon his throne;
- 22 and with the Levites the priests, my ministers. As the host of heaven cannot be numbered, neither the sand of the sea measured: so will I multiply the seed of David my servant, and
- 23 the Levites that minister to me. Moreover the word of the
- 24 LORD came to Jeremiah, saying, Considerest thou not what this people have spoken, saying, The two families which the LORD hath chosen, he hath even cast them off? thus they have despised my people, that they should be no more a nation before them. Thus saith the LORD; If my covenant is not with
- 25 day and night, and if I have not appointed the ordinances of heaven and earth; Then will I cast away the seed of Jacob, 26 and David my servant, so that I will not take any of his seed to be rulers over the seed of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; for I will cause their captivity to return, and have mercy on them.

The word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD, when 34 Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and all his army, and all the kingdoms of the earth of his dominion, and all the people fought against Jerusalem, and against all its cities, saying, Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; Go and speak to 2 Zedekiah king of Judah, and tell him, Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire: And thou shalt not escape 3 from his hand, but shalt surely be taken, and delivered into his hand; and thy eyes shall behold the eyes of the king of Babylon, and he shall speak with thee mouth to mouth, and thou shalt go to Babylon. Yet hear the word of the LORD, O Zedekiah 4 king of Judah; Thus saith the LORD concerning thee, Thou shalt not die by the sword: But thou shalt die in peace: and 5 with the burnings of thy fathers, the former kings who were before thee, so shall they burn odors for thee; and they will lament thee, saying, Ah lord! for I have pronounced the word, saith the LORD. Then Jeremiah the prophet spoke all these 6 words to Zedekiah king of Judah in Jerusalem, When the king 7 of Babylon's army fought against Jerusalem, and against all the cities of Judah that were left, against Lachish, and against Azekah: for these fortified cities remained of the cities of Judah. This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, 8 after king Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people who were at Jerusalem, to proclaim liberty to them; That 9 every man should liberate his man-servant, and every man his maid-servant, being a Hebrew or a Hebrewess; that none should retain them in service, to wit, a Jew his brother. Now 10 when all the princes, and all the people who had entered into the covenant, heard that every one should liberate his man-servant, and every one his maid-servant, that none should retain them in service any more, then they obeyed, and let them go. But afterwards they turned, and caused the ser- 11 vants and the handmaids, whom they had liberated, to return, and brought them into subjection for servants and for handmaids. Therefore the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah 12

13 from the LORD, saying, Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; I made a covenant with your fathers in the day that I brought them forth from the land of Egypt, out of the house of 14 bond-men, saying, At the end of seven years dismiss ye every man his brother a Hebrew, who hath been sold to thee; and when he hath served thee six years, thou shalt let him go free from thee: but your fathers hearkened not to me, neither inclined their ear. And ye had now turned, and had done right in my sight, in proclaiming liberty every man to his neighbor; and ye had made a covenant before me in the house which is 16 called by my name: But ye turned and profaned my name, and caused every man his servant, and every man his handmaid, whom he had set at liberty at their pleasure, to return, and brought them into subjection, to be to you for servants 17 and for handmaids. Therefore thus saith the LORD; Ye have not hearkened to me, in proclaiming liberty, every one to his brother, and every man to his neighbor: behold, I proclaim a liberty for you, saith the LORD, to the sword, to the pestilence, and to the famine; and I will make you to be removed into all 18 the kingdoms of the earth. And I will give the men that have transgressed my covenant, who have not performed the words of the covenant which they had made before me, when they cut 19 the calf in two, and passed between the parts of it, The princes of Judah, and the princes of Jerusalem, the eunuchs, and the priests, and all the people of the land, who passed between the 20 parts of the calf; I will even give them into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of them that seek their life: and their dead bodies shall be for food to the fowls of the heaven, 21 and to the beasts of the earth. And Zedekiah king of Judah and his princes I will give into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of them that seek their life, and into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, which are gone up from you.
22 Behold, I will command, saith the LORD, and cause them to return to this city; and they shall fight against it, and take it, and burn it with fire: and I will make the cities of Judah a desolation without an inhabitant.

35 The word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the 2 days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, saying, Go to the house of the Rechabites, and speak to them, and bring them into the house of the LORD, into one of the chambers, and give them wine to drink. Then I took Jaazaniah the son of 3 Jeremiah, the son of Habaziniyah, and his brethren, and all his sons, and the whole house of the Rechabites; And I brought 4 them into the house of the LORD, into the chamber of the sons of Hanan, the son of Igdaliah, a man of God, who was by the chamber of the princes, which was above the chamber of Maaseiah the son of Shallum, the keeper of the door: And I set 5 before the sons of the house of the Rechabites pots full of wine, and cups, and I said to them, Drink ye wine. But they said, 6 We will drink no wine: for Jonadab the son of Rechab our father commanded us, saying, Ye shall drink no wine, neither ye, nor your sons for ever: Neither shall ye build house, nor 7 sow seed, nor plant vineyard, nor have any: but all your days ye shall dwell in tents; that ye may live many days in the land where ye are strangers. Thus have we obeyed the voice of Jon- 8 adab the son of Rechab our father in all that he hath charged us, to drink no wine all our days, we, our wives, our sons, nor our daughters; Nor to build houses for us to dwell in: neither 9 have we vineyard, nor field, nor seed: But we have dwelt in 10 tents, and have obeyed, and done according to all that Jonadab our father commanded us. But it came to pass, when Neb- 11 uchadrezzar king of Babylon came up into the land, that we said, Come, and let us go to Jerusalem for fear of the army of the Chaldeans, and for fear of the army of the Syrians: so we dwell at Jerusalem. Then came the word of the LORD to 12 Jeremiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Go and tell the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, Will ye not receive instruction to hearken to my words? saith the LORD. The words of Jonadab the son of 14 Rechab, that he commanded his sons not to drink wine, are performed; for to this day they drink none, but obey their father's commandment: notwithstanding I have spoken to you, rising early and speaking; but ye hearkened not to me. I have 15 sent also to you all my servants the prophets, rising early and sending them, saying, Return ye now every man from his evil way, and amend your doings, and go not after other gods to serve them, and ye shall dwell in the land which I have given to you and to your fathers: but ye have not inclined your ear, nor hearkened to me. Because the sons of Jonadab the son 16 of Rechab have performed the commandment of their father, which he commanded them; but this people hath not hearkened to me: Therefore thus saith the LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will bring upon Judah and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem all the evil that I have pronounced against them; because I have spoken to them, but they have not heard; and I have called to them, but they have not answered. And Jeremiah said to the house of the Rechabites, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Because ye have obeyed the commandment of Jonadab your father, and kept all his precepts, and done according to all that he hath commanded you: Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Jonadab the son of Rechab shall not want a man to stand before me for ever.

36 And it came to pass in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, that this word came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, Take thee a roll of a book, and write in it all the words that I have spoken to thee against Israel, and against Judah, and against all the nations, from the day I spoke to thee, from the days of Josiah, even to this day. It may be that the house of Judah will hear all the evil which I purpose to do to them; that they may return every man from his evil way; that I may forgive their iniquity and their sin. Then Jeremiah called Baruch the son of Neriah: and Baruch wrote from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the LORD, which he had spoken to him, upon a roll of a book. And Jeremiah commanded Baruch, saying, I am confined, I cannot go into the house of the LORD: Therefore go thou and read in the roll, which thou hast written from my mouth, the words of the LORD in the ears of the people in the LORD'S house upon the day of fasting: and also thou shalt read them in the ears of all Judah that come out of their cities. It may be they will present their supplication before the LORD, and will return every one from his evil way: for great is the anger and the fury that the LORD hath pronounced against this people. And Baruch the son of Neriah did according to all that Jeremiah the prophet commanded him, reading in the book the words of the LORD in the LORD'S house. And it came to pass in the fifth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, in the ninth month, that they proclaimed a fast before the LORD to all the people in Jerusalem, and to all the people that came from the cities of Judah to Jerusalem. Then Baruch read in the book 10 the words of Jeremiah in the house of the LORD, in the chamber of Gemariah the son of Shaphan the scribe, in the higher court, at the entry of the new gate of the LORD'S house, in the ears of all the people. When Michaiah the son of Gemariah, 11 the son of Shaphan, had heard out of the book all the words of the LORD, Then he went down into the king's house, into 12 the scribe's chamber: and lo, all the princes sat there, even Elishama the scribe, and Delaiah the son of Shemaiah, and El-nathan the son of Achbor, and Gemariah the son of Shaphan, and Zedekiah the son of Hananiah, and all the princes. Then 13 Michaiah declared to them all the words that he had heard, when Baruch read the book in the ears of the people. There- 14 fore all the princes sent Jehudi the son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cush, to Baruch, saying, Take in thy hand the roll in which thou hast read in the ears of the people, and come. So Baruch the son of Neriah took the roll in his hand, and came to them. And they said to him, Sit down 15 now, and read it in our ears. So Baruch read it in their ears.

Now it came to pass when they had heard all the words, they 16 were afraid both one and another, and said to Baruch, We will surely tell the king of all these words. And they asked Baruch, 17 saying, Tell us now, How didst thou write all these words at his mouth? Then Baruch answered them, He pronounced all 18 these words to me with his mouth, and I wrote them with ink in the book. Then said the princes to Baruch, Go, hide thy- 19 self, thou and Jeremiah; and let no man know where ye are.
And they went in to the king into the court, but they laid up 20 the roll in the chamber of Elishama the scribe, and told all the words in the ears of the king. So the king sent Jehudi to 21 bring the roll: and he took it out of the chamber of Elishama, the scribe. And Jehudi read it in the ears of the king, and in the ears of all the princes who stood beside the king. Now 22 the king sat in the winter-house in the ninth month: and there was a fire on the hearth burning before him. And it came 23 to pass, that when Jehudi had read three or four leaves, he cut it with the scribe's pen-knife, and cast it into the fire that was on the hearth, until all the roll was consumed in the fire that was on the hearth. Yet they were not afraid, nor rent 24 their garments, neither the king, nor any of his servants that 25 heard all these words. Nevertheless Elnathan and Delaiah and Gemariah had made intercession to the king that he would 26 not burn the roll: but he would not hear them. But the king commanded Jerahmeel the son of Hammelech, and Seraiah the son of Azriel, and Shelemiah the son of Abdeel, to take Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet: but the LORD hid them.

27 Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, after that the king had burned the roll, and the words which Baruch wrote at 28 the mouth of Jeremiah, saying, Take thee again another roll, and write in it all the former words that were in the first roll, 29 which Jehoiakim king of Judah hath burned. And thou shalt say to Jehoiakim king of Judah, Thus saith the LORD; Thou hast burned this roll, saying, Why hast thou written therein, saying, The king of Babylon shall certainly come and destroy this land, and shall cause to cease from thence man and beast?
30 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning Jehoiakim king of Judah; He shall have none to sit upon the throne of David: and his dead body shall be cast out in the day to the heat, and in 31 the night to the frost. And I will punish him and his seed and his servants for their iniquity; and I will bring upon them, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and upon the men of Judah, all the evil that I have pronounced against them; but they 32 hearkened not. Then Jeremiah took another roll, and gave it to Baruch the scribe, the son of Neriah; who wrote therein from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the book which Jehoiakim king of Judah had burned in the fire: and there were besides added to them many like words.

37 And king Zedekiah the son of Josiah reigned instead of Coniah the son of Jehoiakim, whom Nebuchadrezzar king of Baby-2 lon made king in the land of Judah. But neither he, nor his servants, nor the people of the land, hearkened to the words 3 of the LORD, which he spoke by the prophet Jeremiah. And Zedekiah the king sent Jehucal the son of Shelemiah and Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest to the prophet Jeremiah, 4 saying, Pray now to the LORD our God for us. Now Jeremiah came in and went out among the people: for they had not put 5 him into prison. Then Pharaoh's army had come from Egypt: and when the Chaldeans that besieged Jerusalem heard tid-6 ings of them, they departed from Jerusalem. Then came the 7 word of the LORD to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; Thus shall ye say to the king of Judah, that sent you to me to inquire of me; Behold, Pharaoh's army, which hath come forth to help you, shall return to Egypt into their own land. And the Chaldeans shall come again, and 8 fight against this city, and take it, and burn it with fire. Thus 9 saith the LORD; Deceive not yourselves, saying, The Chaldeans will surely depart from us: for they will not depart. For though 10 ye had smitten the whole army of the Chaldeans that fight against you, and there remained but wounded men among them, yet would they rise up every man in his tent, and burn this city with fire. And it came to pass, that when the army of the 11 Chaldeans was broken up from Jerusalem for fear of Pharaoh's army, Then Jeremiah went out of Jerusalem to go into the 12 land of Benjamin, to separate himself thence in the midst of the people. And when he was in the gate of Benjamin, a cap- 13 tain of the ward was there, whose name was Irijah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Hananiah; and he took Jeremiah the prophet, saying, Thou fallest away to the Chaldeans. Then 14 said Jeremiah, It is false; I fall not away to the Chaldeans. But he hearkened not to him: so Irijah took Jeremiah, and brought him to the princes. Wherefore the princes were wroth with 15 Jeremiah, and beat him, and put him in prison in the house of Jonathan the scribe: for they had made that the prison. When 16 Jeremiah had entered into the dungeon, and into the cabins, and Jeremiah had remained there many days; Then Zedekiah 17 the king sent, and took him out: and the king asked him secretly in his house, and said, Is there any word from the LORD? And Jeremiah said, There is: for, said he, thou shalt be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon. Moreover Jeremiah 18 said to king Zedekiah, In what have I offended against thee, or against thy servants, or against this people, that ye have put me in prison? Where are now your prophets who prophe- 19 sied to you, saying, The king of Babylon shall not come against you, nor against this land? Therefore hear now, I pray thee, O 20 my lord the king: let my supplication, I pray thee, be accepted before thee; that thou cause me not to return to the house of Jonathan the scribe, lest I die there. Then Zedekiah the king 21 commanded that they should commit Jeremiah into the court of the prison, and that they should give him daily a piece of bread out of the baker's street, until all the bread in the city should be consumed. Thus Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison.

38 Then Shephatiah the son of Mattan, and Gedaliah the son of Pashur, and Jucal the son of Shelemiah, and Pashur the son of Malchiah, heard the words that Jeremiah had spoken 2 to all the people, saying, Thus saith the LORD, He that remaineth in this city shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence: but he that goeth forth to the Chaldeans shall live; for he shall have his life for a prey, and shall live.
3 Thus saith the LORD, This city shall surely be given into the 4 hand of the king of Babylon's army, which shall take it. Therefore the princes said to the king, We beseech thee, let this man be put to death: for thus he weakeneth the hands of the men of war that remain in this city, and the hands of all the people, in speaking such words to them: for this man seeketh not 5 the welfare of this people, but the hurt. Then Zedekiah the king said, Behold, he is in your hand: for the king is not he 6 that can do any thing against you. Then they took Jeremiah, and cast him into the dungeon of Malchiah the son of Hammelech, that was in the court of the prison: and they let down Jeremiah with cords. And in the dungeon there was no water, 7 but mire: so Jeremiah sunk in the mire. Now when Ebedmelech the Cushite, one of the eunuchs who was in the king's house, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the dungeon; the 8 king then sitting in the gate of Benjamin; Ebedmelech went 9 out of the king's house, and spoke to the king, saying, My lord the king, these men have done evil in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have cast into the dungeon; and he is like to die by hunger in the place where he is: for there 10 is no more bread in the city. Then the king commanded Ebedmelech the Cushite, saying, Take from hence thirty men with thee, and take up Jeremiah the prophet out of the dungeon, 11 before he dieth. So Ebedmelech took the men with him, and went into the house of the king under the treasury, and took thence old cast clouts and old decayed rags, and let them down 12 by cords into the dungeon to Jeremiah. And Ebedmelech the Cushite said to Jeremiah, Put now these old cast clouts and decayed rags under thy arm-holes under the cords. And 13 Jeremiah did so. So they drew up Jeremiah with cords, and took him out of the dungeon: and Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison. Then Zedekiah the king sent, and took 14 Jeremiah the prophet to him into the third entry that is in the house of the LORD: and the king said to Jeremiah, I will ask thee a thing; hide nothing from me. Then Jeremiah said to 15 Zedekiah, If I declare it to thee, wilt thou not surely put me to death? and if I give thee counsel, wilt thou not hearken to me? So Zedekiah the king swore secretly to Jeremiah, say- 16 ing, As the LORD liveth, that made us this soul, I will not put thee to death, neither will I give thee into the hand of these men that seek thy life. Then said Jeremiah to Zedekiah, Thus 17 saith the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel; If thou wilt assuredly go forth to the king of Babylon's princes, then thy soul shall live, and this city shall not be burned with fire; and thou shalt live, and thy house: But if thou wilt not go forth to 18 the king of Babylon's princes, then shall this city be given into the hand of the Chaldeans, and they shall burn it with fire, and thou shalt not escape from their hand. And Zedekiah the king 19 said to Jeremiah, I am afraid of the Jews that have fallen to the Chaldeans, lest they deliver me into their hand, and they mock me. But Jeremiah said, They shall not deliver thee. Obey, I 20 beseech thee, the voice of the LORD, which I speak to thee: so it shall be well to thee, and thy soul shall live. But if thou shalt 21 refuse to go forth, this is the word that the LORD hath shown me: And behold, all the women that are left in the king of 22 Judah's house shall be brought forth to the king of Babylon's princes, and those women shall say, Thy friends have set thee on, and have prevailed against thee: thy feet are sunk in the mire, and they are turned away back. So they shall bring out 23 all thy wives and thy children to the Chaldeans: and thou shalt not escape out of their hand, but shalt be taken by the hand of the king of Babylon: and thou shalt cause this city to be burned with fire. Then said Zedekiah to Jeremiah, Let no man know 24 of these words, and thou shalt not die. But if the princes hear that I have talked with thee, and they come to thee, and say to 25 thee, Declare to us now what thou hast said to the king, hide it not from us, and we will not put thee to death; also what the king said to thee: Then thou shalt say to them, I presented 26 my supplication before the king, that he would not cause me to return to Jonathan's house, to die there. Then came all the 27 princes to Jeremiah, and asked him: and he told them according to all these words that the king had commanded. So they left off speaking with him; for the matter was not perceived.

28 So Jeremiah abode in the court of the prison until the day that Jerusalem was taken: and he was there when Jerusalem was taken.

39 In the ninth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the tenth month, came Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon and all his army against Jerusalem, and they besieged it. And in the eleventh year of Zedekiah, in the fourth month, the ninth day of the month, the city was broken up. And all the princes of the king of Babylon came in, and sat in the middle gate, even Nergal-sharezer, Samgar-nebo, Sarsechim, Rab-saris, Nergal-sharezer, Rab-mag, with all the residue of the princes of the king of Babylon. And it came to pass, when Zedekiah the king of Judah saw them, and all the men of war, then they fled, and went out of the city by night, by the way of the king's garden, by the gate betwixt the two walls: and he went out the way of the plain. But the Chaldeans' army pursued them, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho: and when they had taken him, they brought him to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon to Riblah in the land of Hamath, where he gave judgment upon him. Then the king of Babylon slew the sons of Zedekiah in Riblah before his eyes: also the king of Babylon slew all the nobles of Judah. Moreover he put out Zedekiah's eyes, and bound him with chains, to carry him to Babylon. And the Chaldeans burned the king's house, and the houses of the people, with fire, and broke down the walls of Jerusalem. Then Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard carried away captive into Babylon the remnant of the people that remained in the city, and those that fell away, that fell to him, with the rest of the people that remained. But Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard left of the poor of the people, who had nothing, in the land of Judah, and gave them vineyards and fields at the same time. Now Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon gave charge concerning Jeremiah to Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard, saying, Take him, and look well to him, and do him no harm; but do to him even as he shall say to thee. So Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard sent, and Nebushasban, Rab-saris, and Nergal-sharezer, Rab-mag, and all the king of Babylon's princes; Even they sent, and took Jeremiah out of the court of the prison, and committed him to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, that he should carry him home: so he dwelt among the people. Now the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, while he was confined in the court of the prison, saying, Go and speak to Ebed-melech the Cushite, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will bring my words upon this city for evil, and not for good; and they shall be accomplished in that day before thee. But I will deliver thee in that day, saith the LORD: and thou shalt not be given into the hand of the men of whom thou art afraid. For I will surely deliver thee, and thou shalt not fall by the sword, but thy life shall be for a prey to thee: because thou hast put thy trust in me, saith the LORD.

The word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD, after that Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard had let him go from Ramah, when he had taken him being bound in chains among all that were carried away captive of Jerusalem and Judah, who were carried away captive to Babylon. And the captain of the guard took Jeremiah, and said to him, The LORD thy God hath pronounced this evil upon this place. Now the LORD hath brought it, and done according as he hath said: because ye have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed his voice, therefore this thing is come upon you. And now, behold, I loose thee this day from the chains which were upon thy hand. If it seemeth good to thee to come with me into Babylon, come; and I will look well to thee: but if it seemeth ill to thee to come with me into Babylon, forbear: behold, all the land is before thee: whither it seemeth good and convenient for thee to go, thither go. Now while he had not yet gone back, he said, Go back also to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon had made governor over the cities of Judah, and dwell with him among the people: or go wherever it seemeth convenient to thee to go. So the captain of the guard gave him provisions and a reward, and let him go. Then Jeremiah went to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah; and dwelt with him among the people that were left in the land. Now when all the captains of the forces who were in the fields, even they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam governor in the land, and had committed to him men, and women, and children, and of the poor of the land, of them that were not 8 carried away captive to Babylon; Then they came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, even Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth, and the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and Jezaniah 9 the son of a Maachathite, they and their men. And Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, swore to them and to their men, saying, Fear not to serve the Chaldeans: dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well 10 with you. As for me, behold, I will dwell at Mizpah, to serve the Chaldeans, who will come to us: but ye, gather ye wine, and summer fruits, and oil, and put them in your vessels, and 11 dwell in your cities that ye have taken. Likewise when all the Jews that were in Moab, and among the Ammonites, and in Edom, and that were in all the countries, heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant of Judah, and that he had set over them Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan; 12 Even all the Jews returned out of all places whither they were driven, and came to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah, to Mizpah, 13 and gathered wine and summer fruits in abundance. Moreover Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, that were in the fields, came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, 14 And said to him, Dost thou certainly know that Baalis the king of the Ammonites hath sent Ishmael the son of Nethaniah to slay thee? But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam believed them not.

15 Then Johanan the son of Kareah spoke to Gedaliah in Mizpah secretly, saying, Let me go, I pray thee, and I will slay Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and no man shall know it: why should he slay thee, that all the Jews who are gathered to thee should 16 be scattered, and the remnant of Judah perish? But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam said to Johanan the son of Kareah, Thou shalt not do this thing: for thou speakest falsely of Ishmael.

41 Now it came to pass in the seventh month, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah the son of Elishama, of the seed royal, and the princes of the king, even ten men with him, came to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah; and there they ate 2 bread together in Mizpah. Then arose Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and the ten men that were with him, and smote Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan with the sword, and slew him, whom the king of Babylon had made governor over the land. Ishmael also slew all the Jews that were with 3 him, even with Gedaliah, at Mizpah, and the Chaldeans that 4 were found there, and the men of war. And it came to pass 4 the second day after he had slain Gedaliah, and no man knew it, That there came men from Shechem, from Shiloh, and 5 from Samaria, even eighty men, having their beards shaven, and their clothes rent, and having cut themselves, with offerings and incense in their hand, to bring them to the house 6 of the LORD. And Ishmael the son of Nethaniah went forth 6 from Mizpah to meet them, weeping all along as he went: and it came to pass, as he met them, he said to them, Come to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam. And it was so, when they came 7 into the midst of the city, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah slew them, and cast them into the midst of the pit, he, and 8 the men that were with him. But ten men were found among 8 them that said to Ishmael, Slay us not: for we have treasures in the field, of wheat, and of barley, and of oil, and of honey.

So he forbore, and slew them not among their brethren. Now 9 the pit into which Ishmael had cast all the dead bodies of the men, whom he had slain because of Gedaliah, was that which Asa the king had made for fear of Baasha king of Israel: and Ishmael the son of Nethaniah filled it with them that were 10 slain. Then Ishmael carried away captive all the residue of the people that were in Mizpah, even the king's daughters, and all the people that remained in Mizpah, whom Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard had committed to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam: and Ishmael the son of Nethaniah carried them away captive, and departed to go over to the Ammonites. But when 11 Johanah the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, heard of all the evil that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had done. Then they took all the men, and went 12 to fight with Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and found him by the great waters that are in Gibeon. Now it came to pass, 13 that when all the people who were with Ishmael saw Johanah the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, then they were glad. So all the people that Ish- 14 mael had carried away captive from Mizpah cast about and returned, and went to Johanah the son of Kareah. But Ish- 15 mael the son of Nethaniah escaped from Johanah with eight men, and went to the Ammonites. Then Johanah the son of 16

Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, took all the remnant of the people whom he had recovered from Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, from Mizpeh, after that he had slain Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, even mighty men of war, and the women, and the children, and the eunuchs, whom he had 17 brought again from Gibeon. And they departed, and dwelt in the habitation of Chimham, which is by Beth-lehem, to go 18 to enter into Egypt, Because of the Chaldeans: for they were afraid of them, because Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had slain Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon made governor in the land.

42 Then all the captains of the forces, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and Jezaniah the son of Hoshaiah, and all the people 2 from the least even to the greatest, came near. And said to Jeremiah the prophet, We beseech thee, let our supplication be accepted before thee, and pray for us to the LORD thy God, even for all this remnant; (for we are left but a few of many, as 3 thy eyes do behold us:) That the LORD thy God may show us the way in which we may walk, and the thing that we may do.
4 Then Jeremiah the prophet said to them, I have heard you; behold, I will pray to the LORD your God according to your words; and it shall come to pass, that whatever thing the LORD shall answer you, I will declare it to you; I will keep nothing back 5 from you. Then they said to Jeremiah, The LORD be a true and faithful witness between us, if we do not even according to all things for which the LORD thy God shall send thee to 6 us. Whether it be good, or whether it be evil, we will obey the voice of the LORD our God, to whom we send thee; that it may be well with us, when we obey the voice of the LORD our 7 God. And it came to pass after ten days, that the word of the 8 LORD came to Jeremiah. Then called he Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were with him, 9 and all the people from the least even to the greatest, And said to them, Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, to whom 10 ye sent me to present your supplication before him; If ye will still abide in this land, then will I build you, and not pull you down, and I will plant you, and not pluck you up: for I repent 11 of the evil that I have done to you. Be not afraid of the king of Babylon, of whom ye are afraid; be not afraid of him, saith the LORD; for I am with you, to save you, and to deliver you from his hand. And I will show mercies to you, that he may have mercy upon you, and cause you to return to your own land. But if ye say, We will not dwell in this land, neither obey the voice of the LORD your God, Saying, No; but we will go into the land of Egypt, where we shall see no war, nor hear the sound of the trumpet, nor hunger for bread; and there will we dwell: And now therefore hear the word of the LORD, ye remnant of Judah; Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; If ye wholly set your faces to enter into Egypt, and go to sojourn there; Then it shall come to pass, that the sword, which ye feared, shall overtake you there in the land of Egypt, and the famine of which ye were afraid, shall follow close after you there in Egypt; and there ye shall die. So shall it be with all the men that set their faces to go into Egypt to sojourn there; they shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence: and none of them shall remain or escape from the evil that I will bring upon them. For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; As my anger and my fury hath been poured forth upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem: so shall my fury be poured forth upon you, when ye shall enter into Egypt: and ye shall be an execration, and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach; and ye shall see this place no more. The LORD hath said concerning you, O ye remnant of Judah; Go ye not into Egypt: know certainly that I have admonished you this day. For ye dissembled in your hearts, when ye sent me to the LORD your God, saying, Pray for us to the LORD our God; and according to all that the LORD our God shall say, so declare to us, and we will do it. And now I have this day declared it to you; but ye have not obeyed the voice of the LORD your God, nor any thing for which he hath sent me to you. Now therefore know certainly that ye shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, in the place whither ye desire to go and to sojourn.

And it came to pass, that when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking to all the people all the words of the LORD their God, for which the LORD their God had sent him to them, even all these words. Then spoke Azariah the son of Hoshaiah, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the proud men, saying to Jeremiah, Thou speakest falsely: the LORD our God hath not sent thee to say, Go not into Egypt to sojourn there: But

Baruch the son of Neriah setteth thee on against us, to deliver us into the hand of the Chaldeans, that they may put us to 4 death, and carry us away captives into Babylon. So Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, and all the people, obeyed not the voice of the LORD, to dwell in the land of 5 Judah. But Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, took all the remnant of Judah, that had returned from all nations, whither they had been driven, to dwell in the 6 land of Judah; Even men, and women, and children, and the king's daughters, and every person that Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard had left with Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Jeremiah the prophet, and Baruch the 7 son of Neriah. So they came into the land of Egypt: for they obeyed not the voice of the LORD: thus they came even to Tahpanhes. Then came the word of the LORD to Jeremiah in Tahpanhes, saying, Take great stones in thy hand, and hide them in the clay in the brick-kiln, which is at the entry of Pharaoh's 8 house in Tahpanhes, in the sight of the men of Judah; And say to them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Behold, I will send and take Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon, my servant, and will set his throne upon these stones that I have hid; and he shall spread his royal pavilion over them.
9 And when he cometh, he shall smite the land of Egypt, and deliver such as are for death to death; and such as are for captivity to captivity; and such as are for the sword to the sword.
10 And I will kindle a fire in the houses of the gods of Egypt; and he shall burn them, and carry them away captives: and he shall array himself with the land of Egypt, as a shepherd putteth on his garment; and he shall go forth from thence in peace.
11 He shall break also the images of Beth-shemesh, that is in the land of Egypt; and the houses of the gods of the Egyptians shall he burn with fire.

44 The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the Jews who dwell in the land of Egypt, who dwell at Migdol, and at Tahpanhes, and at Noph, and in the country of Pathros, saying, 2 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Ye have seen all the evil that I have brought upon Jerusalem, and upon all the cities of Judah; and behold, this day they are a desolation, and no man dwelleth in them. Because of their wickedness which they have committed to provoke me to anger, in that they went to burn incense, and to serve other gods, whom they knew not, neither they, ye, nor your fathers. Yet I sent to you 4 all my servants the prophets, rising early and sending them, saying, Oh, do not this abominable thing that I hate. But they 5 hearkened not, nor inclined their ear to turn from their wickedness, to burn no incense to other gods. Wherefore my fury and 6 my anger was poured forth, and was kindled in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem; and they are wasted and 7 desolate, as at this day. Therefore now thus saith the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel; Why do ye commit this great 8 evil against your souls, to cut off from you man and woman, child and suckling, out of Judah, to leave you none to remain; In that ye provoke me to wrath with the works of your hands, 8 burning incense to other gods in the land of Egypt, whither ye are gone to dwell, that ye may cut yourselves off, and that ye may be a curse and a reproach among all the nations of the earth? Have ye forgotten the wickedness of your fathers, and 9 the wickedness of the kings of Judah, and the wickedness of their wives, and your own wickedness, and the wickedness of your wives, which they have committed in the land of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem? They are not humbled even 10 to this day, neither have they feared, nor walked in my law, nor in my statutes, that I set before you and before your fathers. Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Be- 11 hold, I will set my face against you for evil, and to cut off all Judah. And I will take the remnant of Judah, that have set 12 their faces to go into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, and they shall all be consumed, and fall in the land of Egypt; they shall even be consumed by the sword and by the famine: they shall die, from the least even to the greatest, by the sword and by the famine: and they shall be an execration, and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach. For I will punish them 13 that dwell in the land of Egypt, as I have punished Jerusalem, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence: So that 14 none of the remnant of Judah, who have gone into the land of Egypt, to sojourn there, shall escape or remain, that they should return into the land of Judah, to which they have a desire to return to dwell there: for none shall return but such as shall escape. Then all the men who knew that their wives had 15 burned incense to other gods, and all the women that stood by, a great multitude, even all the people that dwelt in the land of Egypt, in Pathros, answered Jeremiah, saying, As for the word that thou hast spoken to us in the name of the LORD, we will not hearken to thee. But we will certainly do whatever thing proceedeth from our own mouth, to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink-offerings to her, as we have done, we, and our fathers, our kings, and our princes, in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem: for then we had plenty of provisions, and were well, and saw no evil. But since we ceased to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink-offerings to her, we have wanted all things, and have been consumed by the sword and by the famine. And when we burned incense to the queen of heaven, and poured out drink-offerings to her, did we make for her cakes to worship her, and pour out drink-offerings to her, without our men? Then Jeremiah said to all the people, to the men, and to the women, and to all the people who had given him that answer, saying, The incense that ye burned in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, ye and your fathers, your kings and your princes, and the people of the land, did not the LORD remember them, and came it not into his mind? So that the LORD could no longer bear, because of the evil of your doings, and because of the abominations which ye have committed; therefore is your land a desolation, and an astonishment, and a curse, without an inhabitant, as at this day. Because ye have burned incense, and because ye have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD, nor walked in his law, nor in his statutes, nor in his testimonies; therefore this evil hath happened to you, as at this day. Moreover, Jeremiah said to all the people, and to all the women, Hear the word of the LORD, all Judah that are in the land of Egypt: Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying; Ye and your wives have both spoken with your mouths, and fulfilled with your hand, saying, We will surely perform our vows that we have vowed, to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink-offerings to her: ye will surely accomplish your vows, and surely perform your vows. Therefore hear ye the word of the LORD, all Judah that dwell in the land of Egypt; Behold, I have sworn by my great name, saith the LORD, that my name shall no more be named in the mouth of any man of Judah in all the land of Egypt, saying, The Lord GOD liveth. Behold, I will watch over them for evil, and not for good: and all the men of Judah that are in the land of Egypt shall be consumed by the sword and by the famine, until there shall be an end of them. Yet a small number that escape the sword shall return from the land of Egypt into the land of Judah, and all the remnant of Judah, that have gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, shall know whose words shall stand, mine, or theirs. And this shall be a sign to you, saith the LORD, that I will punish you in this place, that ye may know that my words shall surely stand against you for evil: Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will give Pharaoh-hophra king of Egypt into the hand of his enemies, and into the hand of them that seek his life; as I gave Zedekiah king of Judah into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, his enemy, and that sought his life.

The word that Jeremiah the prophet spoke to Baruch the son of Neriah, when he had written these words in a book from the mouth of Jeremiah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, saying, Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, to thee, O Baruch; Thou didst say, Woe is me now! for the LORD hath added grief to my sorrow; I fainted in my sighing, and I find no rest. Thus shalt thou say to him, The LORD saith thus; Behold, that which I have built I will break down, and that which I have planted I will pluck up, even this whole land. And seekest thou great things for thyself? seek them not: for behold, I will bring evil upon all flesh, saith the LORD: but thy life will I give to thee for a prey in all places whither thou goest.

The word of the LORD which came to Jeremiah the prophet against the Gentiles; Against Egypt, against the army of Pharaoh-necho king of Egypt, who was by the river Euphrates in Carshemish, whom Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon smote in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah. Order ye the buckler and shield, and draw near to battle. Harness the horses; and mount, ye horsemen, and stand forth with your helmets; furbish the spears, and put on the coats of mail. Why have I seen them dismayed and turned away back? and their mighty ones are beaten down, and have fled apace, and look not back: for fear was on all sides, saith the LORD. Let not the swift flee away, nor the mighty man escape! they shall stumble, and fall towards the north by the river Euphrates.

7 Who is this that cometh up as a flood, whose waters are moved 8 as the rivers? Egypt riseth up like a flood, and his waters are 9 moved like the rivers; and he saith, I will go up, and will cover 10 the earth; I will destroy the city and its inhabitants. Come up, ye horses; and rage, ye chariots; and let the mighty men come 11 forth: the Cushites and the Libyans, that handle the shield; 12 and the Lydians that handle and bend the bow. For this is the day of the Lord GOD of hosts, a day of vengeance, that he may avenge him of his adversaries: and the sword shall devour, and it shall be satiated and made drunk with their 13 blood: for the Lord GOD of hosts hath a sacrifice in the north 14 country by the river Euphrates. Go up into Gilead, and take balm, O virgin, the daughter of Egypt: in vain shalt thou use 15 many medicines; for thou shalt not be cured. The nations have heard of thy shame, and thy cry hath filled the land: for the mighty man hath stumbled against the mighty, and they 16 have fallen both together. The word that the LORD spoke to Jeremiah the prophet, how Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon 17 should come and smite the land of Egypt. Declare ye in Egypt, and publish in Migdol, and publish in Noph and in Tahpanhes: say ye, Stand fast, and prepare thee; for the sword shall de-18 vour around thee. Why are thy valiant men swept away? they stood not, because the LORD did drive them. He made many to fall, yes, one fell upon another: and they said, Arise, and let us go again to our own people, and to the land of our nativity, 19 from the oppressing sword. They cried there, Pharaoh king of Egypt is but a noise; he hath passed the time appointed. As I live, saith the king, whose name is the LORD of hosts, Surely as Tabor is among the mountains, and as Carmel by the sea, 20 so shall he come. O thou daughter dwelling in Egypt, furnish thyself to go into captivity: for Noph shall be waste and desolate without an inhabitant. Egypt is like a very fair heifer, but 21 destruction cometh; it cometh out of the north. Also her hired men are in the midst of her like fatted bullocks; for they also have turned back, and have fled away together: they did not stand, because the day of their calamity had come upon them, 22 and the time of their visitation. The voice thereof shall go like a serpent; for they shall march with an army, and come against 23 her with axes, as hewers of wood. They shall cut down her forest, saith the LORD, though it cannot be searched; because they are more than the grasshoppers, and are innumerable. The daughter of Egypt shall be confounded; she shall be delivered into the hand of the people of the north. The LORD of hosts, the God of Israel saith: Behold, I will punish the multitude of No, and Pharaoh, and Egypt, with their gods, and their kings; even Pharaoh, and all them that trust in him: And I will deliver them into the hand of those that seek their lives, and into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of his servants: and afterward it shall be inhabited, as in the days of old, saith the LORD. But fear not thou, O my servant Jacob, and be not dismayed, O Israel: for behold, I will save thee from afar, and thy seed from the land of their captivity; and Jacob shall return, and be in rest and at ease, and none shall make him afraid. Fear thou not, O Jacob my servant, saith the LORD: for I am with thee; for I will make a full end of all the nations whither I have driven thee: but I will not make a full end of thee, but correct thee in measure; yet will I not leave thee wholly unpunished.

The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet against the Philistines, before Pharaoh smote Gaza. Thus saith the LORD; Behold, waters rise out of the north, and shall be an overflowing flood, and shall overflow the land, and all that is in it; the city, and them that dwell therein: then the men shall cry, and all the inhabitants of the land shall howl. At the noise of the stamping of the hoofs of his strong horses, at the rushing of his chariots, and at the rumbling of his wheels, the fathers shall not look back to their children for feebleness of hands: Because of the day that cometh to lay waste all the Philistines, and to cut off from Tyre and Zidon every helper that remaineth: for the LORD will lay waste the Philistines, the remnant of the country of Caphtor. Baldness is come upon Gaza; Ashkelon is cut off with the remnant of their valley: how long wilt thou cut thyself? O thou sword of the LORD, how long will it be ere thou be quiet? put up thyself into thy scabbard, rest, and be still. How can it be quiet, seeing the LORD hath given it a charge against Ashkelon, and against the sea shore? there hath he appointed it.

Against Moab thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Woe to Nebo! for it is laid waste: Kiriathaim is con-

2 founded and taken: Misgab is confounded and dismayed. There shall be no more praise of Moab: in Heshbon they have devised evil against it; come, and let us cut it off from being a nation. Also thou shalt be cut down, O Madmen; the sword shall pursue thee. A voice of crying shall be from Horonaim, devastation and great destruction. Moab is destroyed; her little ones have caused a cry to be heard. For in the ascent of Luhith continual weeping shall go up; for in the descent of Horonaim the enemies have heard a cry of destruction. Flee, save your lives, and be like the heath in the wilderness. For because thou hast trusted in thy works and in thy treasures, thou also shalt be taken: and Chemosh shall go forth into captivity with his priests and his princes together. And the spoiler shall come upon every city, and no city shall escape: the valley also shall perish, and the plain shall be destroyed, as the LORD hath spoken. Give wings to Moab, that it may flee and get away: for its cities shall be desolate, without any to dwell in them. Cursed be he that doeth the work of the LORD deceitfully, and cursed be he that keepeth back his sword from blood. Moab hath been at ease from his youth, and he hath settled on his lees, and hath not been emptied from vessel to vessel, neither hath he gone into captivity: therefore his taste remained in him, and his scent is not changed. Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will send to him wanderers that shall cause him to wander, and shall empty his vessels, and break their bottles. And Moab shall be ashamed of Chemosh, as the house of Israel was ashamed of Beth-el their confidence. How say ye, We are mighty and strong men for the war? Moab is laid waste, and gone up out of her cities, and his chosen young men are gone down to the slaughter, saith the king, whose name is the LORD of hosts. The calamity of Moab is near to come, and his affliction hasteth fast. All ye that are about him bemoan him; and all ye that know his name, say, How is the strong staff broken, and the beautiful rod! Thou daughter that dost inhabit Dibon, come down from thy glory, and sit in thirst; for the spoiler of Moab shall come upon thee, and he shall destroy thy strong holds. O inhabitant of Aroer, stand by the way, and espy; ask him that fleeth, and her that escapeth, and say, What is done? Moab is confounded; for it is broken down: howl and cry; tell ye it in Arnon, that Moab is laid waste. And judgment is come upon the plain 21 country; upon Holon, and upon Jahazah, and upon Mephaath, And upon Dibon, and upon Nebo, and upon Beth-diblathaim, 22

And upon Kiriathaim, and upon Beth-gamul, and upon Beth- 23 meon, And upon Kerioth, and upon Bozrah, and upon all the 24 cities of the land of Moab, far or near. The horn of Moab is 25 cut off, and his arm is broken, saith the LORD. Make ye him 26 drunken; for he magnified himself against the LORD: Moab also shall wallow in his vomit, and he also shall be in derision.
For was not Israel a derision to thee? was he found among 27 thieves? for since thou hast spoken of him, thou hast leaped for joy. O ye that dwell in Moab, leave the cities, and dwell 28 in the rock, and be like the dove that maketh her nest in the sides of the hole's mouth. We have heard the pride of Moab, 29 (he is exceeding proud) his loftiness, and his arrogance, and his pride, and the haughtiness of his heart. I know his wrath, 30 saith the LORD; but it shall not be so; his lies shall not so effect it. Therefore will I howl for Moab, and I will cry out for 31 all Moab; my heart shall mourn for the men of Kirheres. O 32 vine of Sibmah, I will weep for thee with the weeping of Jazer: thy plants have gone over the sea, they reach even to the sea of Jazer: the spoiler hath fallen upon thy summer fruits and upon thy vintage. And joy and gladness is taken from the plentiful 33 field, and from the land of Moab; and I have caused wine to fail from the wine-presses: none shall tread with shouting; their shouting shall be no shouting. From the cry of Heshbon even 34 to Elealeh, and even to Jahaz, have they uttered their voice, from Zoar even to Horonaim, as a heifer of three years old: for the waters also of Nimrim shall be desolate. Moreover I 35 will cause to cease in Moab, saith the LORD, him that offereth in the high places, and him that burneth incense to his gods.
Therefore my heart shall sound for Moab like pipes, and my 36 heart shall sound like pipes for the men of Kirheres: because the riches that he hath gotten have perished. For every head 37 shall be bald, and every beard clipped: upon all the hands shall be cuttings, and upon the loins sackcloth. There shall 38 be lamentation generally upon all the house-tops of Moab, and in its streets: for I have broken Moab like a vessel in which is no pleasure, saith the LORD. They shall howl, saying, How is 39 it broken down! how hath Moab turned the back with shame!

so shall Moab be a derision and a dismaying to all them about 40 him. For thus saith the LORD; Behold, he shall fly as an eagle, 41 and shall spread his wings over Moab. Kerioth is taken, and the strong holds are surprised, and the mighty men's hearts in Moab at that day shall be as the heart of a woman in her pangs.
42 And Moab shall be destroyed from being a people, because he 43 hath magnified himself against the LORD. Fear, and the pit, and the snare, shall be upon thee, O inhabitant of Moab, saith 44 the LORD. He that fleeth from the fear, shall fall into the pit; and he that getteth out of the pit, shall be taken in the snare: for I will bring upon it, even upon Moab, the year of their visita-45 tion, saith the LORD. They that fled stood under the shade of Heshbon because of the force: but a fire shall come out of Heshbon, and a flame from the midst of Sihon, and shall devour the corner of Moab, and the crown of the head of the tumultu-46 ous ones. Woe be to thee, O Moab! the people of Chemosh perisheth: for thy sons are taken captives, and thy daughters 47 captives. Yet will I bring again the captivity of Moab in the latter days, saith the LORD. Thus far is the judgment of Moab.
49 Concerning the Ammonites, thus saith the LORD; Hath Israel no sons? hath he no heir? why then doth their king inherit 2 Gad, and his people dwell in his cities? Therefore behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will cause an alarm of war to be heard in Rabbah of the Ammonites; and it shall be a desolate heap, and her daughters shall be burned with fire: then shall Israel be heir to them that were his heirs, saith the LORD.
3 Howl, O Heshbon, for Ai is laid waste: cry, ye daughters of Rabbah, gird you with sackcloth; lament, and run to and fro by the hedges; for their king shall go into captivity, and his priests 4 and his princes together. Why gloriest thou in the valleys, thy flowing valley, O backsliding daughter? that trusted in her 5 treasures, saying, Who shall come to me? Behold, I will bring a fear upon thee, saith the Lord GOD of hosts, from all those that are about thee; and ye shall be driven out every man right 6 forth; and none shall gather up him that wandereth. And afterward I will bring again the captivity of the children of Am-7 mon, saith the LORD. Concerning Edom, thus saith the LORD of hosts; Is wisdom no more in Teman? hath counsel perished 8 from the prudent? hath their wisdom vanished? Flee ye, turn back, dwell deep, O inhabitants of Dedan; for I will bring the calamity of Esau upon him, the time that I will visit him. If 9 grape-gatherers come to thee, would they not leave some gleaning grapes? if thieves by night, they will destroy till they have enough. But I have made Esau bare, I have uncovered his se- 10 cret places, and he shall not be able to hide himself: his seed is laid waste, and his brethren, and his neighbors, and he is not. Leave thy fatherless children, I will preserve them alive; 11 and let thy widows trust in me. For thus saith the LORD; Be- 12 hold, they whose judgment was not to drink of the cup have assuredly drank; and art thou he that shall altogether go unpunished? thou shalt not go unpunished, but thou shalt surely drink of it. For I have sworn by myself, saith the LORD, that 13 Bozrah shall become a desolation, a reproach, a waste, and a curse; and all her cities shall be perpetual wastes. I have 14 heard a rumor from the LORD, and an ambassador is sent to the heathen, saying, Assemble, and come against her, and rise up to the battle. For lo, I will make thee small among the 15 heathen, and despised among men. Thy terribleness hath de- 16 ceived thee, and the pride of thy heart, O thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rock, that holdest the hight of the hill: though thou shouldst make thy nest as high as the eagle, I will bring thee down from thence, saith the LORD. Also Edom shall be a 17 desolation: every one that goeth by it shall be astonished, and shall hiss at all her plagues. As in the overthrow of Sodom 18 and Gomorrah and the neighboring cities, saith the LORD, no man shall abide there, neither shall a son of man dwell in it.

Behold, he shall come up like a lion from the swelling of Jor- 19 dan against the habitation of the strong: but I will suddenly make him run away from her: and who is a chosen man, that I may appoint over her? for who is like me? and who will appoint me the time? and who is that shepherd that will stand before me? Therefore hear the counsel of the LORD, that he 20 hath taken against Edom; and his purposes, that he hath pur-posed against the inhabitants of Teman: surely the least of the flock shall draw them out: surely he shall make their habitations desolate with them. The earth is moved at the noise 21 of their fall, at the cry the noise of it was heard in the Red sea. Behold, he shall come up and fly as the eagle, and spread 22 his wings over Bozrah: and at that day shall the heart of the mighty men of Edom be as the heart of a woman in her pangs.

23 Concerning Damascus. Hamath is confounded, and Arpad: for they have heard evil tidings: they are faint-hearted; there is 24 sorrow on the sea; it cannot be quiet. Damascus hath become feeble, and turneth herself to flee, and fear hath seized on her: anguish and sorrows have taken her, as a woman in travail.
25, 26 How is the city of praise not left, the city of my joy! Therefore her young men shall fall in her streets, and all the men of 27 war shall be cut off in that day, saith the LORD of hosts. And I will kindle a fire in the wall of Damascus, and it shall consume the palaces of Ben-hadad. Concerning Kedar, and concerning the kingdoms of Hazor, which Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon shall smite, thus saith the LORD; Arise ye, go up 29 to Kedar, and lay waste the men of the east. Their tents and their flocks shall they take away: they shall take to themselves their curtains, and all their vessels, and their camels; and they 30 shall cry to them, Fear is on every side. Flee, get you far off, dwell deep, O ye inhabitants of Hazor, saith the LORD; for Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon hath taken counsel against you, 31 and hath conceived a purpose against you. Arise, go up to the wealthy nation, that dwelleth without care, saith the LORD, 32 which have neither gates nor bars, which dwell alone. And their camels shall be a booty, and the multitude of their cattle a spoil: and I will scatter into all winds them that are in the utmost corners; and I will bring their calamity from all 33 sides of it, saith the LORD. And Hazor shall be a dwelling for dragons, and a desolation for ever: there shall no man abide there, nor any son of man dwell in it. The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet against Elam in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Behold, I will break the bow of Elam, the chief of their might. And upon Elam will I bring the four winds from the four quarters of heaven, and will scatter them towards all those winds; and there shall be no nation whither 37 the outcasts of Elam shall not come. For I will cause Elam to be dismayed before their enemies, and before them that seek their life: and I will bring evil upon them, even my fierce anger, saith the LORD; and I will send the sword after them, till I have 38 consumed them: And I will set my throne in Elam, and will destroy from thence the king and the princes, saith the LORD.
39 But it shall come to pass in the latter days, that I will bring again the captivity of Elam, saith the LORD.

The word that the LORD spoke against Babylon and against 50 the land of the Chaldeans by Jeremiah the prophet. Declare 2 ye among the nations, and publish, and set up a standard; publish, and conceal not: say, Babylon is taken, Bel is confounded, Merodach is broken in pieces; her idols are confounded, her images are broken in pieces. For out of the north there cometh 3 a nation against her, which shall make her land desolate, and none shall dwell in it, they shall remove, they shall depart, both man and beast. In those days, and in that time, saith 4 the LORD, the children of Israel shall come, they and the children of Judah together, going and weeping; they shall go, and seek the LORD their God. They shall ask the way to Zion with 5 their faces towards it, saying, Come, and let us join ourselves to the LORD in a perpetual covenant that shall not be forgotten.
My people have been lost sheep: their shepherds have caused 6 them to go astray, they have turned them away on the mountains: they have gone from mountain to hill, they have forgotten their resting-place. All that found them have devoured 7 them: and their adversaries said, We offend not, because they have sinned against the LORD, the habitation of justice, even the LORD, the hope of their fathers. Remove out of the midst 8 of Babylon, and go forth from the land of the Chaldeans, and be as the he-goats before the flocks. For lo, I will raise and 9 cause to come against Babylon an assembly of great nations from the north country: and they shall set themselves in array against her; from thence she shall be taken: their arrows shall be as of a mighty expert man; none shall return in vain. And 10 Chaldea shall be a spoil: all that spoil her shall be satisfied, saith the LORD. Because ye were glad, because ye rejoiced, 11 O ye destroyers of my heritage, because ye are grown fat as the heifer at grass, and bellow as bulls; Your mother shall be 12 greatly confounded; she that bore you shall be ashamed: behold, the hindermost of the nations shall be a wilderness, a dry land, and a desert. Because of the wrath of the LORD it 13 shall not be inhabited, but it shall be wholly desolate: every one that goeth by Babylon shall be astonished, and hiss at all her plagues. Put yourselves in array against Babylon on every 14 side: all ye that bend the bow, shoot at her, spare no arrows: for she hath sinned against the LORD. Shout against her on ev- 15 ery side; she hath given her hand: her foundations are fallen, her walls are thrown down: for it is the vengeance of the LORD: 16 take vengeance upon her; as she hath done, do to her. Cut off the sower from Babylon, and him that handleth the sickle in the time of harvest: for fear of the oppressing sword they shall turn every one to his people, and they shall flee every one 17 to his own land. Israel is a scattered sheep; the lions have driven him away: first the king of Assyria hath devoured him; and last this Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon hath broken his 18 bones. Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will punish the king of Babylon and his land, as I have punished the king of Assyria. And I will bring Israel again to his habitation, and he shall feed on Carmel and Bashan, and his soul shall be satisfied upon mount Ephraim 20 and Gilead. In those days, and in that time, saith the LORD, the iniquity of Israel shall be sought for, and there shall be none; and the sins of Judah, and they shall not be found: for 21 I will pardon them whom I reserve. Go up against the land of Merathaim, even against it, and against the inhabitants of Pekod: waste and utterly destroy after them, saith the LORD, 22 and do according to all that I have commanded thee. A sound of battle is in the land, and of great destruction. How is the hammer of the whole earth cut asunder and broken! how is 24 Babylon become a desolation among the nations! I have laid a snare for thee, and thou art also taken, O Babylon, and thou wast not aware: thou art found, and also caught, because thou 25 hast striven against the LORD. The LORD hath opened his armory, and hath brought forth the weapons of his indignation: for this is the work of the Lord GOD of hosts in the land of the 26 Chaldeans. Come against her from the utmost border, open her store-houses: cast her up as heaps, and destroy her utterly: 27 let nothing of her be left. Slay all her bullocks; let them go down to the slaughter: woe to them! for their day is come, the 28 time of their visitation. The voice of them that flee and escape from the land of Babylon, to declare in Zion the vengeance of the LORD our God, the vengeance of his temple. Call together the archers against Babylon: all ye that bend the bow, encamp against it on every side; let none thereof escape: recompense her according to her work; according to all that she hath done, do to her: for she hath been proud against the LORD, against the Holy One of Israel. Therefore her young men shall fall 30 in the streets, and all her men of war shall be cut off in that day, saith the LORD. Behold, I am against thee, O thou most 31 proud, saith the Lord GOD of hosts: for thy day is come, the time that I will visit thee. And the most proud shall stumble 32 and fall, and none shall raise him up: and I will kindle a fire in his cities, and it shall devour all around him. Thus saith the 33 LORD of hosts; The children of Israel and the children of Judah were oppressed together: and all that took them captives held them fast; they refused to let them go. Their Redeemer is 34 strong; the LORD of hosts is his name: he will thoroughly plead their cause, that he may give rest to the land, and disquiet the inhabitants of Babylon. A sword is upon the Chaldeans, saith 35 the LORD, and upon the inhabitants of Babylon, and upon her princes, and upon her wise men. A sword is upon the liars; 36 and they shall be sottish: a sword is upon her mighty men; and they shall be dismayed. A sword is upon their horses, and 37 upon their chariots, and upon all the mingled people that are in the midst of her; and they shall become as women: a sword is upon her treasures; and they shall be robbed. A drouth is 38 upon her waters; and they shall be dried up: for it is the land of graven images, and they are mad upon their idols. Therefore 39 the wild beasts of the desert with the wild beasts of the isles, shall dwell there, and the owls shall dwell therein: and it shall be no more inhabited for ever; neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation. As God overthrew Sodom and Go- 40 morrah and the neighboring cities, saith the LORD; so shall no man abide there, neither shall any son of man dwell therein.

Behold, a people shall come from the north, and a great nation 41 and many kings shall be raised up from the borders of the earth. They shall hold the bow and the lance: they are cruel, 42 and will not show mercy: their voice shall roar like the sea, and they shall ride upon horses, every one put in array, like a man to the battle, against thee, O daughter of Babylon. The 43 king of Babylon hath heard the report of them, and his hands became feeble: anguish took hold of him, and pangs as of a woman in travail. Behold, he shall come up like a lion from 44 the swelling of Jordan to the habitation of the strong: but I will make them suddenly run away from her: and who is a chosen man, that I may appoint over her? for who is like me? and who will appoint me the time? and who is that shepherd that will 45 stand before me? Therefore hear ye the counsel of the LORD, that he hath taken against Babylon; and his purposes, that he hath purposed against the land of the Chaldeans: Surely the least of the flock shall draw them out: surely he shall make 46 their habitation desolate with them. At the noise of the taking of Babylon the earth is moved, and the cry is heard among the nations.

51 Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will raise up against Babylon, and against them that dwell in the midst of them that rise 2 against me, a destroying wind; And will send to Babylon fanners, that shall fan her, and shall empty her land: for in the 3 day of trouble they shall be against her on all sides. Against him that bendeth let the archer bend his bow, and against him that lifteth himself up in his coat of mail: and spare ye not her 4 young men; destroy ye utterly all her host. Thus the slain shall fall in the land of the Chaldeans, and they that are thrust 5 through in her streets. For Israel hath not been forsaken, nor Judah by his God, by the LORD of hosts; though their land was 6 filled with sin against the Holy One of Israel. Flee from the midst of Babylon, and deliver every man his soul: be not cut off in her iniquity; for this is the time of the LORD'S vengeance; he 7 will render to her a recompense. Babylon hath been a golden cup in the LORD'S hand, that made all the earth drunken: the nations have drank of her wine; therefore the nations are mad.
8 Babylon is suddenly fallen and destroyed: howl for her; take 9 balm for her pain, it may be she may be healed. We would have healed Babylon, but she is not healed: forsake her, and let us go every one into his own country: for her judgment rea-10 cheth to heaven, and is lifted even to the skies. The LORD hath brought forth our righteousness: come, and let us declare 11 in Zion the work of the LORD our God. Make bright the arrows; gather the shields: the LORD hath raised up the spirit of the kings of the Medes: for his purpose is against Babylon, to destroy it; because it is the vengeance of the LORD, the 12 vengeance of his temple. Set up the standard upon the walls of Babylon, make the watch strong, set up the watchmen, prepare the ambushes: for the LORD hath both devised and done 13 that which he spoke against the inhabitants of Babylon. O thou that dwellest upon many waters, abundant in treasures, thy end is come, and the measure of thy covetousness. The LORD of hosts hath sworn by himself, saying, Surely I will fill thee with men, as with caterpillars; and they shall raise a shout against thee. He hath made the earth by his power, he hath established the world by his wisdom, and hath stretched out the heaven by his understanding. When he uttereth his voice, there is a multitude of waters in the heavens; and he causeth the vapors to ascend from the ends of the earth: he maketh lightnings with rain, and bringeth forth the wind out of his treasures. Every man is brutish by his knowledge; every founder is confounded by the graven image: for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them. They are vanity, the work of errors: in the time of their visitation they shall perish. The portion of Jacob is not like them; for he is the former of all things: and Israel is the rod of his inheritance: the LORD of hosts is his name. Thou art my battle-ax and weapons of war: for with thee will I break in pieces the nations, and with thee will I destroy kingdoms; And with thee will I break in pieces the horse and his rider; and with thee will I break in pieces the chariot and its rider; With thee also will I break in pieces man and woman; and with thee will I break in pieces old and young; and with thee will I break in pieces the young man and the maid; I will also break in pieces with thee the shepherd and his flock; and with thee will I break in pieces the husbandman and his yoke of oxen; and with thee will I break in pieces captains and rulers. And I will render to Babylon and to all the inhabitants of Chaldea all their evil that they have done in Zion in your sight, saith the LORD. Behold, I am against thee, O destroying mountain, saith the LORD, which destroyest all the earth: and I will stretch out my hand upon thee, and roll thee down from the rocks, and will make thee a burnt mountain. And they shall not take of thee a stone for a corner, nor a stone for foundations; but thou shalt be desolate for ever, saith the LORD. Set ye up a standard in the land, blow the trumpet among the nations, prepare the nations against her, call together against her the kingdoms of Ararat, Minni, and Ashchenaz; appoint a captain against her; cause the horses to come up as the rough caterpillars. Prepare against her the nations with the kings of Media, her captains, and all her rulers, and all the land of his 29 dominion. And the land shall tremble and sorrow: for every purpose of the LORD shall be performed against Babylon, to make the land of Babylon a desolation without an inhabitant.

30 The mighty men of Babylon have forborne to fight, they have remained in their holds: their might hath failed; they became as women: they have burned her dwelling-places; her bars are

31 broken. One post shall run to meet another, and one messenger to meet another, to show the king of Babylon that his city is 32 taken at one end, And that the passages are stopped, and the reeds they have burned with fire, and the men of war are affrighted.

33 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; The daughter of Babylon is like a threshing-floor, it is time to thresh her: yet a little while, and the time of her harvest shall

34 come. Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon hath devoured me, he hath crushed me, he hath made me an empty vessel, he hath swallowed me up like a dragon, he hath filled his belly

35 with my delicates, he hath cast me out. The violence done to me and to my flesh be upon Babylon, shall the inhabitant of Zion say; and my blood upon the inhabitants of Chaldea, shall

36 Jerusalem say. Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will plead thy cause, and take vengeance for thee; and I will dry up 37 her sea, and make her springs dry. And Babylon shall become heaps, a dwelling-place for dragons, an astonishment, and a 38 hissing, without an inhabitant. They shall roar together like lions: they shall yell as lions' whelps. In their heat I will

39 make their feasts, and I will make them drunken, that they may rejoice, and sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake, saith

40 the LORD. I will bring them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams with he-goats. How is Sheshach taken! and how

41 is the praise of the whole earth surprised! how is Babylon become an astonishment among the nations! The sea is come up

42 upon Babylon: she is covered with the multitude of its waves. Her cities are a desolation, a dry land, and a wilderness, a land

43 in which no man dwelleth, neither doth any son of man pass by it. And I will punish Bel in Babylon, and I will bring forth

44 out of his mouth that which he hath swallowed: and the nations shall not flow together any more to him: even the wall of

45 Babylon shall fall. My people, depart from the midst of her, and deliver ye every man his soul from the fierce anger of the

46 LORD. And lest your heart should faint, and ye should fear for the rumor that shall be heard in the land; a rumor shall both come one year, and after that in another year shall come a rumor, and violence in the land, ruler against ruler. Therefore behold, the days come, that I will do judgment upon the graven images of Babylon: and her whole land shall be confounded, and all her slain shall fall in the midst of her. Then the heaven and the earth, and all that is in them, shall sing for Babylon: for the spoilers shall come to her from the north, saith the LORD. As Babylon hath caused the slain of Israel to fall, so at Babylon shall fall the slain of all the earth. Ye that have escaped the sword, go away, stand not still: remember the LORD afar off, and let Jerusalem come into your mind. We are confounded, because we have heard reproach: shame hath covered our faces: for strangers are come into the sanctuaries of the LORD'S house. Wherefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will do judgment upon her graven images: and through all her land the wounded shall groan. Though Babylon should mount up to heaven, and though she should fortify the height of her strength, yet from me shall spoilers come to her, saith the LORD. A sound of a cry cometh from Babylon, and great destruction from the land of the Chaldeans: Because the LORD hath laid waste Babylon, and destroyed out of her the great voice; when her waves roar like great waters, a noise of their voice is uttered: Because the spoiler is come upon her, even upon Babylon, and her mighty men are taken, every one of their bows is broken: for the Lord GOD of recompenses shall surely requite. And I will make drunk her princes, and her wise men, her captains, and her rulers, and her mighty men: and they shall sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake, saith the king, whose name is the LORD of hosts. Thus saith the LORD of hosts; The broad walls of Babylon shall be utterly broken, and her high gates shall be burned with fire; and the people shall labor in vain, and the people in the fire, and they shall be weary. The word which Jeremiah the prophet commanded Seraiah the son of Neriah, the son of Maaseiah, when he went with Zedekiah the king of Judah into Babylon in the fourth year of his reign. And this Seraiah was a quiet prince. So Jeremiah wrote in a book all the evil that should come upon Babylon, even all these words that are written against Babylon. And Jeremiah said to Seraiah, When 62 thou shalt come to Babylon, and shalt see, and shalt read all these words; Then shalt thou say, O LORD, thou hast spoken 63 against this place, to cut it off, that none shall remain in it, neither man nor beast, but that it shall be desolate for ever. And it shall be, when thou hast made an end of reading this book, that thou shalt bind a stone to it, and cast it into the midst of 64 Euphrates: And thou shalt say, Thus shall Babylon sink, and shall not rise from the evil that I will bring upon her: and they shall be weary. Thus far are the words of Jeremiah.

52 Zedekiah was one and twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hamutal, the daughter of Jeremiah of Lib-2 nah. And he did that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD, 3 according to all that Jehoiakim had done. For through the anger of the LORD it came to pass in Jerusalem and Judah, till he had cast them out from his presence, that Zedekiah re-4 belled against the king of Babylon. And it came to pass in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem, and encamped against 5 it, and built forts against it on every side. So the city was 6 besieged to the eleventh year of king Zedekiah. And in the fourth month, in the ninth day of the month, the famine was severe in the city, so that there was no bread for the people of 7 the land. Then the city was broken up, and all the men of war fled, and went forth from the city by night by the way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the king's garden; (now the Chaldeans were by the city on all sides:) and they 8 went by the way of the plain. But the army of the Chaldeans pursued the king, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jeri-9 cho; and all his army was scattered from him. Then they took the king, and carried him to the king of Babylon to Riblah in 10 the land of Hamath; where he gave judgment upon him. And the king of Babylon slew the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes: 11 he slew also all the princes of Judah in Riblah. Then he put out the eyes of Zedekiah; and the king of Babylon bound him in chains, and carried him to Babylon, and put him in prison till 12 the day of his death. Now in the fifth month, in the tenth day of the month, which was the nineteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, came Nebuzar-adan, captain of the guard, who served the king of Babylon, into Jerusalem, And burned 13 the house of the LORD, and the king's house; and all the houses of Jerusalem, and all the houses of the great men he burned with fire: And all the army of the Chaldeans, that were with 14 the captain of the guard, broke down all the walls of Jerusalem on every side. Then Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard 15 carried away captive certain of the poor of the people, and the residue of the people that remained in the city, and those that fell away, that fell to the king of Babylon, and the rest of the multitude. But Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard left 16 certain of the poor of the land for vine-dressers and for hus-bandmen. Also the pillars of brass that were in the house of 17 the LORD, and the bases, and the brazen sea that was in the house of the LORD, the Chaldeans broke, and carried all the brass of them to Babylon. The caldrons also, and the shovels, 18 and the snuffers, and the bowls, and the spoons, and all the vessels of brass with which they ministered, they took away.

And the basins, and the fire-pans, and the bowls, and the cal- 19 drons, and the candlesticks, and the spoons, and the cups; that which was of gold in gold, and that which was of silver in silver, the captain of the guard took away. The two pillars, one 20 sea, and twelve brazen bulls that were under the bases, which king Solomon had made in the house of the LORD: the brass of all these vessels was without weight. And concerning the 21 pillars, the hight of one pillar was eighteen cubits; and a fillet of twelve cubits encompassed it; and the thickness of it was four fingers: it was hollow. And a capital of brass was upon it; 22 and the hight of one capital was five cubits, with net-work and pomegranates upon the capitals around, all of brass. The second pillar also and the pomegranates were like to these. And 23 there were ninety and six pomegranates on a side; and all the pomegranates upon the net-work were a hundred on all sides.
And the captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, and 24 Zephaniah the second priest, and the three keepers of the door:
He took also out of the city a eunuch, who had the charge of the 25 men of war; and seven men of them that were near the king's person, who were found in the city; and the principal scribe of the host, who mustered the people of the land; and sixty men of the people of the land, that were found in the midst of the city. So Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard took them, 26 27 and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah. And the king of Babylon smote them, and put them to death in Riblah, in the land of Hamath. Thus Judah was carried away captive 28 out of his own land. This is the people whom Nebuchadrezzar carried away captive: in the seventh year three thousand Jews 29 and three and twenty: In the eighteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar he carried away captive from Jerusalem eight hundred 30 thirty and two persons: In the three and twentieth year of Nebuchadrezzar, Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard carried away captive of the Jews seven hundred forty and five persons: all the persons were four thousand and six hundred.

31 And it came to pass in the seven and thirtieth year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, in the five and twentieth day of the month, that Evil-merodach king of Babylon in the first year of his reign lifted up the head of 32 Jehoiachin king of Judah, and brought him out of prison, And spoke kindly to him, and set his throne above the throne of the 33 kings that were with him in Babylon, And changed his prison garments: and he continually ate bread before him all the days 34 of his life. And for his food there was a continual diet given him of the king of Babylon, every day a portion until the day of his death, all the days of his life.

THE LAMENTATIONS OF JEREMIAH.

Now doth the city sit solitary, that was full of people! 1 how is she become as a widow! she that was great among the nations, and princess among the provinces, how is she become tributary. She weepeth bitterly in 2 the night, and her tears are on her cheeks: among all her lovers she hath none to comfort her: all her friends have dealt treach-erously with her, they are become her enemies. Judah is gone 3 into captivity because of affliction, and because of great servitude: she dwelleth among the heathen, she findeth no rest: all her persecutors overtook her between the straits. The ways of 4 Zion do mourn, because none come to the solemn feasts: all her gates are desolate: her priests sigh, her virgins are afflicted, and she is in bitterness. Her adversaries are the chief, her 5 enemies prosper; for the LORD hath afflicted her for the multitude of her transgressions: her children are gone into captivity before the enemy. And from the daughter of Zion all 6 her beauty hath departed: her princes are become like harts that find no pasture, and they are gone without strength before the pursuer. Jerusalem remembered in the days of her 7 affliction and of her miseries all her pleasant things that she had in the days of old, when her people fell into the hand of the enemy, and none helped her: the adversaries saw her, and mocked at her sabbaths. Jerusalem hath grievously sinned; 8 therefore she is removed: all that honored her despise her, because they have seen her nakedness: yes, she sigheth and turneth backward. Her filthiness is in her skirts; she remem- 9 bereth not her last end; therefore she hath been wonderfully abased: she had no comforter. O LORD, behold my affliction: for the enemy hath magnified himself. The adversary hath 10 spread out his hand upon all her pleasant things: for she hath seen that the heathen entered into her sanctuary, whom thou didst command that they should not enter into thy congregation. All her people sigh, they seek bread; they have given 11 their pleasant things for food to relieve the soul: see, O LORD, 12 and consider; for I am become vile. Is it nothing to you, all ye that pass by? behold, and see if there is any sorrow like my sorrow, which hath fallen upon me, with which the LORD 13 hath afflicted me in the day of his fierce anger. From above hath he sent fire into my bones, and it prevaieth against them: he hath spread a net for my feet, he hath turned me back: he 14 hath made me desolate and faint all the day. The yoke of my transgressions is bound by his hand: they are wreathed, and come up upon my neck: he hath made my strength to fall, the LORD hath delivered me into their hands, from whom I am 15 not able to rise. The LORD hath trodden under foot all my mighty men in the midst of me: he hath called an assembly against me to crush my young men: the LORD hath trodden 16 the virgin, the daughter of Judah, as in a wine-press. For these things I weep; my eye, my eye runneth down with water, because the comforter that should relieve my soul is far from me: my children are desolate, because the enemy prevailed.

17 Zion spreadeth forth her hands, and there is none to comfort her: the LORD hath commanded concerning Jacob, that his adversaries should be around him: Jerusalem is as a menstruous 18 woman among them. The LORD is righteous; for I have rebelled against his commandment: hear, I pray you, all people, and behold my sorrow: my virgins and my young men are gone 19 into captivity. I called for my lovers, but they deceived me: my priests and my elders resigned their breath in the city, while 20 they sought their food to relieve their souls. Behold, O LORD; for I am in distress: my bowels are troubled; my heart is turned within me; for I have grievously rebelled: abroad the sword be-21 reaveth, at home there is as death. They have heard that I sigh: there is none to comfort me: all my enemies have heard of my trouble; they are glad that thou hast done it: thou wilt bring the day that thou hast called, and they shall be like me.
22 Let all their wickedness come before thee; and do to them, as thou hast done to me for all my transgressions: for my sighs are many, and my heart is faint.

2 How hath the LORD covered the daughter of Zion with a cloud in his anger, and cast down from heaven to the earth the beauty of Israel, and remembered not his footstool in the 2 day of his anger! The LORD hath swallowed up all the habitations of Jacob, and hath not pitied: he hath thrown down in his wrath the strong holds of the daughter of Judah; he hath brought them down to the ground: he hath polluted the kingdom and its princes. He hath cut off in his fierce anger all the horn of Israel: he hath drawn back his right hand from before the enemy, and he burned against Jacob like a flaming fire, which devoureth on every side. He hath bent his bow like an enemy: he stood with his right hand as an adversary, and slew all that were pleasant to the eye in the tabernacle of the daughter of Zion: he poured out his fury like fire. The LORD was as an enemy: he hath swallowed up Israel, he hath swallowed up all her palaces: he hath destroyed his strong holds, and hath increased in the daughter of Judah mourning and lamentation. And he hath violently taken away his tabernacle, as if it were of a garden: he hath destroyed his places of the assembly: the LORD hath caused the solemn feasts and sabbaths to be forgotten in Zion, and in the indignation of his anger hath despised the king and the priest. The LORD hath cast off his altar, he hath abhorred his sanctuary, he hath given up into the hand of the enemy the walls of her palaces; they have made a noise in the house of the LORD, as in the day of a solemn feast. The LORD hath purposed to destroy the wall of the daughter of Zion: he hath stretched out a line, he hath not withdrawn his hand from destroying: therefore he made the rampart and the wall to lament; they languished together. Her gates are sunk into the ground; he hath destroyed and broken her bars: her king and her princes are among the Gentiles: the law is no more: her prophets also find no vision from the LORD. The elders of the daughter of Zion sit upon the ground, and keep silence: they have cast up dust upon their heads; they have girded themselves with sackcloth: the virgins of Jerusalem hang down their heads to the ground. My eyes do fail with tears, my bowels are troubled, my liver is poured upon the earth, for the destruction of the daughter of my people; because the children and the sucklings swoon in the streets of the city. They say to their mothers, Where is corn and wine? when they swooned as the wounded in the streets of the city, when their soul was poured out into their mothers' bosom. What thing shall I take to witness for thee? what thing shall I liken to thee, O daughter of Jerusalem? What shall I equal to thee, that I may comfort thee, O virgin daughter of Zion? for thy breach is great like the sea: who can heal thee?

14 Thy prophets have seen vain and foolish things for thee: and they have not revealed thy iniquity, to turn away thy captivity; but have seen for thee false burdens and causes of banishment.
15 All that pass by, clap their hands at thee; they hiss and wag their head at the daughter of Jerusalem, saying, Is this the city that men call the Perfection of beauty, the Joy of the whole 16 earth? All thy enemies have opened their mouth against thee: they hiss and gnash the teeth: they say, We have swallowed her up: certainly this is the day that we looked for; we have found, 17 we have seen it. The LORD hath done that which he had devised; he hath fulfilled his word that he had commanded in the days of old: he hath thrown down, and hath not pitied: and he hath caused thy enemy to rejoice over thee, he hath set up the 18 horn of thy adversaries. Their heart cried to the LORD, O wall of the daughter of Zion, let tears run down like a river day and night: give thyself no rest; let not the apple of thy eye cease.
19 Arise, cry out in the night: in the beginning of the watches pour out thy heart like water before the face of the LORD: lift up thy hands towards him for the life of thy young children, 20 that faint for hunger at the head of every street. Behold, O LORD, and consider to whom thou hast done this. Shall the women eat their fruit, children of a span long? shall the priest 21 and the prophet be slain in the sanctuary of the LORD? The young and the old lie on the ground in the streets: my virgins and my young men have fallen by the sword; thou hast slain them in the day of thy anger; thou hast killed, and not pitied.
22 Thou hast called as in a solemn day my terrors around, so that in the day of the LORD'S anger none escaped nor remained: those that I have swaddled and brought up, hath my enemy consumed.

3 I am the man that hath seen affliction by the rod of his 2 wrath. He hath led me, and brought me into darkness, but 3 not into light. Surely against me is he turned; he turneth his 4 hand against me all the day. My flesh and my skin hath he 5 made old; he hath broken my bones. He hath built against me, 6 and compassed me with gall and labor. He hath set me in dark 7 places, as they that are dead of old. He hath hedged me about, 8 that I cannot get out: he hath made my chain heavy. Also 9 when I cry and shout, he shutteth out my prayer. He hath inclosed my ways with hewn stone, he hath made my paths crooked. He was to me as a bear lying in wait, and as a lion 10 in secret places. He hath turned aside my ways, and pulled 11 me in pieces: he hath made me desolate. He hath bent his 12 bow, and set me as a mark for the arrow. He hath caused the 13 arrows of his quiver to enter into my reins. I was a derision 14 to all my people; and their song all the day. He hath filled me 15 with bitterness, he hath made me drunken with wormwood.

He hath also broken my teeth with gravel stones, he hath cover- 16 ed me with ashes. And thou hast removed my soul far off 17 from peace: I forgot prosperity. And I said, My strength and 18 my hope hath perished from the LORD: Remembering my aff- 19 liction and my misery, the wormwood and the gall. My soul 20 hath them still in remembrance, and is humbled in me. This 21 I recall to my mind, therefore have I hope. It is of the LORD'S 22 mercies that we are not consumed, because his compassions fail not. They are new every morning: great is thy faithful- 23 ness. The LORD is my portion, saith my soul; therefore will 24 I hope in him. The LORD is good to them that wait for him, 25 to the soul that seeketh him. It is good that a man should 26 both hope and quietly wait for the salvation of the LORD. It 27 is good for a man that he should bear the yoke in his youth.
He sitteth alone, and keepeth silence, because he hath borne 28 it upon him. He putteth his mouth in the dust; if there may 29 be hope. He giveth his cheek to him that smiteth him: he is 30 filled full with reproach. For the LORD will not cast off for 31 ever: But though he causeth grief, yet will he have compas- 32 sion according to the multitude of his mercies. For he doth 33 not afflict willingly nor grieve the children of men. To crush 34 under his feet all the prisoners of the earth, To turn aside 35 the right of a man before the face of the most High, To sub- 36 vert a man in his cause, the LORD approveth not. Who is he 37 that saith, and it cometh to pass, when the LORD commandeth it not? Out of the mouth of the most High proceedeth 38 not evil and good? Why doth a living man complain, a man 39 for the punishment of his sins? Let us search and try our 40 ways, and turn again to the LORD. Let us lift up our heart 41 with our hands to God in the heavens. We have transgressed 42 and have rebelled: thou hast not pardoned. Thou hast cover- 43 ed with anger, and persecuted us: thou hast slain, thou hast 44 not pitied. Thou hast covered thyself with a cloud, that our 45 prayer should not pass through. Thou hast made us as the 46 offscouring and refuse in the midst of the people. All our ene-47 mies have opened their mouths against us. Fear and a snare 48 is come upon us, desolation and destruction. My eye runneth 49 down with rivers of water for the destruction of the daughter of 50 my people. My eye trickleth down, and ceaseth not, without 51 any intermission, Till the LORD shall look down, and behold 52 from heaven. My eye affecteth my heart because of all the 53 daughters of my city. My enemies chased me fiercely, like a 54 bird without cause. They have cut off my life in the dungeon, 55 and cast a stone upon me. Waters flowed over my head; then 56 I said, I am cut off. I called upon thy name, O LORD, out of 57 the low dungeon. Thou hast heard my voice: hide not thy ear 58 at my breathing, at my cry. Thou drewest near in the day 59 that I called upon thee: thou saidst, Fear not. O LORD, thou 60 hast pleaded the causes of my soul; thou hast redeemed my 61 life. O LORD, thou hast seen my wrong: judge thou my cause.

62 Thou hast seen all their vengeance and all their imaginations 63 against me. Thou hast heard their reproach, O LORD, and all 64 their imaginations against me; The lips of those that rose up 65 against me, and their device against me all the day. Behold 66 their sitting down, and their rising up; I am their music. Render to them a recompense, O LORD, according to the work of their hands. Give them sorrow of heart, thy curse to them.
Persecute and destroy them in anger from under the heavens of the LORD.

4 How is the gold become dim! how is the most fine gold changed! the stones of the sanctuary are poured out at the 2 head of every street. The precious sons of Zion, comparable to fine gold, how are they esteemed as earthen pitchers, the 3 work of the hands of the potter! Even the sea-monsters draw out the breast, they nurse their young ones: the daughter of my people is become cruel, like the ostriches in the wilder-4 ness. The tongue of the sucking child cleaveth to the roof of his mouth for thirst: the young children ask bread, and no 5 man breaketh it to them. They that fed delicately are desolate in the streets: they that were brought up in scarlet em-6 brace dunghills. For the punishment of the iniquity of the daughter of my people is greater than the punishment of the sin of Sodom, that was overthrown as in a moment, and no hands stayed on her. Her Nazarites were purer than snow, 7 they were whiter than milk, they were more ruddy in body 8 than rubies, their polishing was of sapphire: Their visage is 8 blacker than a coal; they are not known in the streets: their skin cleaveth to their bones; it is withered, it is become like a stick. They that are slain with the sword are better than 9 they that are slain with hunger: for these pine away, stricken through for want of the fruits of the field. The hands of the pitiful women have boiled their own children: they were their food in the destruction of the daughter of my people. The LORD hath accomplished his fury; he hath poured out his fierce anger, and hath kindled a fire in Zion, and it hath devoured her foundations. The kings of the earth, and all the inhabitants of the world, would not have believed that the adversary and the enemy would have entered into the gates of Jerusalem. For the sins of her prophets, and the iniquities of her priests, 13 that have shed the blood of the just in the midst of her. They 14 have wandered as blind men in the streets, they have polluted themselves with blood, so that men could not touch their garments. They cried to them, Depart ye; it is unclean; depart, 15 depart, touch not: when they fled away and wandered, they said among the heathen, They shall no more sojourn there. The anger of the LORD hath divided them; he will no more regard them: they respected not the persons of the priests, they favored not the elders. As for us, our eyes as yet failed for our vain help: in our watching we have watched for a nation that could not save us. They hunt our steps, that we cannot go in 18 our streets: our end is near, our days are fulfilled; for our end is come. Our persecutors are swifter than the eagles of heaven: 19 they pursued us upon the mountains, they laid wait for us in the wilderness. The breath of our nostrils, the anointed of 20 the LORD, was taken in their pits, of whom we said, Under his shadow we shall live among the heathen. Rejoice and be glad, 21 O daughter of Edom, that dwellest in the land of Uz; the cup also shall pass through to thee: thou shalt be drunken, and shalt make thyself naked. The punishment of thy iniquity is 22 accomplished, O daughter of Zion; he will no more carry thee away into captivity: he will visit thy iniquity, O daughter of Edom; he will disclose thy sins.

5 Remember, O LORD, what is come upon us: consider, and 2 behold our reproach. Our inheritance is turned to strangers, 3 our houses to aliens. We are orphans and fatherless, our 4 mothers are as widows. We have drank our water for money; 5 our wood is sold to us. Our necks are under persecution: we 6 labor, and have no rest. We have given the hand to the Egyp-7 tians, and to the Assyrians, to be satisfied with bread. Our 8 fathers have sinned, and are not; and we have borne their 9 iniquities. Servants have ruled over us: there is none that 10 doth deliver us out of their hand. We procured our bread with 11 the peril of our lives, because of the sword of the wilderness.
12 Our skin was black like an oven because of the terrible famine.
13 They ravished the women in Zion, and the maids in the cities 14 of Judah. Princes were hanged by their hand: the faces of 15 elders were not honored. They took the young men to grind, 16 and the children fell under the wood. The elders have ceased 17 from the gate, the young men from their music. The joy of our 18 heart hath ceased; our dance is turned into mourning. The 19 crown is fallen from our head: woe to us, that we have sinned!
20 For this our heart is faint; for these things our eyes are dim.
21 Because of the mountain of Zion, which is desolate, the foxes 22 walk upon it. Thou, O LORD, remainest for ever; thy throne from generation to generation. Why dost thou forget us for ever, and forsake us so long time? Turn thou us to thee, O LORD, and we shall be turned; renew our days as of old. But thou hast utterly rejected us; thou art very wroth against us.

THE BOOK OF THE PROPHET EZEKIEL.

Now it came to pass in the thirtieth year, in the fourth 1 month, in the fifth day of the month, as I was among the captives by the river of Kebar, that the heavens were opened, and I saw visions of God. In the fifth 2 day of the month, which was the fifth year of king Jehoiachin's captivity, The word of the LORD came expressly to Ezekiel 3 the priest, the son of Buzi, in the land of the Chaldeans by the river Kebar; and the hand of the LORD was there upon him.
And I looked, and behold, a whirlwind came out of the north, 4 a great cloud, and a fire infolding itself, and a brightness was about it, and from the midst of it as the color of amber, from the midst of the fire. Also from the midst of it came the like- 5 ness of four living creatures. And this was their appearance; they had the likeness of a man. And every one had four faces, 6 and every one had four wings. And their feet were straight 7 feet; and the sole of their feet was like the sole of a calf's foot: and they sparkled like the color of burnished brass. And they 8 had the hands of a man under their wings on their four sides; and they four had their faces and their wings. Their wings 9 were joined one to another; they turned not when they went; they went every one straight forward. As for the likeness of 10 their faces, they four had the face of a man and the face of a lion, on the right side: and they four had the face of an ox on the left side; they four also had the face of an eagle. Thus 11 were their faces: and their wings were stretched upward; two wings of every one were joined one to another, and two covered their bodies. And they went every one straight forward: 12 whither the spirit was to go, they went; and they turned not when they went. As for the likeness of the living creatures, 13 their appearance was like burning coals of fire, and like the appearance of lamps: it went up and down among the living creatures; and the fire was bright, and out of the fire went forth lightning. And the living creatures ran and returned 14 as the appearance of a flash of lightning. Now as I beheld 15 the living creatures, behold one wheel upon the earth by the 16 living creatures, with his four faces. The appearance of the wheels and their work was like the color of a beryl: and they four had one likeness: and their appearance and their work 17 was as it were a wheel in the middle of a wheel. When they went, they went upon their four sides: and they returned not 18 when they went. As for their rings, they were so high that they were dreadful; and their rings were full of eyes around 19 them four. And when the living creatures went, the wheels went by them: and when the living creatures were lifted up 20 from the earth, the wheels were lifted up. Whithersoever the spirit was to go, they went, thither was their spirit to go; and the wheels were lifted up over against them: for the spirit of 21 the living creature was in the wheels. When those went, these went; and when those stood, these stood; and when those were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up over against them: for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels.

22 And the likeness of the firmament upon the heads of the living creature was as the color of the terrible crystal, stretched forth 23 over their heads above. And under the firmament were their wings straight, the one towards the other: every one had two, which covered on this side, and every one had two, which cov-24 ered on that side, their bodies. And when they went, I heard the noise of their wings, like the noise of great waters, as the voice of the Almighty, the voice of speech, as the noise of a host: 25 when they stood, they let down their wings. And there was a voice from the firmament that was over their heads, when they 26 stood, and had let down their wings. And above the firmament that was over their heads was the likeness of a throne, as the appearance of a sapphire stone: and upon the likeness of the throne was the likeness as the appearance of a man above 27 upon it. And I saw as the color of amber, as the appearance of fire around within it, from the appearance of his loins even upward, and from the appearance of his loins even downward, I saw as it were the appearance of fire, and it had brightness 28 on all sides. As the appearance of the bow that is in the cloud in the day of rain, so was the appearance of the brightness around. This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of the LORD. And when I saw it, I fell upon my face, and I heard a voice of one speaking.

And he said to me, Son of man, stand upon thy feet, and I 2 will speak to thee. And the spirit entered into me when he 2 spoke to me, and set me upon my feet, that I heard him that spoke to me. And he said to me, Son of man, I send thee to 3 the children of Israel, to a rebellious nation that hath rebelled against me: they and their fathers have transgressed against 3 me: even to this very day. For they are impudent children and 4 obstinate in heart. I send thee to them; and thou shalt say to them, Thus saith the Lord GOD. And they, whether they will 5 hear, or whether they will forbear, (for they are a rebellious house,) yet shall know that there hath been a prophet among 6 them. And thou, son of man, be not afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words, though briers and thorns are with thee, and thou dost dwell among scorpions: be not afraid of their words, nor be dismayed at their looks, though they are a rebellious house. And thou shalt speak my words to them, 7 whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear: for they are most rebellious. But thou, son of man, hear what I say 8 to thee; Be not thou rebellious like that rebellious house: open thy mouth, and eat that which I give thee. And when I looked, 9 behold, a hand was sent to me; and lo, a roll of a book was in it; And he spread it before me: and it was written within 10 and without: and there was written in it lamentations, and mourning, and woe.

Moreover he said to me, Son of man, eat what thou find- 3 est; eat this roll, and go, speak to the house of Israel. So I 2 opened my mouth, and he caused me to eat that roll. And 3 he said to me, Son of man, cause thy belly to eat, and fill thy bowels with this roll that I give thee. Then did I eat it; and it was in my mouth as honey for sweetness. And he said to 4 me, Son of man, depart, go to the house of Israel, and speak with my words to them. For thou art not sent to a people of 5 a strange speech and of a hard language, but to the house of Israel; Not to many people of a strange speech and of a hard 6 language, whose words thou canst not understand. Surely, had I sent thee to them, they would have hearkened to thee. But 7 the house of Israel will not hearken to thee; for they will not hearken to me: for all the house of Israel are impudent and hard-hearted. Behold, I have made thy face strong against 8 their faces, and thy forehead strong against their foreheads.

9 As an adamant harder than flint have I made thy forehead: fear them not, neither be dismayed at their looks, though they 10 are a rebellious house. Moreover he said to me, Son of man, all my words that I shall speak to thee receive in thy heart, and 11 hear with thy ears. And depart, go to them of the captivity, to the children of thy people, and speak to them, and tell them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; whether they will hear, or whether 12 they will forbear. Then the spirit took me up, and I heard behind me a voice of a great rushing, saying, Blessed be the glory 13 of the LORD from his place. I heard also the noise of the wings of the living creatures that touched one another, and the noise of the wheels over against them, and the noise of a great rush-14 ing. So the spirit lifted me up, and took me away, and I went in bitterness, in the heat of my spirit; but the hand of the LORD 15 was strong upon me. Then I came to them of the captivity at Tel-abib, that dwelt by the river of Kebar, and I sat where they sat, and remained there astonished among them seven days.
16 And it came to pass at the end of seven days, that the word of the LORD came to me, saying, Son of man, I have made 17 thee a watchman to the house of Israel: therefore hear the word at my mouth, and give them warning from me. When I 18 say to the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; and thou givest him not warning, nor speakest to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life; the same wicked man shall die in his in-19 iquity; but his blood will I require at thy hand. Yet if thou shalt warn the wicked, and he shall not turn from his wickedness, nor from his wicked way, he shall die in his iniquity; but 20 thou hast delivered thy soul. Again, When a righteous man doth turn from his righteousness, and commit iniquity, and I lay a stumbling-block before him, he shall die: because thou hast not given him warning, he shall die in his sin, and his righteousness which he hath done shall not be remembered; 21 but his blood will I require at thy hand. Nevertheless if thou shalt warn the righteous man, that the righteous sin not, and he doth not sin, he shall surely live, because he is warned; also 22 thou hast delivered thy soul. And the hand of the LORD was there upon me; and he said to me, Arise, go forth into the plain, 23 and I will there talk with thee. Then I arose, and went forth into the plain; and behold, the glory of the LORD stood there, as the glory which I saw by the river of Kebar: and I fell on my face. Then the spirit entered into me, and set me upon 24 my feet, and spake with me, and said to me, Go, shut thyself within thy house. But thou, O son of man, behold, they shall 25 put bands upon thee, and shall bind thee with them, and thou shalt not go out among them: And I will make thy tongue 26 cleave to the roof of thy mouth, that thou shalt be dumb, and shalt not be to them a reprover: for they are a rebellious house.

But when I speak with thee, I will open thy mouth, and thou 27 shalt say to them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; He that heareth, let him hear; and he that forbeareth, let him forbear: for they are a rebellious house.

Thou also, son of man, take thee a tile, and lay it before 4 thee, and pourtray upon it the city, even Jerusalem; And lay 2 siege against it, and build a fort against it, and cast a mount against it; set the camp also against it, and set battering rams against it on every side. Moreover take thou to thee an iron 3 pan, and set it for a wall of iron between thee and the city: and set thy face against it, and it shall be besieged, and thou shalt lay siege against it. This shall be a sign to the house of Israel. Lie thou also upon thy left side, and lay the iniquity 4 of the house of Israel upon it: according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon it thou shalt bear their iniquity.
For I have laid upon thee the years of their iniquity, according 5 to the number of the days, three hundred and ninety days: so shalt thou bear the iniquity of the house of Israel. And when 6 thou hast accomplished them, lie again on thy right side, and thou shalt bear the iniquity of the house of Judah forty days: I have appointed thee each day for a year. Therefore thou 7 shalt set thy face towards the siege of Jerusalem, and thy arm shall be uncovered, and thou shalt prophesy against it. And 8 behold, I will lay bands upon thee, and thou shalt not turn thee from one side to another, till thou hast ended the days of thy siege. Take thou also to thee wheat, and barley, and 9 beans, and lentils, and millet, and fitches, and put them in one vessel, and make thee bread thereof, according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon thy side, three hundred and ninety days shalt thou eat of it. And thy food which thou shalt 10 eat shall be by weight, twenty shekels a day: from time to time shalt thou eat it. Thou shalt drink also water by measure, 11 the sixth part of a hin: from time to time shalt thou drink.

12 And thou shalt eat it as barley cakes, and thou shalt bake it 13 with human excrement in their sight. And the LORD said, Even thus shall the children of Israel eat their defiled bread 14 among the Gentiles, whither I will drive them. Then said I, Ah Lord GOD! behold, my soul hath not been polluted: for from my youth even till now have I not eaten of that which dieth of itself, or is torn in pieces; neither hath abominable flesh come 15 into my mouth. Then he said to me, Lo, I have given thee cow's dung for man's dung, and thou shalt prepare thy bread 16 with them. Moreover he said to me, Son of man, behold, I will break the staff of bread in Jerusalem: and they shall eat bread by weight, and with care; and they shall drink water by 17 measure, and with astonishment. That they may want bread and water, and be astonished one with another, and consume away for their iniquity.

5 And thou, son of man, take thee a sharp knife, take thee a barber's razor, and cause it to pass upon thy head and upon thy beard: then take to thee balances to weigh, and divide the hair.
2 Thou shalt burn with fire a third part in the midst of the city, when the days of the siege are fulfilled: and thou shalt take a third part, and smite about it with a knife: and a third part thou shalt scatter in the wind; and I will draw out a sword 3 after them. Thou shalt also take of them a few in number, 4 and bind them in thy skirts. Then take of them again, and cast them into the midst of the fire, and burn them in the fire: from which a fire shall come forth into all the house of Israel.
5 Thus saith the Lord GOD; This is Jerusalem: I have set it in the midst of the nations and countries that are around her.
6 And she hath changed my judgments into wickedness more than the nations, and my statutes more than the countries that are around her: for they have refused my judgments and my 7 statutes, they have not walked in them. Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Because ye multiplied more than the nations that are around you, and have not walked in my statutes, neither have kept my judgments, neither have done according to 8 the judgments of the nations that are around you: Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I, even I, am against thee, and will execute judgments in the midst of thee in the sight 9 of the nations. And I will do in thee that which I have not done, and the like to which I will not do any more, because of all thy abominations. Therefore the fathers shall eat the sons 10 in the midst of thee, and the sons shall eat their fathers; and I will execute judgments in thee, and the whole remnant of thee will I scatter into all the winds. Wherefore, as I live, saith 11 the Lord GOD; Surely, because thou hast defiled my sanctuary with all thy detestable things, and with all thy abominations, therefore I will also diminish thee; neither shall my eye spare, neither will I have any pity. A third part of thee shall die 12 with the pestilence, and with famine shall they be consumed in the midst of thee: and a third part shall fall by the sword around thee; and I will scatter a third part into all the winds, and I will draw out a sword after them. Thus shall my anger 13 be accomplished, and I will cause my fury to rest upon them, and I will be comforted: and they shall know that I the LORD have spoken it in my zeal, when I have accomplished my fury in them. Moreover I will make thee waste, and a reproach 14 among the nations that are around thee, in the sight of all that pass by. So it shall be a reproach and a taunt, an instruc- 15 tion and an astonishment to the nations that are around thee, when I shall execute judgments in thee in anger and in fury and in furious rebukes. I the LORD have spoken it. When I 16 shall send upon them the evil arrows of famine, which shall be for their destruction, and which I will send to destroy you: and I will increase the famine upon you, and will break your staff of bread: So will I send upon you famine and evil beasts, 17 and they shall bereave thee; and pestilence and blood shall pass through thee; and I will bring the sword upon thee. I the LORD have spoken it.

And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, Son of man, 6, 2 set thy face towards the mountains of Israel, and prophesy against them, And say, Ye mountains of Israel, hear the word 3 of the Lord GOD: Thus saith the Lord GOD to the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys; Behold, I, even I, will bring a sword upon you, and I will destroy your high places. And your altars shall be desolate, and your im- 4 ages shall be broken: and I will cast down your slain men before your idols. And I will lay the dead carcasses of the chil- 5 dren of Israel before their idols; and I will scatter your bones about your altars. In all your dwelling-places the cities shall 6 be laid waste, and the high places shall be desolate; that your altars may be laid waste and made desolate, and your idols may be broken and cease, and your images may be cut down, and your works may be abolished. And the slain shall fall in the midst of you, and ye shall know that I am the LORD. Yet will I leave a remnant, that ye may have some that shall escape the sword among the nations, when ye shall be scattered through the countries. And they that escape of you shall remember me among the nations whither they shall be carried captives, because I am broken with their apostate heart, which hath departed from me, and with their eyes which go astray after their idols: and they shall lothe themselves for the evils which they have committed in all their abominations. And they shall know that I am the LORD, and that I have not said in vain that I would do this evil to them. Thus saith the Lord GOD; Smite with thy hand, and stamp with thy foot, and say, Alas, for all the evil abominations of the house of Israel! for they shall fall by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence. He that is far off shall die by the pestilence; and he that is near shall fall by the sword; and he that remaineth and is besieged shall die by the famine: thus will I accomplish my fury upon them. Then shall ye know that I am the LORD, when their slain men shall be among their idols round about their altars, upon every high hill, on all the tops of the mountains, and under every green tree, and under every thick oak, the place where they offered sweet savor to all their idols. So will I stretch out my hand upon them, and make the land desolate, even, more desolate than the wilderness towards Diblath, in all their habitations: and they shall know that I am the LORD.

7, 2 Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, Also, thou son of man, thus saith the Lord GOD to the land of Israel; An end, the end is come upon the four corners of the land. Now is the end come upon thee, and I will send my anger upon thee, and will judge thee according to thy ways, and will recompense upon thee all thy abominations. And my eye shall not spare thee, neither will I have pity: but I will recompense thy ways upon thee, and thy abominations shall be in the midst of thee: and ye shall know that I am the LORD. Thus saith the Lord GOD; An evil, an only evil, behold, is come. An end is come, the end is come: it watcheth for thee; behold, it is come. The morning is come upon thee, O thou that dwellest in the land: the time is come, the day of trouble is near, and not the sounding again of the mountains. Now will I shortly pour out 8 my fury upon thee, and accomplish my anger upon thee: and I will judge thee according to thy ways, and will recompense thee for all thy abominations. And my eye shall not spare, neither 9 will I have pity: I will recompense thee according to thy ways and thy abominations that are in the midst of thee; and ye shall know that I am the LORD that smiteth. Behold the day, 10 behold, it is come; the morning is gone forth; the rod hath blossomed, pride hath budded. Violence hath risen into a rod of 11 wickedness: none of them shall remain, nor of their multitude, nor of any of theirs: neither shall there be wailing for them.

The time is come, the day draweth near: let not the buyer re- 12 joice, nor the seller mourn: for wrath is upon all the multitude thereof. For the seller shall not return to that which is sold, 13 although they were yet alive: for the vision is concerning the whole multitude thereof, which shall not return; neither shall any strengthen himself in the iniquity of his life. They have 14 blown the trumpet, even to make all ready; but none goeth to the battle: for my wrath is upon all the multitude thereof: The 15 sword is without, and the pestilence and the famine within: he that is in the field shall die with the sword; and he that is in the city, famine and pestilence shall devour him. But they that es- 16 cape of them shall escape, and shall be on the mountains like doves of the valleys, all of them mourning, every one for his iniquity. All hands shall be feeble, and all knees shall be weak 17 as water. They shall also gird themselves with sackcloth, and horror shall cover them; and shame shall be upon all faces, and baldness upon all their heads. They shall cast their silver in 19 the streets, and their gold shall be removed: their silver and their gold shall not be able to deliver them in the day of the wrath of the LORD: they shall not satisfy their souls, neither fill their bowels because it is the stumbling-block of their iniquity.
As for the beauty of his ornament, he set it in majesty: 20 but they made the images of their abominations and of their detestable things therein: therefore have I set it far from them.
And I will give it into the hands of the strangers for a prey, and 21 to the wicked of the earth for a spoil; and they shall pollute it.
My face will I turn also from them, and they shall pollute my 22 secret place: for the robbers shall enter into it, and defile it.

23 Make a chain: for the land is full of bloody crimes, and the 24 city is full of violence. Wherefore I will bring the worst of the heathen, and they shall possess their houses: I will also make the pomp of the strong to cease, and their holy places shall be 25 defiled. Destruction cometh; and they shall seek peace, and 26 there shall be none. Mischief shall come upon mischief, and rumor shall be upon rumor; then shall they seek a vision of the prophet; but the law shall perish from the priest, and counsel 27 from the elders. The king shall mourn, and the prince shall be clothed with desolation, and the hands of the people of the land shall be troubled: I will do to them after their way, and according to their deserts will I judge them, and they shall know that I am the LORD.

8 And it came to pass in the sixth year, in the sixth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I sat in my house, and the elders of Judah sat before me, that the hand of the Lord GOD 2 fell there upon me. Then I beheld, and lo a likeness as the appearance of fire: from the appearance of his loins even downward, fire; and from his loins even upward, as the appearance 3 of brightness, as the color of amber. And he put forth the form of a hand, and took me by a lock of my head; and the spirit lifted me up between the earth and the heaven, and brought me in the visions of God to Jerusalem, to the door of the inner 4 gate that looketh towards the north; where was the seat of the image of jealousy, which provoketh to jealousy. And behold, the glory of the God of Israel was there, according to the vi-5 sion that I saw in the plain. Then said he to me, Son of man, lift up thy eyes now the way towards the north. So I lifted up my eyes the way towards the north, and behold northward at 6 the gate of the altar this image of jealousy in the entry. He said furthermore to me, Son of man, seest thou what they do? even the great abominations that the house of Israel commit-teth here, that I should withdraw from my sanctuary? but turn 7 thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations. And he brought me to the door of the court; and when I looked, be-8 hold a hole in the wall. Then said he to me, Son of man, dig now in the wall: and when I had digged in the wall, behold a 9 door. And he said to me, Go in, and behold the wicked abom-10 inations that they do here. So I went in and saw; and behold every form of creeping animals, and abominable beasts, and all the idols of the house of Israel, portrayed around upon the wall. And there stood before them seventy men of the elders of the house of Israel, and in the midst of them stood Jaazaniah the son of Shaphan, with every man his censer in his hand; and a thick cloud of incense went up. Then said he to me, Son of man, hast thou seen what the elders of the house of Israel do in the dark, every man in the chambers of his imagery? for they say, The LORD seeth us not; the LORD hath forsaken the earth. He said also to me, Turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations that they do. Then he brought me to the door of the gate of the LORD'S house which was towards the north; and behold, there sat women weeping for Tammuz. Then said he to me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations than these. And he brought me into the inner court of the LORD'S house, and behold, at the door of the temple of the LORD, between the porch and the altar, were about five and twenty men, with their backs towards the temple of the LORD, and their faces towards the east; and they worshiped the sun towards the east. Then he said to me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? Is it a light thing to the house of Judah that they commit the abominations which they commit here? for they have filled the land with violence, and have returned to provoke me to anger: and lo, they put the branch to their nose. Therefore will I also deal in fury: my eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity: and though they cry in my ears with a loud voice, yet I will not hear them.

He cried also in my ears with a loud voice, saying, Cause them that have charge over the city to draw near, even every man with his destroying weapon in his hand. And behold, six men came from the way of the higher gate, which lieth towards the north, and every man a slaughter-weapon in his hand; and one man among them was clothed with linen, with a writer's inkhorn by his side: and they went in and stood beside the brazen altar. And the glory of the God of Israel had gone up from the cherub on which he was, to the threshold of the house. And he called to the man clothed with linen, who had the writer's inkhorn by his side; And the LORD said to him, Go through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem, and set a mark upon the foreheads of the men that sigh and that cry for all the abominations that are done 5 in the midst of it. And to the others he said in my hearing, Go ye after him through the city, and smite: let not your eye 6 spare, neither have ye pity: Slay utterly old and young, both maids, and little children, and women: but come not near any man upon whom is the mark; and begin at my sanctuary. Then 7 they began at the elderly men who were before the house. And he said to them, Defile the house, and fill the courts with the slain: go ye forth. And they went forth, and slew in the city.

8 And it came to pass, while they were slaying them, and I was left, that I fell upon my face, and cried, and said, Ah Lord GOD! wilt thou destroy all the residue of Israel in thy pouring out of 9 thy fury upon Jerusalem? Then said he to me, The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah is exceeding great, and the land is full of blood, and the city full of perverseness: for they say, The LORD hath forsaken the earth, and the LORD seeth not.
10 And as for me also, my eye shall not spare, neither will I have 11 pity, but I will recompense their way upon their head. And behold, the man clothed with linen, who had the inkhorn by his side, reported the matter, saying, I have done as thou hast commanded me.

10 Then I looked, and behold, in the firmament that was above the head of the cherubim there appeared over them as it were a sapphire stone, as the appearance of the likeness of a throne.
2 And he spoke to the man clothed with linen, and said, Go in between the wheels, even under the cherub, and fill thy hand with coals of fire from between the cherubim, and scatter them 3 over the city. And he entered in my sight. Now the cherubim stood on the right side of the house, when the man went in; and 4 the cloud filled the inner court. Then the glory of the LORD went up from the cherub, and stood over the threshold of the house; and the house was filled with the cloud, and the court 5 was full of the brightness of the LORD'S glory. And the sound of the cherubim's wings was heard even to the outer court, as 6 the voice of the Almighty God when he speaketh. And it came to pass, that when he had commanded the man clothed with linen, saying, Take fire from between the wheels, from between the cherubim; then he went in, and stood beside the wheels.
7 And one cherub stretched forth his hand from between the cherubim, to the fire that was between the cherubim, and took of it, and put it into the hands of him that was clothed with linen: who took it, and went out. And there appeared in the cherubim the form of a man's hand under their wings. And when I looked, behold the four wheels by the cherubim, one wheel by one cherub, and another wheel by another cherub: and the appearance of the wheels was as the color of a beryl stone. And as for their appearances, they four had one likeness, as if a wheel had been in the midst of a wheel. When they went, they went upon their four sides; they turned not as they went, but to the place whither the head looked, they followed it; they turned not as they went. And their whole body, and their backs, and their hands, and their wings, and the wheels, were full of eyes on every side, even the wheels that they four had. As for the wheels, it was cried to them in my hearing, O wheel. And every one had four faces: the first face was the face of a cherub, and the second face was the face of a man, and the third the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle. And the cherubim were lifted up. This is the living creature that I saw by the river of Kebar. And when the cherubim went, the wheels went by them: and when the cherubim lifted up their wings to mount up from the earth, the same wheels also turned not from beside them. When they stood, these stood; and when they were lifted up, these lifted up themselves also: for the spirit of the living creature was in them. Then the glory of the LORD departed from off the threshold of the house, and stood over the cherubim. And the cherubim lifted up their wings, and mounted up from the earth in my sight: when they went out, the wheels also were beside them, and every one stood at the door of the east-gate of the LORD'S house; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above. This is the living creature that I saw under the God of Israel by the river of Kebar; and I knew that they were the cherubim. Every one had four faces each, and every one four wings; and the likeness of the hands of a man was under their wings. And the likeness of their faces was the same faces which I saw by the river of Kebar, their appearances and themselves: they went every one straight forward.

Moreover the spirit lifted me up, and brought me to the east-gate of the LORD'S house, which looketh eastward: and behold, at the door of the gate five and twenty men; among whom I saw Jaazaniah the son of Azur, and Pelatiah the son 2 of Benaiah, princes of the people. Then said he to me, Son of man, these are the men that devise mischief, and give wicked 3 counsel in this city: Who say, It is not near; let us build 4 houses: this city is the caldron, and we are the flesh. There-5 fore prophesy against them, prophesy, O son of man. And the spirit of the LORD fell upon me, and said to me, Speak; Thus saith the LORD; Thus have ye said, O house of Israel: for I know the things that come into your mind, every one of them.

6 Ye have multiplied your slain in this city, and ye have filled 7 its streets with the slain. Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Your slain whom ye have laid in the midst of it, they are the flesh, and this city is the caldron: but I will bring you forth 8 out of the midst of it. Ye have feared the sword; and I will 9 bring a sword upon you, saith the LORD GOD. And I will bring you out of the midst of it, and deliver you into the hands of 10 strangers, and will execute judgments among you. Ye shall fall by the sword; I will judge you in the border of Israel; and 11 ye shall know that I am the LORD. This city shall not be your caldron, neither shall ye be the flesh in the midst of it; but I 12 will judge you in the border of Israel: And ye shall know that I am the LORD: for ye have not walked in my statutes, neither executed my judgments, but have done after the manners of 13 the heathen that are around you. And it came to pass, when I prophesied, that Pelatiah the son of Benaiah died. Then I fell down upon my face, and cried with a loud voice, and said, Ah Lord GOD! wilt thou make a full end of the remnant of Israel?
14, 15 Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying, Son of man, thy brethren, even thy brethren, the men of thy kindred, and all the house of Israel wholly, are they to whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, Retire far from the LORD: to us is this 16 land given in possession. Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Although I have cast them far off among the heathen, and although I have scattered them among the countries, yet will I be to them as a little sanctuary in the countries where 17 they shall come. Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; I will even gather you from the people, and assemble you out of the countries where ye have been scattered, and I will give 18 you the land of Israel. And they shall come thither, and they shall take away from thence all its detestable things, and all its abominations. And I will give them one heart, and I will 19 put a new spirit within you; and I will take the stony heart 20 out of their flesh, and will give them a heart of flesh: That 20 they may walk in my statutes, and keep my ordinances, and do them: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God.

But as for them whose heart walketh after the heart of their 21 detestable things and their abominations, I will recompense their way upon their own heads, saith the Lord GOD. Then 22 the cherubim raised their wings, and the wheels beside them; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above. And 23 the glory of the LORD went up from the midst of the city, and stood upon the mountain which is on the east side of the city.
Afterwards the spirit took me up, and brought me in vision by 24 the Spirit of God into Chaldea, to them of the captivity. So the vision that I had seen went up from me. Then I spoke to them 25 of the captivity all the things that the LORD had shown me.

The word of the LORD also came to me, saying, Son of man, 12, 2 thou dwellest in the midst of a rebellious house, who have eyes to see, and see not; they have ears to hear, and hear not: for they are a rebellious house. Therefore, thou son of man, pre- 3 pare thee stuff for removing, and remove by day in their sight; and thou shalt remove from thy place to another place in their sight; it may be they will consider, though they are a rebellious house. Then shalt thou bring forth thy stuff by day in their 4 sight, as stuff for removing: and thou shalt go forth at evening in their sight, as they that go forth into captivity. Dig thou 5 through the wall in their sight, and carry out thereby. In their 6 sight shalt thou bear it upon thy shoulders, and carry it forth in the twilight: thou shalt cover thy face, that thou mayest not see the ground: for I have set thee for a sign to the house of Israel. And I did so as I was commanded: I brought forth my 7 stuff by day, as stuff for captivity, and in the evening I digged through the wall with my hand; I brought it forth in the twilight, and I bore it upon my shoulder in their sight. And in 8 the morning came the word of the LORD to me, saying, Son of 9 man, hath not the house of Israel, the rebellious house, said to thee, What doest thou? Say thou to them, Thus saith the Lord 10 GOD, This burden concerneth the prince in Jerusalem, and all the house of Israel that are among them. Say, I am your sign: 11 as I have done, so shall it be done to them: they shall remove 12 and go into captivity. And the prince that is among them shall bear upon his shoulder in the twilight, and shall go forth: they shall dig through the wall to carry out thereby: he shall cover 13 his face, that he may not see the ground with his eyes. My net also will I spread upon him, and he shall be taken in my snare: and I will bring him to Babylon to the land of the Chaldeans, 14 yet shall he not see it, though he shall die there. And I will scatter towards every wind all that are about him to help him, and all his bands; and I will draw out the sword after them.

15 And they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall scatter them among the nations, and disperse them in the countries.
16 But I will leave a few men of them from the sword, from the famine, and from the pestilence; that they may declare all their abominations among the heathen whither they come; and they 17 shall know that I am the LORD. Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, Son of man, eat thy bread with quaking, and drink thy water with trembling and with solicitude.
18 And say to the people of the land, Thus saith the Lord GOD of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and of the land of Israel; They shall eat their bread with solicitude, and drink their water with astonishment, that her land may be desolate from all that is therein, because of the violence of all them that dwell 20 therein. And the cities that are inhabited shall be laid waste, and the land shall be desolate; and ye shall know that I am the 21, 22 LORD. And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, Son of man, what is that proverb that ye have in the land of Israel, saying, The days are prolonged, and every vision faileth?
23 Tell them therefore, Thus saith the Lord GOD: I will make this proverb to cease, and they shall no more use it as a proverb in Israel; but say to them, The days are at hand, and the effect of 24 every vision. For there shall no more be any vain vision nor flattering divination within the house of Israel. For I am the 25 LORD: I will speak, and the word that I shall speak shall come to pass; it shall no more be prolonged: for in your days, O rebellious house, will I say the word, and will perform it, saith the 26 Lord GOD. Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying, Son of man, behold, they of the house of Israel say, The vision that he seeth is for many days to come, and he prophesieth of the times that are distant. Therefore say to them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; There shall none of my words be further deferred, but the word which I have spoken shall be done, saith the Lord GOD.

And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, Son of man, 13, 2 prophesy against the prophets of Israel that prophesy, and say thou to them that prophesy out of their own hearts, Hear ye the word of the LORD; Thus saith the Lord GOD; Woe to the fool- 3 ish prophets, that follow their own spirit, and have seen nothing! O Israel, thy prophets are like the foxes in the deserts. 4 Ye have not gone up into the gaps, neither made up the hedge 5 for the house of Israel to stand in the battle in the day of the LORD. They have seen vanity and lying divination, saying, 6 The LORD saith: and the LORD hath not sent them: and they have made others to hope that they would confirm the word.
Have ye not seen a vain vision, and have ye not spoken a ly- 7 ing divination, whereas ye say, The LORD saith it, although I have not spoken? Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Be- 8 cause ye have spoken vanity, and seen lies, therefore, behold, I am against you, saith the Lord GOD. And my hand shall be 9 upon the prophets that see vanity, and that divine lies: they shall not be in the assembly of my people, neither shall they be written in the writing of the house of Israel, neither shall they enter into the land of Israel; and ye shall know that I am the Lord GOD. Because, even because they have seduced my 10 people, saying, Peace; and there was no peace; and one built up a wall, and lo, others daubed it with untempered mortar: Say to them who daub it with untempered mortar, that it shall 11 fall: there shall be an overflowing shower; and ye, O great hailstones, shall fall; and a stormy wind shall rend it. Lo, when 12 the wall hath fallen, shall it not be said to you, Where is the daubing with which ye have daubed it? Therefore thus saith 13 the Lord GOD; I will even rend it with a stormy wind in my fury; and there shall be an overflowing shower in my anger, and great hailstones in my fury to consume it. So will I break 14 down the wall that ye have daubed with untempered mortar, and bring it down to the ground, so that its foundation shall be made bare, and it shall fall, and ye shall be consumed in the midst of it: and ye shall know that I am the LORD. Thus 15 will I accomplish my wrath upon the wall, and upon them that have daubed it with untempered mortar, and will say to you, The wall is no more, neither they that daubed it; To wit, the 16 prophets of Israel who prophesy concerning Jerusalem, and who see visions of peace for her, and there is no peace, saith the Lord GOD. Likewise, thou son of man, set thy face against the daughters of thy people, who prophesy out of their own heart; and prophesy thou against them, And say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Woe to the women that sew pillows to all arm-holes, and make kerchiefs upon the head of every stature to hunt souls! Will ye hunt the souls of my people, and will ye save the souls alive that come to you? And will ye profane me among my people for handfuls of barley and for pieces of bread, to slay the souls that should not die, and to save the souls alive that should not live, by your lying to my people that hear your lies? Wherefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against your pillows, with which ye there hunt the souls to make them fly, and I will tear them from your arms, and will let the souls go, even the souls that ye hunt to make them fly. Your kerchiefs also will I tear, and deliver my people out of your hand, and they shall no more be in your hand to be hunted; and ye shall know that I am the LORD. Because with lies ye have made the heart of the righteous sad, whom I have not made sad; and strengthened the hands of the wicked, that he should not return from his wicked way, by promising him life: Therefore ye shall see no more vanity, nor divine divinations: for I will deliver my people out of your hand: and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

14 Then came certain of the elders of Israel to me, and sat before me. And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, Son of man, these men have set up their idols in their heart, and put the stumbling-block of their iniquity before their face: should I be inquired of at all by them? Therefore speak to them, and say to them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Every man of the house of Israel that setteth up his idols in his heart, and putteth the stumbling-block of his iniquity before his face, and cometh to the prophet; I the LORD will answer him that cometh according to the multitude of his idols; That I may take the house of Israel in their own heart, because they are all estranged from me through their idols. Therefore say to the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Repent, and turn yourselves from your idols; and turn away your faces from all your abominations. For every one of the house of Israel, or of the stranger that sojourneth in Israel, who separateth himself from me, and setteth up his idols in his heart, and putteth the stumbling-block of his iniquity before his face, and cometh to a prophet to inquire of him concerning me; I the LORD will answer him by myself: And I will set my face against that 8 man, and will make him a sign and a proverb, and I will cut him off from the midst of my people; and ye shall know that I am the LORD. And if the prophet be deceived when he hath 9 spoken a thing, I the LORD have deceived that prophet, and I will stretch out my hand upon him, and will destroy him from the midst of my people Israel. And they shall bear the punishment of their iniquity: the punishment of the prophet shall be even as the punishment of him that seeketh to him; That 11 the house of Israel may no more go astray from me, neither be polluted any more with all their transgressions; but that they may be my people, and I may be their God, saith the Lord GOD. The word of the LORD came again to me, saying, Son of man, 12, 13 when the land sinneth against me by trespassing grievously, then will I stretch out my hand upon it, and will break the staff of the bread thereof, and will send famine upon it, and will cut off man and beast from it: Though these three men, 14 Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, they should deliver their own souls only by their righteousness, saith the Lord GOD. If 15

I cause noisome beasts to pass through the land, and they lay it waste, so that it be desolate, that no man may pass through because of the beasts: Though these three men were in it, as I live, saith the Lord GOD, they shall deliver neither sons nor daughters; they only shall be delivered, but the land shall be desolate. Or if I bring a sword upon that land, and say, Sword, 17 go through the land; so that I cut off man and beast from it: Though these three men were in it, as I live, saith the Lord 18 GOD, they shall deliver neither sons nor daughters, but they only shall be delivered themselves. Or if I send a pestilence 19 into that land, and pour out my fury upon it in blood, to cut off from it man and beast: Though Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, as I live, saith the Lord GOD, they shall deliver neither son nor daughter; they shall deliver their own souls only by their righteousness. For thus saith the Lord GOD; How much more 21 when I send my four severe judgments upon Jerusalem, the sword, and the famine, and the noisome beast, and the pesti-

22 lence, to cut off from it man and beast? Yet behold, therein shall be left a remnant that shall be brought forth, both sons and daughters: behold, they shall come forth to you, and ye shall see their way and their doings: and ye shall be comforted concerning the evil that I have brought upon Jerusalem, even 23 concerning all that I have brought upon it. And they shall comfort you, when ye see their ways and their doings: and ye shall know that I have not done without cause all that I have done in it, saith the Lord GOD.

15, 2 And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, Son of man, What is the vine-tree more than any tree, or than a branch 3 which is among the trees of the forest? Shall wood be taken of it to do any work? or will men take a pin of it to hang any 4 vessel upon it? Behold, it is cast into the fire for fuel; the fire devoureth both the ends of it, and the midst of it is burned. Is 5 it suitable for any work? Behold, when it was whole, it was fit for no work: how much less then shall it be fit for any work, 6 when the fire hath devoured it, and it is burned? Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; As the vine-tree among the trees of 7 the forest, which I have given to the fire for fuel, so will I give the inhabitants of Jerusalem. And I will set my face against 8 them; they shall go out from one fire, and another fire shall devour them; and ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I 8 set my face against them. And I will make the land desolate, because they have committed a trespass, saith the Lord GOD.

16, 2 Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying, Son of 3 man, cause Jerusalem to know her abominations, And say, Thus saith the Lord GOD to Jerusalem; Thy birth and thy nativity is of the land of Canaan; thy father was an Amorite, and 4 thy mother a Hittite. And as for thy nativity, in the day thou wast born thy navel was not cut, neither wast thou washed in 5 water to supple thee; thou wast not salted at all, nor swaddled at all. No eye pitied thee, to do any of these to thee, to have 6 compassion upon thee; but thou wast cast out in the open field, to the lothing of thy person, in the day that thou wast born.
6 And when I passed by thee, and saw thee polluted in thy own blood, I said to thee when thou wast in thy blood, Live; yes, I 7 said to thee when thou wast in thy blood, Live. I have caused thee to multiply as the bud of the field, and thou hast increased and become great, and thou art come to excellent ornaments:

thy breasts are fashioned, and thy hair is grown, whereas thou wast naked and bare. Now when I passed by thee, and looked upon thee, behold, thy time was the time of love; and I spread my skirt over thee, and covered thy nakedness: yes, I swore to thee, and entered into a covenant with thee, saith the Lord GOD, and thou becamest mine. Then I washed thee with water; yes, I thoroughly washed away thy blood from thee, and I anointed thee with oil. I clothed thee also with broidered work, and shod thee with badgers' skin, and I girded thee with fine linen, and I covered thee with silk. I decked thee also with ornaments, and I put bracelets upon thy hands, and a chain on thy neck. And I put a jewel on thy forehead, and ear-rings in thy ears, and a beautiful crown upon thy head. Thus wast thou decked with gold and silver; and thy raiment was of fine linen, and silk, and broidered work; thou didst eat fine flour, and honey, and oil: and thou wast exceeding beautiful, and thou didst prosper into a kingdom. And thy renown went forth among the heathen for thy beauty: for it was perfect through my comeliness, which I had put upon thee, saith the Lord GOD. But thou didst trust in thy own beauty, and playedst the harlot because of thy renown, and pouredst out thy fornications on every one that passed by; his it was. And of thy garments thou didst take, and deck thy high places with divers colors, and play the harlot upon them: the like things shall not come, neither shall it be so. Thou hast also taken thy fair jewels of my gold and of my silver, which I had given thee, and hast made to thyself images of men, and hast committed lewdness with them. And hast taken thy broidered garments, and covered them: and thou hast set my oil and my incense before them. My provisions also which I gave thee, fine flour, and oil, and honey, with which I fed thee, thou hast even set before them for a sweet savor: and thus it was, saith the Lord GOD. Moreover thou hast taken thy sons and thy daughters, whom thou hast borne to me, and these hast thou sacrificed to them to be devoured. Is this of thy lewdness a small matter, That thou hast slain my children, and delivered them to cause them to pass through the fire for them? And in all thy abominations and thy deeds of lewdness thou hast not remembered the days of thy youth, when thou wast naked and bare, and wast polluted in thy blood. And it came to pass after all

24 thy wickedness, (woe, woe to thee! saith the Lord GOD;) That 25 thou hast also built to thee an eminent place, and hast made 26 thee a high place in every street. Thou hast built thy high 27 place at every head of the way, and hast made thy beauty to be 28 abhorred, and hast prostituted thyself to every one that passed 29 by, and multiplied thy lewd deeds. Thou hast also committed 30 fornication with the Egyptians thy neighbors, great of flesh; 31 and hast multiplied thy lewd deeds, to provoke me to anger.
32 Behold, therefore I have stretched out my hand over thee, and 33 have diminished thy ordinary food, and delivered thee to the 34 will of them that hate thee, the daughters of the Philistines, 35 who are ashamed of thy lewd way. Thou hast played the har-36 lot also with the Assyrians, because thou wast insatiable; yes, 37 thou hast played the harlot with them, and yet couldst not be 38 satisfied. Thou hast moreover multiplied thy fornication in 39 the land of Canaan to Chaldea; and yet with this thou wast 40 not satisfied. How weak is thy heart, saith the Lord GOD, 41 seeing thou doest all these things, the work of an imperious 42 lewd woman; In that thou buildest thy eminent place in the 43 head of every way, and makest thy high place in every street; 44 and hast not been as a harlot, in that thou scornest hire; But 45 as a wife that committeth adultery, who taketh strangers in-46 stead of her husband! They give gifts to all lewd women: but 47 thou givest thy gifts to all thy lovers, and hirest them, that 48 they may come to thee on every side for thy lewdness. And 49 the contrary is in thee from other women in thy unlawful com-50 merce, whereas none followeth thee to commit lewdness: and 51 in that thou givest a reward, and no reward is given to thee, 52 therefore thou art contrary. Wherefore, O harlot, hear the 53 word of the LORD: Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because thy 54 filthiness was poured out, and thy nakedness exposed through 55 thy carnal connection with thy lovers, and with all the idols 56 of thy abominations, and by the blood of thy children, which 57 thou didst give to them; Behold therefore, I will gather all thy 58 lovers, with whom thou hast taken pleasure, and all them that 59 thou hast loved, with all them that thou hast hated; I will even 60 gather them on every side against thee, and will uncover thy 61 nakedness to them, that they may see all thy nakedness. And 62 I will judge thee, as women that break wedlock and shed blood 63 are judged; and I will give thee blood in fury and jealousy. And I will also give thee into their hand, and they shall throw down thy eminent place, and shall break down thy high places: they shall strip thee also of thy clothes, and shall take thy fair jewels, and leave thee naked and bare. They shall also bring up 40 a company against thee, and they shall stone thee with stones, and thrust thee through with their swords. And they shall 41 burn thy houses with fire, and execute judgments upon thee in the sight of many women: and I will cause thee to cease from playing the harlot, and thou also shalt give no hire any more. So will I make my fury towards thee to rest, and my 42 jealousy shall depart from thee, and I will be quiet, and will be no more angry. Because thou hast not remembered the days 43 of thy youth, but hast provoked me in all these things; behold therefore, I also will recompense thy way upon thy head, saith the Lord GOD: and thou shalt not commit this lewdness above 44 all thy abominations. Behold, every one that useth proverbs shall use this proverb against thee, saying, As is the mother, so is her daughter. Thou art thy mother's daughter, that lotheth 45 her husband and her children; and thou art the sister of thy sisters, who lothed their husbands and their children: your mother was a Hittite, and your father an Amorite. And thy elder sister is Samaria, she and her daughters that dwell at thy left hand: and thy younger sister, that dwelleth at thy right 46 hand, is Sodom and her daughters. Yet hast thou not walked after their ways, nor done after their abominations: but as if that were a very little thing, thou wast corrupted more than they in all thy ways. As I live, saith the Lord GOD, Sodom 47 thy sister hath not done, she nor her daughters, as thou hast done, thou and thy daughters. Behold, this was the iniquity of thy sister Sodom, pride, fullness of bread, and abundance of idleness was in her and in her daughters, neither did she 48 strengthen the hand of the poor and needy. And they were haughty, and committed abomination before me: therefore I took them away as I saw good. Neither hath Samaria committed 49 half of thy sins; but thou hast multiplied thy abominations more than they, and hast justified thy sisters in all thy abominations which thou hast done. Thou also, who hast judged thy 50 sisters, bear thy own shame for thy sins that thou hast committed more abominable than they: they are more righteous than thou: yes, be thou confounded also, and bear thy shame, in that 51 52

53 thou hast justified thy sisters. When I shall bring again their captivity, the captivity of Sodom and her daughters, and the captivity of Samaria and her daughters, then will I bring again 54 the captivity of thy captives in the midst of them: That thou mayest bear thy own shame, and mayest be confounded in all 55 that thou hast done, in that thou art a comfort to them. When thy sisters, Sodom and her daughters, shall return to their former state, and Samaria and her daughters shall return to their former state, then thou and thy daughters shall return to your 56 former state. For thy sister Sodom was not mentioned by thy 57 mouth in the day of thy pride, Before thy wickedness was disclosed, as at the time of thy reproach of the daughters of Syria, and all that are around her, the daughters of the Philistines, 58 who despise thee on every side. Thou hast borne thy lewd-59 ness and thy abominations, saith the LORD. For thus saith the Lord GOD; I will even deal with thee as thou hast done, 60 who hast despised the oath in breaking the covenant. Nevertheless I will remember my covenant with thee in the days of thy youth, and I will establish to thee an everlasting covenant.
61 Then thou shalt remember thy ways, and be ashamed, when thou shalt receive thy sisters, thy elder and thy younger: and I will give them to thee for daughters, but not by thy covenant.
62 And I will establish my covenant with thee; and thou shalt 63 know that I am the LORD: That thou mayest remember, and be confounded, and never open thy mouth any more because of thy shame, when I am pacified towards thee for all that thou hast done, saith the Lord GOD.

17, 2 And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, Son of man, put forth a riddle, and speak a parable to the house of Israel; 3 And say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; A great eagle with great wings, long-winged, full of feathers, which had divers colors, came to Lebanon, and took the highest branch of the cedar: 4 He cropped off the top of its young twigs, and carried it into a 5 land of traffick; he set it in a city of merchants. He took also of the seed of the land, and planted it in a fruitful field; he placed 6 it by great waters, and set it as a willow tree. And it grew, and became a spreading vine of low stature, whose branches turned towards him, and its roots were under him: so it became a vine, 7 and brought forth branches, and shot forth sprigs. There was also another great eagle with great wings and many feathers:

and behold, this vine did bend her roots towards him, and shot forth her branches towards him, that he might water it by the furrows of her plantation. It was planted in a good soil by great waters, that it might bring forth branches, and that it might bear fruit, that it might be a goodly vine. Say thou, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Shall it prosper? shall he not pull up its roots, and cut off its fruit, that it may wither? it shall wither in all the leaves of her spring, even without great power or many people to pluck it up by its roots. Yes, behold, being planted, shall it prosper? shall it not utterly wither, when the east wind toucheth it? it shall wither in the furrows where it grew. Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, Say now to the rebellious house, Know ye not what these things mean? tell them, Behold, the king of Babylon hath come to Jerusalem, and hath taken its king, and its princes, and led them with him to Babylon; And hath taken of the king's seed, and made a covenant with him, and hath taken an oath from him: he hath also taken the mighty of the land: That the kingdom might be base, that it might not lift itself up, but that by keeping his covenant it might stand. But he rebelled against him in sending his ambassadors into Egypt, that they might give him horses and many people. Shall he prosper? shall he escape that doeth such things? or shall he break the covenant, and be delivered? As I live, saith the Lord GOD, surely in the place where the king dwelleth that made him king, whose oath he despised, and whose covenant he broke, even with him in the midst of Babylon he shall die. Neither shall Pharaoh with his mighty army and great company make for him in the war, by casting up mounts, and building forts, to cut off many persons: Seeing he despised the oath by breaking the covenant, when lo, he had given his hand, and hath done all these things, he shall not escape. Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; As I live, surely my oath that he hath despised, and my covenant that he hath broken, even that will I recompense upon his own head. And I will spread my net upon him, and he shall be taken in my snare, and I will bring him to Babylon, and will plead with him there for his trespass that he hath trespassed against me. And all his fugitives with all his bands shall fall by the sword, and they that remain shall be scattered towards all winds: and ye shall know that I the LORD have spoken it.

22 Thus saith the Lord God, I will also take of the highest branch of the high cedar, and will set it; I will crop off from the top of its young twigs a tender one, and will plant it upon a high 23 mountain and eminent: In the mountain of the hight of Israel will I plant it: and it shall bring forth boughs, and bear fruit, and be a goodly cedar: and under it shall dwell all fowl of ev-24 ery wing; in the shade of its branches shall they dwell. And all the trees of the field shall know that I the LORD have brought down the high tree, have exalted the low tree, have dried up the green tree, and have made the dry tree to flourish: I the LORD have spoken and have done it.

18, 2 The word of the LORD came to me again, saying, What mean ye, that ye use this proverb concerning the land of Israel, saying, The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the chil-3 dren's teeth are set on edge? As I live, saith the Lord GOD, ye shall not have occasion any more to use this proverb in Is-4 rael. Behold, all souls are mine; as the soul of the father, so also the soul of the son is mine: the soul that sinneth, it 5 shall die. But if a man is just, and doeth that which is lawful 6 and right, And hath not eaten upon the mountains, neither hath lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, nei-7 ther hath defiled his neighbor's wife, neither hath come near to a polluted woman, And hath not oppressed any, but hath restored to the debtor his pledge, hath stripped none by vio-8 lence, hath given his bread to the hungry, and hath covered the naked with a garment: He that hath not given forth upon in-9 terest, neither hath taken any increase, that hath withdrawn his hand from iniquity, hath executed true judgment between 10 man and man, Hath walked in my statutes, and hath kept my judgments, to deal truly; he is just, he shall surely live, saith 11 the Lord GOD. If he begetteth a son that is a robber, a shed-der of blood, and that doeth the like to any one of these things, 12 And that doeth not any of those duties, but even hath eaten upon the mountains, and defiled his neighbor's wife, Hath op-13 pressed the poor and needy, hath stripped by violence, hath not restored the pledge, and hath lifted up his eyes to the idols, 14 hath committed abomination. Hath given forth upon interest, and hath taken increase: shall he then live? he shall not live: he hath done all these abominations; he shall surely die; his blood shall be upon him. Now lo, if he begetteth a son, that seeth all his father's sins which he hath done, and considereth, and doeth not such like, That hath not eaten upon the mountains, neither hath lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, hath not defiled his neighbor's wife, Neither hath oppressed any, hath not withheld the pledge, neither hath stripped by violence, but hath given his bread to the hungry, and hath covered the naked with a garment, That hath taken off his hand from the poor, that hath not received interest nor increase, hath executed my judgments, hath walked in my statutes; he shall not die for the iniquity of his father, he shall surely live. As for his father, because he cruelly oppressed, stripped his brother by violence, and did that which is not good among his people, lo, even he shall die in his iniquity. Yet say ye, Why? doth not the son bear the iniquity of the father? When the son hath done that which is lawful and right, and hath kept all my statutes, and hath done them, he shall surely live. The soul that sinneth, it shall die. The son shall not bear the iniquity of the father, neither shall the father bear the iniquity of the son: the righteousness of the righteous shall be upon him, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be upon him. But if the wicked will turn from all his sins that he hath committed, and keep all my statutes, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall surely live, he shall not die. All his transgressions that he hath committed, they shall not be mentioned to him: in his righteousness that he hath done he shall live. Have I any pleasure at all that the wicked should die? saith the Lord GOD: and not that he should return from his ways, and live? But when the righteous turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, and doeth according to all the abominations that the wicked man doeth, shall he live? All his righteousness that he hath done shall not be mentioned: in his trespass that he hath trespassed, and in his sin that he hath sinned, in them shall he die. Yet ye say, The way of the LORD is not equal. Hear now, O house of Israel; Is not my way equal? are not your ways unequal? When a righteous man turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, and dieth in them; for his iniquity that he hath done shall he die. Again, when a wicked man turneth away from his wickedness that he hath committed, and doeth that which is lawful and right, he shall save his soul alive. Because he considereth and turneth away from all his transgressions that 29 he hath committed, he shall surely live, he shall not die. Yet saith the house of Israel, The way of the LORD is not equal.

O house of Israel, are not my ways equal? are not your ways 30 unequal? Therefore I will judge you, O house of Israel, every one according to his ways, saith the Lord God. Repent, and turn yourselves from all your transgressions; so iniquity shall 31 not be your ruin. Cast away from you all your transgressions, by which ye have transgressed; and make you a new heart and 32 a new spirit: for why will ye die, O house of Israel? For I have no pleasure in the death of him that dieth, saith the Lord GOD: wherefore turn ye, and live.

19 Moreover take thou up a lamentation for the princes of Is-2 rael, And say, What is thy mother: A lioness: she lay down among lions, she nourished her whelps among young lions.
3 And she brought up one of her whelps: it became a young lion, 4 and it learned to catch the prey; it devoured men. The nations also heard of him; he was taken in their pit, and they 5 brought him with chains to the land of Egypt. Now when she saw that she had waited, and her hope was lost, then she took 6 another of her whelps, and made him a young lion. And he went up and down among the lions, he became a young lion, 7 and learned to catch the prey, and devoured men. And he knew their desolate palaces, and he laid waste their cities; and the land was desolate, and the fullness of it, by the noise of 8 his roaring. Then the nations set against him on every side from the provinces, and spread their net over him: he was 9 taken in their pit. And they put him in custody in chains, and brought him to the king of Babylon: they brought him into holds, that his voice should no more be heard upon the moun-10 tains of Israel. Thy mother is like a vine in thy blood, planted by the waters: she was fruitful and full of branches by reason 11 of many waters. And she had strong rods for the scepters of them that bore rule, and her stature was exalted among the thick branches, and she appeared in her hight with the mul-12 titude of her branches. But she was plucked up in fury, she was cast down to the ground, and the east wind dried up her fruit: her strong rods were broken and withered; the fire con-13 sumed them. And now she is planted in the wilderness, in a 14 dry and thirsty ground. And fire hath gone out of a rod of her branches, which hath devoured her fruit, so that she hath no strong rod to be a scepter to rule. This is a lamentation, and shall be for a lamentation.

And it came to pass in the seventh year, in the fifth month, 20 the tenth day of the month, that certain of the elders of Israel came to inquire of the LORD, and sat before me. Then came 2 the word of the LORD to me, saying, Son of man, speak to the 3 elders of Israel, and say to them, Thus saith the Lord God; Are ye come to inquire of me? As I live, saith the Lord God, I will not be inquired of by you. Wilt thou judge them, son of man, 4 wilt thou judge them? cause them to know the abominations of their fathers: And say to them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; 5 In the day when I chose Israel, and lifted up my hand to the seed of the house of Jacob, and made myself known to them in the land of Egypt, when I lifted up my hand to them, say- 6 ing, I am the LORD your God; In the day that I lifted up my hand to them, to bring them forth from the land of Egypt into a land that I had espied for them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands: Then said I to them, Cast ye 7 away every man the abominations of his eyes, and defile not yourselves with the idols of Egypt: I am the LORD your God. But they rebelled against me, and would not hearken to me: 8 they did not every man cast away the abominations of their eyes, neither did they forsake the idols of Egypt: then I said, I will pour out my fury upon them, to accomplish my anger against them in the midst of the land of Egypt. But I wrought 9 for my name's sake, that it should not be profaned before the heathen, among whom they were, in whose sight I made myself known to them, in bringing them forth from the land of Egypt. Wherefore I caused them to go forth from the land 10 of Egypt, and brought them into the wilderness. And I gave them my statutes, and showed them my judgments, which if 11 a man doeth, he shall even live in them. Moreover also I 12 gave them my sabbaths, to be a sign between me and them, that they might know that I am the LORD that sanctify them. But the house of Israel rebelled against me in the wilderness: 13 they walked not in my statutes, and they despised my judgments, which if a man doeth, he shall even live in them; and my sabbaths they greatly profaned: then I said, I would pour out my fury upon them in the wilderness, to consume them.

14 But I wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be profaned before the heathen, in whose sight I brought them out.
15 Yet also I lifted up my hand to them in the wilderness, that I would not bring them into the land which I had given them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands; 16 Because they despised my judgments, and walked not in my statutes, but profaned my sabbaths: for their heart went after 17 their idols. Nevertheless my eye spared them from destroying them, neither did I make an end of them in the wilderness.
18 But I said to their children in the wilderness, Walk ye not in the statutes of your fathers, neither observe their judgments, nor defile yourselves with their idols: I am the LORD your God; walk in my statutes, and keep my judgments, and 20 do them; And hallow my sabbaths; and they shall be a sign between me and you, that ye may know that I am the LORD 21 your God. Notwithstanding the children rebelled against me: they walked not in my statutes, neither kept my judgments to do them, which if a man doeth, he shall even live in them: they profaned my sabbaths: then I said, I would pour out my 22 fury upon them, to accomplish my anger against them in the wilderness. Nevertheless I withdrew my hand, and wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be profaned in the sight 23 of the heathen, in whose sight I brought them forth. I lifted up my hand to them also in the wilderness, that I would scatter them among the heathen, and disperse them through the 24 countries; Because they had not executed my judgments, but had despised my statutes, and had profaned my sabbaths, and their eyes were after their fathers' idols. Wherefore I gave 25 them also statutes that were not good, and judgments by which they should not live; And I polluted them in their own gifts, in that they caused to pass through the fire all the first-born, that I might make them desolate, to the end that they might 27 know that I am the LORD. Therefore, son of man, speak to the house of Israel, and say to them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Yet in this your fathers have blasphemed me, in that they have 28 committed a trespass against me. For when I had brought them into the land, for which I lifted up my hand to give it to them, then they saw every high hill, and all the thick trees, and they offered there their sacrifices, and there they presented the provocation of their offering: there also they made their sweet savor, and poured out there their drink-offerings. Then I said 29 to them, What is the high place to which ye go? and its name is called Bamah to this day. Wherefore say to the house of Israel, 30 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Are ye polluted after the manner of your fathers? and commit ye lewd deeds after their abominations? For when ye offer your gifts, when ye make your sons to 31 pass through the fire, ye pollute yourselves with all your idols, even to this day: and shall I be inquired of by you, O house of Israel? As I live, saith the Lord GOD, I will not be inquired of by you. And that which cometh into your mind shall not 32 be at all, that ye say, We will be as the heathen, as the families of the countries, to serve wood and stone. As I live, saith 33 the Lord GOD, surely with a mighty hand, and with an outstretched arm, and with fury poured out, will I rule over you: And I will bring you out from the people, and will gather you 34 out of the countries in which ye are scattered, with a mighty hand, and with an out-stretched arm, and with fury poured out. And I will bring you into the wilderness of the people, 35 and there will I plead with you face to face. As I pleaded with 36 your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so will I plead with you, saith the Lord GOD. And I will cause you to 37 pass under the rod, and I will bring you into the bond of the covenant. And I will purge out from among you the rebels, 38 and them that transgress against me: I will bring them forth out of the country where they sojourn, and they shall not enter into the land of Israel: and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

As for you, O house of Israel, thus saith the Lord GOD; Go ye, 39 serve ye every one his idols, and hereafter also, if ye will not hearken to me: but profane ye my holy name no more with your gifts, and with your idols. For on my holy mountain, on 40 the mountain of the hight of Israel, saith the Lord GOD, there shall all the house of Israel, all of them in the land, serve me: there will I accept them, and there will I require your offerings, and the first fruits of your oblations, with all your holy things.
I will accept you with your sweet savor, when I bring you out 41 from the people, and gather you out of the countries in which ye have been scattered; and I will be sanctified in you before the heathen. And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when 42 I shall bring you into the land of Israel, into the country for which I lifted up my hand to give it to your fathers. And there 43 shall ye remember your ways, and all your doings in which ye have been defiled; and ye shall lothe yourselves in your own 44 sight for all your evils that ye have committed. And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I have wrought with you for my name's sake, not according to your wicked ways, nor according to your corrupt doings, O ye house of Israel, saith the 45 Lord GOD. Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 46 Son of man, set thy face towards the south, and drop thy word towards the south, and prophesy against the forest of the 47 south field; And say to the forest of the south, Hear the word of the LORD; Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will kindle a fire in thee, and it shall devour every green tree in thee, and every dry tree: the flaming flame shall not be quenched, and all faces from the south to the north shall be burned therein.

48 And all flesh shall see that I the LORD have kindled it: it shall 49 not be quenched. Then said I, Ah Lord GOD! they say of me, Doth he not speak parables?

21, 2 And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, Son of man, set thy face towards Jerusalem, and drop thy word towards the holy places, and prophesy against the land of Israel, 3 And say to the land of Israel, Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I am against thee, and will draw forth my sword out of its sheath, and will cut off from thee the righteous and the 4 wicked. Seeing then that I will cut off from thee the righteous and the wicked, therefore shall my sword go forth from 5 its sheath against all flesh from the south to the north: That all flesh may know that I the LORD have drawn my sword out 6 of its sheath: it shall not return any more. Sigh therefore, thou son of man, with the breaking of thy loins; and with bitterness sigh before their eyes. And it shall be, when they say to thee, Why sighest thou? that thou shalt answer, For the tidings; because it cometh: and every heart shall melt, and all hands shall be feeble, and every spirit shall faint, and all knees shall be weak as water: behold, it cometh, and shall 8 be brought to pass, saith the Lord GOD. Again the word of 9 the LORD came to me, saying, Son of man, prophesy, and say, Thus saith the LORD; Say, A sword, a sword is sharpened, and 10 also furbished: It is sharpened to make a grievous slaughter; it is furbished that it may glitter: should we then make mirth?
11 it contemneth the rod of my son, as every tree. And he hath given it to be furbished, that it may be handled: the sword is sharpened, and it is furbished, to give it into the hand of the slayer. Cry and howl, son of man: for it shall be upon my people, it shall be upon all the princes of Israel: terrors by reason of the sword shall be upon my people: smite therefore upon thy thigh. Because it is a trial, and what if the sword contemneth even the rod? it shall be no more, saith the Lord GOD. Thou therefore, son of man, prophesy, and smite thy hands together, and let the sword be doubled the third time, the sword of the slain: it is the sword of the great men that are slain, which entereth into their private chambers. I have set the point of the sword against all their gates, that their heart may faint, and their ruins be multiplied: ah! it is made bright, it is sharpened for the slaughter. Go thee one way or other, either on the right hand, or on the left, whithersoever thy face is set. I will also smite my hands together, and I will cause my fury to rest: I the LORD have said it. The word of the LORD came to me again, saying, Also, thou son of man, appoint thee two ways, that the sword of the king of Babylon may come: both ways shall come forth from one land: and choose thou a place, choose it at the head of the way to the city. Appoint a way, that the sword may come to Rabbah of the Ammonites, and to Judah in Jerusalem the fortified. For the king of Babylon stood at the parting of the way, at the head of the two ways, to use divination; he made his arrows bright, he consulted with images, he looked in the liver. At his right hand was the divination for Jerusalem, to appoint captains, to open the mouth in the slaughter, to lift up the voice with shouting, to appoint battering rams against the gates, to cast a mount, and to build a fort. And it shall be to them as a false divination in their sight, to them that have sworn oaths: but he will call to remembrance the iniquity, that they may be taken. Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Because ye have made your iniquity to be remembered, in that your transgressions are disclosed, so that in all your doings your sins do appear; because, I say, that ye are come to remembrance, ye shall be taken with the hand. And thou, profane wicked prince of Israel, whose day is come, when iniquity shall have an end, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Remove the diadem, and take off the crown: this shall not be the same: exalt him that is low, and abase him that is high. I will overturn, overturn, overturn it: and it shall be no more, until he 28 cometh whose right it is; and I will give it him. And thou, son of man, prophesy and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD concerning the Ammonites, and concerning their reproach; even say thou, The sword, the sword is drawn: for the slaughter it 29 is furbished, to consume because of the glittering: While they see vanity to thee, while they divine a lie to thee, to bring thee upon the necks of them that are slain, of the wicked, whose day 30 is come, when their iniquity shall have an end. Shall I cause it to return into its sheath? I will judge thee in the place where 31 thou wast created, in the land of thy nativity. And I will pour out my indignation upon thee, I will blow against thee in the fire of my wrath, and deliver thee into the hand of brutish men, 32 and skillful to destroy. Thou shalt be for fuel to the fire; thy blood shall be in the midst of the land; thou shalt be no more remembered: for I the LORD have spoken it.

22, 2 Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, Now, thou son of man, wilt thou judge, wilt thou judge the bloody 3 city? yes, thou shalt show her all her abominations. Then say thou, Thus saith the Lord GOD; The city sheddeth blood in the midst of it, that her time may come, and maketh idols 4 against herself to defile herself. Thou art become guilty in thy blood that thou hast shed; and hast defiled thyself by thy idols which thou hast made; and thou hast caused thy days to draw near, and art come even to thy years: therefore have I made thee a reproach to the heathen, and a mocking to all 5 countries. Those that are near, and those that are far from thee, shall mock thee, who art infamous and much troubled.
6 Behold, the princes of Israel, every one were in thee to their 7 power to shed blood. In thee have they set light by father and mother: in the midst of thee have they dealt by oppression with the stranger: in thee have they oppressed the fatherless 8 and the widow. Thou hast despised my holy things, and hast 9 profaned my sabbaths. In thee are men that carry tales to shed blood: and in thee they eat upon the mountains: in the 10 midst of thee they commit lewdness. In thee have they uncovered their fathers' nakedness: in thee have they humbled 11 her that was set apart for pollution. And one hath committed abomination with his neighbor's wife; and another hath lewdly defiled his daughter-in-law; and another in thee hath humbled his sister, his father's daughter. In thee have they taken gifts 12 to shed blood; thou hast taken interest and increase, and thou hast greedily gained from thy neighbors by extortion, and hast forgotten me, saith the Lord GOD. Behold, therefore I have 13 smitten my hand at thy dishonest gain which thou hast made, and at thy blood which hath been in the midst of thee. Can 14 thy heart endure, or can thy hands be strong, in the days that I shall deal with thee? I the LORD have spoken it, and will do it. And I will scatter thee among the heathen, and disperse 15 thee in the countries, and will consume thy filthiness out of thee. And thou shalt take thy inheritance in thyself in the 16 sight of the heathen, and thou shalt know that I am the LORD.

And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, Son of man, 17, 18
the house of Israel is to me become dross: all they are brass, and tin, and iron, and lead, in the midst of the furnace; they are even the dross of silver. Therefore thus saith the Lord 19 GOD, Because ye are all become dross, behold, therefore I will gather you into the midst of Jerusalem. As they gather sil- 20 ver, and brass, and iron, and lead, and tin, into the midst of the furnace, to blow the fire upon it, to melt it; so will I gather you in my anger and in my fury, and I will leave you there, and melt you. Yes, I will gather you, and blow upon you in 21 the fire of my wrath, and ye shall be melted in the midst of it. As silver is melted in the midst of the furnace, so shall 22 ye be melted in the midst of it; and ye shall know that I the LORD have poured out my fury upon you. And the word of the 23 LORD came to me, saying, Son of man, say to her, Thou art the 24 land that is not cleansed, nor rained upon in the day of indignation. There is a conspiracy of her prophets in the midst of 25 her, like a roaring lion ravening the prey; they have devoured souls; they have taken the treasure and precious things; they have made her many widows in the midst of her. Her priests 26 have violated my law, and have profaned my holy things: they have put no difference between the holy and profane, neither have they shown difference between the unclean and the clean, and have hid their eyes from my sabbaths, and I am profaned among them. Her princes in the midst of her are like wolves 27 ravening the prey, to shed blood, and to destroy souls, to get dishonest gain. And her prophets have daubed them with 28 untempered mortar, seeing vanity, and divining lies to them, saying, Thus saith the Lord GOD, when the LORD hath not 29 spoken. The people of the land have used oppression, and exercised robbery, and have oppressed the poor and needy: yes, 30 they have oppressed the stranger wrongfully. And I sought for a man among them, that should make up the hedge, and stand in the gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it: 31 but I found none. Therefore have I poured out my indignation upon them; I have consumed them with the fire of my wrath: their own way have I recompensed upon their heads, saith the Lord GOD.

23, 2 The word of the LORD came again to me, saying, Son of man, there were two women, the daughters of one mother: 3 And they committed lewd deeds in Egypt; they committed lewd deeds in their youth: there were their breasts pressed, and 4 there they were first corrupted. And the names of them were Aholah the elder, and Aholibah her sister: and they were mine, and they bore sons and daughters. Thus were their names; 5 Samaria is Aholah, and Jerusalem Aholibah. And Aholah played the harlot when she was mine; and she doted on her 6 lovers, on the Assyrians her neighbors. Who were clothed with blue, captains and rulers, all of them desirable young men, 7 horsemen riding upon horses. Thus she committed her lewd deeds with them, with all them that were the chosen men of Assyria, and with all on whom she doted: with all their idols she 8 defiled herself. Neither left she her lewd deeds brought from Egypt: for in her youth they lay with her, and they first cor-9 rupted her, and poured their impurities upon her. Wherefore I have delivered her into the hand of her lovers, into the hand 10 of the Assyrians, upon whom she doted. These uncovered her nakedness: they took her sons and her daughters, and slew her with the sword: and she became famous among women; 11 for they had executed judgment upon her. And when her sister Aholibah saw this, she was more corrupt in her inordinate love than she, and in her prostitutions more than her sister in 12 her prostitutions. She doted upon the Assyrians her neighbors, captains and rulers clothed most gorgeously, horsemen 13 riding upon horses, all of them desirable young men. Then I 14 saw that she was defiled, that they took both one way. And that she increased her prostitutions: for when she saw men pourtrayed upon the wall, the images of the Chaldeans pour-trayed with vermilion. Girded with girdles upon their loins, 15 exceeding in dyed attire upon their heads, all of them princes to look to, after the manner of the Babylonians of Chaldea, the land of their nativity: And as soon as she saw them with her 16 eyes she doted upon them, and sent messengers to them into Chaldea. And the Babylonians came to her into the bed of 17 love, and they defiled her with their lewdness, and she was polluted with them, and her mind was alienated from them.

So she disclosed her lewd deeds, and exposed her nakedness: 18 then my mind was alienated from her, as my mind was alienated from her sister. Yet she multiplied her prostitutions, in 19 calling to remembrance the days of her youth, in which she had played the harlot in the land of Egypt. For she doted upon 20 their paramours, whose flesh is as the flesh of asses, and whose issue is like the issue of horses. Thus thou calledst to remem- 21 brance the lewdness of thy youth, by being corrupted by the Egyptians in thy youth. Therefore, O Aholibah, thus saith the 22 Lord GOD; Behold, I will raise up thy lovers against thee, from whom thy mind is alienated, and I will bring them against thee on every side; The Babylonians, and all the Chaldeans, Pekod, 23 and Shoa, and Koa, and all the Assyrians with them: all of them desirable young men, captains and rulers, great lords and renowned, all of them riding upon horses. And they shall 24 come against thee with chariots, wagons, and wheels, and with an assembly of people, which shall set against thee buckler and shield and helmet on every side: and I will set judgment before them, and they shall judge thee according to their judg- 25 ments. And I will set my jealousy against thee, and they shall deal furiously with thee: they shall take away thy nose and thy ears; and thy remnant shall fall by the sword: they shall take thy sons and thy daughters; and thy residue shall be de- 26 voured by the fire. They shall also strip thee of thy clothes, and take away thy fair jewels. Thus will I make thy lewd- 27 ness to cease from thee, and thy adultery brought from the land of Egypt: so that thou shalt not lift up thy eyes to them, nor remember Egypt any more. For thus saith the Lord GOD; 28 Behold, I will deliver thee into the hand of them whom thou hatest, into the hand of them from whom thy mind is alienated: And they shall treat thee with hatred, and shall take 29 away all thy labor, and shall leave thee naked and bare: and the nakedness of thy prostitutions shall be disclosed, both thy 30 lewdness and thy prostitutions. I will do these things to thee, because thou hast gone astray after the heathen, and because 31 thou art polluted with their idols. Thou hast walked in the way of thy sister; therefore will I give her cup into thy hand.

32 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Thou shalt drink of thy sister's cup deep and large: thou shalt be treated with scorn and had in de-33 rision; it containeth much. Thou shalt be filled with drunkenness and sorrow, with the cup of astonishment and desolation, 34 with the cup of thy sister Samaria. Thou shalt even drink it, and empty it to the dregs, and thou shalt break its pieces, and pluck off thy own breasts: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord 35 GOD. Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Because thou hast forgotten me, and cast me behind thy back, therefore bear thou 36 also thy lewdness and thy prostitutions. The LORD said moreover to me; Son of man, wilt thou judge Aholah and Aholibah?
37 yes, declare to them their abominations; That they have committed adultery, and blood is in their hands, and with their idols have they committed adultery, and have also caused their sons, whom they bore to me, to pass for them through the fire, 38 to devour them. Moreover this they have done to me: they have defiled my sanctuary in the same day, and have profaned 39 my sabbaths. For when they had slain their children to their idols, then they came the same day into my sanctuary to profane it; and lo, thus have they done in the midst of my house.
40 And furthermore, that ye have sent for men to come from far, to whom a messenger was sent; and lo, they came: for whom thou didst wash thyself, paint thy eyes, and deck thyself with 41 ornaments, And satest upon a stately bed and a table prepared before it, upon which thou hast set my incense and my 42 oil. And a voice of a multitude being at ease was with her: and with the men of the common sort were brought Sabceans from the wilderness, who put bracelets upon their hands, and 43 beautiful crowns upon their heads. Then said I to her that was old in adulteries, Will they now commit lewd deeds with 44 her, and she with them? Yet they went in to her, as they go in to a woman that playeth the harlot: so they went in to Aholah 45 and to Aholibah, the lewd women. And the righteous men, they shall judge them after the manner of adulteresses, and after the manner of women that shed blood; because they are adulteresses, and blood is in their hands. For thus saith the Lord GOD; I will bring up a company upon them, and will give them to be removed and plundered. And the company shall stone them with stones, and dispatch them with their swords; they shall slay their sons and their daughters, and burn their houses with fire. Thus will I cause lewdness to cease out of the land, that all women may be taught not to do after your lewdness. And they shall recompense your lewdness upon you, and ye shall bear the sins of your idols: and ye shall know that I am the Lord GOD.

Again in the ninth year, in the tenth month, in the tenth 24 day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me, saying, Son of man, Write for thee the name of the day, even of this same day: the king of Babylon set himself against Jerusalem this same day. And utter a parable to the rebellious house, and say to them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Set on a pot, set it on, and also pour water into it: Gather its pieces into it, even every good piece, the thigh, and the shoulder; fill it with the choice bones. Take the choice of the flock, and burn also the bones under it, and make it boil well, and let them boil its bones in it. Wherefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Woe to the bloody city, to the pot whose scum is therein, and whose scum is not gone out of it! bring it out piece by piece; let no lot fall upon it. For her blood is in the midst of her; she set it upon the top of a rock; she poured it not upon the ground, to cover it with dust; That it might cause fury to come up to take vengeance; I have set her blood upon the top of a rock, that it should not be covered. Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Woe to the bloody city! I will even make the pile for fire great. Heap on wood, kindle the fire, consume the flesh, and spice it well, and let the bones be burned. Then set it empty upon its coals, that the brass of it may be hot, and may burn, and that the filthiness of it may be melted in it, that the scum of it may be consumed. She hath wearied herself with lies, and her great scum went not forth out of her: her scum shall be in the fire. In thy filthiness is lewdness: because I have purged thee, and thou wast not purged, thou shalt not be purged from thy filthiness any more, till I have caused my fury to rest upon thee. I the LORD have spoken it; it shall come to pass, and I will do it; I will not go back, neither will I spare, neither will I repent; according to thy ways, and according to 15 thy doings, shall they judge thee, saith the Lord GOD. Also 16 the word of the LORD came to me, saying, Son of man, behold, I take away from thee the desire of thy eyes with a stroke: yet neither shalt thou mourn nor weep, neither shall thy tears run 17 down. Forbear to cry, make no mourning for the dead, bind the tire of thy head upon thee, and put on thy shoes upon thy 18 feet, and cover not thy lips, and eat not the bread of men. So I spoke to the people in the morning: and at evening my wife 19 died; and I did in the morning as I was commanded. And the people said to me, Wilt thou not tell us what these things 20 are to us, that thou doest so? Then I answered them, the 21 word of the LORD came to me, saying, Speak to the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will profane my sanctuary, the excellence of your strength, the desire of your eyes, and that which your soul pitieth; and your sons and your 22 daughters whom ye have left shall fall by the sword. And ye shall do as I have done: ye shall not cover your lips, nor eat the 23 bread of men. And your tires shall be upon your heads, and your shoes upon your feet: ye shall not mourn nor weep; but ye shall pine away for your iniquities, and mourn one towards 24 another. Thus Ezekiel is to you a sign: according to all that he hath done shall ye do: and when this cometh, ye shall know 25 that I am the Lord GOD. Also, thou son of man, shall it not be in the day when I take from them their strength, the joy of their glory, the desire of their eyes, and that on which they 26 set their minds, their sons and their daughters, That he that escapeth in that day shall come to thee, to cause thee to hear 27 it with thy ears? In that day shall thy mouth be opened to him who hath escaped, and thou shalt speak, and be no more dumb: and thou shalt be a sign to them; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

25.² The word of the LORD came again to me, saying, Son of man, set thy face against the Ammonites, and prophesy against 3 them; And say to the Ammonites, Hear the word of the Lord GOD; Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because thou saidst, Aha, against my sanctuary, when it was profaned; and against the land of Israel, when it was desolate; and against the house of 4 Judah, when they went into captivity; Behold, therefore I will deliver thee to the men of the east for a possession, and they shall set their palaces in thee, and make their dwellings in thee: they shall eat thy fruit, and they shall drink thy milk. And I will make Rabbah a stable for camels, and the Ammonites a couching-place for flocks: and ye shall know that I am the LORD. For thus saith the Lord GOD; Because thou hast clapped thy hands, and stamped with the feet, and rejoiced in heart with all thy despite against the land of Israel; Behold, therefore I will stretch out my hand upon thee, and will deliver thee for a spoil to the heathen; and I will cut thee off from the people, and I will cause thee to perish out of the countries: I will destroy thee; and thou shalt know that I am the LORD. Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because that Moab and Seir do say, Behold, the house of Judah is like all the heathen; Therefore behold, I will open the side of Moab from the cities, from his cities which are on his frontiers, the glory of the country, Beth-jeshimoth, Baal-meon, and Kiriathaim, To the men of the east with the Ammonites, and will give them in possession, that the Ammonites may not be remembered among the nations. And I will execute judgments upon Moab; and they shall know that I am the LORD. Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because Edom hath dealt against the house of Judah by taking vengeance, and hath greatly offended, and revenged himself upon them; Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; I will also stretch out my hand upon Edom, and will cut off man and beast from it; and I will make it desolate from Teman; and they of Dedan shall fall by the sword. And I will lay my vengeance upon Edom by the hand of my people Israel: and they shall do in Edom according to my anger and according to my fury; and they shall know my vengeance, saith the Lord GOD. Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because the Philistines have dealt by revenge, and have taken vengeance with a despiteful heart, to destroy it for the old hatred; Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will stretch out my hand upon the Philistines, and I will cut off the Cherethims, and destroy the remnant of the sea coast. And I will execute great vengeance upon them with furious rebukes; and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall lay my vengeance upon them.

And it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came to me, saying, Son of man, because that Tyre hath said against Jerusalem, Aha,

she is broken that was the gates of the people: she is turned to 3 me: I shall be replenished, now she is laid waste: Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against thee, O Tyre, and will cause many nations to come up against thee, as the 4 sea causeth its waves to come up. And they shall destroy the walls of Tyre, and break down her towers: I will also scrape 5 her dust from her, and make her like the top of a rock. It shall be a place for the spreading of nets in the midst of the sea: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord GOD: and it shall 6 become a spoil to the nations. And her daughters who are in the field shall be slain by the sword; and they shall know 7 that I am the LORD. For thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will bring upon Tyre Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, a king of kings, from the north, with horses, and with chariots, and 8 with horsemen, and companies, and much people. He shall slay with the sword thy daughters in the field: and he shall make a fort against thee, and cast a mount against thee, and 9 lift up the buckler against thee. And he shall set engines of war against thy walls, and with his axes he shall break down 10 thy towers. By reason of the abundance of his horses their dust shall cover thee: thy walls shall shake at the noise of the horsemen, and of the wheels, and of the chariots, when he shall enter into thy gates, as men enter into a city in which is 11 made a breach. With the hoofs of his horses shall he tread down all thy streets: he shall slay thy people by the sword, 12 and thy strong garrisons shall go down to the ground. And they shall make a spoil of thy riches, and make a prey of thy merchandise: and they shall break down thy walls, and destroy thy pleasant houses: and they shall lay thy stones and thy 13 timber and thy dust in the midst of the water. And I will cause the noise of thy songs to cease; and the sound of thy 14 harps shall be no more heard. And I will make thee like the top of a rock: thou shalt be a place to spread nets upon; thou shalt be built no more: for I the LORD have spoken it, saith 15 the Lord GOD. Thus saith the Lord GOD to Tyre; Shall not the isles shake at the sound of thy fall, when the wounded cry, 16 when the slaughter is made in the midst of thee? Then all the princes of the sea shall come down from their thrones, and lay away their robes, and put off their broidered garments: they shall clothe themselves with trembling; they shall sit upon the ground, and shall tremble at every moment, and be astonished at thee. And they shall take up a lamentation for thee, and 17 say to thee, How art thou destroyed, that wast inhabited by sea-faring men, the renowned city, which wast strong in the sea, she and her inhabitants, who cause their terror to be on all that haunt it! Now shall the isles tremble in the day of 18 thy fall; yes, the isles that are in the sea shall be disturbed at thy departure. For thus saith the Lord GOD; When I shall 19 make thee a desolate city, like the cities that are not inhabited; when I shall bring up the deep upon thee, and great waters shall cover thee; When I shall bring thee down with them that 20 descend into the pit, with the people of old time, and shall set thee in the low parts of the earth, in places desolate of old, with them that go down to the pit, that thou be not inhabited; and I shall set glory in the land of the living; I will make thee a 21 terror, and thou shalt be no more: though thou shalt be sought for, yet shalt thou never be found again, saith the Lord GOD.

The word of the LORD came again to me, saying, Now, thou 27, 2 son of man, take up a lamentation for Tyre; And say to Tyre, 3 O thou that art situated at the entry of the sea, which art a merchant of the people for many isles, Thus saith the Lord GOD; O Tyre, thou hast said, I am of perfect beauty. Thy 4 borders are in the midst of the seas, thy builders have perfected thy beauty. They have made all thy ship -boards of fir- 5 trees of Senir: they have taken cedars from Lebanon to make masts for thee. Of the oaks of Bashan have they made thy 6 oars; the company of the Ashurites have made thy benches of ivory, brought out of the isles of Chittim. Fine linen with broi- 7 dered work from Egypt was that which thou spreadest forth to be thy sail; blue and purple from the isles of Elishah was that which covered thee. The inhabitants of Zidon and Ar- 8 vad were thy mariners: thy wise men, O Tyre, that were in thee, were thy pilots. The ancients of Gebal and its wise men 9 were in thee thy calkers: all the ships of the sea with their mariners were in thee to occupy thy merchandise. They of 10 Persia and of Lud and of Phut were in thy army, thy military men: they hung the shield and helmet in thee; they set forth thy comeliness. The men of Arvad with thy army were upon 11 thy walls on all sides, and the Gammadims were in thy towers: they hung their shields upon thy walls on every side; they 12 have made thy beauty perfect. Tarshish was thy merchant by reason of the multitude of all kind of riches; with silver, 13 iron, tin, and lead, they traded in thy fairs. Javan, Tubal, and Meshech, they were thy merchants: they traded in the persons 14 of men and vessels of brass in thy market. They of the house of Togarmah traded in thy fairs with horses and horsemen and 15 mules. The men of Dedan were thy merchants; many isles were the merchandise of thy hand: they brought thee for a 16 present horns of ivory and ebony. Syria was thy merchant by reason of the multitude of the wares of thy making: they occupied in thy fairs with emeralds, purple, and broidered work, 17 and fine linen, and coral, and agate. Judah, and the land of Israel, they were thy merchants: they traded in thy market in wheat of Minnith, and Pannag, and honey, and oil, and balm.

18 Damascus was thy merchant in the multitude of the wares of thy making, for the multitude of all riches; in the wine of Hel-19 bon, and white wool. Dan also and Javan going to and fro occupied in thy fairs: bright iron, cassia, and calamus, were 20 in thy market. Dedan was thy merchant in precious clothes for chariots. Arabia, and all the princes of Kedar, they oc-21 cupied with thee in lambs, and rams, and goats: in these were 22 they thy merchants. The merchants of Sheba and Raamah, they were thy merchants: they occupied in thy fairs with chief 23 of all spices, and with all precious stones, and gold. Haran, and Canneh, and Eden, the merchants of Sheba, Asshur, and 24 Chilmad, were thy merchants. These were thy merchants in all sorts of things, in blue clothes, and broidered work, and in 25 chests of rich apparel, bound with cords, and made of cedar, among thy merchandise. The ships of Tarshish did sing of thee in thy market; and thou wast replenished, and made very 26 glorious in the midst of the seas. Thy rowers have brought thee into great waters: the east wind hath broken thee in the 27 midst of the seas. Thy riches, and thy fairs, thy merchandise, thy mariners, and thy pilots, thy calkers, and the occupiers of thy merchandise, and all thy military men, that are in thee, and in all thy company which is in the midst of thee, shall fall 28 into the midst of the seas in the day of thy ruin. The sub-29 urbs shall shake at the sound of the cry of thy pilots. And all that handle the oar, the mariners, and all the pilots of the sea, shall come down from their ships, they shall stand upon the land; And shall cause their voice to be heard against thee, 30 and shall cry bitterly, and shall cast up dust upon their heads, they shall wallow themselves in the ashes: And they shall 31 make themselves utterly bald for thee, and gird themselves with sackcloth, and they shall weep for thee with bitterness of heart and bitter wailing. And in their wailing they shall 32 take up a lamentation for thee, and lament over thee, saying, What city is like Tyre, like the destroyed in the midst of the sea? When thy wares went forth out of the seas, thou filledst 33 many people; thou didst enrich the kings of the earth with the multitude of thy riches and of thy merchandise. In the time 34 when thou shalt be broken by the seas in the depths of the waters, thy merchandise and all thy company in the midst of thee shall fall. All the inhabitants of the isles shall be astonished 35 at thee, and their kings shall be terribly afraid, they shall be troubled in their countenance. The merchants among the peo- 36 ple shall hiss at thee; thou shalt be a terror, and never shalt be any more.

The word of the LORD came again to me, saying, Son of 28, 2 man, say to the prince of Tyre, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because thy heart is lifted up, and thou hast said, I am a god, I sit in the seat of God, in the midst of the seas; yet thou art a man, and not God, though thou settest thy heart as the heart of God: Behold, thou art wiser than Daniel; there is no se- 3 cret that they can hide from thee: With thy wisdom and with 4 thy understanding thou hast gained for thee riches, and hast gained gold and silver into thy treasures: By thy great wis- 5 dom and by thy traffick hast thou increased thy riches, and thy heart is lifted up because of thy riches: Therefore thus 6 saith the Lord GOD; Because thou hast set thy heart as the heart of God; Behold, therefore I will bring strangers upon 7 thee, the terrible of the nations: and they shall draw their swords against the beauty of thy wisdom, and they shall defile thy brightness. They shall bring thee down to the pit, and 8 thou shalt die the deaths of them that are slain in the midst of the seas. Wilt thou yet say before him that slayeth thee, I 9 am God? but thou shalt be a man, and no god, in the hand of him that slayeth thee. Thou shalt die the deaths of the uncir- 10 cumcised by the hand of strangers: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord GOD. Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, 11 12 saying, Son of man, take up a lamentation upon the king of Tyre, and say to him, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Thou sealest 13 up the sum, full of wisdom, and perfect in beauty. Thou hast been in Eden the garden of God; every precious stone was thy covering, the sardius, topaz, and the diamond, the beryl, the onyx, and the jasper, the sapphire, the emerald, and the carbuncle, and gold: the workmanship of thy tabrets and of thy pipes was prepared in thee in the day that thou wast created.

14 Thou art the anointed cherub that covereth; and I have set thee so: thou wast upon the holy mountain of God; thou hast 15 walked up and down in the midst of the stones of fire. Thou wast perfect in thy ways from the day that thou wast created, 16 till iniquity was found in thee. By the multitude of thy merchandise they have filled the midst of thee with violence, and thou hast sinned: therefore I will cast thee as profane out of the mountain of God: and I will destroy thee, O covering cherub, 17 from the midst of the stones of fire. Thy heart was lifted up because of thy beauty, thou hast corrupted thy wisdom by reason of thy brightness: I will cast thee to the ground, I will lay thee 18 before kings, that they may behold thee. Thou hast defiled thy sanctuaries by the multitude of thy iniquities, by the iniquity of thy traffick; therefore will I bring forth a fire from the midst of thee, it shall devour thee, and I will bring thee to ashes 19 upon the earth in the sight of all them that behold thee. All they that know thee among the people shall be astonished at thee: thou shalt be a terror, and never shalt thou be any more.
20, 21 Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying, Son of man, 22 set thy face against Zidon, and prophesy against it, And say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against thee, O Zidon; and I will be glorified in the midst of thee: and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall have executed judgments in 23 her, and shall be sanctified in her. For I will send into her pestilence, and blood into her streets; and the wounded shall be judged in the midst of her by the sword upon her on every 24 side; and they shall know that I am the LORD. And there shall be no more a pricking brier to the house of Israel, nor any grieving thorn of all that are around them, that despised them; 25 and they shall know that I am the Lord GOD. Thus saith the Lord GOD; When I shall have gathered the house of Israel from the people among whom they are scattered, and shall be sanctified in them in the sight of the heathen, then shall they dwell in their land that I have given to my servant Jacob. And they 26 shall dwell safely therein, and shall build houses, and plant vineyards; yes, they shall dwell with confidence, when I have executed judgments upon all those that despise them around them; and they shall know that I am the LORD their God.

In the tenth year, in the tenth month, in the twelfth day of 29 the month, the word of the LORD came to me, saying, Son of 2 man, set thy face against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and prophesy against him, and against all Egypt: Speak, and say, Thus 3 saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against thee, Pharaoh king of Egypt, the great dragon that lieth in the midst of his rivers, which hath said, My river is my own, and I have made it for 4 myself. But I will put hooks in thy jaws, and I will cause the fish of thy rivers to stick to thy scales, and I will bring thee out of the midst of thy rivers, and all the fish of thy rivers shall stick to thy scales. And I will leave thee thrown into the 5 wilderness, thee and all the fish of thy rivers: thou shalt fall upon the open fields; thou shalt not be brought together, nor gathered: I have given thee for food to the beasts of the field and to the fowls of heaven. And all the inhabitants of Egypt 6 shall know that I am the LORD, because they have been a staff of reed to the house of Israel. When they took hold of thee by 7 thy hand, thou didst break, and rend all their shoulder: and when they leaned upon thee, thou didst break, and make all their loins to be at a stand. Therefore thus saith the Lord 8 GOD; Behold, I will bring a sword upon thee, and cut off man and beast out of thee. And the land of Egypt shall be desolate 9 and waste; and they shall know that I am the LORD: because he hath said, The river is mine, and I have made it. Behold, 10 therefore, I am against thee, and against thy rivers, and I will make the land of Egypt utterly waste and desolate, from the tower of Syene even to the border of Cush. No foot of man 11 shall pass through it, nor foot of beast shall pass through it, neither shall it be inhabited forty years. And I will make the 12 land of Egypt desolate in the midst of the countries that are desolate, and her cities among the cities that are laid waste shall be desolate forty years: and I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries. Yet thus saith the Lord GOD; At the end of forty years 13 will I gather the Egyptians from the people whither they were scattered: And I will bring again the captivity of Egypt, and will cause them to return into the land of Pathros, into the land of their habitation; and they shall be there a base kingdom. It shall be the basest of the kingdoms; neither shall it exalt itself any more above the nations: for I will diminish them, that they shall no more rule over the nations. And it shall be no more the confidence of the house of Israel, which bringeth their iniquity to remembrance, when they shall look after them: but they shall know that I am the Lord GOD. And it came to pass in the seven and twentieth year, in the first month, in the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me, saying, Son of man, Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon caused his army to serve a great service against Tyre: every head was made bald, and every shoulder was peeled: yet had he no wages, nor his army, for Tyre, for the service that he had served against it: Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will give the land of Egypt to Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon; and he shall take her multitude, and take her spoil, and take her prey; and it shall be the wages for his army. I have given him the land of Egypt for his labor with which he served against it, because they wrought for me, saith the Lord GOD. In that day will I cause the horn of the house of Israel to bud forth, and I will give thee the opening of the mouth in the midst of them; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

30, 2 The word of the LORD came again to me, saying, Son of man, prophesy and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Howl ye, 3 Alas the day! For the day is near, even the day of the LORD is 4 near, a cloudy day; it shall be the time of the heathen. And the sword shall come upon Egypt, and great pain shall be in Cush, when the slain shall fall in Egypt, and they shall take away her 5 multitude, and her foundations shall be broken down. Cush, and Libya, and Lydia, and all the mingled people, and Kub, and the men of the land that is in league, shall fall with them 6 by the sword. Thus saith the LORD; They also that uphold Egypt shall fall; and the pride of her power shall come down: from the tower of Syene shall they fall in it by the sword, saith 7 the Lord GOD. And they shall be desolate in the midst of the countries that are desolate, and her cities shall be in the midst 8 of the cities that are wasted. And they shall know that I am the LORD, when I have set a fire in Egypt, and when all her helpers shall be destroyed. In that day shall messengers go 9 forth from me in ships to make the careless Cushites afraid, and great pain shall come upon them, as in the day of Egypt: for lo, it cometh. Thus saith the Lord God; I will also make 10 the multitude of Egypt to cease by the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon. He and his people with him, the terrible 11 of the nations, shall be brought to destroy the land: and they shall draw their swords against Egypt, and fill the land with the slain. And I will make the rivers dry, and sell the land 12 into the hand of the wicked: and I will make the land waste, and all that is in it, by the hand of strangers: I the LORD have spoken it. Thus saith the Lord GOD; I will also destroy the 13 idols, and I will cause their images to cease out of Noph; and there shall be no more a prince of the land of Egypt: and I will put a fear in the land of Egypt. And I will make Pathros des- 14 olate, and will set fire in Zoan, and will execute judgments in No. And I will pour my fury upon Sin, the strength of Egypt; 15 and I will cut off the multitude of No. And I will set fire in 16 Egypt: Sin shall have great pain, and No shall be rent asunder, and Noph shall have distresses daily. The young men of 17 Aven and of Pibeseth shall fall by the sword: and these cities shall go into captivity. At Tehaphnehes also the day shall be 18 darkened, when I shall break there the yokes of Egypt: and the pomp of her strength shall cease in her: as for her, a cloud shall cover her, and her daughters shall go into captivity. Thus will 19 I execute judgments in Egypt: and they shall know that I am the LORD. And it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the 20 first month, in the seventh day of the month, that the word of the LORD came to me, saying, Son of man, I have broken the 21 arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and lo, it shall not be bound up to be healed, to put a roller to bind it, to make it strong to hold the sword. Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, 22 I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and will break his arms, the strong, and that which was broken; and I will cause the sword to fall out of his hand. And I will scatter the Egyptians 23 among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries. And I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, 24 and put my sword in his hand: but I will break Pharaoh's arms, and he shall groan before him with the groanings of a deadly 25 wounded man. But I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and the arms of Pharaoh shall fall down; and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall put my sword into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall stretch it 26 out upon the land of Egypt. And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and disperse them among the countries; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

31 And it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the third month, in the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came to 2 me, saying, Son of man, speak to Pharaoh king of Egypt, and 3 to his multitude; Whom art thou like in thy greatness? Behold, the Assyrian was a cedar in Lebanon with fair branches, and with a shady cover, and of a high stature; and his top was 4 among the thick boughs. The waters made him great, the deep set him up on high with her rivers running round his plants, and sent out her little rivers to all the trees of the field.
5 Therefore his hight was exalted above all the trees of the field, and his boughs were multiplied, and his branches became long 6 because of the multitude of waters, when he shot forth. All the fowls of heaven made their nests in his boughs, and under his branches did all the beasts of the field bring forth their young, 7 and under his shade dwelt all great nations. Thus was he fair in his greatness, in the length of his branches: for his root 8 was by great waters. The cedars in the garden of God could not hide him: the fir-trees were not like his boughs, and the chesnut-trees were not like his branches; not any tree in the 9 garden of God was like to him in his beauty. I have made him fair by the multitude of his branches: so that all the trees of 10 Eden, that were in the garden of God, envied him. Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Because thou hast lifted up thyself in hight, and he hath shot up his top among the thick boughs, 11 and his heart is lifted up in his hight; I have therefore delivered him into the hand of the mighty one of the heathen; he shall surely deal with him: I have driven him out for his 12 wickedness. And strangers, the terrible of the nations, have cut him off, and have left him: upon the mountains and in all the valleys his branches are fallen, and his boughs are broken by all the rivers of the land; and all the people of the earth have 13 gone down from his shade, and have left him. Upon his ruin shall all the fowls of the heaven remain, and all the beasts of the field shall be upon his branches: To the end that none of all the trees by the waters exalt themselves for their hight, nei- 14 ther shoot up their top among the thick boughs, neither their trees stand up in their hight, all that drink water: for they are all delivered to death, to the nether parts of the earth, in the midst of the children of men, with them that go down to the pit. Thus saith the Lord GOD; In the day when he went down 15 to the grave I caused a mourning: I covered the deep for him, and I restrained its floods, and the great waters were stayed: and I caused Lebanon to mourn for him, and all the trees of the field fainted for him. I made the nations to shake at the sound 16 of his fall, when I cast him down to the grave with them that descend into the pit: and all the trees of Eden, the choice and best of Lebanon, all that drink water, shall be comforted in the nether parts of the earth. They also went down into the grave 17 with him to them that are slain with the sword; and they that were his arm, that dwelt under his shade in the midst of the heathen. To whom art thou thus like in glory and in greatness 18 among the trees of Eden? yet shalt thou be brought down with the trees of Eden to the nether parts of the earth: thou shalt lie in the midst of the uncircumcised with them that are slain by the sword. This is Pharaoh and all his multitude, saith the Lord GOD.

And it came to pass in the twelfth year, in the twelfth month, 32 in the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came to me, saying, Son of man, take up a lamentation for Pharaoh 2 king of Egypt, and say to him, Thou art like a young lion of the nations, and thou art as a whale in the seas: and thou didst come forth with thy rivers, and disturb the waters with thy feet, and render their rivers foul. Thus saith the Lord GOD; I 3 will therefore spread out my net over thee with a company of many people; and they shall bring thee up in my net. Then 4 will I leave thee upon the land, and I will cast thee forth upon the open field, and will cause all the fowls of the heaven to remain upon thee, and I will fill the beasts of the whole earth with thee. And I will lay thy flesh upon the mountains, and 5 fill the valleys with thy hight. I will also water with thy blood 6 the land in which thou swimmest, even to the mountains; and the rivers shall be full of thee. And when I shall extinguish 7 thee, I will cover the heaven, and make the stars thereof dark;

I will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon shall not give 8 her light. All the bright lights of heaven will I make dark over 9 thee, and set darkness upon thy land, saith the Lord GOD. I will also vex the hearts of many people, when I shall bring thy destruction among the nations, into the countries which thou 10 hast not known. Yes, I will make many people amazed at thee, and their kings shall be horribly afraid for thee, when I shall brandish my sword before them; and they shall tremble at every moment, every man for his own life, in the day of thy 11 fall. For thus saith the Lord God; The sword of the king of 12 Babylon shall come upon thee. By the swords of the mighty will I cause thy multitude to fall, the terrible of the nations, all of them: and they shall lay waste the pomp of Egypt, and 13 all its multitude shall be destroyed. I will destroy also all its beasts from beside the great waters; neither shall the foot of man disturb them any more, nor the hoofs of beasts disturb 14 them. Then will I make their waters deep, and cause their 15 rivers to run like oil, saith the Lord GOD. When I shall make the land of Egypt desolate, and the country shall be destitute of that of which it was full, when I shall smite all them that 16 dwell in it, then shall they know that I am the LORD. This is the lamentation with which they shall lament her: the daughters of the nations shall lament her: they shall lament for her, even for Egypt, and for all her multitude, saith the Lord GOD.
17 It came to pass also in the twelfth year, in the fifteenth day of the month, that the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 18 Son of man, wail for the multitude of Egypt, and cast them down, even her, and the daughters of the famous nations, to the nether parts of the earth, with them that go down into 19 the pit. Whom dost thou pass in beauty? go down, and be 20 thou laid with the uncircumcised. They shall fall in the midst of them that are slain by the sword: she is delivered to the 21 sword: draw her and all her multitudes. The strong among the mighty shall speak to him out of the midst of the grave with them that help him: they are gone down, they lie un-22 circumcised, slain by the sword. Asshur is there and all her company: his graves are about him: all of them slain, fallen by 23 the sword: Whose graves are set in the sides of the pit, and her company is around her grave: all of them slain, fallen by 24 the sword, who caused terror in the land of the living. There is

Elam and all her multitude around her grave, all of them slain, fallen by the sword, who are gone down uncircumcised into the nether parts of the earth, who caused their terror in the land of the living; yet have they borne their shame with them that go down to the pit. They have set her a bed in the midst of the slain with all her multitude: her graves are around him: all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword: though their terror was caused in the land of the living, yet have they borne their shame with them that go down to the pit: he is put in the midst of them that are slain. There is Meshech, Tubal, and all her multitude: her graves are around him: all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword, though they caused their terror in the land of the living. And they shall not lie with the mighty that are fallen of the uncircumcised, who are gone down to the grave, with their weapons of war: and they have laid their swords under their heads, but their iniquities shall be upon their bones, though they were the terror of the mighty in the land of the living. Yes, thou shalt be broken in the midst of the uncircumcised, and shalt lie with them that are slain with the sword. There is Edom, her kings, and all her princes, who with their might are laid by them that were slain by the sword: they shall lie with the uncircumcised, and with them that go down to the pit. There are the princes of the north, all of them, and all the Zidonians, who are gone down with the slain; with their terror they are ashamed of their might; and they lie uncircumcised with them that are slain by the sword, and bear their shame with them that go down to the pit. Pharaoh shall see them, and shall be comforted over all his multitude, even Pharaoh and all his army slain by the sword, saith the Lord GOD. For I have caused my terror in the land of the living: and he shall be laid in the midst of the uncircumcised with them that are slain with the sword, even Pharaoh and all his multitude, saith the Lord GOD.

Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying, Son of man, speak to the children of thy people, and say to them, When I bring the sword upon a land, if the people of the land take a man of their borders, and set him for their watchman: If when he seeth the sword come upon the land, he shall blow the trumpet, and warn the people; Then whoever heareth the sound of the trumpet, and taketh not warning; if the sword shall come and take him away, his blood shall be upon his own 5 head. He heard the sound of the trumpet, and took not warning; his blood shall be upon him. But he that taketh warning 6 shall deliver his soul. But if the watchman shall see the sword come, and blow not the trumpet, and the people be not warned; if the sword shall come, and take any person from among them, he is taken away in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at 7 the watchman's hand. So thou, O son of man, I have set thee a watchman to the house of Israel; therefore thou shalt hear 8 the word at my mouth, and warn them from me. When I say to the wicked, O wicked man, thou shalt surely die; if thou dost not speak to warn the wicked from his way, that wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thy hand.

9 Nevertheless, if thou shalt warn the wicked of his way to turn from it; if he shall not turn from his way, he shall die in his in-10 iquity; but thou hast delivered thy soul. Therefore, O thou son of man, speak to the house of Israel; Thus ye speak, saying, If our transgressions and our sins are upon us, and we pine away 11 in them, how should we then live? Say to them, As I live, saith the Lord GOD, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked should turn from his way and live: turn ye, turn ye from your evil ways; for why will ye die, O house 12 of Israel? Therefore, thou son of man, say to the children of thy people, The righteousness of the righteous shall not deliver him in the day of his transgression: as for the wickedness of the wicked, he shall not fall by it in the day that he turneth from his wickedness; neither shall the righteous be able to live for 13 his righteousness in the day that he sinneth. When I shall say to the righteous, that he shall surely live; if he shall trust to his own righteousness, and commit iniquity, all his righteousnesses shall not be remembered; but for his iniquity that he 14 hath committed, he shall die for it. Again, when I say to the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; if he shall turn from his sin, and do that which is lawful and right; If the wicked shall restore the pledge, give again that which he had robbed, walk in the statutes of life, without committing iniquity; he shall surely 15 live, he shall not die. None of his sins that he hath committed shall be mentioned to him: he hath done that which is lawful and right; he shall surely live. Yet the children of thy people 16 say, The way of the LORD is not equal: but as for them, their way is not equal. When the righteous turneth from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, for that he shall even die. 18 But if the wicked shall turn from his wickedness, and do that 19 which is lawful and right, for that he shall live. Yet ye say, 20 The way of the LORD is not equal. O ye house of Israel, I will judge you every one after his ways. And it came to pass in the 21 twelfth year of our captivity, in the tenth month, in the fifth day of the month, that one that had escaped out of Jerusalem came to me, saying, The city is smitten. Now the hand of the 22 LORD was upon me in the evening, before he that had escaped came; and had opened my mouth, until he came to me in the morning; and my mouth was opened, and I was no more dumb.

Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying, Son of man, 23, 24 they that inhabit those wastes of the land of Israel speak, saying, Abraham was one, and he inherited the land: but we are many; the land is given to us for inheritance. Wherefore say to 25 them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Ye eat with the blood, and lift up your eyes towards your idols, and shed blood: and shall ye possess the land? Ye stand upon your sword, ye work abom- 26 ination, and ye defile every one his neighbor's wife: and shall ye possess the land? Say thou thus to them, Thus saith the 27 Lord GOD; As I live, surely they that are in the wastes shall fall by the sword, and him that is in the open field will I give to the beasts to be devoured, and they that are in the forts and in the caves shall die by the pestilence. For I will lay the land 28 most desolate, and the pomp of her strength shall cease; and the mountains of Israel shall be desolate, that none shall pass through. Then shall they know that I am the LORD, when I 29 have laid the land most desolate because of all their abominations which they have committed. Also, thou son of man, the 30 children of thy people still are talking against thee by the walls and in the doors of the houses, and speak one to another, every one to his brother, saying, Come, I pray you, and hear what is the word that cometh forth from the LORD. And they come to 31 thee as the people come, and they sit before thee as my people, and they hear thy words, but they will not do them: for with their mouth they show much love, but their heart goeth after their covetousness. And lo, thou art to them as a very lovely 32 song of one that hath a pleasant voice, and can play well on an instrument: for they hear thy words, but they do not perform 33 them. And when this cometh to pass, (lo, it will come,) then shall they know that a prophet hath been among them.

34, 2 And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel, prophesy, and say to them, Thus saith the Lord GOD to the shepherds; Woe be to the shepherds of Israel that do feed themselves! should not the shepherds feed the flocks? Ye eat the fat, and ye clothe yourselves with the wool, ye kill them that are fed: but ye feed not the flock. The diseased ye have not strengthened, neither have ye healed that which was sick, neither have ye bound up that which was broken, neither have ye brought again that which was driven away, neither have ye sought that which was lost; but with force and with cruelty have ye ruled them. And they were scattered, because there is no shepherd: and they became food to all the beasts of the field, when they were scattered. My sheep wandered through all the mountains, and upon every high hill: yes, my flock was scattered upon all the face of the earth, and none did search or seek for them. Therefore, ye shepherds, hear the word of the LORD; As I live, saith the Lord GOD, surely because my flock became a prey, and my flock became food to every beast of the field, because there was no shepherd, neither did my shepherds search for my flock, but the shepherds fed themselves, and fed not my flock; Therefore, O ye shepherds, hear the word of the LORD; Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I am against the shepherds; and I will require my flock at their hand, and cause them to cease from feeding the flock; neither shall the shepherds feed themselves any more; for I will deliver my flock from their mouth, that they may not be food for them. For thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I even I, will both search for my sheep, and seek them out. As a shepherd seeketh out his flock in the day that he is among his sheep that are scattered; so will I seek out my sheep, and will deliver them out of all places where they have been scattered in the cloudy and dark day. And I will bring them out from the people, and gather them from the countries, and will bring them to their own land, and feed them upon the mountains of Israel by the rivers, and in all the inhabited places of the country. I will feed them in a good pasture, and upon the high mountains of Israel shall their fold be: there shall they lie in a good fold, and in a fat pasture shall they feed upon the mountains of Israel. I will feed my flock, and I will 15 cause them to lie down, saith the Lord GOD. I will seek that 16 which was lost, and bring again that which was driven away, and will bind up that which was broken, and will strengthen that which was sick: but I will destroy the fat and the strong; I will feed them with judgment. And as for you, O my flock, 17 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I judge between cattle and cattle, between the rams and the he-goats. Seemeth it a small 18 thing to you to have eaten up the good pasture, but ye must tread down with your feet the residue of your pastures? and to have drank of the deep waters, but ye must foul the residue with your feet? And as for my flock, they eat that which ye 19 have trodden with your feet; and they drink that which ye have fouled with your feet. Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD to 20 them; Behold, I, even I, will judge between the fat cattle and between the lean cattle. Because ye have thrust with side and 21 with shoulder, and pushed all the diseased with your horns, till ye have scattered them abroad; Therefore will I save my flock, 22 and they shall no more be a prey; and I will judge between cattle and cattle. And I will set up one shepherd over them, and 23 he shall feed them, even my servant David; he shall feed them, and he shall be their shepherd. And I the LORD will be their 24 God, and my servant David a prince among them; I the LORD have spoken it. And I will make with them a covenant of 25 peace, and will cause the evil beasts to cease out of the land: and they shall dwell safely in the wilderness, and sleep in the woods. And I will make them and the places around my hill 26 a blessing; and I will cause the shower to come down in its season; there shall be showers of blessing. And the tree of 27 the field shall yield her fruit, and the earth shall yield her increase, and they shall be safe in their land, and shall know that I am the LORD, when I have broken the bands of their yoke, and delivered them out of the hand of those that subjected them to service. And they shall no more be a prey to 28 the heathen, neither shall the beast of the land devour them; but they shall dwell safely, and none shall make them afraid.

And I will raise up for them a plant of renown, and they shall 29 be no more consumed with hunger in the land, neither bear the shame of the heathen any more. Thus shall they know that 30 I the LORD their God am with them, and that they, even the 31 house of Israel, are my people, saith the Lord GOD. And ye my flock, the flock of my pasture, are men, and I am your God, saith the Lord GOD.

35, 2 Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, Son of man, set thy face against mount Seir, and prophesy against 3 it, And say to it, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, O mount Seir, I am against thee, and I will stretch out my hand against 4 thee, and I will make thee most desolate. I will lay thy cities waste, and thou shalt be desolate, and thou shalt know that 5 I am the LORD. Because thou hast had a perpetual hatred, and hast shed the blood of the children of Israel by the force of the sword in the time of their calamity, in the time that their 6 iniquity had an end: Therefore, as I live, saith the Lord GOD, I will prepare thee to blood, and blood shall pursue thee: since 7 thou hast not hated blood, even blood shall pursue thee. Thus will I make mount Seir most desolate, and cut off from it him 8 that passeth out and him that returneth. And I will fill his mountains with his slain men: in thy hills, and in thy valleys, and in all thy rivers, shall they fall that are slain with 9 the sword. I will make thee perpetual desolations, and thy cities shall not return: and ye shall know that I am the LORD.
10 Because thou hast said, These two nations and these two countries shall be mine, and we will possess it; whereas the LORD 11 was there: Therefore, as I live, saith the Lord GOD, I will even do according to thy anger, and according to thy envy which thou hast used out of thy hatred against them; and I will make 12 myself known among them, when I have judged thee. And thou shalt know that I am the LORD, and that I have heard all thy blasphemies which thou hast spoken against the mountains of Israel, saying, They are laid desolate, they are given us 13 to consume. Thus with your mouth ye have boasted against me, and have multiplied your words against me: I have heard 14 them. Thus saith the Lord GOD; When the whole earth rejoiceth, I will make thee desolate. As thou didst rejoice at the inheritance of the house of Israel, because it was desolate, so will I do to thee: thou shalt be desolate, O mount Seir, and all 15 Edom, even all of it: and they shall know that I am the LORD.

36 Also thou son of man, prophesy to the mountains of Israel, and say, Ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the LORD: 2 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because the enemy had said against you, Aha, even the ancient high places are ours in possession: Therefore prophesy and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because they have made you desolate, and swallowed you up on every side, that ye might be a possession to the residue of the heathen, and ye are taken up in the lips of talkers, and are an infamy of the people: Therefore, ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord GOD; Thus saith the Lord GOD to the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys, to the desolate wastes, and to the cities that are forsaken, which became a prey and derision to the residue of the heathen that are around; Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Surely in the fire of my jealousy have I spoken against the residue of the heathen, and against all Edom, who have appointed my land into their possession with the joy of all their heart, with despiteful minds, to cast it out for a prey. Prophecy therefore concerning the land of Israel, and say to the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I have spoken in my jealousy and in my fury, because ye have borne the shame of the heathen: Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; I have lifted up my hand, Surely the heathen that are about you, they shall bear their shame. But ye, O mountains of Israel, ye shall shoot forth your branches, and yield your fruit to my people of Israel; for they are at hand to come. For behold, I am for you, and I will turn to you, and ye shall be tilled and sown: And I will multiply men upon you, all the house of Israel, even all of it: and the cities shall be inhabited, and the wastes shall be built. And I will multiply upon you man and beast; and they shall increase and bring fruit: and I will settle you after your old states, and will do better to you than at your beginnings: and ye shall know that I am the LORD. Yes, I will cause men to walk upon you, even my people Israel; and they shall possess thee, and thou shalt be their inheritance, and thou shalt no more henceforth bereave them of men. Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because they say to you, Thou land devourest men, and hast bereaved thy nations; Therefore thou shalt devour men no more, neither bereave thy nations any more, saith the Lord GOD. Neither will I cause men to hear in thee the shame of the heathen any more, neither shalt thou bear the reproach of the people any more, neither shalt thou cause thy nations to fall any more, saith the 16 Lord GOD. Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, say-17 ing, Son of man, when the house of Israel dwelt in their own land, they defiled it by their own way and by their doings: their way was before me as the uncleanness of a removed woman.

18 Wherefore I poured my fury upon them for the blood that they had shed upon the land, and for their idols with which they 19 had polluted it: And I scattered them among the heathen, and they were dispersed through the countries: according to their 20 way and according to their doings I judged them. And when they entered among the heathen, whither they went, they profaned my holy name, when they said to them, These are the 21 people of the LORD, and are gone forth out of his land. But I had pity for my holy name, which the house of Israel had pro-22 faned among the heathen, whither they went. Therefore say to the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord GOD; I do not this for your sakes, O house of Israel, but for my holy name's sake, which ye have profaned among the heathen, whither ye went.
23 And I will sanctify my great name, which was profaned among the heathen, which ye have profaned in the midst of them; and the heathen shall know that I am the LORD, saith the Lord 24 GOD, when I shall be sanctified in you before their eyes. For I will take you from among the heathen, and gather you out 25 of all countries, and will bring you into your own land. Then will I sprinkle clean water upon you, and ye shall be clean: from all your filthiness, and from all your idols, will I cleanse 26 you. A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you: and I will take away the stony heart out of your 27 flesh, and I will give you a heart of flesh. And I will put my spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes, and ye 28 shall keep my judgments, and do them. And ye shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers; and ye shall be my peo-29 ple, and I will be your God. I will also save you from all your uncleannesses: and I will call for the corn, and will increase 30 it, and lay no famine upon you. And I will multiply the fruit of the tree, and the increase of the field, that ye shall receive 31 no more reproach of famine among the heathen. Then shall ye remember your own evil ways, and your doings that were not good, and shall lothe yourselves in your own sight for your 32 iniquities, and for your abominations. Not for your sakes do I this, saith the Lord GOD, be it known to you: be ashamed and confounded for your own ways, O house of Israel. Thus saith 33 the Lord GOD; In the day that I shall have cleansed you from all your iniquities I will also cause you to dwell in the cities, and the wastes shall be built. And the desolate land shall be 34 tilled, whereas it lay desolate in the sight of all that passed by. And they shall say, This land that was desolate is become 35 like the garden of Eden; and the waste and desolate and ruined cities are become fortified, and are inhabited. Then the 36 heathen that are left around you shall know that I the LORD build the ruined places, and plant that which was desolate: I the LORD have spoken it, and I will do it. Thus saith the Lord 37 GOD; I will yet for this be inquired of by the house of Israel, to do it for them; I will increase them with men like a flock. As 38 the holy flock, as the flock of Jerusalem in her solemn feasts; so shall the waste cities be filled with flocks of men: and they shall know that I am the LORD.

The hand of the LORD was upon me, and carried me out 37 in the spirit of the LORD, and set me down in the midst of the valley which was full of bones, And caused me to pass by them 2 around: and behold, there were very many in the open valley; and lo, they were very dry. And he said to me, Son of man, can 3 these bones live? and I answered, O Lord GOD, thou knowest.
Again he said to me, Prophecy upon these bones, and say to 4 them, O ye dry bones, hear the word of the LORD. Thus saith 5 the Lord GOD to these bones; Behold, I will cause breath to enter into you, and ye shall live: And I will lay sinews upon 6 you, and will bring up flesh upon you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and ye shall live; and ye shall know that I am the LORD. So I prophesied as I was commanded: 7 and as I prophesied, there was a noise, and behold a shaking, and the bones came together, bone to his bone. And when I 8 beheld, lo, the sinews and the flesh came up upon them, and the skin covered them above: but there was no breath in them.
Then said he to me, Prophecy to the wind, prophecy, son of 9 man, and say to the wind, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may live. So I prophesied as he commanded me, 10 and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood up upon their feet, an exceeding great army. Then he said to me, 11 Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel: behold, they say, Our bones are dried, and our hope is lost: we are 12 cut off for our parts. Therefore prophesy and say to them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, O my people, I will open your graves, and cause you to come out of your graves, and 13 bring you into the land of Israel. And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I have opened your graves, O my people, 14 and brought you out of your graves, And shall put my spirit in you, and ye shall live, and I shall place you in your own land: then shall ye know that I the LORD have spoken it, and 15 performed it, saith the LORD. The word of the LORD came 16 again to me, saying, Moreover, thou son of man, take thee one stick, and write upon it, For Judah, and for the children of Israel his companions: then take another stick, and write upon it, For Joseph, the stick of Ephraim, and for all the house 17 of Israel his companions: And join them one to another into 18 one stick; and they shall become one in thy hand. And when the children of thy people shall speak to thee, saying, Wilt thou 19 not show us what thou meanest by these? Say to them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will take the stick of Joseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim, and the tribes of Israel his fellows, and will put them with him, even with the stick of Judah, and make them one stick, and they shall be one in my 20 hand. And the sticks on which thou writest shall be in thy 21 hand before their eyes. And say to them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will take the children of Israel from among the heathen, whither they are gone, and will gather them on every 22 side, and bring them into their own land: And I will make them one nation in the land upon the mountains of Israel; and one king shall be king to them all: and they shall be no more two nations, neither shall they be divided into two kingdoms 23 any more at all: Neither shall they defile themselves any more with their idols, nor with their detestable things, nor with any of their transgressions: but I will save them out of all their dwelling-places, in which they have sinned, and will cleanse 24 them: so shall they be my people, and I will be their God. And David my servant shall be king over them; and they all shall have one shepherd: they shall also walk in my judgments, and 25 observe my statutes, and do them. And they shall dwell in the land that I have given to Jacob my servant, in which your fathers have dwelt, and they shall dwell in it, even they, and their children, and their children's children for ever: and my servant David shall be their prince for ever. Moreover I will make a covenant of peace with them; it shall be an everlasting covenant with them: and I will place them, and multiply them, and will set my sanctuary in the midst of them for evermore. My tabernacle also shall be with them: and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. And the heathen shall know that I the LORD do sanctify Israel, when my sanctuary shall be in the midst of them for ever.

And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, Son of man, set thy face against Gog, the land of Magog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal, and prophesy against him. And say, Thus saith the Lord GOD: Behold, I am against thee, O Gog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal: And I will turn thee back, and put hooks into thy jaws, and I will bring thee forth, and all thy army, horses and horsemen, all of them clothed with all sorts of armor, even a great company with bucklers and shields, all of them handling swords: Persia, Cush, and Phut with them; all of them with shield and helmet: Gomer, and all his bands; the house of Togarmah of the north quarters, and all his bands: and many people with thee. Be thou prepared, and prepare for thyself, thou, and all thy company that are assembled to thee, and be thou a guard to them. After many days thou shalt be visited: in the latter years thou shalt come into the land that is brought back from the sword, and is gathered out of many people, against the mountains of Israel, which have been always waste: but it is brought forth out of the nations, and they shall all dwell in safety. Thou shalt ascend and come like a storm, thou shalt be like a cloud to cover the land, thou, and all thy bands, and many people with thee. Thus saith the Lord GOD; It shall also come to pass, that at the same time shall things come into thy mind, and thou shalt think an evil thought: And thou shalt say, I will go up to the land of unwalled villages; I will go to them that are at rest, that dwell safely, all of them dwelling without walls, and having neither bars nor gates, To take a spoil, and to take a prey; to turn thy hand upon the desolate places that are now inhabited, and upon the people that are gathered out of the nations, which have gotten cattle and goods, that dwell in the midst of the land. Sheba, and Dedan, and the merchants of Tarshish, with all its young lions, shall say to thee, Art thou come to take a spoil? hast thou gathered thy company to take a prey? to carry away silver and gold, to take away cattle and goods, to take a great spoil? Therefore, son of man, prophesy and say to Gog, Thus saith the Lord GOD; In that day when my people of Israel dwelleth safely, shalt thou not know it? And thou shalt come from thy place out of the north parts, thou, and many people with thee, all of them riding upon horses, a great company, and a mighty army: And thou shalt come against my people of Israel, as a cloud to cover the land; it shall be in the latter days, and I will bring thee against my land, that the heathen may know me, when I shall be sanctified in thee, O Gog, before their eyes. Thus saith the Lord GOD; Art thou he of whom I have spoken in old time by my servants the prophets of Israel, who prophesied in those days many years, that I would bring thee against them? And it shall come to pass at the same time when Gog shall come against the land of Israel, saith the Lord God, that my fury shall come up in my face. For in my jealousy and in the fire of my wrath have I spoken, Surely in that day there shall be a great shaking in the land of Israel. So that the fishes of the sea, and the fowls of the heaven, and the beasts of the field, and all creeping animals that creep upon the earth, and all the men that are upon the face of the earth, shall shake at my presence, and the mountains shall be overturned, and the steep places shall fall, and every wall shall fall to the ground. And I will call for a sword against him throughout all my mountains, saith the Lord GOD: every man's sword shall be against his brother. And I will plead against him with pestilence and with blood; and I will rain upon him, and upon his bands, and upon the many people that are with him, an overflowing rain, and great hailstones, fire, and brimstone. Thus will I magnify myself, and sanctify myself; and I will be known in the eyes of many nations, and they shall know that I am the LORD.

39 Therefore, thou son of man, prophesy against Gog, and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against thee, O Gog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal: And I will turn thee back, and leave but the sixth part of thee, and will cause thee to come from the north parts, and will bring thee upon the mountains of Israel: And I will strike thy bow out of thy left hand, and I will cause thy arrows to fall from thy right hand. Thou shalt fall upon the mountains of Israel, thou, and all thy bands, and the people that are with thee: I will give thee to the ravenous birds of every sort, and to the beasts of the field to be devoured. Thou shalt fall upon the open field: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord GOD. And I will send a fire on Magog, and among them that dwell carelessly in the isles: and they shall know that I am the LORD. So will I make my holy name known in the midst of my people Israel; and I will not let them profane my holy name any more: and the heathen shall know that I am the LORD, the Holy One in Israel. Behold, it is come, and it is done, saith the Lord GOD; this is the day of which I have spoken. And they that dwell in the cities of Israel shall go forth, and shall set on fire and burn the weapons, both the shields and the bucklers, the bows and the arrows, and the handstaves, and the spears, and they shall burn them with fire seven years: So that they shall take no wood out of the field, neither cut down any out of the forests; for they shall burn the weapons with fire: and they shall lay waste those that wasted them, and rob those that robbed them, saith the Lord GOD. And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will give to Gog a place there of graves in Israel, the valley of the passengers on the east of the sea: and it shall stop the noses of the passengers: and there shall they bury Gog and all his multitude: and they shall call it The valley of Hamon-gog. And seven months shall the house of Israel be in burying them, that they may cleanse the land. Yes, all the people of the land shall bury them: and it shall be to them a renown in the day that I shall be glorified, saith the Lord GOD. And they shall sever out men of continual employment, passing through the land to bury with the passengers those that remain upon the face of the earth, to cleanse it: after the end of seven months shall they search. And as passengers pass through the land, when any seeth a man's bone, then shall he set up a sign by it, till the buriers have buried it in the valley of Hamon-gog. And also the name of the city shall be Hamonah. Thus shall they cleanse the land. And, thou son of man, thus saith the Lord GOD; Speak to every feathered fowl, and to every beast of the field, Assemble yourselves, and come; gather yourselves on every side to my sacrifice that I do sacrifice for you, even a great sacrifice upon the mountains of Israel, that ye may eat flesh, 18 and drink blood. Ye shall eat the flesh of the mighty, and drink the blood of the princes of the earth, of rams, of lambs, and of 19 goats, of bullocks, all of them fatlings of Bashan. And ye shall eat fat till ye are full, and drink blood till ye are drunken, of 20 my sacrifice which I have sacrificed for you. Thus ye shall be filled at my table with horses and chariots, with mighty men, 21 and with all men of war, saith the Lord GOD. And I will set my glory among the heathen, and all the heathen shall see my judgment that I have executed, and my hand that I have laid 22 upon them. So the house of Israel shall know that I am the 23 LORD their God from that day and forward. And the heathen shall know that the house of Israel went into captivity for their iniquity: because they trespassed against me, therefore I hid my face from them, and gave them into the hand of 24 their enemies: so they all fell by the sword. According to their uncleanness and according to their transgressions have I done 25 to them, and hid my face from them. Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Now will I bring again the captivity of Jacob, and have mercy upon the whole house of Israel, and will be 26 jealous for my holy name; After they have borne their shame, and all their trespasses by which they have trespassed against me, when they dwelt safely in their land, and none made them 27 afraid. When I have brought them again from the people, and gathered them out of the lands of their enemies, and am sanc-28 tified in them in the sight of many nations; Then shall they know that I am the LORD their God, who caused them to be led into captivity among the heathen: but I have gathered them to their own land, and have left none of them there any more.

29 Neither will I hide my face any more from them: for I have poured out my spirit upon the house of Israel, saith the Lord GOD.

40 In the five and twentieth year of our captivity, in the beginning of the year, in the tenth day of the month, in the fourteenth year after the city was smitten, in the same day the 2 hand of the LORD was upon me, and brought me thither. In the visions of God he brought me into the land of Israel, and set me upon a very high mountain, by which was as the frame 3 of a city on the south. And he brought me thither, and behold, there was a man, whose appearance was like the appearance of brass, with a line of flax in his hand, and a measuring reed; and he stood in the gate. And the man said to me, Son of man, behold with thy eyes, and hear with thy ears, and set thy heart upon all that I shall show thee; for, to the intent that I might show them to thee art thou brought hither: declare all that thou seest to the house of Israel. And behold a wall on the outside of the house around, and in the man's hand a measuring reed of six cubits long by the cubit and a hand-breadth: so he measured the breadth of the building, one reed: and the hight, one reed. Then he came to the gate which looketh towards the east, and ascended its stairs, and measured the threshold of the gate, which was one reed broad; and the other threshold of the gate, which was one reed broad. And every little chamber was one reed long, and one reed broad; and between the little chambers were five cubits; and the threshold of the gate by the porch of the gate within was one reed. He measured also the porch of the gate within, one reed. Then he measured the porch of the gate, eight cubits; and its posts, two cubits; and the porch of the gate was inward. And the little chambers of the gate eastward were three on this side, and three on that side; they three were of one measure: and the posts had one measure on this side and on that side. And he measured the breadth of the entry of the gate, ten cubits; and the length of the gate, thirteen cubits. The space also before the little chambers was one cubit on this side, and the space was one cubit on that side: and the little chambers were six cubits on this side, and six cubits on that side. He measured then the gate from the roof of one little chamber to the roof of another: the breadth was five and twenty cubits, door against door. He made also posts of sixty cubits; even to the post of the court around the gate. And from the face of the gate of the entrance to the face of the porch of the inner gate were fifty cubits. And there were narrow windows to the little chambers, and to their posts within the gate around, and likewise to the arches: and windows were around inward: and upon each post were palm-trees. Then he brought me into the outward court, and lo, there were chambers, and a pavement made for the court around: thirty chambers were upon the pavement. And the pavement by the side of the gates over against the length of the gates was the lower pavement. Then he measured the breadth from the front of the lower gate to the front of the inner court without, a hundred cubits eastward and northward.

20 And the gate of the outward court that looked towards the 21 north, he measured its length, and its breadth. And the little chambers of it were three on this side and three on that side; and its posts and its arches were after the measure of the first gate; its length was fifty cubits, and its breadth five and twenty 22 cubits. And their windows, and their arches, and their palm-trees, were after the measure of the gate that looketh towards the east; and they went up to it by seven steps; and its arches 23 were before them. And the gate of the inner court was over against the gate towards the north, and towards the east; and 24 he measured from gate to gate a hundred cubits. After that he brought me towards the south, and behold a gate towards the south: and he measured its posts and its arches according 25 to these measures. And there were windows in it and in its arches around, like those windows: the length was fifty cubits, 26 and the breadth five and twenty cubits. And there were seven steps to go up to it, and its arches were before them: and it had palm-trees, one on this side, and another on that side, upon its 27 posts. And there was a gate in the inner court towards the south: and he measured from gate to gate towards the south 28 a hundred cubits. And he brought me to the inner court by the south gate; and he measured the south gate according to 29 these measures; And its little chambers, and its posts, and its arches, according to these measures; and there were windows in it and in its arches around: it was fifty cubits long, and five 30 and twenty cubits broad. And the arches around were five and twenty cubits long, and five cubits broad. And its arches 31 were towards the outer court; and palm-trees were upon its posts: and the ascent to it had eight steps. And he brought 32 me into the inner court towards the east: and he measured the gate according to these measures. And its little chambers, 33 and its posts, and its arches, were according to these measures; and there were windows in it and in its arches around: it was 34 fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad. And its arches were towards the outward court; and palm-trees were upon its posts, on this side, and on that side: and the ascent 35 to it had eight steps. And he brought me to the north gate, 36 and measured it according to these measures; Its little chambers, its posts, and its arches, and the windows to it around: the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits. And its posts were towards the outer court; and palm-trees were upon its posts, on this side, and on that side: and the ascent to it had eight steps. And the chambers and its entries were by the posts of the gates, where they washed the burnt-offering. And in the porch of the gate were two tables on this side, and two tables on that side, to slay upon it the burnt-offering and the sin-offering and the trespass-offering. And at the side without, as one goeth up to the entry of the north gate, were two tables; and on the other side, which was at the porch of the gate, were two tables. Four tables were on this side, and four tables on that side, by the side of the gate; eight tables, upon which they slew their sacrifices. And the four tables were of hewn stone for the burnt-offering, of a cubit and a half long, and a cubit and a half broad, and one cubit high: upon which also they laid the instruments with which they slew the burnt-offering and the sacrifice. And within were hooks, a hand broad, fastened around: and upon the tables was the flesh of the offering. And without the inner gate were the chambers of the singers in the inner court, which was at the side of the north gate; and their prospect was towards the south: one at the side of the east gate having the prospect towards the north. And he said to me, This chamber, whose prospect is towards the south, is for the priests, the keepers of the charge of the house. And the chamber whose prospect is towards the north is for the priests, the keepers of the charge of the altar: these are the sons of Zadok among the sons of Levi, who come near to the LORD to minister to him. So he measured the court, a hundred cubits long, and a hundred cubits broad, foursquare; and the altar that was before the house. And he brought me to the porch of the house, and measured each post of the porch, five cubits on this side, and five cubits on that side: and the breadth of the gate was three cubits on this side, and three cubits on that side. The length of the porch was twenty cubits, and the breadth eleven cubits; and he brought me by the steps by which they went up to it: and there were pillars by the posts, one on this side, and another on that side.

Afterward he brought me to the temple, and measured the 41 posts, six cubits broad on the one side, and six cubits broad on 2 the other side, which was the breadth of the tabernacle. And the breadth of the door was ten cubits; and the sides of the door were five cubits on the one side, and five cubits on the 3 other side: and he measured the length of it forty cubits: and the breadth, twenty cubits. Then he went inward, and mea-4 sured the post of the door, two cubits; and the door, six cubits; and the breadth of the door, seven cubits. So he measured the length of it twenty cubits; and the breadth, twenty cubits, before the temple: and he said to me, This is the most holy place.

5 Afterward he measured the wall of the house, six cubits; and the breadth of every side-chamber, four cubits, round the house 6 on every side. And the side-chambers were three, one over another, and thirty in order; and they entered into the wall which was of the house for the side-chambers around, that they might 7 have hold, but they had not hold in the wall of the house. And there was an enlarging, and a winding about still upward to the side-chambers: for the winding about of the house went still upward around the house; therefore the breadth of the house was still upward, and so increased from the lowest chamber to 8 the highest by the midst. I saw also the hight of the house around: the foundations of the side-chambers were a full reed 9 of six great cubits. The thickness of the wall, which was for the side-chamber without, was five cubits: and that which was 10 left was the place of the side-chambers that were within. And between the chambers was the width of twenty cubits around 11 the house on every side. And the doors of the side-chambers were towards the place that was left, one door towards the north, and another door towards the south: and the breadth 12 of the place that was left was five cubits around. Now the building that was before the separate place at the end towards the west was seventy cubits broad; and the wall of the building 13 was five cubits thick around, and its length ninety cubits. So he measured the house, a hundred cubits long; and the separate place, and the building, with its walls, a hundred cubits 14 long; Also the breadth of the face of the house, and of the 15 separate place towards the east, a hundred cubits. And he measured the length of the building over against the separate place which was behind it, and its galleries on the one side and on the other side, a hundred cubits, with the inner temple, and the porches of the court; The door posts, and the narrow windows, and the galleries around on their three stories, over against the door, ceiled with wood around, and from the ground up to the windows, and the windows were covered; To that above the door, even to the inner house, and without, and by all the wall around within and without, by measure. And it was made with cherubim and palm-trees, so that a palm-tree was between a cherub and a cherub; and every cherub had two faces; So that the face of a man was towards the palm-tree on the one side, and the face of a young lion towards the palm-tree on the other side: it was made through all the house around. From the ground to above the door were cherubim and palm-trees made, and on the wall of the temple. The posts of the temple were squared, and the face of the sanctuary; the appearance of the one as the appearance of the other. The altar of wood was three cubits high, and its length two cubits; and its corners, and its length, and its walls, were of wood: and he said to me, This is the table that is before the LORD. And the temple and the sanctuary had two doors. And the doors had two leaves each, two turning leaves; two leaves for the one door, and two leaves for the other door. And there were made on them, on the doors of the temple, cherubim and palm-trees, as were made upon the walls; and there were thick planks upon the face of the porch without. And there were narrow windows and palm-trees on the one side and on the other side, on the sides of the porch, and upon the side-chambers of the house, and thick planks.

Then he brought me forth into the outer court, the way towards the north: and he brought me into the chamber that was over against the separate place, and which was before the building towards the north. Before the length of a hundred cubits was the north door, and the breadth was fifty cubits. Over against the twenty cubits which were for the inner court, and over against the pavement which was for the outer court, was gallery against gallery in three stories. And before the chambers was a walk of ten cubits breadth inward, a way of one cubit; and their doors towards the north. Now the upper chambers were shorter: for the galleries were higher than these, than the lower, and than the middlemost of the building. For they were in three stories, but had not pillars as the pillars of the courts: therefore the building was straitened more than 7 the lowest and the middlemost from the ground. And the wall that was without over against the chambers, towards the outer court on the forepart of the chambers, the length of it was fifty 8 cubits. For the length of the chambers that were in the outer court was fifty cubits: and lo, before the temple were a hundred 9 cubits. And from under these chambers was the entry on the 10 east side, as one goeth into them from the outer court. The chambers were in the thickness of the wall of the court towards the east, over against the separate place, and over against the 11 building. And the way before them was like the appearance of the chambers which were towards the north, as long as they,

and as broad as they: and all their goings out were both ac-12 cording to their fashions, and according to their doors. And according to the doors of the chambers that were towards the south was a door in the head of the way, even the way directly before the wall towards the east, as one entereth into them.
13 Then said he to me, The north chambers and the south chambers which are before the separate place, they are holy chambers, where the priests that approach to the LORD shall eat the most holy things: there shall they lay the most holy things, and the meat-offering, and the sin-offering, and the trespass-14 offering; for the place is holy. When the priests enter therein, then shall they not go out of the holy place into the outer court, but there they shall lay their garments in which they minister; for they are holy; and shall put on other garments, and shall 15 approach to those things which are for the people. Now when he had made an end of measuring the inner house, he brought me forth towards the gate whose prospect is towards the east, 16 and measured it around. He measured the east side with the measuring reed, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed 17 around. He measured the north side, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed around. He measured the south side, five 18 hundred reeds, with the measuring reed. He turned about to the west side, and measured five hundred reeds, with the 19 measuring reed. He measured it by the four sides: it had a wall around, five hundred reeds long, and five hundred broad, 20 to make a separation between the sanctuary and the profane place.

43 Afterward he brought me to the gate, even the gate that looketh towards the east: And behold, the glory of the God 2 of Israel came from the way of the east: and his voice was like a noise of many waters: and the earth shined with his glory. And it was according to the appearance of the vision 3 which I saw, even according to the vision that I saw when I came to destroy the city: and the visions were like the vision that I saw by the river Kebar; and I fell upon my face. And 4 the glory of the LORD came into the house by the way of the gate whose prospect is towards the east. So the spirit took 5 me up, and brought me into the inner court; and behold, the glory of the LORD filled the house. And I heard him speak- 6 ing to me out of the house; and the man stood by me. And he 7 said to me, Son of man, the place of my throne, and the place of the soles of my feet, where I will dwell in the midst of the children of Israel for ever, and my holy name, shall the house of Israel no more defile, neither they, nor their kings, by their lewd deeds, nor by the carcasses of their kings in their high places. In their setting of their threshold by my thresholds, 8 and their post by my posts, and the wall between me and them, they have even defiled my holy name by their abominations that they have committed: wherefore I have consumed them 9 in my anger. Now let them put away their lewd deeds, and the carcasses of their kings, far from me, and I will dwell in the midst of them for ever. Thou son of man, show the house 10 to the house of Israel, that they may be ashamed of their iniquities: and let them measure the pattern. And if they shall 11 be ashamed of all that they have done, show them the form of the house, and the fashion of it, and its goings out, and its comings in, and all its forms, and all its ordinances, and all its forms, and all its laws: and write it in their sight, that they may keep the whole form of it, and all its ordinances, and do them. This is the law of the house; Upon the top of the moun- 12 tain, the whole limit of it around shall be most holy. Behold, this is the law of the house. And these are the measures of the 13 altar after the cubits: The cubit is a cubit and a hand-breadth; even the bottom shall be a cubit, and the breadth a cubit, and the border of it by its edge around shall be a span: and this shall be the higher place of the altar. And from the bottom 14 upon the ground even to the lower settle shall be two cubits, and the breadth one cubit; and from the lesser settle even to the greater settle shall be four cubits, and the breadth one cubit. So the altar shall be four cubits; and from the altar and upward shall be four horns. And the altar shall be twelve cubits long, twelve broad, square in the four squares of it. And the settle shall be fourteen cubits long and fourteen broad in its four squares; and the border about it shall be half a cubit; and the bottom of it shall be a cubit about; and its stairs shall look towards the east. And he said to me, Son of man, thus saith the Lord GOD; These are the ordinances of the altar in the day when they shall make it, to offer burnt-offerings upon it, and to sprinkle blood upon it. And thou shalt give to the priests the Levites that are of the seed of Zadok, who approach to me, to minister to me, saith the Lord GOD, a young bullock for a sin-offering. And thou shalt take of his blood, and put it on the four horns of it, and on the four corners of the settle, and upon the border around: thus shalt thou cleanse and purge it. Thou shalt take the bullock also of the sin-offering, and he shall burn it in the appointed place of the house, without the sanctuary. And on the second day thou shalt offer a kid of the goats without blemish for a sin-offering; and they shall cleanse the altar, as they cleansed it with the bullock. When thou hast made an end of cleansing it, thou shalt offer a young bullock without blemish, and a ram out of the flock without blemish. And thou shalt offer them before the LORD, and the priests shall cast salt upon them, and they shall offer them for a burnt-offering to the LORD. Seven days shalt thou prepare every day a goat for a sin-offering: they shall also prepare a young bullock, and a ram out of the flock, without blemish. Seven days shall they purge the altar and purify it; and they shall consecrate themselves. And when these days have expired, it shall be, that upon the eighth day, and so forward, the priests shall make your burnt-offerings upon the altar, and your peace-offerings: and I will accept you, saith the Lord GOD.

44 Then he brought me back the way of the gate of the outward sanctuary which looketh towards the east; and it was shut. Then said the LORD to me; This gate shall be shut, it shall not be opened, and no man shall enter in by it; because the LORD the God of Israel hath entered in by it, therefore it shall be shut. It is for the prince; the prince, he shall sit in it to eat bread before the LORD; he shall enter by the way of the porch of that gate, and shall go out by the way of the same. Then he brought me the way of the north gate before the house: and I looked, and behold, the glory of the LORD filled the house of the LORD: and I fell upon my face. And the LORD said to me, Son of man mark well, and behold with thy eyes, and hear with thy ears all that I say to thee concerning all the ordinances of the house of the LORD, and all its laws; and mark well the entrance of the house, with every going forth of the sanctuary; And thou shalt say to the rebellious, even to the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord GOD; O ye house of Israel, let it suffice you of all your abominations; In that ye have brought into my sanctuary strangers, uncircumcised in heart, and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in my sanctuary, to pollute it, even my house, when ye offer my bread, the fat and the blood, and they have broken my covenant because of all your abominations. And ye have not kept the charge of my holy things: but ye have set keepers of my charge in my sanctuary for yourselves. Thus saith the Lord GOD; No stranger, uncircumcised in heart, nor uncircumcised in flesh, shall enter into my sanctuary, of any stranger that is among the children of Israel. And the Levites that have gone away far from me, when Israel went astray, who went astray from me after their idols; they shall even bear their iniquity. Yet they shall be ministers in my sanctuary, having charge at the gates of the house, and ministering to the house: they shall slay the burnt-offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they shall stand before them to minister to them. Because they ministered to them before their idols, and caused the house of Israel to fall into iniquity; therefore have I lifted up my hand against them, saith the Lord GOD, and they shall bear their iniquity. And they shall not come near to me, to do the office of a priest to me, nor to come near to any of my holy things, in the most holy place: but they shall bear their shame, and their abominations which they have committed. But I will make them keepers of the charge of the house, for all its service, and for all that shall be done therein. But the priests the Levites, the sons of Zadok, that kept the charge of my sanctuary when the children of Israel went astray from me, they shall come near to me to minister to me, and they shall stand before me to offer to me the fat and the blood, saith the Lord GOD: They shall enter into my sanctuary, and they shall come near to my table, to minister to 17 me, and they shall keep my charge. And it shall come to pass, that when they enter in at the gates of the inner court, they shall be clothed with linen garments; and no wool shall come upon them, while they minister in the gates of the inner court, 18 and within. They shall have linen bonnets upon their heads, and shall have linen breeches upon their loins; they shall not 19 gird themselves with any thing that causeth sweat. And when they go forth into the outer court, even into the outer court to the people, they shall put off their garments in which they ministered, and lay them in the holy chambers, and they shall put on other garments; and they shall not sanctify the people with 20 their garments. Neither shall they shave their heads, nor suffer their locks to grow long; they shall only poll their heads.

21 Neither shall any priest drink wine, when they enter into the 22 inner court. Neither shall they take for their wives a widow, nor her that is put away: but they shall take maidens of the seed of the house of Israel, or a widow that had a priest before.
23 And they shall teach my people the difference between the holy and profane, and cause them to discern between the unclean 24 and the clean. And in controversy they shall stand in judgment; and they shall judge it according to my judgments: and they shall keep my laws and my statutes in all my assemblies; 25 and they shall hallow my sabbaths. And they shall come at no dead person to defile themselves: but for father, or for mother, or for son, or for daughter, for brother, or for sister that hath 26 had no husband, they may defile themselves. And after he is 27 cleansed, they shall reckon to him seven days. And in the day that he goeth into the sanctuary, to the inner court, to minister in the sanctuary, he shall offer his sin-offering, saith the 28 Lord GOD. And it shall be to them for an inheritance: I am their inheritance: and ye shall give them no possession in Is-29 rael: I am their possession. They shall eat the meat-offering, and the sin-offering, and the trespass-offering; and every ded-30 icated thing in Israel shall be theirs. And the first of all the first-fruits of all things, and every oblation of all, of every sort of your oblations, shall be the priest's: ye shall also give to the priest the first of your dough, that he may cause the blessing to 31 rest in thy house. The priests shall not eat of any thing that is dead of itself, or torn, whether of fowl or beast.

Moreover, when ye shall divide by lot the land for inheritance, ye shall offer an oblation to the LORD, a holy portion of the land: the length shall be the length of five and twenty thousand reeds, and the breadth shall be ten thousand. This shall be holy in all its borders on every side. Of this there shall be 2 for the sanctuary five hundred in length, with five hundred in breadth, square around; and fifty cubits around for the suburbs of it. And of this measure shalt thou measure the length 3 of five and twenty thousand, and the breadth of ten thousand: and in it shall be the sanctuary and the most holy place. The 4 holy portion of the land shall be for the priests the ministers of the sanctuary, who shall come near to minister to the LORD: and it shall be a place for their houses, and a holy place for the sanctuary. And the five and twenty thousand of length, 5 and the ten thousand of breadth, shall also the Levites, the ministers of the house, have for themselves, for a possession for twenty chambers. And ye shall appoint the possession of 6 the city five thousand broad, and five and twenty thousand long, over against the oblation of the holy portion: it shall be for the whole house of Israel. And a portion shall be for the 7 prince on the one side and on the other side of the oblation of the holy portion, and of the possession of the city, before the oblation of the holy portion, and before the possession of the city, from the west side westward, and from the east side eastward: and the length shall be over against one of the portions, from the west border to the east border. In the land shall 8 be his possession in Israel: and my princes shall no more oppress my people; and the rest of the land shall they give to the house of Israel according to their tribes. Thus saith the Lord 9 GOD; Let it suffice you, O princes of Israel: remove violence and spoil, and execute judgment and justice, take away your exactions from my people, saith the Lord GOD. Ye shall have 10 just balances, and a just ephah, and a just bath. The ephah and the bath shall be of one measure, that the bath may contain the tenth part of a homer, and the ephah the tenth part of a homer: the measure of it shall be after the homer. And the 12 shekel shall be twenty gerahs: twenty shekels, five and twenty shekels, fifteen shekels, shall be your maneh. This is the oblation that ye shall offer; the sixth part of an ephah of a homer of 13 wheat, and ye shall give the sixth part of an ephah of a homer

- 14 of barley; Concerning the ordinance of oil, the bath of oil, ye shall offer the tenth part of a bath out of the cor, which is a 15 homer of ten baths: for ten baths are a homer: And one lamb out of the flock, out of two hundred, out of the fat pastures of Israel; for a meat-offering, and for a burnt-offering, and for peace-offerings, to make reconciliation for them, saith the Lord 16 GOD. All the people of the land shall give this oblation for the prince in Israel. And it shall be the prince's part to give 17 burnt-offerings, and meat-offerings, and drink-offerings, in the feasts, and in the new moons, and in the sabbaths, in all solemnities of the house of Israel: he shall prepare the sin-offering, and the meat-offering, and the burnt-offering, and the peace-18 offerings, to make reconciliation for the house of Israel. Thus saith the Lord GOD; In the first month, in the first day of the month, thou shalt take a young bullock without blemish, and 19 cleanse the sanctuary: And the priest shall take of the blood of the sin-offering, and put it upon the posts of the house, and upon the four corners of the settle of the altar, and upon the 20 posts of the gate of the inner court. And so thou shalt do the seventh day of the month for every one that erreth, and for him that is simple: so shall ye reconcile the house. In the 21 first month, in the fourteenth day of the month, ye shall have the passover, a feast of seven days; unleavened bread shall be 22 eaten. And upon that day shall the prince prepare for himself and for all the people of the land a bullock for a sin-offering.
23 And seven days of the feast he shall prepare a burnt-offering to the LORD, seven bullocks and seven rams without blemish daily the seven days; and a kid of the goats daily for a sin-24 offering. And he shall prepare a meat-offering of an ephah for a bullock, and an ephah for a ram, and a hin of oil for an ephah.
25 In the seventh month, in the fifteenth day of the month, shall he do the like in the feast of the seven days, according to the sin-offering, according to the burnt-offering, and according to the meat-offering, and according to the oil.
- 46 Thus saith the Lord GOD; The gate of the inner court that looketh towards the east shall be shut the six working days; but on the sabbath it shall be opened, and in the day of the 2 new moon it shall be opened. And the prince shall enter by the way of the porch of that gate without, and shall stand by the post of the gate, and the priest shall prepare his burnt-offering and his peace-offerings, and he shall worship at the threshold of the gate: then he shall go forth; but the gate shall not be shut until the evening. Likewise the people of the land shall worship at the door of this gate before the LORD in the sabbaths and in the new moons. And the burnt-offering that the prince shall offer to the LORD in the sabbath day shall be six lambs without blemish, and a ram without blemish. And the meat-offering shall be an ephah for a ram, and the meat-offering for the lambs as he shall be able to give, and a hin of oil to an ephah. And in the day of the new moon it shall be a young bullock without blemish, and six lambs, and a ram: they shall be without blemish. And he shall prepare a meat-offering, an ephah for a bullock, and an ephah for a ram, and for the lambs according as his hand shall be able, and a hin of oil to an ephah. And when the prince shall enter, he shall go in by the way of the porch of that gate, and he shall go forth by the way of it. But when the people of the land shall come before the LORD in the solemn feasts, he that entereth in by the way of the north gate to worship shall go out by the way of the south gate; and he that entereth by the way of the south gate shall go forth by the way of the north gate: he shall not return by the way of the gate by which he came in, but shall go forth over against it. And the prince in the midst of them, when they go in, shall go in; and when they go forth, shall go forth. And in the feasts and in the solemnities the meat-offering shall be an ephah to a bullock, and an ephah to a ram, and to the lambs as he is able to give, and a hin of oil to an ephah. Now when the prince shall prepare a voluntary burnt-offering or peace-offerings voluntarily to the LORD, one shall then open to him the gate that looketh towards the east, and he shall prepare his burnt-offering and his peace-offerings, as he did on the sabbath-day: then he shall go forth; and after his going forth one shall shut the gate. Thou shalt daily prepare a burnt-offering to the LORD of a lamb of the first year without blemish: thou shalt prepare it every morning. And thou shalt prepare a meat-offering for it every morning, the sixth part of an ephah, and the third part of a hin of oil, to temper with the fine flour; a meat-offering continually by a perpetual ordinance to the LORD. Thus shall they prepare the lamb, and the meat-offering, and the oil, every morning for a continual

16 burnt-offering. Thus saith the Lord GOD; If the prince shall 17 give a gift to any of his sons, the inheritance of it shall be to his sons; it shall be their possession by inheritance. But if he shall give a gift of his inheritance to one of his servants, then it shall be his to the year of liberty; afterward it shall return to the prince: but his inheritance shall be to his sons for them.
18 Moreover the prince shall not take of the people's inheritance by oppression, to thrust them out of their possession; but he shall give his sons' inheritance out of his own possession: that 19 my people be not scattered every man from his possession. Afterward he brought me through the entry, which was at the side of the gate, into the holy chambers of the priests, which looked towards the north: and behold, there was a place on the 20 two sides westward. Then said he to me, This is the place where the priests shall boil the trespass-offering and the sin-offering, where they shall bake the meat-offering; that they bear them not out into the outer court, to sanctify the people.
21 Then he brought me forth into the outer court, and caused me to pass by the four corners of the court; and behold, in every 22 corner of the court there was a court. In the four corners of the court there were courts joined of forty cubits long and thirty 23 broad: these four corners were of one measure. And there was a row of building around in them, around them four, and it was 24 made with boiling places under the rows around. Then said he to me, These are the places of them that boil, where the ministers of the house shall boil the sacrifice of the people.

47 Afterward he brought me again to the door of the house; and behold, waters issued out from under the threshold of the house eastward: for the front of the house stood towards the east, and the waters came down from under from the right 2 side of the house, at the south side of the altar. Then he brought me out of the way of the gate northward, and led me about the way without to the outer gate by the way that looketh eastward; and behold, there ran out waters on the right side.
3 And when the man that had the line in his hand went forth eastward, he measured a thousand cubits, and he brought me 4 through the waters; the waters were to the ankles. Again he measured a thousand, and brought me through the waters; the waters were to the knees. Again he measured a thousand, and 5 brought me through; the waters were to the loins. Afterward he measured a thousand; and it was a river that I could not pass over: for the waters had risen, waters to swim in, a river that could not be passed over. And he said to me, Son of man, 6 hast thou seen this? Then he brought me, and caused me to return to the brink of the river. Now when I had returned, be- 7 hold, at the bank of the river were very many trees on the one side and on the other. Then said he to me, These waters issue 8 out towards the east country, and go down into the desert, and go into the sea: which being brought forth into the sea, the waters shall be healed. And it shall come to pass, that every 9 thing that liveth, which moveth, whithersoever the rivers shall come, shall live: and there shall be a very great multitude of fish, because these waters shall come thither: for they shall be healed; and every thing shall live whither the river cometh. And it shall come to pass, that the fishers shall stand upon it 10 from En-gedi even to En-eglaim; they shall be a place to spread forth nets; their fish shall be according to their kinds, as the fish of the great sea, very numerous. But its miry places and 11 its marshes shall not be healed; they shall be given to salt. And by the river upon its bank, on this side and on that side, 12 shall grow all trees for food, whose leaf shall not fade, neither shall its fruit be consumed: it shall bring forth new fruit according to its months, because their waters they issued out of the sanctuary: and its fruit shall be for food, and its leaf for medicine. Thus saith the Lord GOD; This shall be the border 13 by which ye shall inherit the land according to the twelve tribes of Israel: Joseph shall have two portions. And ye shall inherit it, one as well as another: concerning which I lifted up my hand to give it to your fathers: and this land shall fall to you for inheritance. And this shall be the border of the land 15 towards the north side, from the great sea, the way of Hethlon, as men go to Zedad; Hamath, Berothah, Sibraim, which is 16 between the border of Damascus and the border of Hamath; Hazar-hatticon, which is by the border of Hauran. And the 17 border from the sea shall be Hazar-enan, the border of Damascus, and the north northward, and the border of Hamath. And this is the north side. And the east side ye shall measure 18 from Hauran, and from Damascus, and from Gilead, and from the land of Israel by Jordan, from the border to the east sea. And this is the east side. And the south side southward, from 19

Tamar even to the waters of strife in Kadesh, the river to the 20 great sea. And this is the south side southward. The west side also shall be the great sea from the border, till a man cometh 21 over against Hamath. This is the west side. So shall ye divide 22 this land to you according to the tribes of Israel. And it shall come to pass, that ye shall divide it by lot for an inheritance to you, and to the strangers that sojourn among you, which shall beget children among you: and they shall be to you as born in the country among the children of Israel; they shall have in-23 heritance with you among the tribes of Israel. And it shall come to pass, that in what tribe the stranger sojourneth, there shall ye give him his inheritance, saith the Lord GOD.

48 Now these are the names of the tribes. From the north end to the border of the way of Hethlon, as one goeth to Hamath, Hazar-enan, the border of Damascus northward, to the limit of Hamath; for these are his sides east and west; a portion for 2 Dan. And by the border of Dan, from the east side to the west 3 side, a portion for Asher. And by the border of Asher, from the 4 east side even to the west side, a portion for Naphtali. And by the border of Naphtali, from the east side to the west side, a 5 portion for Manasseh. And by the border of Manasseh, from 6 the east side to the west side, a portion for Ephraim. And by the border of Ephraim, from the east side even to the west side, 7 a portion for Reuben. And by the border of Reuben, from the 8 east side to the west side, a portion for Judah. And by the border of Judah, from the east side to the west side, shall be the offering which ye shall offer of five and twenty thousand reeds in breadth, and in length as one of the other parts, from the east side to the west side: and the sanctuary shall be in the 9 midst of it. The oblation that ye shall offer to the LORD shall be of five and twenty thousand in length, and of ten thousand 10 in breadth. And for them, even for the priests, shall be this holy oblation; towards the north five and twenty thousand in length, and towards the west ten thousand in breadth, and towards the east ten thousand in breadth, and towards the south five and twenty thousand in length: and the sanctuary of the 11 LORD shall be in the midst of it. It shall be for the priests that are sanctified of the sons of Zadok; who have kept my charge, who went not astray when the children of Israel went astray, as the Levites went astray. And this oblation of the land that is offered shall be to them a thing most holy, by the border of the Levites. And over against the border of the priests the Levites shall have five and twenty thousand in length, and ten thousand in breadth: all the length shall be five and twenty thousand, and the breadth ten thousand. And they shall not sell of it, neither exchange, nor alienate the first-fruits of the land: for it is holy to the LORD. And the five thousand, that are left in the breadth over against the five and twenty thousand, shall be a profane place for the city, for dwelling, and for suburbs, and the city shall be in the midst of it. And these shall be the measures of it; the north side four thousand and five hundred, and the south side four thousand and five hundred, and on the east side four thousand and five hundred, and the west side four thousand and five hundred. And the suburbs of the city shall be towards the north two hundred and fifty, and towards the south two hundred and fifty, and towards the east two hundred and fifty, and towards the west two hundred and fifty. And the residue in length over against the oblation of the holy portion shall be ten thousand eastward, and ten thousand westward: and it shall be over against the oblation of the holy portion; and its increase shall be for food to them that serve the city. And they that serve the city shall serve it out of all the tribes of Israel. All the oblation shall be five and twenty thousand by five and twenty thousand: ye shall offer the holy oblation foursquare, with the possession of the city. And the residue shall be for the prince, on the one side and on the other of the holy oblation, and of the possession of the city, over against the five and twenty thousand of the oblation towards the east border, and westward over against the five and twenty thousand towards the west border, over against the portions for the prince: and it shall be the holy oblation; and the sanctuary of the house shall be in the midst of it. Moreover from the possession of the Levites, and from the possession of the city, being in the midst of that which is the prince's, between the border of Judah and the border of Benjamin, shall be for the prince. As for the rest of the tribes, from the east side to the west side, Benjamin shall have a portion. And by the border of Benjamin, from the east side to the west side, Simeon shall have a portion. And by the border of Simeon, from the east side to the west side, Issachar a portion.

26 And by the border of Issachar, from the east side to the west 27 side, Zebulun a portion. And by the border of Zebulun, from 28 the east side to the west side, Gad a portion. And by the border of Gad, at the south side southward, the border shall be even from Tamar to the waters of strife in Kadesh, and to the 29 river towards the great sea. This is the land which ye shall divide by lot to the tribes of Israel for inheritance, and these are 30 their portions, saith the Lord GOD. And these are the goings out of the city on the north side, four thousand and five hun-31 dred measures. And the gates of the city shall be after the names of the tribes of Israel: three gates northward; one gate 32 of Reuben, one gate of Judah, one gate of Levi. And at the east side four thousand and five hundred: and three gates; one 33 gate of Joseph, one gate of Benjamin, one gate of Dan. And at the south side four thousand and five hundred measures: and three gates; one gate of Simeon, one gate of Issachar, one 34 gate of Zebulun. And the west side four thousand and five hundred, with their three gates: one gate of Gad, one gate of 35 Asher, one gate of Naphtali. The circuit was eighteen thousand measures: and the name of the city from that day shall be, The LORD is there.

THE BOOK OF DANIEL.

In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of 1 Judah came Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon to Jerusalem, and besieged it. And the LORD gave Jehoiakim king 2 of Judah into his hand, with part of the vessels of the house of God: which he carried into the land of Shinar to the house of his god; and he brought the vessels into the treasure-house of his god. And the king spoke to Ashpenaz the master 3 of his eunuchs, that he should bring certain of the children of Israel, and of the king's seed, and of the princes; Chil- 4 dren in whom was no blemish, but of good appearance, and skillful in all wisdom, and intelligent in knowledge, and understanding science, and such as had ability in them to stand in the king's palace, and whom they might teach the learning and the language of the Chaldeans. And the king appointed 5 them a daily provision of the king's food, and of the wine which he drank: so nourishing them three years, that at the end of them they might stand before the king. Now among these 6 were of the children of Judah, Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah: To whom the prince of the eunuchs gave names: for 7 he gave to Daniel the name of Belteshazzar; and to Hananiah, of Shadrach; and to Mishael, of Meshach; and to Azariah, of Abed-nego. But Daniel purposed in his heart that he would 8 not defile himself with the portion of the king's food, nor with the wine which he drank: therefore he requested of the prince of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself. Now God had 9 brought Daniel into favor and tender love with the prince of the eunuchs. And the prince of the eunuchs said to Daniel, I fear 10 my lord the king, who hath appointed your provision and your drink: for why should he see your faces more meager than the children who are of your sort? then will ye make me endanger my head to the king. Then said Daniel to Melzar, whom the 11 prince of the eunuchs had set over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, Prove thy servants, I beseech thee, ten days; 12 and let them give us pulse to eat, and water to drink. Then 13 let our countenances be looked upon before thee, and the countenances of the children that eat of the portion of the king's 14 provision: and as thou seest, deal with thy servants. So he consented to them in this matter, and proved them ten days.

15 And at the end of ten days their countenances appeared fairer and fatter in flesh than all the children who ate the portion 16 of the king's provision. Thus Melzar took away the portion of their food, and the wine that they should drink, and gave them 17 pulse. As for these four children, God gave them knowledge and skill in all learning and wisdom: and Daniel had under-18 standing in all visions and dreams. Now at the end of the days that the king had said he should bring them in, then the prince 19 of the eunuchs brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar. And the king communed with them; and among them all was found none like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah: therefore 20 they stood before the king. And in all matters of wisdom and understanding, that the king inquired of them, he found them ten times superior to all the magicians and astrologers that 21 were in all his realm. And Daniel continued even to the first year of king Cyrus.

2 And in the second year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuchadnezzar dreamed dreams, with which his spirit was troubled, and his sleep broke from him. Then the king commanded to call the magicians, and the astrologers, and the sorcerers, and the Chaldeans, to show the king his dream. So they came 3 and stood before the king. And the king said to them, I have dreamed a dream, and my spirit was troubled to know the 4 dream. Then the Chaldeans spoke to the king in Syriac, O king, live for ever: tell thy servants the dream, and we will 5 show the interpretation. The king answered and said to the Chaldeans, The thing is gone from me: if ye will not make known to me the dream, with the interpretation of it, ye shall be cut in pieces, and your houses shall be made a dunghill.
6 But if ye shall show the dream, and the interpretation of it, ye shall receive of me gifts and rewards and great honor: there-7 fore show me the dream, and the interpretation of it. They answered again and said, Let the king tell his servants the 8 dream, and we will show the interpretation of it. The king answered and said, I know of certainty that ye would gain the 9 time, because ye see the thing is gone from me. But if ye will not make known to me the dream, there is but one decree for you: for ye have prepared lying and corrupt words to speak before me, till the time be changed: therefore tell me the dream, and I shall know that ye can show me the interpretation of it. The Chaldeans answered before the king, and said, There is not a man upon the earth that can show the king's matter: therefore there is no king, lord, nor ruler, that hath asked such things of any magician, or astrologer, or Chaldean. And it is a rare thing that the king requireth, and there is no other that can show it before the king, except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh. For this cause the king was angry and very furious, and commanded to destroy all the wise men of Babylon. And the decree went forth that the wise men should be slain; and they sought Daniel and his fellows to be slain. Then Daniel answered with counsel and wisdom to Arioch the captain of the king's guard, who had gone forth to slay the wise men of Babylon: He answered and said to Arioch the king's captain, Why is the decree so hasty from the king? Then Arioch made the thing known to Daniel. Then Daniel went in, and desired of the king that he would give him time, and that he would show the king the interpretation. Then Daniel went to his house, and made the thing known to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, his companions: That they would desire mercies of the God of heaven concerning this secret; that Daniel and his companions should not perish with the rest of the wise men of Babylon. Then was the secret revealed to Daniel in a night vision. Then Daniel blessed the God of heaven. Daniel answered and said, Blessed be the name of God for ever and ever: for wisdom and might are his: And he changeth the times and the seasons; he removeth kings, and setteth up kings; he giveth wisdom to the wise, and knowledge to them that know understanding: He revealeth the deep and secret things: he knoweth what is in the darkness, and the light dwelleth with him. I thank thee, and praise thee, O thou God of my fathers, who hast given me wisdom and might, and hast made known to me now what we desired of thee: for thou hast now made known to us the king's matter. Therefore Daniel went into Arioch, whom the king had ordained to destroy the wise men of Babylon: he went and said thus to him; Destroy not the wise men of Babylon: bring me in before the king, and I will show to the king the interpretation. Then Arioch brought in Daniel before the king in haste, and said thus to him, I have found a man of the captives of Judah, that will make known 26 to the king the interpretation. The king answered and said to Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, Art thou able to make known to me the dream which I have seen, and the inter-27 pretation of it? Daniel answered in the presence of the king, and said, The secret which the king hath demanded, the wise men, the astrologers, the magicians, the sooth-sayers, cannot show 28 to the king; But there is a God in heaven that revealeth secrets, and maketh known to the king Nebuchadnezzar what shall be in the latter days. Thy dream, and the visions of 29 thy head upon thy bed, are these; As for thee, O king, thy thoughts came into thy mind upon thy bed, what should come to pass hereafter: and he that revealeth secrets maketh known 30 to thee what shall come to pass. But as for me, this secret is not revealed to me for any wisdom that I have more than any living, but for their sakes that shall make known the interpretation to the king, and that thou mayest know the thoughts of 31 thy heart. Thou, O king, sawest, and behold a great image.

This great image, whose brightness was excellent, stood before 32 thee; and its form was terrible. The head of this image was of fine gold, his breast and his arms of silver, his belly and his 33 thighs of brass, His legs of iron, his feet part of iron and part 34 of clay. Thou sawest till a stone was cut out without hands, which smote the image upon his feet that were of iron and clay, 35 and broke them to pieces. Then was the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold, broken to pieces together, and became like the chaff of the summer threshing-floors; and the wind carried them away, that no place was found for them: and the stone that smote the image became a great mountain, and 36 filled the whole earth. This is the dream; and we will tell the 37 interpretation of it before the king. Thou, O king, art a king of kings: for the God of heaven hath given thee a kingdom, power, 38 and strength, and glory. And wherever the children of men dwell, the beasts of the field and the fowls of the heaven hath he given into thy hand, and hath made thee ruler over them 39 all. Thou art this head of gold. And after thee shall arise another kingdom inferior to thee, and another third kingdom of 40 brass, which shall bear rule over all the earth. And the fourth kingdom shall be strong as iron: forasmuch as iron breaketh in pieces and subdueth all things: and as iron that breaketh all these, shall it break in pieces and bruise. And whereas thou 41 sawest the feet and toes, part of potter's clay, and part of iron, the kingdom shall be divided; but there shall be in it of the strength of the iron, forasmuch as thou sawest the iron mixed with the miry clay. And as the toes of the feet were part of 42 iron, and part of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong, and partly broken. And whereas thou sawest iron mixed with 43 miry clay, they shall mingle themselves with the seed of men: but they shall not cleave one to another, even as iron is not mixed with clay. And in the days of these kings shall the God 44 of heaven set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed: and the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand for ever. Forasmuch as thou sawest that the stone was 45 cut out of the mountain, without hands, and that it broke in pieces the iron, the brass, the clay, the silver, and the gold; the great God hath made known to the king what shall come to pass hereafter: and the dream is certain, and the interpretation of it sure. Then the king Nebuchadnezzar fell upon his 46 face, and worshiped Daniel, and commanded that they should offer an oblation and sweet odors to him. The king answered 47 to Daniel, and said, Of a truth it is, that your God is a God of gods, and a Lord of kings, and a revealer of secrets, seeing thou couldst reveal this secret. Then the king made Daniel a great 48 man, and gave him many great gifts, and made him ruler over the whole province of Babylon, and chief of the governors over all the wise men of Babylon. Then Daniel requested of the 49 king, and he set Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, over the affairs of the province of Babylon: but Daniel sat in the gate of the king.

Nebuchadnezzar the king made an image of gold, whose 3 hight was sixty cubits, and the breadth of it six cubits: he set it up in the plain of Dura, in the province of Babylon. Then 2 Nebuchadnezzar the king sent to convene the princes, the governors, and the captains, the judges, the treasurers, the counselors, the sherifs, and all the rulers of the provinces, to come to the dedication of the image which Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up. Then the princes, the governors, and captains, 3 the judges, the treasurers, the counselors, the sherifs, and all the rulers of the provinces, were assembled to the dedication of the image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up; and they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

4 Then a herald cried aloud, To you it is commanded, O people, 5 nations, and languages, That at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, dulcimer, and all kinds of music, ye fall down and worship the golden image that 6 Nebuchadnezzar the king hath set up. And whoever shall not fall down and worship shall the same hour be cast into the 7 midst of a burning fiery furnace. Therefore at that time, when all the people heard the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and all kinds of music, all the people, the nations, and the languages, fell down and worshiped the golden im-8 age that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up. Wherefore at that time certain Chaldeans came near, and accused the Jews.
9 They spoke and said to the king Nebuchadnezzar, O king, live for ever. Thou, O king, hast made a decree, that every man that shall hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of music, shall fall down 11 and worship the golden image: And whoever shall not fall down and worship, that he shall be cast into the midst of a 12 burning fiery furnace. There are certain Jews whom thou hast set over the affairs of the province of Babylon, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego; these men, O king, have not regarded thee: they serve not thy gods, nor worship the golden image 13 which thou hast set up. Then Nebuchadnezzar in his rage and fury commanded to bring Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-14 nego. Then they brought these men before the king. Nebuchadnezzar spoke and said to them, Is it true, O Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, do ye not serve my gods, nor wor-15 ship the golden image which I have set up? Now if ye be ready that at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of music, ye fall down and worship the image which I have made; well: but if ye worship not, ye shall be cast the same hour into the midst of a burning fiery furnace; and who is that God that shall deliver 16 you out of my hands? Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, answered and said to the king, O Nebuchadnezzar, we are not 17 careful to answer thee in this matter. If it is so, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, 18 and he will deliver us out of thy hand, O king. But if not, be it known to thee, O king, that we will not serve thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up. Then was Nebuchadnezzar full of fury, and the form of his visage was changed against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego: therefore he spoke, and commanded that they should heat the furnace seven times more than it was wont to be heated. And he commanded the most mighty men that were in his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, and to cast them into the burning fiery furnace. Then these men were bound in their coats, their hose, and their hats, and their other garments, and were cast into the midst of the burning fiery furnace. Therefore because the king's commandment was urgent, and the furnace exceeding hot, the flame of the fire killed those men that took up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego. And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, fell down bound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace. Then Nebuchadnezzar the king was astonished, and rose up in haste, and spoke, and said to his counselors, Did we not cast three men bound into the midst of the fire? They answered and said to the king, True, O king. He answered and said, Lo, I see four men loose, walking in the midst of the fire, and they have no hurt: and the form of the fourth is like the son of God. Then Nebuchadnezzar came near to the mouth of the burning fiery furnace, and spoke, and said, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, ye servants of the most high God, come forth, and come hither. Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, came forth from the midst of the fire. And the princes, governors, and captains, and the king's counselors, being assembled, saw these men, upon whose bodies the fire had no power, nor was a hair of their head singed, neither were their coats changed, nor had the smell of fire passed upon them. Then Nebuchadnezzar spoke, and said, Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, who hath sent his angel, and delivered his servants that trusted in him, and have changed the king's word, and yielded their bodies, that they might not serve nor worship any god, except their own God. Therefore I make a decree, that every people, nation, and language, which speak any thing amiss against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, shall be cut in pieces, and their houses shall be made a dunghill: because there is no other god that can deliver after 30 this sort. Then the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, in the province of Babylon.

4 Nebuchadnezzar the king, to all people, nations, and languages, that dwell in all the earth; Peace be multiplied to you.
2 I thought it good to show the signs and wonders that the high 3 God hath wrought towards me. How great are his signs! and how mighty are his wonders! his kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and his dominion is from generation to generation.
4 I Nebuchadnezzar was at rest in my house, and flourishing in 5 my palace: I saw a dream which made me afraid, and the thoughts upon my bed and the visions of my head troubled 6 me. Therefore I made a decree to bring in all the wise men of Babylon before me, that they might make known to me the 7 interpretation of the dream. Then came in the magicians, the astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the sooth-sayers: and I told the dream before them; but they did not make known to me 8 the interpretation of it. But at the last Daniel came in before me, whose name is Belteshazzar, according to the name of my God, and in whom is the spirit of the holy gods: and before him 9 I told the dream, saying, O Belteshazzar, master of the magicians, because I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in thee, and no secret troubleth thee, tell me the visions of my dream 10 that I have seen, and the interpretation of it. Thus were the visions of my head in my bed; I saw, and behold a tree in the 11 midst of the earth, and its hight was great. The tree grew, and was strong, and its hight reached to heaven, and the sight 12 of it to the end of all the earth: Its leaves were fair, and its fruit abundant, and in it was food for all: the beasts of the field had shade under it, and the fowls of heaven dwelt among its 13 boughs, and all flesh was fed from it. I saw in the visions of my head upon my bed, and behold, a watcher and a holy one came 14 down from heaven; He cried aloud, and said thus, Hew down the tree, and cut off its branches, shake off its leaves, and scatter its fruit: let the beasts escape from under it, and the fowls 15 from its branches. Nevertheless leave the stump of its roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let its portion be with the beasts in the grass of the earth.
16 Let his heart be changed from man's, and let a beast's heart be 17 given to him; and let seven times pass over him. This matter is by the decree of the watchers, and the demand by the word of the holy ones: to the intent that the living may know that the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will, and setteth up over it the basest of men. This dream I king Nebuchadnezzar have seen. Now thou, O 18 Belteshazzar, declare the interpretation of it, forasmuch as all the wise men of my kingdom are not able to make known to me the interpretation: but thou art able; for the spirit of the holy gods is in thee. Then Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, 19 was astonished for one hour, and his thoughts troubled him. The king spoke, and said, Belteshazzar, let not the dream, or the interpretation of it, trouble thee. Belteshazzar answered, and said, My lord, the dream be to them that hate thee, and the interpretation of it to thy enemies. The tree that thou 20 sawest, which grew, and was strong, whose hight reached to the heaven, and the sight of it to all the earth; Whose leaves 21 were fair, and the fruit of it abundant, and in it was food for all; under which the beasts of the field dwelt, and upon whose branches the fowls of heaven had their habitation: It is thou, 22 O king, that art grown and become strong: for thy greatness is grown, and reacheth to heaven, and thy dominion to the end of the earth. And whereas the king saw a watcher and 23 a holy one coming down from heaven, and saying, Hew the tree down, and destroy it; yet leave the stump of its roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let its portion be with the beasts of the field, till seven times shall pass over him; This is the interpretation, O king, and 24 this is the decree of the most High, which is come upon my lord the king: That they shall drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field, and they shall 25 make thee to eat grass as oxen, and they shall wet thee with the dew of heaven, and seven times shall pass over thee, till thou shalt know that the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will. And whereas they 26 commanded to leave the stump of the tree roots; thy kingdom shall be sure to thee, after that thou shalt have known that the heavens do rule. Wherefore, O king, let my counsel be accept- 27 able to thee, and break off thy sins by righteousness, and thy iniquities by showing mercy to the poor; if it may be a lengthen-

28 ing of thy tranquillity. All this came upon the king Nebuchad-29 nezzar. At the end of twelve months he walked in the palace of 30 the kingdom of Babylon. The king spoke, and said, Is not this great Babylon, that I have built for the house of the kingdom by the might of my power, and for the honor of my majesty?
31 While the word was in the king's mouth, there fell a voice from heaven, saying, O king Nebuchadnezzar, to thee it is spoken; 32 The kingdom hath departed from thee. And they shall drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field: they shall make thee to eat grass as oxen, and seven times shall pass over thee, until thou shalt know that the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whom-33 soever he will. The same hour was the thing fulfilled upon Nebuchadnezzar: and he was driven from men, and ate grass as oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven, till his hairs were grown like eagles' feathers, and his nails like birds' 34 claws. And at the end of the days I Nebuchadnezzar lifted up my eyes to heaven, and my understanding returned to me, and I blessed the most High, and I praised and honored him that liveth for ever, whose dominion is an everlasting domin-35 ion, and his kingdom is from generation to generation: And all the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing: and he doeth according to his will in the army of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth: and none can stay his hand, or 36 say to him, What doest thou? At the same time my reason returned to me; and for the glory of my kingdom, my honor and brightness returned to me; and my counselors and my lords sought to me; and I was established in my kingdom, and excel-37 lent majesty was added to me. Now I Nebuchadnezzar praise and extol and honor the King of heaven, all whose works are truth, and his ways judgment: and those that walk in pride he is able to abase.

5 Belshazzar the king made a great feast to a thousand of 2 his lords, and drank wine before the thousand. Belshazzar, while he tasted the wine, commanded to bring the golden and silver vessels which his father Nebuchadnezzar had taken out of the temple which was in Jerusalem; that the king, and his princes, his wives, and his concubines, might drink in them.
3 Then they brought the golden vessels that were taken out of the temple of the house of God which was at Jerusalem; and the king, and his princes, his wives, and his concubines, drank in them. They drank wine, and praised the gods of gold, and of silver, of brass, of iron, of wood, and of stone. In the same hour came forth fingers of a man's hand, and wrote over against the candlestick upon the plaster of the wall of the king's palace: and the king saw the part of the hand that wrote. Then the king's countenance was changed, and his thoughts troubled him, so that the joints of his loins were loosed, and his knees smote one against another. The king cried aloud to bring in the astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the sooth-sayers. And the king spoke and said to the wise men of Babylon, Whoever shall read this writing, and show me the interpretation of it, shall be clothed with scarlet, and have a chain of gold about his neck, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom. Then came in all the king's wise men: but they could not read the writing, nor make known to the king the interpretation of it. Then was the king Belshazzar greatly troubled, and his countenance was changed in him, and his lords were astonished. Now the queen by reason of the words of the king and his lords came into the banquet house: and the queen spoke and said, O king, live for ever: let not thy thoughts trouble thee, nor let thy countenance be changed: There is a man in thy kingdom, in whom is the spirit of the holy gods; and in the days of thy father light and understanding and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods, was found in him; whom the king Nebuchadnezzar thy father, the king, I say, thy father, made master of the magicians, astrologers, Chaldeans, and sooth-sayers; Forasmuch as an excellent spirit, and knowledge, and understanding, the interpreting of dreams, and showing of hard sentences, and dissolving of doubts, were found in the same Daniel, whom the king named Beltshazzar: now let Daniel be called, and he will show the interpretation. Then was Daniel brought in before the king. And the king spoke and said to Daniel, Art thou that Daniel, who art of the children of the captivity of Judah, whom the king my father brought out of Judea? I have even heard of thee, that the spirit of the gods is in thee, and that light and understanding and excellent wisdom is found in thee. And now the wise men, the astrologers, have been brought in before me, that they should read this writing, and make known to me the interpretation of it, but they could not show the interpre-

16 tation of the thing: And I have heard of thee, that thou canst make interpretations, and dissolve doubts: now if thou canst read the writing, and make known to me the interpretation of it, thou shalt be clothed with scarlet, and have a chain of gold about thy neck, and shalt be the third ruler in the kingdom.

17 Then Daniel answered and said before the king, Let thy gifts be to thyself, and give thy rewards to another; yet I will read the writing to the king, and make known to him the interpretation.

18 O thou king, the most high God gave Nebuchadnezzar thy father a kingdom, and majesty, and glory, and honor: And for the majesty that he gave him, all people, nations, and languages, trembled and feared before him: whom he would he slew; and whom he would he kept alive; and whom he would

20 he set up; and whom he would he put down. But when his heart was lifted up, and his mind hardened in pride, he was deposed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from

21 him: And he was driven from the sons of men; and his heart was made like the beasts, and his dwelling was with the wild asses: they fed him with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven; till he knew that the most high God ruleth in the kingdom of men, and that he appointeth

22 over it whomsoever he will. And thou his son, O Belshazzar, hast not humbled thy heart, though thou knewest all this;

23 But hast lifted up thyself against the Lord of heaven; and they have brought the vessels of his house before thee, and thou, and thy lords, thy wives, and thy concubines, have drunk wine in them; and thou hast praised the gods of silver, and gold, of brass, iron, wood, and stone, which see not, nor hear, nor know: and the God in whose hand thy breath is, and whose are all

24 thy ways, thou hast not glorified. Then was the part of the 25 hand sent from him; and this writing was written. And this is the writing that was written, MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UP-26 HARSIN. This is the interpretation of the thing: MENE; God hath numbered thy kingdom, and finished it. TEKEL; Thou art weighed in the balances, and art found wanting. PERES; 27 Thy kingdom is divided, and given to the Medes and Persians.

28 Then commanded Belshazzar, and they clothed Daniel with scarlet, and put a chain of gold about his neck, and made a proclamation concerning him, that he should be the third ruler 30 in the kingdom. In that night was Belshazzar the king of the Chaldeans slain. And Darius the Median took the kingdom, 31 being about sixty and two years old.

It pleased Darius to set over the kingdom a hundred and 6 twenty princes, who should be over the whole kingdom; And 2 over these three presidents; of whom Daniel was first: that the princes might give accounts to them, and the king should have no damage. Then this Daniel was preferred above the presi- 3 dents and princes, because an excellent spirit was in him; and the king thought to set him over the whole realm. Then the 4 presidents and princes sought to find occasion against Daniel concerning the kingdom; but they could find no occasion nor fault; forasmuch as he was faithful, neither was there any error or fault found in him. Then said these men, We shall not 5 find any occasion against this Daniel, except we find it against him concerning the law of his God. Then these presidents and 6 princes assembled to the king, and said thus to him, King Darius, live for ever. All the presidents of the kingdom, the gov- 7 ernors, and the princes, the counselors, and the captains, have consulted together to establish a royal statute, and to make a firm decree, that whoever shall ask a petition of any God or man for thirty days, save of thee, O king, he shall be cast into the den of lions. Now, O king, establish the decree, and sign 8 the writing, that it may not be changed, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which altereth not. Wherefore king 9 Darius signed the writing and the decree. Now when Daniel 10 knew that the writing was signed, he went into his house; and his windows being open in his chamber towards Jerusalem, he kneeled upon his knees three times a day, and prayed, and gave thanks before his God, as he did before. Then these 11 men assembled, and found Daniel praying and making supplication before his God. Then they came near, and spoke 12 before the king concerning the king's decree; Hast thou not signed a decree, that every man that shall ask a petition of any God or man within thirty days, save of thee, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions? The king answered and said, The thing is true, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which altereth not. Then they answered and said before the 13 king, That Daniel, who is of the children of the captivity of Judah, regardeth not thee, O king, nor the decree that thou hast signed, but maketh his petition three times a day. Then the 14 king, when he heard these words, was much displeased with himself, and set his heart on Daniel to deliver him: and he 15 labored till the setting of the sun to deliver him. Then these men assembled to the king, and said to the king, Know, O king, that the law of the Medes and Persians is, That no decree nor 16 statute which the king establisheth may be changed. Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniel, and cast him into the den of lions. Now the king spoke and said to Daniel, Thy God whom thou servest continually, he will deliver thee.

17 And a stone was brought, and laid upon the mouth of the den; and the king sealed it with his own signet, and with the signet of his lords; that the purpose might not be changed concern-18 ing Daniel. Then the king went to his palace, and passed the night fasting: neither were instruments of music brought before him: and his sleep went from him. Then the king arose very early in the morning, and went in haste to the den of lions.
20 And when he came to the den, he cried with a lamentable voice to Daniel: and the king spoke and said to Daniel, O Daniel, servant of the living God, is thy God, whom thou servest continually, able to deliver thee from the lions? Then said Daniel 21 to the king, O king, live for ever. My God hath sent his angel, and hath shut the lions' mouths, that they have not hurt me: forasmuch as before him innocence was found in me; and also 23 before thee, O king, have I done no hurt. Then was the king exceeding glad for him, and commanded that they should take Daniel out of the den. So Daniel was taken out of the den, and no manner of hurt was found upon him, because he believed in 24 his God. And the king commanded, and they brought those men who had accused Daniel, and they cast them into the den of lions, them, their children, and their wives; and the lions had the mastery of them, and broke all their bones in pieces 25 before they came to the bottom of the den. Then king Darius wrote to all people, nations, and languages, that dwell in all the earth; Peace be multiplied to you. I make a decree, That 26 in every dominion of my kingdom men tremble and fear before the God of Daniel: for he is the living God, and steadfast for ever, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed, and his dominion shall be even to the end. He delivereth and 27 rescueth, and he worketh signs and wonders in heaven and on earth, who hath delivered Daniel from the power of the lions. So this Daniel prospered in the reign of Darius, and in the reign of Cyrus the Persian. 28

In the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon, Daniel had 7 a dream and visions of his head upon his bed: then he wrote the dream, and told the sum of the matters. Daniel spoke and 2 said, I saw in my vision by night, and behold, the four winds of heaven strove upon the great sea. And four great beasts 3 came up from the sea, diverse one from another. The first 4 was like a lion, and had eagles' wings: I beheld till its wings were plucked, and it was lifted up from the earth, and made to stand upon the feet as a man, and a man's heart was given to it. And behold another beast, a second, like a bear, and it 5 raised itself on one side, and it had three ribs in the mouth of it between the teeth of it: and they said thus to it, Arise, devour much flesh. After this I beheld, and lo another, like 6 a leopard, which had upon the back of it four wings of a fowl;
the beast had also four heads; and dominion was given to it.
After this I saw in the night visions, and behold a fourth beast, 7 dreadful and terrible, and strong exceedingly; and it had great iron teeth: it devoured and broke in pieces, and stamped the residue with its feet: and it was diverse from all the beasts that were before it; and it had ten horns. I considered the 8 horns, and behold, there came up among them another little horn, before whom there were three of the first horns plucked up by the roots: and behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of a man, and a mouth speaking great things. I beheld till the 9 thrones were cast down, and the Ancient of days did sit, whose garment was white as snow, and the hair of his head like the pure wool: his throne was like the fiery flame, and his wheels as burning fire. A fiery stream issued and came forth from 10 before him: thousand thousands ministered to him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him: the judgment was set and the books were opened. I beheld then because 11 of the voice of the great words which the horn spoke: I beheld even till the beast was slain, and his body destroyed, and given to the burning flame. As concerning the rest of the beasts, 12 they had their dominion taken away: yet their lives were prolonged for a season and time. I saw in the night visions, and 13 behold, one like the son of man came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the Ancient of days, and they brought him near be-14 fore him. And there was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all people, nations, and languages, should serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed.

15 I Daniel was grieved in my spirit in the midst of my body, and 16 the visions of my head troubled me. I came near to one of them that stood by, and asked him the truth of all this. So he told me, and made me know the interpretation of the things.

17 These great beasts, which are four, are four kings, which shall 18 arise out of the earth. But the saints of the most High shall take the kingdom, and possess the kingdom for ever, even for 19 ever and ever. Then I would know the truth of the fourth beast, which was diverse from all the others, exceeding dreadful, whose teeth were of iron, and his nails of brass; which devoured, broke in pieces, and stamped the residue with his feet;

20 And of the ten horns that were in his head, and of the other which came up, and before whom three fell; even of that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spoke very great things, whose 21 look was more stout than his fellows. I beheld, and the same horn made war with the saints, and prevailed against them;

22 Until the Ancient of days came, and judgment was given to the saints of the most High; and the time came that the saints possessed the kingdom. Thus he said, The fourth beast shall be 23 the fourth kingdom upon earth, which shall be diverse from all kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, and shall tread 24 it down, and break it in pieces. And the ten horns out of this kingdom are ten kings that shall arise: and another shall rise after them; and he shall be diverse from the first, and he shall 25 subdue three kings. And he shall speak great words against the most High, and shall wear out the saints of the most High, and think to change times and laws: and they shall be given into his hand until a time and times and the dividing of time.

26 But the judgment shall sit, and they shall take away his dominion to consume and to destroy it to the end. And the kingdom and dominion, and the greatness of the kingdom under the whole heaven, shall be given to the people of the saints of the most High, whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and 27 all dominions shall serve and obey him. Hitherto is the end of the matter. As for me Daniel, my cogitations much troubled me, and my countenance changed in me: but I kept the matter in my heart.

In the third year of the reign of king Belshazzar a vision 8 appeared to me, even to me, Daniel, after that which appeared to me at the first. And I saw in a vision; and it came to pass, 2 when I saw, that I was at Shushan in the palace, which is in the province of Elam; and I saw in a vision, and I was by the river Ulai. Then I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and behold, there 3 stood before the river a ram which had two horns: and the two horns were high; but one was higher than the other, and the higher came up last. I saw the ram pushing westward, and 4 northward, and southward; so that no beasts might stand before him, neither was there any that could deliver out of his hand; but he did according to his will, and became great. And 5 as I was considering, behold, a he-goat came from the west on the face of the whole earth, and touched not the ground: and the goat had a notable horn between his eyes. And he came 6 to the ram that had two horns, which I had seen standing before the river, and ran to him in the fury of his power. And I 7 saw him come close to the ram, and he was moved with anger against him, and smote the ram, and broke his two horns: and there was no power in the ram to stand before him, but he cast him down to the ground, and stamped upon him: and there was 8 none that could deliver the ram out of his hand. Therefore the he-goat became very great: and when he was strong, the great horn was broken; and in its stead came up four notable ones towards the four winds of heaven. And out of one of them came 9 forth a little horn, which became exceeding great, towards the south, and towards the east, and towards the pleasant land.
And it grew great, even to the host of heaven; and it cast down 10 some of the host and of the stars to the ground, and stamped upon them. Yes, he magnified himself even to the prince of 11 the host, and by him the daily sacrifice was taken away, and the place of his sanctuary was cast down. And a host was 12 given him against the daily sacrifice by reason of transgression, and it cast down the truth to the ground; and it practiced, and prospered. Then I heard one saint speaking, and another 13 saint said to that certain saint who spoke, How long shall be the vision concerning the daily sacrifice, and the transgression of desolation, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot? And he said to me, Until two thousand 14 and three hundred days; then shall the sanctuary be cleansed.

15 And it came to pass, when I, even I Daniel, had seen the vision, and sought for the meaning, then behold, there stood before 16 me as the appearance of a man. And I heard a man's voice between the banks of Ulai, which called, and said, Gabriel, make 17 this man to understand the vision. So he came near where I stood: and when he came, I was afraid, and fell upon my face: but he said to me, Understand, O son of man: for at the time 18 of the end shall be the vision. Now as he was speaking with me, I was in a deep sleep on my face towards the ground: but 19 he touched me, and set me upright. And he said, Behold, I will make thee know what shall be in the last end of the indignation: 20 for at the time appointed the end shall be. The ram which thou sawest having two horns are the kings of Media 21 and Persia. And the rough goat is the king of Grecia: and the 22 great horn that is between his eyes is the first king. Now that being broken, whereas four stood up in its place, four kingdoms 23 shall stand up out of the nation, but not in his power. And in the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors are come to the full, a king of fierce countenance, and understanding 24 dark sentences, shall stand up. And his power shall be mighty, but not by his own power: and he shall destroy wonderfully, and shall prosper, and practice, and shall destroy the 25 mighty and the holy people. And through his policy also he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand; and he shall magnify himself in his heart, and by peace shall destroy many: he shall also stand up against the Prince of princes; but he shall be 26 broken without hand. And the vision of the evening and the morning which was told is true: wherefore shut thou up the vision; 27 for it shall be for many days. And I Daniel fainted, and was sick certain days; afterward I rose, and did the king's business; and I was astonished at the vision, but none understood it.

9 In the first year of Darius the son of Ahasuerus, of the seed of the Medes, who was made king over the realm of the 2 Chaldeans; In the first year of his reign, I Daniel understood by books the number of the years, concerning which the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah the prophet, that he would accomplish 3 seventy years in the desolations of Jerusalem. And I set my face to the Lord GOD, to seek by prayer and supplications, with fasting, and sackcloth, and ashes: And I prayed 4 to the LORD my God, and made my confession, and said, O Lord, the great and dreadful God, keeping the covenant and mercy to them that love him, and to them that keep his commandments; We have sinned, and have committed iniquity, 5 and have done wickedly, and have rebelled, even by departing from thy precepts and from thy judgments: Neither have 6 we hearkened to thy servants the prophets, who spoke in thy name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land. O Lord, righteousness belongeth to thee, 7 but to us confusion of faces, as at this day; to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to all Israel, that are near, and that are far off, through all the countries whither thou hast driven them, because of their trespass that they have trespassed against thee. O Lord, to us belongeth 8 confusion of face, to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against thee. To the Lord our 9 God belong mercies and forgivenesses, though we have rebelled against him; Neither have we obeyed the voice of the LORD 10 our God, to walk in his laws, which he set before us by his servants the prophets. And all Israel have transgressed thy law, 11 even by departing, that they might not obey thy voice; therefore the curse is poured upon us, and the oath that is written in the law of Moses the servant of God, because we have sinned against him. And he hath confirmed his words, which 12 he spoke against us, and against our judges that judged us, by bringing upon us a great evil: for under the whole heaven it hath not been done as it hath been done upon Jerusalem. As 13 it is written in the law of Moses, all this evil is come upon us: yet we have not made our prayer before the LORD our God, that we might turn from our iniquities, and understand thy truth. Therefore hath the LORD watched upon the evil, and 14 brought it upon us: for the LORD our God is righteous in all his works which he doeth: for we have not obeyed his voice.

And now, O LORD our God, that hast brought thy people out 15 of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and hast obtained thee renown, as at this day; we have sinned, we have done wickedly. O LORD, according to all thy righteousness, I be- 16 seech thee, let thy anger and thy fury be turned away from thy city Jerusalem, thy holy mountain: because for our sins and for the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and thy people have become a reproach to all that are about us. Now therefore, O our God, hear the prayer of thy servant, and his supplications, and cause thy face to shine upon thy sanctuary that is desolate, for the LORD'S sake. O my God, incline thy ear, and hear; open thy eyes, and behold our desolations, and the city which is called by thy name: for we do not present our supplications before thee for our righteousnesses, but for thy great mercies. O Lord, hear; O Lord, forgive; O Lord, hearken and do; defer not, for thy own sake, O my God: for thy city and thy people are called by thy name. And while I was speaking, and praying, and confessing my sin, and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my supplication before the LORD my God for the holy mountain of my God; Yes, while I was speaking in prayer, even the man Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, being caused to fly swiftly, touched me about the time of the evening oblation. And he informed me, and talked with me, and said, O Daniel, I am now come forth to give thee skill and understanding. At the beginning of thy supplications the commandment came forth, and I am come to show thee; for thou art greatly beloved: therefore understand the matter, and consider the vision. Seventy weeks are determined upon thy people and upon thy holy city to finish the transgression, and to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the vision and prophecy, and to anoint the most Holy. Know therefore and understand, that from the going forth of the commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem to the Messiah the Prince shall be seven weeks, and sixty and two weeks: the street shall be built again, and the wall, even in troublous times. And after sixty and two weeks shall Messiah be cut off, but not for himself: and the people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and its end shall be with a flood, and to the end of the war desolations are determined. And he shall confirm the covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, and for the overspreading of abominations, he shall make it desolate, even until the consummation, and that determined shall be poured upon the desolate.

In the third year of Cyrus king of Persia, a thing was revealed to Daniel, whose name was called Belteshazzar; and the thing was true, but the time appointed was long: and he understood the thing, and had understanding of the vision. In those 2 days I Daniel was mourning three full weeks. I ate no pleasant bread, neither came flesh nor wine in my mouth, neither did I anoint myself at all, till three whole weeks were fulfilled. And in the four and twentieth day of the first month, as I was by the side of the great river, which is Hiddekel; Then I lifted up my eyes, and looked, and behold a certain man clothed in linen, whose loins were girded with fine gold of Uphaz: His body also was like the beryl, and his face as the appearance of lightning, and his eyes as lamps of fire, and his arms and his feet like in color to polished brass, and the voice of his words like the voice of a multitude. And I Daniel alone saw the vision: for the men that were with me saw not the vision: but a great quaking fell upon them, so that they fled to hide themselves. Therefore I was left alone, and saw this great vision, and there remained no strength in me: for my comeliness was turned in me into corruption, and I retained no strength. Yet I heard the voice of his words: and when I heard the voice of his words, then I was in a deep sleep on my face, and my face toward the ground. And behold, a hand touched me, which set me upon my knees and upon the palms of my hands. And he said to me, O Daniel, a man greatly beloved, understand the words that I speak to thee, and stand upright: for to thee I am now sent. And when he had spoken this word to me, I stood trembling. Then said he to me, Fear not, Daniel: for from the first day that thou didst set thy heart to understand, and to chasten thyself before thy God, thy words were heard, and I am come for thy words. But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me one and twenty days: but lo, Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me; and I remained there with the kings of Persia. Now I have come to make thee understand what shall befall thy people in the latter days: for yet the vision is for many days. And when he had spoken such words to me, I set my face towards the ground, and I became dumb. And behold, one like the similitude of the sons of men touched my lips: then I opened my mouth, and spoke, and said to him that stood before me, O my lord, by the vision my 10

- sorrows are turned upon me, and I have retained no strength.
- 17 For how can the servant of this my lord talk with this my lord? for as for me, immediately there remained no strength in me, 18 neither is there breath left in me. Then there came again and touched me one like the appearance of a man, and he strength-19 ened me, And said, O man greatly beloved, fear not: peace be to thee, be strong, yes, be strong. And when he had spoken to me, I was strengthened, and said, Let my lord speak; for thou 20 hast strengthened me. Then said he, Knowest thou for what cause I come to thee? and now will I return to fight with the prince of Persia: and when I am gone forth, lo, the prince of 21 Grecia shall come. But I will show thee that which is noted in the scripture of truth: and there is none that holdeth with me in these things, but Michael your prince.
- 11 Also I, in the first year of Darius the Mede, even I, stood to 2 confirm and to strengthen him. And now will I show thee the truth. Behold, there shall stand up yet three kings in Persia; and the fourth shall be far richer than they all: and by his strength through his riches he shall stir up all against 3 the realm of Grecia. And a mighty king shall stand up, that shall rule with great dominion, and do according to his will.
4 And when he shall stand up, his kingdom shall be broken, and shall be divided towards the four winds of heaven; and not to his posterity, nor according to his dominion which he ruled: for his kingdom shall be plucked up, even for others beside 5 those. And the king of the south shall be strong, and one of his princes; and he shall be strong above him, and have do-6 minion; his dominion shall be a great dominion. And in the end of years they shall join themselves together; for the king's daughter of the south shall come to the king of the north to make an agreement: but she shall not retain the power of the arm; neither shall he stand, nor his arm: but she shall be given up, and they that brought her, and he that begat her, and he 7 that strengthened her in these times. But out of a branch of her roots shall one stand up in his estate, who shall come with an army, and shall enter into the fortress of the king of the north, and shall deal against them, and shall prevail: 8 And shall also carry captives into Egypt their gods, with their princes, and with their precious vessels of silver and of gold; and he shall continue more years than the king of the north.

So the king of the south shall come into his kingdom, and shall 9 return into his own land. But his sons shall be stirred up, 10 and shall assemble a multitude of great forces: and one shall certainly come, and overflow, and pass through: then shall he return, and be stirred up, even to his fortress. And the king of 11 the south shall be moved with wrath, and shall come forth and fight with him, even with the king of the north: and he shall set forth a great multitude; but the multitude shall be given into his hand. And when he hath taken away the multitude, his 12 heart shall be lifted up; and he shall cast down many ten thousands: but he shall not be strengthened by it. For the king of 13 the north shall return, and shall set forth a multitude greater than the former, and shall certainly come after certain years with a great army and with much riches. And in those times 14 there shall many stand up against the king of the south: also the robbers of thy people shall exalt themselves to establish the vision; but they shall fall. So the king of the north shall come, 15 and cast up a mount, and take the most fortified cities: and the arms of the south shall not withstand, neither his chosen people, neither shall there be any strength to withstand. But he 16 that cometh against him shall do according to his own will, and none shall stand before him: and he shall stand in the glorious land, which by his hand shall be consumed. He shall also set 17 his face to enter with the strength of his whole kingdom, and upright ones with him; thus shall he do: and he shall give him the daughter of women, corrupting her: but she shall not stand on his side, neither be for him. After this shall he turn his face 18 to the isles, and shall take many: but a prince for his own behalf shall cause the reproach offered by him to cease; without his own reproach he shall cause it to turn upon him. Then 19 he shall turn his face towards the fort of his own land: but he shall stumble and fall, and not be found. Then shall stand up 20 in his estate a raiser of taxes in the glory of the kingdom: but within few days he shall be destroyed, neither in anger, nor in battle. And in his estate shall stand up a vile person, to whom 21 they shall not give the honor of the kingdom: but he shall come in peaceably, and obtain the kingdom by flatteries. And with 22 the arms of a flood shall they be overflowed from before him, and shall be broken; yes, also the prince of the covenant. And 23 after the league made with him he shall work deceitfully: for he shall come up, and shall become strong with a small people. He shall enter peaceably even upon the fattest places of the province; and he shall do that which his fathers have not done, nor his fathers' fathers; he shall scatter among them the prey, and spoil, and riches: yes, and he shall forecast his devices against the strong holds, even for a time. And he shall stir up his power and his courage against the king of the south with a great army; and the king of the south shall be stirred up to battle with a very great and mighty army; but he shall not stand: for they shall forecast devices against him. Yes, they that feed of the portion of his provisions shall destroy him, and his army shall overflow: and many shall fall down slain. And both these kings hearts shall be to do mischief, and they shall speak lies at one table; but it shall not prosper: for yet the end shall be at the time appointed. Then shall he return into his land with great riches; and his heart shall be against the holy covenant; and he shall do exploits, and return to his own land. At the time appointed he shall return, and come towards the south; but it shall not be as the former, or as the latter. For the ships of Chittim shall come against him: therefore he shall be grieved, and return, and have indignation against the holy covenant: so shall he do; he shall even return, and have intelligence with them that forsake the holy covenant. And arms shall stand on his part, and they shall pollute the sanctuary of strength, and shall take away the daily sacrifice, and they shall place the abomination that maketh desolate. And such as do wickedly against the covenant shall he corrupt by flatteries: but the people that know their God shall be strong, and do exploits. And they that understand among the people shall instruct many: yet they shall fall by the sword, and by flame, by captivity, and by spoil, many days. Now when they shall fall, they shall be assisted with a little help: but many shall cleave to them with flatteries. And some of them of understanding shall fall, to try them, and to purge, and to make them white, even to the time of the end: because it is yet for a time appointed. And the king shall do according to his will; and he shall exalt himself, and magnify himself above every god, and shall speak marvelous things against the God of gods, and shall prosper till the indignation be accomplished: for that which is determined shall be done. Neither shall he regard the God of his fathers, nor the desire of women, nor regard any god: for he shall magnify himself above all. But in his estate shall he honor the God of forces: and a god whom his fathers knew not shall he honor with gold, and silver, and with precious stones, and pleasant things. Thus shall he do in the most strong holds with a strange god, whom he shall acknowledge and increase with glory: and he shall cause them to rule over many, and shall divide the land for gain. And at the time of the end shall the king of the south push at him: and the king of the north shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the countries, and shall overflow and pass over. He shall enter also into the glorious land, and many countries shall be overthrown: but these shall escape out of his hand, even Edom, and Moab, and the chief of the children of Ammon. He shall stretch forth his hand also upon the countries: and the land of Egypt shall not escape. But he shall have power over the treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt: and the Libyans and the Cushites shall be at his steps. But tidings out of the east and out of the north shall trouble him: therefore he shall go forth with great fury to destroy, and utterly to make away many. And he shall plant the tabernacles of his palace between the seas in the glorious holy mountain: yet he shall come to his end, and none shall help him.

And at that time shall Michael stand up, the great prince who standeth for the children of thy people: and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time: and at that time thy people shall be delivered, every one that shall be found written in the book. And many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt. And they that are wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever. But thou, O Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book, even to the time of the end: many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased. Then I Daniel looked, and behold, there stood other two, the one on this side of the bank of the river, and the other on that side of the bank of the river. And one said to the man clothed in linen, who was upon the waters of the river, How 7 long shall it be to the end of these wonders? And I heard the man clothed in linen, who was upon the waters of the river, when he held up his right hand and his left hand to heaven, and swore by him that liveth for ever, that it shall be for a time, times, and a half; and when he shall have accomplished to scatter the power of the holy people, all these things shall 8 be finished. And I heard, but I understood not: then said I, O 9 my Lord, what shall be the end of these things? And he said, Go thy way Daniel: for the words are closed up and sealed till 10 the time of the end. Many shall be purified, and made white, and tried; but the wicked shall do wickedly: and none of the 11 wicked shall understand; but the wise shall understand. And from the time that the daily sacrifice shall be taken away, and the abomination that maketh desolate set up, there shall be 12 a thousand two hundred and ninety days. Blessed is he that waiteth, and cometh to the thousand three hundred and five 13 and thirty days. But go thou thy way till the end: for thou shalt rest, and stand in thy lot at the end of the days.

HOSEA.

Hhe word of the LORD that came to Hosea, the son 1 of Beeri, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of Jer- 2 oboam the son of Joash, king of Israel. The beginning of the word of the LORD by Hosea. And the LORD said to Hosea, Go take to thee a wife addicted to lewdness and children of lewdness; for the land hath committed great lewdness, departing from the LORD. So he went and took Gomer the 3 daughter of Diblaim; who conceived, and bore him a son. And 4 the LORD said to him, Call his name Jezreel; for yet a little while, and I will avenge the blood of Jezreel upon the house of Jehu, and will cause to cease the kingdom of the house of Israel. And it shall come to pass at that day, that I will break 5 the bow of Israel in the valley of Jezreel. And she conceived 6 again, and bore a daughter. And God said to him, Call her name Lo-ruhamah: for I will no more have mercy upon the house of Israel; but I will utterly take them away. But I will 7 have mercy upon the house of Judah, and will save them by the LORD their God, and will not save them by bow, nor by sword, nor by battle, by horses, nor by horsemen. Now when 8 she had weaned Lo-ruhamah, she conceived, and bore a son.
Then said God, Call his name Lo-ammi: for ye are not my peo- 9 ple, and I will not be your God. Yet the number of the children 10 of Israel shall be as the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured nor numbered; and it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said to them, Ye are not my people, there it shall be said to them, Ye are the sons of the living God. Then shall 11 the children of Judah and the children of Israel be assembled, and appoint themselves one head, and they shall come up from the land: for great shall be the day of Jezreel.

Say ye to your brethren, Ammi; and to your sisters, Ruhamah 2 Plead with your mother, plead: for she is not my wife, neither am I her husband: let her therefore put away her prostitutions out of her sight, and her adulteries from between her breasts; Lest I strip her naked, and set her as in the day that she was 3 born, and make her as a wilderness, and set her like a dry 4 land, and kill her with thirst. And I will not have mercy upon 5 her children; for they are the children of lewdness. For their mother hath played the harlot: she that conceived them hath done shamefully: for she said, I will go after my lovers, that give me my bread and my water, my wool and my flax, my 6 oil and my drink. Therefore, behold, I will hedge up thy way with thorns, and make a wall, that she shall not find her paths.

7 And she shall follow after her lovers, but she shall not overtake them; and she shall seek them, but shall not find them: then shall she say, I will go and return to my first husband; for then 8 was it better with me than now. For she did not know that I gave her corn, and wine, and oil, and multiplied her silver 9 and gold, which they prepared for Baal. Therefore will I return, and take away my corn in its time, and my wine in its season, and I will recover my wool and my flax given to cover 10 her nakedness. And now will I disclose her lewdness in the sight of her lovers, and none shall deliver her out of my hand.
11 I will also cause all her mirth to cease, her feast days, her new 12 moons, and her sabbaths, and all her solemn feasts. And I will destroy her vines and her fig-trees, of which she hath said, These are my rewards that my lovers have given me: and I will make them a forest, and the beasts of the field shall eat 13 them. And I will visit upon her the days of Baalim, in which she burned incense to them, and she decked herself with her ear-rings and her jewels, and she went after her lovers, and 14 forgot me, saith the LORD. Therefore, behold, I will allure her, and bring her into the wilderness, and speak comfortably 15 to her. And I will give her her vineyards from thence, and the valley of Achor for a door of hope: and she shall sing there, as in the days of her youth, and as in the day when she came from 16 the land of Egypt. And it shall be at that day, saith the LORD, that thou shalt call me Ishi; and shalt call me no more Baali.
17 For I will take away the names of Baalim out of her mouth, 18 and they shall no more be remembered by their name. And in that day will I make a covenant for them with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven, and with the creeping animals of the ground: and I will break the bow and the sword and the battle out of the earth, and will make them to lie down 19 in safety. And I will betroth thee to me for ever; yes, I will betroth thee to me in righteousness, and in judgment, and in loving-kindness, and in mercies. I will even betroth thee to me in faithfulness: and thou shalt know the LORD. And it shall come to pass in that day, I will hear, saith the LORD, I will hear the heavens, and they shall hear the earth; And the earth shall hear the corn, and the wine, and the oil; and they shall hear Jezreel. And I will sow her to me in the earth; and I will have mercy upon her that had not obtained mercy; and I will say to them who were not my people, Thou art my people; and they shall say, Thou art my God.

Then said the LORD to me, Go yet, love a woman beloved by her friend, yet an adulteress, according to the love of the LORD towards the children of Israel, who look to other gods, and love flagons of wine. So I bought her to me for fifteen pieces of silver, and for a homer of barley, and a half homer of barley: And I said to her, Thou shalt abide for me many days; thou shalt not play the harlot, and thou shalt not be for another man: so will I also be for thee. For the children of Israel shall abide many days without a king and without a prince, and without a sacrifice, and without an image, and without an ephod, and without teraphim: Afterward shall the children of Israel return, and seek the LORD their God, and David their king; and shall fear the LORD and his goodness in the latter days.

Hear the word of the LORD, ye children of Israel: for the LORD hath a controversy with the inhabitants of the land, because there is no truth, nor mercy, nor knowledge of God in the land. By swearing, and lying, and killing, and stealing, and committing adultery, they break out, and blood toucheth blood. Therefore shall the land mourn, and every one that dwelleth in it shall languish, with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven; yes, the fishes of the sea also shall be taken away. Yet let no man contend, nor reprove another: for thy people are as they that contend with the priest. Therefore shalt thou fall in the day, and the prophet also shall fall with thee in the night, and I will destroy thy mother. My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children. As they were increased, so they sinned against me: therefore will I change their glory into shame. They eat up the sin of my people, and they set their

9 heart on their iniquity. And there shall be, like people, like priest: and I will punish them for their ways, and reward them 10 their doings. For they shall eat, and not have enough: they shall be guilty of lewdness, and shall not increase: because 11 they have ceased to take heed to the LORD. Lewdness and 12 wine and new wine take away the heart. My people ask counsel at their stocks, and their staff declareth to them: for the spirit of lewdness hath caused them to err, and they have gone 13 astray from under their God. They sacrifice upon the tops of the mountains, and burn incense upon the hills, under oaks and poplars and elms, because the shade of them is agreeable: therefore your daughters shall be guilty of lewdness, and your 14 spouses shall commit adultery. I will not punish your daughters when they are guilty of lewdness, nor your spouses when they commit adultery: for they themselves are separated with prostitutes, and they sacrifice with harlots: therefore the people 15 that doth not understand shall fall. Though thou, Israel, playest the harlot, yet let not Judah offend; and come not ye to Gilgal, neither go ye up to Beth-aven, nor swear, The LORD 16 liveth. For Israel slideth back as a backsliding heifer: now the 17 LORD will feed them as a lamb in a large place. Ephraim is 18 joined to idols: let him alone. Their drink is sour: they have been guilty of lewd deeds continually: her rulers with shame 19 do love, Give ye. The wind hath bound her up in her wings, and they shall be ashamed because of their sacrifices.

5 Hear ye this, O priests; and hearken, ye house of Israel; and give ye ear, O house of the king; for judgment is towards you, because ye have been a snare on Mizpah, and a net spread 2 upon Tabor. And the revolters are profound to make slaughter, 3 though I have been a rebuker of them all. I know Ephraim, and Israel is not hid from me: for now, O Ephraim, thou art 4 guilty of lewdness, and Israel is defiled. They will not frame their doings to turn to their God: for the spirit of lewdness is 5 the midst of them, and they have not known the LORD. And the pride of Israel doth testify to his face: therefore shall Israel and Ephraim fall in their iniquity; Judah also shall fall 6 with them. They shall go with their flocks and with their herds to seek the LORD; but they shall not find him; he hath 7 withdrawn himself from them. They have dealt treacherously against the LORD: for they have begotten strange children:

now shall a month devour them with their portions. Blow ye 8 the cornet in Gibeah, and the trumpet in Ramah: cry aloud at Beth-aven, after thee, O Benjamin. Ephraim shall be des- 9 olate in the day of rebuke: among the tribes of Israel have I made known that which shall surely be. The princes of Judah 10 were like them that remove the bound: therefore I will pour out my wrath upon them like water. Ephraim is oppressed 11 and broken in judgment, because he willingly walked after the commandment. Therefore will I be to Ephraim as a moth, and 12 to the house of Judah as rottenness. When Ephraim saw his 13 sickness, and Judah saw his wound, then Ephraim went to the Assyrian, and sent to king Jareb: yet he could not heal you, nor cure you of your wound. For I will be to Ephraim as a 14 lion, and as a young lion to the house of Judah: I, even I, will tear and go away; I will take away, and none shall rescue him.
I will go and return to my place, till they acknowledge their 15 offense, and seek my face: in their affliction they will seek me early.

Come, and let us return to the LORD: for he hath torn, and 6 he will heal us; he hath smitten, and he will bind us up. Af- 2 ter two days will he revive us: in the third day will he raise us up, and we shall live in his sight. Then shall we know, if 3 we follow on to know the LORD: his going forth is prepared as the morning; and he will come to us as the rain, as the latter and former rain to the earth. O Ephraim, what shall I 4 do to thee? O Judah, what shall I do to thee? for your goodness is as the morning cloud, and as the early dew it goeth away. Therefore have I hewed them by the prophets; I have 5 slain them by the words of my mouth: and thy judgments are as the light that goeth forth. For I desired mercy, and not 6 sacrifice: and the knowledge of God more than burnt-offerings.
But they like men have transgressed the covenant: there have 7 they dealt treacherously against me. Gilead is a city of them 8 that work iniquity, and is polluted with blood. And as troops 9 of robbers wait for a man, so the company of priests murder in the way by consent: for they commit lewdness. I have seen a 10 horrible thing in the house of Israel: there is the prostitution of Ephraim, Israel is defiled. Also, O Judah, he hath set a 11 harvest for thee, when I returned the captivity of my people.

When I would have healed Israel, then the iniquity of Ephraim 7 was disclosed, and the wickedness of Samaria: for they commit falsehood; and the thief cometh in, and the troop of robbers 2 strippeth without. And they consider not in their hearts that I remember all their wickedness: now their own doings have 3 beset them around; they are before my face. They make the king glad with their wickedness, and the princes with their 4 lies. They are all adulterers, as an oven heated by the baker, who ceaseth from raising after he hath kneaded the dough, 5 until it is leavened. In the day of our king the princes have made him sick with bottles of wine; he stretched out his hand 6 with scorers. For they have made ready their heart like an oven, while they lie in wait: their baker sleepeth all the 7 night; in the morning it burneth as a flaming fire. They are all hot as an oven, and have devoured their judges; all their kings are fallen: there is none among them that calleth to me.

8 Ephraim, he hath mixed himself among the people; Ephraim 9 is a cake not turned. Strangers have devoured his strength, and he knoweth it not: yes, gray hairs are here and there upon 10 him, yet he knoweth not. And the pride of Israel testifieth to his face: and they do not return to the LORD their God, nor 11 seek him for all this. Ephraim also is like a silly dove without 12 heart: they call to Egypt, they go to Assyria. When they shall go, I will spread my net upon them; I will bring them down as the fowls of the heaven; I will chastise them, as their congrega-13 tion hath heard. Woe to them! for they have fled from me: destruction to them! because they have transgressed against me: though I have redeemed them, yet they have spoken lies 14 against me. And they have not cried to me with their heart, when they howled upon their beds: they assemble themselves 15 for corn and wine, and they rebel against me. Though I have bound and strengthened their arms, yet do they imagine mis-16 chief against me. They return, but not to the most High: they are like a deceitful bow: their princes shall fall by the sword for the rage of their tongue: this shall be their derision in the land of Egypt.

8 Set the trumpet to thy mouth. He shall come as an eagle against the house of the LORD, because they have trans-2 gressed my covenant, and trespassed against my law. Israel 3 shall cry to me, My God, we know thee. Israel hath cast off 4 the thing that is good: the enemy shall pursue him. They have set up kings, but not by me: they have made princes, and I knew it not: of their silver and their gold have they made for themselves idols, that they may be cut off. Thy calf, O 5 Samaria, hath cast thee off; my anger is kindled against them: how long will it be ere they attain to innocence? For from 6 Israel was it also: the workman made it; therefore it is not God: but the calf of Samaria shall be broken in pieces. For 7 they have sown the wind, and they shall reap the whirlwind: it hath no stalk: the bud shall yield no meal: if it shall yield, the strangers shall swallow it up. Israel is swallowed up: now 8 shall they be among the Gentiles as a vessel in which is no pleasure. For they have gone up to Assyria, a wild ass alone 9 by himself: Ephraim hath hired lovers. Yes, though they have 10 hired among the nations, now will I gather them, and they shall sorrow a little for the burden of the king of princes. Be- 11 cause Ephraim hath made many altars to sin, altars shall be to him to sin. I have written to him the great things of my 12 law, but they were counted as a strange thing. They sacrifice 13 flesh for the sacrifices of my offerings, and eat it; but the LORD accepteth them not; now will he remember their iniquity, and visit their sins: they shall return to Egypt. For Israel hath 14 forgotten his Maker, and buildeth temples; and Judah hath multiplied fortified cities: but I will send a fire upon his cities, and it shall devour the palaces thereof.

Rejoice not, O Israel, for joy, as other people: for thou hast 9 apostatized from thy God, thou hast loved a reward upon every corn-floor. The floor and the wine-press shall not feed them, 2 and the new wine shall fail in her. They shall not dwell in 3 the LORD'S land; but Ephraim shall return to Egypt, and they shall eat unclean things in Assyria. They shall not offer wine 4 -offerings to the LORD, neither shall they be pleasing to him: their sacrifices shall be to them as the bread of mourners; all that eat of it shall be polluted: for their bread for their soul shall not come into the house of the LORD. What will ye do in 5 the solemn day, and in the day of the feast of the LORD? For 6 lo, they are gone because of destruction: Egypt shall gather them up, Memphis shall bury them: the pleasant places for their silver, nettles shall possess them: thorns shall be in their 7 tabernacles. The days of visitation are come, the days of recompense are come; Israel shall know it: the prophet is a fool, the spiritual man is mad, for the multitude of thy iniquity, and 8 the great hatred. The watchman of Ephraim was with my God: but the prophet is a snare of a fowler in all his ways, and 9 hatred in the house of his God. They have deeply corrupted themselves, as in the days of Gibeah: therefore he will remem-10 ber their iniquity, he will visit their sins. I found Israel like grapes in the wilderness; I saw your fathers as the first ripe in the fig-tree at her first time: but they went to Baal-peor, and separated themselves to that shame; and their abominations 11 were according as they loved. As for Ephraim, their glory shall fly away like a bird, from the birth, and from the womb, 12 and from the conception. Though they bring up their children, yet will I bereave them, that there shall not be a man left: yes, 13 woe also to them when I depart from them! Ephraim, as I saw Tyre, is planted in a pleasant place: but Ephraim shall 14 bring forth his children to the murderer. Give them, O LORD: what wilt thou give? give them a miscarrying womb and dry 15 breasts. All their wickedness is in Gilgal: for there I hated them: for the wickedness of their doings I will drive them out of my house, I will love them no more: all their princes are re-16 volters. Ephraim is smitten, their root is dried up, they shall bear no fruit: yes, though they bring forth, yet will I slay even 17 the beloved fruit of their womb. My God will cast them away, because they did not hearken to him: and they shall be wanderers among the nations.

10 Israel is an empty vine, he bringeth forth fruit to himself: according to the multitude of his fruit he hath multiplied the altars; according to the goodness of his land they have made 2 goodly images. Their heart is divided; now shall they be found faulty: he shall break down their altars, he shall spoil their 3 images. For now they shall say, We have no king, because we 4 feared not the LORD; what then should a king do to us? They have spoken words, swearing falsely in making a covenant: thus judgment springeth up as hemlock in the furrows of the 5 field. The inhabitants of Samaria shall fear because of the calves of Beth-aven: for its people shall mourn over it, and its priests that rejoiced on it, for its glory, because it is departed 6 from it. It shall also be carried to Assyria, for a present to king Jareb: Ephraim shall receive shame, and Israel shall be 7 ashamed of his own counsel. As for Samaria, her king is cut off as the foam upon the water. The high places also of Aven, 8 the sin of Israel, shall be destroyed: the thorn and the thistle shall come up on their altars; and they shall say to the mountains, Cover us; and to the hills, Fall on us. O Israel, thou 9 hast sinned from the days of Gibeah: there they stood: the battle in Gibeah against the children of iniquity did not overtake them. It is in my desire that I should chastise them; and 10 the people shall be gathered against them, when they shall bind themselves in their two furrows. And Ephraim is as a 11 heifer that is taught, and loveth to tread out the corn; but I passed over upon her fair neck: I will make Ephraim to ride; Judah shall plow, and Jacob shall break his clods. Sow to 12 yourselves in righteousness, reap in mercy; break up your fallow ground: for it is time to seek the LORD, till he shall come and reign righteousness upon you. Ye have plowed wicked- 13 ness, ye have reaped iniquity; ye have eaten the fruit of lies: because thou hast trusted in thy way, in the multitude of thy mighty men. Therefore shall a tumult arise among thy peo- 14 ple, and all thy fortresses shall be plundered, as Shalman plundered Beth-arbel in the day of battle: the mother was dashed in pieces upon her children. So shall Beth-el do to you because 15 of your great wickedness: in a morning shall the king of Israel be utterly cut off.

When Israel was a child, then I loved him, and called my son 11 out of Egypt. As they called them, so they went from them: 2 they sacrificed to Baalim, and burned incense to graven images. I taught Ephraim also to go, taking them by their arms; 3 but they knew not that I healed them. I drew them with cords 4 of a man, with bands of love: and I was to them as they that take off the yoke on their jaws, and I laid food for them. He 5 shall not return into the land of Egypt, but the Assyrian shall be his king, because they refused to return. And the sword 6 shall abide on his cities, and shall consume his branches, and devour them, because of their own counsels. And my people 7 are bent to backsliding from me: though they called them to the most High, none at all would exalt him. How shall I give 8 thee up, Ephraim? how shall I deliver thee, Israel? how shall I make thee as Admah? how shall I set thee as Zeboim? my heart is turned within me, my repentings are kindled together.
I will not execute the fierceness of my anger, I will not return to 9 destroy Ephraim: for I am God, and not man; the Holy One in 10 the midst of thee: and I will not enter into the city. They shall walk after the LORD: he shall roar like a lion: when he shall roar, then the children shall tremble from the west.

11 They shall tremble as a bird out of Egypt, and as a dove out of the land of Assyria: and I will place them in their houses, 12 saith the LORD. Ephraim encompasseth me with lies, and the house of Israel with deceit: but Judah yet ruleth with God, and is faithful with the saints.

12 Ephraim feedeth on wind, and followeth after the east wind: he daily multiplieth lies and desolation; and they do make a covenant with the Assyrians, and oil is carried into Egypt.
2 The LORD hath also a controversy with Judah, and will punish Jacob according to his ways; according to his doings will he 3 recompense him. He took his brother by the heel in the womb, 4 and by his strength he had power with God: Yes, he had power over the angel, and prevailed: he wept, and made supplication to him: he found him in Beth-el, and there he spoke with 5 us; Even the LORD God of hosts; the LORD is his memorial.
6 Therefore turn thou to thy God: keep mercy and judgment, and 7 wait on thy God continually. He is a merchant, the balances 8 of deceit are in his hand: he loveth to oppress. And Ephraim said, Yet I have become rich, I have found for myself substance: in all my labors they shall find no iniquity in me that were sin.
9 And I that am the LORD thy God from the land of Egypt will yet make thee to dwell in tabernacles, as in the days of the 10 solemn feast. I have also spoken by the prophets, and I have multiplied visions, and used similitudes by the ministry of the 11 prophets. Is there iniquity in Gilead? surely they are vanity: they sacrifice bullocks in Gilgal; yes, their altars are as heaps 12 in the furrows of the fields. And Jacob fled into the country of Syria, and Israel served for a wife, and for a wife he kept sheep.
13 And by a prophet the LORD brought Israel out of Egypt, and by 14 a prophet was he preserved. Ephraim provoked him to anger most bitterly: therefore will he leave his blood upon him, and his reproach will his Lord return to him.

13 When Ephraim spoke trembling, he exalted himself in Is-2 rael; but when he offended in Baal, he died. And now they sin more and more, and have made them molten images of their silver, and idols according to their own understanding, all of it the work of artificers: they say of them, Let the men that sacrifice kiss the calves. Therefore they shall be as the morning 3 cloud, and as the early dew that passeth away, as the chaff that is driven with the whirlwind from the floor, and as the smoke from the chimney. Yet I am the LORD thy God from the land 4 of Egypt, and thou shalt know no God but me: for there is no savior besides me. I did know thee in the wilderness, in the 5 land of great drouth. According to their pasture, so were they 6 filled; they were filled, and their heart was exalted; therefore have they forgotten me. Therefore I will be to them as a lion: 7 as a leopard by the way will I observe them. I will meet them 8 as a bear that is bereaved of her whelps, and will rend the caul of their heart, and there will I devour them like a lion: the wild beast shall tear them. O Israel, thou hast destroyed thyself; 9 but in me is thy help. I will be thy king: where is any other 10 that may save thee in all thy cities? and thy judges of whom thou saidst, Give me a king and princes? I gave thee a king 11 in my anger, and took him away in my wrath. The iniquity 12 of Ephraim is bound up; his sin is hid. The sorrows of a tra- 13 vailing woman shall come upon him: he is an unwise son; for he should not stay long in the place of the breaking forth of children. I will ransom them from the power of the grave; I 14 will redeem them from death: O death, I will be thy plagues, O grave, I will be thy destruction: repentance shall be hid from my eyes. Though he is fruitful among his brethren, an east 15 wind shall come, the wind of the LORD shall come up from the wilderness, and his spring shall become dry, and his fountain shall be dried up: he shall pillage the treasure of all pleasant vessels. Samaria shall become desolate; for she hath rebelled 16 against her God: they shall fall by the sword: their infants shall be dashed in pieces, and their women with child shall be ripped up.

O Israel, return to the LORD thy God; for thou hast fallen 14 by thy iniquity. Take with you words, and turn to the LORD: 2 say to him, Take away all iniquity, and receive us graciously: so will we render the calves of our lips. Ashur shall not save 3 us; we will not ride upon horses: neither will we say any more to the work of our hands, Ye are our gods: for in thee the fatherless findeth mercy. I will heal their backsliding, I will 4 love them freely: for my anger is turned away from him. I 5 will be as the dew to Israel: he shall grow as the lily and cast 6 forth his roots as Lebanon. His branches shall spread, and his beauty shall be as the olive-tree, and his smell as Lebanon.

7 They that dwell under his shade shall return; they shall revive as the corn, and grow as the vine: the scent of it shall be as the 8 wine of Lebanon. Ephraim shall say, What have I to do any more with idols? I have heard him, and observed him: I am 9 like a green fir-tree. From me is thy fruit found. Who is wise, and he shall understand these things? prudent, and he shall know them? for the ways of the LORD are right, and the just shall walk in them: but the transgressors shall fall in them.

JOEL.

Hhe word of the LORD that came to Joel the son of 1 Pethuel. Hear this, ye old men, and give ear, all ye 2 inhabitants of the land. Hath this been in your days, or even in the days of your fathers? Tell ye your 3 children of it, and let your children tell their children, and their children another generation. That which the palmer- 4 worm hath left hath the locust eaten; and that which the locust hath left hath the canker-worm eaten; and that which the canker-worm hath left hath the caterpillar eaten. Awake, ye 5 drunkards, and weep; and howl, all ye drinkers of wine, because of the new wine; for it is cut off from your mouth. For 6 a nation is come up upon my land, strong, and without number, whose teeth are the teeth of a lion, and he hath the cheek teeth of a great lion. He hath laid my vine waste, and barked 7 my fig-tree: he hath made it clean bare, and cast it away; its branches are made white. Lament like a virgin girded with 8 sackcloth for the husband of her youth. The meat-offering 9 and the drink-offering is cut off from the house of the LORD; the priests, the LORD'S ministers, mourn. The field is wasted, 10 the land mourneth; for the corn is wasted; the new wine is dried up, the oil languisheth. Be ye ashamed, O ye husband- 11 men; howl, O ye vine-dressers, for the wheat and for the barley; because the harvest of the field hath perished. The vine is 12 dried up, and the fig-tree languisheth; the pomegranate-tree, the palm-tree also, and the apple-tree, even all the trees of the field, are withered: because joy is withered away from the sons of men. Gird yourselves, and lament, ye priests: howl, ye 13 ministers of the altar: come, lie all night in sackcloth, ye ministers of my God: for the meat-offering and the drink-offering is withheld from the house of your God. Sanctify ye a fast, call 14 a solemn assembly, gather the elders and all the inhabitants of the land into the house of the LORD your God, and cry to the LORD, Alas for the day! for the day of the LORD is at hand, 15 and as a destruction from the Almighty shall it come. Is not the food cut off before our eyes, and joy and gladness from the house of our God? The seed hath perished under their clods, 17 the granaries are laid desolate, the barns are broken down; for 18 the corn is withered. How do the beasts groan! the herds of cattle are perplexed, because they have no pasture; yes, the 19 flocks of sheep are made desolate. O LORD, to thee will I cry: for the fire hath devoured the pastures of the wilderness, and 20 the flame hath burned all the trees of the field. The beasts of the field cry also to thee: for the rivers of waters are dried up, and the fire hath devoured the pastures of the wilderness.

2 Blow ye the trumpet in Zion, and sound an alarm in my holy mountain: let all the inhabitants of the land tremble: for the 2 day of the LORD cometh, for it is nigh at hand; A day of darkness and of gloominess, a day of clouds and of thick darkness, as the morning spread upon the mountains: a great people and a strong; there hath not been ever the like, neither shall 3 be any more after it, even to the years of many generations. A fire devoureth before them; and behind them a flame burneth: the land is as the garden of Eden before them, and behind them a desolate wilderness; and nothing shall escape them.
4 The appearance of them is as the appearance of horses; and as 5 horsemen, so shall they run. Like the noise of chariots on the tops of mountains shall they leap, like the noise of a flame of fire that devoureth the stubble, as a strong people set in bat-6 tle array. Before their face the people shall be much pained: 7 all faces shall gather blackness. They shall run like mighty men; they shall climb the wall like men of war; and they shall march every one on his ways, and they shall not break their 8 ranks: Neither shall one thrust another; they shall walk every one in his path: and when they fall upon the sword, they 9 shall not be wounded. They shall run to and fro in the city; they shall run upon the wall, they shall climb upon the houses; 10 they shall enter in at the windows like a thief. The earth shall quake before them; the heavens shall tremble: the sun and the moon shall be dark, and the stars shall withdraw their shin-11 ing: And the LORD will utter his voice before his army: for his camp is very great: for he is strong that executeth his word: for the day of the LORD is great and very terrible; and who can 12 abide it? Therefore also now, saith the LORD, Turn ye even to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weep-13 ing, and with mourning: And rend your heart, and not your garments, and turn to the LORD your God: for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repenteth of the evil. Who knoweth if he will return and repent, 14 and leave a blessing behind him; even a meat-offering and a drink-offering to the LORD your God? Blow the trumpet in 15 Zion, sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly: Gather the people, 16 sanctify the congregation, assemble the elders, gather the children, and those that suck the breasts: let the bridegroom go forth from his chamber, and the bride out of her closet. Let 17 the priests, the ministers of the LORD, weep between the porch and the altar, and let them say, Spare thy people, O LORD, and give not thy heritage to reproach, that the heathen should rule over them: why should they say among the people, Where is their God? Then will the LORD be jealous for his land, and 18 pity his people. And the LORD will answer and say to his people, Behold, I will send you corn, and wine, and oil, and ye shall be satisfied with it; and I will no more make you a reproach among the heathen: But I will remove far from you 20 the northern army, and will drive him into a land barren and desolate, with his face towards the east sea, and his hinder part towards the utmost sea, and his odious scent shall come up, and his ill savor shall come up, because he hath done great things. Fear not, O land; be glad and rejoice: for the LORD 21 will do great things. Be not afraid, ye beasts of the field: for the pastures of the wilderness do spring, for the tree beareth its fruit, the fig-tree and the vine do yield their strength. Be 22 glad then, ye children of Zion, and rejoice in the LORD your God: for he hath given you the former rain moderately, and he will cause to come down for you the rain, the former rain, and the latter rain in the first month. And the floors shall be 24 full of wheat, and the vats shall overflow with wine and oil. And I will restore to you the years that the locust hath eaten, 25 the canker-worm, and the caterpillar, and the palmer-worm, my great army which I sent among you. And ye shall eat in plenty, and be satisfied, and praise the name of the LORD your God, that hath dealt wondrously with you: and my people shall never be ashamed. And ye shall know that I am in the 27 midst of Israel, and that I am the LORD your God, and none else: and my people shall never be ashamed. And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your 28 old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions: 29 And also upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those 30 days will I pour out my spirit. And I will show wonders in the heavens and on the earth, blood, and fire, and pillars of 31 smoke. The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and terrible day of the LORD shall 32 come. And it shall come to pass, that whoever shall call on the name of the LORD shall be delivered: for in mount Zion and in Jerusalem shall be deliverance, as the LORD hath said, and in the remnant whom the LORD shall call.

3 For behold, in those days, and in that time, when I shall 2 bring again the captivity of Judah and Jerusalem, I will also gather all nations, and will bring them down into the valley of Jehoshaphat, and will plead with them there for my people and for my heritage Israel, whom they have scattered among 3 the nations, and divided my land. And they have cast lots for my people; and have given a boy for a harlot, and sold a 4 girl for wine, that they might drink. Yes, and what have ye to do with me, O Tyre, and Zidon, and all the coasts of Palestine? will ye render me a recompense? and if ye recompense me, swiftly and speedily I will return your recompense upon 5 your own head; Because ye have taken my silver and my gold, and have carried into your temples my goodly pleasant things.
6 The children also of Judah and the children of Jerusalem have ye sold to the Grecians, that ye might remove them far from 7 their border. Behold, I will raise them out of the place whither ye have sold them, and will return your recompense upon your 8 own head: And I will sell your sons and your daughters into the hand of the children of Judah, and they shall sell them to the Sabeans, to a people far off: for the LORD hath spoken it.
9 Proclaim ye this among the Gentiles; Prepare war, wake up the mighty men, let all the men of war draw near; let them come 10 up: Beat your plow-shares into swords, and your pruning-11 hooks into spears: let the weak say, I am strong. Assemble yourselves, and come, all ye heathen, and gather yourselves together around: thither cause thy mighty ones to come down, 12 O LORD. Let the heathen be awakened, and come up to the valley of Jehoshaphat: for there will I sit to judge all the heathen on every side. Put ye in the sickle, for the harvest is ripe: 13 come, go down; for the press is full, the vats overflow; for their wickedness is great. Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of 14 decision; for the day of the LORD is near in the valley of decision. The sun and the moon shall be darkened, and the stars 15 shall withdraw their shining. The LORD also will roar out 16 of Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem; and the heavens and the earth shall shake; but the LORD will be the hope of his people, and the strength of the children of Israel. So shall 17 ye know that I am the LORD your God dwelling in Zion, my holy mountain: then shall Jerusalem be holy, and there shall no strangers pass through her any more. And it shall come 18 to pass in that day, that the mountains shall drop down new wine, and the hills shall flow with milk, and all the rivers of Judah shall flow with waters, and a fountain shall come forth from the house of the LORD, and shall water the valley of Shittim. Egypt shall be a desolation, and Edom shall be a desolate 19 wilderness, for the violence against the children of Judah, because they have shed innocent blood in their land. But Judah 20 shall dwell for ever, and Jerusalem from generation to generation. For I will cleanse their blood that I have not cleansed: 21 for the LORD dwelleth in Zion.

AMOS.

1  he words of Amos, who was among the herdmen of Tekoa, which he saw concerning Israel in the days of Uzziah king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel, two years before the earthquake. And he said, The LORD will roar from Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem; and the habitations of the shepherds shall mourn, and the top of Carmel shall wither.

2 Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Damascus, and for four, I will not turn away its punishment; because they have threshed Gilead with threshing instruments of iron: But I will send a fire into the house of Hazael, which shall devour the palaces of Ben-hadad. I will break also the bar of Damascus, and cut off the inhabitant from the plain of Aven, and him that holdeth the scepter from the house of Eden: and the people of Syria shall go into captivity to Kir, saith the LORD.

3 Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Gaza, and for four, I will not turn away its punishment: because they carried away captive the whole captivity, to deliver them up to Edom: But I will send a fire on the wall of Gaza, which shall devour its palaces: And I will cut off the inhabitant from Ashdod, and him that holdeth the scepter from Ashkelon, and I will turn my hand against Ekron: and the remnant of the Philistines shall perish, saith the Lord GOD. Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Tyre, and for four, I will not turn away its punishment: because they delivered up the whole captivity to Edom, and remembered not the brotherly covenant: But I will send a fire on the wall of Tyre, which shall devour its palaces:

4 Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Edom, and for four, I will not turn away its punishment: because he pursued his brother with the sword, and cast off all pity, and his anger did tear perpetually, and he kept his wrath for ever: But I will send a fire upon Teman, which shall devour the palaces of Bozrah. Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of the children of Ammon, and for four, I will not turn away their punishment: because they have ripped up the women with child of Gilead, that they might enlarge their border: But I will kindle a fire in the wall of Rabbah, and it shall devour its palaces, with shouting in the day of battle, with a tempest in the day of the whirlwind: And their king shall go into captivity, he and his princes together, saith the LORD. 15

Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Moab, 2 and for four, I will not turn away his punishment: because he burned the bones of the king of Edom into lime: But I will send a fire upon Moab, and it shall devour the palaces of Kiriath: and Moab shall die with tumult, with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet: And I will cut off the judge 3 from the midst of it, and will slay all its princes with him, saith the LORD. Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Judah, and for four, I will not turn away their punishment: because they have despised the law of the LORD, and have not kept his commandments, and their lies caused them to err, after which their fathers have walked: But I will send a fire upon Judah, and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem. Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Israel, and for four, I will not turn away their punishment: because they sold the righteous for silver, and the poor for a pair of shoes; That pant after the dust of the earth on the head of the poor, 7 and turn aside the way of the meek: and a man and his father will go in to the same maid, to profane my holy name: And they lay themselves down upon clothes laid to pledge by every altar, and they drink the wine of the condemned in the house of their god. Yet I destroyed the Amorite before them, whose hight was like the hight of the cedars, and he was strong as the oaks; yet I destroyed his fruit from above, and his roots from beneath. Also I brought you from the land of Egypt, and led you forty years through the wilderness, to possess the land of the Amorite. And I raised up of your sons for prophets, and of your young men for Nazarites. Is it not even thus, O ye children of Israel? saith the LORD. But ye gave the Nazarites wine to drink; and commanded the prophets, saying, Prophecy not. Behold, I am pressed under you, as a cart is pressed that is full of sheaves. Therefore the flight shall perish from the swift, and the strong shall not strengthen his force, neither shall the mighty deliver himself: Neither shall he stand that handleth the bow; and he that is swift of foot shall not deliver himself: neither shall he that rideth the horse deliver himself. 15

- 16 And he that is courageous among the mighty shall flee away naked in that day, saith the LORD.
- 3 Hear this word that the LORD hath spoken against you, O children of Israel, against the whole family which I brought 2 up from the land of Egypt, saying, You only have I known of all the families of the earth: therefore I will punish you for 3 all your iniquities. Can two walk together, except they are 4 agreed? Will a lion roar in the forest, when he hath no prey? will a young lion cry out of his den, if he hath taken nothing?
5 Can a bird fall in a snare upon the earth, where no gin is for him? shall one take up a snare from the earth, and have taken 6 nothing at all? Shalt a trumpet be blown in the city, and the people not be afraid? shall there be evil in a city, and the LORD 7 hath not done it? Surely the Lord GOD will do nothing, but 8 he revealeth his secret to his servants the prophets. The lion hath roared, who will not fear? the Lord GOD hath spoken, 9 who can but prophesy? Publish in the palaces at Ashdod, and in the palaces in the land of Egypt, and say, Assemble yourselves upon the mountains of Samaria, and behold the great 10 tumults in the midst of it, and the oppressed in the midst of it. For they know not to do right, saith the LORD, who store 11 up violence and robbery in their palaces. Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; An adversary there shall be even around the land; and he shall bring down thy strength from thee, and thy 12 palaces shall be plundered. Thus saith the LORD: As the shepherd taketh out of the mouth of the lion two legs, or a piece of an ear; so shall the children of Israel be taken out that 13 dwell in Samaria in the corner of a bed, and in Damascus in 14 a couch. Hear ye, and testify in the house of Jacob, saith the Lord GOD, the God of hosts, That in the day that I shall visit the transgressions of Israel upon him, I will also visit the altars of Beth-el: and the horns of the altar shall be cut off, and 15 fall to the ground. And I will smite the winter-house with the summer-house; and the houses of ivory shall perish, and the great houses shall have an end, saith the LORD.
- 4 Hear this word, ye heifers of Bashan, that are in the mountain of Samaria, which oppress the poor, which crush the needy, 2 which say to their masters, Bring, and let us drink. The Lord GOD hath sworn by his holiness, that lo, the days shall come upon you, that he will take you away with hooks, and your posterity with fish-hooks, And ye shall go out at the breaches, every cow at that which is before her; and ye shall cast them into the palace, saith the LORD. Come to Beth-el and transgress; at Gilgal multiply transgression; and bring your sacrifices every morning, and your tithes after three years: And offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving with leaven, and proclaim and publish the free-offerings: for this pleaseth you, O ye children of Israel, saith the Lord GOD. And I also have given you cleanness of teeth in all your cities, and want of bread in all your places: yet have ye not returned to me, saith the LORD. And also I have withheld the rain from you, when there were yet three months to the harvest: and I caused it to rain upon one city, and caused it not to rain upon another city: one piece was rained upon, and the piece on which it rained not withered. So two or three cities wandered to one city, to drink water; but they were not satisfied: yet have ye not returned to me, saith the LORD. I have smitten you with blasting and mildew: when your gardens and your vineyards and your fig-trees and your olive-trees increased, the palmer-worm devoured them: yet have ye not returned to me, saith the LORD. I have sent among you the pestilence after the manner of Egypt: your young men have I slain with the sword, and have taken away your horses; and I have made the ill savor of your camps to come up to your nostrils: yet have ye not returned to me, saith the LORD. I have overthrown some of you, as God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, and ye were as a fire-brand plucked out of the burning: yet have ye not returned to me, saith the LORD. Therefore thus will I do to thee, O Israel: and because I will do this to thee, prepare to meet thy God, O Israel. For lo, he that formeth the mountains, and createth the wind, and declareth to man what is his thought, that maketh the morning darkness, and treadeth upon the high places of the earth, The LORD, The God of hosts, is his name.

Hear ye this word which I take up against you, even a lamentation, O house of Israel. The virgin of Israel is fallen; she shall no more rise! she is forsaken upon her land; there is none to raise her up. For thus saith the Lord GOD; The city that went out by a thousand shall leave a hundred, and that which went forth by a hundred shall leave ten, to the house of Israel. For thus saith the LORD to the house of Israel, Seek ye me, and

5 ye shall live: But seek not Beth-el, nor enter into Gilgal, and 6 pass not to Beer-sheba: for Gilgal shall surely go into captiv-7 ity, and Beth-el shall come to naught. Seek the LORD, and ye 8 shall live; lest he break out like fire in the house of Joseph, and 9 devour it, and there be none to quench it in Beth-el. Ye who 10 turn judgment to wormwood, and leave off righteousness on 11 the earth, Seek him that maketh the seven stars and Orion, 12 and turneth the shades of death into the morning, and maketh 13 the day dark with night: that calleth for the waters of the 14 sea, and poureth them out upon the face of the earth: JE-15 HOVAH is his name: That strengtheneth the spoiled against 16 the strong, so that the spoiled shall come against the fortress.
17 They hate him that rebuketh in the gate, and they abhor him 18 that speaketh uprightly. Forasmuch therefore as your tread-19 ing is upon the poor, and ye take from him burdens of wheat: 20 ye have built houses of hewn stone, but ye shall not dwell in 21 them; ye have planted pleasant vineyards, but ye shall not 22 drink wine of them. For I know your manifold transgressions and your mighty sins: they afflict the just, they take a bribe, and they turn aside the poor in the gate from their right.
Therefore the prudent shall keep silence in that time; for it is an evil time. Seek good, and not evil, that ye may live: and so the LORD, the God of hosts, shall be with you, as ye have spoken. Hate the evil, and love the good, and establish judgment in the gate: it may be that the LORD God of hosts will be gracious to the remnant of Joseph. Therefore the LORD, the God of hosts, the Lord, saith thus; Wailing shall be in all streets; and they shall say in all the highways, Alas! alas! and they shall call the husbandman to mourning, and such as are skillful in lamentation to wailing. And in all vineyards shall be wailing: for I will pass through thee, saith the LORD. Woe to you that desire the day of the LORD! to what end is it for you? the day of the LORD is darkness, and not light. As if a man fled from a lion, and a bear met him; or went into the house, and leaned his hand on the wall, and a serpent bit him.
Shall not the day of the LORD be darkness, and not light? even very dark, and no brightness in it? I hate, I despise your feast days, and I will not smell in your solemn assemblies. Though ye offer me burnt-offerings and your meat-offerings, I will not accept them; neither will I regard the peace-offerings of your fat beasts. Take thou away from me the noise of thy songs; for 23 I will not hear the melody of thy viols. But let judgment run 24 down as waters, and righteousness as a mighty stream. Have 25 ye offered to me sacrifices and offerings in the wilderness forty years, O house of Israel? But ye have borne the tabernacle 26 of your Moloch and Chiun your images, the star of your god, which ye made to yourselves. Therefore I will cause you to go 27 into captivity beyond Damascus, saith the LORD, whose name is The God of hosts.

Woe to them that are at ease in Zion, and trust in the moun- 6 tain of Samaria, who are named chief of the nations, to whom the house of Israel came! Pass ye to Calneh, and see; and from 2 thence go ye to Hamath the great: then go down to Gath of the Philistines: are they better than these kingdoms? or their border greater than your border? Ye that put far away the evil 3 day, and cause the seat of violence to come near; That lie upon 4 beds of ivory, and stretch themselves upon their couches, and eat lambs from the flock, and calves from the midst of the stall; That chant to the sound of the viol, and invent to themselves 5 instruments of music, like David; That drink wine in bowls, 6 and anoint themselves with the chief ointments: but they are not grieved for the affliction of Joseph. Therefore now shall 7 they go captive with the first that go captive, and the banquet of them that stretched themselves shall be removed. The Lord 8 GOD hath sworn by himself, saith the LORD the God of hosts, I abhor the excellence of Jacob, and hate his palaces: therefore I will deliver up the city with all its abundance. And it shall 9 come to pass, if there remain ten men in one house, they shall die. And a man's uncle shall take him up, and he that burneth 10 him, to bring the bones out of the house, and shall say to him that is by the sides of the house, Is there yet any with thee? and he shall say, No. Then shall he say, Hold thy tongue: for we may not make mention of the name of the LORD. For be- 11 hold, the LORD commandeth, and he will smite the great house with breaches, and the little house with clefts. Shall horses 12 run upon the rock? will one plow there with oxen? for ye have turned judgment into gall, and the fruit of righteousness into hemlock: Ye who rejoice in a thing of naught, who say, Have 13 we not taken to us horns by our own strength? But behold, 14 I will raise up against you a nation, O house of Israel, saith the LORD the God of hosts; and they shall afflict you from the entrance of Hamath to the river of the wilderness.

7 Thus hath the Lord GOD shown to me; and behold, he formed grasshoppers in the beginning of the shooting up of the latter growth; and lo, it was the latter growth after the king's mowings. And it came to pass, that when they had made an end of eating the grass of the land, then I said, O Lord GOD, forgive, I beseech thee: by whom shall Jacob arise? for he is small. The LORD repented for this: It shall not be, saith the LORD. Thus hath the Lord GOD shown to me: and behold, the Lord GOD called to contend by fire, and it devoured the great deep, and did eat up a part. Then said I, O Lord GOD, cease, I beseech thee: by whom shall Jacob arise? for he is small. The LORD repented for this: This also shall not be, saith the Lord GOD. Thus he showed me: and behold, the LORD stood upon a wall made by a plumb-line, with a plumb-line in his hand. And the LORD said to me, Amos, what seest thou? and I said, A plumb-line. Then said the LORD, Behold, I will set a plumb-line in the midst of my people Israel: I will not again pass by them any more: And the high places of Isaac shall be desolate, and the sanctuaries of Israel shall be laid waste; and I will rise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword. Then Amaziah the priest of Beth-el sent to Jeroboam king of Israel, saying, Amos hath conspired against thee in the midst of the house of Israel: the land is not able to bear all his words. For thus Amos saith, Jeroboam shall die by the sword, and Israel shall surely be led away captive out of their own land. Also Amaziah said to Amos, O thou seer, go flee thee away into the land of Judah, and there eat bread, and prophesy there: But prophesy not again any more at Beth-el: for it is the king's chapel, and it is the king's court. Then answered Amos, and said to Amaziah, I was no prophet, neither was I a prophet's son; but I was a herdman, and a gatherer of sycamore fruit: And the LORD took me as I followed the flock, and the LORD said to me, Go, prophesy to my people Israel. Now therefore hear thou the word of the LORD: Thou sayest, Prophesy not against Israel, and drop not thy word against the house of Isaac. Therefore thus saith the LORD; Thy wife shall be a harlot in the city, and thy sons and thy daughters shall fall by the sword, and thy land shall be divided by line; and thou shalt die in a polluted land: and Israel shall surely go from his land into captivity.

Thus hath the Lord GOD shown to me: and behold a basket 8 of summer fruit. And he said, Amos, what seest thou? And 2 I said, A basket of summer fruit. Then said the LORD to me, The end is come upon my people of Israel; I will not again pass by them any more. And the songs of the temple shall be howl- 3 ings in that day, saith the Lord GOD: there shall be many dead bodies in every place; they shall cast them forth with silence.
Hear this, O ye that swallow up the needy, even to make the 4 poor of the land to fail, Saying, When will the new moon be 5 gone, that we may sell corn? and the sabbath, that we may set forth wheat, making the ephah small, and the shekel great, and falsifying the balances by deceit? That we may buy the 6 poor for silver, and the needy for a pair of shoes; and even sell the refuse of the wheat? The LORD hath sworn by the excel- 7 lence of Jacob, Surely I will never forget any of their works.
Shall not the land tremble for this, and every one mourn that 8 dwelleth in it? and it shall rise up wholly as a flood: and it shall be cast out and drowned, as by the flood of Egypt. And it 9 shall come to pass in that day, saith the Lord GOD, that I will cause the sun to go down at noon, and I will darken the earth in the clear day: And I will turn your feasts into mourning, 10 and all your songs into lamentation; and I will bring up sackcloth upon all loins, and baldness upon every head; and I will make it as the mourning of an only son, and the end of it as a bitter day. Behold, the days come, saith the Lord GOD, that 11 I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the LORD: And 12 they shall wander from sea to sea, and from the north even to the east, they shall run to and fro to seek the word of the LORD, and shall not find it. In that day shall the fair virgins 13 and young men faint for thirst. They that swear by the sin of 14 Samaria, and say, Thy god, O Dan, liveth; and, The manner of Beer-sheba liveth; even they shall fall, and never rise again.

I saw the LORD standing upon the altar: and he said, Smite 9 the lintel of the door, that the posts may shake: and cut them in the head, all of them; and I will slay the last of them with the sword: he that fleeth of them shall not flee away, and he that escapeth of them shall not be delivered. Though they 2 dig into the place of the dead, thence shall my hand take them; though they climb up to heaven, thence will I bring them down: 3 And though they hide themselves in the top of Carmel, I will search and take them out thence; and though they are hid from my sight in the bottom of the sea, thence will I command the 4 serpent, and he shall bite them: And though they go into captivity before their enemies, thence will I command the sword, and it shall slay them: and I will set my eyes upon them for 5 evil, and not for good. And the Lord GOD of hosts is he that toucheth the land, and it shall melt, and all that dwell in it shall mourn: and it shall rise up wholly like a flood; and shall 6 be drowned, as by the flood of Egypt. It is he that buildeth his stories in the heaven, and hath founded his troop in the earth; he that calleth for the waters of the sea, and poureth them out upon the face of the earth: the LORD is his name.

7 Are ye not as children of the Cushites to me, O children of Israel? saith the LORD. Have not I brought up Israel from the land of Egypt? and the Philistines from Caphtor, and the As-8 syrians from Kir? Behold, the eyes of the Lord GOD are upon the sinful kingdom, and I will destroy it from off the face of the earth; saving that I will not utterly destroy the house of 9 Jacob, saith the LORD. For lo, I will command, and I will sift the house of Israel among all nations, like as corn is sifted in a 10 sieve, yet shall not the least grain fall upon the earth. All the sinners of my people shall die by the sword, who say, The evil 11 shall not overtake nor fall upon us. In that day will I raise up the tabernacle of David that is fallen, and close up their breaches; and I will raise up its ruins, and I will build it as in 12 the days of old: That they may possess the remnant of Edom, and of all the heathen, who are called by my name, saith the 13 LORD that doeth this. Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that the plowman shall overtake the reaper, and the treader of grapes him that soweth seed; and the mountains shall drop 14 sweet wine, and all the hills shall melt. And I will bring again the captivity of my people of Israel, and they shall build the waste cities, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and drink the wine of them; they shall also make gardens, and 15 eat the fruit of them. And I will plant them upon their land, and they shall no more be pulled up out of their land which I have given them, saith the LORD thy God.

OBADIAH.

The vision of Obadiah. Thus saith the Lord GOD concerning Edom; We have heard a rumor from the LORD, and an ambassador is sent among the heathen, Arise ye, and let us rise up against her in battle. Behold, I have made thee small among the heathen: thou art greatly despised. The pride of thy heart hath deceived thee, thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rock, whose habitation is high; that saith in his heart, Who shall bring me down to the ground? Though thou shalt exalt thyself as the eagle, and though thou shalt set thy nest among the stars, thence will I bring thee down, saith the LORD. If thieves came to thee, if robbers by night, (how art thou cut off!) would they not have stolen till they had enough? if the grape-gatherers came to thee, would they not leave some grapes? How are the things of Esau searched out! how are his hidden things sought! All the men of thy confederacy have brought thee even to the border: the men that were at peace with thee have deceived thee, and prevailed against thee; they that eat thy bread have laid a wound under thee: there is no understanding in him. Shall I not in that day, saith the LORD, even destroy the wise men out of Edom, and understanding out of the mount of Esau? And thy mighty men, O Teman, shall be dismayed, to the end that every one of the mount of Esau may be cut off by slaughter. For thy violence against thy brother Jacob shame shall cover thee, and thou shalt be cut off for ever. In the day that thou stoodst on the other side, in the day that the strangers carried away captive his forces, and foreigners entered into his gates, and cast lots upon Jerusalem, even thou wast as one of them. But thou shouldst not have looked on the day of thy brother in the day that he became a stranger; neither shouldst thou have rejoiced over the children of Judah in the day of their destruction; neither shouldst thou have spoken proudly in the day of distress. Thou shouldst not have entered into the gate of my people in the day of their calamity; yes, thou shouldst not have looked on their affliction in the day of their calamity, nor have laid hands on their substance in the day of their calamity;

14 Neither shouldst thou have stood in the cross-way, to cut off those of his that escaped; neither shouldst thou have delivered 15 up those of his that remained in the day of distress. For the day of the LORD is near upon all the heathen: as thou hast done, it shall be done to thee: thy reward shall return upon 16 thy own head. For as ye have drank upon my holy mountain, so shall all the heathen drink continually, yes, they shall drink, and they shall swallow down, and they shall be as though they 17 had not been. But upon mount Zion shall be deliverance, and there shall be holiness; and the house of Jacob shall possess their possessions. And the house of Jacob shall be a fire, and 18 the house of Joseph a flame, and the house of Esau for stubble, and they shall kindle in them, and devour them; and there shall not be any remaining of the house of Esau; for the LORD 19 hath spoken it. And they of the south shall possess the mount of Esau; and they of the plain the Philistines: and they shall possess the fields of Ephraim, and the fields of Samaria: and 20 Benjamin shall possess Gilead. And the captivity of this host of the children of Israel shall possess that of the Canaanites, even to Zarephath; and the captivity of Jerusalem, which is in 21 Sepharad, shall possess the cities of the south. And saviors shall come upon mount Zion to judge the mount of Esau; and the kingdom shall be the LORD'S.

JONAH.

Now the word of the LORD came to Jonah the son of 1 Amittai, saying, Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, 2 and cry against it; for their wickedness is come up before me. But Jonah arose to flee to Tarshish from the 3 presence of the LORD, and went down to Joppa; and he found a ship going to Tarshish: so he paid the fare of it, and went down into it, to go with them to Tarshish from the presence of the LORD. But the LORD sent out a great wind into the sea, and 4 there was a mighty tempest in the sea, so that the ship was in danger of being broken. Then the mariners were afraid, and 5 cried every man to his god, and cast the wares that were in the ship into the sea, to lighten it of them. But Jonah had gone down into the sides of the ship; and he lay, and was fast asleep.
So the ship-master came to him, and said to him, What mean- 6 est thou, O sleeper? arise, call upon thy God, it may be that God will think upon us, that we perish not. And they said 7 every one to his fellow, Come, and let us cast lots, that we may know for whose cause this evil is upon us. So they cast lots, and the lot fell upon Jonah. Then said they to him, Tell us, we 8 pray thee, for whose cause this evil is upon us; What is thy occupation? and whence comest thou? what is thy country? and of what people art thou? And he said to them, I am a Hebrew; 9 and I fear the LORD, the God of heaven, who hath made the sea and the dry land. Then were the men exceedingly afraid, 10 and said to him, Why hast thou done this? For the men knew that he fled from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them. Then said they to him, What shall we do to thee, 11 that the sea may be calm to us? for the sea wrought, and was tempestuous. And he said to them, Take me, and cast me into 12 the sea; so shall the sea be calm to you: for I know that for my sake this great tempest is upon you. Nevertheless the men 13 rowed hard to bring it to the land; but they could not: for the sea wrought, and was tempestuous against them. Wherefore 14 they cried to the LORD, and said, We beseech thee, O LORD, we beseech thee, let us not perish for this man's life, and lay not upon us innocent blood: for thou, O LORD, hast done as 15 it pleased thee. So they took Jonah, and cast him into the 16 sea: and the sea ceased from her raging. Then the men feared the LORD exceedingly, and offered a sacrifice to the LORD, and 17 made vows. Now the LORD had prepared a great fish to swallow up Jonah. And Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights.

2 Then Jonah prayed to the LORD his God out of the fish's 2 belly, And said, I cried by reason of my affliction to the LORD, and he heard me; out of the belly of hell cried I, and thou 3 heardst my voice. For thou hadst cast me into the deep, in the midst of the seas; and the floods encompassed me: all thy 4 billows and thy waves passed over me. Then I said, I am cast out of thy sight; yet I will look again towards thy holy tem-5 ple. The waters encompassed me, even to the soul: the depth inclosed me on every side, the weeds were wrapped about my 6 head. I went down to the bottoms of the mountains; the earth with her bars was about me for ever: yet hast thou brought 7 up my life from corruption, O LORD my God. When my soul fainted within me I remembered the LORD: and my prayer 8 came to thee, into thy holy temple. They that observe lying 9 vanities forsake their own mercy. But I will sacrifice to thee with the voice of thanksgiving; I will pay that which I have 10 vowed. Salvation is of the LORD. And the LORD spoke to the fish, and it vomited out Jonah upon the dry land.

3 And the word of the LORD came to Jonah the second time, 2 saying, Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and preach to 3 it the preaching that I bid thee. So Jonah arose, and went to Nineveh, according to the word of the LORD. Now Nineveh 4 was an exceeding great city of three days' journey. And Jonah began to enter into the city a day's journey, and he cried, and 5 said, Yet forty days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown. So the people of Nineveh believed God, and proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least 6 of them. For word came to the king of Nineveh, and he arose from his throne, and he laid his robe from him, and covered 7 himself with sackcloth, and sat in ashes. And he caused it to be proclaimed and published through Nineveh by the decree of the king and his nobles, saying, Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock, taste any thing: let them not feed, nor drink 8 water: But let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and cry mightily to God: yes, let them turn every one from his evil way, and from the violence that is in their hands. Who can tell if God will turn and repent, and turn away from his fierce anger, that we perish not? And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do to them; and he did it not.

But it displeased Jonah exceedingly, and he was very angry. And he prayed to the LORD, and said, I pray thee, O LORD was not this my saying, when I was yet in my country? Therefore I fled before to Tarshish: for I knew that thou art a gracious God, and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repentest of the evil. Therefore now, O LORD, take, I beseech thee, my life from me; for it is better for me to die than to live. Then said the LORD, Doest thou well to be angry? So Jonah went out of the city, and sat on the east side of the city, and there made him a booth, and sat under it in the shade, till he might see what would become of the city. And the LORD God prepared a gourd, and made it to come up over Jonah, that it might be a shade over his head, to deliver him from his grief. So Jonah was exceeding glad of the gourd. But God prepared a worm when the morning rose the next day, and it smote the gourd that it withered. And it came to pass, when the sun rose that God prepared a vehement east wind; and the sun beat upon the head of Jonah, that he fainted, and wished in himself to die, and said, It is better for me to die than to live. And God said to Jonah, Doest thou well to be angry for the gourd? And he said, I do well to be angry, even to death. Then said the LORD, Thou hast had pity on the gourd, for which thou hast not labored, neither made it grow; which came up in a night, and perished in a night: And should not I spare Nineveh, that great city, in which are more than a hundred and twenty thousand persons that cannot discern between their right hand and their left hand, and also many cattle?

MICAH.

1  he word of the LORD that came to Micah the Morasthite in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, which he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.
2 Hear, all ye people; hearken, O earth, and all that therein is: and let the Lord GOD be witness against you, the 3 Lord from his holy temple. For behold, the LORD cometh forth from his place, and will come down, and tread upon the high 4 places of the earth. And the mountains shall be melted under him, and the valleys shall be cleft, as wax before the fire, 5 and as the waters that are poured down a steep place. For the transgression of Jacob is all this, and for the sins of the house of Israel. What is the transgression of Jacob? is it not Samaria? and what are the high places of Judah? are they 6 not Jerusalem? Therefore I will make Samaria as a heap of the field, and as plantings of a vineyard: and I will pour down her stones into the valley, and I will lay bare her foundations.
7 And all her graven images shall be beaten to pieces, and all her hires shall be burned with the fire, and all her idols will I lay desolate: for she gathered it from the hire of a harlot, and 8 they shall return to the hire of a harlot. Therefore I will wail and howl, I will go stripped and naked: I will make a wailing 9 like the dragons, and mourning as the owls. For her wound is incurable; for it is come to Judah; he is come to the gate of my 10 people, even to Jerusalem. Declare ye it not at Gath, weep ye 11 not at all: in the house of Aphrah roll thyself in the dust. Pass ye away, thou inhabitant of Saphir, having thy shame exposed: the inhabitant of Zaanan came not forth in the mourning of 12 Beth-ezel; he shall receive from you his standing. For the inhabitant of Maroth waited anxiously for good: but evil came 13 down from the LORD to the gate of Jerusalem. O thou inhabitant of Lachish, bind the chariot to the swift beast: she is the beginning of the sin to the daughter of Zion: for the transgres-14 sions of Israel were found in thee. Therefore shalt thou give presents to Moresheth-gath: the houses of Achzib shall be 15 lie to the kings of Israel. Yet will I bring an heir to thee, O inhabitant of Mareshah: he shall come to Adullam the glory of Israel. Make thee bald, and poll thee for thy delicate children; enlarge thy baldness as the eagle; for they are gone into captivity from thee. 16

Woe to them that devise iniquity, and work evil upon their beds! when the morning is light, they practice it, because it is in the power of their hand. And they covet fields, and take them by violence; and houses, and take them away: so they oppress a man and his house, even a man and his heritage. Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, against this family do I devise an evil, from which ye shall not remove your necks; neither shall ye go haughtily: for this time is evil. In that day shall one take up a parable against you, and lament with a grievous lamentation, and say, We are utterly wasted: he hath changed the portion of my people: how hath he removed it from me! turning away he hath divided our fields. Therefore thou shalt have none that shall cast a cord by lot in the congregation of the LORD. Prophesy ye not, say they to them that prophesy: they shall not prophesy to them, that they shall not take shame. O thou that art named the house of Jacob, is the spirit of the LORD straitened? are these his doings? do not my words do good to him that walketh uprightly? Even of late my people hath risen up as an enemy: ye pull off the robe with the garment from them that pass by securely as men averse to war. The women of my people have ye cast out from their pleasant houses; from their children have ye taken away my glory for ever. Arise ye, and depart; for this is not your rest: because it is polluted, it shall destroy you, even with a grievous destruction. If a man walking in the spirit and falsehood doth lie, saying, I will prophesy to thee of wine and of strong drink; he shall even be the prophet of this people. I will surely assemble, O Jacob, all of thee; I will surely gather the remnant of Israel; I will put them together as the sheep of Bozrah, as the flock in the midst of their fold: they shall make great noise by reason of the multitude of men. The breaker is come up before them: they have broken up, and have passed through the gate, and have gone out by it; and their king shall pass before them, and the LORD on the head of them.

And I said, Hear, I pray you, O heads of Jacob, and ye princes of the house of Israel: Is it not for you to know judgment? Who hate the good, and love the evil; who pluck off 2 3 their skin from them, and their flesh from off their bones; Who also eat the flesh of my people, and flay their skin from off them; and they break their bones, and chop them in pieces, as 4 for the pot, and as flesh within the caldron. Then shall they cry to the LORD, but he will not hear them: he will even hide his face from them at that time, as they have behaved them-5 selves ill in their doings. Thus saith the LORD concerning the prophets that make my people err, that bite with their teeth, and cry, Peace; and he that putteth not into their mouths, they 6 even prepare war against him: Therefore night shall be to you, that ye shall not have a vision; and it shall be dark to you, that ye shall not divine; and the sun shall go down over the 7 prophets, and the day shall be dark over them. Then shall the seers be ashamed, and the diviners confounded: yes, they 8 shall all cover their lips; for there is no answer of God. But truly I am full of power by the spirit of the LORD, and of judgment, and of might, to declare to Jacob his transgression, and 9 to Israel his sin. Hear this, I pray you, ye heads of the house of Jacob, and princes of the house of Israel, that abhor judg-10 ment, and pervert all equity. They build up Zion with blood, 11 and Jerusalem with iniquity. Her heads judge for reward, and her priests teach for hire, and her prophets divine for money; yet will they lean upon the LORD, and say, Is not the LORD 12 among us? no evil can come upon us. Therefore shall Zion for your sake be plowed as a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of the forest.

4 But in the last days it shall come to pass, that the mount of the house of the LORD shall be established on the top of the mountains, and it shall be exalted above the hills; and people 2 shall flow to it. And many nations shall come, and say, Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, and to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for the law shall go forth from Zion, and 3 the word of the LORD from Jerusalem. And he shall judge among many people, and rebuke strong nations afar off; and they shall beat their swords into plow-shares, and their spears into pruning-hooks: nation shall not lift up a sword against 4 nation, neither shall they learn war any more. But they shall sit every man under his vine and under his fig-tree; and none shall make them afraid: for the mouth of the LORD of hosts hath spoken it. For all people will walk every one in the name 5 of his god, and we will walk in the name of the LORD our God for ever and ever. In that day, saith the LORD, I will assem- 6 ble her that halteth, and I will gather her that is driven out, and her that I have afflicted; And I will make her that halted 7 a remnant, and her that was cast far off a strong nation: and the LORD will reign over them in mount Zion from henceforth, even for ever. And thou, O tower of the flock, the strong hold 8 of the daughter of Zion, to thee shall it come, even the first dominion; the kingdom shall come, to the daughter of Jerusalem.

Now why dost thou cry aloud? is there no king in thee? hath 9 thy counselor perished? for pangs have taken thee as a woman in travail. Be in pain, and labor to bring forth, O daughter of 10 Zion, like a woman in travail: for now shalt thou go forth from the city, and thou shalt dwell in the field, and thou shalt go even to Babylon; there shalt thou be delivered; there the LORD shall redeem thee from the hand of thy enemies. Now also 11 many nations are gathered against thee, that say, Let her be defiled, and let our eye look upon Zion. But they know not 12 the thoughts of the LORD, neither understand they his counsel: for he will gather them as sheaves into the floor. Arise 13 and thresh, O daughter of Zion: for I will make thy horn iron, and I will make thy hoofs brass: and thou shalt beat in pieces many people: and I will consecrate their gain to JEHOVAH, and their substance to the Lord of the whole earth.

Now gather thyself in troops, O daughter of troops: he hath 5 laid siege against us: they shall smite the judge of Israel with a rod upon the cheek. But thou, Beth-lehem Ephratah, though 2 thou art little among the thousands of Judah, yet out of thee shall he come forth to me that is to be ruler in Israel; whose goings forth have been from of old, from everlasting. Therefore 3 will he give them up, until the time that she who travaileth hath brought forth: then the remnant of his brethren shall return to the children of Israel. And he will stand and feed 4 in the strength of the LORD, in the majesty of the name of the LORD his God; and they shall abide: for now will he be great to the ends of the earth. And this man will be the peace, 5 when the Assyrian shall come into our land: and when he shall tread in our palaces, then shall we raise against him seven 6 shepherds, and eight principal men. And they shall waste the land of Assyria with the sword, and the land of Nimrod in its entrances: thus will he deliver us from the Assyrian, when he cometh into our land, and when he treadeth within 7 our borders. And the remnant of Jacob shall be in the midst of many people as a dew from the LORD, as the showers upon the grass, that tarrieth not for man, nor waiteth for the sons 8 of men. And the remnant of Jacob shall be among the gentiles in the midst of many people as a lion among the beasts of the forest, as a young lion among the flocks of sheep: who, if he goeth through, both treadeth down, and teareth in pieces, 9 and none can deliver. Thy hand shall be lifted up upon thy 10 adversaries, and all thy enemies shall be cut off. And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD, that I will cut off thy horses out of the midst of thee, and I will destroy thy chariots: 11 And I will cut off the cities of thy land, and throw down 12 all thy strong holds: And I will cut off witchcrafts out of thy 13 hand; and thou shalt have no more sooth-sayers: Thy graven images also will I cut off, and thy standing images out of the midst of thee; and thou shalt no more worship the work of thy 14 hands. And I will pluck up thy groves out of the midst of thee: 15 so will I destroy thy cities. And I will execute vengeance in anger and fury upon the heathen, such as they have not heard.

6 Hear ye now what the LORD saith; Arise, contend thou before the mountains, and let the hills hear thy voice. Hear ye, O mountains, the LORD'S controversy, and ye strong foundations of the earth: for the LORD hath a controversy with 3 his people, and he will plead with Israel. O my people, what have I done to thee? and wherein have I wearied thee? testify against me, 4 For I brought thee out of the land of Egypt, and redeemed thee from the house of servants; and I sent before thee Moses, Aaron, and Miriam. O my people, remember now what Balak king of Moab consulted, and what Balaam the son of Beor answered him from Shittim to Gilgal; that ye may 6 know the righteousness of the LORD. Wherewith shall I come before the LORD, and bow myself before the high God? shall I come before him with burnt-offerings, with calves of a year old?
7 Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams, or with ten thousands of rivers of oil? shall I give my first-born for my 8 transgression, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul? He hath shown thee, O man, what is good; and what the LORD doth require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God? The LORD'S voice crieth to the city, and the man of wisdom shall see thy name: hear ye the rod, and who hath appointed it. Are there yet the treasures of wickedness in the house of the wicked, and the scant measure that is abominable? Shall I count them pure with the wicked balances, and with the bag of deceitful weights? For the rich men thereof are full of violence, and the inhabitants thereof have spoken lies, and their tongue is deceitful in their mouth. Therefore also will I make thee sick in smiting thee, in making thee desolate because of thy sins. Thou shalt eat, but not be satisfied; and thy casting down shall be in the midst of thee; and thou shalt take hold, but shalt not deliver; and that which thou deliverest will I give up to the sword. Thou shalt sow, but thou shalt not reap; thou shalt tread the olives, but thou shalt not anoint thee with oil; and sweet wine, but shalt not drink wine. For the statutes of Omri are kept, and all the works of the house of Ahab, and ye walk in their counsels; that I should make thee a desolation, and the inhabitants thereof an hissing: therefore ye shall bear the reproach of my people.

Woe is me! for I am as when they have gathered the summer fruits, as the grape-gleanings of the vintage: there is no cluster to eat: my soul desired the first ripe fruit. The good man hath perished from the earth: and there is none upright among men: they all lie in wait for blood; they hunt every man his brother with a net. That they may do evil with both hands earnestly, the prince asketh, and the judge asketh for a reward; and the great man, he uttereth his mischievous desire: so they wrap it up. The best of them is as a brier: the most upright is sharper than a thorn hedge: the day of thy watchmen and thy visitation cometh; now shall be their perplexity. Trust ye not in a friend, put ye not confidence in a guide: keep the doors of thy mouth from her that lieth in thy bosom. For the son dishonoreth the father, the daughter riseth up against her mother, the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law; a man's enemies are the men of his own house. Therefore I will look to the LORD; I will wait for the God of my salvation: my God will hear me. Rejoice not against me, O my enemy: when I fall, I shall arise; when I sit in darkness, the LORD will be a light to 9 me. I will bear the indignation of the LORD, because I have sinned against him, until he shall plead my cause, and execute judgment for me: he will bring me forth to the light, and 10 I shall behold his righteousness. Then she that is my enemy shall see it, and shame shall cover her who said to me, Where is the LORD thy God? my eyes shall behold her: now shall she 11 be trodden down as the mire of the streets. In the day that thy walls are to be built, in that day shall the decree be far 12 removed. In that day also he shall come even to thee from Assyria, and from the fortified cities, and from the fortress even to the river, and from sea to sea, and from mountain to mountain.

13 Notwithstanding the land shall be desolate because of them that dwell in it, for the fruit of their doings. Feed thy people with thy rod, the flock of thy heritage, who dwell solitarily in the wood, in the midst of Carmel: let them feed in Bashan 14 and Gilead, as in the days of old. According to the days of thy departure from the land of Egypt will I show to him marvelous 15 things. The nations shall see and be confounded at all their might: they shall lay their hand upon their mouth, their ears shall be deaf. They shall lick the dust like a serpent, they shall move out of their holes like worms of the earth: they shall be afraid of the LORD our God, and shall fear because of 16 thee. Who is a God like to thee, that pardoneth iniquity, and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? he retaineth not his anger for ever, because he delighteth in 17 mercy. He will turn again, he will have compassion upon us; he will subdue our iniquities; and thou wilt cast all their sins 18 into the depths of the sea. Thou wilt perform the truth to Jacob, and the mercy to Abraham, which thou hast sworn to our fathers from the days of old.

NAHUM.

The burden of Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum 1 the Elkoshite, God is jealous, and the LORD avengeth; 2 the LORD avengeth, and is furious; the LORD will take vengeance on his adversaries, and he reserveth wrath for his enemies. The LORD is slow to anger, and great 3 in power, and will not at all acquit the wicked: the LORD hath his way in the whirlwind and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of his feet. He rebuketh the sea, and maketh it dry, 4 and drieth up all the rivers: Bashan languisheth, and Carmel, and the flower of Lebanon languisheth. The mountains quake 5 at him, and the hills melt, and the earth is burned at his presence, even the world, and all that dwell therein. Who can 6 stand before his indignation? and who can abide in the fierce-ness of his anger? his fury is poured out like fire, and the rocks are thrown down by him. The LORD is good, a strong hold 7 in the day of trouble; and he knoweth them that trust in him.
But with an over-running flood he will make an utter end of the 8 place thereof, and darkness shall pursue his enemies. What 9 do ye imagine against the LORD? he will make an utter end: affliction shall not rise up the second time. For while they 10 are folded together as thorns, and while they are drunken as drunkards, they shall be devoured as stubble fully dry. There 11 is one come out of thee, that imagineth evil against the LORD, a wicked counselor. Thus saith the LORD; Though they are 12 quiet, and likewise many, yet thus shall they be cut down, when he shall pass through. Though I have afflicted thee, I will afflict thee no more. For now I will break his yoke from 13 off thee, and will burst thy bonds asunder. And the LORD 14 hath given a commandment concerning thee, that no more of thy name be sown: out of the house of thy gods will I cut off the graven image and the molten image: I will make thy grave; for thou art vile. Behold upon the mountains the feet of him that 15 bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace! O Judah, keep thy solemn feasts, perform thy vows: for the wicked shall no more pass through thee; he is utterly cut off.

He that dasheth in pieces is come up before thy face: keep 2 the munition, watch the way, make thy loins strong, fortify thy 2 power mightily. For the LORD hath turned away the excellence of Jacob, as the excellence of Israel: for the emptiers 3 have emptied them out, and marred their vine branches. The shield of his mighty men is made red, the valiant men are in scarlet: the chariots shall be with flaming torches in the day of his preparation, and the fir-trees shall be terribly shaken.

4 The chariots shall rage in the streets, they shall jostle one against another in the broad ways: they shall seem like torches, 5 they shall run like the lightnings. He shall recount his worthies: they shall stumble in their walk; they shall make haste 6 to the wall thereof, and the defense shall be prepared. The gates of the rivers shall be opened, and the palace shall be 7 dissolved. And Huzzab shall be led away captive, she shall be brought up, and her maids shall lead her as with the voice 8 of doves, tabering upon their breasts. But Nineveh is of old like a pool of water: yet they shall flee away. Stand, stand, 9 shall they cry; but none shall look back. Take ye the spoil of silver, take the spoil of gold: for there is no end of the store 10 and glory out of all the pleasant furniture. She is empty, and void, and waste: and the heart melteth, and the knees smite together, and much pain is in all loins, and the faces of them all 11 gather blackness. Where is the dwelling of the lions, and the feeding-place of the young lions, where the lion, even the old lion, walked, and the lion's whelp, and none made them afraid?
12 The lion tore in pieces enough for his whelps, and strangled for his lionesses, and filled his holes with prey, and his dens with 13 ravin. Behold, I am against thee, saith the LORD of hosts, and I will burn her chariots in the smoke, and the sword shall devour thy young lions: and I will cut off thy prey from the earth, and the voice of thy messengers shall no more be heard.

3 Woe to the bloody city! it is all full of lies and robberies; the 2 prey departeth not; The noise of a whip, and the noise of the rattling of the wheels, and of the prancing horses, and of the 3 bounding chariots. The horseman lifteth up both the bright sword, and the glittering spear: and there is a multitude of slain, and a great number of carcasses; and there is no end 4 of their corpses; they stumble upon their corpses: Because of the multitude of the lewd deeds of the well-favored harlot, the mistress of witchcrafts, that selleth nations through her lewd deeds, and families through her witchcrafts. Behold, I am 5 against thee, saith the LORD of hosts; and I will remove thy skirts upon thy face, and I will show the nations thy nakedness, and the kingdoms thy shame. And I will cast abom- 6 inable filth upon thee, and make thee vile, and will set thee as a gazing-stock. And it shall come to pass, that all they that 7 look upon thee shall flee from thee, and say, Nineveh is laid waste: who will bemoan her; whence shall I seek comforters for thee? Art thou better than populous No, that was situ- 8 ated among the rivers, that had the waters around it, whose rampart was the sea, and her wall was from the sea? Cush 9 and Egypt were her strength, and it was infinite; Put and Lu-bim were thy helpers. Yet was she carried away, she went 10 into captivity: her young children also were dashed in pieces at the head of all the streets: and they cast lots for her honorable men, and all her great men were bound in chains. Thou 11 also shalt be drunken: thou shalt be hid, thou also shalt seek strength because of the enemy. All thy strong holds shall be 12 like fig-trees with the first ripe figs: if they be shaken, they shall even fall into the mouth of the eater. Behold, thy people 13 in the midst of thee are women: the gates of thy land shall be set wide open to thy enemies: the fire shall devour thy bars.

Draw thee waters for the siege, fortify thy strong holds: go 14 into clay, and tread the mortar, make strong the brick-kiln.
There shall the fire devour thee; the sword shall cut thee off, 15 it shall eat thee up like the canker-worm: make thyself many as the canker-worm, make thyself many as the locusts. Thou 16 hast multiplied thy merchants above the stars of heaven: the canker-worm spoileth, and flieth away. Thy crowned are as 17 the locusts, and thy captains as the great grasshoppers, which settle in the hedges in the cold day, but when the sun ariseth they flee away, and their place is not known where they are.
Thy shepherds slumber, O king of Assyria: thy nobles shall 18 dwell in the dust: thy people are scattered upon the mountains, and no man gathereth them. There is no healing of thy 19 bruise; thy wound is grievous: all that hear the fame of thee shall clap the hands over thee: for upon whom hath not thy wickedness passed continually?

HABAKKUK.

1, 2  he burden which Habakkuk the prophet saw. O LORD, how long shall I cry, and thou wilt not hear! even cry 3  out to thee of violence, and thou wilt not save! Why dost thou show me iniquity, and cause me to behold grievance? for devastation and violence are before me: and 4 there are that raise strife and contention. Therefore the law is slackened, and judgment doth never go forth: for the wicked doth encompass the righteous; therefore wrong judgment pro-5 ceedeth. Behold ye among the heathen, and regard, and wonder marvelously: for I will work a work in your days, which ye 6 will not believe though it be told you. For lo, I raise up the Chaldeans, that bitter and hasty nation, which shall march through the breadth of the land, to possess the dwelling-places 7 that are not theirs. They are terrible and dreadful: their judg-8 ment and their dignity shall proceed from themselves. Their horses also are swifter than the leopards, and are more fierce than the evening wolves: and their horsemen shall spread themselves, and their horsemen shall come from far; they shall 9 fly as the eagle that hasteth to eat. They shall come all for violence: their faces shall sup up as the east wind, and they shall 10 gather the captivity as the sand. And they shall scoff at the kings, and the princes shall be a scorn to them: they shall de-ride every strong hold; for they shall heap dust, and take it.
11 Then shall his mind change, and he shall pass over, and of-12 fend, imputing this his power to his god. Art thou not from everlasting, O LORD my God, my Holy One? We shall not die.
O LORD, thou hast ordained them for judgment; and O mighty 13 God, thou hast established them for correction. Thou art of purer eyes than to behold evil, and canst not look on iniquity: why lookest thou on them that deal treacherously, and keep-est silence when the wicked devoureth the man that is more 14 righteous than he? And makest men as the fishes of the sea, 15 as the creeping animals that have no ruler over them? They take up all of them with the angle, they catch them in their net, and gather them in their drag: therefore they rejoice and are 16 glad. Therefore they sacrifice to their net, and burn incense to their drag; because by them their portion is fat, and their food plenteous. Shall they therefore empty their net, and not spare continually to slay the nations? 17

I will stand upon my watch, and seat myself upon the tower, 2 and will watch to see what he will say to me, and what I shall answer when I am reprov'd. And the LORD answered me, and 2 said, Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it. For the vision is yet for an appointed 3 time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it may tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry.
Behold, his soul which is lifted up, is not upright in him: but 4 the just shall live by his faith. Yes also, because he trans- 5 gresseth by wine, he is a proud man, neither keepeth at home, who enlargeth his desire, as hell, and is as death, and cannot be satisfied, but gathereth to him all nations, and collecteth to 6 him all people: Shall not all these take up a parable against him, and a taunting proverb against him, and say, Woe to him that increaseth that which is not his! how long? and to him that ladeth himself with thick clay! Shall they not rise sud- 7 denly that shall bite thee, and awake that shall disturb thee, and thou shalt be for booties to them? Because thou hast laid 8 waste many nations, all the remnant of the people shall lay thee waste; because of men's blood, and for the violence of the land, of the city, and of all that dwell therein. Woe to him that 9 coveteth an evil covetousness to his house, that he may set his nest on high, that he may be delivered from the power of evil!
Thou hast consulted shame to thy house by cutting off many 10 people, and hast sinned against thy soul. For the stone shall cry out of the wall, and the beam out of the timber shall answer 11 it. Woe to him that buildeth a town with blood, and estab- 12 lisheth a city by iniquity! Behold, is it not from the LORD of 13 hosts that the people shall labor in the very fire, and the people shall weary themselves for very vanity? For the earth shall be 14 filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea. Woe to him that giveth his neighbor drink, 15 that putteth thy bottle to him, and makest him drunken also, that thou mayest look on their nakedness! Thou art filled 16 with shame for glory: drink thou also, and let thy foreskin be uncovered: the cup of the LORD'S right hand shall be turned to thee, and shameful vomiting shall be on thy glory. For the 17 violence of Lebanon shall cover thee, and the spoil of beasts, which made them afraid, because of men's blood, and for the violence of the land, of the city, and of all that dwell therein.

18 What profiteth the graven image that its maker hath graven it; the molten image, and a teacher of lies, that the maker of his 19 work trusteth therein, to make dumb idols? Woe to him that saith to the wood, Awake; to the dumb stone, Arise, it shall teach! Behold, it is laid over with gold and silver, and there is 20 no breath at all in the midst of it. But the LORD is in his holy temple: let all the earth keep silence before him.

3, ² A prayer of Habakkuk the prophet upon Shigionoth. O LORD, I have heard thy speech, and was afraid: O LORD, revive thy work in the midst of the years, in the midst of the 3 years make known; in wrath remember mercy. God came from Teman, and the Holy One from mount Paran. Selah. His glory covered the heavens, and the earth was full of his praise.
4 And his brightness was as the light; he had horns coming out 5 of his hand; and there was the hiding of his power. Before him went the pestilence, and burning coals went forth at his 6 feet. He stood, and measured the earth: he beheld, and drove asunder the nations; and the everlasting mountains were scattered, 7 the perpetual hills did bow: his ways are everlasting. I saw the tents of Cushan in affliction: and the curtains of the 8 land of Midian trembled. Was the LORD displeased against the rivers? was thy anger against the rivers? was thy wrath against the sea, that thou didst ride upon thy horses, and thy 9 chariots of salvation? Thy bow was made quite naked, according to the oaths of the tribes, even thy word. Selah. Thou 10 didst cleave the earth with rivers. The mountains saw thee, and they trembled: the overflowing of the water passed by: the 11 deep uttered his voice, and lifted up his hands on high. The sun and moon stood still in their habitation: at the light of thy arrows they went, and at the shining of thy glittering spear.
12 Thou didst march through the land in indignation, thou didst thresh the heathen in anger. Thou wentest forth for the salvation of thy people, even for salvation with thy anointed; thou woundedst the head out of the house of the wicked, by uncovering 14 the foundation to the neck. Selah. Thou didst strike through with his staffs the head of his villages: they came out as a whirlwind to scatter me: their rejoicing was as to devour the poor secretly. Thou didst walk through the sea with thy horses, through the mire of great waters. When I heard, my belly trembled; my lips quivered at the voice: rottenness entered into my bones, and I trembled in myself, that I might rest in the day of trouble: when he cometh up to the people, he will invade them with his troops. Although the fig-tree shall not blossom, neither shall fruit be in the vines; the labor of the olive shall fail, and the fields shall yield no food; the flock shall be cut off from the fold, and there shall be no herd in the stalls: Yet I will rejoice in the LORD, I will joy in the God of my salvation. The Lord GOD is my strength, and he will make my feet like hinds' feet, and he will make me to walk upon my high places. To the chief singer on my stringed instruments.

ZEPHANIAH.

1  he word of the LORD which came to Zephaniah the son of Cushi, the son of Gedaliah, the son of Amariah, 2 the son of Hizkiah, in the days of Josiah the son of 3 Amon, king of Judah. I will utterly consume all 4 things from off the land, saith the LORD. I will consume man and beast; I will consume the fowls of the heaven, and the fishes of the sea, and the stumbling-blocks with the wicked; 5 and I will cut off man from off the land, saith the LORD. I will also stretch out my hand upon Judah and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and I will cut off the remnant of Baal from this place, and the name of the Chemarims with the priests; 6 And them that worship the host of heaven upon the house-tops; and them that worship and that swear by the LORD, and that 7 swear by Malcham; And them that have turned back from the LORD; and those that have not sought the LORD, nor inquired for him. Hold thy peace at the presence of the Lord 8 GOD: for the day of the LORD is at hand: for the LORD hath prepared a sacrifice, he hath invited his guests. And it shall come to pass in the day of the LORD'S sacrifice, that I will punish the princes, and the king's children, and all such as are 9 clothed with foreign apparel. In the same day also will I punish all those that leap on the threshold, who fill their masters' 10 houses with violence and deceit. And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD, that there shall be the noise of a cry from the fish-gate, and a howling from the second, and a great 11 crashing from the hills. Howl, ye inhabitants of Maktesh, for all the merchant people are cut down; all they that bear sil-12 ver are cut off. And it shall come to pass at that time, that I will search Jerusalem with candles, and punish the men that are settled on their lees: that say in their heart, The LORD 13 will not do good, neither will he do evil. Therefore their goods shall become a booty, and their houses a desolation: they shall also build houses, but not inhabit them; and they shall plant 14 vineyards, but not drink the wine of them. The great day of the LORD is near, it is near, and hasteth greatly, even the voice of the day of the LORD: the mighty man shall cry there bitterly.

That day is a day of wrath, a day of trouble and distress, a day 15 of wasting and desolation, a day of darkness and gloominess, a day of clouds and thick darkness, A day of the trumpet and 16 alarm against the fortified cities, and against the high towers.
And I will bring distress upon men, that they shall walk like 17 blind men, because they have sinned against the LORD: and their blood shall be poured out as dust, and their flesh as the dung. Neither their silver nor their gold shall be able to deli- 18 ver them in the day of the LORD'S wrath; but the whole land shall be devoured by the fire of his jealousy: for he will make even a speedy riddance of all them that dwell in the land.

Assemble yourselves, yes, assemble, O nation not desired; 2 Before the decree bringeth forth, before the day passeth as the 2 chaff, before the fierce anger of the LORD cometh upon you, before the day of the LORD'S anger cometh upon you. Seek 3 ye the LORD, all ye meek of the earth, who have performed his judgment; seek righteousness, seek meekness: it may be ye will be hid in the day of the LORD'S anger. For Gaza shall 4 be forsaken, and Ashkelon a desolation: they shall drive out Ashdod at the noon day, and Ekron shall be rooted up. Woe to 5 the inhabitants of the sea coasts, the nation of the Cherethites! the word of the LORD is against you; O Canaan, the land of the Philistines, I will even destroy thee, that there shall be no inhabitant. And the sea coast shall be dwellings and cottages 6 for shepherds, and folds for flocks. And the coasts shall be for 7 the remnant of the house of Judah; they shall feed upon them: in the houses of Ashkelon shall they lie down in the evening: for the LORD their God will visit them, and turn away their captivity. I have heard the reproach of Moab, and the revilings 8 of the children of Ammon, by which they have reproached my people, and magnified themselves against their border. There- 9 fore as I live, saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Surely Moab shall be as Sodom, and the children of Ammon as Gomor-rah, even the breeding of nettles, and salt-pits, and a perpetual desolation: the residue of my people shall lay them waste, and the remnant of my people shall possess them. This shall they 10 have for their pride, because they have reproached and magnified themselves against the people of the LORD of hosts. The 11 LORD will be terrible to them: for he will famish all the gods of the earth; and men shall worship him, every one from his 12 place, even all the isles of the heathen. Ye Cushites also, ye 13 shall be slain by my sword. And he will stretch out his hand against the north, and destroy Assyria; and will make Nineveh 14 a desolation, and dry like a wilderness. And flocks shall lie down in the midst of her, all the beasts of the nations: both the cormorant and the bittern shall lodge in the upper lintels of it; their voice shall sing in the windows; desolation shall be in the 15 thresholds: for he shall uncover the cedar work. This is the rejoicing city that dwelt in security, that said in her heart, I am, and there is none besides me: how is she become a desolation, a place for beasts to lie down in! every one that passeth by her shall hiss, and wag his hand.

3 Woe to her that is filthy and polluted, to the oppressing 2 city! She obeyed not the voice; she received not correction; she 3 trusted not in the LORD; she drew not near to her God. Her princes within her are roaring lions; her judges are evening 4 wolves; they gnaw not the bones till the morrow. Her prophets are light and treacherous persons: her priests have polluted 5 the sanctuary, they have done violence to the law. The just LORD is in the midst of her; he will not do iniquity: every morning doth he bring his judgment to light, he faileth not; but the 6 unjust knoweth no shame. I have cut off the nations: their towers are desolate; I made their streets waste, that none passeth by: their cities are destroyed, so that there is no man, that 7 there is no inhabitant. I said, Surely thou wilt fear me, thou wilt receive instruction; so their dwelling should not be cut off, however I punished them: but they rose early, and corrupted 8 all their doings. Therefore wait ye upon me, saith the LORD, until the day that I rise up to the prey: for my determination is to gather the nations, that I may assemble the kingdoms, to pour upon them my indignation, even all my fierce anger:
for all the earth shall be devoured with the fire of my jealousy.
9 For then will I turn to the people a pure language, that they may all call upon the name of the LORD, to serve him with 10 one consent. From beyond the rivers of Cush my suppliants, 11 even the daughter of my dispersed, shall bring my offering. In that day shalt thou not be ashamed for all thy doings, in which thou hast transgressed against me: for then I will take away out of the midst of thee them that rejoice in thy pride, and thou 12 shalt no more be haughty because of my holy mountain. I will also leave in the midst of thee an afflicted and poor people, and they shall trust in the name of the LORD. The remnant of Israel shall not do iniquity, nor speak lies; neither shall a deceitful tongue be found in their mouth: for they shall feed and lie down, and none shall make them afraid. Sing, O daughter of Zion; shout, O Israel; be glad and rejoice with all the heart, O daughter of Jerusalem. The LORD hath taken away thy judgments, he hath cast out thy enemy: the King of Israel, even the LORD, is in the midst of thee: thou shalt not see evil any more. In that day it shall be said to Jerusalem, Fear thou not: and to Zion, Let not thy hands be slack. The LORD thy God in the midst of thee is mighty; he will save, he will rejoice over thee with joy; he will rest in his love, he will joy over thee with singing. I will gather them that are sorrowful for the solemn assembly, who are of thee, to whom the reproach of it was a burden. Behold, at that time I will undo all that afflict thee: and I will save her that halteth, and gather her that was driven out; and I will get them praise and fame in every land where they have been put to shame. At that time will I bring you again, even in the time that I gather you: for I will make you a name and a praise among all people of the earth, when I turn back your captivity before your eyes, saith the LORD.

HAGGAI.

1  n the second year of Darius the king, in the sixth month, in the first day of the month, came the word of the LORD by Haggai the prophet to Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest, saying, Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, This people say, The time is not come, the time that the LORD'S house should be built. Then came the word of the LORD by Haggai the prophet, saying, Is it time for you, O ye, to dwell in your ceiled houses, and this house lie waste? Now therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts; Consider your ways. Ye have sown much, and bring in little; ye eat, but ye have not enough; ye drink, but ye are not filled with drink; ye clothe yourselves, but there is none warm; and he that earneth wages earneth wages to put it into a bag with holes. Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Consider your ways. Go up to the mountain, and bring wood, and build the house; and I will take pleasure in it, and I will be glorified, saith the LORD. Ye looked for much, and lo, it came to little; and when ye brought it home, I did blow upon it. Why? saith the LORD of hosts. Because of my house that is waste, and ye run every man to his own house. Therefore the heaven over you is stayed from dew, and the earth is stayed from her fruit. And I called for a drouth upon the land, and upon the mountains, and upon the corn, and upon the new wine, and upon the oil, and upon that which the ground bringeth forth, and upon men, and upon cattle, and upon all the labor of the hands. Then Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest, with all the remnant of the people, obeyed the voice of the LORD their God, and the words of Haggai the prophet, as the LORD their God had sent him, and the people did fear before the LORD. Then spoke Haggai the LORD'S messenger in the LORD'S message to the people, saying, I am with you, saith the LORD. And the LORD stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people; and they came and performed work in the house of the LORD of hosts, their God, In the four and twentieth day of the same month, in the second year of Darius the king. 15

In the seventh month, in the one and twentieth day of the month, came the word of the LORD by the prophet Haggai, saying, Speak now to Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Josedech the high priest, and to the residue of the people, saying, Who is left among you that saw this house in her first glory? and how do ye see it now? is it not in your eyes in comparison of it as nothing? Yet now be strong, O Zerubbabel, saith the LORD; and be strong, O Joshua, son of Josedech, the high priest; and be strong, all ye people of the land, saith the LORD, and work: for I am with you, saith the LORD of hosts: According to the word that I covenanted with you when ye came out of Egypt, so my spirit remaineth among you: fear ye not. For thus saith the LORD of hosts; Yet once, it is a little while, and I will shake the heavens, and the earth, and the sea, and the dry land; And I will shake all nations, and the desire of all nations shall come: and I will fill this house with glory, saith the LORD of hosts. The silver is mine, and the gold is mine, saith the LORD of hosts. The glory of this latter house shall be greater than of the former, saith the LORD of hosts: and in this place will I give peace, saith the LORD of hosts. In the four and twentieth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD by Haggai the prophet, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Ask now the priests concerning the law, saying, If one shall bear holy flesh in the skirt of his garment, and with his skirt shall touch bread, or pottage, or wine, or oil, or any food, shall it be holy? And the priests answered and said, No. Then said Haggai, If one that is unclean by a dead body shall touch any of these, shall it be unclean? And the priests answered and said, It shall be unclean. Then answered Haggai, and said, So is this people, and so is this nation before me, saith the LORD; and so is every work of their hands; and that which they offer there is unclean. And now, I pray you, consider from this day and upward, from before a stone was laid upon a stone in the temple of the LORD: Since those days were, when one came to a heap of twenty measures, there were but ten: when one came to the press-vat to draw out fifty vessels out of the press, 2 17 there were but twenty. I smote you with blasting and with mildew and with hail in all the labors of your hands; yet ye 18 turned not to me, saith the LORD. Consider now from this day, and upward, from the four and twentieth day of the ninth month, even from the day that the foundation of the LORD'S 19 temple was laid, consider it. Is the seed yet in the barn? yes, as yet the vine, and the fig-tree, and the pomegranate, and the olive-tree, hath not brought forth: from this day will I bless 20 you. And again the word of the LORD came to Haggai in the 21 four and twentieth day of the month, saying, Speak to Zerub-babel, governor of Judah, saying, I will shake the heavens and 22 the earth; And I will overthrow the throne of kingdoms, and I will destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the heathen: and I will overthrow the chariots, and those that ride in them; and the horses and their riders shall come down, every one by the 23 sword of his brother. In that day, saith the LORD of hosts, will I take thee, O Zerubbabel, my servant, the son of Shealtiel, saith the LORD, and will make thee as a signet; for I have chosen thee, saith the LORD of hosts.

ZECHARIAH.

 n the eighth month, in the second year of Darius, 1 came the word of the LORD to Zechariah, the son of Barachiah, the son of Iddo the prophet, saying, The 2 LORD hath been greatly displeased with your fathers.
Therefore say thou to them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; 3 Turn ye to me, saith the LORD of hosts, and I will turn to you, saith the LORD of hosts. Be ye not as your fathers, to whom 4 the former prophets have cried, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Turn ye now from your evil ways, and from your evil doings: but they did not hear, nor hearken to me, saith the LORD.
Your fathers, where are they? and the prophets, do they live for 5 ever? But my words and my statutes, which I commanded my 6 servants the prophets, did they not take hold of your fathers? and they returned and said, As the LORD of hosts thought to do to us, according to our ways, and according to our doings, so hath he dealt with us. Upon the four and twentieth day of 7 the eleventh month, which is the month Sebat, in the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD to Zechariah, the son of Barachiah, the son of Iddo the prophet, saying, I saw by 8 night, and behold a man riding upon a red horse, and he stood among the myrtle-trees that were in the bottom; and behind him were there red horses, speckled, and white. Then said I, 9 O my LORD, what are these? And the angel that talked with me said to me, I will show thee what these are. And the man 10 that stood among the myrtle-trees answered and said, These are they whom the LORD hath sent to walk to and fro through the earth. And they answered the angel of the LORD that 11 stood among the myrtle-trees, and said, We have walked to and fro through the earth, and behold, all the earth sitteth still, and is at rest. Then the angel of the LORD answered and 12 said, O LORD of hosts, how long wilt thou not have mercy on Jerusalem and on the cities of Judah, against which thou hast had indignation these seventy years. And the LORD answered 13 the angel that talked with me with good words and comforting words. So the angel that communed with me said to me, Cry 14 thou, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; I am jealous for 15 Jerusalem and for Zion with a great jealousy. And I am very greatly displeased with the heathen that are at ease: for I was but a little displeased, and they helped forward the affliction.

16 Therefore thus saith the LORD; I have returned to Jerusalem with mercies: my house shall be built in it, saith the LORD of 17 hosts, and a line shall be stretched forth upon Jerusalem. Cry yet, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; My cities through prosperity shall yet be spread abroad; and the LORD shall yet

18 comfort Zion, and shall yet choose Jerusalem. Then I lifted up 19 my eyes, and saw, and behold four horns. And I said to the angel that talked with me, What are these? And he answered me, These are the horns which have scattered Judah, Israel, and 20, 21 Jerusalem. And the LORD showed me four carpenters. Then said I, What come these to do? And he spoke, saying, These are the horns which have scattered Judah, so that no man lifted up his head: but these are come to terrify them, to cast down the horns of the Gentiles, which lifted their horn over the land of Judah to scatter it.

2 I lifted up my eyes again, and looked, and behold a man

2 with a measuring line in his hand. Then said I, Whither goest thou? And he said to me, To measure Jerusalem, to see what is

3 its breadth, and what is its length. And behold, the angel that talked with me went forth, and another angel went out to meet

4 him, And said to him, Run, speak to this young man, saying, Jerusalem shall be inhabited as towns without walls for the

5 multitude of men and cattle in it. For I, saith the LORD, will be to her a wall of fire on every side, and will be the glory in

6 the midst of her. Ho, ho, come forth, and flee from the land of the north, saith the LORD: for I have spread you abroad as

7 the four winds of the heaven, saith the LORD. Deliver thyself,

8 O Zion, that dwellest with the daughter of Babylon. For thus saith the LORD of hosts; After the glory hath he sent me to the nations which wasted you: for he that toucheth you, toucheth

9 the apple of his eye. For behold, I will shake my hand upon them, and they shall be a spoil to their servants: and ye shall

10 know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me. Sing, and rejoice, O daughter of Zion: for lo, I come, and I will dwell in the midst 11 of thee, saith the LORD. And many nations shall be joined to the LORD in that day, and shall be my people: and I will dwell in the midst of thee, and thou shalt know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me to thee. And the LORD shall inherit 12 Judah his portion in the holy land, and shall choose Jerusalem again. Be silent, O all flesh, before the LORD: for he is raised 13 up out of his holy habitation.

And he showed me Joshua the high priest standing before 3 the angel of the LORD, and Satan standing at his right hand to resist him. And the LORD said to Satan, The LORD rebuke 2 thee, O Satan; even the LORD that hath chosen Jerusalem rebuke thee: is not this a brand plucked out of the fire? Now 3 Joshua was clothed with filthy garments, and stood before the angel. And he answered and spoke to those that stood before 4 him, saying, Take away the filthy garments from him. And to him he said, Behold, I have caused thy iniquity to pass from thee, and I will clothe thee with change of raiment. And I 5 said, Let them set a fair miter upon his head. So they set a fair miter upon his head, and clothed him with garments. And the angel of the LORD stood by. And the angel of the LORD 6 protested to Joshua, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; If 7 thou wilt walk in my ways, and if thou wilt keep my charge, then thou shalt also judge my house, and shalt also keep my courts, and I will give thee places to walk among these that stand by. Hear now, O Joshua the high priest, thou and thy 8 fellows that sit before thee: for they are men wondered at: for behold, I will bring forth my servant the BRANCH. For be- 9 hold, the stone that I have laid before Joshua; upon one stone shall be seven eyes; behold, I will engrave the graving of it saith the LORD of hosts, and I will remove the iniquity of that land in one day. In that day, saith the LORD of hosts, shall 10 ye call every man his neighbor under the vine and under the fig-tree.

And the angel that talked with me came again, and waked 4 me, as a man that is wakened out of his sleep, And said to 2 me, What seest thou? And I said, I have looked, and behold a candlestick: all of gold, with a bowl upon the top of it, and its seven lamps, and seven pipes to the seven lamps, which were 3 upon the top of it. And two olive-trees by it, one upon the right side of the bowl, and the other upon the left side. So I 4 answered and spoke to the angel that talked with me, saying, What are these, my lord? Then the angel that talked with me 5 answered and said to me, Knowest thou not what these are?

6 and I said, No, my lord. Then he answered and spoke to me, saying, This is the word of the LORD to Zerubbabel, saying, Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the LORD 7 of hosts. Who art thou, O great mountain? before Zerubbabel thou shalt become a plain: and he shall bring forth its head-8 stone with shoutings, crying, Grace, grace, to it. Moreover the 9 word of the LORD came to me, saying, The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this house; his hands shall also finish it; and thou shalt know that the LORD of hosts hath sent 10 me to you. For who hath despised the day of small things? for they shall rejoice, and shall see the plummet in the hand of Zerubbabel with those seven; they are the eyes of the LORD, 11 which run to and fro through the whole earth. Then I answered, and said to him, What are these two olive-trees upon 12 the right side of the candlestick and upon its left side? And I answered again, and said to him, What are these two olive branches which through the two golden pipes empty the golden 13 oil out of themselves? And he answered me and said, Knowest 14 thou not what these are? And I said, No, my lord. Then said he, These are the two anointed ones, that stand by the LORD of the whole earth.

5 Then I turned, and lifted up my eyes, and looked, and be-2 hold a flying roll. And he said to me, What seest thou? And I answered, I see a flying roll; its length is twenty cubits, and 3 its breadth ten cubits. Then said he to me, This is the curse that goeth forth over the face of the whole earth: for every one that stealeth shall be cut off as on this side according to it; and every one that sweareth shall be cut off as on that side according to it. I will bring it forth, saith the LORD of hosts, and it shall enter into the house of the thief, and into the house of him that sweareth falsely by my name: and it shall remain in the midst of his house, and shall consume it with its timber 5 and its stones. Then the angel that talked with me went forth, and said to me, Lift up now thy eyes, and see what is this that 6 goeth forth. And I said, What is it? And he said, This is an ephah that goeth forth. He said moreover, This is their resemblance through all the earth. And behold, there was lifted up a talent of lead: and this is a woman that sitteth in the midst 8 of the ephah. And he said, This is wickedness. And he cast it into the midst of the ephah; and he cast the weight of lead upon its mouth. Then I lifted up my eyes, and looked and behold, there came out two women, and the wind was in their wings; for they had wings like the wings of a stork: and they lifted up the ephah between the earth and the heaven. Then said I to the angel that talked with me, Whither do these bear the ephah? And he said to me, To build for it a house in the land of Shinar: and it shall be established, and set there upon her own base.

And I turned, and lifted up my eyes, and looked, and behold, there came four chariots out from between two mountains; and the mountains were mountains of brass. In the first chariot were red horses; and in the second chariot black horses; And in the third chariot white horses; and in the fourth chariot grizzled and bay horses. Then I answered and said to the angel that talked with me, What are these, my lord? And the angel answered and said to me, These are the four spirits of the heavens, which go forth from standing before the Lord of all the earth. The black horses which are therein go forth into the north country; and the white go forth after them; and the grizzled go forth towards the south country. And the bay went forth, and sought to go that they might walk to and fro through the earth: and he said, Go hence, walk to and fro through the earth. So they walked to and fro through the earth. Then he cried upon me, and spoke to me, saying, Behold, these that go towards the north country have quieted my spirit in the north country. And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, Take of them of the captivity, even of Heldai, of Tobijah, and of Jedaiah, who are come from Babylon, and come thou the same day, and go into the house of Josiah the son of Zephaniah; Then take silver and gold, and make crowns, and set them upon the head of Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest. And speak to him, saying, Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, Behold the man whose name is The BRANCH; and he shall grow up out of his place, and he shall build the temple of the LORD; Even he shall build the temple of the LORD; and he shall bear the glory, and shall sit and rule upon his throne: and he shall be a priest upon his throne: and the counsel of peace shall be between them both. And the crowns shall be to Helem, and to Tobijah, and to Jedaiah, and to Hen the son of Zephaniah, for a memorial in the temple of the LORD. And they that are far off shall come and build in the temple of the LORD, and ye shall know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me to you. And this shall come to pass, if ye will diligently obey the voice of the LORD your God.

7 And it came to pass in the fourth year of king Darius, that the word of the LORD came to Zechariah in the fourth day of the ninth month, even in Chisleu; When they had sent to the house of God Sherezzer and Regem-melech, and their men, to pray before the LORD, And to speak to the priests who were in the house of the LORD of hosts, and to the prophets, saying, Should I weep in the fifth month, separating myself, as I have done these so many years? Then came the word of the LORD of hosts to me, saying, Speak to all the people of the land, and to the priests, saying, When ye fasted and mourned in the fifth and seventh month, even those seventy years, did ye at all fast to me, even to me? And when ye ate, and when ye drank, did ye not eat for yourselves, and drink for yourselves? Should ye not hear the words which the LORD hath cried by the former prophets, when Jerusalem was inhabited and in prosperity, and her cities around her, when men inhabited the south and the plain? And the word of the LORD came to Zechariah, saying, Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, Execute true judgment, and show mercy and compassions every man to his brother: And oppress not the widow, nor the fatherless, the stranger, nor the poor; and let none of you imagine evil against his brother in your heart. But they refused to hearken, and withdrew the shoulder, and stopped their ears, that they should not hear. Yes, they made their hearts as an adamant stone, lest they should hear the law, and the words which the LORD of hosts hath sent in his spirit by the former prophets: therefore came a great wrath from the LORD of hosts. Therefore it is come to pass, that as he cried, and they would not hear; so they cried, and I would not hear, saith the LORD of hosts: But I scattered them with a whirlwind among all the nations whom they knew not. Thus the land was desolate after them, that no man passed through nor returned: for they laid the pleasant land desolate.

8 Again the word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; I was jealous for Zion with great jealousy, and I was jealous for her with great fury. Thus saith the LORD; I have returned to Zion, and will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem: and Jerusalem shall be called a city of truth; and the mountain of the LORD of hosts the holy mountain. Thus saith the LORD of hosts; There shall yet old men and old women dwell in the streets of Jerusalem, and every man with his staff in his hand for very age. And the streets of the city shall be full of boys and girls playing in its streets. Thus saith the LORD of hosts; If it is marvelous in the eyes of the remnant of this people in these days, should it also be marvelous in my eyes? saith the LORD of hosts. Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Behold, I will save my people from the east country, and from the west country; And I will bring them, and they shall dwell in the midst of Jerusalem: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God, in truth and in righteousness. Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Let your hands be strong, ye that hear in these days these words by the mouth of the prophets, who were in the day when the foundation of the house of the LORD of hosts was laid, that the temple might be built. For before these days there was no hire for man, nor any hire for beast; neither was there any peace to him that went out or came in because of the affliction: for I set all men every one against his neighbor. But now I will not be to the residue of this people as in the former days, saith the LORD of hosts. For the seed shall be prosperous; the vine shall give her fruit, and the ground shall give her increase, and the heavens shall give their dew; and I will cause the remnant of this people to possess all these things. And it shall come to pass, that as ye were a curse among the heathen, O house of Judah, and house of Israel; so will I save you, and ye shall be a blessing: fear not, let your hands be strong. For thus saith the LORD of hosts; As I thought to punish you, when your fathers provoked me to wrath, saith the LORD of hosts, and I repented not; So again have I thought in these days to do good to Jerusalem and to the house of Judah: fear ye not. These are the things that ye shall do; Speak ye every man the truth to his neighbor; execute the judgment of truth and peace in your gates: And let none of you imagine evil in your hearts against his neighbor; and love no false oath: for all these are things that I hate, saith the LORD. And the word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; The fast of the fourth month, and the fast of the fifth, and the fast of the seventh, and the fast of the tenth, shall be to the house of Judah joy and gladness, and cheerful feasts; therefore love the truth and peace.

20 Thus saith the LORD of hosts: It shall yet come to pass, that there shall come people, and the inhabitants of many cities:
21 And the inhabitants of one city shall go to another, saying, Let us go speedily to pray before the LORD, and to seek the LORD 22 of hosts: I will go also. And many people and strong nations shall come to seek the LORD of hosts in Jerusalem, and to pray 23 before the LORD. Thus saith the LORD of hosts: In those days it shall come to pass, that ten men out of all languages of the nations, shall take hold, shall even take hold of the skirt of him that is a Jew, saying, We will go with you: for we have heard that God is with you.

9 The burden of the word of the LORD in the land of Hadrach, and Damascus shall be the rest of it: when the eyes of man, 2 as of all the tribes of Israel, shall be towards the LORD. And Hamath also shall border by it; Tyre and Zidon, though it be 3 very wise. And Tyre built herself a strong hold, and amassed 4 silver as the dust, and fine gold as the mire of the streets. Behold, the LORD will cast her out, and he will smite her power 5 in the sea; and she shall be devoured with fire. Ashkelon shall see it, and fear; Gaza also shall see it, and be very sorrowful, and Ekron; for her expectation shall be ashamed; and the king shall perish from Gaza, and Ashkelon shall not be inhabited.
6 And a bastard shall dwell in Ashdod, and I will cut off the 7 pride of the Philistines. And I will take away his blood out of his mouth, and his abominations from between his teeth: but he that remaineth, even he, shall be for our God, and he shall 8 be as a governor in Judah, and Ekron as a Jebusite. And I will encamp about my house because of the army, because of him that passeth by, and because of him that returneth: and no oppressor shall pass through them any more: for now have I 9 seen with my eyes. Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion; shout, O daughter of Jerusalem: behold, thy King cometh to thee: he is just, and having salvation; lowly, and riding upon an ass, 10 and upon a colt the foal of an ass. And I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim, and the horse from Jerusalem, and the battle-bow shall be cut off: and he shall speak peace to the heathen: and his dominion shall be from sea to sea, and from the river to the ends of the earth. As for thee also, by the blood of thy covenant I have sent forth thy prisoners out of the pit in which is no water. Turn ye to the strong hold, ye prisoners of hope: even to-day do I declare that I will render double to thee; When I have bent Judah for me, filled the bow with Ephraim, and raised up thy sons, O Zion, against thy sons, O Greece, and made thee as the sword of a mighty man. And the LORD shall be seen over them, and his arrow shall go forth as the lightning: and the Lord GOD will blow the trumpet, and will go with whirlwinds of the south. The LORD of hosts will defend them; and they shall devour, and subdue with sling-stones; and they shall drink, and make a noise as through wine; and they shall be filled like bowls, and as the corners of the altar. And the LORD their God will save them in that day as the flock of his people: for they shall be as the stones of a crown, lifted up as an ensign upon his land. For how great is his goodness, and how great is his beauty! corn shall make the young men cheerful, and new wine the maids.

Ask ye of the LORD rain in the time of the latter rain; so the LORD will make bright clouds, and give them showers of rain, to every one grass in the field. For the idols have spoken vanity, and the diviners have seen a lie, and have told false dreams; they comfort in vain: therefore they went their way as a flock, they were troubled because there was no shepherd. My anger was kindled against the shepherds, and I punished the goats: for the LORD of hosts hath visited his flock the house of Judah, and hath made them as his goodly horse in the battle. Out of him came forth the corner, out of him the nail, out of him the battle-bow, out of him every oppressor together. And they shall be as mighty men, who tread down their enemies in the mire of the streets in the battle: and they shall fight, because the LORD is with them, and the riders on horses shall be confounded. And I will strengthen the house of Judah, and I will save the house of Joseph, and I will bring them again to place them; for I have mercy upon them: and they shall be as though I had not cast them off: for I am the LORD their God, and will hear them. And they of Ephraim shall be like a mighty man, and their heart shall rejoice as through wine: yes, their children shall see it, and be glad; their heart shall rejoice in the LORD. I will hiss for them, and gather them: for

I have redeemed them: and they shall increase as they have 9 increased. And I will sow them among the people: and they shall remember me in remote countries; and they shall live 10 with their children, and turn again. I will bring them again also out of the land of Egypt, and gather them out of Assyria; and I will bring them into the land of Gilead and Lebanon; and 11 place shall not be found for them. And he shall pass through the sea with affliction, and shall smite the waves in the sea, and all the deeps of the river shall dry up: and the pride of Assyria shall be brought down, and the scepter of Egypt shall 12 depart. And I will strengthen them in the LORD; and they shall walk up and down in his name, saith the LORD.

11 Open thy doors, O Lebanon, that the fire may devour thy 2 cedars. Howl, fir-tree, for the cedar is fallen; because the mighty are laid waste: howl, O ye oaks of Bashan; for the forest 3 of the vintage is come down. There is a voice of the howling of the shepherds; for their glory is destroyed: a voice of the roaring of young lions; for the pride of Jordan is laid waste.
4 Thus saith the LORD my God; Feed the flock of the slaughter; 5 Whose possessors slay them, and hold themselves not guilty: and they that sell them say, Blessed be the LORD; for I am 6 rich: and their own shepherds pity them not. For I will no more pity the inhabitants of the land, saith the LORD: but lo, I will deliver the men every one into his neighbor's hand, and into the hand of his king: and they shall smite the land, and 7 out of their hand I will not deliver them. And I will feed the flock of slaughter, even you, O poor of the flock. And I took to me two staves; the one I called Beauty, and the other I called 8 Bands; and I fed the flock. Three shepherds also I cut off in one month; and my soul lothed them, and their soul also ab-9 horred me. Then said I, I will not feed you: that which dieth, let it die; and that which is to be cut off, let it be cut off; and 10 let the rest eat, every one the flesh of another. And I took my staff, even Beauty, and cut it asunder, that I might break my 11 covenant which I had made with all the people. And it was broken in that day: and so the poor of the flock that waited 12 upon me knew that it was the word of the LORD. And I said to them, If ye think good, give me my price; and if not, forbear.
13 So they weighed for my price thirty pieces of silver. And the LORD said to me, Cast it to the potter: a goodly price that I was prized at by them. And I took the thirty pieces of silver, and cast them to the potter in the house of the LORD. Then I cut asunder my other staff, even Bands, that I might break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel. And the LORD said to me, Take to thee yet the instruments of a foolish shepherd. For lo, I will raise up a shepherd in the land, who shall not visit those that are cut off, neither shall seek the young one, nor heal that which is broken, nor feed that which standeth still: but he shall eat the flesh of the fat, and tear their claws in pieces. Woe to the idle shepherd that leaveth the flock! the sword shall be upon his arm, and upon his right eye: his arm shall be wholly dried up, and his right eye shall be utterly darkened.

The burden of the word of the LORD for Israel, saith the LORD, who stretcheth forth the heavens, and layeth the foundation of the earth, and formeth the spirit of man within him. Behold, I will make Jerusalem a cup of trembling to all the people around, when they shall be in the siege both against Judah and against Jerusalem. And in that day will I make Jerusalem a burdensome stone for all people: all that burden themselves with it shall be cut in pieces, though all the people of the earth be assembled against it. In that day, saith the LORD, I will smite every horse with astonishment, and his rider with madness: and I will open my eyes upon the house of Judah, and will smite every horse of the people with blindness. And the governors of Judah shall say in their heart, The inhabitants of Jerusalem shall be my strength in the LORD of hosts their God. In that day will I make the governors of Judah like a hearth of fire among the wood, and like a torch of fire in a sheaf; and they shall devour all the people around, on the right hand and on the left: and Jerusalem shall be inhabited again in her own place, even in Jerusalem. The LORD also will save the tents of Judah first, that the glory of the house of David and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem may not magnify themselves against Judah. In that day will the LORD defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and he that is feeble among them at that day shall be as David; and the house of David shall be as God, as the angel of the LORD before them. And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.

- 10 And I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplications: and they shall look upon me whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for him, as one mourneth for his only son, and shall be in bitterness for him, as one that is in bitterness
- 11 for his first-born. In that day shall there be a great mourning in Jerusalem, as the mourning of Hadadrimmon in the valley
- 12 of Megiddon. And the land shall mourn, every family apart; the family of the house of David apart, and their wives apart; the family of the house of Nathan apart, and their wives apart;
- 13 The family of the house of Levi apart, and their wives apart;
- 14 the family of Shimei apart, and their wives apart; All the families that remain, every family apart, and their wives apart.
- 13 In that day there shall be a fountain opened to the house of David and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem for sin and for
- 2 uncleanness. And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD of hosts, that I will cut off the names of the idols out of the land, and they shall no more be remembered: and also I will cause the prophets and the unclean spirit to pass out of the
- 3 land. And it shall come to pass, that when any shall yet prophesy, then his father and his mother that begat him shall say to him, Thou shalt not live; for thou speakest lies in the name of the LORD: and his father and his mother that begat him shall
- 4 thrust him through when he prophesieth. And it shall come to pass in that day, that the prophets shall be ashamed every one of his vision, when he hath prophesied; neither shall they
- 5 wear a rough garment to deceive: But he shall say, I am no prophet, I am a husbandman; for man taught me to keep cattle from my youth. And one shall say to him, What are these
- 6 wounds in thy hands? Then he shall answer, Those with which
- 7 I was wounded in the house of my friends. Awake, O sword, against my shepherd, and against the man that is my fellow, saith the LORD of hosts: smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered: and I will turn my hand upon the little ones.
- 8 And it shall come to pass, that in all the land, saith the LORD, two parts therein shall be cut off and die; but the third shall be
- 9 left therein. And I will bring the third part through the fire, and will refine them as silver is refined, and will try them as gold is tried: they shall call on my name, and I will hear them: I will say, It is my people; and they shall say, The LORD is my

God.

Behold, the day of the LORD cometh, and thy spoil shall 14 be divided in the midst of thee. For I will gather all nations 2 against Jerusalem to battle; and the city shall be taken, and the houses rifled, and the women ravished; and half of the city shall go forth into captivity, and the residue of the people shall not be cut off from the city. Then will the LORD go forth, and 3 fight against those nations, as when he fought in the day of battle. And his feet will stand in that day upon the mount of 4 Olives, which is before Jerusalem on the east, and the mount of Olives shall cleave in the midst of it towards the east and towards the west, and there shall be a very great valley; and half of the mountain shall remove towards the north, and half of it towards the south. And ye shall flee to the valley of the 5 mountains; for the valley of the mountains shall reach to Azal: yes, ye shall flee as ye fled from before the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah: and the LORD my God shall come, and all the saints with thee. And it shall come to pass 6 in that day, that the light shall not be clear, nor dark: But it 7 shall be one day which shall be known to the LORD, not day, nor night: but it shall come to pass, that at evening it shall be light. And it shall be in that day, that living waters shall go 8 out from Jerusalem; half of them towards the former sea, and half of them towards the hinder sea: in summer and in winter shall it be. And the LORD will be king over all the earth: in 9 that day will there be one LORD, and his name one. All the 10 land shall be turned as a plain from Geba to Rimmon, south of Jerusalem: and it shall be lifted up, and inhabited in her place, from Benjamin's gate to the place of the first gate, to the corner gate, and from the tower of Hananeel to the king's wine-presses. And men shall dwell in it, and there shall be no 11 more utter destruction; but Jerusalem shall be safely inhabited. And this shall be the plague with which the LORD will 12 smite all the people that have fought against Jerusalem; Their flesh shall consume away while they stand upon their feet, and their eyes shall consume away in their holes, and their tongue shall consume away in their mouth. And it shall come to pass 13 in that day, that a great tumult from the LORD shall be among them; and they shall lay hold every one on the hand of his neighbor, and his hand shall rise up against the hand of his 14 neighbor. And Judah also shall fight at Jerusalem; and the wealth of all the heathen around shall be collected, gold, and 15 silver, and apparel, in great abundance. And so shall be the plague of the horse, of the mule, of the camel, and of the ass, and of all the beasts that shall be in these tents, as this plague.

16 And it shall come to pass, that every one that is left of all the nations which came against Jerusalem shall even go up from year to year to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, and to 17 keep the feast of tabernacles. And it shall be, that whoever will not come up of all the families of the earth to Jerusalem to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, even upon them shall 18 be no rain. And if the family of Egypt shall not go up, and shall not come, that have no rain; there shall be the plague, with which the LORD will smite the heathen that come not up 19 to keep the feast of tabernacles. This shall be the punishment of Egypt, and the punishment of all nations that come not up 20 to keep the feast of tabernacles. In that day there shall be upon the bells of the horses, HOLINESS TO THE LORD; and the pots in the LORD'S house shall be like the bowls before the 21 altar. Yes, every pot in Jerusalem and in Judah shall be holiness to the LORD of hosts: and all they that sacrifice shall come and take of them, and seethe in them: and in that day there shall be no more the Canaanite in the house of the LORD of hosts.

MALACHI.

The burden of the word of the LORD to Israel by Malachi. 1 I have loved you, saith the LORD. Yet ye say, In what 2 hast thou loved us? Was not Esau Jacob's brother? saith the LORD: yet I loved Jacob, And I hated Esau, 3 and laid his mountains and his heritage waste for the dragons of the wilderness. Whereas Edom saith, We are impoverished, 4 but we will return and build the desolate places; thus saith the LORD of hosts, They shall build, but I will throw down; and they shall call them, The border of wickedness, and, The peo- 5 ple against whom the LORD hath indignation for ever. And your eyes shall see, and ye shall say, The LORD will be mag- 6 nified from the border of Israel. A son honoreth his father, and a servant his master: if then I am a father, where is my honor? and if I am a master, where is my fear? saith the LORD of hosts to you, O priests, that despise my name. And ye say, 7 In what have we despised thy name? Ye offer polluted bread upon my altar? and ye say, In what have we polluted thee? In that ye say, The table of the LORD is contemptible. And if ye 8 offer the blind for sacrifice, is it not evil? and if ye offer the lame and sick, is it not evil? offer it now to thy governor; will he be pleased with thee, or accept thy person? saith the LORD of hosts. And now, I pray you, beseech God that he will be gra- 9 cious to us: this hath been by your means: will he regard your person? saith the LORD of hosts. Who is there even among 10 you that would shut the doors for nought? neither do ye kindle fire on my altar for naught. I have no pleasure in you, saith the LORD of hosts, neither will I accept an offering at your hand.
For from the rising of the sun even to the setting of the same, 11 my name shall be great among the Gentiles; and in every place incense shall be offered to my name, and a pure offering: for my name shall be great among the heathen, saith the LORD of hosts. But ye have profaned it, in that ye say, The table of the 12 LORD is polluted; and the fruit of it, even his provision, is contemptible. Ye said also, Behold, what a weariness is it! and ye 13 have snuffed at it, saith the LORD of hosts; and ye brought that which was torn, and the lame, and the sick; thus ye brought an offering: should I accept this from your hand? saith the LORD.

14 But cursed be the deceiver, who hath in his flock a male, and voweth, and sacrificeth to the LORD a corrupt thing: for I am a great King, saith the LORD of hosts, and my name is dreadful among the heathen.

2, 2 And now, O ye priests, this commandment is for you. If ye will not hear, and if ye will not lay it to heart, to give glory to my name, saith the LORD of hosts, I will even send a curse upon you, and I will curse your blessings; yes, I have cursed 3 them already, because ye do not lay it to heart. Behold, I will corrupt your seed, and spread dung upon your faces, even the dung of your solemn feasts; and one shall take you away with 4 it. And ye shall know that I have sent this commandment to you, that my covenant might be with Levi, saith the LORD of 5 hosts. My covenant was with him of life and peace; and I gave them to him for the fear with which he feared me, and was 6 afraid before my name. The law of truth was in his mouth, and iniquity was not found in his lips: he walked with me in 7 peace and equity, and turned many away from iniquity. For the priest's lips should keep knowledge, and they should seek the law at his mouth: for he is the messenger of the LORD of 8 hosts. But ye have departed out of the way; ye have caused many to stumble at the law; ye have corrupted the covenant of 9 Levi, saith the LORD of hosts. Therefore have I also made you contemptible and base before all the people, according as ye 10 have not kept my ways, but have been partial in the law. Have we not all one father? hath not one God created us? why do we deal treacherously every man against his brother, by profaning 11 the covenant of our fathers? Judah hath dealt treacherously, and an abomination is committed in Israel and in Jerusalem; for Judah hath profaned the holiness of the LORD whom he 12 loved, and hath married the daughter of a strange god. The LORD will cut off the man that doeth this, the master and the scholar, out of the tabernacles of Jacob, and him that offereth 13 an offering to the LORD of hosts. And this have ye done again, covering the altar of the LORD with tears, with weeping, and with crying out, insomuch that he regardeth not the offering 14 any more, or receiveth it with good will at your hand. Yet ye say, Why? Because the LORD hath been witness between thee and the wife of thy youth, against whom thou hast dealt treacherously: yet is she thy companion, and the wife of thy covenant. And did he not make one? Yet had he the residue of the spirit. And why one? That he might seek a godly seed. Therefore take heed to your spirit, and let none deal treacherously against the wife of his youth. For the LORD, the God of Israel, saith, that he hateth putting away: for one covereth violence with his garment, saith the LORD of hosts: therefore take heed to your spirit, that ye deal not treacherously. Ye have wearied the LORD with your words. Yet ye say, In what have we wearied him? When ye say, Every one that doeth evil is good in the sight of the LORD, and he delighteth in them; or, Where is the God of judgment? 15 16 17

Behold, I will send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me: and the LORD, whom ye seek, will suddenly come to his temple, even the messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in: behold, he will come, saith the LORD of hosts. But who may abide the day of his coming? and who shall stand when he appeareth? for he is like a refiner's fire, and like fuller's soap. And he shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver: and he shall purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer to the LORD an offering in righteousness. Then shall the offering of Judah and Jerusalem be pleasant to the LORD, as in the days of old, and as in former years. And I will come near to you to judgment; and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against false swearers, and against those that oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and that turn aside the stranger from his right, and fear not me, saith the LORD of hosts. For I am the LORD, I change not; therefore ye sons of Jacob are not consumed. Even from the days of your fathers ye have gone away from my ordinances, and have not kept them. Return to me, and I will return to you, saith the LORD of hosts. But ye said, In what shall we return? Will a man rob God? yet ye have robbed me. But ye say, In what have we robbed thee? In tithes and offerings. Ye are cursed with a curse: for ye have robbed me, even this whole nation. Bring ye all the tithes into the store-house, that there may be food in my house, and prove me now with this, saith the LORD of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to re- 3 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 ceive it. And I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes, and he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground; neither shall your vine cast her fruit before the time in the field, saith the 12 LORD of hosts. And all nations shall call you blessed: for ye 13 shall be a delightsome land, saith the LORD of hosts. Your words have been stout against me, saith the LORD. Yet ye say, 14 What have we spoken so much against thee? Ye have said, It is vain to serve God: and what profit is it that we have kept his ordinance, and that we have walked mournfully before the 15 LORD of hosts? And now we call the proud happy; yes, they that work wickedness are set up; even they that tempt God are 16 delivered. Then they that feared the LORD spoke often one to another: and the LORD hearkened, and heard it, and a book of remembrance was written before him for them that feared the 17 LORD, and that thought upon his name. And they shall be mine, saith the LORD of hosts, in that day when I make up my jewels; and I will spare them, as a man spareth his own son 18 that serveth him. Then shall ye return and discern between the righteous and the wicked, between him that serveth God and him that serveth him not.

4 For behold, the day cometh, that shall burn as an oven; and all the proud, and all that do wickedly, shall be stubble: and the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith the LORD of 2 hosts, that it shall leave them neither root nor branch. But to you that fear my name, shall the Sun of righteousness arise with healing in his wings; and ye shall go forth, and grow up 3 as calves of the stall. And ye shall tread down the wicked; for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet in the day 4 that I shall do this, saith the LORD of hosts. Remember ye the law of Moses my servant, which I commanded to him in Horeb 5 for all Israel, with the statutes and judgments. Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and 6 dreadful day of the LORD: And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the earth with a curse.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ST. MATTHEW.

The book of the generation of Jesus Christ, the son of 1 David, the son of Abraham. Abraham begat Isaac; 2 and Isaac begat Jacob; and Jacob begat Judah and his brethren; And Judah begat Phares and Zara of 3 Thamar; and Phares begat Esrom; and Esrom begat Aram; And Aram begat Aminadab; and Aminadab begat Naasson; 4 and Naasson begat Salmon; And Salmon begat Booz of Rachab; 5 and Booz begat Obed of Ruth; and Obed begat Jesse; And 6 Jesse begat David the king; and David the king begat Solomon of her that had been the wife of Uriah; And Solomon begat 7 Roboam; and Roboam begat Abia; and Abia begat Asa; And 8 Asa begat Josaphat; and Josaphat begat Joram; and Joram begat Ozias; And Ozias begat Joatham; and Joatham begat 9 Achaz; and Achaz begat Ezekias; And Ezekias begat Manasses; and Manasses begat Amon; and Amon begat Josias; 10 And Josias begat Jechonias and his brethren, about the time 11 they were carried away to Babylon: And after they were brought 12 to Babylon, Jechonias begat Salathiel; and Salathiel begat Zorobabel; And Zorobabel begat Abiud; and Abiud begat Eliakim; 13 and Eliakim begat Azor; And Azor begat Sadoc; and Sadoc begat Achim; and Achim begat Eliud; And Eliud begat Eleazar; 15 and Eleazar begat Matthan; and Matthan begat Jacob; And 16 Jacob begat Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ. So all the generations from Abra- 17 ham to David are fourteen generations; and from David until the carrying away into Babylon are fourteen generations; and from the carrying away into Babylon to Christ are fourteen generations. Now the birth of Jesus Christ was in this 18 manner: When his mother Mary was espoused to Joseph, before they came together, she was found with child by the Holy Spirit. Then Joseph her husband, being a just man, and not 19 willing to make her a public example, purposed to put her away privately. But while he thought on these things, the angel of 20 the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take to thee Mary thy wife: for that which 21 is conceived in her is by the Holy Spirit. And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS: for he shall 22 save his people from their sins. Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken from the Lord by the 23 prophet, saying, Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call his name Emmanuel, 24 which being interpreted is, God with us. Then Joseph, being raised from sleep, did as the angel of the Lord had bidden 25 him, and took to him his wife: And knew her not till she had brought forth her first-born son: and he called his name JE-SUS.

2 Now, after Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of Herod the king, behold, there came wise men from the 2 east to Jerusalem, Saying, Where is he that is born king of the Jews? for we have seen his star in the east, and have come 3 to worship him. When Herod the king had heard these things, 4 he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him. And when he had assembled all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he 5 inquired of them where Christ should be born. And they said to him, In Bethlehem of Judea: for thus it is written by the 6 prophet, And thou Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, art not the least among the princes of Judah: for out of thee shall come 7 a Governor, that shall rule my people Israel. Then Herod, when he had privately called the wise men, inquired of them 8 diligently what time the star appeared. And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go, and search diligently for the young child; and when ye have found him, bring me word again, that 9 I may come and worship him also. When they had heard the king, they departed; and lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the 10 young child was. When they saw the star, they rejoiced with 11 exceeding great joy. And when they had come into the house, they saw the young child with Mary his mother, and fell down, and worshiped him: and when they had opened their treasures, they presented to him gifts; gold, and frankincense, and 12 myrrh. And being warned by God in a dream that they should not return to Herod, they departed into their own country an-13 other way. And when they had departed, behold, the angel of the Lord appeareth to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be thou there until I bring thee word: for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him. When he arose, he took the young child and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt: And was there until the death of Herod: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken from the Lord by the prophet, saying, Out of Egypt have I called my son. Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked by the wise men, was exceeding wroth, and sent forth, and slew all the children that were in Bethlehem, and in all its borders, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had diligently inquired of the wise men. Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet, saying, In Rama was there a voice heard, lamentation, and weeping, and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children, and would not be comforted, because they are not. But when Herod was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord appeareth in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, Saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Israel: for they are dead who sought the young child's life. And he arose, and took the young child and his mother, and came into the land of Israel. But when he heard that Archelaus reigned in Judea in the room of his father Herod, he was afraid to go thither: notwithstanding, being warned by God in a dream, he turned aside into the parts of Galilee: And he came and dwelt in a city called Nazareth: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophets, He shall be called a Nazarene.

In those days came John the Baptist, preaching in the wilderness of Judea, And saying, Repent ye: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand. For this is he that was spoken of by the prophet Isaiah, saying, The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight. And the same John had his raiment of camel's hair, and a leathern girdle about his loins; and his food was locusts and wild honey. Then went out to him Jerusalem, and all Judea, and all the region about Jordan, And were baptized by him in Jordan, confessing their sins. But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees come to his baptism, he said to them, O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come? Bring forth therefore fruits meet for repentance: And think not to say within yourselves, We have

Abraham for our father: for I say to you, that God is able of 10 these stones to raise up children to Abraham. And now also the ax is laid to the root of the trees: therefore every tree which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the 11 fire. I indeed baptize you with water to repentance: but he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear: he shall baptize you with the Holy Spirit, and 12 with fire: Whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly cleanse his floor, and gather his wheat into the granary; but 13 he will burn the chaff with unquenchable fire. Then cometh Jesus from Galilee to Jordan to John, to be baptized by him.
14 But John forbad him, saying, I have need to be baptized by 15 thee, and comest thou to me? And Jesus answering said to him, Suffer it to be so now: for thus it becometh us to fulfill 16 all righteousness. Then he suffered him. And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up immediately out of the water: and lo, the heavens were opened to him, and he saw the Spirit of God 17 descending like a dove, and lighting upon him: And lo, a voice from heaven, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

4 Then was Jesus led by the Spirit into the wilderness, to be 2 tempted by the devil. And when he had fasted forty days and 3 forty nights, he was afterward hungry. And when the tempter came to him, he said, If thou art the son of God, command 4 that these stones be made bread. But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every 5 word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God. Then the devil taketh him up into the holy city, and setteth him on a pinnacle 6 of the temple, And saith to him, If thou art the Son of God, cast thyself down, for it is written, He shall give his angels charge concerning thee: and in their hands they shall uphold 7 thee, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone. Jesus said to him, It is written again, Thou shalt not tempt the 8 Lord thy God. Again, the devil taketh him up upon an exceeding high mountain, and showeth him all the kingdoms of 9 the world, and the glory of them, And saith to him, All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me.
10 Then saith Jesus to him, Be gone, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.
11 Then the devil leaveth him, and behold, angels came and ministered to him. Now when Jesus had heard that John was cast 12 into prison, he departed into Galilee. And leaving Nazareth, 13 he came and dwelt in Capernaum, which is upon the sea coast, in the borders of Zabulon and Nephthalim; That it might be 14 fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying, The 15 land of Zabulon, and the land of Nephthalim, by the way of the sea, beyond Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles: The people who 16 sat in darkness, saw great light; and to them who sat in the region and shades of death, light hath arisen. From that time 17 Jesus began to preach, and to say, Repent: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand. And Jesus, walking by the sea of Galilee, 18 saw two brethren, Simon called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea: for they were fishers. And he saith 19 to them, Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men. And 20 they immediately left their nets, and followed him. And going 21 on from thence, he saw other two brethren, James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in a boat with Zebedee their fa- 22 ther, mending their nets: and he called them. And they imme- 23 diately left the boat, and their father, and followed him. And Jesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of sickness, and all manner of disease among the people. And 24 his fame spread throughout all Syria: and they brought to him all sick people that were taken with diverse diseases and torments, and those who were possessed with demons, and those who were lunatic, and those that had the palsy; and he healed them. And there followed him great multitudes of people from 25 Galilee, and from Decapolis, and from Jerusalem, and from Judea, and from beyond Jordan.

And seeing the multitudes, he ascended a mountain: and 5 when he was seated, his disciples came to him. And he opened 2 his mouth, and taught them, saying, Blessed are the poor 3 in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are 4 they that mourn: for they shall be comforted. Blessed are the 5 meek: for they shall inherit the earth. Blessed are they who 6 hunger and thirst for righteousness: for they shall be filled.
 Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy. Blessed 7, 8 are the pure in heart: for they shall see God. Blessed are 9 the peace-makers: for they shall be called children of God.
 Blessed are they who are persecuted for righteousness' sake: 10 11 for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are ye when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner 12 of evil against you falsely, for my sake. Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so they 13 persecuted the prophets who were before you. Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the salt hath lost its savor, with what shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast 14 out, and to be trodden under foot by men. Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hid. Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a close vessel, but on a candlestick: and it giveth light to all that are in the house.

15 Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father who is in heaven. Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am 16 not come to destroy, but to fulfill. For verily I say to you, Till heaven and earth shall pass away, one jot or one tittle shall in 17 no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled. Whoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of 18 heaven: but whoever shall do, and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven. For I say to you, 19 That except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no case enter into the 20 kingdom of heaven. Ye have heard that it was said to them of old time, Thou shalt not kill; and whoever shall kill, shall be in 21 danger of the judgment: But I say to you, That whoever is angry with his brother without a cause, shall be in danger of the 22 judgment: and whoever shall say to his brother, Raca, shall be in danger of the council: but whoever shall say, Thou fool, shall 23 be in danger of hell-fire. Therefore if thou shalt bring thy gift to the altar, and there remember that thy brother hath aught 24 against thee; Leave there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way; first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer 25 thy gift. Agree with thy adversary quickly, while thou art in the way with him; lest at any time the adversary deliver thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and thou be 26 cast into prison. Verily, I say to thee, thou shalt by no means come out thence, till thou hast paid the uttermost farthing. Ye 27 have heard that it was said to them of old time, Thou shalt not commit adultery: But I say to you, That whoever looketh on 28 a woman to lust after her, hath committed adultery with her already in his heart. And if thy right eye shall cause thee to 29 sin, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell. And if thy right hand 30 shall cause thee to sin, cut it off, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell. It hath 31 been said, Whoever shall put away his wife, let him give her a writing of divorcement: But I say to you, That whoever shall 32 put away his wife, saving for the cause of lewdness, causeth her to commit adultery: and whoever shall marry her that is divorced, committeth adultery. Again, ye have heard that it 33 hath been said to them of old time, Thou shalt not forswear thyself, but shalt perform to the Lord thy oaths: But I say to 34 you, Swear not at all: neither by heaven; for it is God's throne: Nor by the earth; for it is his footstool: neither by Jerusalem; 35 for it is the city of the great King, Neither shalt thou swear 36 by thy head, because thou canst not make one hair white or black. But let your communication be, Yea, yea, Nay, nay: for 37 whatever is more than these cometh of evil. Ye have heard 38 that it hath been said, An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth. But I say to you, That ye resist not evil: but whoever 39 shall strike thee on thy right cheek, turn to him the other also.

And if any man will sue thee at the law, and take away thy 40 coat, let him have thy cloke also. And whoever shall constrain 41 thee to go one mile, go with him two. Give to him that asketh 42 thee, and from him that would borrow of thee, turn not thou away. Ye have heard that it hath been said, Thou shalt love 43 thy neighbor, and hate thy enemy: But I say to you, Love your 44 enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them who despitefully use you, and persecute you; That ye may be the children of your Father who is 45 in heaven: for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust. For if 46 ye love them who love you, what reward have ye? do not even the publicans the same? And if ye salute your brethren only, 47 what do ye more than others? do not even the publicans so?
Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father who is in heaven 48 is perfect.

6 Take heed that ye do not your alms before men, to be seen by them: otherwise ye have no reward from your Father who is 2 in heaven. Therefore, when thou doest thy alms, do not sound a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do, in the synagogues, and in the streets, that they may have glory from men. Verily, I 3 say to you, they have their reward. But when thou doest alms, 4 let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth: That thy alms may be in secret; and thy Father who seeth in secret, 5 himself will reward thee openly. And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites are: for they love to pray standing in the synagogues, and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen by men. Verily, I say to you, they have their 6 reward. But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father who is in secret, and thy Father who seeth in secret, will reward thee 7 openly. But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their 8 much speaking. Therefore be ye not like them: for your Father knoweth what things ye need before ye ask him. After this manner therefore pray ye: Our Father who art in heaven, 9 Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done 10 on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread.
11 And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the 12, 13 kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen. For, if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also 14 forgive you: But if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither 15 will your Father forgive your trespasses. Moreover, when ye fast, be not as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance: for they disfigure their faces, that they may appear to men to fast. Verily, I say to you, they have their reward. But thou, when thou 16 fastest, anoint thy head, and wash thy face; That thou mayest not appear to men to fast, but to thy Father, who is in secret: and thy Father, who seeth in secret, shall reward thee openly.
17 Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and 18 steal: But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not 19 break through nor steal. For where your treasure is, there 20 will your heart be also. The light of the body is the eye: if therefore thy eye be single, thy whole body will be full of light. But if thy eye be evil, thy whole body will be full of darkness. 23 If therefore the light that is in thee is darkness, how great is that darkness! No man can serve two masters: for either he 24 will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon. Therefore I say to you, Be not anxious for your life, what ye 25 shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than food, and the body than 26 raiment? Behold the fowls of the air: for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father 27 feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they? Which of you by anxious care can add one cubit to his stature? And 28 why are ye anxious for raiment? Consider the lilies of the field how they grow? they toil not, neither do they spin? And yet I 29 say to you, that even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. Wherefore, if God so clotheth the grass of the 30 field, which to-day is, and to-morrow is cast into the oven, will he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith? Therefore 31 be not anxious, saying, What shall we eat? or what shall we drink? or, with what shall we be clothed? (For after all these 32 things do the Gentiles seek) for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things. But seek ye first the 33 kingdom of God, and his righteousness, and all these things shall be added to you. Therefore be not anxious for the mor- 34 row: for the morrow will be solicitous for the things of itself. Sufficient to the day is its own evil.

Judge not, that ye be not judged. For with what judgment 7, 2 ye judge, ye shall be judged: and the measure which ye give, shall be measured to you again. And why beholdest thou 3 the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thy own eye? Or how wilt thou say to thy brother, 4 Let me pull out the mote out of thy eye; and behold, a beam is in thy own eye? Thou hypocrite, first cast out the beam out 5 of thy own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye. Give not that which is holy to 6 dogs, neither cast ye your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you. Ask, 7 and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and the door shall be opened to you: For every one that asketh, 8 receiveth; and he that seeketh, findeth; and to him that knocketh, the door shall be opened. Or what man is there of you, who, if his son shall ask bread, will give him a stone? Or if he shall ask a fish, will he give him a serpent? If ye then being evil know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more shall your Father who is in heaven give good things to them that ask him? Therefore all things whatever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets. Enter ye in at the strait gate; for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there are who go in by it. Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth to life, and few there are that find it. Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. Ye shall know them by their fruits: Do men gather grapes from thorns, or figs from thistles: Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit. A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them, Not every one that saith to me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father who is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out demons? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess to them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity. Therefore whoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him to a wise man, who built his house upon a rock: And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell not: for it was founded upon a rock. And every one that heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened to a foolish man, who built his house upon the sand: And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell, and great was the fall of it. And it came to pass when Jesus had ended these sayings, the people were astonished at his doctrine. For he taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes.

8 When he had come down from the mountain, great multitudes followed him. And behold, there came a leper and 2 worshipped him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean. And Jesus put forth his hand, and touched him, say- 3 ing, I will; be thou clean. And immediately his leprosy was cleansed. And Jesus saith to him, See thou tell no man; but 4 go, show thyself to the priest, and offer the gift that Moses commanded, for a testimony to them. And when Jesus had 5 entered into Capernaum, there came to him a centurion, beseeching him, And saying, Lord, my servant lieth at home 6 sick with the palsy, grievously tormented. And Jesus saith to 7 him, I will come and heal him. The centurion answered and 8 said, Lord, I am not worthy that thou shouldst come under my roof: but speak the word only, and my servant will be healed.

For I am a man under authority, having soldiers under me: and 9 I say to this man, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it. When 10 Jesus heard it, he marveled, and said to them that followed, Verily I say to you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel. And I say to you, that many shall come from the east 11 and the west, and shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven. But the children of the 12 kingdom shall be cast out into utter darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. And Jesus said to the centu- 13 rion, Depart; and as thou hast believed, so be it done to thee.
And his servant was healed in the same hour. And when Je- 14 sus had come into Peter's house, he saw his wife's mother laid, and sick with a fever. And he touched her hand, and the fever 15 left her: and she arose, and ministered to them. When the 16 evening was come, they brought to him many that were possessed with demons: and he cast out the spirits with his word, and healed all that were sick; That it might be fulfilled which 17 was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying, He himself took our infirmities, and bore our sicknesses. Now when Jesus saw 18 great multitudes about him, he gave commandment to depart to the other side. And a certain scribe came, and said to him, 19 Master, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest. And Je- 20 sus saith to him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head.
And another of his disciples said to him, Lord, suffer me first to 21 go and bury my father. But Jesus said to him, Follow me; and 22 23 let the dead bury their dead. And when he had entered into 24 a boat, his disciples followed him. And behold, there arose a great tempest in the sea, insomuch that the boat was covered 25 with the waves: but he was asleep. And his disciples came to 26 him, and awoke him, saying, Lord, save us: we perish. And he saith to them, Why are ye fearful, O ye of little faith? Then he arose, and rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a 27 great calm. But the men marveled, saying, What manner of 28 man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him! And when he had come to the other side, into the country of the Gergesenes, there met him two possessed with demons, coming out of the tombs, exceeding fierce, so that no man might 29 pass by that way. And behold, they cried out, saying, What have we to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of God? art thou 30 come hither to torment us before the time? And there was a 31 good way off from them a herd of many swine, feeding. So the demons besought him, saying, If thou expellest us, suffer us 32 to go away into the herd of swine. And he said to them, Go.

And when they had come out, they went into the herd of swine:
and behold, the whole herd of swine ran violently down a steep 33 place into the sea, and perished in the waters. And they that kept them, fled, and went into the city, and told every thing; 34 and what had befallen to the possessed with demons. And behold, the whole city came out to meet Jesus: and when they saw him, they besought him that he would depart out of their borders.

9 And he entered into a boat, and passed over, and came into 2 his own city. And behold, they brought to him a man sick with the palsy, lying on a bed: and Jesus, seeing their faith, said to the sick of the palsy, Son, be of good cheer; thy sins 3 are forgiven thee. And behold, certain of the scribes said 4 within themselves, This man blasphemeth. And Jesus, know-5 ing their thoughts, said, Why think ye evil in your hearts? For which is easier, to say, Thy sins are forgiven thee; or to say, 6 Arise, and walk? But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (then saith he to the sick with the palsy,) Arise, take up thy bed, and go to thy house.
7, 8 And he arose, and departed to his house. But when the multitude saw it, they marveled, and glorified God, who had given 9 such power to men. And as Jesus was passing from thence, he saw a man named Matthew, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he saith to him, Follow me. And he arose, and followed him. And it came to pass, as Jesus sat at table in the house, behold, many publicans and sinners came and sat down with him and his disciples. And when the Pharisees saw it, they said to his disciples, Why eateth your Master with publicans and sinners? But when Jesus heard that, he said to them, They that are in health need not a physician, but they that are sick. But go ye and learn what that meaneth, I will have mercy, and not sacrifice: for I am not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance. Then came to him the disciples of John, saying, Why do we and the Pharisees fast often, but thy disciples fast not? And Jesus said to them, Can the children of the bride-chamber mourn, as long as the bridegroom is with them? but the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken from them, and then they will fast. No man putteth a piece of new cloth to an old garment: for that which is put in to fill it up, taketh from the garment, and the rent is made worse. Neither do men put new wine into old bottles: else the bottles break, and the wine runneth out, and the bottles perish: but they put new wine into new bottles, and both are preserved. While he was speaking these things to them, behold, there came a certain ruler, and worshiped him, saying, My daughter is even now dead: but come and lay thy hand upon her, and she will live. And Jesus arose, and followed him, and so did his disciples. (And behold, a woman who was diseased with an issue of blood twelve years, came behind him, and touched the hem of his garment. For she said within herself, If I may but touch his garment, I shall be whole. But Jesus turned himself about, and when he saw her, he said, Daughter, be of good comfort; thy faith hath made thee whole. And the woman was made whole from that hour.) And when Jesus came into the ruler's house, and saw the minstrels and the people making a noise, He said to them, Give place: for the maid is not dead, but sleepeth. And they derided him. But when the people were put forth, he went in, and took her by the hand, and the maid arose. And the fame of this went abroad into all that land. And when Jesus departed thence, two blind men followed him, crying, and saying, Thou son of David, have mercy on us. And when he had come into the house, the blind men came to him: and Jesus saith to them, Believe ye that I 29 am able to do this? They said to him, Yes, Lord. Then he touched their eyes, saying, According to your faith, be it to 30 you. And their eyes were opened; and Jesus strictly charged 31 them, saying, See that no man know it. But they, when they 32 had departed, spread abroad his fame in all that country. As thy went out, behold, they brought to him a dumb man pos-33 sessed with a demon. And when the demon was cast out, the dumb spoke: and the multitudes marveled, saying, It was 34 never so seen in Israel. But the Pharisees said, He casteth out 35 demons, through the prince of the demons. And Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every 36 sickness, and every disease among the people. But when he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion on them, because they fainted, and were scattered abroad, as sheep hav-37 ing no shepherd. Then saith he to his disciples, The harvest 38 truly is plentiful, but the laborers are few. Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth laborers into his harvest.

10 And when he had called to him his twelve disciples, he gave them power against unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to 2 heal all manner of sickness, and all manner of disease. Now the names of the twelve apostles are these; The first, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother; James the son 3 of Zebedee, and John his brother; Philip, and Bartholomew; Thomas, and Matthew the publican; James the son of Alpheus, 4 and Lebbeus, whose surname was Thaddeus; Simon the Canaan-5 ite, and Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed him. These twelve Jesus sent forth, and commanded them, saying, Go not into the way of the Gentiles, and enter ye not into any city of the 6 Samaritans. But go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Is-7 rael. And as ye go, proclaim, saying, The kingdom of heaven 8 is at hand. Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, 9 cast out demons: freely ye have received, freely give. Pro-10 vide neither gold, nor silver, nor brass in your purses; Nor bag for your journey, neither two coats, neither shoes, nor a 11 staff: for the workman is worthy of his food. And into whatever city or town ye shall enter, inquire who in it is worthy, 12 and there abide till ye go thence. And when ye come into a house, salute it. And if the house be worthy, let your peace 13 come upon it: but if it be not worthy, let your peace return to you. And whoever shall not receive you, nor hear your words, 14 when ye depart from that house, or city, shake off the dust of your feet. Verily, I say to you, It shall be more tolerable for 15 the land of Sodom and Gomorrah, in the day of judgment, than for that city. Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst 16 of wolves: be ye therefore wise as serpents, and harmless as doves. But beware of men: for they will deliver you to the 17 councils, and they will scourge you in their synagogues. And 18 ye will be brought before governors and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them and the Gentiles. But when they 19 deliver you up, be not anxious how or what ye shall speak, for it shall be given to you in that same hour what ye shall speak.

For it is not ye that speak, but the Spirit of your Father which 20 speaketh in you. And the brother will deliver up the brother 21 to death, and the father the child: and the children will rise up against their parents, and cause them to be put to death. And 22 ye will be hated by all men for my name's sake: but he that endureth to the end shall be saved. But when they persecute 23 you in this city, flee ye into another: for verily I say to you, Ye shall not have gone over the cities of Israel till the Son of man shall have come. The disciple is not above his teacher, 24 nor the servant above his lord. It is enough for the disciple that he should be as his teacher, and the servant as his lord: if they have called the master of the house Beelzebub, how much more will they call them of his household? Fear them 26 not therefore: for there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; and hid, that shall not be known. What I tell you in 27 darkness, that speak ye in light: and what ye hear in the ear, that publish ye upon the house-tops. And fear not them who 28 kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him who is able to destroy both soul and body in hell. Are not 29 two sparrows sold for a farthing? and not one of them shall fall on the ground without your Father. But the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear ye not therefore, ye are of more 31 value than many sparrows. Whoever therefore shall confess 32 me before men, him will I also confess before my Father who is in heaven. But whoever shall deny me before men, him 33 will I also deny before my Father who is in heaven. Think 34 not that I am come to send peace on earth: I came not to send 35 peace, but a sword. For I am come to set a man at variance against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and 36 the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law. And a man's 37 foes will be they of his own household. He that loveth father or mother more than me, is not worthy of me: and he that loveth 38 son or daughter more than me, is not worthy of me. And he that taketh not his cross, and followeth me, is not worthy of me.

39 He that findeth his life shall lose it: and he that loseth his life 40 for my sake, shall find it. He that receiveth you, receiveth 41 me, and he that receiveth me, receiveth him that sent me. He that receiveth a prophet in the name of a prophet, shall receive a prophet's reward; and he that receiveth a righteous man in the name of a righteous man, shall receive a righteous man's 42 reward. And whoever shall give to drink to one of these little ones, a cup of cold water only, in the name of a disciple, verily, I say to you, he shall in no wise lose his reward.

11 And it came to pass when Jesus had made an end of commanding his twelve disciples, he departed thence to teach and 2 to preach in their cities. Now when John had heard in the 3 prison the works of Christ, he sent two of his disciples, And said to him, Art thou he that should come, or do we look for 4 another? Jesus answered and said to them, Go and show 5 John again those things which ye hear and see: The blind receive their sight, and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the poor have the 6 gospel preached to them. And blessed is he to whom I shall 7 not be the cause of his falling into sin. And as they departed, Jesus began to say to the multitudes concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness to see? a reed shaken with 8 the wind? But what went ye out to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they that wear soft clothing are in kings' 9 houses. But what went ye out to see? A prophet? yes, I say 10 to you, and more than a prophet. For this is he concerning whom it is written, Behold, I send my messenger before thy 11 face, who shall prepare thy way before thee. Verily, I say to you, among them that are born of women, there hath not risen a greater than John the Baptist: notwithstanding, he that is 12 least in the kingdom of heaven, is greater than he. And from the days of John the Baptist, until now, the kingdom of heaven

suffereth violence, and the violent take it by force. For all the prophets and the law prophesied until John. And if ye will receive it, this is Elijah who was to come. He that hath ears to hear, let him hear. But to what shall I liken this generation? It is like to children sitting in the markets, and calling to their fellows, And saying, We have piped to you, and ye have not danced; We have mourned to you, and ye have not lamented. For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, He hath a demon. The Son of man came eating and drinking, and they say, Behold, a man gluttonous, and a winebibber, a friend of publicans and sinners. But wisdom is justified by her children. Then he began to upbraid the cities in which most of his mighty works had been done, because they repented not. Woe to thee, Chorazin; woe to thee, Bethsaida: for if the mighty works which have been done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes. But I say to you, It shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the day of judgment, than for you. And thou, Capernaum, which art exalted to heaven, shalt be brought down to hell: for if the mighty works which have been done in thee, had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day. But I say to you, that it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom, in the day of judgment, than for thee. At that time Jesus answered and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them to babes. Even so, Father, for so it seemed good in thy sight. All things are delivered to me by my Father; and no man knoweth the Son, but the Father; neither knoweth any man the Father, save the Son, and he to whomsoever the Son will reveal him. Come to me, all ye that labor, and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me: for I am meek and lowly in heart; and ye shall find rest to your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

At that time Jesus went on the sabbath through the corn, and his disciples were hungry, and began to pluck the ears of corn, and to eat. But when the Pharisees saw it, they said to him, Behold, thy disciples do that which it is not lawful to do on the sabbath. But he said to them, Have ye not read what David did when he was hungry, and they that were with him;

4 How he entered into the house of God, and ate the show-bread, 5 which it was not lawful for him to eat, neither for them who 6 were with him, but only for the priests? Or have ye not read 7 in the law, that on the sabbath the priests in the temple pro-8 fane the sabbath, and are blameless? But I say to you, that 9 in this place is one greater than the temple. But if ye had 10 known what this meaneth, I will have mercy, and not sacrifice, 11 ye would not have condemned the guiltless. For the Son of 12 man is Lord even of the sabbath. And when he had departed 13 thence, he went into their synagogue. And behold, there was a 14 man who had his hand withered. And they asked him, saying, 15 Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath? that they might accuse him.
16 And he said to them, What man shall there be among you, that 17 shall have one sheep, and if it shall fall into a pit on the sab-18 bath, will he not lay hold on it, and lift it out? How much 19 then is a man better than a sheep? wherefore it is lawful to do 20 well on the sabbath days. Then saith he to the man, Stretch 21 out thy hand. And he stretched it out; and it was restored to a 22 sound state like the other. Then the Pharisees went out, and 23 held a council against him, how they might destroy him. But 24 when Jesus knew it, he withdrew himself from thence: and 25 great multitudes followed him, and he healed them all. And 26 charged them that they should not make him known: That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying, Behold, my servant, whom I have chosen; my beloved, in whom my soul is well pleased: I will put my spirit upon him, and he shall show judgment to the Gentiles. He shall not contend, nor cry; neither shall any man hear his voice in the streets. A bruised reed shall he not break, and smoking flax shall he not quench, till he shall send forth judgment to victory. And in his name shall the Gentiles trust. Then was brought to him one possessed with a demon, blind and dumb; and he healed him, so that the blind and dumb both spoke and saw. And all the people were amazed, and said, Is not this the son of David? But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, This man doth not cast out demons, but by Beelzebub the prince of the demons. And Jesus knew their thoughts, and said to them, Every kingdom divided against itself, is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself, shall not stand. And if Satan casteth out Satan, he is divided against himself; how then shall his kingdom stand? And if I 27 by Beelzebub cast out demons, by whom do your children expel them? therefore they shall be your judges. But if I cast out 28 demons by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God is come to you. Or else, how can one enter into a strong man's house, 29 and seize his goods, except he shall first bind the strong man? and then he will plunder his house. He that is not with me, 30 is against me; and he that gathereth not with me, scattereth abroad. Wherefore I say to you, All manner of sin and blas- 31 phemy shall be forgiven to men: but the blasphemy against the Holy Spirit shall not be forgiven to men. And whoever 32 speaketh a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but whoever speaketh against the Holy Spirit, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this world, neither in the world to come. Either make the tree good, and its fruit good; or 33 else make the tree corrupt, and its fruit corrupt: for the tree is known by its fruit. O generation of vipers, how can ye, being 34 evil, speak good things? for out of the abundance of the heart, the mouth speaketh. A good man, out of the good treasure of 35 the heart, bringeth forth good things: and an evil man, out of the evil treasure, bringeth forth evil things. But I say to you, 36 That for every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account in the day of judgment. For by thy words thou shalt 37 be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned. Then 38 certain of the scribes and of the Pharisees answered, saying, Master, we would see a sign from thee. But he answered and 39 said to them, An evil and adulterous generation seeketh for a sign, and there shall no sign be given to it, but the sign of the prophet Jonah. For as Jonah was three days and three 40 nights in the whale's belly: so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth. The men 41 of Nineveh shall rise in judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: because they repented at the preaching of Jonah; and behold, a greater than Jonah is here. The queen 42 of the south shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for she came from the uttermost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and behold, a greater than Solomon is here. When the unclean spirit is 43 gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest, and he findeth none. Then he saith, I will return into 44 my house from whence I came out; and when he is come, he 45 findeth it empty, swept, and garnished. Then goeth he, and taketh with himself seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter in and dwell there: and the last state of that man is worse than the first. Even so shall it be also to this 46 wicked generation. While he was yet speaking to the people, behold, his mother and his brethren stood without, desiring to 47 speak with him. Then one said to him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to speak with thee.

48 But he answered and said to him that told him, Who is my 49 mother? and who are my brethren? And he stretched forth his hand towards his disciples, and said, Behold my mother 50 and my brethren! For whoever shall do the will of my Father who is in heaven, the same is my brother, and sister, and mother.

13 The same day Jesus went out of the house, and sat by the 2 sea side. And great multitudes were gathered to him, so that he went into a boat, and sat down; and the whole multitude 3 stood on the shore. And he spoke many things to them in 4 parables, saying, Behold, a sower went forth to sow; And when he sowed, some seeds fell by the way side, and the fowls came 5 and devoured them: Some fell upon stony places, where they had not much earth: and forthwith they sprung up, because 6 they had no deepness of earth: And when the sun had risen, they were scorched; and because they had not root, they with-7 ered. And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprung 8 up, and choked them: But others fell into good ground, and brought forth fruit, some a hundred-fold, some sixty-fold, some 9, 10 thirty-fold. Who hath ears to hear, let him hear. And the disciples came, and said to him, Why speakest thou to them in 11 parables? He answered and said to them, Because it is given to you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to 12 them it is not given. For whoever hath, to him shall be given, and he shall have more abundance: but whoever hath not, from 13 him shall be taken away even that which he hath. Therefore I speak to them in parables: because they seeing see not; and 14 hearing they hear not, neither do they understand. And in them is fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah, which saith, By hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall 15 see, and shall not perceive: For this people's heart is become gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed; lest at any time they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and should understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them. But 16 blessed are your eyes, for they see: and your ears, for they hear. For verily I say to you, That many prophets and righteous men 17 have desired to see the things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear the things which ye hear, and have not heard them. Hear ye therefore the parable of the sower. When 18, 19 any one heareth the word of the kingdom, and understandeth it not, then cometh the wicked one, and catcheth away that which was sown in his heart. This is he who received seed by the way side. But he that received the seed into stony places, 20 the same is he that heareth the word, and immediately with joy receiveth it; Yet he hath not root in himself, but endureth 21 for a while: for when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, forthwith he is offended. He also that received 22 seed among the thorns is he that heareth the word; and the care of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches choke the word, and he becometh unfruitful. But he that receiveth seed 23 into the good ground is he that heareth the word, and understandeth it; who also beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some a hundred fold, some sixty, some thirty. Another parable he 24 proposed to them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is likened to a man who sowed good seed in his field: But while men slept, 25 his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat, and departed. But when the blade had sprung up, and brought forth 26 fruit, then appeared the tares also. So the servants of the 27 householder came and said to him, Sir, didst thou not sow good seed in thy field? from whence then hath it tares? He said to 28 them, An enemy hath done this. The servants said to him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather them? But he said, No; lest 29 while ye gather the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them. Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of 30 harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather ye first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn. Another parable he proposed to them, saying, The 31 kingdom of heaven is like a grain of mustard-seed, which a man took, and sowed in his field: Which indeed is the least of 32 all seeds: but when it is grown, it is the greatest among herbs, and becometh a tree, so that the birds of the air come and lodge 33 on its branches. Another parable he spoke to them; The kingdom of heaven is like leaven, which a woman took, and hid in 34 three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened. All these things Jesus spoke to the multitude in parables; and without a 35 parable he spoke not to them: That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying, I will open my mouth in parables; I will utter things which have been kept secret from 36 the foundation of the world. Then Jesus sent the multitude away, and went into the house: and his disciples came to him, 37 saying, Declare to us the parable of the tares of the field. He answered and said to them, He that soweth the good seed is 38 the Son of man; The field is the world; the good seed are the children of the kingdom; but the tares are the children of the 39 wicked one; The enemy that sowed them is the devil; the harvest is the end of the world; and the reapers are the angels.

40 As therefore the tares are gathered and burned in the fire; so shall it be in the end of this world. The Son of man shall 41 send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that offend, and them who do iniquity; And 42 shall cast them into a furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth. Then shall the righteous shine as the 43 sun in the kingdom of their Father. Who hath ears to hear, let him hear. Again, the kingdom of heaven is like treasure hid 44 in a field; which, when a man hath found, he hideth, and for joy thereof goeth and selleth all that he hath, and buyeth that 45 field. Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant seeking goodly pearls: Who, when he had found one pearl of great 46 price, went and sold all that he had, and bought it. Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net, that was cast into the sea, and 47 gathered of every kind: Which, when it was full, they drew to the shore, and sat down, and gathered the good into ves-48 sels, but cast away the bad. So shall it be at the end of the world: the angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked from 49 among the just, And shall cast them into the furnace of fire: 50 there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth. Jesus saith to them, Have ye understood all these things? They say to him, 51 Yes, Lord. Then said he to them, Therefore every scribe who is instructed to the kingdom of heaven, is like a man that is a 52 householder, who bringeth forth out of his treasure things new and old. And it came to pass, that when Jesus had finished 53 these parables, he departed thence. And when he had come 54 into his own country, he taught them in their synagogue, so that they were astonished, and said, Whence hath this man this wisdom, and these mighty works? Is not this the carpen- 55 ter's son? is not his mother called Mary? and his brethren, James, and Joses, and Simon, and Judas? And his sisters, 56 are they not all with us? Whence then hath this man all these things? And they were offended in him. But Jesus said to 57 them, A prophet is not without honor, save in his own country, and in his own house. And he did not many mighty works 58 there, because of their unbelief.

At that time Herod the Tetrarch heard of the fame of Je- 14 sus, And said to his servants, This is John the Baptist; he 2 hath risen from the dead; and therefore mighty works do show forth themselves in him. For Herod had laid hold on John, 3 and bound him, and put him in prison for the sake of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife. For John had said to him, It is 4 not lawful for thee to have her. And when he would have put 5 him to death, he feared the multitude, because they counted him as a prophet. But when Herod's birth-day was kept, the 6 daughter of Herodias danced before them, and pleased Herod.
 Upon which he promised with an oath to give her whatever she 7 would ask. And she, being before instructed by her mother, 8 said, Give me here the head of John the Baptist in a dish. And 9 the king was sorry: nevertheless for the sake of the oath, and of them who sat with him at table, he commanded it to be given her. And he sent, and beheaded John in the prison. And his 10, 11 head was brought in a dish, and given to the damsel: and she brought it to her mother. And his disciples came, and took up 12 the body, and buried it, and went and told Jesus. When Jesus 13 heard of it, he departed thence in a boat, into a desert place apart: and when the people had heard of it, they followed him on foot out of the cities. And Jesus went forth, and saw a great 14 multitude, and was moved with compassion towards them, and he healed their sick. And when it was evening, his disciples 15 came to him, saying, This is a desert place, and the time is now past; send the multitude away, that they may go into the villages, and buy themselves victuals. But Jesus said to them, 16 They need not depart; give ye them to eat. And they say to 17 18 him, We have here but five loaves, and two fishes. He said, 19 Bring them hither to me. And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the grass, and took the five loaves, and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed, and broke, and gave the loaves to his disciples, and the disciples to the multi-20 tude. And they all ate, and were satisfied: and they took up 21 of the fragments that remained twelve baskets full. And they that had eaten were about five thousand men, besides women 22 and children. And immediately Jesus constrained his disciples to get into a boat, and to go before him to the other side, 23 while he sent the multitudes away. And when he had sent the multitudes away, he ascended a mountain apart to pray: and 24 when the evening was come, he was there alone. But the boat was now in the midst of the sea, tossed with waves: for the 25 wind was contrary. And in the fourth watch of the night Je-26 sus went to them, walking on the sea. And when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, It is 27 a spirit; and they cried out for fear. But immediately Jesus spoke to them, saying, Be of good cheer; it is I; be not afraid.

28 And Peter answered him and said, Lord, if it is thou, bid me 29 come to thee on the water. And he said, Come. And when Peter had come down out of the boat, he walked on the wa-30 ter, to go to Jesus. But when he saw the wind boisterous, he was afraid; and beginning to sink, he cried, saying, Lord, save 31 me. And immediately Jesus stretched forth his hand, and caught him, and said to him, O thou of little faith, Why didst 32 thou doubt? And when they had come into the boat, the wind 33 ceased. Then they that were in the boat came and worshiped 34 him, saying, In truth thou art the son of God. And when they 35 had gone over, they came into the land of Gennesaret. And when the men of that place had knowledge of him, they sent out into all the surrounding country, and brought to him all 36 that were diseased; And besought him that they might only touch the hem of his garment: and as many as touched were restored to health.

15 Then came to Jesus scribes and Pharisees, who were of Jerusalem, 2 saying, Why do thy disciples transgress the tradition of the elders? for they wash not their hands when they eat bread.
3 But he answered and said to them, Why do ye also transgress 4 the commandment of God by your tradition? For God commanded, saying, Honor thy father and mother: and, He that curseth father or mother, let him die the death. But ye say, 5 Whoever shall say to his father or his mother, It is a gift, by whatever thou mightest be profited by me; And honor not 6 his father or his mother, he shall be free. Thus have ye made the commandment of God of no effect by your tradition. Ye 7 hypocrites, well did Isaiah prophesy of you, saying, This peo- 8 ple draw nigh to me with their mouth, and honor me with their lips; but their heart is far from me. But in vain they 9 do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men. And he called the multitude, and said to them, Hear, 10 and understand: Not that which goeth into the mouth defileth 11 a man; but that which cometh out of the mouth, this defileth a man. Then came his disciples, and said to him, Knowest thou 12 that the Pharisees were offended after they heard this saying?

But he answered and said, Every plant, which my heavenly 13 Father hath not planted, shall be extirpated. Let them alone: 14 they are blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind leadeth the blind, both will fall into the ditch. Then answered Peter 15 and said to him, Declare to us this parable. And Jesus said, 16 Are ye also yet without understanding? Do ye not yet under- 17 stand, that whatever entereth in at the mouth goeth into the belly, and is cast out into the draught? But those things which 18 proceed out of the mouth come forth from the heart; and they defile the man. For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, 19 murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blas-phemies: These are the things which defile a man: but to eat 20 with unwashed hands defileth not a man. Then Jesus went thence, and departed into the territories of Tyre and Sidon. 21 And behold, a woman of Canaan came out of the same terri- 22 tories, and cried to him, saying, Have mercy on me, O Lord, thou son of David; my daughter is grievously afflicted with a demon. But he answered her not a word. And his disciples 23 came and besought him, saying, Send her away; for she cri-eth after us. But he answered and said, I am not sent but 24 to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. Then came she and 25 worshipped him, saying, Lord, help me. But he answered and 26 said, It is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it to dogs. And she said, Truth, Lord: yet the dogs eat of the 27 crums which fall from their master's table. Then Jesus an- 28 swered and said to her, O woman, great is thy faith: be it to thee even as thou wilt. And her daughter was healed from 29 that very hour. And Jesus departed from thence, and came nigh to the sea of Galilee; and ascended a mountain, and sat 30 down there. And great multitudes came to him, having with them those that were lame, blind, dumb, maimed, and many others, and cast them down at Jesus' feet; and he healed them: 31 So that the multitude wondered, when they saw the dumb to speak, the maimed to be whole, the lame to walk, and the blind 32 to see: and they glorified the God of Israel. Then Jesus called his disciples to him, and said, I have compassion on the multitude, because they continue with me now three days, and have nothing to eat: and I will not send them away fasting, lest they 33 faint in the way. And his disciples say to him, Whence should we have so much bread in the wilderness, as to satisfy so great 34 a multitude? And Jesus saith to them, How many loaves have 35 ye? And they said, Seven, and a few little fishes. And he com-36 manded the multitude to sit on the ground. And he took the seven loaves and the fishes, and gave thanks, and broke them, and gave to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.

37 And they all ate and were filled: and they took up of the frag-38 ments that were left seven baskets full. And they that had eaten were four thousand men, besides women and children.
39 And he sent away the multitude, and took a boat, and came into the borders of Magdala.

16 The Pharisees also and the Sadducees came, and, tempting, 2 desired him that he would show them a sign from heaven. He answered and said to them, When it is evening, ye say, It will 3 be fair weather: for the sky is red. And in the morning, It will be foul weather to-day: for the sky is red and lowering.
O ye hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the sky; but can ye 4 not discern the signs of the times? A wicked and adulterous generation seeketh for a sign; and there shall no sign been to it, but the sign of the prophet Jonah. And he left them, and 5 departed. And when his disciples had come to the other side, 6 they had forgotten to take bread. Then Jesus said to them, Take heed and beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and of 7 the Sadducees. And they reasoned among themselves, say-8 ing, It is because we have taken no bread. Which when Jesus perceived, he said to them, O ye of little faith, why reason ye among yourselves, because ye have brought no bread? Do 9 ye not yet understand, neither remember the five loaves of the five thousand, and how many baskets ye took up? Neither the 10 seven loaves of the four thousand, and how many baskets ye took up? How is it that ye do not understand that I spoke not 11 to you concerning bread, that ye should beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees? Then they understood 12 that he did not caution them against the leaven of bread, but against the doctrine of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees.

When Jesus came into the borders of Cesarea Phillippi, he 13 asked his disciples, saying, Who do men say that I the Son of man am? And they said, Some say that thou art John the Bap- 14 tist: some Elijah; and others, Jeremiah, or one of the prophets.
He saith to them, But who say ye that I am? And Simon Peter 15, 16 answered and said, Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God. And Jesus answered and said to him, Blessed art thou, 17 Simon-Barjona: for flesh and blood hath not revealed it to thee, but my Father who is in heaven. And I say also to thee, that 18 thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church: and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. And I will give 19 to thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and whatever thou shalt bind on earth, shall be bound in heaven; and whatever 20 thou shalt loose on earth, shall be loosed in heaven. Then he charged his disciples that they should tell no man that he was Jesus the Christ. From that time forth Jesus began to 21 show to his disciples, that he must go to Jerusalem, and suffer many things from the elders and chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and be raised again the third day. Then Peter 22 took him, and began to rebuke him, saying, Be it far from thee, Lord: this shall not be to thee. But he turned, and said to 23 Peter, Get thee behind me, Satan; thou art an offense to me: for thou savorest not the things that are of God, but those that are of men. Then said Jesus to his disciples, If any man will 24 come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me. For whoever will save his life, shall lose it: 25 and whoever will lose his life for my sake, shall find it. For 26 what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul? For the Son of man will come in the glory of his Father, 27 with his angels; and then he will reward every man according 28 to his works. Verily I say to you, There are some standing here, who shall not taste death, till they shall see the Son of man coming in his kingdom.

17 And after six days, Jesus taketh Peter, James, and John his brother, and bringeth them upon a high mountain apart.
2 And he was transfigured before them: and his face shone as 3 the sun, and his raiment was white as the light. And behold, there appeared to them Moses and Elijah talking with him.
4 Then answered Peter, and said to Jesus, Lord, it is good for us to be here: if thou wilt, let us make here three tabernacles; 5 one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah. While he was yet speaking, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them: and behold, a voice out of the cloud, which said, This is my 6 beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased: hear ye him. And when the disciples heard it, they fell on their face, and were 7 in great fear. And Jesus came and touched them, and said, 8 Arise, and be not afraid. And when they had lifted up their 9 eyes, they saw no man, save Jesus only. And as they were descending the mountain, Jesus charged them, saying, Tell the vision to no man, until the Son of man be raised again from 10 the dead. And his disciples asked him, saying, Why then say 11 the scribes, that Elijah must first come? And Jesus answered and said to them, Elijah truly will first come, and restore all things: But I say to you, that Elijah is come already, and they 12 knew him not, but have done to him whatever they pleased: 13 likewise will also the Son of man suffer by them. Then the disciples understood that he spoke to them concerning John 14 the Baptist. And when they had come to the multitude, there came to him a certain man kneeling down to him, and saying, 15 Lord, have mercy on my son; for he is lunatic, and grievously distressed; for often he falleth into the fire, and often into the 16 water. And I brought him to thy disciples, and they could 17 not cure him. Then Jesus answered and said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you? how long 18 shall I suffer you? bring him hither to me. And Jesus rebuked the demon, and he departed out of him: and the child 19 was cured from that very hour. Then came the disciples to 20 Jesus apart, and said, Why could not we cast him out? And Jesus said to them, Because of your unbelief: for verily I say to you, If ye have faith as a grain of mustard-seed, ye shall say to this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place, and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible to you. However, this kind goeth not out, but by prayer and fasting. And while they abode in Galilee, Jesus said to them, The Son of man will be betrayed into the hands of men: And they will kill him, and the third day he will be raised again: And they were exceedingly grieved. And when they had come to Capernaum, they that received tribute -money, came to Peter, and said, Doth not your Master pay tribute? He saith, Yes. And when he had come into the house, Jesus anticipated him, saying, What thinkest thou, Simon? from whom do the kings of the earth take custom or tribute? from their own children, or from strangers? Peter saith to him, From strangers. Jesus saith to him, Then are the children free. Notwithstanding, lest we should offend them, go thou to the sea, and cast a hook, and take the fish that first cometh up: and when thou hast opened his mouth, thou shalt find a piece of money: take that, and give to them for me and thee.

At the same time came the disciples to Jesus, saying, Who 18 is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven? And Jesus called 2 a little child to him, and set him in the midst of them, And 3 said, Verily I say to you, Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven.
Whoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the 4 same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven. And whoever 5 shall receive one such little child in my name, receiveth me.
But whoever shall cause one of these little ones who believe in 6 me, to sin, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea. Woe to the world because of offenses! for it must needs be 7 that offenses come; but woe to that man by whom the offense cometh! Wherefore, if thy hand or thy foot causeth thee to sin, 8 cut them off, and cast them from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life halt or maimed, rather than having two hands or two feet, to be cast into everlasting fire. And if thy eye 9 causeth thee to sin, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes, to be cast into hell-fire. Take heed that ye despise 10 not one of these little ones: for I say to you, that in heaven their angels do always behold the face of my Father who is in 11 heaven. For the Son of man is come to save that which was 12 lost. How think ye? if a man hath a hundred sheep, and one of 13 them is gone astray, doth he not leave the ninety and nine, and 14 go to the mountains, and seek that which is gone astray? And 15 if he findeth it, verily I say to you, he rejoiceth more over that 16 sheep, than over the ninety and nine which went not astray.

17 Even so it is not the will of your Father who is in heaven, that 18 one of these little ones should perish. Moreover, if thy brother 19 shall trespass against thee, go and tell him his fault between 20 thee and him alone: if he shall hear thee, thou hast gained 21 thy brother. But if he will not hear thee, then take with thee 22 one or two more, that in the mouth of two or three witnesses 23 every word may be established. And if he shall neglect to 24 hear them, tell it to the church: but if he shall neglect to hear 25 the church, let him be to thee as a heathen and a publican.
26 Verily I say to you, Whatever ye shall bind on earth, shall be 27 bound in heaven: and whatever ye shall loose on earth, shall 28 be loosed in heaven. Again I say to you, That if two of you 29 shall agree on earth, concerning any thing that they shall ask, 30 it shall be done for them by my Father who is in heaven. For where two or three are assembled in my name, there am I in the midst of them. Then came Peter to him, and said, Lord, how often shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? till seven times? Jesus saith to him, I say not to thee, Until seven times: but, Until seventy times seven. Therefore is the kingdom of heaven likened to a certain king who would take account of his servants. And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought to him who owed him ten thousand talents.
But as he had not ability to pay, his lord commanded him to be sold, and his wife and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made. The servant therefore fell down, and worshiped him, saying, Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay thee all. Then the lord of that servant was moved with compassion, and loosed him, and forgave him the debt. But the same servant went out, and found one of his fellow-servants, who owed him a hundred pence: and he laid hands on him, and took him by the throat, saying, Pay me what thou owest.
And his fellow-servant fell down at his feet, and besought him, saying, Have patience with me, and I will pay thee all. And he would not: but went and cast him into prison, till he should pay the debt. So when his fellow-servants saw what was done, 31 they were very sorry, and came and told to their lord all that was done. Then his lord, having called him, said to him, O 32 thou wicked servant, I forgave thee all that debt, because thou desiredst me: Shouldst thou not also have had compassion on 33 thy fellow-servant, even as I had pity on thee? And his lord 34 was wroth, and delivered him to the tormentors, till he should pay all that was due to him. So likewise shall my heavenly 35 Father do to you, if ye from your hearts forgive not every one his brother their trespasses.

And it came to pass, that when Jesus had finished these 19 sayings, he departed from Galilee, and came into the borders of Judea, beyond Jordan: And great multitudes followed him, 2 and he healed them there. The Pharisees also came to him, 3 tempting him, and saying to him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for every cause? And he answered and said to 4 them, Have ye not read, that he who made them, at the beginning made them male and female, And said, For this cause 5 shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife: and they two shall be one flesh? Wherefore they are no 6 more two, but one flesh. Therefore what God hath joined together, let not man put asunder. They say to him, Why did 7 Moses then command to give a writing of divorcement, and to put her away? He saith to them, Moses, because of the hard- 8 ness of your hearts, suffered you to put away your wives: but from the beginning it was not so. And I say to you, Whoever 9 shall put away his wife, except for lewdness, and shall marry another, committeth adultery: and whoever marrieth her who is put away, committeth adultery. His disciples say to him, If 10 the case of the man is so with his wife, it is not good to marry.
But he said to them, All men cannot receive this saying, save 11 they to whom it is given. For there are some eunuchs, who 12 were so born from their mothers womb: and there are some eunuchs, who were made eunuchs by men: and there are eu-nuchs, who have made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of heaven's sake. He that is able to receive it, let him receive it.
Then were brought to him little children, that he should put 13 his hands on them, and pray: and the disciples rebuked them.
But Jesus said, Suffer little children, and forbid them not to 14 come to me: for of such is the kingdom of heaven. And he laid 15 16 his hands on them, and departed thence. And behold, one came and said to him, Good Master, what good thing shall I do 17 that I may have eternal life? And he said to him, Why callest thou me good? there is none good but one, that is, God: but if 18 thou wilt enter into life, keep the commandments. He saith to him, Which? Jesus said, Thou shalt do no murder, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear 19 false witness, Honor thy father and thy mother: and, Thou 20 shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. The young man saith to him, All these things have I kept from my youth: what lack 21 I yet? Jesus said to him, If thou wilt be perfect, go and sell what thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have trea-22 sure in heaven: and come and follow me. But when the young man heard that saying, he went away sorrowful: for he had 23 great possessions. Then said Jesus to his disciples, Verily I say to you, that a rich man shall with difficulty enter into the 24 kingdom of heaven. And again I say to you, It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to 25 enter into the kingdom of God. When his disciples heard it, they were exceedingly amazed, saying, Who then can be saved?

26 But Jesus beheld them, and said to them, With men this is im-27 possible, but with God all things are possible. Then answered Peter, and said to him, Behold, we have forsaken all, and fol-28 lowed thee? what shall we have therefore? And Jesus said to them, Verily I say to you, that ye who have followed me in the regeneration, when the Son of man shall sit on the throne of his glory, ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve 29 tribes of Israel. And every one that hath forsaken houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands for my name's sake, shall receive a hundred-fold, and 30 shall inherit everlasting life. But many that are first shall be last, and the last shall be first.

20 For the kingdom of heaven is like to a man that is a householder, who went out early in the morning to hire laborers 2 into his vineyard. And when he had agreed with the labor-3 ers for a penny a day, he sent them into his vineyard. And he went out about the third hour, and saw others standing idle 4 in the market-place, And said to them, Go ye also into the vineyard; and whatever is right, I will give you. And they de-5 parted. Again he went out about the sixth and ninth hour, and did likewise. And about the eleventh hour he went out, 6 and found others standing idle, and saith to them, Why stand 7 ye here all the day idle? They say to him, Because no man 7 hath hired us. He saith to them, Go ye also into the vineyard; and whatever is right, that shall ye receive. So when evening 8 was come, the lord of the vineyard saith to his steward, Call 8 the laborers, and give them their hire, beginning from the last 9 to the first. And when they came that were hired about the 9 eleventh hour, they received every man a penny. But when 10 the first came, they supposed that they should receive more; and they likewise received every man a penny. And when 11 they had received it, they murmured against the master of the 11 house. Saying, These last have wrought but one hour, and 12 thou hast made them equal to us, who have borne the burden and heat of the day. But he answered one of them, and said, 13 Friend, I do thee no wrong: didst thou not agree with me for a penny? Take that which is thine, and depart: I will give to 14 this last, even as to thee. Is it not lawful for me to do what I 15 will with my own? is thy eye evil because I am good? So the 16 last shall be first, and the first last: for many are called, but few chosen. And Jesus going up to Jerusalem, took the twelve 17 disciples apart in the way, and said to them, Behold, we go 18 up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man will be betrayed to the chief priests, and to the scribes, and they will condemn him to death, And will deliver him to the Gentiles to mock, and 19 to scourge, and to crucify him: and the third day he will rise again. Then came to him the mother of Zebedee's children, 20 with her sons, worshiping him, and desiring a certain thing of him. And he said to her, What wilt thou: She saith to him, 21 Grant that these my two sons may sit, the one on thy right hand, and the other on the left in thy kingdom. But Jesus 22 answered and said, Ye know not what ye ask. Are ye able to drink of the cup that I shall drink of, and to be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with? They say to him, We are able. And he saith to them, Ye shall drink indeed of my cup, 23 and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with: but to sit on my right hand, and on my left, is not mine to give, but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared by my Father.

And when the ten heard it, they were moved with indignation 24 against the two brethren. But Jesus called them to him, and 25 said, Ye know that the princes of the Gentiles exercise dominion over them, and they that are great exercise authority upon them. But it shall not be so among you: but whoever will be great among you, let him be your minister; And whoever will be chief among you, let him be your servant: Even as the Son of man came not to be ministered to, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many. And as they departed from Jericho, a great multitude followed him. And behold, two blind men sitting by the way-side, when they heard that Jesus passed by, cried out, saying, Have mercy on us, O Lord, thou son of David. And the multitude rebuked them, that they should hold their peace: but they cried the more, saying, Have mercy on us, O Lord, thou son of David. And Jesus stood still, and called them, and said, What will ye that I shall do to you? They say to him, Lord, that our eyes may be opened. So Jesus had compassion on them, and touched their eyes: and immediately their eyes received sight, and they followed him.

21 And when they drew nigh to Jerusalem, and had come to Bethphage, to the mount of Olives, then Jesus sent two disciples, Saying to them, Go into the village over against you, and immediately ye shall find an ass tied, and a colt with her, loose them, and bring them to me. And if any man shall say aught to you, ye shall say, The Lord hath need of them; and immediately he will send them. All this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying, Tell ye the daughter of Sion, Behold, thy King cometh to thee, meek, and sitting upon an ass, and a colt the foal of an ass. And the disciples went, and did as Jesus commanded them, And brought the ass and the colt, and put on them their clothes, and they set him thereon. And a very great multitude spread their garments in the way; others cut down branches from the trees, and strewed them in the way. And the multitudes that went before, and that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna to the son of David: blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord: Hosanna in the highest. And when he had come into Jerusalem, all the city was moved, saying, Who is this? And the multitude said, This is Jesus the prophet of Nazareth of Galilee. And Jesus went into the temple of God, and cast out all them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the money-changers, and the seats of them that sold doves. And said to them, It is written, My house shall be 13 called the house of prayer, but ye have made it a den of thieves.

And the blind and the lame came to him in the temple; and he 14 healed them. And when the chief priests and scribes saw the 15 wonderful things that he did, and the children crying in the temple, and saying, Hosanna to the son of David; they were greatly displeased, And said to him, Hearest thou what these 16 say? And Jesus saith to them, Yes: have ye never read, Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings thou hast perfected praise?
And he left them, and went out of the city into Bethany, and 17 he lodged there. Now in the morning as he was returning into 18 the city, he was hungry. And when he saw a fig-tree in the 19 way, he came to it, and found nothing on it, but leaves only, and said to it, Let no fruit grow on thee henceforth for ever.
And immediately the fig-tree withered. And when the dis- 20 ciples saw it, they marveled, saying, How soon is the fig-tree withered! Jesus answered and said to them, Verily I say to 21 you, If ye have faith, and doubt not, ye shall not only do this which is done to the fig-tree, but also, if ye shall say to this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; it shall be done. And all things whatever ye shall ask in prayer, 22 believing, ye shall receive. And when he had come into the 23 temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came to him as he was teaching, and said, By what authority doest thou these things; and who gave thee this authority? And Jesus an- 24 swered and said to them, I also will ask you one thing, which if ye tell me, I also will tell you by what authority I do these things. The baptism of John, whence was it? from heaven, or 25 from men? And they reasoned with themselves, saying, if we shall say, From heaven; he will say to us, Why then did ye not believe him? But if we shall say, From men; we fear the peo- 26 ple: for all hold John as a prophet. And they answered Jesus, 27 and said, We cannot tell. And he said to them, Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things. But what think ye? 28 A certain man had two sons; and he came to the first, and said, Son, go, work to-day in my vineyard. He answered and said, 29 I will not; but afterward he repented, and went. And he came 30 to the second, and said likewise. And he answered and said, I go, sir: and went not. Which of the two did the will of his 31 father? They say to him, The first. Jesus saith to them, Verily I say to you, that the publicans and the harlots go into the kingdom of God before you. For John came to you in the way of righteousness, and ye believed him not: but the publicans and the harlots believed him: and ye, when ye had seen it, repented not afterward, that ye might believe him. Hear another parable; There was a certain householder, who planted a vineyard, and hedged it around, and digged a wine-press in it, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a remote country: And when the time of the fruit drew near, he sent his servants to the husbandmen, that they might receive the fruits of it. And the husbandmen took his servants, and beat one, and killed another, and stoned another. Again he sent other servants more than the first: and they did to them in like manner. But last of all he sent to them his son, saying, They will reverence my son. But when the husbandmen saw the son, they said among themselves, This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and let us seize on his inheritance. And they caught him, and cast him out of the vineyard, and slew him. When therefore the Lord of the vineyard cometh, what will he do to those husbandmen? They say to him, He will miserably destroy those wicked men, and will let out his vineyard to other husbandmen, who will render him the fruits in their seasons. Jesus saith to them, Did ye never read in the scriptures, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner: this is the Lord's doing, and it is marvelous in our eyes? Therefore I say to you, The kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits of it. And whoever shall fall on this stone, shall be broken: but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder. And when the chief priests and Pharisees had heard his parables, they perceived that he spoke of them. But when they sought to lay hands on him, they feared the multitude, because they took him for a prophet.

22 And Jesus answered, and spoke to them again by parables, and said, The kingdom of heaven is like to a certain king, who made a marriage for his son, And sent his servants to call them that were invited to the wedding: and they would not come. Again, he sent other servants, saying, Tell them who are invited, Behold, I have prepared my dinner: my oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready: come to the marriage. But they made light of it, and went, one to his farm, 5 another to his merchandise. And the remnant took his ser- 6 vants, and treated them spitefully, and slew them. But when 7 the king heard of it, he was wroth: and he sent his armies, and destroyed those murderers, and burned up their city. Then 8 he saith to his servants, The wedding is ready, but they who were invited were not worthy. Go ye therefore into the high- 9 ways, and as many as ye shall find, invite to the marriage. So 10 those servants went out into the highways, and collected all as many as they found, both bad and good: and the wedding was furnished with guests. And when the king came in to see the 11 guests, he saw there a man who had not a wedding-garment:

And he saith to him, Friend, how camest thou in hither, not 12 having a wedding-garment? And he was speechless. Then 13 said the king to the servants, Bind him hand and foot, and take him away, and cast him into utter darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. For many are called, but 14 few are chosen. Then went the Pharisees, and took counsel 15 how they might entangle him in his talk. And they sent out 16 to him their disciples, with the Herodians, saying, Master, we know that thou art true, and teachest the way of God in truth, neither carest thou for any man: for thou regardest not the person of men. Tell us therefore, What thinkest thou? Is it 17 lawful to give tribute to Cesar, or not? But Jesus perceived their wickedness, and said, Why tempt ye me, ye hypocrites? 18 Show me the tribute-money. And they brought to him a penny.
And he saith to them, Whose is this image, and superscription? 19 They say to him, Cesar's. Then saith he to them, Render there- 20 fore to Cesar, the things which are Cesar's; and to God, the things that are God's. When they had heard these words, they 22 marveled, and left him, and departed. The same day came 23 to him the Sadducees, who say that there is no resurrection, and asked him, Saying, Master, Moses said, If a man shall 24 die, having no children, his brother shall marry his wife, and raise up seed to his brother. Now there were with us seven 25 brothers: and the first, when he had married a wife, deceased; and having no issue, left his wife to his brother. Likewise the 26 second also, and the third, to the seventh. And last of all the 27 woman died also. Therefore in the resurrection, whose wife 28 shall she be of the seven? for they all had her. Jesus answered 29 and said to them, Ye do err, not knowing the scriptures, nor the 30 power of God. For in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are as the angels of God in heaven.

31 But as concerning the resurrection of the dead, have ye not 32 read that which was spoken to you by God, saying, I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob?
33 God is not the God of the dead, but of the living. And when the multitude heard this, they were astonished at his doctrine.
34 But when the Pharisees had heard that he had put the Sad-35 ducees to silence, they were assembled about him. Then one of them who was a lawyer, asked him a question, tempting 36 him, and saying, Master, which is the great commandment in 37 the law? Jesus said to him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind.
38, 39 This is the first and great commandment. And the second is 40 like it, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. On these two 41 commandments hang all the law and the prophets. While the 42 Pharisees were assembled, Jesus asked them, Saying, What think ye of Christ? whose son is he? They say to him, The son 43 of David. He saith to them, How then doth David in spirit 44 call him Lord, saying, The LORD said to my Lord, Sit thou on 45 my right hand, till I make thy enemies thy footstool? If David 46 then calleth him Lord, how is he his son? And no man was able to answer him a word, neither durst any man, from that day forth, ask him any more questions.

23 Then Jesus spoke to the multitude, and to his disciples, 2, 3 Saying, The scribes and the Pharisees sit in Moses's seat. All therefore, whatever they bid you observe, that observe and do: but do not ye according to their works: for they say, and do 4 not. For they bind heavy burdens, and grievous to be borne, and lay them on men's shoulders; but they themselves will not 5 move them with one of their fingers. But all their works they do to be seen by men: they make broad their phylacteries, and 6 enlarge the borders of their garments, And love the uppermost rooms at feasts, and the chief seats in the synagogues, 7 And greetings in the markets, and to be called by men, Rabbi, 8 Rabbi. But be not ye called Rabbi: for one is your Master, even 9 Christ; and all ye are brethren. And call no man your father 10 upon the earth: for one is your Father who is in heaven. Neither be ye called masters: for one is your master, even Christ.

But he that is greatest among you, shall be your servant. And 11, 12 whoever shall exalt himself, shall be abased; and he that shall humble himself, shall be exalted. But woe to you, scribes and 13 Pharisees! hypocrites! for ye shut up the kingdom of heaven against men: for ye neither go in yourselves, neither suffer ye them that are entering, to go in. Woe to you, scribes and Phar- 14 isees, hypocrites! for ye devour widows' houses, and for a pretense make long prayer: therefore ye shall receive the greater damnation. Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for 15 ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte, and when he is made, ye make him two-fold more the child of hell than yourselves. Woe to you, ye blind guides, who say, Whoever shall 16 swear by the temple, it is nothing; but whoever shall swear by the gold of the temple, he is a debtor. Ye fools, and blind: for 17 which is greater, the gold, or the temple that sanctifieth the gold? And whoever shall swear by the altar, it is nothing; but 18 whoever sweareth by the gift that is upon it, he is guilty. Ye 19 fools, and blind: for which is greater, the gift, or the altar that sanctifieth the gift? Whoever therefore shall swear by the altar, 20 sweareth by it, and by all things upon it. And whoever 21 shall swear by the temple, sweareth by it, and by him that dwelleth in it. And he that shall swear by heaven, sweareth 22 by the throne of God, and by him that sitteth upon it. Woe 23 to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye pay tithe of mint, and anise, and cummin, and have omitted the weightier matters of the law, judgment, mercy, and faith: these ye ought to have done, and not to leave the others undone. Ye blind 24 guides, who strain out a gnat, and swallow a camel. Woe to 25 you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye make clean the outside of the cup and of the platter, but within they are full of extortion and excess. Thou blind Pharisee, cleanse first that 26 which is within the cup and platter, that the outside of them may be clean also. Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypoc- 27 crites! for ye are like whitened sepulchers, which indeed appear beautiful outward, but are within full of dead men's bones, and of all uncleanness. Thus ye also outwardly appear righ- 28 teous to men, but within ye are full of hypocrisy and iniquity.
 Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! because ye build 29 the tombs of the prophets, and garnish the sepulchers of the righteous, And say, If we had been in the days of our fathers, 30 we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of 31 the prophets. Wherefore ye are witnesses to yourselves, that 32 ye are the children of them who killed the prophets. Fill ye up 33 then the measure of your fathers. Ye serpents, ye generation 34 of vipers, how can ye escape the damnation of hell? Wherefore behold, I send to you prophets, and wise men, and scribes; and some of them ye will kill and crucify, and some of them ye will scourge in your synagogues, and persecute them from 35 city to city: That upon you may come all the righteous blood shed upon the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel, to the blood of Zacharias son of Barachias, whom ye slew between 36 the temple and the altar. Verily I say to you, all these things 37 shall come upon this generation. O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them who are sent to thee, how often would I have gathered thy children, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would 38, 39 not! Behold, your house is left to you desolate. For I say to you, Ye shall not see me henceforth, till ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

24 And Jesus went out, and departed from the temple: and his disciples came to him to show him the buildings of the temple.
2 And Jesus said to them, See ye not all these things? verily I say to you, There shall not be left here one stone upon another, 3 that shall not be thrown down. And as he sat upon the mount of Olives, the disciples came to him privately, saying, Tell us, when will these things be? and what will be the sign of thy 4 coming, and of the end of the world? And Jesus answered 5 and said to them, Take heed that no man deceive you. For many will come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and will de-6 ceive many. And ye will hear of wars, and rumors of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, 7 but the end is not yet. For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there will be famines, and 8 pestilences, and earthquakes in divers places. All these are 9 the beginning of sorrows. Then will they deliver you up to be afflicted, and will kill you: and ye will be hated by all nations 10 for my name's sake. And then will many be offended, and 11 will betray one another, and will hate one another. And many 12 false prophets will rise, and will deceive many. And because 13 iniquity will abound, the love of many will become cold. But he that shall endure to the end, the same shall be saved. And 14 this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world, for a testimony to all nations; and then shall the end come.

When therefore ye shall see the abomination of desolation spoken 15 of by Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place, (whoever readeth, let him understand,) Then let them who are in 16 Judea flee to the mountains: Let him who is on the house-top 17 not come down to take any thing out of his house: Neither let 18 him who is in the field return back to take his clothes. And 19 woe to them that are with child, and to them that nurse infants in those days! But pray ye that your flight may not be 20 in the winter, neither on the sabbath: For then shall be great 21 tribulation, such as hath not been since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be. And except those 22 days should be shortened, there would no flesh be saved: but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened. Then if any 23 man shall say to you, Lo, here is Christ, or there; believe it not. For false Christs will arise, and false prophets, and will 24 show great signs and wonders; so that, if it were possible, they would deceive the very elect. Behold, I have told you before. 25 Wherefore, if they shall say to you, Behold, he is in the desert; 26 go not forth: behold, he is in the secret chambers; believe it not.
For as the lightning cometh out of the east, and shineth even 27 to the west; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be. For 28 wherever the carcass is, there will the eagles be collected. Im- 29 mediately after the tribulation of those days, shall the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken: And then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in 30 heaven: and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory. And he will send his angels with 31 a great sound of a trumpet, and they will gather his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other. Now 32 learn a parable of the fig-tree; When its branch is yet tender and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is nigh: So 33 likewise ye, when ye shall see all these things, know that it is near, even at the doors. Verily I say to you, This generation 34 shall not pass, till all these things shall be fulfilled. Heaven 35 and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away.

36 But of that day and hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels 37 of heaven, but my Father only. But as the days of Noah were, 38 so will also the coming of the Son of man be. For as in the days that were before the flood, they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah 39 entered into the ark, And knew not until the flood came, and took them all away: so also will be the coming of the Son of 40 man. Then will two be in the field; the one shall be taken, 41 and the other left. Two women will be grinding at the mill; 42 the one shall be taken, and the other left. Watch therefore; 43 for ye know not what hour your Lord cometh. But know this, that if the master of the house knew in what watch the thief would come, he would watch, and would not suffer his house 44 to be broken up. Therefore be ye also ready: for in such an 45 hour as ye think not, the Son of man cometh. Who then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his Lord hath made ruler 46 over his household, to give them food in due season? Blessed is that servant, whom his lord, when he cometh, shall find so 47 doing. Verily I say to you, that he will make him ruler over all 48 his goods. But if that evil servant shall say in his heart, My 49 Lord delayeth his coming; And shall begin to beat his fellow-50 servants, and to eat and drink with the drunken; The Lord of that servant will come in a day when he looketh not for him, 51 and in an hour that he is not aware of, And will cut him asunder, and appoint him his portion with the hypocrites: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

25 Then shall the kingdom of heaven be likened to ten virgins, who took their lamps, and went forth to meet the bridegroom.
2, 3 And five of them were wise, and five were foolish. They that 4 were foolish took their lamps, and took no oil with them: But 5 the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps. While the 6 bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept. And at midnight there was a cry made, Behold, the bridegroom cometh; go 7 ye out to meet him. Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed 8 their lamps. And the foolish said to the wise, Give us of your 9 oil: for our lamps are gone out. But the wise answered, saying, Not so; lest there be not enough for us and you: but go ye 10 rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves. And while they were going to buy, the bridegroom came; and they that were ready, went in with him to the marriage, and the door was shut. Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, Lord, 11 Lord, open to us. But he answered and said, Verily I say to 12 you, I know you not. Watch therefore, for ye know neither 13 the day nor the hour in which the Son of man cometh. For the 14 kingdom of heaven is as a man traveling into a far country, who called his own servants, and delivered to them his goods. And 15 to one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one; to every man according to his several ability; and forthwith took his journey. Then he that had received the five talents, 16 went and traded with the same, and gained other five talents.

And likewise he that had received two, he also gained other 17 two. But he that had received one, went and digged in the 18 earth, and hid his lord's money. After a long time the lord of 19 those servants cometh, and reckoneth with them. And he that 20 had received five talents, came and brought other five talents, saying, Lord, thou deliveredst to me five talents: behold, I have 21 gained besides them five talents more. His lord said to him, Well done thou good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord. He also that had received 22 two talents came, and said, Lord, thou deliveredst to me two talents: behold, I have gained two other talents besides them.
His lord said to him, Well done, good and faithful servant; thou 23 hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord. Then he 24 who had received the one talent came, and said, Lord, I knew thee that thou art a hard man, reaping where thou hast not sown, and gathering where thou hast not strewed: And I was 25 afraid, and went and hid thy talent in the earth: lo, there thou hast what is thine. His lord answered and said to him, Thou 26 wicked and slothful servant, thou knewest that I reap where I have not sown, and gather where I have not strewed: Thou 27 oughtest therefore to have put my money to the exchangers, and then at my coming I should have received my own with interest. Take therefore the talent from him, and give it to 28 him who hath ten talents. For to every one that hath shall be 29 given, and he shall have abundance: but from him that hath not shall be taken away even that which he hath. And cast 30 ye the unprofitable servant into utter darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. When the Son of man shall 31 come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then will 32 he sit upon the throne of his glory: And before him shall be gathered all nations: and he will separate them one from an-33 other, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats: And he will set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the 34 left. Then will the King say to them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you 35 from the foundation of the world: For I was hungry, and ye gave me food: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: I was a 36 stranger, and ye took me in: Naked, and ye clothed me: I was sick, and ye visited me: I was in prison, and ye came to me.

37 Then will the righteous answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee hungry, and fed thee? or thirsty, and gave thee drink?
38 When saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in? or naked, and 39 clothed thee? Or when saw we thee sick, or in prison, and 40 came to thee? And the king will answer and say to them, Verily I say to you, Inasmuch as ye have done it to one of the least 41 of these my brethren, ye have done it to me. Then will he say also to them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into 42 everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels: For I was hungry, and ye gave me no food: I was thirsty, and ye gave 43 me no drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me not in: naked, and ye clothed me not: sick, and in prison, and ye visited me 44 not. Then will they also answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee hungry, or thirsty, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or 45 in prison, and did not minister to thee? Then will he answer them, saying, Verily I say to you, Inasmuch as ye did it not to 46 one of the least of these, ye did it not to me. And these shall go away into everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life eternal.

26 And it came to pass, when Jesus had finished all these say-2 ings, he said to his disciples, Ye know that after two days is the passover, and the Son of man is betrayed to be crucified.
3 Then assembled the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders of the people, in the palace of the high priest, who was 4 called Caiaphas, And consulted that they might take Jesus 5 by subtilty, and kill him. But they said, Not on the feast -day, 6 lest there be an uproar among the people. Now when Jesus 7 was in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, There came to him a woman having an alabaster-box of very precious ointment, and poured it on his head as he sat at table. But when 8 his disciples saw it, they had indignation, saying, To what pur- 9 pose is this waste? For this ointment might have been sold 9 for much, and given to the poor. When Jesus understood it, he 10 said to them, Why trouble ye the woman? for she hath wrought 10 a good work upon me. For ye have the poor always with you; 11 but me ye have not always. For in that she hath poured this 12 ointment on my body, she did it for my burial. Verily I say 13 to you, Wherever this gospel shall be preached in the whole 13 world, there shall also this, which this woman hath done, be 14 told for a memorial of her. Then one of the twelve, called Ju- 14 das Iscariot, went to the chief priests, And said, What will ye 15 give me, and I will deliver him to you? And they covenanted 15 with him for thirty pieces of silver. And from that time he 16 sought opportunity to betray him. Now the first day of the 17 feast of unleavened bread, the disciples came to Jesus, saying 17 to him, Where wilt thou that we prepare for thee to eat the 18 passover? And he said, Go into the city to such a man, and 18 say to him, The Master saith, My time is at hand; I will keep 19 the passover at thy house with my disciples. And the disci- 19 ples did as Jesus had appointed them; and they made ready 20 the passover. Now when the evening was come, he sat down 20 with the twelve. And as they were eating, he said, Verily I say 21 to you, that one of you will betray me. And they were exceed- 22 ing sorrowful, and began every one of them to say to him, Lord, 22 is it I? And he answered and said, He that dippeth his hand 23 with me in the dish, the same will betray me. The Son of man 24 goeth, as it is written concerning him: but woe to that man by 24 whom the Son of man is betrayed! it had been good for that 25 man, if he had not been born. Then Judas, who betrayed him, 25 answered and said, Master, is it I? He said to him, Thou hast 26 said. And as they were eating, Jesus took bread, and blessed 26 it, and broke it, and gave it to the disciples, and said, Take, eat; 27 this is my body. And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and 27 gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it; For this is my blood 28 of the new testament, which is shed for many for the remission 28 of sin. But I say to you, I will not drink henceforth of this 29 fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new with you 29 in my Father's kingdom. And when they had sung a hymn, 30 they went out to the mount of Olives. Then saith Jesus to 31 them, All ye shall be offended because of me this night: for it is written, I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall be scattered abroad. But after I am risen again, I will go before you into Galilee. Peter answered and said to him, Though all men shall be offended because of thee, yet will I never be offended. Jesus said to him, Verily I say to thee, that this night, before the cock shall crow, thou wilt deny me thrice. Peter said to him, Though I should die with thee, yet will I not deny thee. Likewise also said all the disciples. Then cometh Jesus with them to a place called Gethsemane, and saith to the disciples, Sit ye here, while I go yonder and pray. And he took with him Peter, and the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be sorrowful and very heavy. Then saith he to them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful, even to death: tarry ye here, and watch with me. And he went a little further, and fell on his face, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass from me: nevertheless, not as I will, but as thou wilt. And he cometh to the disciples, and findeth them asleep, and saith to Peter, What, could ye not watch with me one hour? Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak. He went away again the second time, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if this cup may not pass away from me, except I drink it, thy will be done. And he came and found them asleep again: for their eyes were heavy. And he left them, and went away again, and prayed the third time, saying the same words. Then he cometh to his disciples, and saith to them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: behold, the hour is at hand, and the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. Rise, let us be going: behold, he is at hand that doth betray me. And while he was yet speaking, lo, Judas, one of the twelve, came, and with him a great multitude with swords and staffs, from the chief priests and elders of the people. Now he that betrayed him, gave them a sign, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he; hold him fast. And forthwith he came to Jesus, and said, Hail Master; and kissed him. And Jesus said to him, Friend, Why art thou come? Then they came, and laid hands on Jesus, and took him. And behold, one of them, who were with Jesus, stretched out his hand, and drew his sword, and struck a servant of the high priest, and smote off his ear. Then said Jesus to him, Put up again thy sword into its place: for all they that take the sword, shall perish by the sword. Thinkest thou that I cannot now pray to my Father, and he will presently give me more than twelve legions of angels? But how then shall the scriptures be fulfilled, that thus it must be? In that same hour said Jesus to the multitudes, Are ye come out as against a thief with swords and staffs to take me? I sat daily with you teaching in the temple, and ye laid no hold on me. But all this was done, that the scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled. Then all the disciples forsook him, and fled. And they that had laid hold on Jesus, led him away to Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were assembled. But Peter followed him at a distance, to the high priest's palace, and went in, and sat with the servants to see the end. Now the chief priests and elders, and all the council, sought false testimony against Jesus, to put him to death; But found none: and, though many false witnesses came, yet found they none. At the last came two false witnesses, And said, This man said, I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to build it in three days. And the high priest arose, and said to him, Answerest thou nothing, what is it which these testify against thee? But Jesus held his peace. And the high priest answered and said to him, I adjure thee by the living God, that thou tell us whether thou art the Christ the Son of God. Jesus saith to him, Thou hast said: nevertheless I say to you, Hereafter shall ye see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven. Then the high priest rent his clothes, saying, He hath spoken blasphemy; what further need have we of witnesses? behold, now ye have heard his blasphemy. What think ye? They answered and said, He is guilty of death. Then they spit in his face, and buffeted him; and others smote him with the palms of their hands, Saying, Prophesy to us, thou Christ, Who is he that smote thee? Now Peter sat without in the palace: and a damsel came to him, saying, Thou also wast with Jesus of Galilee. But he denied before them all, saying, I know not what thou sayest. And when he had gone out into the porch, another maid saw him, and said to them that were there, This man was also with Jesus of Nazareth. And again he denied with an oath, I do not know the man. And after a while came to him they that stood by, and said to Peter, Surely thou also 74 art one of them; for thy speech betrayeth thee. Then began he to curse and to swear, saying, I know not the man. And im-75 mediately the cock crowed. And Peter remembered the word of Jesus, who said to him, Before the cock shall crow, thou wilt deny me thrice. And he went out, and wept bitterly.

27 When the morning was come, all the chief priests and elders of the people took counsel against Jesus to put him to death.
2 And when they had bound him, they led him away, and deliv-3 ered him to Pontius Pilate the governor. Then Judas, who had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented and brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests 4 and elders, Saying, I have sinned in that I have betrayed innocent blood. And they said, What is that to us? see thou to 5 that. And he cast down the pieces of silver in the temple, 6 and departed, and went and hanged himself. And the chief priests took the silver pieces, and said, It is not lawful to put 7 them into the treasury, because it is the price of blood. And they took counsel, and bought with them the potter's field, to 8 bury strangers in. Wherefore that field has been called, The 9 field of blood, to this day. Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet, saying, And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him that was valued, whom 10 they of the children of Israel did value; And gave them for 11 the potter's field, as the Lord appointed me. And Jesus stood before the governor: and the governor asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And Jesus said to him, Thou sayest.
12 And when he was accused by the chief priests and elders, he 13 answered nothing. Then saith Pilate to him, Hearst thou not 14 how many things they testify against thee? And he answered 15 him to not a word; so that the governor marveled greatly. Now at that feast, the governor was wont to release to the people 16 a prisoner, whom they would. And they had then a notable 17 prisoner, called Barabbas. Therefore when they were assembled, Pilate said to them, Whom will ye that I release to you?
18 Barabbas, or Jesus, who is called Christ? (For he knew that 19 for envy they had delivered him.) When he was sitting on the judgment-seat, his wife sent to him, saying, Have thou noth- 20 ing to do with that just man: for I have suffered many things this day in a dream, because of him. But the chief priests and elders persuaded the multitude that they should ask Barabbas, and destroy Jesus. The governor answered and said to them, Which of the two will ye that I release to you? They said, Barabbas. Pilate saith to them, What shall I do then with Jesus, who is called Christ? They all say to him, Let him be crucified. And the governor said, Why, what evil hath he done? But they cried out the more, saying, Let him be crucified. When Pilate saw that he could not prevail at all, but that rather a tumult was made, he took water, and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this just person: see ye to it. Then answered all the people, and said, His blood be on us, and on our children. Then he released Barabbas to them: and when he had scourged Jesus, he delivered him to be crucified. Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the common hall, and gathered to him the whole band of soldiers. And they stripped him, and put on him a scarlet robe. And when they had platted a crown of thorns, they put it upon his head, and a reed in his right hand: and they bowed the knee before him, and mocked him, saying, Hail, King of the Jews? And they spit upon him, and took the reed, and struck him on the head. And after that they had mocked him, they took the robe off from him, and put his own raiment on him, and led him away to crucify him. And as they came out, they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name: him they constrained to bear his cross. And when they had come to a place called Golgotha, that is to say, a place of a skull, They gave him vinegar to drink, mingled with gall: and when he had tasted of it, he would not drink. And they crucified him, and parted his garments, casting lots: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, They parted my garments among them, and upon my vesture they cast lots. And sitting down, they watched him there: And set up over his head his accusation written, THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS. Then were there two thieves crucified with him: one on the right hand, and another on the left. And they that passed by, reviled him, wagging their heads, And saying, Thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days, save thyself. If thou art the Son of God, come down from the cross. Likewise also the chief priests mocking him, with the scribes and elders, said, He saved others; himself he cannot save. If he is King of Israel, let him now come down from the 43 cross, and we will believe him. He trusted in God; let him 44 deliver him now if he will have him: for he said, I am the Son 45 of God. The thieves also who were crucified with him, cast 46 the same in his teeth. Now from the sixth hour there was 47 darkness over all the land to the ninth hour. And about the 48 ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eli, Eli, lama 49 sabachthani? that is to say, My God, my God, why hast thou 50 forsaken me? Some of them that stood there, when they heard 51 that, said, This man calleth for Elijah. And immediately one 52 of them ran, and took a sponge, and filled it with vinegar, and 53 put it on a reed, and gave him to drink. The rest said, For-54 bear, let us see whether Elijah will come to save him. Jesus, 55 when he had cried again with a loud voice, expired. And be-56 hold, the vail of the temple was rent in two, from the top to 57 the bottom: and the earth shook, and the rocks rent; And 58 the graves were opened, and many bodies of saints who slept, 59 arose, And came out of the graves after his resurrection, and 60 went into the holy city, and appeared to many. Now when the 61 centurion, and they that were with him, watching Jesus, saw 62 the earthquake, and those things that were done, they feared 63 greatly, saying, Truly this was the Son of God. And many 64 women were there (beholding at a distance) who followed Jesus from Galilee, ministering to him: Among whom was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joses, and the mother of Zebedee's children. When the evening was come, there came a rich man of Arimathea, named Joseph, who also himself was a disciple of Jesus. He went to Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded the body to be delivered. And when Joseph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, And laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn out in the rock; and he rolled a great stone to the door of the sepulcher, and departed. And there was Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary, sitting over against the sepulcher. Now the next day that followed the day of the preparation, the chief priests and Pharisees came together to Pilate, Saying, Sir, we remember that that deceiver said, while he was yet alive, After three days I will rise again. Command therefore that the sepulcher be made secure until the third day, lest his disciples come by night, and steal him away, and say to the people, He is risen from the dead: so the last error will be worse than the first. Pilate said to them, Ye have a watch: go, 65 make it as secure as ye can. So they went, and having sealed 66 the stone, made the sepulcher secure with a watch.

In the end of the sabbath, as it began to dawn towards the 28 first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary to see the sepulcher. And behold, there was a great 2 earthquake: for the angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon 3 it. His countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white 4 as snow. And for fear of him the keepers trembled and be- 5 came as dead men. And the angel answered and said to the 6 women, Fear ye not: for I know that ye seek Jesus, who was crucified. He is not here: for he is risen, as he said. Come, 7 see the place where the Lord lay. And go quickly, and tell his 8 disciples, that he is risen from the dead, and behold, he goeth 9 before you into Galilee; there shall ye see him: lo, I have told you. And they departed quickly from the sepulcher, with fear 10 and great joy; and ran to bring word to his disciples. And as 11 they were going to tell his disciples, behold, Jesus met them, saying, All hail. And they came, and held him by the feet, 12 and worshiped him. Then said Jesus to them, Be not afraid: 13 go tell my brethren, that they go into Galilee, and there shall they see me. Now when they were going, behold, some of the 14 watch came into the city, and showed to the chief priests all the things that had been done. And when they were assem- 15 bled with the elders, and had taken counsel, they gave a large sum of money to the soldiers, Saying, Say ye, His disciples 16 came by night, and stole him away while we slept. And if 17 this shall come to the governor's ears, we will persuade him, and secure you. So they took the money, and did as they were 18 instructed: and this saying is commonly reported among the Jews until this day. Then the eleven disciples went away into 19 Galilee, to a mountain where Jesus had appointed them. And 20 when they saw him, they worshiped him: but some doubted.
And Jesus came, and spoke to them, saying, All power is given to me in heaven and upon earth. Go ye therefore and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Teaching them to observe all things whatever I have commanded you: and lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the world. Amen.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ST. MARK.

1  he beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ the Son 2 of God; As it is written in the prophets, Behold, I 3 send my messenger before thy face, who shall pre-4 pare thy way before thee; The voice of one crying 5 in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his 6 paths straight. John was baptizing in the wilderness, and 7 preaching the baptism of repentance, for the remission of sins.
8 And there went out to him all the land of Judea, and they of 9 Jerusalem, and were all baptized by him in the river Jordan, 10 confessing their sins. And John was clothed with camels hair, 11 and with a girdle of a skin about his loins; and he ate locusts 12 and wild honey; And preached, saying, There cometh after me 13 one mightier than I, the latchet of whose shoes I am not wor-14 thy to stoop down and unloose. I indeed have baptized you 15 with water: but he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit. And 16 it came to pass in those days, that Jesus came from Nazareth 17 to Galilee, and was baptized by John in Jordan. And immedi-18 ately coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens opened, 19 and the Spirit like a dove descending upon him. And there came a voice from heaven, saying, Thou art my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. And immediately the spirit driveth him into the wilderness. And he was there in the wilderness forty days tempted by Satan: and was with the wild beasts, and the angels ministered to him. Now after John was put in prison, Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the gospel of the kingdom of God, And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel.
Now as he was walking by the sea of Galilee, he saw Simon, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea: for they were fishers. And Jesus said to them, Come ye after me, and I will make you to become fishers of men. And immediately they forsook their nets, and followed him. And when he had gone a little further thence, he saw James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, who also were in the boat mending their nets. And immediately he called them: and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired servants, and went after him. And they went into Capernaum; and immediately on the sabbath he entered into the synagogue and taught. And they were astonished at his doctrine: for he taught them as one that had authority, and not as the scribes. And there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit; and he cried out, Saying, Let us alone; what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art, the Holy One of God. And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. And when the unclean spirit had torn him, and cried with a loud voice, he came out of him. And they were all amazed, so that they questioned among themselves, saying, What thing is this? what new doctrine is this? for with authority he commandeth even the unclean spirits, and they obey him. And immediately his fame spread abroad throughout all the region around Galilee. And forthwith, when they had come out of the synagogue, they entered into the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John. But the mother of Simon's wife lay sick with a fever; and forthwith they tell him of her. And he came and took her by the hand, and lifted her up; and immediately the fever left her, and she ministered to them. And at evening, when the sun had set, they brought to him all that were diseased, and them that were possessed with demons. And all the city was gathered at the door. And he healed many that were sick with divers diseases, and cast out many demons; and suffered not the demons to speak, because they knew him. And in the morning, rising a great while before day, he went out and departed into a solitary place, and there prayed. And Simon, and they that were with him, followed after him. And when they had found him, they said to him, All men seek for thee. And he said to them, Let us go into the next towns, that I may preach there also: for, for this purpose have I come. And he preached in their synagogues throughout all Galilee, and cast out demons. And there came a leper to him, beseeching him, and kneeling down to him, and saying to him, If thou wilt, thou canst make me clean. And Jesus, moved with compassion, put forth his hand, and touched him, and saith to him, I will; be thou clean. And as soon as he had spoken, immediately 43 the leprosy departed from him, and he was cleansed. And he 44 strictly charged him, and forthwith sent him away; And saith to him, See thou say nothing to any man; but go, show thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing those things which 45 Moses commanded, for a testimony to them. But he went out, and began to publish it much, and to blaze abroad the matter, so that Jesus could no more openly enter into the city, but was without in desert places: and they came to him from every quarter.

2 And again he entered into Capernaum, after some days; and 2 it was understood that he was in the house. And forthwith many were assembled, so that there was no room to receive them, no not so much as about the door: and he preached the 3 word to them. And they come to him, bringing one sick with 4 the palsy, who was borne by four. And when they could not come nigh to him by reason of the crowd, they uncovered the roof where he was: and when they had broken it up, they let 5 down the bed on which the sick with the palsy lay. When Jesus saw their faith, he said to the sick with the palsy, Son, thy 6 sins are forgiven thee. But there were certain of the scribes 7 sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts, Why doth this man thus speak blasphemies? who can forgive sins but God 8 only? And immediately, when Jesus perceived in his spirit that they so reasoned within themselves, he said to them, Why 9 reason ye these things in your hearts? Which is easier, to say to the sick with the palsy, Thy sins are forgiven thee; or to say, 10 Arise, and take up thy bed, and walk? But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, he 11 saith to the sick with the palsy, I say to thee, Arise, and take 12 up thy bed, and go into thy house. And immediately he arose, took up the bed, and went forth before them all; so that they were all amazed, and glorified God, saying, We never saw it on 13 this fashion. And he went forth again by the sea -side; and 14 all the multitude resorted to him, and he taught them. And as he passed by, he saw Levi the son of Alpheus, sitting at the receipt of custom, and said to him, Follow me. And he arose, 15 and followed him. And it came to pass, that as Jesus sat at table in his house, many publicans and sinners sat also together with Jesus and his disciples; for there were many, and they 16 followed him. And when the scribes and Pharisees saw him eating with publicans and sinners, they said to his disciples, How is it that he eateth and drinketh with publicans and sinners. When Jesus heard it, he saith to them, They that are in health, have no need of a physician, but they that are sick; I came not to call the righteous, but sinners, to repentance. And the disciples of John, and of the Pharisees, used to fast: and they come, and say to him, Why do the disciples of John, and of the Pharisees fast, but thy disciples fast not? And Jesus said to them, Can the children of the bride-chamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them? As long as they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot fast. But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken from them, and then they will fast in those days. No man also seweth a piece of new cloth on an old garment: else the new piece that filled it up, taketh away from the old, and the rent is made worse. And no man putteth new wine into old bottles, else the new wine doth burst the bottles, and the wine is spilled, and the bottles will be marred: but new wine must be put into new bottles. And it came to pass, that he went through the corn-fields on the sabbath; and his disciples began, as they went, to pluck the ears of corn. And the Pharisees said to him, Behold, why do they on the sabbath that which is not lawful? And he said to them, Have ye never read what David did, when he had need, and was hungry, he and they that were with him? How he went into the house of God, in the days of Abiathar the high priest, and ate the show-bread, which it is not lawful to eat, but for the priests, and gave also to them who were with him? And he said to them, The sabbath was made for man, and not man for the sabbath: Therefore the Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath.

And he entered again into the synagogue; and there was a man there who had a withered hand. And they watched him, to see whether he would heal him on the sabbath; that they might accuse him. And he saith to the man who had the withered hand, Stand forth. And he saith to them, Is it lawful to do good on the sabbath, or to do evil? to save life, or to kill? but they held their peace. And when he had looked around on them with anger, being grieved for the hardness of their hearts, he saith to the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he stretched it out: and his hand was restored whole as the 6 other. And the Pharisees went forth, and immediately took 7 counsel with the Herodians against him, how they might de-8 stroy him. But Jesus withdrew himself with his disciples to 9 the sea: and a great multitude from Galilee followed him, and 10 from Judea. And from Jerusalem, and from Idumea, and from 11 beyond Jordan; and they about Tyre and Sidon, a great multi-12 tude, when they had heard what great things he did, came to 13 him. And he spoke to his disciples, that a small boat should 14 wait on him, because of the multitude, lest they should throng 15 him. For he had healed many; so that they pressed upon him 16 to touch him, as many as had diseases. And unclean spirits, 17 when they saw him, fell down before him, and cried, saying, 18 Thou art the Son of God. And he strictly charged them, that 19 they should not make him known. And he goeth up upon a 20 mountain, and calleth to him whom he would: and they came 21 to him. And he ordained twelve, that they should be with 22 him, and that he might send them forth to preach, And to 23 have power to heal sicknesses, and to cast out demons. And 24 Simon he surnamed Peter. And James the son of Zebedee, 25 and John the brother of James, (and he surnamed them Boan-26 erges, which is, Sons of thunder,) And Andrew, and Philip, and 27 Bartholomew, and Matthew, and Thomas, and James the son 28 of Alpheus, and Thaddeus, and Simon the Canaanite, And 29 Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed him: and they went into a house. And the multitude cometh together again, so that they could not so much as eat bread. And when his friends heard of it, they went out to lay hold on him: for they said, He is beside himself. And the scribes who came down from Jerusalem, said, He hath Beelzebub, and by the prince of the demons he casteth out demons. And he called them to him, and said to them in parables, How can Satan cast out Satan?

And if a kingdom be divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. And if a house be divided against itself, that house cannot stand. And if Satan rise up against himself, and be divided, he cannot stand, but hath an end. No man can enter into a strong man's house, and seize his goods, except he will first bind the strong man; and then he will plunder his house.
Verily I say to you, All sins shall be forgiven to the sons of men, and any blasphemies with which they shall blaspheme: But he that shall blaspheme against the Holy Spirit never hath forgiveness, but is in danger of eternal damnation: Because 30 they said, He hath an unclean spirit. There came then his 31 brethren and his mother, and standing without, they sent to him, calling him. And the multitude sat about him, and they 32 said to him, Behold, thy mother, and thy brethren without seek for thee. And he answered them, saying, Who is my mother, 33 or my brethren? And he looked around on them who sat about 34 him, and said, Behold, my mother and my brethren! For who- 35 ever shall do the will of God, the same is my brother, and my sister, and mother.

And he began again to teach by the sea-side: and there was 4 gathered to him a great multitude, so that he entered into a boat, and sat on the sea; and the whole multitude was by the sea, on the land. And he taught them many things by para- 2 bles, and said to them in his doctrine, Hearken; Behold, a 3 sower went out to sow: And it came to pass as he sowed, some 4 fell by the way-side, and the fowls of the air came and devoured it. And some fell on stony ground, where it had not much 5 earth; and immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of earth. But when the sun had risen, it was scorched; and be- 6 cause it had no root, it withered away. And some fell among 7 thorns, and the thorns grew up, and choked it, and it yielded no fruit. And other fell on good ground, and yielded fruit that 8 sprang up, and increased, and brought forth, some thirty, and some sixty, and some a hundred. And he said to them, He 9 that hath ears to hear, let him hear. And when he was alone, 10 they that were about him, with the twelve, asked of him the parable. And he said to them, To you it is given to know the 11 mystery of the kingdom of God: but to them that are without, all these things are done in parables: That seeing they may 12 see, and not perceive; and hearing they may hear, and not understand; lest at any time they should be converted, and their sins should be forgiven them. And he said to them, Know 13 ye not this parable? and how then will ye know all parables?
The sower soweth the word. And these are they by the way- 14, 15 side, where the word is sown; but when they have heard, Satan cometh immediately, and taketh away the word that was sown in their hearts. And these are they likewise who are sown on 16 stony ground; who, when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with gladness; And have no root in themselves, 17 and so endure but for a time: afterward, when affliction or persecution ariseth for the word's sake, immediately they relapse.

18 And these are they who are sown among thorns; such as hear 19 the word, And the cares of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the 20 word, and it becometh unfruitful. And these are they who are sown on good ground; such as hear the word, and receive it, and bring forth fruit, some thirty-fold, some sixty, and some 21 a hundred. And he said to them, Is a candle brought to be put under a close vessel, or under a bed? and not to be set on 22 a candlestick? For there is nothing hid, which shall not be manifested; neither hath any thing been kept secret, but that 23 it should come abroad. If any man hath ears to hear, let him 24 hear. And he said to them, Take heed what ye hear: With the measure which ye give, it shall be measured to you: and to you 25 that hear shall more be given. For he that hath, to him shall be given: and he that hath not, from him shall be taken even 26 that which he hath. And he said, So is the kingdom of God, as 27 if a man should cast seed into the ground; And should sleep, and rise night and day, and the seed should spring and grow 28 up, he knoweth not how. For the earth bringeth forth fruit of itself; first the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn 29 in the ear. But when the fruit is brought forth, immediately 30 he putteth in the sickle, because the harvest is come. And he said, To what shall we liken the kingdom of God? or with 31 what comparison shall we compare it? It is like a grain of mustard-seed, which, when it is sown in the earth, is less than 32 all the seeds that are in the earth. But when it is sown, it groweth up, and becometh greater than all herbs, and shooteth out great branches; so that the fowls of the air may lodge un-33 der its shade. And with many such parables he spoke the 34 word to them, as they were able to hear it. But without a parable he spoke not to them: and when they were alone, he 35 expounded all things to his disciples. And the same day, when the evening was come, he saith to them, Let us pass over to the 36 other side. And when they had sent away the multitude, they took him even as he was in the boat. And there were also with 37 him other small boats. And there arose a great storm of wind, 38 and the waves beat into the boat, so that it was now full. And he was in the hinder part of the boat, asleep on a pillow: and they awake him, and say to him, Master, carest thou not that we perish? And he arose, and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, Peace, be still: and the wind ceased, and there was a great calm. And he said to them, Why are ye so fearful? how is it that ye have no faith? And they feared exceedingly, and said one to another, What manner of man is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him? 39 40 41

And they came over to the other side of the sea, into the country of the Gadarenes. And when he had come out of the boat, immediately there met him out of the tombs a man with an unclean spirit, Who had his dwelling among the tombs; and no man could bind him, no, not with chains: For he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been plucked asunder by him, and the fetters broken in pieces: neither could any man tame him. And always, night and day, he was on the mountains, and in the tombs, crying, and cutting himself with stones. But when he saw Jesus afar off, he ran and worshiped him, And cried with a loud voice, and said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of the Most High God? I adjure thee by God, that thou torment me not. (For he said to him, Come out of the man, thou unclean spirit.) And he asked him, What is thy name? And he answered, saying, My name is Legion: for we are many. And he besought him much that he would not send them away out of the country. Now there was there nigh to the mountains a great herd of swine feeding. And all the demons besought him, saying, Send us into the swine, that we may enter into them. And forthwith Jesus gave them leave. And the unclean spirits went out, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the sea (they were about two thousand) and were choked in the sea. And they that fed the swine fled, and told it in the city, and in the country. And they went out to see what it was that was done. And they come to Jesus, and see him that was possessed with the demon, and had the legion, sitting, and clothed, and in his right mind: and they were afraid. And they that saw it told them how it befell him that was possessed with the demon, and also concerning the swine. And they began to pray him to depart out of their borders. And when he had come into the boat, he that had been possessed with the demon prayed him that he might be with him. Yet Je- 5 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 sus suffered him not, but saith to him, Go home to thy friends, and tell them how great things the Lord hath done for thee, and hath had compassion on thee. And he departed, and began to publish in Decapolis how great things Jesus had done for him. And all men wondered. And when Jesus had passed over again in a boat to the other side, much people gathered to him: and he was nigh to the sea. And behold, there cometh one of the rulers of the synagogue, Jairus by name; and when he saw him, he fell at his feet, And besought him greatly, saying, My little daughter lieth at the point of death: I pray thee, come and lay thy hands on her, that she may be healed; and she will live. And Jesus went with him; and many people followed him, and thronged him. And a certain woman who had an issue of blood twelve years, And had suffered many things from many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was not relieved, but rather grew worse, When she had heard of Jesus, came in the crowd behind, and touched his garment. For she said, If I may touch but his clothes, I shall be whole. And immediately the fountain of her blood was dried up; and she felt in her body that she was healed of that infirmity. And Jesus, immediately knowing in himself that virtue had gone out of him, turned him about in the throng, and said, Who touched my clothes? And his disciples said to him, Thou seest the multitude thronging thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me? And he looked around, to see her that had done this thing. But the woman fearing and trembling, knowing what was done in her, came and fell down before him, and told him all the truth. And he said to her, Daughter, thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace, and be healed of thy infirmity. While he was yet speaking, there came from the ruler of the synagogue's house certain who said, Thy daughter is dead: why troublest thou the Master any further? As soon as Jesus heard the word that was spoken, he saith to the ruler of the synagogue, Be not afraid, only believe, And he suffered no man to follow him, save Peter, and James, and John the brother of James. And he cometh to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, and seeth the tumult, and them that wept and wailed greatly. And when he had come in, he saith to them, Why make ye this tumult, and weep? the damsel is not dead, but sleepeth. And they derided him: but when he had put them all out, he taketh the father and the mother of the damsel, and them that were with him, and entereth in where the damsel was lying. And he took 41 the damsel by the hand, and said to her, Talitha cumi: which is, being interpreted, Damsel (I say to thee) arise. And forth- 42 with the damsel arose, and walked; for she was of the age of twelve years. And they were astonished with a great astonishment. And he charged them strictly that no man should know 43 it; and commanded that something should be given her to eat.

And he went out from thence, and came into his own coun- 6 try, and his disciples follow him. And when the sabbath was 2 come, he began to teach in the synagogue: and many hearing him were astonished, saying, From whence hath this man these things? and what wisdom is this which is given to him, that even such mighty works are wrought by his hands? Is 3 not this the carpenter, the son of Mary, the brother of James, and Joses, and of Judas, and Simon? and are not his sisters here with us? And they were offended at him. But Jesus said 4 to them, A prophet is not without honor, but in his own country, and among his own kindred, and in his own house. And 5 he could there do no mighty work, save that he laid his hands upon a few sick persons, and healed them. And he marveled 6 because of their unbelief. And he went around the villages teaching. And he calleth to him the twelve, and began to send 7 them forth by two and two; and gave them power over unclean spirits; And commanded them that they should take nothing 8 for their journey, save a staff only; no bag, no bread, no money in their purse: But be shod with sandals; and not put on two 9 coats. And he said to them, In whatever place ye enter into 10 a house, there abide till ye depart from that place. And who- 11 ever shall not receive you, nor hear you, when ye depart thence shake off the dust under your feet, for a testimony against them. Verily I say to you, It shall be more tolerable for Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment, than for that city. And 12 they went out and preached that men should repent. And 13 they cast out many demons, and anointed with oil many that were sick, and healed them. And king Herod heard of him (for 14 his name was spread abroad:) and he said, That John the Baptist had risen from the dead, and therefore mighty works do show forth themselves in him. Others said, That it is Elijah. 15 And others said, That it is a prophet, or as one of the prophets.

16 But when Herod heard of him, he said, It is John, whom I be-17 headed: he hath risen from the dead. For Herod himself had sent forth and laid hold upon John, and bound him in prison for the sake of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife: for he had 18 married her. For John had said to Herod, It is not lawful for 19 thee to have thy brother's wife. Therefore Herodias had a quarrel against him, and would have killed him; but she could 20 not: For Herod feared John, knowing that he was a just and holy man, and observed him: and when he heard him, he did 21 many things, and heard him gladly. And when a convenient day had come, that Herod on his birth-day made a supper to 22 his lords, high captains, and chief men of Galilee; And when the daughter of the said Herodias came in, and danced, and pleased Herod, and them that sat with him, the king said to the damsel, Ask of me whatever thou wilt, and I will give it 23 thee. And he swore to her, Whatever thou shalt ask of me, 24 I will give it thee, to the half of my kingdom. And she went forth, and said to her mother, What shall I ask? and she said, 25 The head of John the Baptist. And she came in forthwith with haste to the king, and asked, saying, I will that thou shouldst give me, immediately, in a dish, the head of John the Baptist.
26 And the king was exceeding sorry: yet for his oath's sake, and 27 for their sakes who sat with him, he would not reject her. And immediately the king sent an executioner, and commanded his head to be brought: and he went and beheaded him in the 28 prison, And brought his head in a dish, and gave it to the 29 damsel: and the damsel gave it to her mother. And when his disciples heard of it, they came and took up his corpse, and 30 laid it in a tomb. And the apostles assembled themselves to Jesus, and told him all things, both what they had done, and 31 what they had taught. And he said to them, Come ye yourselves apart into a desert place, and rest a while: for there were many coming and going, and they had no leisure so much 32 as to eat. And they departed into a desert place in a boat pri-33 vately. And the people saw them departing, and many knew him, and ran on foot thither out of all cities, and out went them, 34 and came together to him. And Jesus, when he came out, saw many people, and was moved with compassion towards them, because they were as sheep not having a shepherd: and he be-35 gan to teach them many things. And when the day was now far spent, his disciples came to him, and said, This is a desert place, and now the time is far passed: Send them away, that 36 they may go into the country around, and into the villages, and buy themselves bread: for they have nothing to eat. He answered 37 and said to them, Give ye them to eat. And they say to him, Shall we go and buy two hundred pennyworth of bread, and give them to eat? He saith to them, How many loaves 38 have ye? go and see. And when they knew, they say, Five, and two fishes. And he commanded them to make all sit down by 39 companies upon the green grass. And they sat down in ranks, 40 by hundreds, and by fifties. And when he had taken the five 41 loaves, and the two fishes, he looked up to heaven, and blessed, and broke the loaves, and gave them to his disciples to set before them; and the two fishes he divided among them all. And 42 they all ate, and were satisfied. And they took up twelve bas- 43 kets full of the fragments, and of the fishes. And they that 44 ate of the loaves, were about five thousand men. And imme- 45 diately he constrained his disciples to get into the boat, and to go to the other side before to Bethsaida, while he sent away 46 the people. And when he had dismissed them, he departed to 47 a mountain to pray. And when evening was come, the boat 48 was in the midst of the sea, and he alone on the land. And he saw them toiling in rowing; for the wind was contrary to them: and about the fourth watch of the night he cometh to them, walking upon the sea, and would have passed by them.

But when they saw him walking upon the sea, they supposed 49 it had been a spirit, and cried out. (For they all saw him, and 50 were troubled.) And immediately he talked with them, and saith to them, Be of good cheer: It is I; be not afraid. And he 51 went up to them into the boat; and the wind ceased: and they were greatly amazed in themselves beyond measure, and wondered. For they considered not the miracle of the loaves; for 52 their heart was hardened. And when they had passed over, 53 they came into the land of Gennesaret, and drew to the shore.
And when they had come out of the boat forthwith they knew 54 him, And ran through that whole region around, and began 55 to carry about in beds those that were sick, where they heard he was. And whithersoever he entered, into villages, or cities, 56 or country, they laid the sick in the streets, and besought him that they might touch, if it were but the border of his garment:

and as many as touched him, were healed.

7 Then came together to him the Pharisees, and certain of 2 the scribes, who came from Jerusalem. And when they saw 3 some of his disciples eating bread with defiled (that is to say 3 with unwashed) hands, they found fault. For the Pharisees, 4 and all the Jews, except they wash their hands often eat not, 4 holding the tradition of the elders. And when they come from the market, except they wash, they eat not. And many other 5 things there are, which they have received to hold, as the wash-5 ing of cups, and pots, and of brazen vessels, and tables. Then the Pharisees and scribes asked him, Why walk not thy disci-6 ples according to the tradition of the elders, but eat bread with 6 unwashed hands? He answered and said to them, Well hath Isaiah prophesied concerning you hypocrites, as it is written,
This people honoreth me with their lips, but their heart is far 7 from me. But, in vain do they worship me, teaching for doc-8 trines the commandments of men. For laying aside the commandment of God, ye hold the tradition of men, as the washing of pots and cups: and many other such like things ye do.
9 And he said to them, Full well ye reject the commandment of 10 God, that ye may keep your own tradition, For Moses said, Honor thy father and thy mother; and, Whoever curseth fa-11 ther or mother, let him die the death: But ye say, If a man shall say to his father or mother, It is Corban, that is to say, a gift, by whatever thou mightest be profited by me; he shall 12 be free. And ye suffer him no more to do aught for his father 13 or his mother; Making the word of God of no effect through your traditions, which ye have delivered: and many such like 14 things ye do. And when he had called all the people to him, he said to them, Hearken to me every one of you, and understand.
15 There is nothing from without a man, that entering into him, can defile him: but the things which come out of him, those are 16 they that defile the man. If any man hath ears to hear, let 17 him hear. And when he had entered into the house from the 18 people, his disciples asked him concerning the parable. And he saith to them, Are ye so void of understanding also? Do ye not perceive, that whatever thing from without entereth into 19 the man, it cannot defile him. Because it entereth not into his heart, but into the belly, and goeth out into the draught, 20 purging all kinds of food. And he said, That which cometh out of the man, that defileth the man. For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders, Thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness; All these evil things come from within, and defile the man. And from thence he arose, and went into the borders of Tyre and Sidon, and entered into a house, and would have no man know it: but he could not be hid. For a certain woman, whose young daughter had an unclean spirit, heard of him, and came and fell at his feet: (The woman was a Greek, a Syrophenician by nation,) and she besought him that he would cast forth the demon out of her daughter. But Jesus said to her, Let the children first be satisfied: for it is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it to the dogs. And she answered and said to him, Yes, Lord: yet the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs. And he said to her, For this saying, depart; the demon is gone out of thy daughter. And when she had come to her house, she found the demon had gone out, and her daughter laid upon the bed. And again, departing from the borders of Tyre and Sidon, he came to the sea of Galilee, through the midst of the borders of Decapolis. And they bring to him one that was deaf, and had an impediment in his speech; and they beseech him to put his hand upon him. And he took him aside from the multitude, and put his fingers into his ears, and he spit, and touched his tongue. And looking up to heaven, he sighed, and saith to him, Effatha, that is, Be opened. And immediately his ears were opened, and the string of his tongue was loosed, and he spoke plain. And he charged them that they should tell no man: but the more he charged them; so much the more a great deal they published it; And were beyond measure astonished, saying, He hath done all things well; he maketh both the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak.

In those days the multitude being very great, and having 8 nothing to eat, Jesus called his disciples, and saith to them, I have compassion on the multitude, because they have now 2 been with me three days, and have nothing to eat: And if I 3 send them away fasting to their own houses, they will faint by the way: for some of them came from a distance. And his 4 disciples answered him, From whence can a man satisfy these men with bread here in the wilderness? And he asked them, 5

6 How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven. And he commanded the people to sit down on the ground: and he took the seven loaves, and gave thanks, and broke, and gave to his disciples to set before them; and they set them before the people. And they had a few small fishes: and he blessed, and 7 commanded to set them also before them. So they ate, and were satisfied: and they took up of the fragments that were 8 left, seven baskets. And they that had eaten were about four 9 thousand: and he dismissed them. And forthwith he entered into a boat with his disciples, and came into the parts of Dalmanutha. And the Pharisees came forth, and began to question with him, seeking from him a sign from heaven, tempting 10 him. And he sighed deeply in his spirit, and saith, Why doth this generation seek for a sign? Verily I say to you, There shall 11 no sign be given to this generation. And he left them, and entering into the boat again, departed to the other side. Now the disciples had forgotten to take bread, neither had they in 12 the boat with them more than one loaf. And he charged them saying, Take heed, beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, and 13 of the leaven of Herod. And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have no bread. And when Jesus knew 14 it, he saith to them, Why reason ye, because ye have no bread? perceive ye not yet, neither understand? have ye your heart 15 yet hardened? Having eyes, see ye not? and having ears, hear ye not? and do ye not remember? When I divided the five loaves among five thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? They say to him, Twelve. And when the 16 seven among four thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? And they said, Seven. And he said to them, How is it that ye do not understand? And he cometh to Bethsaida; and they bring a blind man to him, and besought 17 him to touch him. And he took the blind man by the hand, and led him out of the town; and when he had spit on his eyes, and put his hands upon him, he asked him if he saw aught. 18 And he looked up, and said, I see men as trees walking. After that, he put his hands again upon his eyes, and made him look 19 up: and he was restored, and saw every man clearly. And he sent him away to his house, saying, Neither go into the town, 20 nor tell it to any in the town. And Jesus went out, and his disciples, into the towns of Cesarea Philippi: and by the way 21 22 23 24, 25 26 27

he asked his disciples, saying to them, Who do men say that I am? And they answered, John the Baptist: but some say, Elijah; and others, One of the prophets, And he saith to them, But who say ye that I am? And Peter answereth and saith to him, Thou art the Christ. And he charged them that they should tell no man of him. And he began to teach them, that the Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders, and the chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again. And he spoke that saying openly. And Peter took him, and began to rebuke him. But when he had turned about, and looked on his disciples, he rebuked Peter, saying, Get thee behind me, Satan: for thou savorest not the things that are of God, but the things that are of men. And when he had called the people to him with his disciples also, he said to them, Whoever will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me. For whoever will save his life, shall lose it; but whoever shall lose his life for my sake and the gospel's, the same shall save it. For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul: Or what will a man give in exchange for his soul? Whoever therefore shall be ashamed of me, and of my words, in this adulterous and sinful generation; of him also will the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father with the holy angels.

And he said to them, Verily I say to you, that there are some of them that stand here who shall not taste death, till they have seen the kingdom of God come with power. And after six days, Jesus taketh with him Peter, and James, and John, and leadeth them up upon a high mountain apart by themselves; and he was transfigured before them. And his raiment became shining, exceeding white as snow; so as no fuller on earth can whiten them. And there appeared to them Elijah, with Moses: and they were talking with Jesus. And Peter answered and said to Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah. For he knew not what to say: for they were greatly terrified. And there was a cloud that overshadowed them: and a voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son: hear him. And suddenly, when they had looked around, they saw no man any more, save Jesus only 9 with themselves. And as they came down from the mountain, he charged them that they should tell no man what things they 10 had seen, till the Son of man were risen from the dead. And they kept that saying with themselves, questioning one with 11 another what the rising from the dead should mean. And they asked him, saying, Why say the scribes that Elijah must first 12 come? And he answered and told them, Elijah verily cometh first, and restoreth all things; and how it is written concerning the Son of man, that he must suffer many things, and be set 13 at naught. But I say to you, that Elijah is indeed come, and they have done to him whatever they pleased, as it is written 14 concerning him. And when he came to his disciples, he saw a great multitude about them, and the scribes questioning with 15 them. And immediately all the people, when they beheld him, 16 were greatly amazed, and running to him, saluted him. And he asked the scribes, What question ye with them? And one of the multitude answered and said, Master, I have brought to 18 thee my son, who hath a dumb spirit; And wherever he taketh him, he teareth him; and he foameth and gnasheth with his teeth, and pineth away; and I spoke to thy disciples that they 19 should cast him out, and they could not. He answered him, and saith, O faithless generation, how long shall I be with 20 you, how long shall I suffer you? bring him to me. And they brought him to him: and when he saw him, immediately the spirit tore him; and he fell on the ground, and wallowed, foam-21 ing. And he asked his father, How long is it since this came to him? and he said, From a child. And often it hath cast him 22 into the fire, and into the waters to destroy him: but if thou 23 canst do any thing, have compassion on us, and help us. Jesus said to him, If thou canst believe, all things are possible to 24 him that believeth. And immediately the father of the child cried out, and said with tears, Lord, I believe; help thou my 25 unbelief. When Jesus saw that the people came running together, he rebuked the foul spirit, saying to him, Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I charge thee, come out of him, and enter no 26 more into him. And the spirit cried, and rent him severely, and came out of him: and he was as one dead; so that many 27 said, He is dead. But Jesus took him by the hand, and lifted 28 him up; and he arose. And when he had come into the house, his disciples asked him privately, Why could not we cast him out? And he said to them, This kind can come forth by nothing, but by prayer and fasting. And they departed thence, and passed through Galilee; and he would not that any man should know it. For he taught his disciples, and said to them, The Son of man is delivered into the hands of men, and they will kill him; and after that he is killed, he will rise the third day. But they understood not that saying, and were afraid to ask him. And he came to Capernaum: and being in the house, he asked them, What was it that ye disputed among yourselves by the way? But they held their peace: for by the way they had disputed among themselves, who should be the greatest. And he sat down, and called the twelve, and saith to them, If any man desireth to be first, the same shall be last of all, and servant of all. And he took a child, and set him in the midst of them: and when he had taken him in his arms, he said to them, Whoever shall receive one of such children in my name, receiveth me: and whoever shall receive me, receiveth not me, but him that sent me. And John answered him, saying, Master, we saw one casting out demons in thy name, and he followeth not us; and we forbad him, because he followeth not us. But Jesus said, Forbid him not; for there is no man who shall do a miracle in my name, that can lightly speak evil of me. For he that is not against us, is on our part. For whoever shall give you a cup of water to drink in my name, because ye belong to Christ, verily I say to you, he shall not lose his reward. And whoever shall cause one of these little ones that believe in me, to fall into sin, it is better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were cast into the sea. And if thy hand causeth thee to fall into sin, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter life maimed, than having two hands to go into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched: Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched. And if thy foot causeth thee to fall into sin, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter halt into life, than having two feet to be cast into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched: Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched. And if thy eye causeth thee to fall into sin, pluck it out: it is better for thee to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye, than having two eyes, to be cast into hell-fire. Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched. For every one shall be salted with fire, 50 and every sacrifice shall be salted with salt. Salt is good: but if the salt hath lost its saltness, with what will ye season it? Have salt in yourselves, and have peace one with another.

10 And he arose from thence, and cometh into the borders of Judea, by the further side of Jordan: and the people resort to him again; and, as he was accustomed, he taught them again.

2 And the Pharisees came to him, and asked him, Is it lawful for 3 a man to put away his wife? tempting him. And he answered 4 and said to them, What did Moses command you? And they 5 said, Moses suffered to write a bill of divorcement, and to put 6 her away. And Jesus answered and said to them, For the hard-7 ness of your heart, he wrote you this precept. But from the be-8 ginning of the creation, God made them male and female. For 9 this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and cleave 10 to his wife; And they two shall be one flesh: so then they are 11 no more two, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined 12 together, let not man separate. And in the house his disciples 13 asked him again of the same matter. And he saith to them, 14 Whoever shall put away his wife, and marry another, commit-15 teth adultery against her. And if a woman shall put away her 16 husband, and be married to another, she committeth adultery.
17 And they brought young children to him, that he should touch 18 them; and his disciples rebuked those that brought them. But 19 when Jesus saw it, he was much displeased, and said to them, 20 Suffer the little children to come to me, and forbid them not: 21 for of such is the kingdom of God. Verily I say to you, Whoever shall not receive the kingdom of God, as a little child, he shall not enter it. And he took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them. And when he had gone forth into the way, there came one running, and kneeled to him, and asked him, Good Master, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life? And Jesus said to him, Why callest thou me good? there is none good, but one, that is God. Thou knowest the commandments, Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Defraud not, Honor thy father and mother. And he answered and said to him, Master, all these have I observed from my youth. Then Jesus beholding him loved him, and said to him, One thing thou lackest: go, sell whatever thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven; and come, take up the cross, and follow me.

And he was sad at that saying, and went away grieved: for he 22 had great possessions. And Jesus looked around, and saith to 23 his disciples, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God! And the disciples were astonished at his 24 words. But Jesus answereth again, and saith to them, Children, how hard is it for them that trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to go through the 25 eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God. And they were astonished beyond measure, saying 26 among themselves, Who then can be saved? And Jesus look- 27 ing upon them, saith, With men it is impossible, but not with God: for with God all things are possible. Then Peter began to 28 say to him, Lo, we have left all, and have followed thee. Jesus 29 answered and said, Verily I say to you, There is no man that hath left house, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my sake, and the gospel's, But 30 he shall receive a hundred-fold now in this time, houses, and brethren, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands, with persecutions; and in the world to come, eternal life. But 31 many that are first shall be last; and the last first. And they 32 were in the way, going up to Jerusalem; and Jesus went before them: and they were amazed; and as they followed, they were afraid. And he took again the twelve, and began to tell them what things should happen to him, Saying, Behold, we 33 go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man will be delivered to the chief priests, and to the scribes; and they will condemn him to death, and will deliver him to the Gentiles; And they will 34 mock him, and will scourge him, and will spit upon him, and will kill him: and the third day he will rise again. And James 35 and John the sons of Zebedee come to him, saying, Master, we would that thou shouldest do for us whatever we shall desire.
And he said to them, What would ye that I should do for you? 36
They said to him, Grant to us that we may sit, one on thy right 37 hand, and the other on thy left hand, in thy glory. But Jesus 38 said to them, Ye know not what ye ask: can ye drink of the cup that I drink of? and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with? And they said to him, We can. And Jesus said 39 to them, Ye shall indeed drink of the cup that I drink of: and with the baptism that I am baptized with shalt ye be baptized; But to sit on my right hand and on my left hand, is not mine 40 to give; but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared.

41 And when the ten heard it, they began to be much displeased 42 with James and John. But Jesus called them, and saith to them, Ye know that they who are accounted to rule over the Gentiles, exercise lordship over them; and their great ones ex-43 ercise authority upon them. But so it shall not be among you: but whoever will be great among you, shall be your minister: 44 And whoever of you will be the chief, shall be servant of all.
45 For even the son of man came not to be ministered to, but to 46 minister, and to give his life a ransom for many. And they came to Jericho: and as he went out of Jericho with his disciples, and a great number of people, blind Bartimeus, the son of 47 Timeus, sat by the highway-side begging. And when he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out, and say, Je-48 sus, thou son of David, have mercy on me. And many charged him that he should hold his peace: but he cried the more a 49 great deal, Thou son of David, have mercy on me. And Jesus stood still, and commanded him to be called: and they call the blind man, saying to him, Be of good comfort, rise; he calleth 50 thee. And he, casting away his garment, rose, and came to 51 Jesus. And Jesus answered and said to him, What wilt thou that I should do to thee? The blind man said to him, Lord, that 52 I may receive my sight. And Jesus said to him, Go, thy faith hath made thee whole. And immediately he received his sight, and followed Jesus in the way.

11 And when they came nigh to Jerusalem, to Bethphage, and Bethany, at the mount of Olives, he sendeth forth two of his 2 disciples, And saith to them, Go into the village over against you: and as soon as ye have entered into it, ye shall find a colt tied, on which never man sat; loose him, and bring him.
3 And if any man shall say to you, Why do ye this? say ye that the Lord hath need of him; and immediately he will send him 4 hither. And they went, and found the colt tied by the door without, in a place where two ways met; and they loose him.
5 And certain of them that stood there, said to them, What do 6 ye, loosing the colt? And they said to them even as Jesus had 7 commanded; and they let them go. And they brought the colt to Jesus, and cast their garments on him; and he sat upon him.
8 And many spread their garments in the way: and others cut 9 down branches off trees, and strewed them in the way. And they that went before, and they that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna: Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord. Blessed be the kingdom of our Father David, that cometh in the name of the Lord: Hosanna in the highest. And Jesus entered into Jerusalem, and into the temple: and when he had looked round upon all things, it being now evening, he went out to Bethany, with the twelve. And on the morrow, when they had come from Bethany, he was hungry, And seeing a fig-tree afar off, having leaves, he came, if haply he might find any thing on it: and when he came to it, he found nothing but leaves: for the time of figs had not yet come. And Jesus answered and said to it, Let no man eat fruit of thee hereafter for ever. And his disciples heard it. And they come to Jerusalem: and Jesus went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the money-changers, and the seats of them that sold doves; And would not suffer that any man should carry any vessel through the temple. And he taught, saying to them, Is it not written, My house shall be called by all nations the house of prayer? but ye have made it a den of thieves. And the scribes and chief priests heard it, and sought how they might destroy him: for they feared him, because all the people were astonished at his doctrine. And when evening had come, he went out of the city. And in the morning, as they passed by, they saw the fig-tree dried up from the roots. And Peter calling to remembrance, saith to him, Master, behold, the fig-tree which thou cursedst is withered. And Jesus answering, saith to them, Have faith in God. For verily I say to you, that whoever shall say to this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that the things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatever he saith. Therefore I say to you, Whatever things ye desire when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them. And when ye stand praying, forgive, if ye have aught against any: that your Father also who is in heaven may forgive you your trespasses. But if ye do not forgive, neither will your Father who is in heaven forgive your trespasses. And they come again to Jerusalem: and as he was walking in the temple, there come to him the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders, And say to him, By what authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority to do these things?

29 And Jesus answered and said to them, I will also ask of you one question, and answer me, and I will tell you by what authority 30 I do these things. The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or 31 from men? answer me. And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why then did 32 ye not believe him? But if we shall say, from men; they feared the people: for all men counted John that he was a prophet 33 indeed. And they answered and said to Jesus, We cannot tell.
And Jesus answering saith to them, Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things.

12 And he began to speak to them by parables. A certain man planted a vineyard, and set a hedge about it, and digged a place for the wine-vat, and built a tower, and let it out to husband-2 men, and went into a far country. And at the season he sent to the husbandmen a servant, that he might receive from the 3 husbandmen of the fruit of the vineyard. And they caught 4 him, and beat him and sent him away empty. And again, he sent to them another servant: and at him they cast stones, and wounded him in the head, and sent him away shamefully 5 handled. And again he sent another; and him they killed, 6 and many others; beating some, and killing some. Having yet therefore one son, his well-beloved, he sent him also last 7 to them, saying, They will reverence my son. But those hus-bandmen said among themselves, This is the heir; come, let us 8 kill him, and the inheritance will be ours. And they took him, 9 and killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard. What therefore will the Lord of the vineyard do? he will come and destroy 10 the husbandmen, and will give the vineyard to others. And have ye not read this scripture; The stone which the builders 11 rejected is become the head of the corner: This was the Lord's 12 doing, and it is marvelous in our eyes? And they sought to lay hold on him, but feared the people; for they knew that he had spoken the parable against them: and they left him, and de-13 parted. And they sent to him certain of the Pharisees, and of 14 the Herodians, to catch him in his words. And when they had come, they say to him, Master, we know that thou art true, and carest for no man: for thou regardest not the person of men, but teachest the way of God in truth: Is it lawful to give 15 tribute to Cesar, or not? Shall we give, or shall we not give?

But he, knowing their hypocrisy, said to them, Why tempt ye me? bring me a penny, that I may see it. And they brought 16 it: and he saith to them, Whose is this image and superscription? And they said to him, Cesar's. And Jesus answering, 17 said to them, Render to Cesar the things that are Cesar's, and to God the things that are God's. And they wondered at him. Then come to him the Sadducees, who say there is no resur- 18 rection; and they asked him, saying, Master, Moses wrote to us, If a man's brother shall die, and leave his wife, and leave 19 no children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise seed to his brother. Now there were seven brothers: and the 20 first took a wife, and dying left no seed. And the second took 21 her, and died, neither left he any seed: and the third likewise. And the seven had her, and left no seed: last of all the woman 22 died also. In the resurrection therefore, when they shall rise, 23 whose wife shall she be of them? for the seven had her for a wife. And Jesus answering, said to them, Do ye not therefore 24 err, because ye know not the scriptures, neither the power of God? For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither 25 marry, nor are given in marriage; but are as the angels who are in heaven. And concerning the dead that they rise; have 26 ye not read in the book of Moses, how in the bush God spoke to him, saying, I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, 27 and the God of Jacob? He is not the God of the dead, but the 28 God of the living: ye therefore do greatly err. And one of the scribes came, and having heard them reasoning together, and perceiving that he had answered them well, asked him, Which 29 is the first commandment of all? And Jesus answered him, The first of all the commandments is, Hear, O Israel; The Lord 30 our God is one Lord. And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, 31 and with all thy strength: this is the first commandment. And the second is like, namely this, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as 32 thyself: there is no other commandment greater than these. And the scribe said to him, Well, Master, thou hast said the 33 truth: for there is one God; and there is no other but he. And to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, 34 and with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbor as himself, is more than all whole burnt-offerings and sacrifices. And when Jesus saw that he answered discreetly, he said to him, Thou art not far from the kingdom of God. And 35 no man after that durst ask him any question. And Jesus answered and said, while he taught in the temple, How say the 36 scribes that Christ is the son of David? For David himself said by the Holy Spirit, The LORD said to my Lord, Sit thou on 37 my right hand, till I make thy enemies thy footstool. David therefore himself calleth him Lord, and whence is he then his 38 son? and the common people heard him gladly. And he said to them in his doctrine, Beware of the scribes, who love to go in 39 long clothing, and love salutations in the market-places, And the chief seats in the synagogues, and the uppermost rooms at 40 feasts: Who devour widows' houses, and for a pretense make 41 long prayers: these shall receive greater damnation. And Jesus sat over against the treasury, and beheld how the people 42 cast money into the treasury: and many that were rich cast in 43 much. And there came a certain poor widow, and she threw 44 in two mites, which make a farthing. And he called his disciples, and saith to them, Verily I say to you, that this poor widow hath cast in more, than all they who have cast into the treasury. For all they cast in of their abundance: but she of her want cast in all that she had, even all her living.

13 And as he was going out of the temple, one of his disciples saith to him, Master, see what manner of stones, and what 2 buildings are here! And Jesus answering said to him, Seest thou these great buildings? there shall not be left one stone 3 upon another, that shall not be thrown down. And as he sat upon the mount of Olives, over against the temple, Peter, and 4 James, and John, and Andrew, asked him privately, Tell us, when will these things be? and what will be the sign when all 5 these things shall be fulfilled? And Jesus answering them, 6 began to say, Take heed lest any man deceive you: For many will come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and will deceive 7 many. And when ye shall hear of wars, and rumors of wars, be ye not troubled: for such things must needs be; but the end 8 will not be yet. For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there will be earthquakes in divers places, and there will be famines, and troubles: these are the 9 beginnings of sorrows. But take heed to yourselves: for they will deliver you up to councils; and in the synagogues ye will be beaten: and ye will be brought before rulers and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them. And the gospel must first be published among all nations. But when they shall lead you, and deliver you up, be not anxious beforehand what ye shall speak, neither do ye premeditate: but whatever shall be given you in that hour, that speak ye: for it is not ye that speak, but the Holy Spirit. Now the brother will betray the brother to death, and the father the son: and children will rise up against their parents, and will cause them to be put to death. And ye will be hated by all men for my name's sake: but he that shall endure to the end, the same shall be saved. But when ye shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing where it ought not, (let him that readeth understand) then let them that are in Judea flee to the mountains: And let him that is on the house-top not go down into the house, neither enter it, to take any thing out of his house: And let him that is in the field not turn back again to take up his garment. But woe to them that are with child, and to them that nurse infants in those days. And pray ye that your flight be not in the winter. For in those days shall be affliction, such as hath not been from the beginning of the creation which God created to this time, neither shall be. And except the Lord had shortened those days, no flesh would be saved: but for the elect's sake, whom he hath chosen, he hath shortened the days. And then, if any man shall say to you, Lo, here is Christ; or lo, he is there; believe him not. For false Christs, and false prophets will rise, and will show signs and wonders, to seduce, if it were possible, even the elect. But take ye heed: behold, I have foretold you all things. But in those days, after that tribulation, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, And the stars of heaven shall fall, and the powers that are in heaven shall be shaken. And then they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds with great power and glory. And then he will send his angels, and will assemble his elect from the four winds, from the uttermost part of the earth to the uttermost part of heaven. Now learn a parable of the fig-tree: When its branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is near: So ye in like manner, when ye shall see these things come to pass, know that it is nigh, even at the doors. Verily I say to you, that this generation shall not pass, till all these things shall be

31 done. Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall 32 not pass away. But of that day and that hour knoweth no man, no not the angels which are in heaven, neither the Son, 33 but the Father. Take ye heed, watch and pray: for ye know 34 not when the time is. For the son of man is as a man taking a long journey, who left his house, and gave authority to his servants, and to every man his work; and commanded the 35 porter to watch. Watch ye therefore: for ye know not when the master of the house cometh, at evening, or at midnight, or 36 at the cock-crowing, or in the morning: Lest coming suddenly, 37 he should find you sleeping. And what I say to you, I say to all, Watch.

14 After two days was the feast of the passover, and of unleavened bread: and the chief priests, and the scribes, sought how 2 they might take him by craft, and put him to death. But they said, Not on the feast -day, lest there should be an uproar of the 3 people. And being in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, as he sat at table, there came a woman having an alabaster box of ointment of spikenard, very precious; and she broke the box, 4 and poured it on his head. And there were some that had indignation within themselves, and said, Why was this waste 5 of the ointment made? For it might have been sold for more than three hundred pence, and have been given to the poor.
6 And they murmured against her. And Jesus said, Let her alone; why trouble ye her? she hath wrought a good work on 7 me. For ye have the poor with you always, and whenever ye 8 will ye may do them good: but me ye have not always. She hath done what she could: she is come beforehand to anoint 9 my body to the burying. Verily I say to you, Wherever this gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, this also that she hath done shall be spoken of, for a memorial of her.
10 And Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve, went to the chief priests, 11 to betray him to them. And when they heard it, they were glad, and promised to give him money. And he sought how he 12 might conveniently betray him. And the first day of unleavened bread, when they killed the passover, his disciples said to him, Where wilt thou that we go and prepare, that thou 13 mayest eat the passover? And he sendeth two of his disciples, and saith to them, Go ye into the city, and there shall 14 meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water: follow him. And wherever he shall go in, say ye to the master of the house, The Master saith, Where is the guest-chamber, where I may eat the passover with my disciples? And he will show you a large upper room furnished and prepared: there make ready for us. And his disciples went, and came into the city, and found as he had said to them: and they made ready the passover. And in the evening he cometh with the twelve. And as they sat, and were eating, Jesus said, Verily I say to you, One of you who eateth with me, will betray me. And they began to be sorrowful, and to say to him one by one, Is it I? and another said, Is it I? And he answered and said to them, It is one of the twelve that dippeth with me in the dish. The Son of man indeed goeth, as it is written concerning him: but woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! good were it for that man if he had never been born. And as they were eating, Jesus took bread, and blessed, and broke it, and gave to them, and said, Take, eat: this is my body. And he took the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them: and they all drank of it. And he said to them, This is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many. Verily I say to you, I will drink no more of the fruit of the vine, until that day that I drink it new in the kingdom of God. And when they had sung a hymn, they went out to the mount of Olives. And Jesus saith to them, All ye will be offended because of me this night: for it is written, I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered. But after that I am risen, I will go before you into Galilee. But Peter said to him, Although all shall be offended, yet will not I. And Jesus saith to him, Verily I say to thee, that this day, even in this night, before the cock shall crow twice, thou wilt deny me thrice. But he spoke the more vehemently, If I should die with thee, I will not deny thee in any wise. Likewise also said they all. And they came to a place which was named Gethsemane: and he saith to his disciples, Sit ye here, while I shall pray. And he taketh with him Peter, and James, and John, and began to be greatly amazed, and to be very heavy; And saith to them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful to death: tarry ye here, and watch. And he went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and prayed that, If it were possible, the hour might pass from him. And he said, Abba, Father, all things are possible to thee; take away this cup from me: nevertheless, 37 not what I will, but what thou wilt. And he cometh, and findeth them sleeping, and saith to Peter, Simon, sleepest thou?

38 couldst not thou watch one hour? Watch ye and pray, lest ye enter into temptation. The spirit truly is ready, but the flesh 39 is weak. And again he went away, and prayed, and spoke the same words. And when he returned, he found them asleep 40 again (for their eyes were heavy:) neither knew they what to answer him. And he cometh the third time, and saith to them, 41 Sleep on now, and take your rest: it is enough, the hour is come; behold, the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.
42, 43 Rise, let us go; lo, he that betrayeth me is at hand. And immediately while he was yet speaking, cometh Judas, one of the twelve, and with him a great multitude with swords and staffs, 44 from the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders. And he that betrayed him, had given them a token, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he; take him, and lead him away 45 safely. And as soon as he was come, he goeth immediately to him, and saith, Master, master; and kissed him. And they laid 46 their hands on him, and took him. And one of them that stood by drew a sword, and smote a servant of the high priest, and 47 cut off his ear. And Jesus answered and said to them, Have ye come out, as against a thief, with swords and with staffs to 48 take me? I was daily with you in the temple, teaching, and ye took me not: but the scriptures must be fulfilled. And they all 49 forsook him, and fled. And there followed him a certain young man, having a linen cloth cast about his naked body; and the 50 young men laid hold on him. And he left the linen cloth, and fled from them naked. And they led Jesus away to the high 51 priest: and with him were assembled all the chief priests, and the elders and the scribes. And Peter followed him at a distance, even into the palace of the high priest: and he sat with 52 the servants, and warmed himself at the fire. And the chief priests, and all the council sought for testimony against Jesus 53 to put him to death; and found none. For many bore false testimony against him, but their testimony agreed not together.
54 And there arose certain, and bore false testimony against him, saying, We heard him say, I will destroy this temple that is 55 made with hands, and within three days I will build another made without hands. But neither so did their testimony agree 56 together. And the high priest stood up in the midst, and asked Jesus, saying, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these testify against thee? But he held his peace, and answered 61 nothing. Again the high priest asked him, and said to him, Art thou the Christ, the Son of the Blessed? And Jesus said, I 62 am: and ye shall see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven. Then the high 63 priest rent his clothes, and saith, What need we any further witnesses? Ye have heard the blasphemy: what think ye? And 64 they all condemned him to be guilty of death. And some be- 65 gan to spit on him, and to cover his face, and to buffet him, and to say to him, Prophesy: and the servants struck him with the palms of their hands. And as Peter was below in the palace, 66 there cometh one of the maids of the high priest: And when 67 she saw Peter warming himself, she looked upon him, and said, And thou also wast with Jesus of Nazareth. But he denied, 68 saying, I know not, neither do I understand what thou sayest.

 And he went out into the porch; and the cock crowed. And a 69 maid saw him again, and began to say to them that stood by,
 This is one of them. And he denied it again. And a little after, 70 they that stood by said again to Peter, Surely thou art one of them: for thou art a Galilean, and thy speech agreeth thereto.
 But he began to curse and to swear, saying, I know not this 71 man of whom ye speak. And the second time the cock crowed. 72 And Peter called to mind the word that Jesus said to him, Before the cock shall crow twice, thou wilt deny me thrice. And when he thought thereon, he wept.

And forthwith in the morning the chief priests held a con- 15 sultation with the elders and scribes, and the whole council, and bound Jesus, and carried him away, and delivered him to Pilate. And Pilate asked him, Art thou the King of the Jews? 2 And he answering, said to him, Thou sayest it. And the chief 3 priests accused him of many things: but he answered nothing.
 And Pilate asked him again, saying, Answerest thou nothing? 4 behold how many things they testify against thee. But Je- 5 sus yet answered nothing: so that Pilate marveled. Now at 6 that feast he released to them one prisoner, whom they desired. And there was one named Barabbas, who lay bound 7 with them that had made insurrection with him, who had committed murder in the insurrection. And the multitude crying 8 aloud, began to desire him to do as he had ever done to them.

9 But Pilate answered them, saying, Will ye that I release to 10 you the King of the Jews? (For he knew that the chief priests 11 had delivered him for envy.) But the chief priests moved the 12 people that he should rather release Barabbas to them. And 13 Pilate answered, and said again to them, What will ye then 14 that I shall do to him whom ye call the King of the Jews? And 15 they cried out again, Crucify him. Then Pilate said to them, 16 Why, what evil hath he done? And they cried out the more ex-17 ceedingly, Crucify him. And so Pilate, willing to content the 18 people, released Barabbas to them, and having scourged Je-19 sus, delivered him to be crucified. And the soldiers led him 20 away into the hall, called Pretorium; and they call together 21 the whole band; And they clothed him with purple, and plat-22 ted a crown of thorns, and put it about his head, And began 23 to salute him, Hail, King of the Jews! And they struck him 24 on the head with a reed, and spit upon him, and bowing their 25 knees, worshiped him. And when they had mocked him, they 26 took off the purple from him, and put his own clothes on him, 27 and led him out to crucify him. And they constrain one Si-28 mon, a Cyrenian, who was passing by, coming from the coun-29 try, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to bear his cross. And 30 they bring him to the place Golgotha, which is, being inter-31 preted, The place of a skull. And they gave him to drink, wine 32 mingled with myrrh: but he received it not. And when they 33 had crucified him, they parted his garments, casting lots upon 34 them, what every man should take. And it was the third hour, and they crucified him. And the superscription of his accusation was written over, THE KING OF THE JEWS. And with him they crucify two thieves, the one on his right hand, and the other on his left. And the scripture was fulfilled, which saith, And he was numbered with the transgressors. And they that passed by, railed on him, wagging their heads, and saying, Ah, thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days, Save thyself, and come down from the cross. Likewise also the chief priests mocking, said among themselves with the scribes, He saved others, himself he cannot save. Let Christ the king of Israel descend now from the cross, that we may see and believe. And they that were crucified with him, reviled him. And when the sixth hour was come, there was darkness over the whole land, until the ninth hour. And at the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eloi, Eloi, lama, sabacthani? which is, being interpreted, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? And some of them that stood by, when they heard it, said, Behold, he calleth Elijah. And one ran and filled a sponge full of vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink, saying, Let alone; let us see whether Elijah will come to take him down. And Jesus cried with a loud voice, and expired. And the vail of the temple was rent in two, from the top to the bottom. And when the centurion who stood over against him, saw that he so cried out, and expired, he said, Truly this man was the Son of God. There were also women looking on at a distance, among whom was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the younger, and of Joses, and Salome; Who also, when he was in Galilee, followed him, and ministered to him; and many other women who came with him to Jerusalem. And now, when the evening was come, (because it was the preparation, that is, the day before the sabbath) Joseph of Arimathea, an honorable counselor, who also waited for the kingdom of God, came, and went in boldly to Pilate, and craved the body of Jesus. And Pilate wondered if he was already dead: and calling the centurion, he asked him whether he had been any while dead. And when he knew it from the centurion, he gave the body to Joseph. And he bought fine linen, and took him down, and wrapped him in the linen, and laid him in a sepulcher which was hewn out of a rock, and rolled a stone to the door of the sepulcher. And Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joses, beheld where he was laid.

And when the sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, and Mary 16 the mother of James, and Salome, had bought sweet spices, that they might come and anoint him. And very early in the morning, the first day of the week, they came to the sepulcher at the rising of the sun: And they said among themselves, Who shall roll away for us the stone from the door of the sepulcher? (And when they looked, they saw that the stone was rolled away) for it was very great. And entering into the sepulcher, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a long white garment; and they were frightened. And he saith to them, Be not frightened: ye seek Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified: he is risen; he is not here: behold the place where they laid him: But go, tell his disciples and Peter, that he goeth before you into Galilee: there shall ye see him, as he 8 said to you. And they went out quickly, and fled from the sepulcher; for they trembled, and were amazed: neither said they 9 any thing to any man; for they were afraid. Now when Jesus was risen early, the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom he had cast seven demons.

10 And she went and told them that had been with him, as they 11 mourned and wept. And they, when they had heard that he 12 was alive, and had been seen by her, believed not. After that, he appeared in another form to two of them, as they were walk-13 ing and going into the country. And they went and told it to 14 the residue: neither believed they them. Afterward he appeared to the eleven, as they sat at table, and upbraided them 15 with their unbelief, and hardness of heart, because they believed not them who had seen him after he was risen. And he said to them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel 16 to every creature. He that believeth and is baptized, shall be 17 saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned. And these signs shall follow them that believe: In my name shall they 18 cast out demons; they shall speak in new languages; They shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they 19 shall recover. So then after the Lord had spoken to them, he was received up into heaven, and sat on the right hand of 20 God. And they went forth, and preached every where, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word with signs following. Amen.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ST. LUKE.

Soasmuch as many have taken in hand to set forth in 1 order a declaration of those things which are most surely believed among us, Even as they delivered 2 them to us, who from the beginning were eye-witnesses, and ministers of the word; It seemed good to me also, having 3 had perfect understanding of all things from the very first, to write to thee in order, most excellent Theophilus, That thou 4 mayest know the certainty of those things in which thou hast been instructed. There was in the days of Herod the king of 5 Judea, a certain priest named Zacharias, of the course of Abia: and his wife was of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elisabeth. And they were both righteous before God, walking 6 in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord blameless. And they had no child, because Elisabeth was barren, 7 and they both were far advanced in years. And it came to 8 pass, that, while he executed the priests' office before God in the order of his course, According to the custom of the priests' 9 office, his lot was to burn incense when he went into the temple of the Lord. And the whole multitude of the people were 10 praying without, at the time of incense. And there appeared 11 to him an angel of the Lord, standing on the right side of the altar of incense. And when Zacharias saw him, he was trou- 12 bled, and fear fell upon him. But the angel said to him, Fear not, Zacharias: for thy prayer is heard; and thy wife Elisabeth 13 shall bear thee a son, and thou shalt call his name John. And 14 thou shalt have joy and gladness, and many shall rejoice at his birth. For he shall be great in the sight of the Lord, and shall 15 drink neither wine nor strong drink; and he shall be filled with the Holy Spirit, even from his mother's womb. And many of 16 the children of Israel shall he turn to the Lord their God. And 17 he shall go before him in the spirit and power of Elijah, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just; to make ready a people prepared for the Lord. And Zacharias said to the angel, By what shall I 18 know this? for I am an old man, and my wife far advanced in 19 years. And the angel answering, said to him, I am Gabriel, who stand in the presence of God; and am sent to speak to 20 thee, and to show thee these glad tidings. And behold, thou shalt be dumb, and not able to speak, until the day that these things shall be performed, because thou believest not my words 21 which shall be fulfilled in their season. And the people waited for Zacharias, and marveled that he tarried so long in the tem-22 ple. And when he came out, he could not speak to them: and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple; for he 23 beckoned to them, and remained speechless. And it came to pass, that as soon as the days of his ministration were accom-24 plished, he departed to his own house. And after those days his wife Elisabeth conceived, and secluded herself five months, 25 saying, Thus hath the Lord dealt with me in the days in which he looked on me, to take away my reproach among men. And 26 in the sixth month, the angel Gabriel was sent from God to a city of Galilee, named Nazareth, To a virgin espoused to 27 a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David; and the virgin's name was Mary. And the angel came to her, and 28 said, Hail, thou that art highly favored, the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women. And when she saw him, she 29 was troubled at his saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this should be. And the angel said to her, 30 Fear not, Mary: for thou hast found favor with God. And behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, 31 and shalt call his name JESUS. He will be great, and will be called the Son of the Highest; and the Lord God will give to 32 him the throne of his father David. And he will reign over the house of Jacob for ever, and of his kingdom there will be no end.

33 Then said Mary to the angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man? And the angel answered and said to her, The Holy 34 Spirit will come upon thee, and the power of the Highest will overshadow thee: therefore also that holy thing which shall be 35 born of thee shall be called the Son of God. And behold, thy cousin Elisabeth, she hath also conceived a son in her old age; and this is the sixth month with her who was called barren: 36 For with God nothing will be impossible. And Mary said, Behold the handmaid of the Lord, be it to me according to thy 37, 38 word. And the angel departed from her. And Mary arose in 39

those days, and went into the hill-country with haste, into a city of Judah, And entered into the house of Zacharias, and saluted Elisabeth. And it came to pass, that when Elisabeth heard the salutation of Mary, the babe leaped in her womb: and Elisabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit. And she spoke with a loud voice, and said, Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb. And whence is this to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me? For lo, as soon as the voice of thy salutation sounded in my ears, the babe leaped in my womb for joy. And blessed is she that believed that there will be a performance of those things which were told her from the Lord. And Mary said, My soul doth magnify the Lord, And my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Savior. For he hath regarded the low estate of his handmaiden: for behold, from henceforth all generations will call me blessed. For he that is mighty hath done to me great things, and holy is his name. And his mercy is on them that fear him, from generation to generation. He hath shown strength with his arm; he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts. He hath put down the mighty from their seats, and exalted them of low degree. He hath filled the hungry with good things, and the rich he hath sent away empty. He hath sustained his servant Israel, in remembrance of his mercy; As he spoke to our fathers, to Abraham, and to his seed for ever. And Mary abode with her about three months, and returned to her own house. Now Elisabeth's full time came that she should be delivered; and she brought forth a son. And her neighbors and her cousins heard that the Lord had shown great mercy upon her; and they rejoiced with her. And it came to pass, that on the eighth day they came to circumcise the child; and they called him Zacharias, after the name of his father. And his mother answered and said, Not so; but he shall be called John. And they said to her, There is none of thy kindred that is called by this name. And they made signs to his father, how he would have him called. And he asked for a writing-table, and wrote, saying, His name is John. And they all wondered. And his mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue loosed, and he spoke, and praised God. And fear came on all that dwelt around them; and all these sayings were noised abroad throughout all the hill-country of Judea. And all they that had heard them, laid them up in their hearts, saying, What manner of child will this be! And the hand of the Lord was with him.

67 And his father Zacharias was filled with the Holy Spirit, and 68 prophesied, saying, Blessed be the Lord God of Israel; for he 69 hath visited and redeemed his people. And hath raised up a 70 horn of salvation for us, in the house of his servant David: As he spoke by the mouth of his holy prophets, who have been 71 since the world began: That we should be saved from our 72 enemies, and from the hand of all that hate us; To perform the mercy promised to our fathers, and to remember his holy 73 covenant: The oath which he swore to our father Abraham, 74 That he would grant to us, that we being delivered out of the 75 hand of our enemies, might serve him without fear, In holiness and righteousness before him, all the days of our life.
76 And thou, child, shalt be called the prophet of the Highest, for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways; 77 To give knowledge of salvation to his people, by the remission 78 of their sins, Through the tender mercy of our God; by which 79 the day-spring from on high hath visited us, To give light to them that sit in darkness and in the shades of death, to guide 80 our feet into the way of peace. And the child grew, and became strong in spirit, and was in the deserts till the day of his showing to Israel.

2 And it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Cesar Augustus, that all the world should be taxed.
2 (And this taxing was first made when Cyrenius was governor 3 of Syria.) And all went to be taxed, every one into his own 4 city. And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judea, to the city of David, which is called Beth-5 lehem; (because he was of the house and lineage of David) To be taxed with Mary his espoused wife, being great with child.
6 And so it was, that while they were there, the days were accom-7 plished that she should be delivered. And she brought forth her first-born son, and wrapped him in swaddling-clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in 8 the inn. And there were in the same country shepherds abid-9 ing in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night. And lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the 10 Lord shone around them; and they were in great fear. And the angel said to them, Fear not: for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy which shall be to all people. For to you 11 is born this day, in the city of David, a Savior, who is Christ the Lord. And this shall be a sign to you; Ye shall find the 12 babe wrapped in swaddling-clothes, lying in a manger. And 13 suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying, Glory to God in the highest, 14 and on earth peace, good will towards men. And it came to 15 pass, when the angels had departed from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even to Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known to us. And they came with haste, and found 16 Mary and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger. And when 17 they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child. And all they that heard 18 it, wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds. But Mary kept all these things, and pondered them in 19 her heart. And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told to them. And when eight days were accomplished 21 for the circumcising of the child, his name was called JESUS, who was so named by the angel before he was conceived in the womb. And when the days of her purification according 22 to the law of Moses were accomplished, they brought him to Jerusalem, to present him to the Lord; (As it is written in 23 the law of the Lord, Every male that is the first born of his mother shall be called holy to the Lord) And to offer a sacri- 24 fice according to that which is said in the law of the Lord, A pair of turtle-doves, or two young pigeons. And behold, there 25 was a man in Jerusalem, whose name was Simeon; and the same man was just and devout, waiting for the consolation of Israel: and the Holy Spirit was upon him. And it was re- 26 vealed to him by the Holy Spirit, that he should not see death, before he had seen the Lord's Christ. And he came by the 27 spirit into the temple; and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him after the custom of the law, Then 28 he took him up in his arms, and blessed God, and said, Lord, 29 now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, according to thy word: For my eyes have seen thy salvation, Which thou hast 30, 31 prepared before the face of all people; A light to enlighten the 32 Gentiles, and the glory of thy people Israel. And Joseph and 33 his mother marveled at those things which were spoken concerning him. And Simeon blessed them, and said to Mary his mother, Behold, this child is set for the fall and rising again of many in Israel; and for a sign which shall be spoken against; (And a sword shall pierce through thy own soul also) that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed. And there was one Anna, a prophetess, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher: she was of a great age, and had lived with a husband seven years from her virginity; And she was a widow of about eighty four years, who departed not from the temple, but served God with fastings and prayers night and day. And she coming in that instant, gave thanks likewise to the Lord, and spoke of him to all them that looked for redemption in Jerusalem. And when they had performed all things according to the law of the Lord, they returned into Galilee, to their own city Nazareth. And the child grew, and became strong in spirit, filled with wisdom: and the grace of God was upon him. Now his parents went to Jerusalem every year at the feast of the passover. And when he was twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem according to the custom of the feast. And when they had fulfilled the days, as they returned, the child Jesus tarried behind in Jerusalem; and Joseph and his mother knew not of it. But they, supposing him to be in the company, went a day's journey; and they sought him among their relations and acquaintance. And when they found him not, they returned to Jerusalem, seeking him. And it came to pass, that after three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the doctors, both hearing them, and asking them questions. And all that heard him were astonished at his understanding and answers. And when they saw him, they were amazed: and his mother said to him, Son, why hast thou thus dealt with us? behold, thy father and I have sought thee sorrowing. And he said to them, How is it that ye sought me? knew ye not that I must be about my Father's business? And they understood not the saying which he spoke to them. And he went down with them, and came to Nazareth, and was subject to them: but his mother kept all these sayings in her heart. And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and man.

3 Now in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Cesar, Pontius Pilate being governor of Judea, and Herod being tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip tetrarch of Iturea and of the region of Trachonitis, and Lysanius the tetrarch of Abilene, Annas and Caiaphas being the high priests, the word of God 2 came to John the son of Zacharias in the wilderness. And 3 he came into all the country about Jordan, preaching the baptism of repentance, for the remission of sins; As it is written 4 in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet, saying, The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight. Every valley shall be filled, 5 and every mountain and hill shall be brought low; and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough ways shall be made smooth; And all flesh shall see the salvation of God. 6 Then said he to the multitude that came forth to be baptized 7 by him, O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come? Bring forth therefore fruits worthy 8 of repentance, and begin not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham for our father: for I say to you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children to Abraham. And now also 9 the ax is laid to the root of the trees: every tree therefore which bringeth not forth good fruit, is hewn down, and cast into the fire. And the people asked him, saying, What shall we do 10 then? He answereth and saith to them, He that hath two coats, let him impart to him that hath none; and he that hath provisions, let him do likewise. Then came also publicans to be baptized, and said to him, Master, what shall we do? And 13 he said to them, Exact no more than that which is appointed you. And the soldiers likewise asked him, saying, And what shall we do? And he said to them, Do violence to no man, neither accuse any falsely, and be content with your wages. And 15 as the people were in expectation, and all men mused in their hearts concerning John, whether he was the Christ, or not; John answered, saying to them all, I indeed baptize you with 16 water; but one mightier than I cometh, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to unloose: he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit, and with fire: Whose fan is in his hand, and he 17 will thoroughly cleanse his floor, and will gather the wheat into his granary; but the chaff he will burn with fire unquenchable. And many other things in his exhortation he preached to the 18 people. But Herod the tetrarch, being reproved by him on ac- 19 count of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife, and for all the evils 20 which Herod had done, Added yet this above all, that he shut 21 up John in prison. Now when all the people were baptized, it came to pass, that Jesus also being baptized, and praying, the 22 heaven was opened, And the Holy Spirit descended in a bodily shape like a dove upon him, and a voice came from heaven, which said, Thou art my beloved Son; in thee I am well pleased.

23 And Jesus himself began to be about thirty years of age, being (as was supposed) the son of Joseph, who was the son of Heli, 24 Who was the son of Matthat, who was the son of Levi, who was the son of Melchi, who was the son of Janna, who was the son 25 of Joseph, Who was the son of Mattathias, who was the son of Amos, who was the son of Naum, who was the son of Esli, who 26 was the son of Nagge, Who was the son of Maath, who was the son of Mattathias, who was the son of Semei, who was the 27 son of Joseph, who was the son of Juda, Who was the son of Joanna, who was the son of Rhesa, who was the son of Zorobabel, who was the son of Salathiel, who was the son of Neri, 28 Who was the son of Melchi, who was the son of Addi, who was the son of Cosam, who was the son of Elmodam, who was the 29 son of Er, Who was the son of Jose, who was the son of Eliezer, who was the son of Jorim, who was the son of Matthat, who 30 was the son of Levi, Who was the son of Simeon, who was the son of Judah, who was the son of Joseph, who was the son of 31 Jonan, who was the son of Eliakim, Who was the son of Melea, who was the son of Menan, who was the son of Mattatha, who 32 was the son of Nathan, who was the son of David, Who was the son of Jesse, who was the son of Obed, who was the son of Booz, who was the son of Salmon, who was the son of Naasson, 33 Who was the son of Aminadab, who was the son of Aram, who was the son of Esrom, who was the son of Phares, who was the 34 son of Judah, Who was the son of Jacob, who was the son of Isaac, who was the son of Abraham, who was the son of Terah, 35 who was the son of Nahor, Who was the son of Serug, who was the son of Reu, who was the son of Peleg, who was the son of 36 Heber, who was the son of Sala, Who was the son of Cainan, who was the son of Arphaxad, who was the son of Shem, who 37 was the son of Noah, who was the son of Lamech, Who was the son of Methuselah, who was the son of Enoch, who was the son of Jared, who was the son of Maleleel, who was the son of Cainan, Who was the son of Enos, who was the son of Seth, 38 who was the son of Adam, who was the son of God.

And Jesus being full of the Holy Spirit, returned from Jor- 4 dan, and was led by the Spirit into the wilderness, Being forty 2 days tempted by the devil. And in those days he ate nothing; and when they were ended, he was afterward hungry. And 3 the devil said to him, If thou art the Son of God, command this stone that it be made bread. And Jesus answered him, say- 4 ing, It is written, That man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God. And the devil taking him up upon a 5 high mountain, showed to him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time. And the devil said to him, All this power 6 will I give thee, and the glory of them: for that is delivered to me, and to whomsoever I will, I give it. If thou therefore 7 wilt worship me, all shall be thine. And Jesus answered and 8 said to him, Get thee behind me, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.
And he brought him to Jerusalem, and set him on a pinnacle 9 of the temple, and said to him, If thou art the son of God, cast thyself down from hence. For it is written, He will give his an- 10 gels charge over thee, to keep thee: And in their hands they 11 will bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone. And Jesus answering, said to him, It is said, Thou 12 shalt not tempt the Lord thy God. And when the devil had 13 ended all the temptation, he departed from him for a season.
And Jesus returned in the power of the spirit into Galilee: and 14 there went out a fame of him through all the surrounding region. And he taught in their synagogues, being glorified by 15 all. And he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up: 16 and, as his custom was, he went into the synagogue on the sabbath, and stood up to read. And there was delivered to him 17 the book of the prophet Isaiah. And when he had opened the book, he found the place where it was written, The spirit of 18 the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the broken-hearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised, To preach the acceptable year of the Lord. And he closed 19, 20 the book, and he gave it again to the minister, and sat down.
And the eyes of all them that were in the synagogue were fas-21 tened on him. And he began to say to them, This day is this 22 scripture fulfilled in your ears. And all bore him testimony, and wondered at the gracious words which proceeded out of 23 his mouth. And they said, Is not this Joseph's son? And he said to them, Ye will surely say to me this proverb, Physician, heal thyself: whatever we have heard done in Capernaum, do 24 also here in thy country. And he said, Verily I say to you, 25 No prophet is accepted in his own country. But I tell you in truth, many widows were in Israel in the days of Elijah, when the heaven was shut three years and six months when great 26 famine was throughout all the land: But to none of them was Elijah sent, save to Sarepta, a city of Sidon, to a woman that 27 was a widow. And many lepers were in Israel in the time of Ellisha the prophet; and none of them was cleansed, saving Naa-28 man the Syrian. And all they in the synagogue, when they 29 heard these things, were filled with wrath, And rose up, and thrust him out of the city, and led him to the brow of the hill on which their city was built, that they might cast him down 30 headlong. But he passing through the midst of them, went 31 away, And came down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee, and 32 taught them on the sabbath-days. And they were astonished 33 at his doctrine: for his word was with power. And in the synagogue there was a man who had a spirit of an unclean demon; 34 and he cried out with a loud voice, Saying, Let us alone; what have we to do with thee, Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art, the Holy One of God.

35 And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. And when the demon had thrown him in the midst, he 36 came out of him, and hurt him not. And they were all amazed, and spoke among themselves, saying, What a word is this! for with authority and power he commandeth the unclean spirits, 37 and they come out. And the fame of him went out into ev-38 every place of the surrounding country. And he arose out of the synagogue, and entered into Simon's house. And the mother of Simon's wife was taken with a violent fever; and they besought 39 him for her. And he stood over her, and rebuked the fever; and it left her: and immediately she arose and ministered to 40 them. Now when the sun was setting, all they that had any sick with divers diseases, brought them to him: and he laid his 41 hands on every one of them, and healed them. And demons also came out of many, crying out, and saying, Thou art Christ the Son of God. And he rebuking them, suffered them not to speak: for they knew that he was Christ. And when it was day, he departed, and went into a desert place; and the people sought him, and came to him, and stayed him, that he should not depart from them. And he said to them, I must preach the kingdom of God to other cities also, for therefore am I sent. And he preached in the synagogues of Galilee.

And it came to pass, that as the people pressed upon him to hear the word of God, he stood by the lake of Gennesaret. And saw two boats standing by the lake: but the fishermen had gone out of them, and were washing their nets. And he entered into one of the boats, which was Simon's, and prayed him that he would thrust out a little from the land. And he sat down, and taught the people out of the boat. Now when he had left speaking, he said to Simon, Launch out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught. And Simon answering said to him, Master, we have toiled all the night, and have taken nothing; nevertheless, at thy word I will let down the net. And when they had done this, they inclosed a great multitude of fishes: and their net broke. And they beckoned to their partners, who were in the other boat, that they should come and help them. And they came, and filled both the boats, so that they began to sink. When Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, Depart from me; for I am a sinful man, O Lord. For he was astonished, and all that were with him, at the draught of the fishes which they had taken: And so was also James and John the sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. And Jesus said to Simon, Fear not: from henceforth thou shalt catch men. And when they had brought their boats to land, they forsook all, and followed him. And it came to pass, when he was in a certain city, behold, a man full of leprosy: who seeing Jesus, fell on his face, and besought him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean. And he put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will: Be thou clean. And immediately the leprosy departed from him. And he charged him to tell no man: but go, and show thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing, according as Moses commanded for a testimony to them. But so much the more a fame of him went abroad: and great multitudes came together 16 to hear and to be healed by him of their infirmities. And 17 he withdrew himself into the wilderness, and prayed. And it came to pass on a certain day, as he was teaching, that there were Pharisees and doctors of the law sitting by, who had come out of every town of Galilee, and Judea, and Jerusalem: and 18 the power of the Lord was present to heal them. And behold, men brought in a bed a man who was taken with the palsy: and they sought means to bring him in, and to lay him before 19 him. And when they could not find by what way they might bring him in, because of the multitude, they went upon the house-top, and let him down through the tiling with his couch, 20 into the midst before Jesus. And when he saw their faith, he said to him, Man, thy sins are forgiven thee. And the scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, Who is this who speaketh blasphemies? Who can forgive sins but God alone?

22 But when Jesus perceived their thoughts, he answering, said 23 to them, What reason ye in your hearts? Which is easier, to 24 say, Thy sins are forgiven thee; or to say, Rise and walk? But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power upon earth to forgive sins, He said to the sick with the palsy, I say to thee, 25 Arise, and take up thy couch, and go into thy house. And immediately he arose before them, and took up that on which he 26 lay, and departed to his own house, glorifying God. And they were all amazed, and they glorified God, and were filled with 27 fear, saying, We have seen strange things to-day. And after these things he went forth, and saw a publican named Levi, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he said to him, Follow me.
28, 29 And he left all, arose, and followed him. And Levi made him a great feast in his own house; and there was a great company of 30 publicans, and of others that sat down with them. But their scribes and Pharisees murmured against his disciples, saying, 31 Why do ye eat and drink with publicans and sinners? And Jesus answering, said to them, They that are well need not 32 a physician; but they that are sick. I came not to call the 33 righteous, but sinners to repentance. And they said to him, Why do the disciples of John fast often, and make prayers, and likewise the disciples of the Pharisees; but thine eat and 34 drink? And he said to them, Can ye make the children of the 35 bride-chamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them? But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken from them, and then they will fast in those days. And he spoke also 36 a parable to them: No man putteth a piece of a new garment upon an old: if otherwise, then both the new maketh a rent, and the piece that was taken out of the new, agreeth not with the old. And no man putteth new wine into old bottles; else 37 the new wine will burst the bottles, and be spilled, and the bottles will perish. But new wine must be put into new bottles, 38 and both are preserved. No man also having drank old wine, 39 immediately desireth new: for he saith, The old is better.

And it came to pass on the second sabbath after the first, 6 that he went through corn-fields; and his disciples plucked the ears of corn, and ate, rubbing them in their hands. And cer- 2 tain of the Pharisees said to them, Why do ye that which it is not lawful to do on the sabbath-days? And Jesus answering 3 them, said, Have ye not read so much as this, what David did, when himself was hungry, and they who were with him; How 4 he went into the house of God, and took and ate the show-bread, and gave also to them that were with him, which it is not lawful to eat but for the priests alone? And he said to 5 them, That the Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath. And it 6 came to pass also on another sabbath, that he entered into the synagogue, and taught: and there was a man whose right hand was withered: And the scribes and Pharisees watched him, to 7 see whether he would heal on the sabbath; that they might find an accusation against him. But he knew their thoughts, and 8 said to the man who had the withered hand, Rise, and stand forth in the midst. And he arose, and stood forth. Then said 9 Jesus to them, I will ask you one thing; Is it lawful on the sabbath-days to do good, or to do evil? to save life, or to destroy it? And looking around upon them all, he said to the man, 10 Stretch forth thy hand. And he did so: and his hand was restored whole as the other. And they were filled with madness; 11 and communed one with another what they might do to Jesus.
And it came to pass in those days, that he went out to a moun- 12 tain to pray, and continued all night in prayer to God. And 13 when it was day, he called to him his disciples: and of them he chose twelve, whom also he named Apostles; Simon (whom he 14 also named Peter) and Andrew his brother, James and John, and Philip and Bartholomew, Matthew and Thomas, James 15 the son of Alpheus, and Simon called Zelotes, And Judas the 16 brother of James, and Judas Iscariot, who also was the traitor.

17 And he came down with them, and stood in the plain; and the company of his disciples, and a great multitude of people out of all Judea and Jerusalem, and from the sea-coast of Tyre and Sidon, who came to hear him, and to be healed of their diseases; And they that were afflicted with unclean spirits: and they were healed. And the whole multitude sought to touch him; for there went virtue out of him, and healed them all.

20 And he lifted up his eyes on his disciples, and said, Blessed are 21 ye poor: for yours is the kingdom of God. Blessed are ye that hunger now: for ye shall be filled. Blessed are ye that weep now: for ye shall laugh. Blessed are ye when men shall hate you, and when they shall separate you from their company, and shall reproach you, and cast out your name as evil, on account of the son of man. Rejoice ye in that day, and leap for joy: for behold, your reward is great in heaven: for in the like 37 manner did their fathers to the prophets. But woe to you that are rich! for ye have received your consolation. Woe to you that are full! for ye shall hunger. Woe to you that laugh now! for ye shall mourn and weep. Woe to you, when all men shall speak well of you! for so did their fathers to the false prophets. But I say to you who hear, Love your enemies, do good to them who hate you, Bless them that curse you, and pray for them who despitefully use you. And to him that smiteth thee on the one cheek, offer also the other; and him that taketh away thy cloke, forbid not to take thy coat also. Give to every man that asketh of thee; and of him that taketh away thy goods, ask them not again. And as ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise. For if ye love them who love you, what thanks have ye? for sinners also love those that love them. And if ye do good to them who do good to you, what thanks have ye? for sinners also do even the same. And if ye lend to them from whom ye hope to receive, what thanks have ye? for sinners also lend to sinners, to receive as much in return. But love ye your enemies, and do good, and lend, hoping for nothing again; and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be the children of the Highest: for he is kind to the unthankful and to the evil. Be ye therefore merciful, as your Father also is merciful. Judge not, and ye shall not be judged: condemn not, and ye shall not be condemned: forgive, and ye shall be forgiven: Give, and it shall be given to you; good measure, 38 pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your bosom. For with the same measure that ye give to others, it shall be measured to you again. And he 39 spoke a parable to them; Can the blind lead the blind? will they not both fall into the ditch? The disciple is not above his 40 master: but every one that is perfect, shall be as his master.

And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, 41 but perceivest not the beam that is in thy own eye? Either 42 how canst thou say to thy brother, Brother, let me pull out the mote that is in thy eye, when thou thyself beholdest not the beam that is in thy own eye? Thou hypocrite, cast out first the beam out of thy own eye, and then shalt thou see clearly to pull out the mote that is in thy brother's eye. For a good 43 tree bringeth not forth corrupt fruit; neither doth a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. For every tree is known by its 44 own fruit: for from thorns men do not gather figs, nor from a bramble bush do they gather grapes. A good man out of the 45 good treasure of his heart, bringeth forth that which is good; and an evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart, bringeth forth that which is evil: for from the abundance of the heart his mouth speaketh. And why call ye me Lord, Lord, and do not 46 the things which I say? Whoever cometh to me, and heareth 47 my sayings, and doeth them, I will show you to whom he is like. He is like a man who built a house, and digged deep, 48 and laid the foundation on a rock: and when the flood arose, the stream beat vehemently upon that house, and could not shake it: for it was founded upon a rock. But he that heareth, 49 and doeth not, is like a man that, without a foundation, built a house on the earth, against which the stream beat vehemently, and immediately it fell, and the ruin of that house was great.

Now when he had ended all his sayings in the audience of 7 the people, he entered into Capernaum. And a certain centu- 2 rion's servant, who was dear to him, was sick, and ready to die.
And when he heard of Jesus, he sent to him the elders of the 3 Jews, beseeching him that he would come and heal his servant.
And when they came to Jesus, they besought him earnestly, 4 saying, That he was worthy for whom he should do this: For 5 he loveth our nation, and he hath built us a synagogue. Then 6 Jesus went with them. And when he was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying to him, Lord, trouble not thyself: for I am not worthy that thou shouldst 7 enter under my roof; Wherefore neither thought I myself worthy to come to thee; but say in a word, and my servant shall 8 be healed. For I also am a man set under authority, having under me soldiers, and I say to one, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, 9 and he doeth it. When Jesus heard these things, he marveled at him, and turned himself about and said to the people that followed him, I say to you, I have not found so great faith, no, 10 not in Israel. And they that were sent, returning to the house, 11 found the servant well that had been sick. And it came to pass the day after, that he went into a city called Nain: and many of 12 his disciples went with him, and many people. Now when he came nigh to the gate of the city, behold, there was a dead man carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow: 13 and many people of the city were with her. And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her, and said to her, Weep not.

14 And he came and touched the bier: And they that bore him stood still. And he said, Young man, I say to thee, Arise. And he that was dead sat up, and began to speak, and he delivered 15 him to his mother. And there came a fear on all: and they glorified God, saying, That a great prophet hath risen among 16 us; and, That God hath visited his people. And this rumor of him went forth throughout all Judea, and throughout all the 17 neighboring region. And the disciples of John informed him of all these things. And John calling two of his disciples sent 18 them to Jesus, saying, Art thou he that should come? or look we for another? When the men had come to him, they said, 19 John the Baptist hath sent us to thee, saying, Art thou he that should come? or look we for another? And in that same hour 20 he cured many of their infirmities, and diseases, and of evil spirits; and to many that were blind he gave sight. Then Jesus answering, said to them, Go, and tell John what things ye 21 have seen and heard; that the blind see, the lame walk, lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, to the poor the 22 gospel is preached. And blessed is he, to whom I shall not be a stumbling block. And when the messengers of John had departed, he began to speak to the people concerning John, What 23 went ye out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken with the 24 wind? But what went ye out to see? A man clothed in soft 25 raiment? behold, they who are gorgeously appareled, and live delicately, are in kings' courts. But what went ye out to see? 26 A prophet? Yes, I say to you, and much more than a prophet.

This is he, concerning whom it is written, Behold, I send my 27 messenger before thy face, who shall prepare thy way before thee. For I say to you, Among those that are born of women, 28 there is not a greater prophet than John the Baptist: but he that is least in the kingdom of God, is greater than he. And all 29 the people that heard him, and the publicans, justified God, being baptized with the baptism of John. But the Pharisees and 30 lawyers rejected the counsel of God against themselves, being not baptized by him. And the Lord said, To what then shall 31 I liken the men of this generation? and to what are they like?
They are like children sitting in the market-place, and calling 32 one to another, and saying, We have piped to you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned to you, and ye have not wept.
For John the Baptist came neither eating bread, nor drinking 33 wine; and ye say, He hath a demon. The Son of man is come 34 eating and drinking; and ye say, Behold, a gluttonous man, and a wine-bibber, a friend of publicans and sinners. But wis- 35 dom is justified by all her children. And one of the Pharisees 36 desired him that he would eat with him. And he went into the Pharisee's house, and sat down at table. And behold, a 37 woman in the city, who was a sinner, when she knew that Jesus sat at table in the Pharisee's house, brought an alabasterbox of ointment, And stood at his feet behind him weeping, 38 and began to wash his feet with tears, and wiped them with the hairs of her head, and kissed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment. Now when the Pharisee who had invited 39 him, saw it, he spoke within himself, saying, This man, if he were a prophet, would have known who, and what manner of woman this is that toucheth him, for she is a sinner. And Jesus answering, said to him, Simon, I have somewhat to say to thee. And he saith, Master, speak. There was a certain cred- 41 itor, who had two debtors: the one owed five hundred pence, and the other fifty. And when they had nothing to pay, he 42 frankly forgave them both. Tell me therefore, which of them will love him most? Simon answered and said, I suppose that 43 he, to whom he forgave most. And he said to him, Thou hast 44 rightly judged. And he turned to the woman, and said to Simon, Seest thou this woman? I entered into thy house, thou gavest me no water for my feet: but she hath washed my feet 45 with tears, and wiped them with the hairs of her head. Thou gavest me no kiss: but this woman, since the time I came in, 46 hath not ceased to kiss my feet. My head with oil thou didst not anoint: but this woman hath anointed my feet with oint-47 ment. Wherefore I say to thee, Her sins, which are many, are forgiven; for she loved much: but to whom little is forgiven, the 48 same loveth little. And he said to her, Thy sins are forgiven.

49 And they that sat at table with him, began to say within them-50 selves, Who is this that forgiveth sins also? And he said to the woman, Thy faith hath saved thee; go in peace.

8 And it came to pass afterward, that he went throughout every city and village, preaching and showing the glad tidings of 2 the kingdom of God: and the twelve were with him, And certain women, who had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities, Mary called Magdalene, out of whom went seven demons.
3 And Joanna the wife of Chuza Herod's steward, and Susanna, and many others, who ministered to him of their substance.
4 And when many people were collected, and had come to him 5 out of every city, he spoke by a parable: A sower went out to sow his seed: and as he sowed, some fell by the way side; and 6 it was trodden down, and the fowls of the air devoured it. And some fell upon a rock; and as soon as it was sprung up, it with-7 ered, because it lacked moisture. And some fell among thorns; 8 and the thorns sprang up with it, and choked it. And other fell on good ground, and sprang up, and bore fruit a hundredfold. And when he had said these things, he cried, He that 9 hath ears to hear, let him hear. And his disciples asked him, 10 saying, What doth this parable mean? And he said, To you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God: but to others in parables; that seeing they may not see, and hear-11 ing they may not understand. Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God. Those by the way side, are they that 12 hear; then cometh the devil, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved. They 13 on the rock are they, who, when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, who for a while believe, and 14 in time of temptation fall away. And that which fell among thorns are they, who, when they have heard, go forth, and are choked with cares and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection. But that on the good ground are they, who in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience. No man, when he hath lighted a candle, covereth it with a vessel, or putteth it under a bed; but setteth it on a candlestick, that they who enter in may see the light. For nothing is secret, that shall not be made manifest; neither any thing hid, that shall not be known, and come abroad. Take heed therefore how ye hear: for whoever hath, to him shall be given; and whoever hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he seemeth to have. Then came to him his mother and his brethren, and could not come near to him for the crowd. And it was told to him by certain, who said, Thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to see thee. And he answered and said to them, My mother and my brethren are these who hear the word of God, and do it. Now it came to pass on a certain day, that he went into a boat with his disciples: and he said to them, Let us go over to the other side of the lake. And they lunched forth. But as they sailed, he fell asleep: and there came down a storm of wind on the lake; and they were filled with water, and were in jeopardy. And they came to him, and awoke him, saying, Master, master, we perish. Then he arose, and rebuked the wind, and the raging of the water: and they ceased, and there was a calm. And he said to them, Where is your faith? And they being afraid, wondered, saying one to another, What manner of man is this! for he commandeth even the winds and water, and they obey him. And they arrived at the country of the Gadarenes, which is over against Galilee. And when he went forth to land, there met him out of the city a certain man, who had demons a long time, and wore no clothes, neither abode in any house, but in the tombs. When he saw Jesus, he cried out, and fell down before him, and with a loud voice said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of God most high? I beseech thee torment me not. (For he had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For often it had caught him, and he was kept bound with chains, and in fetters: and he broke the bands, and was driven by the demon into the wilderness.) And Jesus asked him, saying, What is thy name? And he said, Legion: because many demons had entered into him.

31 And they besought him, that he would not command them to 32 go out into the deep. And there was there a herd of many swine feeding on the mountain: and they besought him that he would suffer them to enter into them. And he suffered them.
33 Then the demons went out of the man, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the 34 lake, and were choked. When they that fed them saw what was done, they fled, and went and told it in the city and in 35 the country. Then they went out to see what was done; and came to Jesus, and found the man out of whom the demons had departed, sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed, and in his 36 right mind: and they were afraid. They also who saw it, told them by what means he that was possessed by the demons was 37 healed. Then the whole multitude of the surrounding country of the Gadarenes, besought him to depart from them: for they were taken with great fear. And he went into the boat, and re-38 turned. Now the man out of whom the demons had departed, besought him that he might be with him. But Jesus sent him 39 away, saying, Return to thy own house, and show how great things God hath done to thee. And he went away and published throughout the whole city, how great things Jesus had done to 40 him. And it came to pass, that, when Jesus had returned, the people gladly received him: for they were all waiting for him.
41 And behold, there came a man named Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue: and he fell down at the feet of Jesus, 42 and besought him that he would come into his house: For he had one daughter only, about twelve years of age, and she lay 43 dying. (But as he was going, the people thronged him. And a woman having an issue of blood twelve years, who had spent all her living upon physicians, neither could be healed by any, 44 Came behind him, and touched the border of his garment: and 45 immediately her issue of blood stanch'd. And Jesus said, Who touched me? When all denied, Peter, and they that were with him, said, Master, the multitude throng thee, and press thee, 46 and sayest thou, Who touched me? And Jesus said, Somebody hath touched me: for I perceive that virtue hath gone out of me.
47 And when the woman saw that she was not hid, she came trembling, and falling down before him, she declared to him before all the people for what cause she had touched him, and how she was healed immediately. And he said to her, Daughter, be 48 of good comfort: thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace.

While he was yet speaking, there cometh one from the house 49 of the ruler of the synagogue, saying to him, Thy daughter is dead: trouble not the Master. But when Jesus heard it, he 50 answered him, saying, Fear not: believe only, and she shall be healed. And when he came into the house, he suffered no man 51 to go in, save Peter, and James, and John, and the father and the mother of the maiden. And all wept and bewailed her: 52 but he said, Weep not: she is not dead, but sleepeth. And they 53 derided him, knowing that she was dead. And he put them 54 all out, and took her by the hand, and called, saying, Maid, arise. And her spirit came again, and she arose immediately: 55 and he commanded to give her food. And her parents were 56 astonished: but he charged them that they should tell no man what was done.

Then he called his twelve disciples together, and gave them 9 power and authority over all demons, and to cure diseases.
And he sent them to preach the kingdom of God, and to heal 2 the sick. And he said to them, Take nothing for your jour- 3 ney, neither staves, nor bag, neither bread, neither money; neither have two coats apiece. And into whatever house ye enter, 4 there abide, and thence depart. And whoever will not receive 5 you, when ye go out of that city, shake off the very dust from your feet for a testimony against them. And they departed, 6 and went through the towns, preaching the gospel, and healing every where. Now Herod the tetrarch heard of all that was 7 done by him: and he was perplexed, because that it was said by some, that John had risen from the dead; And by some, 8 that Elijah had appeared; and by others, that one of the ancient prophets had risen again. And Herod said, John have 9 I beheaded; but who is this of whom I hear such things? And he desired to see him. And the apostles, when they had re- 10 turned, told him all that they had done. And he took them, and went aside privately into a desert place, belonging to the city called Bethsaida. And the people, when they knew it, fol- 11 lowed him: and he received them, and spoke to them of the kingdom of God, and healed them that had need of healing.
And when the day began to decline, then came the twelve, and 12 said to him, Send the multitude away, that they may go into the towns and country around, and lodge, and get victuals: for 13 we are here in a desert place. But he said to them, Give ye them to eat. And they said, We have no more than five loaves and two fishes; except we should go and buy provisions for all 14 this people. For they were about five thousand men. And he said to his disciples, Make them sit down by fifties in a com-15, 16 pany. And they did so, and made them all sit down. Then he took the five loaves, and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed them, and broke, and gave to the disciples 17 to set before the multitude. And they ate, and were all satisfied: and there was taken up of fragments that remained to 18 them, twelve baskets. And it came to pass, as he was in retirement praying, his disciples were with him; and he asked 19 them, saying, Who say the people that I am? They answering, said, John the Baptist; but some say, Elijah; and others say, 20 that one of the ancient prophets is risen again. He said to them, But who say ye that I am? Peter answering, said, Christ 21 of God. And he strictly charged them, and commanded them 22 to tell no man that thing, Saying, The Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders, and chief priests, and scribes, and be put to death, and be raised the third day.

23 And he said to them all, If any man will come after me, let him 24 deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me. For whoever will save his life, shall lose it: but whoever will lose 25 his life for my sake, the same shall save it. For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose himself, or 26 be cast away? For whoever shall be ashamed of me, and of my words, of him will the Son of man be ashamed, when he shall come in his own glory, and in that of his Father, and of the 27 holy angels. But I tell you in truth, there are some standing here who shall not taste death till they see the kingdom of God.
28 And it came to pass, about eight days after these sayings, he took Peter, and John, and James, and went up upon a moun-29 tain to pray. And as he prayed, the fashion of his countenance 30 was altered, and his raiment was white and glistening. And behold, there talked with him two men, who were Moses and 31 Elijah. Who appeared in glory, and spoke of his decease which 32 he should accomplish at Jerusalem. But Peter and they that were with him were heavy with sleep: and when they were awake, they saw his glory, and the two men that stood with him. And it came to pass, as they departed from him, Peter 33 said to Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah: not knowing what he said. While he was thus 34 speaking, there came a cloud and overshadowed them: and they feared as they entered into the cloud. And there came 35 a voice out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son: hear him. And when the voice was past, Jesus was found alone. 36 And they kept it close, and told no man in those days any of those things which they had seen. And it came to pass, that 37 on the next day, when they had come down from the hill, many people met him. And behold, a man of the company cried out, 38 saying, Master, I beseech thee look upon my son: for he is my only child. And lo, a spirit taketh him, and he suddenly cri- 39 eth out; and it teareth him that he foameth, and bruising him, hardly departeth from him. And I besought thy disciples to 40 cast him out, and they could not. And Jesus answering, said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with 41 you, and suffer you? Bring thy son hither. And as he was 42 yet coming, the demon threw him down, and tore him. And Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the child, and delivered him again to his father. And they were all amazed 43 at the mighty power of God. But while they were all wondering at all things which Jesus did, he said to his disciples, Let 44 these sayings sink down into your ears: for the Son of man will be delivered into the hands of men. But they understood not 45 this saying, and it was hid from them, that they perceived it not: and they feared to ask him concerning that saying. Then 46 there arose a reasoning among them, which of them should be greatest. And Jesus perceiving the thought of their heart, 47 took a child, and set him by him, And said to them, Whoever 48 shall receive this child in my name, receiveth me; and whoever shall receive me, receiveth him that sent me: for he that is least among you all, the same shall be great. And John 49 answered and said, Master, we saw one casting out demons in thy name; and we forbid him, because he followeth not with us. And Jesus said to him, Forbid him not: for he that is 50 not against us, is for us. And it came to pass, when the time 51 was come that he should be received up, he steadfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem, And sent messengers before his face: 52 and they went and entered into a village of the Samaritans, to 53 make ready for him. And they did not receive him, because his 54 face was as though he would go to Jerusalem. And when his disciples James and John saw this, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we command fire to come down from heaven, and consume 55 them, even as Elijah did? But he turned, and rebuked them, 56 and said, Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of. For the Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save 57 them. And they went to another village. And it came to pass, that as they were going in the way, a certain man said to him, 58 Lord, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest. And Jesus said to him, Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; 59 but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head. And he said to another, Follow me. But he said, Lord, suffer me first to 60 go and bury my father. Jesus said to him, Let the dead bury 61 their dead: but go thou and preach the kingdom of God. And another also said, Lord, I will follow thee; but let me first go 62 and bid them farewell who are at my house. And Jesus said to him, No man having put his hand to the plow, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God.

10 After these things, the Lord appointed other seventy also, and sent them two and two before his face into every city, and 2 place, whither he himself would come. Therefore said he to them, The harvest truly is great, but the laborers are few: pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he would send 3 forth laborers into his harvest. Go: behold, I send you forth 4 as lambs among wolves. Carry neither purse, nor sack, nor 5 shoes: and salute no man by the way. And into whatever 6 house ye enter, first say, Peace be to this house. And if the son of peace be there, your peace shall rest upon it: if not, it shall 7 turn to you again. And in the same house remain, eating and drinking such things as they give: for the laborer is worthy of 8 his hire. Go not from house to house. And into whatever city ye enter, and they receive you, eat such things as are set be-9 fore you. And heal the sick that are therein, and say to them, 10 The kingdom of God is come nigh to you. But into whatever city ye enter, and they receive you not, go out into the streets 11 of the same, and say, Even the very dust of your city which cleaveth on us, we do wipe off against you: notwithstanding, be ye sure of this, that the kingdom of God is come nigh to you.

But I say to you, that it shall be more tolerable in that day for 12 Sodom than for that city. Woe to thee, Chorazin! woe to thee 13 Bethsaida! for if the mighty works had been done in Tyre and Sidon, which have been done in you, they had a great while ago repented sitting in sackcloth and ashes. But it shall be more 14 tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the judgment, than for you.
And thou, Capernaum, which art exalted to heaven, shall be 15 thrust down to hell. He that heareth you, heareth me; and he 16 that despiseth you, despiseth me; and he that despiseth me, despiseth him that sent me. And the seventy returned with 17 joy, saying, Lord, even the demons are subject to us through thy name. And he said to them, I beheld Satan as lightning 18 fall from heaven. Behold, I give to you power to tread on ser- 19 pents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you. Notwithstanding in 20 this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject to you; but rather rejoice, because your names are written in heaven. In that 21 hour Jesus rejoiced in spirit, and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them to babes: even 22 so, Father; for so it seemed good in thy sight. All things are delivered to me by my Father: and no man knoweth who the 23 Son is, but the Father; and who the Father is, but the Son, and he to whom the Son will reveal him. And he turned himself to 24 his disciples, and said privately, Blessed are the eyes which see the things that ye see. For I tell you, that many prophets and 25 kings have desired to see the things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear the things which ye hear, and have 26 not heard them. And behold, a certain lawyer stood up, and tempted him, saying, Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal 27 life? He said to him, What is written in the law? how readest thou? And he answering said, Thou shalt love the Lord thy 28 God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbor as thyself.
And he said to him, Thou hast answered right: this do, and 29 thou shalt live. But he, willing to justify himself, said to Jesus, And who is my neighbor? And Jesus answering said, A cer- 30 tain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among robbers, who stripped him of his raiment, and wounded him, and departed, leaving him half dead. And by chance there 31 came down a certain priest that way; and when he saw him, 32 he passed by on the other side. And likewise a Levite, when he was at the place, came and looked on him, and passed by 33 on the other side. But a certain Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was: and when he saw him, he had compassion 34 on him, And went to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring in oil and wine, and set him on his own beast, and brought him 35 to an inn, and took care of him. And on the morrow, when he departed, he took out two pence, and gave them to the host, and said to him, Take care of him: and whatever thou spend-36 est more, when I come again, I will repay thee. Which now of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbor to him that fell 37 among the robbers? And he said, He that showed mercy on 38 him. Then said Jesus to him, Go, and do thou likewise. Now it came to pass, as they were going, he entered into a certain village: and a certain woman, named Martha, received him 39 into her house. And she had a sister called Mary, who also 40 sat at Jesus' feet, and heard his word. But Martha was cumbered about much serving, and came to him, and said, Lord, dost thou not care that my sister hath left me to serve alone?

41 bid her therefore that she help me. And Jesus answered, and said to her, Martha, Martha, thou art anxious, and troubled 42 about many things: But one thing is needful; and Mary hath chosen that good part, which shall not be taken away from her.

11 And it came to pass, that as he was praying in a certain place, when he ceased, one of his disciples said to him, Lord, 2 teach us to pray, as John also taught his disciples. And he said to them, When ye pray, say, Our Father who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, as 3 in heaven, so on earth. Give us day by day our daily bread.
4 And forgive us our sins; for we also forgive every one that is indebted to us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver 5 us from evil. And he said to them, Which of you shall have a friend, and shall go to him at midnight, and say to him, Friend, 6 lend me three loaves: For a friend of mine in his journey is 7 come to me, and I have nothing to set before him? And he from within shall answer and say, Trouble me not: the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot rise 8 and give thee. I say to you, Though he will not rise and give him, because he is his friend, yet because of his importunity he will rise and give him as many as he needeth. And I say 9 to you, Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and the door shall be opened to you. For every one that 10 asketh, receiveth; and he that seeketh, findeth; and to him that knocketh, the door shall be opened. If a son shall ask bread 11 of any of you that is a father, will he give him a stone? or if he shall ask a fish, will he for a fish give him a serpent? Or if 12 he shall ask an egg, will he offer him a scorpion? If ye then, 13 being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children: how much more will your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him? And he was casting out a demon, and it 14 was dumb. And it came to pass when the demon was gone out, the dumb spoke; and the people wondered. But some of them 15 said, He casteth out demons through Beelzebub, the chief of the demons. And others tempting him, sought from him a sign 16 from heaven. But he, knowing their thoughts, said to them, 17 Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and a house divided against a house falleth. If Satan also is 18 divided against himself, how shall his kingdom stand? because ye say that I cast out demons through Beelzebub. And if I by 19 Beelzebub cast out demons, by whom do your sons cast them out? therefore shall they be your judges. But if I with the 20 finger of God cast out demons, no doubt the kingdom of God is come upon you. When a strong man armed keepeth his 21 palace, his goods are in peace: But when a stronger than he 22 shall come upon him, and overcome him, he taketh from him all his armor in which he trusted, and divideth his spoils. He 23 that is not with me is against me: and he that gathereth not with me scattereth. When the unclean spirit is gone out of a 24 man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest: and finding none, he saith, I will return to my house whence I came out.

And when he cometh, he findeth it swept and garnished. Then 25, 26 he goeth and taketh to him seven other spirits more wicked than himself; and they enter in, and dwell there: and the last state of that man is worse than the first. And it came to pass, 27 as he was speaking these things, a certain woman of the company lifted up her voice, and said to him, Blessed is the womb that bore thee, and the paps which nourished thee. But he 28 said, Yes, rather blessed are they that hear the word of God, and keep it. And when the people were assembled in crowds, 29 he began to say, This is an evil generation: they seek a sign; and there shall no sign be given to it, but the sign of Jonah the prophet. For as Jonah was a sign to the Ninevites, so also shall the Son of man be to this generation. The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with the men of this generation, and condemn them: for she came from the utmost parts of the earth, to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and behold, a greater than Solomon is here. The men of Nineveh shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for they repented at the preaching of Jonah; and behold, a greater than Jonah is here. No man when he hath lighted a candle, putteth it in a secret place, neither under a close vessel, but on a candlestick, that they who come in may see the light. The light of the body is the eye: therefore when thy eye is single, thy whole body also is full of light; but when thy eye is evil, thy body also is full of darkness. Take heed therefore, that the light which is in thee be not darkness. If thy whole body therefore be full of light, having no part dark, the whole shall be full of light; as when the bright shining of a candle doth give thee light. And as he was speaking, a certain Pharisee besought him to dine with him: and he went in, and sat down to eat. And when the Pharisee saw it, he marveled that he had not first washed before dinner. And the Lord said to him, Now do ye Pharisees make clean the outside of the cup and the platter; but your inward part is full of ravening and wickedness. Ye fools, did not he that made that which is without, make that which is within also? But rather give alms of such things as ye have; and behold, all things are clean to you. But woe to you, Pharisees! for ye tithe mint, and rue, and all manner of herbs, and pass over judgment and the love of God: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the others undone. Woe to you, Pharisees! for ye love the uppermost seats in the synagogues, and greetings in the markets. Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye are as graves which appear not, and the men that walk over them are not aware of them. Then answered one of the lawyers, and said to him, Master, thus saying, thou reproachest us also. And he said, Woe to you also, ye lawyers, for ye load men with burdens grievous to be borne, and ye yourselves touch not the burdens with one of your fingers. Woe to you! for ye build the sepulchers of the prophets, and your fathers killed them. Truly ye 48 bear testimony, that ye allow the deeds of your fathers: for they indeed killed them, and ye build their sepulchers. Therefore 49 also said the wisdom of God, I will send them prophets and apostles, and some of them they will slay and persecute: That 50 the blood of all the prophets, which hath been shed from the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation; From the blood of Abel to the blood of Zacharias, who perished 51 between the altar and the temple: verily I say to you, It shall be required of this generation. Woe to you, lawyers! for ye 52 have taken away the key of knowledge: ye have not entered in yourselves, and them that were entering in ye hindered. And 53 as he said these things to them, the scribes and the Pharisees began to urge him vehemently, and to solicit him to speak of many things; Laying wait for him, and seeking to catch some- 54 thing from his mouth, that they might accuse him.

In the mean time, when there was gathered an innumerable 12 multitude of people, so that they trod one upon another, he began to say to his disciples first of all, Beware ye of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy. For there is noth- 2 ing covered, that shall not be revealed; neither hid, that shall not be known. Therefore, whatever ye have spoken in dark- 3 ness, shall be heard in the light; and that which ye have spoken in the ear in closets, shall be proclaimed upon the house-tops.
 And I say to you, my friends, Be not afraid of them that kill 4 the body, and after that have no more that they can do. But I 5 will forewarn you whom ye shall fear: Fear him, who after he hath killed, hath power to cast into hell; yes, I say to you, Fear 6 him. Are not five sparrows sold for two farthings, and not one of them is forgotten before God? But even the very hairs 7 of your head are all numbered. Fear not therefore: ye are of more value than many sparrows. Also I say to you, Whoever 8 shall confess me before men, him will the Son of man also confess before the angels of God. But he that denieth me before 9 men, shall be denied before the angels of God. And whoever 10 shall speak a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but to him that blasphemeth against the Holy Spirit, it shall not be forgiven. And when they bring you to the syna- 11 gogues, and before magistrates, and powers, be not solicitous how or what thing ye shall answer, or what ye shall say: For 12 the Holy Spirit will teach you in the same hour what ye ought 13 to say. And one of the company said to him, Master, speak 14 to my brother, that he divide the inheritance with me. And he said to him, Man, who made me a judge, or a divider over 15 you? And he said to them, Take heed, and beware of covetousness: for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the 16 things which he possesseth. And he spoke a parable to them, saying, The ground of a certain rich man brought forth plen-17 tifully: And he thought within himself, saying, What shall I do, because I have no room where to deposit my fruits? And 18 he said, This will I do: I will pull down my barns, and build greater; and there will I deposit all my fruits and my goods.

19 And I will say to my soul, Soul, thou hast abundance of goods laid up for many years; take thy ease, eat, drink, and be merry.
20 But God said to him, Thou fool, this night thy soul shall be required of thee: then whose shall those things be which thou 21 hast provided? So is he that layeth up treasure for himself, 22 and is not rich towards God. And he said to his disciples, Therefore I say to you, Be not anxious for your life, what ye 23 shall eat; neither for the body, what ye shall put on. The life 24 is more than food, and the body is more than raiment. Consider the ravens: for they neither sow nor reap: which neither have store-house, nor barn; and God feedeth them: How 25 much more are ye better than the fowls? And which of you 26 by solicitude can add to his stature one cubit? If ye then are not able to do that thing which is least, why are ye anxious 27 for the rest? Consider the lilies how they grow: They toil not, they spin not; and yet I say to you, that Solomon in all 28 his glory was not arrayed like one of these. If then God so clothe the grass, which is to-day in the field, and to-morrow is cast into the oven; how much more will he clothe you, O ye 29 of little faith? And seek ye not what ye shall eat, or what 30 ye shall drink, neither be ye of doubtful mind. For all these things do the nations of the world seek after: and your Father 31 knoweth that ye have need of these things. But rather seek ye the kingdom of God, and all these things shall be added to 32 you. Fear not, little flock; for it is your Father's good pleasure 33 to give you the kingdom. Sell what ye have, and give alms: provide yourselves bags which become not old, a treasure in the heavens that faileth not, where no thief approacheth, neither moth corrupteth. For where your treasure is, there will 34 your heart be also. Let your loins be girt, and your lights 35 burning; And ye yourselves like men that wait for their lord, 36 when he shall return from the wedding; that, when he cometh and knocketh, they may open to him immediately. Blessed 37 are those servants, whom the lord when he cometh shall find watching: verily I say to you, that he will gird himself, and make them to sit down to eat, and will come forth and serve 38 them. And if he shall come in the second watch, or come in the third watch, and find them so, blessed are those servants.

And this know, that if the master of the house knew at what 39 hour the thief would come, he would watch, and not suffer his house to be broken through. Be ye therefore ready also: for 40 the Son of man cometh at an hour when ye think not. Then Peter said to him, Lord, speakest thou this parable to us, or 41 even to all? And the Lord said, Who then is that faithful and 42 wise steward, whom his lord shall make ruler over his household, to give them their portion of provisions in due season?
Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall 43 find so doing. In truth I say to you, that he will make him 44 ruler over all that he hath. But if that servant shall say in his 45 heart, My lord delayeth his coming; and shall begin to beat the men-servants, and maidens, and to eat and drink, and to be drunken? The lord of that servant will come in a day when he 46 looketh not for him, and at an hour when he is not aware, and will cut him asunder, and will appoint him his portion with the unbelievers. And that servant who knew his lord's will, and 47 prepared not himself, neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes. But he that knew not, and commit- 48 ted things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes.
For to whomsoever much is given, of him shall much be required: and to whom men have committed much, from him they will ask the more. I am come to send fire on the earth, 49 and what will I, if it is already kindled? But I have a bap- 50 tism to be baptized with; and how am I straitened till it shall be accomplished! Suppose ye that I am come to give peace 51 on earth? I tell you, No; but rather division: For from hence- 52 forth there will be five in one house divided, three against two, and two against three. The father will be divided against the 53 son, and the son against the father; the mother against the daughter, and the daughter against the mother; the mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law, and the daughter-in-law 54 against her mother-in-law. And he said also to the people, When ye see a cloud rising in the west, immediately ye say, 55 There cometh a shower; and so it is. And when ye perceive the south wind blowing, ye say, There will be heat; and it cometh 56 to pass. Ye hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the sky, and of the earth; but how is it, that ye do not discern this time?

57, 58 And why even of yourselves judge ye not what is right? When thou goest with thy adversary to the magistrate, as thou art in the way, give diligence that thou mayest be delivered from him; lest he draw thee before the judge, and the judge deliver 59 thee to the officer, and the officer cast thee into prison. I tell thee, thou shalt not depart thence, till thou hast paid the very last mite.

13 There were present at that season some that told him of the Galileans, whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sac-2 rifices. And Jesus answering, said to them, Suppose ye that these Galileans were sinners above all the Galileans, because 3 they suffered such things? I tell you, No; but except ye repent, 4 ye shall all likewise perish. Or those eighteen, upon whom the tower in Siloam fell, and killed them, think ye that they were 5 sinners above all men that dwelt in Jerusalem? I tell you, No; 6 but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish. He spoke also this parable: A certain man had a fig-tree planted in his vineyard; and he came and sought fruit on it, and found none.
7 Then said he to the dresser of his vineyard, Behold, these three years I come seeking fruit on this fig-tree, and find none: cut it 8 down; why cumbereth it the ground? And he answering, said to him, Lord, let it alone this year also, till I shall dig about it, 9 and dung it: And if it shall bear fruit, well: and if not, then 10 after that thou shalt cut it down. And he was teaching in one 11 of the synagogues on the sabbath. And behold, there was a woman who had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and was 12 bowed together, and could in no wise raise herself. And when Jesus saw her, he called her to him, and said to her, Woman, 13 thou art loosed from thy infirmity. And he laid his hands on her: and immediately she was made straight, and glorified 14 God. And the ruler of the synagogue answered with indignation, because Jesus had healed on the sabbath, and said to the people, There are six days in which men ought to work: in them therefore come and be healed, and not on the sabbath. The Lord then answered him, and said, Thou hypocrite, 15 doth not each one of you on the sabbath loose his ox or his ass from the stall, and lead him away to watering? And ought not 16 this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan hath bound, lo, these eighteen years, to be loosed from this bond on the Sabbath? And when he had said these things, all his ad- 17 versaries were ashamed: and all the people rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by him. Then said he, To what 18 is the kingdom of God like? and to what shall I resemble it? It 19 is like a grain of mustard-seed, which a man took, and cast into his garden, and it grew, and became a great tree; and the fowls of the air lodged in the branches of it. And again he said, To 20 what shall I liken the kingdom of God? It is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole 21 was leavened. And he went through the cities and villages, teaching, and journeying towards Jerusalem. Then said one 22 to him, Lord, are there few that are saved? And he said to them, Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say to 23 you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able. When once 24 the master of the house hath risen, and hath shut the door, and ye begin to stand without, and to knock at the door, say- 25 ing, Lord, Lord, open to us; and he will answer and say to you, I know you not whence ye are: Then ye will begin to say, We 26 have eaten and drank in thy presence, and thou hast taught in our streets. But he will say, I tell you, I know you not whence 27 ye are: depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity. There shall 28 be weeping and gnashing of teeth when ye shall see Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and all the prophets in the kingdom of 29 God, and you yourselves excluded. And they will come from the east, and from the west, and from the north, and from the 30 south, and will sit down in the kingdom of God. And behold, there are last, who shall be first; and there are first who shall 31 be last. The same day there came certain of the Pharisees, saying to him, Go out, and depart hence; for Herod will kill thee. And he said to them, Go ye and tell that fox, Behold, 32 I cast out demons, and I do cures to-day and to-morrow, and the third day I shall be perfected. Nevertheless, I must walk 33 to-day and to-morrow, and the day following: for it cannot be

- 34 that a prophet should perish out of Jerusalem. O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, that killest the prophets, and stonest them that are sent to thee; how often would I have gathered thy children, as a hen gathereth her brood under her wings, and ye would not!
- 35 Behold, your house is left to you desolate. And verily I say to you, ye shall not see me, until the time shall come when ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.
- 14 And it came to pass, as he went into the house of one of the chief Pharisees to eat bread on the sabbath, that they watched
- 2 him. And behold, there was a certain man before him who had
- 3 the dropsy. And Jesus answering, spoke to the lawyers and
- 4 Pharisees, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath? And they held their peace. And he took him and healed him, and
- 5 let him go; And answered them, saying, Which of you shall have an ass or an ox fallen into a pit, and will not forthwith
- 6 pull him out on the sabbath? And they could not answer him
- 7 again to these things. And he put forth a parable to those who were invited, when he marked how they chose out the
- 8 chief rooms; saying to them, When thou art invited by any man to a wedding, sit not down in the highest room, lest a
- 9 more honorable man than thou be invited by him; And he that invited thee and him, shall come and say to thee, Give this man place; and thou begin with shame to take the low-
- 10 est room. But when thou art invited, go and sit down in the lowest room; that when he that invited thee cometh, he may say to thee, Friend, go up higher: then shalt thou have honor
- 11 in the presence of them that sit at table with thee. For whoever exalteth himself shall be abased, and he that humbleth
- 12 himself shall be exalted. Then said he also to him that invited him, When thou makest a dinner or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, neither thy kinsmen, nor thy rich neighbors; lest they also invite thee again, and a recompense
- 13 be made thee. But when thou makest a feast, call the poor, the
- 14 maimed, the lame, the blind: And thou shalt be blessed: for they cannot recompense thee: for thou shalt be recompensed
- 15 at the resurrection of the just. And when one of them that sat at table with him heard these things, he said to him, Blessed
- 16 is he that shall eat bread in the kingdom of God. Then said he to him, A certain man made a great supper, and invited many:
- 17 And sent his servant at supper-time, to say to them that were invited, Come, for all things are now ready. And they all with one consent began to make excuse. The first said to him, I have bought a piece of ground, and I must needs go and see it: I pray thee have me excused. And another said, I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to prove them: I pray thee have me excused. And another said, I have married a wife: and therefore I cannot come. So that servant came, and showed his lord these things. Then the master of the house being angry, said to his servant, Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in hither the poor, and the maimed, and the halt, and the blind. And the servant said, Lord, it is done as thou hast commanded, and yet there is room. And the lord said to the servant, Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled. For I say to you, that none of those men who were invited, shall taste my supper. And there went great multitudes with him: and he turned, and said to them, If any man cometh to me, and hateth not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yes, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple. And whoever doth not bear his cross, and come after me, cannot be my disciple. For which of you intending to build a tower, sitteth not down first, and counteth the cost, whether he hath sufficient to finish it? Lest perhaps after he hath laid the foundation, and is not able to finish it, all that behold it begin to mock him, Saying, This man began to build, and was not able to finish. Or what king going to make war against another king, sitteth not down first, and consulteth whether he is able with ten thousand to meet him that cometh against him with twenty thousand? Or else, while the other is yet a great way off, he sendeth an embassy, and desireth conditions of peace. So likewise, whoever he is of you that forsaketh not all that he hath, he cannot be my disciple. Salt is good: but if the salt hath lost its savor, with what shall it be seasoned? It is neither fit for the land, nor yet for the dunghill, but men cast it out. He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

Then drew near to him all the publicans and sinners to hear him. And the Pharisees and scribes murmured, saying, This man receiveth sinners, and eateth with them. And he spoke this parable to them, saying, What man of you having a hundred sheep, if he loseth one of them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, 5 until he findeth it? And when he hath found it, he layeth it 6 on his shoulders, rejoicing. And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends and neighbors, saying to them, Re- 7 joyce with me; for I have found my sheep which was lost. I say to you, that likewise joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, more than over ninety and nine just persons, who 8 need no repentance. Either what woman having ten pieces of silver, if she loseth one piece, doth not light a candle, and 9 sweep the house, and seek diligently till she findeth it? And when she hath found it, she calleth her friends and her neigh- 10 bors together, saying, Rejoice with me; for I have found the piece which I had lost. Likewise, I say to you, There is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that re- 11, 12 penteth. And he said, A certain man had two sons: And the younger of them said to his father, Father, give me the portion of goods that falleth to me. And he divided to them his 13 living. And not many days after, the younger son gathered all together, and took his journey into a far country, and there 14 wasted his substance with riotous living. And when he had spent all, there arose a severe famine in that land; and he began to be in want. And he went and joined himself to a citizen 15 of that country; and he sent him into his fields to feed swine. And he would fain have filled his belly with the husks that the 16 swine did eat; and no man gave to him. And when he came to himself, he said, How many hired servants of my father have 17 bread enough and to spare, and I am perishing with hunger! I will arise and go to my father, and will say to him, Father, I 18 have sinned against heaven, and before thee, And am no more worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired ser- 19 vants. And he arose, and came to his father. But when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, 20 and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him. And the son said to him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in thy 21 sight, and am no more worthy to be called thy son. But the father said to his servants, Bring forth the best robe, and put 22 it on him, and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet: And bring hither the fatted calf, and kill it; and let us eat, and 23 be merry: For this my son was dead, and is alive again; he 24 was lost, and is found. And they began to be merry. Now his 25 elder son was in the field: and as he came and drew nigh to the 26 house, he heard music and dancing. And he called one of the 27 servants, and asked what these things meant. And he said 27 to him, Thy brother is come; and thy father hath killed the 28 fatted calf, because he hath received him in health. And he 28 was angry, and would not go in; therefore his father came out, and entreated him. And he answering, said to his father, Lo, 29 these many years do I serve thee, neither have I at any time transgressed thy commandment; and yet thou never gavest me a kid, that I might make merry with my friends: But as soon 30 as this thy son had come, who hath devoured thy living with harlots, thou hast killed for him the fatted calf. And he said 31 to him, Son, thou art ever with me: and all that I have is thine.

It was meet that we should make merry, and be glad: for this 32 thy brother was dead, and is alive again; and was lost, and is found.

And he said also to his disciples, There was a certain rich 16 man who had a steward; and the same was accused to him that he had wasted his goods. And he called him, and said 2 to him, How is it that I hear this of thee? give an account of thy stewardship: for thou mayest be no longer steward. Then 3 the steward said within himself, What shall I do? for my lord taketh from me the stewardship: I cannot dig; I am ashamed to beg. I am resolved what to do, that when I am removed 4 from the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses.
So he called every one of his lord's debtors, and said to the 5 first, How much owest thou to my lord? And he said, A hun- 6 dred measures of oil. And he said to him, Take thy bill, and sit down quickly, and write fifty. Then said he to another, And 7 how much owest thou? And he said, A hundred measures of wheat. And he said to him, Take thy bill, and write eighty.
And the lord commended the unjust steward, because he had 8 done wisely: for the children of this world are in their generation wiser than the children of light. And I say to you, 9 Make to yourselves friends of the mammon of unrighteousness; that when ye fail, they may receive you into everlasting habitations. He that is faithful in that which is least, is faithful 10 also in much; and he that is unjust in the least, is unjust also in much. If therefore ye have not been faithful in the unright- 11 teous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches?

12 And if ye have not been faithful in that which is another man's, 13 who will give you that which is your own? No servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye 14 cannot serve God and mammon. And the Pharisees also, who were covetous, heard all these things, and they derided him.
15 And he said to them, Ye are they who justify yourselves before men; but God knoweth your hearts: for that which is highly es-16 teemed among men, is abomination in the sight of God. The law and the prophets were until John: since that time the king-17 dom of God is preached, and every man presseth into it. And it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away, than one tittle of 18 the law to fail. Whoever putteth away his wife, and marrieth another, committeth adultery; and whoever marrieth her that 19 is put away from her husband, committeth adultery. There was a certain rich man, who was clothed in purple and fine 20 linen, and fared sumptuously every day: And there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, who was laid at his gate, full of 21 sores, And desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table: moreover, the dogs came and licked his 22 sores. And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and was carried by angels into Abraham's bosom. The rich man also died, 23 and was buried: And in hell he lifted up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bo-24 som. And he cried, and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue: for I am tormented in this flame.
25 But Abraham said, Son, remember that thou in thy life-time receivedst thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things: 26 but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented. And besides all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed: so that they who would pass from hence to you, cannot; neither 27 can they pass to us, that would come from thence. Then he said, I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldst send him 28 to my father's house: For I have five brethren; that he may testify to them, lest they also come into this place of torment.
29 Abraham saith to him, They have Moses and the prophets; let 30 them hear them. And he said, No, father Abraham: but if one 31 shall go to them from the dead, they will repent. And he said to him, If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though one shall rise from the dead.

Then he said to the disciples, It is impossible but that causes 17 of sin will come: but woe to him by whom they come! It were 2 better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he cast into the sea, than that he should cause one of these little ones to fall into sin. Take heed to yourselves: If 3 thy brother shall trespass against thee, rebuke him; and if he shall repent forgive him. And if he shall trespass against thee 4 seven times in a day, and seven times in a day shall turn again to thee, saying, I repent; thou shalt forgive him. And the apos- 5 tles said to the Lord, Increase our faith. And the Lord said, 6 If ye had faith as a grain of mustard-seed, ye might say to this sycamine-tree, Be thou plucked up by the root, and be thou planted in the sea; and it would obey you. But which of you 7 having a servant plowing, or feeding cattle, will say to him immediately, when he is come from the field, Go and sit down to eat? And will not rather say to him, Make ready wherewith 8 I may sup, and gird thyself, and serve me, till I have eaten and drank; and afterward thou shalt eat and drink? Doth he 9 thank that servant, because he did the things that were commanded him? I suppose not. So likewise ye, when ye shall 10 have done all the things which are commanded you, say, We are unprofitable servants: we have done that which it was our duty to do. And it came to pass, as he went to Jerusalem, that 11 he passed through the midst of Samaria and Galilee. And 12 as he entered into a certain village, there met him ten men that were lepers, who stood at a distance. And they lifted up 13 their voices, and said, Jesus, Master, have mercy on us. And 14 when he saw them, he said to them, Go, show yourselves to the priests. And it came to pass, that as they were going, they were cleansed. And one of them, when he saw that he was 15 healed, turned back, and with a loud voice glorified God, And 16 fell down on his face at his feet, giving him thanks: and he was a Samaritan. And Jesus answering said, Were there not 17 ten cleansed? but where are the nine? There are not found 18 returning to give glory to God, save this stranger. And he 19 said to him, Arise, depart: thy faith hath made thee whole.
And when he was asked by the Pharisees, when the kingdom 20 of God should come, he answered them and said, The kingdom 21 of God cometh not with observation. Neither will they say, Lo here! or lo there! for behold, the kingdom of God is within 22 you. And he said to his disciples, The days will come, when ye will desire to see one of the days of the son of man, and ye 23 shall not see it. And they will say to you, See here; or, see 24 there: go not after them, nor follow them. For as the lightning that lighteneth from the one part under heaven, shineth to the other part under heaven; so shall also the Son of man be in his 25 day. But first he must suffer many things, and be rejected by 26 this generation. And as it was in the days of Noah, so shall it 27 be also in the days of the Son of man. They ate, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ark; and the flood came, and de-28 stroyed them all. Likewise also as it was in the days of Lot: they ate, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they 29 built; But the same day that Lot went out of Sodom, it rained 30 fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all: Even 31 thus shall it be in the day when the Son of man is revealed. In that day, he who shall be upon the house-top, and his furniture in the house, let him not come down to take it away: and he 32 that is in the field, let him likewise not return back. Remem-33 ber Lot's wife. Whoever shall seek to save his life, shall lose 34 it; and whoever shall lose his life, shall preserve it. I tell you, in that night there will be two men in one bed; the one will be 35 taken, and the other will be left. Two women will be grind-36 ing together; the one will be taken, and the other left. Two men will be in the field; the one will be taken, and the other 37 left. And they answered and said to him, Where Lord? And he said to them, Wherever the body is, thither will the eagles be collected.

18 And he spoke a parable to them to this end, that men ought 2 always to pray, and not to faint; Saying, There was in a city a 3 judge, who feared not God, neither regarded man. And there was a widow in that city; and she came to him, saying, Avenge 4 me of my adversary. And he would not for a while: but afterward he said within himself, Though I fear not God, nor regard 5 man; Yet because this widow troubleth me, I will avenge her, 6 lest by her continual coming she weary me. And the Lord 7 said, Hear what the unjust judge saith. And will not God avenge his own elect, who cry day and night to him, though he beareth long with them? I tell you that he will avenge them 8 speedily. Nevertheless, when the Son of man cometh, will he find faith on the earth? And he spoke this parable to certain 9 who trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and despised others: Two men went up into the temple to pray; the 10 one a Pharisee, and the other a publican. The Pharisee stood 11 and prayed thus with himself, God, I thank thee, that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican. I fast twice in the week, I give tithes of all that I 12 possess. And the publican, standing afar off, would not lift up 13 so much as his eyes to heaven, but smote upon his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner. I tell you, this man went 14 down to his house justified rather than the other: for every one that exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted. And they brought to him also in- 15 fants, that he would touch them: but when his disciples saw it, they rebuked them. But Jesus called them to him, and said, 16 Suffer little children to come to me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God. Verily I say to you, Whoever 17 shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, shall in no wise enter into it. And a certain ruler asked him, saying, 18 Good Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? And Je- 19 sus said to him, Why callest thou me good? none is good, save one, that is God. Thou knowest the commandments, Do not 20 commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Honor thy father and thy mother. And he said, All 21 these have I kept from my youth. Now when Jesus heard 22 these things, he said to him, Yet lackest thou one thing: sell all that thou hast, and distribute to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, follow me. And when he heard 23 this, he was very sorrowful: for he was very rich. And when 24 Jesus saw that he was very sorrowful, he said, How hardly will they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God! For it is 25 easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God. And they that heard 26 it, said, Who then can be saved? Then he said, The things 27 which are impossible with men, are possible with God. Then 28 Peter said, Lo, we have left all, and followed thee. And he 29 said to them, Verily I say to you, there is no man that hath left house, or parents, or brethren, or wife, or children for the sake 30 of the kingdom of God, Who shall not receive manifold more in this present time, and in the world to come life everlasting.

31 Then he took the twelve, and said to them, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and all things that are written by the prophets 32 concerning the Son of man shall be accomplished. For he will be delivered to the Gentiles, and will be mocked, and spitefully 33 treated, and spitted on; And they will scourge him, and put 34 him to death: and the third day he will rise again. And they understood none of these things: and this saying was hid from 35 them, neither knew they the things which were spoken. And it came to pass, that as he had come nigh to Jericho, a cer-36 tain blind man sat by the way side begging; And hearing the 37 multitude passing by, he asked what it meant. And they told 38 him, that Jesus of Nazareth was passing by. And he cried, 39 saying, Jesus, thou son of David, have mercy on me. And they who went before rebuked him, that he should hold his peace: but he cried so much the more, Thou son of David, have mercy 40 on me. And Jesus stood and commanded him to be brought 41 to him: and when he had come near, he asked him, Saying, What wilt thou that I shall do to thee? And he said, Lord, that 42 I may receive my sight. And Jesus said to him, Receive thy 43 sight: thy faith hath saved thee. And immediately he received his sight, and followed him, glorifying God: and all the people, when they saw it, gave praise to God.

19, 2 And Jesus entered and passed through Jericho. And behold, there was a man named Zaccheus, who was the chief 3 among the publicans, and he was rich. And he sought to see Jesus who he was; and could not for the crowd, because he was 4 little of stature. And he ran before, and climbed up upon a 5 sycamore-tree to see him; for he was to pass that way. And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up, and saw him, and said to him, Zaccheus, make haste, and come down: for to-day I 6 must abide at thy house. And he made haste, and came down, 7 and received him joyfully. And when they saw it, they all murmured, saying, That he was gone to be guest with a man that 8 is a sinner. And Zaccheus stood, and said to the Lord; Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have taken any thing from any man by false accusation, I restore 9 him four-fold. And Jesus said to him, This day is salvation come to this house, forasmuch as he also is a son of Abraham.

For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was 10 lost. And as they heard these things, he added and spoke a 11 parable, because he was nigh to Jerusalem, and because they thought that the kingdom of God would immediately appear.
He said therefore, A certain nobleman went into a far coun- 12 try to receive for himself a kingdom, and to return. And he 13 called his ten servants, and delivered them ten pounds, and said to them, Occupy till I come. But his citizens hated him, 14 and sent a message after him, saying, We will not have this man to reign over us. And it came to pass, that when he had 15 returned, having received the kingdom, then he commanded these servants to be called to him, to whom he had given the money, that he might know how much every man had gained 16 by trading. Then came the first, saying, Lord, thy pound hath 16 gained ten pounds. And he said to him, Well, thou good ser- 17 vant: because thou hast been faithful in a very little, have thou authority over ten cities. And the second came, saying, Lord, 18 thy pound hath gained five pounds. And he said likewise to 19 him, Be thou also over five cities. And another came, say- 20 ing, Lord, behold, here is thy pound, which I have kept laid up in a napkin: For I feared thee, because thou art an austere 21 man: thou takest up what thou layedst not down, and reapest what thou didst not sow. And he saith to him, Out of thy own 22 mouth will I judge thee, thou wicked servant. Thou knewest me to be an austere man, taking up what I laid not down, and reaping what I did not sow: Why then gavest thou not my 23 money into the bank, that at my coming I might have required my own with interest? And he said to them that stood by, 24 Take from him the pound, and give it to him that hath ten pounds. (And they said to him, Lord, he hath ten pounds.) 25 For I say to you, That to every one who hath shall be given; 26 and from him that hath not, even what he hath shall be taken away from him. But those my enemies, who would not that 27 I should reign over them, bring hither, and slay them before me. And when he had thus spoken, he went before, ascending 28 towards Jerusalem. And it came to pass, when he had come 29 nigh to Bethphage and Bethany, at the mount called the mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples, Saying, Go ye into the 30 village over against you; in which at your entering ye will find a colt tied, on which yet never man sat: loose him, and bring 31 him hither. And if any man shall ask you, Why do ye loose 32 him? thus shall ye say to him, Because the Lord hath need 33 of him. And they that were sent, went and found even as he 34 had said to them. And as they were loosing the colt, the own-35 ers of it said to them, Why loose ye the colt? And they said, 36 The Lord hath need of him. And they brought him to Jesus: 37 and they cast their garments upon the colt, and they set Jesus 38 upon him. And as he went, they spread their clothes in the 39 way. And when he had come nigh, even now at the descent of 40 the mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began 41 to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice, for all the mighty 42 works that they had seen. Saying, Blessed be the King that 43 cometh in the name of the Lord: Peace in heaven, and glory 44 in the highest. And some of the Pharisees from among the 45 multitude said to him, Master, rebuke thy disciples. And he 46 answered and said to them, I tell you, that if these should hold 47 their peace, the stones would immediately cry out. And when 48 he had come near, he beheld the city, and wept over it, Saying, If thou hadst known, even thou, at least in this thy day, the things which belong to thy peace! but now they are hid from thy eyes. For the days shall come upon thee, that thy enemies shall cast a trench about thee, and encompass thee, and keep thee in on every side, And shall lay thee even with the ground, and thy children within thee: and they shall not leave in thee one stone upon another: because thou knewest not the time of thy visitation. And he went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold in it, and them that bought, Saying to them, It is written, My house is the house of prayer, but ye have made it a den of thieves. And he taught daily in the temple. But the chief priests, and the scribes, and the chief of the people sought to destroy him, And could not find what they might do: for all the people were very attentive to hear him.

20 And it came to pass, that on one of those days, as he was teaching the people in the temple, and preaching the gospel, the chief priests and the scribes came upon him, with the el-2 ders, And spoke to him, saying, Tell us, By what authority doest thou these things? or who is he that gave thee this au-3 thority? And he answered and said to them, I will also ask 4 you one thing; and answer me: The baptism of John, was it 5 from heaven, or from men? And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why then believed ye him not? But if we say, From men; all the people will stone us: for they are persuaded that John was a prophet. And they answered, that they could not tell whence it was. And Jesus said to them, Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things. Then he began to speak to the people this parable; A certain man planted a vineyard, and let it to husbandmen, and went into a far country for a long time. And at the season he sent a servant to the husbandmen, that they should give him of the fruit of the vineyard: but the husbandmen beat him, and sent him away empty. And again he sent another servant: and they beat him also, and treated him shamefully, and sent him away empty. And again he sent the third: and they wounded him also, and cast him out. Then said the lord of the vineyard, What shall I do? I will send my beloved son: it may be when they see him they will reverence him. But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, This is the heir; come, let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours. So they cast him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What therefore will the lord of the vineyard do to them? He will come and destroy these husbandmen, and will give the vineyard to others. And when they heard it, they said, may that never be. And he beheld them, and said, What is this then that is written, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner? Whoever shall fall upon that stone, shall be broken: but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder. And the chief priests and the scribes the same hour sought to lay hands on him; and they feared the people: for they perceived that he had spoken this parable against them. And they watched him, and sent forth spies, who should feign themselves just men, that they might take hold of his words, that so they might deliver him to the power and authority of the governor. And they asked him, saying, Master, we know that thou sayest and teachest rightly, neither acceptest thou the person of any, but teachest the way of God truly: Is it lawful for us to give tribute to Cesar, or not? But he perceived their craftiness, and said to them, Why tempt ye me? Show me a penny. Whose image and superscription hath it? They answered and said, Cesar's. And he said to them, Render therefore to Cesar the things which are Cesar's, and to God 26 the things which are God's. And they could not take hold of his words before the people: and they marveled at his an-27 swer, and held their peace. Then came to him certain of the Sadducees (who deny that there is any resurrection) and they 28 asked him, Saying, Master, Moses wrote to us, If any man's brother should die, having a wife, and he should die without children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up 29 seed to his brother. There were therefore seven brothers: and 30 the first took a wife, and died without children. And the sec-31 ond took her for a wife, and he died childless. And the third took her; and in like manner the seven also: And they left no 32, 33 children, and died. Last of all the woman died also. Therefore in the resurrection, whose wife of them is she? for seven 34 had her to wife. And Jesus answering, said to them, The chil-35 dren of this world marry, and are given in marriage: But they who shall be accounted worthy to obtain that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in 36 marriage. Neither can they die any more: for they are equal to the angels; and are the children of God, being the children 37 of the resurrection. Now that the dead are raised, even Moses showed at the bush, when he calleth the Lord the God of Abra-38 ham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. For he is not a God of the dead, but of the living: for all live to him.

39 Then certain of the scribes answering, said, Master, thou hast 40 well said. And after that, they durst not ask him any ques-41 tion at all. And he said to them, How say they that Christ is 42 David's son? And David himself saith in the book of Psalms, 43 The LORD said to my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, Till I 44 make thy enemies thy footstool. David therefore calleth him 45 Lord, how is he then his son? Then in the audience of all the 46 people, he said to his disciples, Beware of the scribes, who desire to walk in long robes, and love greetings in the markets, and the highest seats in the synagogues, and the chief rooms 47 at feasts; Who devour widows' houses, and for a show make long prayers: the same shall receive greater damnation.

21 And he looked up, and saw rich men casting their gifts into 2 the treasury. And he saw also a certain poor widow, casting 3 in thither two mites. And he said, Of a truth I say to you, 4 that this poor widow hath cast in more than they all. For all these have of their abundance cast in to the offerings of God: but she of her penury hath cast in all the living that she had. And as some spoke of the temple, that it was adorned with goodly stones, and gifts, he said, As for these things which ye behold, the days will come, in which there shall not be left one stone upon another, that will not be thrown down. And they asked him, saying, Master, but when will these things be? and what sign will there be when these things shall come to pass? And he said, Take heed that ye be not deceived: for many will come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and the time draweth near: therefore go ye not after them. But when ye shall hear of wars, and commotions, be not terrified: for these things must first come to pass: but the end is not immediately. Then said he to them, Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: And great earthquakes will be in divers places, and famines, and pestilences: and fearful sights, and great signs will there be from heaven. But before all these they will lay their hands on you, and persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues, and into prisons, being brought before kings and rulers for my name's sake. And it shall turn to you for a testimony. Settle it therefore in your hearts, not to meditate before what ye shall answer. For I will give you a mouth and wisdom, which all your adversaries shall not be able to gainsay nor resist. And ye will be betrayed both by parents, and brethren, and kinsmen, and friends; and some of you will they cause to be put to death. And ye will be hated by all men for my name's sake. But there shall not a hair of your head perish. In your patience possess ye your souls. And when ye shall see Jerusalem compassed with armies, then know that its desolation is nigh. Then let them who are in Judea flee to the mountains; and let them who are in the midst of it depart from it; and let not them that are in the countries enter into it. For these are the days of vengeance, that all things which are written may be fulfilled. But woe to them that are with child, and to them that nurse infants in those days! for there shall be great distress in the land, and wrath upon this people. And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations: and Jerusalem shall be trodden down by the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles shall be fulfilled. And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring; Men's hearts failing them for fear, and for apprehension of those things which are coming on the earth: for the powers of heaven shall be shaken. And then shall they see the Son of man coming in a cloud, with power and great glory. And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads: for your redemption draweth nigh. And he spoke to them a parable; Behold the fig-tree, and all the trees; When they now shoot forth, ye see and know of your ownelves that summer is now nigh at hand. So likewise ye, when ye see these things come to pass, know that the kingdom of God is nigh at hand. Verily I say to you, This generation shall not pass away, till all be fulfilled. Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my word shall not pass away. And take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares. For as a snare shall it come on all them that dwell on the face of the whole earth. Watch ye therefore, and pray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and to stand before the Son of man. And in the day-time he was teaching in the temple; and at night he went out, and abode in the mount that is called the mount of Olives. And all the people came early in the morning to him in the temple, to hear him.

22 Now the feast of unleavened bread drew nigh, which is called the Passover. And the chief priests and scribes sought how they might kill him: for they feared the people. Then Satan entered into Judas surnamed Iscariot, being of the number of the twelve. And he went, and communed with the chief priests and captains, how he might betray him to them. And they were glad, and covenanted to give him money. And he promised, and sought opportunity to betray him to them in the absence of the multitude. Then came the day of unleavened bread, when the passover must be killed. And he sent Peter and John, saying, Go and prepare for us the passover, that we may eat. And they said to him, Where wilt thou that we prepare? And he said to them, Behold, when ye have entered into the city, there shall a man meet you, bearing a pitcher of water; follow him into the house where he entereth. And ye shall say to the master of the house, The Master saith to thee, Where is the guest-chamber, where I may eat the passover with my disciples? And he will show you a large upper room furnished: 12 there make ready. And they went and found as he had said to 13 them: and they made ready the passover. And when the hour 14 was come, he sat down, and the twelve apostles with him. And 15 he said to them, I have earnestly desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer. For I say to you, I will not any more 16 eat of it until it shall be fulfilled in the kingdom of God. And 17 he took the cup, and gave thanks, and said, Take this, and divide it among yourselves. For I say to you, I will not drink 18 of the fruit of the vine, until the kingdom of God shall come. And he took bread, and gave thanks, and broke it, and gave 19 to them, saying, This is my body which is given for you: this do in remembrance of me. Likewise also the cup after supper, 20 saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood, which is shed for you. But behold, the hand of him that betrayeth 21 me is with me on the table. And truly the Son of man goeth 22 as it was determined: but woe to that man by whom he is betrayed! And they began to inquire among themselves, which 23 of them it was that should do this thing. And there was also 24 a strife among them, which of them should be accounted the greatest. And he said to them, The kings of the Gentiles exercise 25 lordship over them; and they that exercise authority upon them, are called benefactors. But ye shall not be so: but he 26 that is greatest among you, let him be as the younger; and he that is chief, as he that doth serve. For which is greater, he 27 that sitteth at table, or he that serveth? is not he that sitteth at table? but I am among you as he that serveth. Ye are 28 they who have continued with me in my temptations. And 29 I appoint to you a kingdom, as my Father hath appointed to me; That ye may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, 30 and sit on thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. And 31 the Lord said, Simon, Simon, behold, Satan hath desired to have you, that he may sift you as wheat: But I have prayed 32 for thee, that thy faith fail not; and when thou art converted, strengthen thy brethren. And he said to him, Lord, I am ready 33 to go with thee both into prison, and to death. And he said, 34 I tell thee, Peter, the cock will not crow this day, before thou wilt thrice deny that thou knowest me. And he said to them, 35

When I sent you without purse, and sack, and shoes, lacked 36 ye any thing? And they said, Nothing. Then said he to them, But now he that hath a purse, let him take it, and likewise his sack: and he that hath no sword, let him sell his garment, and 37 buy one. For I say to you, that this which is written must yet be accomplished in me, And he was reckoned among the trans-38 gressors: for the things concerning me have an end. And they said, Lord, behold, here are two swords. And he said to them, 39 It is enough. And he came out, and went, as he was wont, to 40 the mount of Olives; and his disciples also followed him. And when he was at the place, he said to them, Pray, that ye enter 41 not into temptation. And he was withdrawn from them about 42 a stone's cast, and kneeled down, and prayed. Saying, Father, if thou art willing, remove this cup from me: nevertheless not 43 my will, but thine be done. And there appeared to him an an-44 gel from heaven, strengthening him. And being in an agony, he prayed more earnestly: and his sweat was as it were great 45 drops of blood falling to the ground. And when he arose from prayer, and had come to his disciples, he found them sleeping 46 for sorrow: And said to them, Why sleep ye? rise and pray, 47 lest ye enter into temptation. And while he was yet speaking, behold a multitude, and he that was called Judas, one of the twelve, went before them, and drew near to Jesus to kiss him.
48 But Jesus said to him, Judas, betrayest thou the Son of man 49 with a kiss? When they who were about him, saw what would follow, they said to him, Lord, shall we smite with the sword?
50 And one of them smote the servant of the high priest, and cut 51 off his right ear. And Jesus answered and said, Suffer ye thus 52 far. And he touched his ear, and healed him. Then Jesus said to the chief priests, and captains of the temple, and the elders who had come to him, Are ye come out as against a thief, with 53 swords and staffs? When I was daily with you in the temple, ye stretched forth no hands against me: but this is your 54 hour, and the power of darkness. Then they took him, and led him, and brought him into the high priest's house. And 55 Peter followed at a distance. And when they had kindled a fire in the midst of the hall, and were set down together, Peter 56 sat down among them. But a certain maid beheld him as he sat by the fire, and earnestly looked upon him, and said, This 57 man was also with him. And he denied him, saying, Woman,

I know him not. And after a little while another saw him, 58 and said, Thou art also of them. And Peter said, Man, I am not. And about the space of one hour after, another confi- 59 dently affirmed, saying, In truth this man also was with him; for he is a Galilean. And Peter said, Man, I know not what 60 thou sayest. And immediately, while he was yet speaking, the cock crowed. And the Lord turned, and looked upon Peter. 61 And Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said to him, Before the cock shall crow, thou wilt deny me thrice.
 And Peter went out, and wept bitterly. And the men that held 62, 63 Jesus, mocked him, and smote him. And when they had blind- 64 folded him, they struck him on the face, and asked him, saying, Prophecy, who is it that smote thee? And many other things 65 blasphemously they spoke against him. And as soon as it was 66 day, the elders of the people, and the chief priests, and the scribes came together, and led him into their council, Saying, 67 Art thou the Christ? tell us. And he said to them, If I tell you, ye will not believe. And if I also ask you, ye will not answer 68 me, nor let me go. Hereafter will the Son of man sit on the 69 right hand of the power of God. Then said they all, Art thou 70 then the Son of God? And he said to them, Ye say that I am.
 And they said, What need have we of any further testimony? 71 for we ourselves have heard from his own mouth.

And the whole multitude of them arose, and led him to Pi- 23 late. And they began to accuse him, saying, We found this 2 man perverting the nation, and forbidding to give tribute to Cesar, saying, that he himself is Christ a king. And Pilate 3 asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answered him and said, Thou sayest it. Then said Pilate to 4 the chief priests, and to the people, I find no fault in this man.
 And they were the more fierce, saying, He stirreth up the 5 people, teaching throughout all Judea, beginning from Galilee to this place. When Pilate heard of Galilee, he asked whether 6 the man was a Galilean. And as soon as he knew that he be- 7 longed to Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, who himself was also at Jerusalem at that time. And when Herod saw 8 Jesus, he was exceeding glad: for he had been for a long time, desirous to see him, because he had heard many things of him; and he hoped to see some miracle done by him. Then he ques- 9 tioned with him in many words; but he answered him noth-

10 ing. And the chief priests and scribes stood and vehemently 11 accused him. And Herod with his troops set him at naught, and mocked him, and arrayed him in a gorgeous robe, and sent 12 him again to Pilate. And the same day Pilate and Herod were made friends together; for before they were at enmity between 13 themselves. And Pilate, when he had called together the chief 14 priests, and the rulers, and the people, Said to them, Ye have brought this man to me, as one that perverteth the people: and behold, I, having examined him before you, have found no fault 15 in this man, touching those things of which ye accuse him; No, nor yet Herod: for I sent you to him; and lo, nothing worthy 16 of death is done to him: I will therefore chastise him, and re-17 lease him. (For of necessity he must release one to them at the 18 feast.) And they cried out all at once, saying, Away with this 19 man, and release to us Barabbas: (Who, for a certain sedition 20 made in the city, and for murder, was cast into prison.) Pilate 21 therefore, willing to release Jesus, spoke again to them. But 22 they cried, saying, Crucify, crucify him. And he said to them the third time, Why, what evil hath he done? I have found no cause of death in him; I will therefore chastise him, and let 23 him go. And they were urgent with loud voices, requiring that he might be crucified: and the voices of them, and of the chief 24 priests prevailed. And Pilate gave sentence that it should be 25 as they required. And he released to them him that for sedition and murder had been cast into prison, whom they had de-26 sired; but he delivered Jesus to their will. And as they led him away, they laid hold upon one Simon a Cyrenian, coming out of the country, and on him they laid the cross, that he might bear 27 it after Jesus. And there followed him a great company of peo-28 ple, and of women, who also bewailed and lamented him. But Jesus turning to them, said, Daughters of Jerusalem, weep not 29 for me, but weep for yourselves, and for your children. For behold, the days are coming, in which they shall say, Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bore, and the breasts 30 which never nourished infants. Then shall they begin to say 31 to the mountains, Fall on us; and to the hills, Cover us. For if they do these things in a green tree, what will be done in 32 the dry? And two others, who were malefactors, were led with 33 him to be put to death. And when they had come to the place which is called Calvary, there they crucified him, and the male-factors; one on the right hand, and the other on the left. Then said Jesus, Father, forgive them: for they know not what they do. And they parted his raiment, and cast lots. And the people stood beholding. And the rulers also with them derided him, saying, He saved others; let him save himself, if he is Christ the chosen of God. And the soldiers also mocked him, coming to him, and offering him vinegar, And saying, If thou art the King of the Jews, save thyself. And a superscription also was written over him, in letters of Greek, and Latin, and Hebrew, THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS. And one of the malefactors, who were hanged, railed on him, saying, If thou art Christ, save thyself and us. But the other answering, rebuked him, saying, Dost not thou fear God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation? And we indeed justly; for we receive the due reward of our deeds: but this man hath done nothing amiss. And he said to Jesus, Lord, remember me when thou comest into thy kingdom. And Jesus said to him, Verily I say to thee, This day shalt thou be with me in paradise. And it was about the sixth hour, and there was a darkness over all the land until the ninth hour. And the sun was darkened, and the vail of the temple was rent in the midst. And when Jesus had cried with a loud voice, he said, Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit: and having said thus, he expired. Now when the centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, Certainly this was a righteous man. And all the people that came together to that sight, beholding the things which were done, smote their breasts, and returned. And all his acquaintance, and the women that followed him from Galilee, stood afar off beholding these things. And behold, there was a man named Joseph, a counselor: and he was a good man, and a just: (The same had not consented to the counsel and deed of them) he was of Arimathea, a city of the Jews; who also himself waited for the kingdom of God. This man went to Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus. And he took it down, and wrapped it in linen, and laid it in a sepulcher that was hewn in stone, in which man was never before laid. And that day was the preparation, and the sabbath drew on. And the women also, who came with him from Galilee, followed after, and beheld the sepulcher, and how his body was laid. And they returned, and prepared spices and ointments; and rested on the sabbath, according to the commandment.

24 Now upon the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they came to the sepulcher, bringing the spices which they had prepared, and certain others with them. And they found the stone rolled away from the sepulcher. And they entered in, and found not the body of the Lord Jesus. And it came to pass, as they were much perplexed at this, behold, two men stood by them in shining garments. And as they were afraid, and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said to them, Why seek ye the living among the dead? He is not here, but is risen. Remember how he spoke to you when he was yet in Galilee, Saying, The Son of man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again. And they remembered his words, And returned from the sepulcher, and told all these things to the eleven, and to all the rest. It was Mary Magdalene, and Joanna, and Mary the mother of James, and other women that were with them, who told these things to the apostles. And their words seemed to them as idle tales, and they believed them not. Then Peter arose, and ran to the sepulcher, and stooping down, he beheld the linen clothes laid by themselves, and departed, wondering in himself at that which had come to pass. And behold, two of them went that same day to a village called Emmaus, which was from Jerusalem about sixty furlongs. And they talked together of all these things which had happened. And it came to pass, that, while they communed together, and reasoned, Jesus himself drew near, and went with them. But their eyes were held, that they should not know him. And he said to them, What manner of communications are these that ye have one to another, as ye walk, and are sad? And one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answering, said to him, Art thou only a stranger in Jerusalem, and hast not known the things which have come to pass there in these days? And he said to them, What things? And they said to him, Concerning Jesus of Nazareth, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God, and all the people: And how the chief priests and our rulers delivered him to be condemned to death, and crucified him. But we trusted that it had been he who would have redeemed Israel: and besides all this, to-day is the third day since these things were done. Yes, and certain women also of our company made us astonished, who were early at the sepulcher. And when they found not his body, they came, saying, 23 that they had also seen a vision of angels, who said that he was alive. And certain of them who were with us, went to the 24 sepulcher, and found it even so as the women had said: but him they saw not. Then he said to them, O fools, and slow 25 of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken! Ought not Christ to suffer these things, and to enter into his glory? 26 And beginning at Moses, and all the prophets, he expounded to 27 them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself. And 28 they drew nigh to the village whither they were going: and he made as though he would go further. But they constrained 29 him, saying, Abide with us: for it is towards evening, and the day is far spent. And he went in to tarry with them. And 30 it came to pass, as he sat at table with them, he took bread, and blessed it, and broke, and gave to them. And their eyes 31 were opened, and they knew him: and he vanished out of their sight. And they said one to another, Did not our heart burn 32 within us while he talked with us by the way, and while he opened to us the scriptures? And they rose the same hour, 33 and returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven assembled, and them that were with them, Saying, The Lord is risen in- 34 deed, and hath appeared to Simon. And they told what things 35 were done in the way, and how he was known to them in breaking of bread. And as they were thus speaking, Jesus himself 36 stood in the midst of them, and saith to them, Peace be to you.

But they were terrified and affrighted, and supposed that they 37 had seen a spirit. And he said to them, Why are ye trou- 38 bled? and why do thoughts arise in your hearts? Behold my 39 hands and my feet, that it is I myself: handle me, and see; for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me have. And 40 when he had thus spoken, he showed them his hands and his feet. And while they yet believed not for joy, and wondered, 41 he said to them, Have ye here any thing for food? And they 42 gave him a piece of a broiled fish, and a honey-comb. And 43 he took it, and ate before them. And he said to them, These 44 are the words which I spoke to you, while I was yet with you, that all things must be fulfilled, which were written in the law of Moses, and in the prophets, and in the psalms, concerning me. Then he opened their understanding, that they might 45

46 understand the scriptures, And said to them, Thus it is written, and thus it behooved Christ to suffer, and to rise from the 47 dead the third day: And that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name among all nations, beginning 48, 49 at Jerusalem. And ye are witnesses of these things. And behold, I send the promise of my Father upon you: but tarry ye in the city of Jerusalem, until ye are endued with power from 50 on high. And he led them out as far as to Bethany: and he 51 lifted up his hands, and blessed them. And it came to pass, while he was blessing them, he was parted from them, and car-52 ried up into heaven. And they worshiped him, and returned 53 to Jerusalem with great joy: And were continually in the temple, praising and blessing God. Amen.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ST. JOHN.

n the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with 1 God, and the Word was God. The same was in the 2 beginning with God. All things were made by him; 3 and without him was not any thing made that was made. In him was life; and the life was the light of men. And 4, 5 the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not. There was a man sent from God, whose name was 6 John. The same came for a witness, to bear testimony of the Light, that all men through him might believe. He was not 8 that Light, but was sent to bear testimony of that Light. That 9 was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world. He was in the world, and the world was made by 10 him, and the world knew him not. He came to his own, and his own received him not. But as many as received him, to 12 them he gave power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: Who were born, not of blood, nor of 13 the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God. And 14 the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth. John testified concerning him, and cried, 15 saying, This was he of whom I spoke, He that cometh after me, is preferred before me; for he was before me. And of his full- 16 ness have we all received, and grace for grace. For the law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ. No 18 man hath seen God at any time; the only begotten Son, who is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him. And this is 19 the testimony of John, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem, to ask him, Who art thou? And he confessed, 20 and denied not; but confessed, I am not the Christ. And they 21 asked him, What then? Art thou Elijah? and he saith, I am not.
Art thou that prophet? And he answered, No. Then said they 22 to him, Who art thou? that we may give an answer to them that sent us. What sayest thou of thyself? He said, I am the 23 voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way 24 of the Lord, as said the prophet Isaiah. And they who were 25 sent were of the Pharisees. And they asked him, and said to him, Why baptizest thou then, if thou art not that Christ, nor 26 Elijah, neither that prophet? John answered them, saying, I baptize with water: but there standeth one among you, whom 27 ye know not; He it is, who coming after me, is preferred before 28 me, whose shoes' latchet I am not worthy to unloose. These things were done in Bethabara beyond Jordan, where John was 29 baptizing. The next day John seeth Jesus coming to him, and saith, Behold the Lamb of God, who taketh away the sin of the 30 world. This is he of whom I said, after me cometh a man who 31 is preferred before me; for he was before me. And I knew him not: but that he should be made manifest to Israel, therefore 32 am I come baptizing with water. And John bore testimony, saying, I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, 33 and it abode upon him. And I knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water, the same said to me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending and remaining on him, the 34 same is he who baptizeth with the Holy Spirit. And I saw and 35 bore testimony, that this is the Son of God. Again the next 36 day after, John stood, and two of his disciples; And looking upon Jesus as he walked, he saith, Behold the Lamb of God!

37 And the two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Je-38 sus. Then Jesus turned, and saw them following, and saith to them, What seek ye? They said to him, Rabbi (which is to say, 39 being interpreted, Master) where dwellest thou? He saith to them, Come and see. They came and saw where he dwelt, and 40 abode with him that day: for it was about the tenth hour. One of the two who heard John speak, and followed him, was An-41 drew, Simon Peter's brother. He first findeth his own brother Simon, and saith to him, We have found the Messiah; which is, 42 being interpreted, the Christ. And he brought him to Jesus.
And when Jesus beheld him, he said, Thou art Simon the son of Jona: thou shalt be called Cephas; which is, by interpretation, 43 a stone. The day following Jesus would go forth into Galilee, 44 and findeth Philip, and saith to him, follow me. Now Philip 45 was of Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter. Philip findeth Nathanael, and saith to him, We have found him described by Moses in the law, and by the prophets, Jesus of Nazareth, the 46 son of Joseph. And Nathanael said to him, Can there any good thing come out of Nazareth? Philip saith to him, Come and see. Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and saith of him, Behold 47 an Israelite indeed, in whom is no guile! Nathanael saith to 48 him, Whence knowest thou me? Jesus answered and said to him, Before Philip called thee, when thou wast under the fig-tree, I saw thee. Nathanael answered and said to him, Rabbi, 49 thou art the Son of God; thou art the King of Israel. Jesus 50 answered and said to him, Because I said to thee, I saw thee under the fig-tree, dost thou believe? thou shalt see greater things than these. And he saith to him, Verily, verily, I say to 51 you, Hereafter ye shall see heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of man.

And the third day there was a marriage in Cana of Galilee; 2 and the mother of Jesus was there. And both Jesus was called, 2 and his disciples, to the marriage. And when they wanted 3 wine, the mother of Jesus saith to him, They have no wine. Je- 4 sus saith to her, Woman, what have I to do with thee? my hour is not yet come. His mother saith to the servants, Whatever 5 he saith to you, do it. And there were set there six waterpots 6 of stone, after the manner of the purifying of the Jews, containing two or three firkins apiece. Jesus saith to them, Fill 7 the waterpots with water. And they filled them to the brim.
And he saith to them, Draw out now, and bear to the gover- 8 nor of the feast. And they bore it. When the ruler of the 9 feast had tasted the water that was made wine, and knew not whence it was; (but the servants who drew the water knew) the governor of the feast called the bridegroom, And saith to 10 him, Every man at the beginning presenteth good wine; and when men have well drunk, then that which is worse: but thou hast kept the good wine until now. This beginning of mira- 11 cles Jesus performed in Cana of Galilee, and manifested his glory; and his disciples believed on him. After this he went 12 down to Capernaum, he, and his mother, and his brethren, and his disciples; and they continued there not many days.
And the Jews' passover was at hand, and Jesus went up to 13 Jerusalem, And found in the temple those that sold oxen, and 14 sheep, and doves, and the changers of money, sitting: And 15 when he had made a scourge of small cords, he drove them all out of the temple, and the sheep, and the oxen; and poured out the changers' money, and overthrew the tables; And said 16 to them that sold doves, Take these things hence: make not 17 my Father's house a house of merchandise. And his disciples remembered that it was written, The zeal of thy house hath 18 eaten me up. Then answered the Jews, and said to him, What sign showest thou to us, seeing that thou doest these things?

19 Jesus answered and said to them, Destroy this temple, and in 20 three days I will raise it up. Then said the Jews, Forty and six years was this temple in building, and wilt thou rear it up 21, 22 in three days? But he spoke of the temple of his body. When therefore he had risen from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this to them: and they believed the scripture, 23 and the word which Jesus had spoken. Now when he was in Jerusalem at the passover, in the feast day, many believed in his name, when they saw the miracles which he performed.
24 But Jesus did not commit himself to them, because he knew 25 all men. And needed not that any should testify concerning man: for he knew what was in man.

3 There was a man of the Pharisees named Nicodemus, a 2 ruler of the Jews: The same came to Jesus by night, and said to him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God 3 be with him. Jesus answered and said to him, Verily, verily, I say to thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the 4 kingdom of God. Nicodemus saith to him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his 5 mother's womb, and be born? Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say to thee, Except a man be born of water, and of the Spirit, 6 he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. That which is born of the flesh, is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit, is 7 spirit. Marvel not that I said to thee, Ye must be born again.
8 The wind bloweth where it will, and thou hearest the sound of it, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so 9 is every one that is born of the Spirit. Nicodemus answered 10 and said to him, How can these things be? Jesus answered and said to him, Art thou a teacher of Israel, and knowest not 11 these things? Verily, verily, I say to thee, We speak what we know, and testify what we have seen; and ye receive not our 12 testimony. If I have told you earthly things, and ye believe 13 not, how will ye believe if I tell you heavenly things? And no man hath ascended to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man who is in heaven. And as Moses 14 lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up: That whoever believeth in him should 15 not perish, but have eternal life. For God so loved the world, 16 that he gave his only-begotten Son, that whoever believeth in him, should not perish, but have everlasting life. For God sent 17 not his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through him may be saved. He that believeth on him, 18 is not condemned: but he that believeth not, is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only-begotten Son of God. And this is the condemnation, that light 19 is come into the world, and men have loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. For every one that 20 doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved. But he that doeth truth, cometh to 21 the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God. After these things came Jesus and his dis- 22 ciples into the land of Judea; and there he tarried with them, and baptized. And John also was baptizing in Enon, near to 23 Salim, because there was much water there: and they came, and were baptized. For John was not yet cast into prison. 24 Then there arose a question between some of John's disciples 25 and the Jews, about purifying. And they came to John, and 26 said to him, Rabbi, he that was with thee beyond Jordan, to whom thou didst bear testimony, behold, the same baptizeth, and all men come to him. John answered and said, A man 27 can receive nothing, except it be given him from heaven. Ye 28 yourselves bear me testimony, that I said I am not the Christ, but that I am sent before him. He that hath the bride, is the 29 bridegroom: but the friend of the bridegroom, who standeth and heareth him, rejoiceth greatly, because of the bridegroom's voice: this my joy therefore is fulfilled. He must increase, but 30 I must decrease. He that cometh from above is above all: he 31 that is of the earth is earthly, and speaketh of the earth: he that cometh from heaven is above all. And what he hath seen 32 and heard, that he testifieth; and no man receiveth his testimony. He that hath received his testimony, hath set to his seal 33 that God is true. For he whom God hath sent, speaketh the 34 words of God: for to him God giveth not the Spirit by measure.

The Father loveth the Son, and hath given all things into his 35 36 hand. He that believeth on the Son, hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son, shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him.

4 When therefore the Lord knew that the Pharisees had heard 2 that Jesus made and baptized more disciples than John, (Though 3 Jesus himself baptized not, but his disciples,) He left Judea, 4 and departed again into Galilee. And he must needs go through 5 Samaria. Then he cometh to a city of Samaria, which is called Sychar, near to the parcel of ground, that Jacob gave to his 6 son Joseph. Now Jacob's well was there. Jesus therefore being wearied with his journey, sat thus on the well: and it was 7 about the sixth hour. There cometh a woman of Samaria to 8 draw water: Jesus saith to her, Give me to drink. (For his 9 disciples had gone to the city to buy provisions.) Then saith the woman of Samaria to him, How is it that thou, being a Jew, askest drink of me, who am a woman of Samaria? for the Jews 10 have no dealings with the Samaritans. Jesus answered and said to her, If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink; thou wouldst have asked him, 11 and he would have given thee living water. The woman saith to him, Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is 12 deep: from whence then hast thou that living water? Art thou greater than our father Jacob, who gave us the well, and drank 13 of it himself, and his children, and his cattle? Jesus answered and said to her, Whoever drinketh of this water, shall thirst 14 again: But whoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him, shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him, shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting 15 life. The woman saith to him, Sir, give me this water, that I 16 may not thirst, neither come hither to draw. Jesus saith to 17 her, Go, call thy husband, and come hither. The woman answered and said, I have no husband. Jesus said to her, Thou 18 hast well said, I have no husband: For thou hast had five husbands, and he whom thou now hast, is not thy husband: in 19 that thou hast spoken truth. The woman saith to him, Sir, 20 I perceive that thou art a prophet. Our fathers worshiped in this mountain; and ye say, that in Jerusalem is the place where 21 men ought to worship. Jesus saith to her, Woman, believe me, the hour cometh, when ye shall neither in this mountain, nor 22 yet at Jerusalem, worship the Father. Ye worship ye know not what: we know what we worship, for salvation is from the Jews. But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true wor- 23 shipers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him. God is a Spirit: and they 24 that worship him, must worship him in spirit and in truth.

The woman saith to him, I know that Messiah cometh, who is 25 called Christ; when he is come, he will tell us all things. Jesus 26 saith to her, I that speak to thee am he. And upon this came 27 his disciples, and marveled that he talked with the woman: yet no man said, What seekest thou? or, Why talkest thou with 28 her? The woman then left her waterpot, and went into the 29 city, and saith to the men, Come, see a man who hath told me all things that ever I did: is not this the Christ? Then 30 they went out of the city, and came to him. In the mean while 31 his disciples prayed him, saying, Master, eat. But he said to 32 them, I have food to eat that ye know not of. Therefore said 33 the disciples one to another, Hath any man brought him ought to eat? Jesus saith to them, My food is to do the will of him 34 that sent me, and to finish his work. Say not ye, There are yet 35 four months, and then cometh harvest? behold, I say to you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white al- 36 ready to harvest. And he that reapeth receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit to life eternal: that both he that soweth, and 37 he that reapeth, may rejoice together. And herein is that saying true, One soweth, and another reapeth. I sent you to reap 38 that on which ye bestowed no labor: other men labored, and ye have entered into their labors. And many of the Samaritans 39 of that city believed on him for the saying of the woman, who testified, He told me all that ever I did. So when the Samari- 40 tans had come to him, they besought him that he would tarry with them: and he abode there two days. And many more be- 41 lieved, because of his own word; And said to the woman, Now 42 we believe, not because of thy saying: for we have heard him ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the Savior of the world. Now after two days he departed thence, and 43 went into Galilee. For Jesus himself testified that a prophet 44 hath no honor in his own country. Then when he had come 45 into Galilee, the Galileans received him, having seen all the things that he did at Jerusalem at the feast: for they also went 46 to the feast. So Jesus came again into Cana of Galilee, where he made the water wine. And there was a certain nobleman, 47 whose son was sick at Capernaum. When he heard that Jesus had come from Judea into Galilee, he went to him, and besought him that he would come down, and heal his son: for 48 he was at the point of death. Then said Jesus to him, Except 49 ye see signs and wonders, ye will not believe. The nobleman 50 saith to him, Sir, come down ere my child dieth. Jesus saith to him, Go; thy son liveth. And the man believed the word that 51 Jesus had spoken to him, and he departed. And as he was now going down, his servants met him, and told him, saying, 52 Thy son liveth. Then he inquired of them the hour when he began to amend: and they said to him, Yesterday at the seventh 53 hour the fever left him. So the father knew that it was at the same hour in which Jesus said to him, Thy son liveth: 54 and he himself believed, and his whole house. This is again the second miracle that Jesus performed, when he had come from Judea into Galilee.

5 After this there was a feast of the Jews: and Jesus went up 2 to Jerusalem. Now there is at Jerusalem by the sheep market a pool, which is called in the Hebrew tongue, Bethesda, having five porches. In these lay a great multitude of impotent 3 persons, of blind, halt, withered, waiting for the moving of the 4 water. For an angel went down at a certain season into the pool, and agitated the water: whoever then first after the stirring of the water stepped in, was cured of whatever disease 5 he had. And a certain man was there, who had an infirmity 6 thirty and eight years. When Jesus saw him lying, and knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he saith to him, 7 Wilt thou be healed? The impotent man answered him, Sir, I have no man, when the water is agitated, to put me into the pool: but while I am coming, another steppeth down before 8 me. Jesus saith to him, Rise, take up thy bed, and walk.
9 And immediately the man was healed, and took up his bed, and walked: and on the same day was the sabbath. The Jews therefore said to him that was cured, it is the sabbath; it is 10 not lawful for thee to carry thy bed. He answered them, He that healed me, the same said to me, Take up thy bed, and 11 walk. Then they asked him, What man is that who said to thee, Take up thy bed, and walk? And he that was healed 12 knew not who it was: for Jesus had conveyed himself away, a multitude being in that place. Afterward Jesus findeth him 14 in the temple, and said to him, Behold, thou art cured: sin no 15 more, lest a worse thing come to thee. The man departed, 16 and told the Jews that it was Jesus who had healed him. And 17 therefore the Jews persecuted Jesus, and sought to slay him, because he had done these things on the sabbath. But Je- 18 sus answered them, My Father worketh hitherto, and I work.

Therefore the Jews sought the more to kill him, because he not 19 only had broken the sabbath, but said also that God was his Father, making himself equal with God. Then answered Je- 20 sus, and said to them, Verily, verily, I say to you, The Son can do nothing by himself, but what he seeth the Father do: for whatever things he doeth, these also doeth the Son likewise.
For the Father loveth the Son, and showeth him all things that 21 himself doeth: and he will show him greater works than these, that ye may marvel. For as the Father raiseth the dead, and 22 reviveth them; even so the Son reviveth whom he will. For the Father judgeth no man; but hath committed all judgment 23 to the Son: That all men should honor the Son, even as they honor the Father. He that honoreth not the Son, honoreth not 24 the Father who hath sent him. Verily, verily, I say to you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but hath passed from death to life. Verily, verily, I say to you, 25 The hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and they that hear shall live. For as 26 the Father hath life in himself, so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself; And hath given him authority to execute 27 judgment also, because he is the Son of man. Marvel not at 28 this: for the hour is coming, in which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice, And shall come forth; they that have done 29 good to the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, to the resurrection of damnation. I can of my own self do noth- 30 ing: as I hear, I judge: and my judgment is just; because I seek not my own will, but the will of the Father who hath sent me.
If I testify concerning myself, my testimony is not true. There 31, 32 is another that testifieth concerning me, and I know that the testimony which he beareth concerning me is true. Ye sent 33 to John, and he testified to the truth. But I receive not testi- 34 mony from man: but these things I say, that ye may be saved.

35 He was a burning and a shining light: and ye were willing for 36 a season to rejoice in his light. But I have greater testimony than that of John: for the works which the Father hath given me to finish, the same works that I do, bear testimony concern-37 ing me, that the Father hath sent me. And the Father himself who hath sent me, hath borne testimony concerning me. Ye have neither heard his voice at any time, nor seen his shape.
38 And ye have not his word abiding in you: for whom he hath 39 sent, him ye believe not. Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify 40, 41 of me. And ye will not come to me, that ye may have life. I 42 receive not honor from men. But I know you, that ye have not 43 the love of God in you. I am come in my Father's name, and ye receive me not: if another shall come in his own name, him ye 44 will receive. How can ye believe, who receive honor one from another, and seek not the honor that cometh from God only?
45 Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father: there is one 46 that accuseth you, even Moses, in whom ye trust. For had ye believed Moses, ye would have believed me: for he wrote con-47 cerning me. But if ye believe not his writings, how shall ye believe my words?

6 After these things Jesus went over the sea of Galilee, which 2 is the sea of Tiberias. And a great multitude followed him, because they saw his miracles which he performed on them that 3 were diseased. And Jesus went upon a mountain, and there 4 he sat with his disciples. And the passover, a feast of the 5 Jews, was nigh. When Jesus then lifted up his eyes, and saw a great company come to him, he saith to Philip, Whence shall 6 we buy bread that these may eat? (And this he said to prove 7 him: for he himself knew what he would do.) Philip answered him, Two hundred penny-worth of bread is not sufficient for 8 them, that every one of them make take a little: One of his 9 disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, saith to him, There is a lad here, who hath five barley-loaves, and two small fishes: 10 but what are they among so many? And Jesus said, Make the men sit down. (Now there was much grass in the place.) So 11 the men sat down in number about five thousand. And Jesus took the loaves; and when he had given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set down; 12 and likewise of the fishes, as much as they would. When they were satisfied, he said to his disciples, Gather the fragments that remain, that nothing may be lost. Therefore they gathered them, 13 and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley-loaves, which remained over and above to them that had eaten. Then those men, when they had seen the miracle 14 that Jesus performed, said, This is truly that prophet that should come into the world. When Jesus therefore perceived 15 that they would come and take him by force, to make him a king, he departed again to a mountain himself alone. And 16 when evening had now come, his disciples went down to the sea, And entered into a boat, and went over the sea towards 17 Capernaum. And it was now dark, and Jesus had not come to them. And the sea arose by reason of a great wind that blew. 18 So when they had rowed about five and twenty or thirty fur- 19 longs, they see Jesus walking on the sea, and drawing nigh to the boat: and they were afraid. But he saith to them, It is I; 20 be not afraid. Then they willingly received him into the boat: and immediately the boat was at the land whither they were 21 going. The day following, when the people who stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was no other boat there, save that one into which his disciples had entered, and that Jesus went not with his disciples into the boat, but that his 22 disciples had gone away alone; (Yet there came other boats from Tiberias nigh to the place where they ate bread, after the 23 Lord had given thanks:) When the people therefore saw that Jesus was not there, neither his disciples, they also took boats, 24 and came to Capernaum, seeking for Jesus. And when they had found him on the other side of the sea, they said to him, 25 Rabbi, when camest thou hither? Jesus answered them and said, Verily, verily, I say to you, Ye seek me, not because ye saw the miracles, but because ye ate of the loaves, and were satisfac- 26 ted. Labor not for the food which perisheth, but for that food which endureth to everlasting life, which the Son of man will 27 give to you: for him hath God the Father sealed. Then said they to him, What shall we do, that we may work the works 28 of God? Jesus answered and said to them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent. They said 29 therefore to him, What sign showest thou then, that we may see, and believe thee? what dost thou work? Our fathers ate 30 manna in the desert; as it is written, He gave them bread from 31

32 heaven to eat. Then Jesus said to them, Verily, verily, I say to you, Moses gave you not that bread from heaven; but my 33 Father giveth you the true bread from heaven. For the bread of God is he who cometh down from heaven, and giveth life to 34 the world. Then said they to him, Lord, evermore give us this 35 bread. And Jesus said to them, I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me, shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me, 36 shall never thirst. But I said to you, That ye also have seen 37 me, and believe not. All that the Father giveth me, shall come 38 to me; and him that cometh to me, I will in no wise reject. For I came down from heaven, not to do my own will, but the will of 39 him that sent me. And this is the Father's will who hath sent me, that of all which he hath given me, I should lose nothing, 40 but should raise it up again at the last day. And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one who seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him 41 up at the last day. The Jews then murmured at him, because 42 he said, I am the bread which came down from heaven. And they said, Is not this Jesus the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? how is it then that he saith, I came down 43 from heaven? Jesus therefore answered and said to them, 44 Murmur not among yourselves. No man can come to me, except the Father who hath sent me draw him: and I will raise 45 him up at the last day. It is written in the prophets, And they shall be all taught from God. Every man therefore that hath 46 heard, and hath learned from the Father, cometh to me. Not that any man hath seen the Father, save he who is from God, 47 he hath seen the Father. Verily, verily, I say to you, He that 48 believeth on me hath everlasting life. I am that bread of life.
49, 50 Your fathers ate manna in the wilderness, and are dead. This is the bread which cometh down from heaven, that a man may 51 eat of it, and not die. I am the living bread which came down from heaven: if any man shall eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: and the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give 52 for the life of the world. The Jews therefore contended among themselves, saying, How can this man give us his flesh to eat?
53 Then Jesus said to them, Verily, verily, I say to you, Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no 54 life in you. Whoever eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, 55 hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day. For my flesh is food indeed, and my blood is drink indeed. He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him. As the living Father hath sent me, and I live by the Father: so he that eateth me, even he shall live by me. This is that bread which came down from heaven: not as your fathers ate manna, and are dead: he that eateth of this bread shall live for ever. These things he said in the synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum. Many therefore of his disciples, when they had heard this, said, This is a hard saying; who can hear it? When Jesus knew in himself that his disciples murmured at it, he said to them, Doth this offend you? What if ye shall see the Son of man ascend up where he was before? It is the spirit that reviveth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak to you, they are spirit, and they are life. But there are some of you that believe not. For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were that believed not, and who he was that would betray him. And he said, Therefore I said to you, that no man can come to me, except it were given to him by my Father. From that time many of his disciples went back, and walked no more with him. Then said Jesus to the twelve, Will ye also go away? Then Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? thou hast the words of eternal life. And we believe, and are sure that thou art that Christ, the Son of the living God. Jesus answered them, Have not I chosen you twelve, and one of you is a devil? He spoke of Judas Iscariot the son of Simon: for it was he that was to betray him, being one of the twelve.

After these things Jesus walked in Galilee: for he would not walk in Judea, because the Jews sought to kill him. Now the Jews' feast of tabernacles was at hand. His brethren therefore said to him, Depart hence, and go into Judea, that thy disciples also may see the works that thou doest. For there is no man that doeth any thing in secret, and he himself seeketh to be known openly. If thou doest these things, show thyself to the world. (For neither did his brethren believe in him.) Then Jesus said to them, My time is not yet come: but your time is always ready. The world cannot hate you; but me it hateth, because I testify concerning it, that its works are evil. Go ye up to this feast: I go not yet to this feast, for my time is not yet full come. When he had said these words to them, 10 he abode still in Galilee. But when his brethren had gone up, then he went also to the feast, not openly, but as it were in se-11 cret. Then the Jews sought him at the feast, and said, Where 12 is he? And there was much murmuring among the people concerning him: for some said, He is a good man: others said, No; 13 but he deceiveth the people. Yet, no man spoke openly of him, 14 for fear of the Jews. Now about the midst of the feast, Jesus 15 went up into the temple, and taught. And the Jews marveled, saying, How knoweth this man letters, having never learned?

16 Jesus answered them, and said, My doctrine is not mine, but 17 his that sent me. If any man will do his will, he shall know concerning the doctrine, whether it is from God, or whether I 18 speak from myself. He that speaketh from himself, seeketh his own glory: but he that seeketh his glory that sent him, 19 the same is true, and no unrighteousness is in him. Did not Moses give you the law, and yet none of you keepeth the law?
20 Why go ye about to kill me? The people answered and said, 21 Thou hast a demon: who goeth about to kill thee? Jesus answered and said to them, I have done one work, and ye all mar-22 vel. Moses therefore gave you circumcision, (not because it is from Moses, but from the fathers) and ye on the sabbath 23 circumcise a man. If a man on the sabbath receiveth circumcision, that the law of Moses should not be broken; are ye angry at me, because I have restored a man to sound health on the 24 sabbath? Judge not according to the appearance, but judge 25 righteous judgment. Then said some of them of Jerusalem, Is 26 not this he whom they seek to kill? But lo, he speaketh boldly, and they say nothing to him. Do the rulers know indeed that 27 this is the very Christ? But we know this man, whence he is: whereas when Christ cometh, no man knoweth whence he 28 is. Then cried Jesus in the temple, as he taught, saying, Ye both know me, and ye know whence I am: and I am not come of 29 myself, but he that sent me is true, whom ye know not. But I 30 know him; for I am from him, and he hath sent me. Then they sought to take him: but no man laid hands on him, because his 31 hour was not yet come. And many of the people believed on him, and said, When Christ cometh, will he do more miracles 32 than these which this man hath done? The Pharisees heard that the people murmured such things concerning him: and the Pharisees and the chief priests sent officers to take him.

Then said Jesus to them, Yet a little while am I with you, and then I go to him that sent me. Ye will seek me, and will not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come. Then said the Jews among themselves, Whither will he go, that we shall not find him? will he go to the dispersed among the Gentiles, and teach the Gentiles? What manner of saying is this that he said, Ye will seek me, and will not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come? In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, If any man thirsteth, let him come to me, and drink. He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water. (But this he spoke of the Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive, for the Holy Spirit was not yet given, because that Jesus was not yet glorified.) Many of the people therefore, when they heard this saying, said, In truth this is the Prophet. Others said, This is the Christ. But some said, Will Christ come out of Galilee? Hath not the scripture said, That Christ cometh from the seed of David, and out of the town of Bethlehem, where David was? So there was a division among the people because of him. And some of them would have taken him; but no man laid hands on him. Then came the officers to the chief priests and Pharisees; and they said to them, Why have ye not brought him? The officers answered, Never man spoke like this man. Then the Pharisees answered them, Are ye also deceived? Have any of the rulers, or of the Pharisees believed on him? But this people who know not the law are cursed. Nicodemus saith to them, (he that came to Jesus by night, being one of them) Doth our law judge any man before it heareth him, and knoweth what he doeth? They answered and said to him, Art thou also from Galilee? Search, and look: for out of Galilee ariseth no prophet. And every man went to his own house.

Jesus went to the mount of Olives: And early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came to him; and he sat down and taught them. And the scribes and Pharisees brought to him a woman taken in adultery: and when they had set her in the midst, They say to him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act. Now Moses in the law commanded us, that such should be stoned; but what sayest thou? This they said, tempting him, that they might have to accuse him. But Jesus stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground, as though he heard them 7 not. So when they continued asking him, he raised himself, and said to them, He that is without sin among you, let him 8 first cast a stone at her. And again he stooped down, and 9 wrote on the ground. And they who heard it, being convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, even to the last: and Jesus was left alone, and the 10 woman standing in the midst. When Jesus had raised himself, and saw none but the woman, he said to her, Woman, where are those thy accusers? hath no man condemned thee?

11 She said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said to her, Neither do I 12 condemn thee: go, and sin no more. Then Jesus spoke again to them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.
13 The Pharisees therefore said to him, Thou testifiest concern-14 ing thyself; thy testimony is not true. Jesus answered and said to them, Though I testify concerning myself, yet my testimony is true: for I know whence I came, and whither I go; 15 but ye cannot tell whence I come, and whither I go. Ye judge 16 after the flesh, I judge no man. And yet if I judge, my judgment is true: for I am not alone, but I and the Father that sent 17 me. It is also written in your law, that the testimony of two 18 men is true. I am one that testifieth concerning myself; and 19 the Father that sent me, testifieth concerning me. Then said they to him, Where is thy Father? Jesus answered, Ye neither 20 know me, nor my Father: if ye had known me, ye would have known my Father also. These words Jesus spoke in the treasury, as he taught in the temple: and no man laid hands on 21 him, for his hour was not yet come. Then said Jesus again to them, I am going away, and ye will seek me, and will die in 22 your sins: whither I go, ye cannot come. Then said the Jews, will he kill himself? because he saith, Whither I go, ye can-23 not come. And he said to them, Ye are from beneath; I am 24 from above: ye are of this world; I am not of this world. I said therefore to you, that ye will die in your sins: for if ye believe 25 not that I am he, ye will die in your sins. Then said they to him, Who art thou? And Jesus saith to them, Even the same 26 that I said to you from the beginning. I have many things to say, and to judge of you: but he that sent me, is true: and I

27 speak to the world those things which I have heard from him.
28 They understood not that he spoke to them concerning the Fa-29 ther. Then said Jesus to them, When ye have lifted up the 30 Son of man, then shall ye know that I am he, and that I do 31 nothing of myself; but as my Father hath taught me, I speak 32 these things. And he that sent me is with me: the Father 33 hath not left me alone; for I do always those things that please 34 him. As he spoke these words, many believed on him. Then 35 said Jesus to those Jews who believed on him, If ye continue 36 in my word, ye are my disciples indeed; And ye shall know 37 the truth, and the truth shall make you free. They answered 38 him, We are Abraham's offspring, and were never in bondage 39 to any man: how sayest thou, Ye shall be made free? Jesus 40 answered them, Verily, verily, I say to you, Whoever commit-41 teth sin, is the servant of sin. And the servant abideth not 42 in the house for ever, but the Son abideth for ever. If the Son 43 therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed. I know 44 that ye are Abraham's offspring; but ye seek to kill me, because 45 my word hath no place in you. I speak that which I have seen 46 with my Father: and ye do that which ye have seen with your 47 father. They answered and said to him, Abraham is our fa-48 ther. Jesus saith to them, If ye were Abraham's children, ye 49 would do the works of Abraham. But now ye seek to kill me, a man that hath told you the truth, which I have heard from God: this did not Abraham. Ye do the deeds of your father.
Then said they to him, We are not born of fornication; we have one Father, even God. Jesus said to them, If God were your Father, ye would love me: for I proceeded forth and came from God; neither came I of myself, but he sent me. Why do ye not understand my speech? even because ye cannot hear my word. Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do: he was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it. And because I tell you the truth, ye believe me not. Which of you convicteth me of sin? And if I speak the truth, why do ye not believe me? He that is of God, heareth God's words: ye therefore hear them not, because ye are not of God. Then answered the Jews, and said to him, Say we not well that thou art a Samaritan, and hast a demon? Jesus answered, I have not a demon; but I honor my Father, and ye dishonor me. And I seek not my own glory: there is one that seeketh and judgeth. Verily, verily, I say to you, If a man shall keep my saying, he shall never see death. Then said the Jews to him, Now we know that thou hast a demon. Abraham is dead, and the prophets; and thou sayest, If a man shall keep my saying, he shall never taste death. Art thou greater than our father Abraham, who is dead? and the prophets are dead: whom makest thou thyself? Jesus answered, If I honor myself, my honor is nothing: it is my Father that honoreth me, of whom ye say, that he is your God: Yet ye have not known him; but I know him: and if I should say, I know him not, I should be a liar like you: but I know him, and keep his saying. Your father Abraham rejoiced to see my day: and he saw it, and was glad. Then said the Jews to him, Thou art not yet fifty years old, and hast thou seen Abraham? Jesus said to them, Verily, verily, I say to you, Before Abraham was, I am. Then they took up stones to cast at him: but Jesus hid himself, and went out of the temple, going through the midst of them, and so passed by.

9 And as Jesus passed by, he saw a man who was blind from his birth. And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, who sinned, this man, or his parents, that he was born blind? Jesus answered, Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents: but that the works of God should be made manifest in him. I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh when no man can work. As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world. When he had thus spoken, he spit on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and he anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay, And said to him, Go, wash in the pool of Siloam, (which is by interpretation, Sent.) He went therefore, and washed, and came seeing. The neighbors therefore, and they who before had seen him that he was blind, said, Is not this he that sat and begged? Some said, This is he: others said, He is like him: but he said, I am he. Therefore they said to him, How were thy eyes opened? He answered and said, A man that is called Jesus, made clay, and anointed my eyes, and said to me, Go to the pool of Siloam, and wash: and I went and washed, and I received sight. Then said they to him, Where is he? He said,

I know not. They brought to the Pharisees him that before 13 was blind. And it was the sabbath when Jesus made the clay, 14 and opened his eyes. Then again the Pharisees also asked 15 him how he had received his sight. He said to them, He put clay upon my eyes, and I washed, and do see. Therefore said 16 some of the Pharisees, This man is not from God, because he keepeth not the sabbath. Others said, How can a man that is a sinner do such miracles? And there was a division among 17 them. They say to the blind man again, What sayest thou of him, that he hath opened thy eyes? He said, He is a prophet. 18 But the Jews did not believe concerning him that he had been blind, and received his sight, until they called the parents of 19 him that had received his sight. And they asked them, saying, Is this your son, who ye say was born blind? how then 20 doth he now see? His parents answered them and said, We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind: But by 21 what means he now seeth, we know not; or who hath opened his eyes, we know not: he is of age; ask him: he will speak for himself. These words his parents spoke, because they feared 22 the Jews: for the Jews had agreed already, that if any man confessed that he was Christ, he should be put out of the synagogue. Therefore said his parents, He is of age; ask him. 23 Then again they called the man that was blind, and said to 24 him, Give God the praise: we know that this man is a sinner.
He answered and said, Whether he is a sinner, I know not: one 25 thing I know, that whereas I was blind, now I see. Then they 26 said to him again, What did he to thee? how opened he thy eyes? He answered them, I have told you already, and ye did 27 not hear: Why would ye hear it again? will ye also be his disciples? Then they reviled him, and said, Thou art his disciple; 28 but we are the disciples of Moses. We know that God spoke to 29 Moses: as for this man, we know not whence he is. The man 30 answered and said to them, Why, herein is a marvelous thing, that ye know not from whence he is, and yet he hath opened my eyes. Now we know that God heareth not sinners: but if any 31 man is a worshiper of God, and doeth his will, him he heareth.
Since the world began hath it not been heard that any man 32 opened the eyes of one that was born blind. If this man were 33 not from God, he could do nothing. They answered and said 34 to him, Thou wast altogether born in sins, and dost thou teach 35 us? and they cast him out. Jesus heard that they had cast him out: and when he had found him, he said to him, Dost 36 thou believe on the Son of God? He answered and said, Who 37 is he, Lord, that I may believe on him? And Jesus said to him, thou hast both seen him, and it is he that talketh with thee.

38, 39 And he said, Lord, I believe. And he worshiped him. And Jesus said, For judgment I am come into this world, that they who see not, may see; and that they who see, may be made 40 blind. And some of the Pharisees who were with him heard 41 these words, and said to him, Are we blind also? Jesus said to them, If ye were blind, ye would have no sin: but now ye say, We see; therefore your sin remaineth.

10 Verily, verily, I say to you, He that entereth not by the door into the sheep-fold, but climbeth up some other way, the same 2 is a thief and a robber. But he that entereth by the door, is the 3 shepherd of the sheep. To him the porter openeth; and the sheep hear his voice: and he calleth his own sheep by name, 4 and leadeth them out. And when he putteth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they 5 know his voice. And a stranger will they not follow, but will 6 flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers. This parable spoke Jesus to them: but they understood not what 7 things they were which he spoke to them. Then said Jesus to them again, Verily, verily, I say to you, I am the door of the 8 sheep. All that ever came before me are thieves and robbers: 9 but the sheep did not hear them. I am the door: by me if any man shall enter he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and 10 find pasture. The thief cometh not, but to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they may have life, and that 11 they may have it more abundantly. I am the good shepherd: 12 the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep. But he that is a hireling, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth, 13 and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth the sheep. The hireling fleeth, because he is a hireling, and careth not for the 14 sheep. I am the good shepherd, and know my sheep, and am 15 known by mine. As the Father knoweth me, even so I know 16 the Father: and I lay down my life for the sheep. And other sheep I have which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd. Therefore doth my Father love me, because I lay down my life, that I may take it again. No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. This commandment have I received from my Father. There was a division therefore again among the Jews for these sayings. And many of them said, He hath a demon, and is insane; why hear ye him?

Others said, These are not the words of him that hath a demon.
Can a demon open the eyes of the blind? And it was at Jerusalem the feast of the dedication, and it was winter. And Jesus walked in the temple in Solomon's porch. Then came the Jews around him, and said to him, How long dost thou make us to doubt? If thou art the Christ, tell us plainly. Jesus answered them, I told you, and ye believed not: the works that I did in my Father's name, they testify concerning me. But ye believe not, because ye are not of my sheep, as I said to you. My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me: And I give to them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any pluck them out of my hand. My Father, who gave them to me, is greater than all; and none is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand. I and my Father are one. Then the Jews took up stones again to stone him. Jesus answered them, Many good works have I shown you from my Father; for which of those works do ye stone me? The Jews answered him, saying, For a good work we stone thee not; but for blasphemy, and because that thou, being a man, makest thyself God. Jesus answered them, Is it not written in your law, I said, Ye are gods? If he called them gods, to whom the word of God came, and the scripture cannot be broken; Say ye of him, whom the Father hath sanctified, and sent into the world, Thou blasphemest; because I said, I am the Son of God?
If I do not the works of my Father, believe me not. But if I do, though ye believe not me, believe the works: that ye may know and believe that the Father is in me, and I in him. Therefore they sought again to take him; but he escaped from their hand, And went again beyond Jordan, into the place where John at first baptized; and there he abode. And many resorted to him, and said, John performed no miracle; but all things that John spoke of this man were true. And many believed on him there.

Now a certain man was sick, named Lazarus, of Bethany, 11

2 the town of Mary and her sister Martha. (It was that Mary 3 who anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with 4 her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick.) Therefore his sisters 5 sent to him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou lovest is 6 sick. When Jesus heard that, he said, This sickness is not to 7 death, but for the glory of God, that the Son of God may be 8 glorified by it. Now Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and 9 Lazarus. When therefore he had heard that he was sick, he 10 abode two days still in the same place where he was. Then 11 after that he saith to his disciples, Let us go into Judea again.
12 His disciples say to him, Master, the Jews of late sought to 13 stone thee; and goest thou thither again? Jesus answered, 14 Are there not twelve hours in the day? If any man walketh in 15 the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this 16 world. But if a man walketh in the night, he stumbleth, be-17 cause there is no light in him. These things he said: and 18 after that he saith to them, Our friend Lazarus sleepeth; but 19 I go that I may awake him out of sleep. Then said his dis-20 ciples, Lord, if he sleepeth he will do well. Now Jesus spoke 21 of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of taking 22 rest in sleep. Then said Jesus to them plainly, Lazarus is 23 dead. And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, to 24 the intent ye may believe; nevertheless, let us go to him. Then 25 said Thomas, who is called Didymus, to his fellow-disciples, 26 Let us also go, that we may die with him. Then when Jesus 27 came, he found that he had lain in the grave four days already.
(Now Bethany was nigh to Jerusalem, about fifteen furlongs distant.) And many of the Jews came to Martha and Mary, to comfort them concerning their brother. Then Martha, as soon as she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met him: but Mary sat in the house. Then said Martha to Jesus, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died. But I know that even now, whatever thou wilt ask of God, God will give it thee. Jesus saith to her, Thy brother shall rise again. Martha saith to him, I know that he will rise again in the resurrection at the last day. Jesus said to her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: And whoever liveth, and believeth in me, shall never die. Believest thou this? She saith to him, Yes, Lord, I believe that thou art the Christ, the Son of God, who was to come into the world. And when she had so said, she went and called 28 Mary her sister secretly, saying, The Master is come, and calleth for thee. As soon as she heard that, she arose quickly, and 29 came to him. Now Jesus had not yet come into the town, but 30 was in that place where Martha met him. The Jews then who 31 were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they saw Mary that she rose hastily, and went out, followed her, saying, She goeth to the grave to weep there. Then when Mary 32 had come where Jesus was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying to him, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died. When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and 33 the Jews also weeping who came with her, he groaned in the spirit, and was troubled; And said, Where have ye laid him? 34 They say to him, Lord, come and see. Jesus wept. Then said 35, 36 the Jews, Behold how he loved him! And some of them said, 37 Could not this man, who opened the eyes of the blind, have caused that even this man should not have died? Jesus there- 38 fore again groaning in himself, cometh to the grave. It was a cave, and a stone lay upon it. Jesus said, Take ye away the 39 stone. Martha, the sister of him that was dead, saith to him, Lord, by this time his body is offensive: for he hath been dead four days. Jesus saith to her, Said I not to thee, that if thou 40 wouldest believe, thou shouldest see the glory of God? Then 41 they took away the stone from the place where the dead was laid. And Jesus lifted up his eyes, and said, Father, I thank thee that thou hast heard me: And I knew that thou hear- 42 est me always: but because of the people who stand by, I said it, that they may believe that thou hast sent me. And when 43 he had thus spoken, he cried with a loud voice, Lazarus, come forth. And he that was dead came forth, bound hand and foot 44 with grave-clothes: and his face was bound about with a napkin. Jesus saith to them, Loose him, and let him go. Then 45 many of the Jews who came to Mary, and had seen the things which Jesus did, believed on him. But some of them went 46 to the Pharisees, and told them what things Jesus had done.

Then the chief priests and the Pharisees convened a council, 47 and said, What do we? for this man performeth many miracles. If we let him thus alone, all men will believe on him: 48 and the Romans will come, and take away both our place and nation. And one of them, named Caiaphas, being the high 49 priest that same year, said to them, Ye know nothing at all, 50 Nor consider that it is expedient for us, that one man should 51 die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not. And this he spoke not of himself: but being high priest that year, 52 he prophesied that Jesus should die for that nation; And not for that nation only, but that also he should assemble in one 53 the children of God that were scattered abroad. Then from that day forth they took counsel together to put him to death.

54 Jesus therefore walked no more openly among the Jews; but went thence to a country near to the wilderness, into a city 55 called Ephraim, and there continued with his disciples. And the Jews' passover was nigh at hand: and many went out of the country to Jerusalem before the passover, to purify themselves.
56 Then they sought for Jesus, and spoke among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come 57 to the feast? Now both the chief priests and the Pharisees had given a commandment, that, if any man knew where he was, he should show it, that they might take him.

12 Then Jesus, six days before the passover, came to Bethany, where Lazarus was who had been dead, whom he raised from 2 the dead. There they made him a supper; and Martha served: but Lazarus was one of them that sat at the table with him.
3 Then Mary took a pound of ointment of spikenard, very costly, and anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair: 4 and the house was filled with the odor of the ointment. Then saith one of his disciples, Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, who was 5 to betray him, Why was not this ointment sold for three hun-6 dred pence, and given to the poor? This he said, not that he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief, and had the 7 bag, and bore what was put in it. Then said Jesus, Let her 8 alone: against the day of my burial hath she kept this. For the poor ye have always with you; but me ye have not always.
9 Many people of the Jews therefore knew that he was there: and they came, not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might 10 see Lazarus also, whom he had raised from the dead. But the chief priests consulted that they might put Lazarus also to 11 death; Because that by reason of him many of the Jews went 12 away, and believed on Jesus. On the next day, many people that had come to the feast, when they heard that Jesus was 13 coming to Jerusalem, Took branches of palm-trees, and went forth to meet him, and cried, Hosanna; Blessed is the King of Israel that cometh in the name of the Lord. And Jesus, 14 when he had found a young ass, sat thereon; as it is written, Fear not, daughter of Sion: behold, thy King cometh, sitting 15 on an ass's colt. These things his disciples understood not at the first: but when Jesus was glorified, then they remembered 16 that these things were written concerning him, and that they had done these things to him. The people therefore that were 17 with him when he called Lazarus out of his grave, and raised him from the dead, bore testimony. For this cause the people 18 also met him, for that they heard that he had done this miracle. The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, Perceive 19 ye how ye prevail nothing? behold, the world is gone after him.

And there were certain Greeks among them, that came to wor- 20 ship at the feast. The same came therefore to Philip, who was of Bethsaida of Galilee, and desired him, saying, Sir, we would 21 see Jesus. Philip cometh and telleth Andrew: and again, An- 22 drew and Philip tell Jesus. And Jesus answered them, say- 23 ing, The hour is come, that the Son of man should be glorified.
Verily, verily, I say to you, Except a corn of wheat fall into the 24 ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit. He that loveth his life shall lose it; and he that 25 hateth his life in this world, shall keep it to life eternal. If 26 any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honor. Now is my soul troubled; and what shall I say? 27 Father, save me from this hour: but for this cause I came to this hour. Father, glorify thy name. Then came there a voice 28 from heaven, saying, I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again. The people therefore that stood by, and heard it, said 29 that it thundered. Others said, An angel spoke to him. Jesus 30 answered and said, This voice came not because of me, but for your sakes. Now is the judgment of this world: now shall the 31 prince of this world be cast out. And I, if I shall be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men to me. (This he said, signi- 32 fying what death he should die.) The people answered him, 33 We have heard out of the law that Christ abideth for ever: and 34 how sayest thou, The Son of man must be lifted up? Who is this Son of man? Then Jesus said to them, Yet a little while is 35 the light with you. Walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you: for he that walketh in darkness knoweth not 36 whither he goeth. While ye have light, believe in the light, that ye may be the children of light. These things spoke Je-37 sus, and departed, and concealed himself from them. But though he had done so many miracles before them, yet they 38 believed not on him: That the saying of Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spoke, Lord, who hath believed our report? and to whom hath the arm of the Lord been re-39 vealed? Therefore they could not believe, because that Isaiah 40 said again, He hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart; that they should not see with their eyes, nor understand with their heart, and be converted, and I should heal them.

41 These things said Isaiah, when he saw his glory, and spoke of 42 him. Nevertheless, among the chief rulers also many believed on him; but because of the Pharisees they did not confess him, 43 lest they should be put out of the synagogue: For they loved 44 the praise of men more than the praise of God. Jesus cried, and said, He that believeth on me, believeth not on me, but on 45 him that sent me: And he that seeth me, seeth him that sent 46 me: I am come a light into the world, that whoever believeth 47 on me should not abide in darkness. And if any man hear my words, and believe not, I judge him not: for I came not to judge 48 the world, but to save the world. He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day.
49 For I have not spoken from myself; but the Father who sent me, he gave me a commandment, what I should say, and what 50 I should speak. And I know that his commandment is life everlasting: whatever I speak therefore, even as the Father said to me, so I speak.

13 Now before the feast of the passover, when Jesus knew that his hour was come that he should depart out of this world to the Father, having loved his own who were in the world, he loved 2 them to the end. And supper being ended (the devil having now put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray 3 him;) Jesus knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he had come from God, and was going to 4 God; He riseth from supper, and laid aside his garments; and 5 took a towel, and girded himself. After that, he poured water into a basin, and began to wash the disciples feet, and to wipe them with the towel with which he was girded. Then he cometh to Simon Peter: and Peter saith to him, Lord, dost thou wash my feet? Jesus answered and said to him, What I do thou knowest not now; but thou shalt know hereafter. Peter saith to him, Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me. Simon Peter saith to him, Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head. Jesus saith to him, He that is washed needeth not save to wash his feet, but is wholly clean: and ye are clean, but not all. For he knew who would betray him; therefore said he, Ye are not all clean. So after he had washed their feet, and had taken his garments, and was set down again, he said to them, Know ye what I have done to you? Ye call me Master, and Lord: and ye say well; for so I am. If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet; ye also ought to wash one another's feet. For I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you. Verily, verily, I say to you, The servant is not greater than his lord; neither he that is sent greater than he that sent him. If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them. I speak not of you all; I know whom I have chosen: but that the scripture may be fulfilled, He that eateth bread with me, hath lifted up his heel against me. Now I tell you before it cometh, that when it hath come to pass, ye may believe that I am he. Verily, verily, I say to you, He that receiveth whomsoever I send, receiveth me; and he that receiveth me, receiveth him that sent me. When Jesus had thus said, he was troubled in spirit, and testified, and said, Verily, verily, I say to you, that one of you will betray me. Then the disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spoke. Now there was leaning on Jesus' bosom, one of his disciples, whom Jesus loved. Simon Peter therefore beckoned to him, to ask who it should be of whom he spoke. He then lying on Jesus' breast, saith to him, Lord, who is it? Jesus answered, He it is to whom I shall give a sop, when I have dipped it. And when he had dipped the sop, he gave it to Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon. And after the sop Satan entered into him. Then said Jesus to him, What thou doest, do quickly. Now no man at the table knew for what intent he spoke this to him. For some of them thought, because Judas had the bag, that Jesus had said to him, Buy those things that we have need of against 30 the feast; or, that he should give something to the poor. He then having received the sop, went immediately out: and it 31 was night. Therefore when he had gone out, Jesus said, Now 32 is the Son of man glorified, and God is glorified in him. If God is glorified in him, God will also glorify him in himself, 33 and will immediately glorify him. Little children, yet a little while I am with you. Ye will seek me: and, as I said to the 34 Jews, Whither I go, ye cannot come; so now I say to you. A new commandment I give to you, That ye love one another; as 35 I have loved you, that ye also love one another. By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to 36 another. Simon Peter said to him, Lord, whither goest thou?

Jesus answered him, Whither I go, thou canst not follow me 37 now; but thou shalt follow me afterward. Peter said to him, Lord, why cannot I follow thee now? I will lay down my life for 38 thy sake. Jesus answered him, Wilt thou lay down thy life for my sake? Verily, verily, I say to thee, The cock will not crow, till thou hast denied me thrice.

14 Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe 2 also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place 3 for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you to myself; that where I am, there ye may 4 be also. And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know.
5 Thomas saith to him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; 6 and how can we know the way? Jesus saith to him, I am the way, and the truth, and the life: no man cometh to the Father, 7 but by me. If ye had known me, ye would have known my Father also: and from henceforth ye know him, and have seen 8 him. Philip saith to him, Lord, show us the Father, and it 9 sufficeth us. Jesus saith to him, Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me Philip? he that hath seen me, hath seen the Father; and how sayest thou then, Show us 10 the Father? Believest thou not that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? the words that I speak to you, I speak not from myself: but the Father that dwelleth in me, he doeth the 11 works. Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in 12 me: or else believe me for the very works' sake. Verily, verily, I say to you, he that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go to my Father. And whatever ye shall ask in my name, 13 that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If 14 ye shall ask any thing in my name, I will do it. If ye love 15 me, keep my commandments. And I will pray the Father, and 16 he will give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever; Even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot 17 receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and will be in you. I 18 will not leave you comfortless; I will come to you. Yet a little 19 while, and the world seeth me no more; but ye see me: because I live, ye shall live also. At that day ye shall know that I 20 am in my Father, and ye in me, and I in you. He that hath 21 my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me, shall be loved by my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him. Judas, not Iscariot, 22 saith to him, Lord, how is it that thou wilt manifest thyself to us, and not to the world? Jesus answered and said to him, If a 23 man loveth me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come to him, and make our abode with him.

 He that loveth me not, keepeth not my sayings: and the word 24 which ye hear is not mine, but that of the Father who sent me.
 These things have I spoken to you, being yet present with you. 25 But the Comforter, who is the Holy Spirit, whom the Father 26 will send in my name, he will teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatever I have said to you.
 Peace I leave with you, my peace I give to you: not as the world 27 giveth, give I to you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid. Ye have heard that I said to you, I go away, and 28 come again to you. If ye loved me, ye would rejoice, because I said, I go to the Father: for my Father is greater than I. And 29 now I have told you before it cometh to pass, that when it hath come to pass, ye may believe. Hereafter I will not talk much 30 with you: for the prince of this world cometh, and hath nothing in me. But that the world may know that I love the Father; 31 and as the Father gave me commandment, even so I do. Arise, let us go hence.

I am the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman. Ev- 15, 2 ery branch in me that beareth not fruit, he taketh away; and every branch that beareth fruit, he cleaneth it, that it my bring forth more fruit. Now ye are clean through the word which 3 4 I have spoken to you. Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine: 5 no more can ye, except ye abide in me. I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing.

6 If a man abideth not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered: and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, 7 and they are burned. If ye abide in me, and my words abide in 8 you, ye may ask what ye will, and it shall be done to you. In this is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye 9 be my disciples. As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved 10 you: continue ye in my love. If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father's com-11 mandments, and abide in his love. These things have I spoken to you, that my joy may remain in you, and that your joy may 12 be full. This is my commandment, That ye love one another, 13 as I have loved you. Greater love hath no man than this, that 14 a man lay down his life for his friends. Ye are my friends, if 15 ye do whatever I command you. Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; for all things that I have heard from 16 my Father, I have made known to you. Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain: that whatever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give 17 it you. These things I command you, that ye love one another.
18 If the world hateth you, ye know that it hated me before it 19 hated you. If ye were of the world, the world would love its own: but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen 20 you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you. Remember the word that I said to you, The servant is not greater than his lord. If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you: if they have kept my saying, they will keep yours also.
21 But all these things will they do to you for my name's sake, be-22 cause they know not him that sent me. If I had not come and spoken to them, they had not had sin: but now they have no 23 cloke for their sin. He that hateth me, hateth my Father also.
24 If I had not done among them the works which no other man hath done, they had not had sin: but now have they both seen, 25 and hated both me and my Father. But this cometh to pass, that the word might be fulfilled that is written in their law, They hated me without a cause. But when the Comforter is 26 come, whom I will send to you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, who proceedeth from the Father, he will testify concerning me. And ye also shall bear testimony, because ye have 27 been with me from the beginning.

These things have I spoken to you, that ye should not be 16 offended. They shall put you out of the synagogues: yes, the 2 time cometh, that whoever killeth you, will think that he doeth God service. And these things will they do to you, because 3 they have not known the Father, nor me. But these things 4 have I told you, that when the time shall come, ye may remember that I told you of them. And these things I said not to you at the beginning, because I was with you. But now I go to him 5 that sent me, and none of you asketh me, Whither goest thou?
 But because I have said these things to you, sorrow hath filled 6 your heart. Nevertheless, I tell you the truth: It is expedi- 7 ent for you that I depart; for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come to you; but if I depart, I will send him to you.
 And when he is come, he will reprove the world of sin, and of 8 righteousness, and of judgment: Of sin, because they believe 9 not on me; Of righteousness, because I go to my Father, and 10 ye see me no more; Of judgment, because the prince of this 11 world is judged. I have yet many things to say to you, but ye 12 cannot bear them now. But, when he, the Spirit of truth is 13 come, he will guide you into all the truth: for he will not speak from himself; but whatever he shall hear, that will he speak: and he will show you things to come. He will glorify me: for 14 he will receive of mine, and will show it to you. All things that 15 the Father hath are mine: therefore I said, that he will take of mine, and show it to you. A little while, and ye shall not see 16 me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me, because I go to the Father. Then said some of his disciples among them- 17 selves, What is this that he saith to us, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me: and, Because I go to the Father? They said therefore, What is 18 this that he saith, A little while? we cannot tell what he saith.
 Now Jesus knew that they were desirous to ask him, and said 19 to them, Do ye inquire among yourselves of that which I said, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while,

20 and ye shall see me? Verily, verily, I say to you, that ye will weep and lament, but the world will rejoice: and ye will be 21 sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy. A woman when she is in travail hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world.
22 And ye now therefore have sorrow: but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from 23 you. And in that day ye will ask me nothing: Verily, verily, I say to you, Whatever ye shall ask the Father in my name, he 24 will give it you. Hitherto ye have asked nothing in my name: 25 ask, and ye shall receive, that your joy may be full. These things have I spoken to you in proverbs: but the time cometh when I shall no more speak to you in proverbs, but I shall show 26 you plainly concerning the Father. At that day ye will ask in my name: and I say not to you, that I will pray the Father for 27 you: For the Father himself loveth you, because ye have loved 28 me, and have believed that I came from God. I came forth from the Father, and am come into the world: again, I leave 29 the world, and go to the Father. His disciples said to him, Lo, 30 now speakest thou plainly, and speakest no proverb. Now are we sure that thou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should ask thee: by this we believe that thou camest from 31, 32 God. Jesus answered them, Do ye now believe? Behold, the hour cometh, and is even now come, that ye shall be scattered every man to his own, and shall leave me alone: and yet I am 33 not alone, because the Father is with me. These things I have spoken to you, that in me ye may have peace. In the world ye will have tribulation, but be of good cheer: I have overcome the world.

17 These words spoke Jesus, and lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said, Father, the hour is come; glorify thy Son, that thy Son 2 also may glorify thee: As thou hast given him power over all flesh, that he should give eternal life to as many as thou hast 3 given him. And this is life eternal, that they may know thee 4 the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom thou hast sent. I have glorified thee on the earth: I have finished the work which 5 thou gavest me to do. And now, O Father, glorify thou me with thy ownself, with the glory which I had with thee before the 6 world was. I have manifested thy name to the men whom thou gavest to me out of the world: thine they were, and thou gavest them to me; and they have kept thy word. Now they have 7 known that all things whatever thou hast given me are from thee. For I have given to them the words which thou gavest 8 me; and they have received them, and have known surely that I came from thee, and they have believed that thou didst send me. I pray for them: I pray not for the world, but for them 9 whom thou hast given to me; for they are thine. And all mine 10 are thine, and thine are mine; and I am glorified in them. And 11 now I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to thee. Holy Father, keep through thy own name those whom thou hast given to me, that they may be one, as we are. While I was with them in the world, I kept them 12 in thy name: those that thou gavest to me I have kept, and none of them is lost but the son of perdition; that the scripture might be fulfilled. And now I come to thee, and these things 13 I speak in the world, that they may have my joy fulfilled in themselves. I have given to them thy word; and the world 14 hath hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. I pray not that thou shouldst take 15 them out of the world, but that thou shouldst keep them from the evil. They are not of the world, even as I am not of the 16 world. Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth. 17 As thou hast sent me into the world, even so have I also sent them into the world. And for their sakes I sanctify myself, 18 that they also may be sanctified through the truth. Neither 19 pray I for these alone; but for them also who shall believe on me through their word. That they all may be one; as thou, 21 Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me. And 22 the glory which thou gavest to me, I have given to them; that they may be one, even as we are one. I in them, and thou in 23 me, that they may be made perfect in one; and that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loved them as thou hast loved me. Father, I will that they also whom thou hast 24 given to me be with me where I am; that they may behold my glory which thou hast given to me: for thou lovedst me before the foundation of the world. O righteous Father, the world 25 hath not known thee: but I have known thee, and these have known that thou hast sent me. And I have declared to them 26 thy name, and will declare it: that the love with which thou hast loved me, may be in them, and I in them.

18 When Jesus had spoken these words, he went forth with his disciples over the brook Kedron, where was a garden, into 2 which he entered, and his disciples. And Judas also, who betrayed him, knew the place: for Jesus often resorted thither 3 with his disciples. Judas then, having received a band of 4 men and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, cometh 5 thither with lanterns, and torches, and weapons. Jesus therefore, knowing all things that were coming upon him, went 6 forth, and said to them, Whom seek ye? They answered him, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus saith to them, I am he. And Judas 7 also, who betrayed him, stood with them. As soon then as he had said to them, I am he, they went backward, and fell to the 8 ground. Then he asked them again, Whom seek ye? And they 9 said, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus answered, I have told you that 10 I am he: If therefore ye seek me, let these go away: That the saying might be fulfilled which he spoke, Of them whom thou 11 gavest to me, I have lost none. Then Simon Peter, having a sword, drew it, and smote the servant of the high priest, and 12 cut off his right ear. The servant's name was Malchus. Then said Jesus to Peter, Put up thy sword into the sheath: the cup 13 which my Father hath given me, shall I not drink it? Then the band, and the captain, and officers of the Jews took Jesus, 14 and bound him, And led him away to Annas first, (for he was father-in-law to Caiaphas, who was the high priest that same 15 year.) Now Caiaphas was he who gave counsel to the Jews, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.
16 And Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple. That disciple was known to the high priest, and went in with 17 Jesus into the palace of the high priest. But Peter stood at the door without. Then went out that other disciple who was 18 known to the high priest, and spoke to her that kept the door, and brought in Peter. Then saith the damsel that kept the 19 door to Peter, Art not thou also one of this man's disciples? He saith, I am not. And the servants and officers stood there, 20 who had made a fire of coals; (for it was cold) and they warmed themselves: and Peter stood with them, and warmed himself. The high priest then asked Jesus concerning his disciples, and concerning his doctrine. Jesus answered him, I spoke openly to the world; I ever taught in the synagogue and in the temple, whither the Jews always resort; and in secret have I said nothing. Why dost thou ask me? ask them who heard me, what I have said to them: behold, they know what I have said. And when he had thus spoken, one of the officers who stood by, struck Jesus with the palm of his hand, saying, Answerest thou the high priest so? Jesus answered him, If I have spoken evil, bear testimony of the evil: but if well, why smitest thou me? (Now Annas had sent him bound to Caiaphas the high priest.) And Simon Peter stood and warmed himself. They said therefore to him, Art not thou also one of his disciples? He denied it, and said, I am not. One of the servants of the high priest (being the kinsman of him whose ear Peter cut off) saith, Did not I see thee in the garden with him? Peter then denied again, and immediately the cock crowed. Then they led Jesus from Caiaphas to the hall of judgment: and it was early; and they themselves went not into the judgment-hall, lest they should be defiled; but that they might eat the passover. Pilate then went out to them, and said, What accusation bring ye against this man? They answered and said to him, If he were not a malefactor, we would not have delivered him up to thee. Then said Pilate to them, Take ye him, and judge him according to your law. The Jews therefore said to him, It is not lawful for us to put any man to death: That the saying of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spoke, signifying what death he should die. Then Pilate entered into the judgment-hall again, and called Jesus, and said to him, Art thou the King of the Jews? Jesus answered him, Sayest thou this thing from thyself, or did others tell it thee concerning me? Pilate answered, Am I a Jew? Thy own nation, and the chief priests, have delivered thee to me: What hast thou done? Jesus answered, My kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my kingdom not from hence. Pilate therefore said to him, Art thou a King then? Jesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a King. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should testify to the truth. Every one that is of the truth heareth my voice. Pilate saith to him, What is truth? And when he had said this, he went out again to the Jews, and saith to them, I find in him no 39 fault. But ye have a custom that I should release to you one at the passover: will ye therefore that I release to you the King 40 of the Jews? Then they all cried again, saying, Not this man, but Barabbas. Now Barabbas was a robber.

19, 2 Then Pilate therefore took Jesus, and scourged him. And the soldiers platted a crown of thorns, and put it on his head, 3 and they put on him a purple robe, And said, Hail, King of the 4 Jews! and they smote him with their hands. Pilate therefore went forth again, and saith to them, Behold, I bring him forth 5 to you, that ye may know that I find no fault in him. Then Jesus came forth, wearing the crown of thorns, and the pur-6 ple robe. And Pilate saith to them, Behold the man! When therefore the chief priests and officers saw him, they cried out, saying, Crucify him, crucify him. Pilate saith to them, Take 7 ye him, and crucify him: for I find no fault in him. The Jews answered him, We have a law, and by our law he ought to die, 8 because he made himself the Son of God. When Pilate there-9 fore heard that saying, he was the more afraid; And went again into the judgment-hall, and saith to Jesus, Whence art 10 thou? But Jesus gave him no answer. Then saith Pilate to him, Speakest thou not to me? knowest thou not, that I have 11 power to crucify thee, and have power to release thee? Jesus answered, Thou couldst have no power against me; except it were given thee from above: therefore he that delivered me to 12 thee hath the greater sin. And from thenceforth Pilate sought to release him: but the Jews cried out, saying, If thou let this man go, thou art not Cesar's friend. Whoever maketh him-13 self a king, speaketh against Cesar. When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he brought Jesus forth, and sat down on the judgment-seat, in a place that is called the Pavement, but 14 in the Hebrew, Gabbatha. And it was the preparation of the passover, and about the sixth hour: and he saith to the Jews, 15 Behold your King! But they cried out, Away with him, away with him, crucify him. Pilate saith to them, Shall I crucify your King? The chief priests answered, We have no king but Ce-16 sar. Then therefore he delivered him to them to be crucified.
17 And they took Jesus, and led him away. And he bearing his cross went forth into a place called the place of a skull, which 18 is called in the Hebrew, Golgotha: Where they crucified him, and two others with him, on each side one, and Jesus in the midst. And Pilate wrote a title, and put it on the cross. And 19 the writing was, JESUS OF NAZARETH THE KING OF THE 20 JEWS. Many of the Jews then read this title: for the place 20 where Jesus was crucified was nigh to the city: and it was written in Hebrew, Greek, and Latin. Then said the chief priests 21 of the Jews to Pilate, Write not, The King of the Jews; but that he said, I am King of the Jews. Pilate answered, What I have 22 written, I have written. Then the soldiers, when they had 23 crucified Jesus, took his garments, and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also his coat: now the coat was without seam, woven from the top throughout. They said therefore 24 among themselves, Let us not rend it, but cast lots for it whose it shall be: that the scripture might be fulfilled, which saith, They parted my raiment among them, and for my vesture they cast lots. These things therefore the soldiers did. Now there 25 stood by the cross of Jesus, his mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Cleophas, and Mary Magdalene. When Jesus 26 therefore saw his mother, and the disciple standing by, whom he loved, he saith to his mother, Woman, behold thy son! Then 27 saith he to the disciple, Behold thy mother! And from that hour that disciple took her to his own home. After this, Jesus know- 28 ing that all things were now accomplished, that the scripture might be fulfilled, saith, I thirst. Now there was set a vessel 29 full of vinegar: and they filled a sponge with vinegar, and put it upon hyssop, and put it to his mouth. When Jesus therefore 30 had received the vinegar, he said, It is finished: and he bowed his head, and expired. The Jews therefore, because it was the 31 preparation, that the bodies should not remain upon the cross on the sabbath, (for that sabbath was a great day,) besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be 32 taken away. Then came the soldiers, and broke the legs of the 33 first, and of the other who was crucified with him. But when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was dead already, they broke not his legs: But one of the soldiers with a spear pierced 34 his side, and forthwith came out blood and water. And he that 35 saw it, testified, and his testimony is true: and he knoweth that he speaketh truth, that ye may believe. For these things 36 were done, that the scripture should be fulfilled, A bone of him shall not be broken. And again another scripture saith, They 37 shall look on him whom they pierced. And after this, Joseph 38 of Arimathea (being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews) besought Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus: and Pilate gave him leave. He came therefore and 39 took the body of Jesus. And there came also Nicodemus (who at the first came to Jesus by night) and brought a mixture of 40 myrrh and aloes, about a hundred pound weight. Then they took the body of Jesus, and wound it in linen cloths, with the 41 spices, as the manner of the Jews is to bury. Now in the place where he was crucified, there was a garden; and in the garden 42 a new sepulcher, in which was never man yet laid. There they laid Jesus therefore, because of the Jews' preparation -day, for the sepulcher was nigh at hand.

20 The first day of the week cometh Mary Magdalene early, when it was yet dark, to the sepulcher, and seeth the stone 2 taken away from the sepulcher. Then she runneth, and cometh to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and saith to them, They have taken away the Lord out of the 3 sepulcher, and we know not where they have laid him. Peter therefore went forth, and that other disciple, and came to 4 the sepulcher. So they ran both together: and the other disciple outran Peter, and came first to the sepulcher. And he 5 stooping down, saw the linen cloths lying; yet he went not in. Then cometh Simon Peter following him, and went into the 6 sepulcher, and seeth the linen cloths lying; And the napkin that was about his head, not lying with the linen cloths, but 7 wrapped together in a place by itself. Then went in also that other disciple who came first to the sepulcher, and he saw, and 8 believed. For as yet they knew not the scripture, that he must rise again from the dead. Then the disciples went away again 9 to their own home. But Mary stood without at the sepulcher weeping: and as she wept she stooped down to look into the 10 sepulcher, And seeth two angels in white, sitting, the one at the head, and the other at the feet, where the body of Jesus 11 had lain. And they say to her, Woman, why weepest thou? she saith to them, Because they have taken away my Lord, 12 and I know not where they have laid him. And when she had thus said, she turned herself about, and saw Jesus standing, 13 and knew not that it was Jesus. Jesus saith to her, Woman, why weepest thou? whom seekest thou? She, supposing him to be the gardener, saith to him, Sir, if thou hast borne him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, and I will take him away. Jesus saith to her, Mary. She turned herself, and saith 16 to him, Rabboni, which is to say, Master. Jesus saith to her, 17 Touch me not: for I have not yet ascended to my Father: but go to my brethren, and say to them, I ascend to my Father and your Father, and to my God and your God. Mary Magdalene 18 came and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord, and that he had spoken these things to her. Then the same day at 19 evening, being the first day of the week, when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in the midst, and saith to them, Peace be to you. And when he had so said, he showed to them his 20 hands and his side. Then were the disciples glad when they saw the Lord. Then said Jesus to them again, Peace be to you: 21 as my Father hath sent me, even so I send you. And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and saith to them, Re- 22 ceive ye the Holy Spirit. Whose soever sins ye remit, they are remitted to them; and whose soever sins ye retain, they are re- 23 tained. But Thomas, one of the twelve, called Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came. The other disciples there- 24 fore said to him, We have seen the Lord. But he said to them, Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and thrust my hand into his side, I will not believe. And after eight days again his dis- 26 ciples were within, and Thomas with them: then came Jesus, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, Peace be to you. Then saith he to Thomas, Reach hither thy finger, and 27 behold my hands; and reach hither thy hand, and thrust it into my side; and be not faithless, but believing. And Thomas an- 28 swered and said to him, My Lord and my God. Jesus saith to 29 him, Thomas, because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed: blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed.

And many other signs truly did Jesus in the presence of his 30 disciples, which are not written in this book. But these are 31 written, that ye may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing ye may have life through his name.

After these things Jesus showed himself again to the dis- 21 ciples at the sea of Tiberias: and in this manner did he show himself. There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas called 2 Didymus, and Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and the sons of 3 Zebedee, and two others of his disciples. Simon Peter saith to them, I go a fishing. They say to him, We also go with thee. They went forth, and entered into a boat immediately; and 4 that night they caught nothing. But when the morning had now come, Jesus stood on the shore: but the disciples knew 5 not that it was Jesus. Then Jesus saith to them, Children, 6 have ye any victuals? They answered him, No. And he said to them, Cast the net on the right side of the boat, and ye shall find. They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw 7 it for the multitude of fishes. Therefore that disciple whom Jesus loved saith to Peter, It is the Lord. Now when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girt on his fisher's coat, 8 (for he was naked) and cast himself into the sea. And the other disciples came in a little boat (for they were not far from land, but as it were two hundred cubits) dragging the net with 9 fishes. As soon then as they had come to land, they saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid upon them, and bread. Jesus saith 10 to them, Bring of the fish which ye have now caught. Simon Peter went up, and drew the net to land full of great fishes, a hundred and fifty and three: and notwithstanding there were 11 so many, yet the net was not broken. Jesus saith to them, Come and dine. And none of the disciples durst ask him, Who 12 art thou? knowing that it was the Lord. Jesus then cometh, 13 and taketh bread, and giveth them, and fish likewise. This is now the third time that Jesus showed himself to his disciples, 14 after he had risen from the dead. So when they had dined, Jesus saith to Simon Peter, Simon son of Jonas, lovest thou me more than these? He saith to him, Yes, Lord: thou knowest 15 that I love thee. He saith to him, Feed my lambs. He saith to him again the second time, Simon son of Jonas, lovest thou me? He saith to him, Yes, Lord: thou knowest that I love thee.

16 He saith to him, Feed my sheep. He saith to him the third time, Simon son of Jonas, lovest thou me? Peter was grieved, because he said to him the third time, Lovest thou me? And he said to him, Lord, thou knowest all things; thou knowest that 17 I love thee. Jesus saith to him, Feed my sheep. Verily, verily, I say to thee, When thou wast young, thou didst gird thyself and walk whither thou wouldest: but when thou shalt be old, thou shalt stretch forth thy hands, and another shall gird thee, 18 and carry thee whither thou wouldest not. This he spoke, signifying by what death he should glorify God. And when he had spoken this, he saith to him, Follow me. Then Peter turning about, seeth the disciple whom Jesus loved, following; (who also leaned on his breast at supper, and said, Lord, who is he that betrayeth thee?) Peter seeing him, saith to Jesus, Lord, and what shall this man do? Jesus saith to him, If I will that he shall tarry till I come, what is that to thee? Follow thou me. Then this saying went abroad among the brethren, that that disciple should not die: yet Jesus said not to him, He shall not die; but, if I will that he shall tarry till I come, what is that to thee? This is the disciple who testifieth of these things, and wrote these things: and we know that his testimony is true. And there are also many other things which Jesus did, which, if they should be written every one, I suppose that even the world itself could not contain the books that would be written. Amen.

THE ACTS OF THE APOSTLES.

1  he former treatise have I made, O Theophilus, of all 2 that Jesus began both to do and teach, Until the day 3 in which he was taken up, after that he through the 4 Holy Spirit had given commandments to the apos-5 tles whom he had chosen: To whom also he showed himself 6 alive after his passion, by many infallible proofs, being seen 7 by them forty days, and speaking of the things pertaining to 8 the kingdom of God: And being assembled with them, com-9 manded them that they should not depart from Jerusalem, but 10 wait for the promise of the Father, which, saith he, ye have 11 heard from me. For John truly baptized with water; but ye 12 shall be baptized with the Holy Spirit not many days hence.
13 When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, 14 saying, Lord, wilt thou at this time restore again the kingdom 15 to Israel? And he said to them, It is not for you to know the times or the seasons, which the Father hath put in his own power. But ye shall receive power after the Holy Spirit is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses to me, both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and to the uttermost part of the earth. And when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, he was taken up; and a cloud received him out of their sight. And while they looked steadfastly towards heaven as he went up, behold, two men stood by them in white apparel; Who also said, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up to heaven? this same Jesus who is taken from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven. Then they returned to Jerusalem, from the mount called Olivet, which is from Jerusalem a sabbath day's journey. And when they had come in, they went into an upper room, where abode both Peter, and James, and John, and Andrew, Philip, and Thomas, Bartholomew, and Matthew, James the son of Alpheus, and Simon Zelotes, and Judas the brother of James. These all continued with one accord in prayer and supplication, with the women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with his brethren. And in those days Peter stood up in the midst of the disciples, and said (the number of the names together were about a hundred and twenty,) Men, brethren, 16 This scripture must needs have been fulfilled, which the Holy Spirit by the mouth of David spoke before concerning Judas, who was guide to them that took Jesus. For he was num- 17 bered with us, and had obtained part of this ministry. Now 18 this man purchased a field with the reward of iniquity; and falling headlong, he burst asunder in the midst, and all his bowels gushed out. And it was known to all the dwellers at 19 Jerusalem; so that that field is called in their proper tongue, Aceldama, that is to say, The field of blood. For it is written in 20 the book of Psalms, Let his habitation be desolate, and let no man dwell in it: and, His bishopric let another take. Where- 21 fore, of these men who accompanied us, all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, Beginning from the 22 baptism of John, to that same day that he was taken up from us, must one be ordained to be a witness with us of his resurrection. And they appointed two, Joseph called Barsabas, 23 who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias. And they prayed, 24 and said, Thou, Lord, who knowest the hearts of all men, show which of these two thou hast chosen, That he may take part 25 of this ministry and apostleship, from which Judas by transgression fell, that he might go to his own place. And they 26 gave forth their lots; and the lot fell upon Matthias; and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

And when the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were 2 all with one accord in one place. And suddenly there came 2 a sound from heaven, as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. And there ap- 3 peared to them, cloven tongues as of fire, and it sat upon each of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and 4 began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them utterance. And there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, de- 5 vout men, from every nation under heaven. Now when this 6 was noised abroad, the multitude came together, and were confounded, because every man heard them speak in his own lan- 7 guage. And they were all amazed, and marveled, saying one to another, Behold, are not all these who speak Galileans? 8 And how do we hear every man in our own language, wherein 8 we were born? Parthians, and Medes, and Elamites, and the 9 dwellers in Mesopotamia, and in Judea, and Cappadocia, in 10 Pontus, and Asia, Phrygia, and Pamphylia, in Egypt, and in the parts of Libya about Cyrene, and strangers of Rome, Jews 11 and Proselytes, Cretes and Arabians we hear them speak in 12 our languages the wonderful works of God. And they were all amazed, and were in doubt, saying one to another, What 13 meaneth this? Others mocking, said, These men are full of 14 new wine. But Peter standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and said to them, Ye men of Judea, and all ye that dwell at Jerusalem, be this known to you, and hearken to my 15 words: For these are not drunken, as ye suppose, seeing it is 16 but the third hour of the day. But this is that which was spo-17 ken by the prophet Joel, And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams: 18 And on my servants, and on my hand-maidens I will, in those 19 days, pour out of my Spirit; and they shall prophesy: And I will show wonders in heaven above, and signs on the earth 20 beneath; blood, and fire, and vapor of smoke. The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before that 21 great and notable day of the Lord come. And it shall come to pass, that whoever shall call on the name of the Lord, shall be 22 saved. Ye men of Israel, hear these words; Jesus of Nazareth, a man approved by God among you by miracles and wonders and signs, which God did by him in the midst of you, as ye 23 yourselves also know: Him, being delivered by the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God, ye have taken, and 24 by wicked hands have crucified and slain: Whom God hath raised up, having loosed the pains of death: because it was not 25 possible that he should be held by it. For David speaketh concerning him, I saw the Lord always before my face, for he is 26 on my right hand, that I should not be moved: Therefore did my heart rejoyce, and my tongue was glad; moreover also, my 27 flesh shall rest in hope: Because thou wilt not leave my soul in hell, neither wilt thou suffer thy Holy One to see corruption: 28 Thou hast made known to me the ways of life; thou wilt make me full of joy with thy countenance. Men, brethren, let me 29 freely speak to you concerning the patriarch David, that he is both dead and buried, and his sepulcher is with us to this day.

30 Therefore being a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn to him with an oath, that from the fruit of his loins, according to the flesh, he would raise up Christ to sit on his throne; He 31 seeing this before, spoke of the resurrection of Christ, that his soul was not left in hell, neither did his flesh see corruption.

This Jesus hath God raised up, of which we all are witnesses. 32 Therefore being by the right hand of God exalted, and hav- 33 ing received from the Father the promise of the Holy Spirit, he hath shed forth this, which ye now see and hear. For David did 34 not ascend into the heavens, but he saith himself, The LORD said to my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, Until I make thy 35 foes thy footstool. Therefore let all the house of Israel know 36 assuredly, that God hath made that same Jesus whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Christ. Now when they heard this, 37 they were pricked in their heart, and said to Peter and to the rest of the apostles, Men, brethren, what shall we do? Then 38 Peter said to them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ, for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. For the promise is to 39 you, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call. And with many other 40 words did he testify and exhort, saying, Save yourselves from this perverse generation. Then they that gladly received his 41 word, were baptized: and the same day there were added to them about three thousand souls. And they continued stead- 42 fastly in the apostles doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers. And fear came upon every soul: and 43 many wonders and signs were done by the apostles. And all 44 that believed were together, and had all things common; And 45 sold their possessions and goods, and parted them to all men, as every man had need. And they, continuing daily with one 46 accord in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house, ate their food with gladness and singleness of heart, Praising 47 God, and having favor with all the people. And the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved.

Now Peter and John went up together into the temple, at 3 the hour of prayer, being the ninth hour. And a certain man 2 lame from his mother's womb was carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple which is called Beautiful, to ask alms of them that entered into the temple. Who, seeing Peter 3 and John about to go into the temple, asked an alms. And 4

Peter fastening his eyes upon him with John, said, Look on us.
5 And he gave heed to them, expecting to receive something from 6 them. Then Peter said, Silver and gold have I none; but such as I have I give thee: in the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, 7 rise up and walk. And he took him by the right hand, and lifted him up: and immediately his feet and ankle bones re-8 ceived strength. And he leaping up stood, and walked, and entered with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and 9 praising God. And all the people saw him walking and prais-10 ing God: And they knew that it was he who sat for alms at the Beautiful gate of the temple: and they were filled with wonder 11 and amazement at that which had happened to him. And as the lame man who was healed held Peter and John, all the people ran together to them in the porch that is called Solomon's, 12 greatly wondering. And when Peter saw it, he answered to the people, Ye men of Israel, why marvel ye at this? or why look ye so earnestly on us, as though by our own power or ho-13 liness we had made this man to walk? The God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob, the God of our fathers hath glorified his Son Jesus; whom ye delivered up, and denied him in the presence of Pilate, when he was determined to let him 14 go. But ye denied the Holy One, and the Just, and desired a murderer to be granted to you, And killed the Prince of life, whom God hath raised from the dead; of which we are wit-15 nesses. And his name, through faith in his name, hath made this man strong, whom ye see and know: yes, the faith which is by him, hath given him this perfect soundness in the presence 16 of you all. And now, brethren, I know that through ignorance ye did it, as did also your rulers. But those things which God before had shown by the mouth of all his prophets, that Christ 17 should suffer, he hath so fulfilled. Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times 18 of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord, And he will send Jesus Christ, who before was preached to you: 19 Whom the heaven must receive, until the times of restitution of all things, which God hath spoken by the mouth of all his 20 holy prophets, since the world began. For Moses truly said to the fathers, A Prophet will the Lord your God raise up to you, of your brethren, like me; him shall ye hear in all things, what-21 ever he shall say to you. And it shall come to pass, that every soul who will not hear that Prophet, shall be destroyed from among the people. And all the prophets also from Samuel, and those that follow, as many as have spoken, have likewise foretold these days. Ye are the children of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying to Abraham, And in thy seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed. To you first, God having raised up his Son Jesus, sent him to bless you, in turning away every one of you from his iniquities.

And as they were speaking to the people, the priests, and the captain of the temple, and the Sadducees came upon them, Being grieved that they taught the people, and preached through Jesus the resurrection from the dead. And they laid hands on them, and put them in custody to the next day: for it was now evening. But many of them who heard the word, believed; and the number of the men was about five thousand. And it came to pass on the morrow, that their rulers, and elders, and scribes, And Annas the high priest, and Caiaphas, and John, and Alexander, and as many as were of the kindred of the high priest, were assembled at Jerusalem. And when they had set them in the midst, they asked, By what power, or by what name have ye done this? Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, Ye rulers of the people, and elders of Israel, If we this day are examined concerning the good deed done to the impotent man, by what means he is made sound. Be it known to you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, whom God raised from the dead, even by him doth this man stand here before you sound. This is the stone which was set at naught by you builders, which is become the head of the corner. Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is no other name under heaven given among men, by which we must be saved. Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marveled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus. And beholding the man who was healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it. But when they had commanded them to withdraw from the council, they conferred among themselves, Saying, What shall we do to these men? for that indeed a notable miracle hath been done by them is manifest to all them that dwell in 17 Jerusalem, and we cannot deny it. But that it may spread no further among the people, let us strictly threaten them, that 18 they speak henceforth to no man in this name. And they called them, and commanded them not to speak at all, nor 19 teach in the name of Jesus. But Peter and John answered and said to them, Whether it is right in the sight of God to 20 hearken to you rather than to God, judge ye. For we cannot 21 but speak the things which we have seen and heard. So when they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding nothing how they might punish them, because of the people: 22 for all men glorified God for that which was done. For the man was above forty years old on whom this miracle of heal-23 ing was performed. And being dismissed, they went to their own company, and reported all that the chief priests and elders 24 had said to them. And when they heard that, they lifted up their voice to God with one accord, and said, Lord, thou art God, who hast made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all 25 that is in them; Who, by the mouth of thy servant David hast said, Why did the heathen rage, and the people imagine vain 26 things? The kings of the earth stood up, and the rulers were 27 assembled against the Lord, and against his Christ. For in truth against thy holy child Jesus, whom thou hast anointed, both Herod, and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles, and the peo-28 ple of Israel, were assembled, To do whatever thy hand and 29 thy counsel determined before to be done. And now, Lord, behold their threatenings: and grant to thy servants, that with 30 all boldness they may speak thy word, By stretching forth thy hand to heal; and that signs and wonders may be done by the 31 name of thy holy child Jesus. And when they had prayed, the place was shaken where they were assembled; and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and they spoke the word of 32 God with boldness. And the multitude of them that believed were of one heart, and of one soul: neither said any of them that aught of the things which he possessed was his own; but 33 they had all things common. And with great power the apostles gave testimony of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus: and 34 great grace was upon them all. Neither was there any among them that was in want: for as many as were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the prices of the things that were sold, And laid them down at the apostles' feet: and distribution was made to every man according as he had need. And Joses, who by the apostles was surnamed Barnabas, (which is, being interpreted, The son of consolation,) a Levite, and of the country of Cyprus, Having land, sold it, and brought the money, and laid it at the apostles' feet. 35 36 37

But a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession, And kept back part of the price, (his wife also being privy to it) and brought a certain part, and laid it at the apostles' feet. But Peter said, Ananias, Why hath Satan filled thy heart to lie to the Holy Spirit, and to keep back part of the price of the land? While it remained, was it not thy own? and after it was sold, was it not in thy own power? why hast thou conceived this thing in thy heart? thou hast not lied to men, but to God. And Ananias hearing these words, fell down, and expired. And great fear came on all them that heard these things. And the young men arose, wound him up, and carried him out, and buried him. And it was about the space of three hours after, when his wife, not knowing what was done, came in. And Peter answered to her, Tell me whether ye sold the land for so much? And she said, Yes, for so much. Then Peter said to her, How is it that ye have agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? behold the feet of them who have buried thy husband are at the door, and shall carry thee out. Then she fell down immediately at his feet, and expired. And the young men came in, and found her dead, and carrying her forth, buried her by her husband. And great fear came upon all the church, and upon as many as heard these things. And by the hands of the apostles were many signs and wonders wrought among the people; (and they were all with one accord in Solomon's porch. And of the rest durst no man join himself to them: but the people magnified them. And believers were the more added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women.) So that they brought forth the sick into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, that at the least the shadow of Peter passing by might overshadow some of them. There came also a multitude out of the cities around to Jerusalem, bringing sick persons, and them who were afflicted with unclean spirits: and they were healed every one. Then the high priest rose up, and all they that were with him; 5 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17

(which is the sect of the Sadducees) and were filled with indignation, And laid their hands on the apostles, and put them in the common prison. But the angel of the Lord by night opened the prison-doors, and brought them forth, and said, Go, stand and speak in the temple to the people all the words of this life. And when they heard that, they entered into the temple early in the morning, and taught. But the high priest came, and they that were with him, and called the council together, and all the senate of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought. But when the officers came, and found them not in the prison, they returned, and told, Saying, The prison truly we found shut with all safety, and the keepers standing without before the doors: but when we had opened, we found no man within. Now when the high priest, and the captain of the temple, and the chief priests heard these things, they doubted of them to what this would grow. Then came one and told them, saying, Behold, the men whom ye put in prison are standing in the temple, and teaching the people. Then went the captain with the officers, and brought them without violence: for they feared the people, lest they should have been stoned. And when they had brought them, they set them before the council: and the high priest asked them, Saying, Did we not strictly command you, that ye should not teach in this name? and behold, ye have filled Jerusalem with your doctrine, and intend to bring this man's blood upon us. Then Peter and the other apostles answered and said, We ought to obey God rather than men. The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom ye slew and hanged on a tree: Him hath God exalted with his right hand to be a Prince and a Savior, to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins. And we are his witnesses of these things; and so is also the Holy Spirit, whom God hath given to them that obey him. When they heard that, they were cut to the heart, and took counsel to slay them. Then stood up one in the council, a Pharisee, named Gamaliel, a doctor of the law, had in reputation among all the people, and commanded to put the apostles forth a little time. And said to them, Ye men of Israel, take heed to yourselves what ye intend to do concerning these men: For before these days rose Theudas, boasting himself to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain; and all, as many as obeyed him, were scattered, and brought to naught. After this man rose Judas of Galilee, in the days of 37 the taxing, and drew away many people after him: he also perished; and all, even as many as obeyed him, were dispersed.

And now I say to you, Refrain from these men, and let them 38 alone: for if this counsel or this work is from men, it will come to naught: But if it is from God, ye cannot overthrow it; lest 39 haply ye be found even to fight against God. And to him they 40 assented: and when they had called the apostles, and beaten them, they commanded that they should not speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go. And they departed from the pres- 41 ence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for his name. And daily in the temple, and in 42 every house, they ceased not to teach and preach Jesus Christ.

And in those days, when the number of the disciples was 6 multiplied, there arose a murmuring of the Grecians against the Hebrews, because their widows were neglected in the daily ministration. Then the twelve called the multitude of the dis- 2 ciples, and said, It is not reason that we should leave the word of God, and serve tables. Wherefore, brethren, look ye out 3 among you seven men of honest report, full of the Holy Spirit and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business. But 4 we will give ourselves continually to prayer, and to the ministry of the word. And the saying pleased the whole multi- 5 tude: and they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit, and Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolas a proselyte of Antioch: Whom 6 they set before the apostles: and when they had prayed, they laid their hands on them. And the word of God increased; and 7 the number of the disciples multiplied in Jerusalem greatly; and a great company of the priests were obedient to the faith.
And Stephen, full of faith and power, performed great wonders 8 and miracles among the people. Then there arose certain of 9 the synagogue, which is called the synagogue of the Libertines, and Cyrenians, and Alexandrians, and of them of Cilicia, and of Asia, disputing with Stephen. And they were not able to re- 10 sist the wisdom and the spirit by which he spoke. Then they 11 suborned men, who said, We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses, and against God. And they stirred 12 up the people, and the elders, and the scribes, and came upon 13 him, and caught him, and brought him to the council, And set up false witnesses, who said, This man ceaseth not to speak 14 blasphemous words against this holy place, and the law: For we have heard him say, that this Jesus of Nazareth will destroy this place, and will change the customs which Moses delivered 15 to us. And all that sat in the council, looking steadfastly on him, saw his face as it had been the face of an angel.

7, 2 Then said the high priest, Are these things so? And he said, Men, brethren, and fathers, hearken; The God of glory appeared to our father Abraham when he was in Mesopotamia, 3 before he dwelt in Charran, And said to him, Depart from thy country, and from thy kindred, and come into the land 4 which I shall show thee. Then he came from the land of the Chaldeans, and dwelt in Charran. And from thence, when his father was dead, he removed him into this land in which ye 5 now dwell. And he gave him no inheritance in it, no not so much as to set his foot on: yet he promised that he would give it to him for a possession, and to his offspring after him, when 6 as yet he had no child. And God spoke on this wise, That his offspring should sojourn in a foreign land; and that they should bring them into bondage, and treat them ill four hun-7 dred years. And the nation to whom they shall be in bondage will I judge, said God: and after that they shall come forth, 8 and serve me in this place. And he gave him the covenant of circumcision. And so Abraham begat Isaac, and circumcised him the eighth day; and Isaac begat Jacob, and Jacob begat 9 the twelve patriarchs. And the patriarchs, moved with envy, 10 sold Joseph into Egypt: but God was with him, And delivered him from all his afflictions, and gave him favor and wisdom in the sight of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and he made him gover-11 nor over Egypt, and all his house. Now there came a dearth over all the land of Egypt and Canaan, and great affliction; and 12 our fathers found no sustenance. But when Jacob heard that 13 there was corn in Egypt, he sent out our fathers first. And at the second time Joseph was made known to his brethren: and 14 Joseph's kindred was made known to Pharaoh. Then Joseph sent, and called his father Jacob to him, and all his kindred, 15 seventy five souls. So Jacob went down into Egypt, and died, 16 he, and our fathers, And were carried over into Sychem, and laid in the sepulcher that Abraham bought for a sum of money of the sons of Emmor the father of Sychem. But when the time 17 of the promise drew nigh, which God had sworn to Abraham, the people grew and multiplied in Egypt, Till another king 18 arose, who knew not Joseph. The same dealt subtilly with 19 our kindred, and ill-treated our fathers, so that they cast out their young children, to the end they might not live. In which 20 time Moses was born, and was exceeding fair, and nourished in his father's house three months: And when he was cast 21 out, Pharaoh's daughter took him up, and nourished him for her own son. And Moses was learned in all the wisdom of the 22 Egyptians, and was mighty in words and in deeds. And when 23 he was full forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren the children of Israel. And seeing one of them suffer 24 wrong, he defended him, and avenged him that was oppressed, and smote the Egyptian: For he supposed his brethren to un- 25 derstand that God by his hand would deliver them: but they understood not. And the next day he showed himself to them 26 as they were contending, and would have constrained them to be at peace again, saying, Sirs, ye are brethren: why do ye wrong one to another? But he that did his neighbor wrong, 27 thrust him away, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge over us? Wilt thou kill me, as thou didst the Egyptian yester- 28 day? Then Moses fled at this saying, and was a stranger in 29 the land of Madian, where he begat two sons. And when forty 30 years had expired, there appeared to him in the wilderness of mount Sina, an angel of the Lord in a flame of fire in a bush.

When Moses saw it, he wondered at the sight; and as he drew 31 near to behold it, the voice of the Lord came to him, Saying, I 32 am the God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Then Moses trembled, and durst not behold. Then said the Lord to him, Put off thy shoes from 33 thy feet: for the place where thou standest is holy ground. I 34 have seen, I have seen the affliction of my people who are in Egypt, and I have heard their groaning, and am come down to deliver them. And now come, I will send thee into Egypt. This 35 Moses, whom they refused, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge? the same did God send to be a ruler and a deliverer by the hand of the angel who appeared to him in the bush. He 36 brought them out, after he had showed wonders and signs in the land of Egypt, and in the Red sea, and in the wilderness 37 forty years. This is that Moses, who said to the children of Is-38 rael, A prophet will the Lord your God raise up to you of your brethren, like me; him will ye hear. This is he, that was in the church in the wilderness with the angel who spoke to him on the mount Sina, and with our fathers: who received the living 39 oracles to give to us: Whom our fathers would not obey, but thrust him from them, and in their hearts turned back again 40 into Egypt, Saying to Aaron, Make us gods to go before us: for as for this Moses, who brought us out of the land of Egypt, 41 we know not what is become of him. And they made a calf in those days, and offered sacrifice to the idol, and rejoiced in 42 the works of their own hands. Then God turned, and gave them up to worship the host of heaven; as it is written in the book of the prophets, O ye house of Israel, have ye offered to me slain beasts and sacrifices during forty years in the wilder-43 ness? Yes, ye took up the tabernacle of Moloch, and the star of your God Remphan, figures which ye made to worship them: 44 and I will carry you away beyond Babylon. Our fathers had the tabernacle of testimony in the wilderness, as he had appointed, speaking to Moses, that he should make it according 45 to the fashion that he had seen. Which also our fathers, that came after, brought in with Jesus into the possession of the Gentiles, whom God drove out before the face of our fathers, to 46 the days of David; Who found favor before God, and desired to find a tabernacle for the God of Jacob. But Solomon built him 47 a house. Yet, the Most High dwelleth not in temples made with hands, as saith the prophet, Heaven is my throne, and 49 earth is my footstool: What house will ye build for me? saith the Lord: or what is the place of my rest? Hath not my hand 51 made all these things? Ye stiff-necked, and uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Holy Spirit: as your 52 fathers did, so do ye. Which of the prophets have not your fathers persecuted? and they have slain them who showed before of the coming of the Just One; of whom ye have been now the 53 betrayers and murderers; Who have received the law by the disposition of angels, and have not kept it. When they heard 54 these things, they were cut to the heart, and they gnashed on him with their teeth. But he, being full of the Holy Spirit, looked up steadfastly into heaven, and saw the glory of God, 56 and Jesus standing on the right hand of God, And said, Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of man standing on the right hand of God. Then they cried out with a loud 57 voice, and stopped their ears, and ran upon him with one accord, And cast him out of the city, and stoned him: and the 58 witnesses laid down their clothes at a young man's feet, whose name was Saul. And they stoned Stephen, calling upon God, 59 and saying, Lord Jesus, receive my spirit. And he kneeled 60 down and cried with a loud voice, Lord, lay not this sin to their charge. And when he had said this, he fell asleep.

And Saul was consenting to his death. And at that time 8 there was a great persecution against the church which was at Jerusalem; and they were all dispersed throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria, except the apostles. And devout 2 men carried Stephen to his burial, and made great lamentation over him. As for Saul, he made havoc of the church, enter- 3 ing into every house, and hauling men and women committed them to prison. Therefore they that were dispersed went ev- 4 ery where preaching the word. Then Philip went down to the 5 city of Samaria, and preached Christ to them. And the people 6 with one accord gave heed to those things which Philip spoke, hearing and seeing the miracles which he performed. For un- 7 clean spirits, crying with loud voice, came out of many that were possessed: and many taken with palsies, and that were lame, were healed. And there was great joy in that city. But 8,9 there was a certain man called Simon, who before in the same city used sorcery, and bewitched the people of Samaria, giving out that himself was some great one: To whom they all gave 10 heed, from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the great power of God. And to him they had regard, because 11 that for a long time he had bewitched them with sorceries.
But when they believed Philip, preaching the things concern- 12 ing the kingdom of God, and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized both men and women. Then Simon himself 13 believed also: and when he was baptized, he continued with Philip, and wondered, beholding the miracles and signs which were done. Now when the apostles who were at Jerusalem 14 heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent to them Peter and John: Who, when they had come down, 15 prayed for them that they might receive the Holy Spirit: (For 16 as yet he had fallen upon none of them: only they were bap-17 tized in the name of the Lord Jesus.) Then they laid their 18 hands on them, and they received the Holy Spirit. And when Simon saw that through laying on of the apostles' hands the 19 Holy Spirit was given, he offered them money, Saying, Give me also this power, that on whomsoever I lay hands, he may 20 receive the Holy Spirit. But Peter said to him, Thy money perish with thee, because thou hast thought that the gift of God 21 may be purchased with money. Thou hast neither part nor lot in this matter: for thy heart is not right in the sight of God.

22 Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray God, if per-23 haps the thought of thy heart may be forgiven thee. For I perceive that thou art in the gall of bitterness, and in the bond of 24 iniquity. Then answered Simon, and said, Pray ye to the Lord for me, that none of these things which ye have spoken come 25 upon me. And they, when they had testified and preached the word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem, and preached the 26 gospel in many villages of the Samaritans. And the angel of the Lord spoke to Philip, saying, Arise, and go towards the south, to the way that goeth down from Jerusalem to Gaza, 27 which is desert. And he arose, and went: and behold, a man of Ethiopia, a eunuch of great authority under Candace queen of the Ethiopians, who had the charge of all her treasure, and 28 had come to Jerusalem to worship, Was returning; and sitting 29 in his chariot, read Isaiah the prophet. Then the Spirit said to 30 Philip, Go near and join thyself to this chariot. And Philip ran thither to him, and heard him reading the prophet Isaiah, and 31 said, Understandest thou what thou readest? And he said, How can I, except some man should guide me? And he desired 32 Philip that he would come up, and sit with him. The place of the scripture which he read was this, He was led as a sheep to the slaughter; and like a lamb dumb before his shearer, so he 33 opened not his mouth: In his humiliation his judgment was taken away: and who shall declare his generation? for his life 34 is taken from the earth. And the eunuch answered Philip, and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the prophet this? of 35 himself, or of some other man? Then Philip opened his mouth, and began at the same scripture, and preached to him Jesus.
36 And as they went on their way, they came to a certain water: and the eunuch said, See, here is water; what doth hinder me 37 to be baptized? And Philip said, If thou believest with all thy heart, thou mayest. And he answered and said, I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God. And he commanded the char- 38 iot to stand still: and they both went down into the water, both Philip and the eunuch; and he baptized him. And when they 39 had come up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip, that the eunuch saw him no more: and he went on his way rejoicing. But Philip was found at Azotus: and 40 passing through, he preached in all the cities, till he came to Cesarea.

And Saul, yet breathing out threatenings and slaughter against 9 the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest, And desired 2 from him letters to Damascus to the synagogues, that if he should find any of this way, whether they were men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem. And as he jour- 3 neyed, he came near Damascus: and suddenly there shined around him a light from heaven: And he fell to the earth, 4 and heard a voice saying to him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? And he said, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord 5 said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest. It is hard for thee to kick against the goads. And he trembling and astonished 6 said, Lord, what wilt thou have me to do? And the Lord said to him, Arise, and go into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do. And the men who journeyed with him stood 7 speechless, hearing a voice, but seeing no man. And Saul 8 arose from the earth; and when his eyes were opened, he saw no man: but they led him by the hand, and brought him into Damascus. And he was three days without sight, and neither 9 ate nor drank. And there was a certain disciple at Damascus, 10 named Ananias; and to him said the Lord in a vision, Ananias. And he said, Behold, I am here, Lord. And the Lord said 11 to him, Arise, and go into the street which is called Straight, and inquire in the house of Judas for one called Saul of Tarsus: for behold, he prayeth, And hath seen in a vision a man 12 named Ananias, coming in, and putting his hand on him, that he might receive his sight. Then Ananias answered, Lord, I 13 have heard by many of this man, how much evil he hath done to thy saints at Jerusalem: And here he hath authority from 14 the chief priests, to bind all that call on thy name. But the 15 Lord said to him, Go, for he is a chosen vessel to me, to bear my name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of 16 Israel. For I will show him how great things he must suffer for my name's sake. And Ananias went, and entered into the house; and putting his hands on him, said, Brother Saul, the Lord (even Jesus that appeared to thee in the way as thou camest) hath sent me, that thou mayest receive thy sight, and be filled with the Holy Spirit. And immediately there fell from his eyes as it had been scales: and he received sight forthwith, and arose, and was baptized. And when he had received food, he was strengthened. Then was Saul certain days with the disciples who were at Damascus. And immediately he preached Christ in the synagogues, that he is the Son of God. But all that heard him were amazed, and said, Is not this he that destroyed them who called on this name in Jerusalem, and came hither for that intent, that he might bring them bound to the chief priests? But Saul increased the more in strength, and confounded the Jews who dwelt at Damascus, proving that this is very Christ. And after many days were fulfilled, the Jews took counsel to kill him. But their laying in wait, was known to Saul. And they watched the gates day and night to kill him. Then the disciples took him by night, and let him down by the wall in a basket. And when Saul had come to Jerusalem, he essayed to join himself to the disciples: but they were all afraid of him, and believed not that he was a disciple. But Barnabas took him, and brought him to the apostles, and declared to them how he had seen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how he had preached boldly at Damascus in the name of Jesus. And he was with them coming in and going out at Jerusalem. And he spoke boldly in the name of the Lord Jesus, and disputed against the Grecians: but they went about to slay him. Which when the brethren knew, they brought him down to Cesarea, and sent him forth to Tarsus. Then had the churches rest throughout all Judea, and Galilee, and Samaria, and were edified: and walking in the fear of the Lord, and in the comfort of the Holy Spirit, were multiplied. And it came to pass, as Peter passed throughout all quarters, he came down also to the saints who dwelt at Lydda. And there he found a certain man named Eneas, who had kept his bed eight years, and was sick with the palsy. And Peter said to him, Eneas, Jesus Christ healeth thee: arise, and make thy bed. And he arose immediately. And all that dwelt at Lydda and Saron saw him, and turned to the Lord. Now there was at Joppa a certain disciple named Tabitha, who by interpretation is called Dorcas: this woman was full of good works and alms-deeds which she did. And it came to pass in those days, that she was sick, and died: whom, when they had washed, they laid in an upper chamber. And as Lydda was nigh to Joppa, and the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent to him two men, desiring him that he would not delay to come to them. Then Peter arose, and went with them. When he had come, they brought him into the upper chamber: and all the widows stood by him weeping, and showing the coats and garments which Dorcas made, while she was with them. But Peter put them all forth, and kneeled down, and prayed; and turning to the body, said, Tabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes: and when she saw Peter, she sat up. And he gave her his hand, and lifted her up; and when he had called the saints and widows, presented her alive. And it was known throughout all Joppa: and many believed in the Lord. And it came to pass, that he tarried many days in Joppa with one Simon a tanner.

There was a certain man in Cesarea, called Cornelius, a centurion of the band called the Italian band, A devout man, and one that feared God with all his house, who gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God always. He saw in a vision evidently, about the ninth hour of the day, an angel of God coming in to him, and saying to him, Cornelius. And when he looked on him, he was afraid, and said, What is it, Lord? And he said to him, Thy prayers and thy alms are come up for a memorial before God. And now send men to Joppa, and call for one Simon, whose surname is Peter: He lodgeth with one Simon a tanner, whose house is by the sea-side: he will tell thee what thou oughtest to do. And when the angel who spoke to Cornelius had departed, he called two of his household servants, and a devout soldier of them that waited on him continually; And when he had declared all these things to them, he sent them to Joppa. On the morrow, as they were going on their journey, and drew nigh to the city, Peter went up upon the house-top to pray, about the sixth hour: And he became very hungry, and would have eaten: but while they made ready, he fell into a trance, And saw heaven opened, 11 and a certain vessel descending to him, as it had been a great sheet knit at the four corners, and let down to the earth: In which were all manner of four-footed beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping animals, and fowls of the air. And there came a voice to him, Rise, Peter; kill, and eat. But Peter said, Not so, Lord; for I have never eaten any thing that is common or unclean. And the voice spoke to him again the second time, What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common. This was done thrice: and the vessel was received again into heaven. Now while Peter doubted in himself what this vision which he had seen should mean, behold, the men who were sent from Cornelius had made inquiry for Simon's house, and were standing before the gate, And called, and asked whether Simon, who was surnamed Peter, lodged there. While Peter thought on the vision, the Spirit said to him, Behold, three men seek thee. Arise therefore, and go down, and go with them, doubting nothing: for I have sent them. Then Peter went down to the men who were sent to him from Cornelius; and said, Behold, I am he whom ye seek: what is the cause for which ye have come? And they said, Cornelius the centurion, a just man, and one that feareth God, and of good report among all the nation of the Jews, was warned from God by a holy angel to send for thee into his house, and to hear words from thee. Then he called them in, and lodged them. And on the morrow Peter went with them, and certain brethren from Joppa accompanied him. And on the morrow they entered into Cesarea. And Cornelius waited for them, and had called together his kinsmen and near friends. And as Peter was coming in, Cornelius met him, and fell down at his feet, and worshiped him. But Peter took him up, saying, Stand up: I myself also am a man. And as he talked with him, he went in, and found many that had come together. And he said to them, Ye know that it is an unlawful thing for a man that is a Jew to keep company, or come to one of another nation; but God hath shown me that I should not call any man common or unclean. Therefore I came to you without gainsaying, as soon as I was sent for: I ask therefore for what intent ye have sent for me? And Cornelius said, Four days ago I was fasting until this hour; and at the ninth hour I prayed in my house, and behold, a man stood before me in bright clothing, And said, Cornelius, thy prayer is heard, and thy alms are had in remembrance in the sight of God. Send therefore to Joppa, and call hither Simon, whose surname is Peter; he lodgeth in the house of one Simon a tanner, by the sea-side: who, when he cometh, will speak to thee. Immediately therefore I sent to thee; and thou hast well done that thou hast come. Now therefore we are all here present before God, to hear all things that are commanded thee from God. Then Peter opened his mouth, and said, In truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons: But in every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him. The word which God sent to the children of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ: (he is Lord of all:) That word, I say, ye know, which was published throughout all Judea, and began from Galilee, after the baptism which John preached; That God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power: who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed by the devil; for God was with him. And we are witnesses of all things which he did, both in the land of the Jews, and in Jerusalem; whom they slew and hanged on a tree. Him God raised the third day, and showed him openly; Not to all the people, but to witnesses chosen before by God, even to us, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. And he commanded us to preach to the people, and to testify that it is he who was ordained by God to be the Judge of the living and the dead. To him give all the prophets testimony, that through his name whoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins. While Peter was yet speaking these words, the Holy Spirit fell on all them who heard the word. And they of the circumcision who believed, were astonished, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the Holy Spirit. For they heard them speak in languages and magnify God. Then answered Peter, Can any man forbid water, that these should not be baptized, who have received the Holy Spirit as well as we? And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of the Lord. Then they requested him to tarry certain days.

And the apostles and brethren that were in Judea, heard that the Gentiles also had received the word of God. And when Peter had come to Jerusalem, they that were of the cir-

3 cumcision contended with him, Saying, Thou wentest in to 4 men uncircumcised, and didst eat with them. But Peter rehearsed the matter from the beginning, and expounded it by 5 order to them, saying, I was in the city of Joppa praying: and in a trance I saw a vision, A certain vessel descend, as it had been a great sheet, let down from heaven by four corners; and 6 it came even to me: Upon which when I had fastened my eyes, I considered, and saw four-footed beasts of the earth, and wild 7 beasts, and creeping animals, and fowls of the air. And I heard 8 a voice saying to me, Arise, Peter; slay and eat. But I said, Not so, Lord: for nothing common or unclean hath at any time entered into my mouth. But the voice answered me again from 9 heaven, What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.
10 And this was done three times: and all were drawn up again 11 into heaven. And behold, immediately there were three men already come to the house where I was, sent from Cesarea to 12 me. And the Spirit bade me go with them, nothing doubting. Moreover, these six brethren accompanied me, and we entered 13 into the man's house: And he showed us how he had seen an angel in his house, who stood and said to him, Send men to 14 Joppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter; Who shall tell thee words, by which thou and all thy house shall be saved.
15 And as I began to speak, the Holy Spirit fell on them, as on us 16 at the beginning. Then I remembered the word of the Lord, how he said, John indeed baptized with water; but ye shall be 17 baptized with the Holy Spirit. Forasmuch then as God gave them the like gift as he did to us, who believed on the Lord 18 Jesus Christ, what was I that I could withstand God? When they heard these things, they held their peace, and glorified 19 God, saying, Then hath God also to the Gentiles granted repentance to life. Now they who were dispersed upon the persecution that arose about Stephen traveled as far as Phenice, 20 and Cyprus, and Antioch, preaching the word to none but to the Jews only. And some of them were men of Cyprus and 21 Cyrene, who when they had come to Antioch, spoke to the Grecians, preaching the Lord Jesus. And the hand of the Lord 22 was with them: and a great number believed, and turned to the Lord. Then tidings of these things came to the ears of the church which was in Jerusalem: and they sent forth Barnabas, 23 that he should go as far as Antioch. Who, when he came, and had seen the grace of God, was glad, and exhorted them all that with purpose of heart they would cleave to the Lord. For he was a good man, and full of the Holy Spirit, and of faith: and many people were added to the Lord. Then Barnabas departed to Tarsus, to seek Saul: And when he had found him, he brought him to Antioch. And it came to pass, that a whole year they assembled themselves with the church, and taught many people. And the disciples were first called Christians in Antioch. And in these days came prophets from Jerusalem to Antioch. And there stood up one of them named Agabus, and signified by the Spirit that there should be great dearth throughout all the world: which came to pass in the days of Claudius Cesar. Then the disciples, every man according to his ability, determined to send relief to the brethren who dwelt in Judea. Which also they did, and sent it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

Now about that time, Herod the king stretched forth his hands to afflict certain of the church. And he killed James the brother of John with the sword. And because he saw it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to take Peter also. Then were the days of unleavened bread. And when he had apprehended him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four quaternions of soldiers to keep him; intending after the passover to bring him forth to the people. Peter therefore was kept in prison: but prayer was made without ceasing by the church to God for him. And when Herod would have brought him forth, the same night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains; and the keepers before the door kept the prison. And behold, the angel of the Lord came upon him, and a light shined in the prison; and he smote Peter on the side, and raised him up, saying, Arise quickly. And his chains fell off from his hands. And the angel said to him, Gird thyself, and bind on thy sandals; and so he did. And he saith to him, Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me. And he went out, and followed him, and knew not that it was true which was done by the angel; but thought he saw a vision. When they were past the first and the second ward, they came to the iron gate that leadeth to the city; which opened to them of its own accord: and they went out, and passed on through one street; and forthwith the angel departed from him. And when Peter had come to himself, he said, Now I know with certainty, that the Lord hath sent his angel, and hath delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews. And when he had considered the thing, he came to the house of Mary the mother of John whose surname was Mark; where many were assembled, praying. And as Peter knocked at the door of the gate, a damsel came to hearken, named Rhoda. And when she knew Peter's voice, she opened not the gate for gladness, but ran in, and told that Peter stood before the gate. And they said to her, Thou art insane. But she constantly affirmed that it was even so. Then they said, It is his angel. But Peter continued knocking. And when they had opened the door, and saw him, they were astonished. But he beckoning to them with the hand to hold their peace, declared to them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he said, Go, show these things to James, and to the brethren. And he departed, and went into another place. Now as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers, what was become of Peter. And when Herod had sought for him, and found him not, he examined the keepers, and commanded that they should be put to death. And he went down from Judea to Cesarea, and there abode. And Herod was highly displeased with them of Tyre and Sidon. But they came with one accord to him, and having made Blasius the king's chamberlain their friend, desired peace, because their country was nourished by the king's country. And upon a set day, Herod arrayed in royal apparel, sat upon his throne, and made an oration to them. And the people gave a shout, saying, It is the voice of a god, and not of a man. And immediately the angel of the Lord smote him, because he gave not God the glory: and he was eaten by worms, and died. But the word of God grew and multiplied. And Barnabas and Saul returned from Jerusalem, when they had fulfilled their ministry, and took with them John, whose surname was Mark.

13 Now there were in the church that was at Antioch certain prophets and teachers; as Barnabas, and Simeon that was called Niger, and Lucius of Cyrene, and Manaen, who had been brought up with Herod the tetrarch, and Saul. As they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the Holy Spirit said, Separate for me Barnabas and Saul, for the work to which I have called them.

And when they had fasted and prayed, and laid their hands on 3 them, they sent them away. So they being sent forth by the 4 Holy Spirit, departed to Seleucia; and from thence they sailed to Cyprus. And when they were at Salamis, they preached the 5 word of God in the synagogues of the Jews. And they had also John for their minister. And when they had gone through the 6 isle to Paphos, they found a certain sorcerer, a false prophet, a Jew, whose name was Barjesus: Who was with the deputy 7 of the country, Sergius Paulus, a prudent man; who called for Barnabas and Saul, and desired to hear the word of God. But 8 Elymas the sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turn away the deputy from the faith.
Then Saul (who also is called Paul) filled with the Holy Spirit, 9 set his eyes on him, And said, O full of all subtilty, and all 10 mischief, thou child of the devil, thou enemy of all righteousness, wilt thou not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord?
And now behold, the hand of the Lord is upon thee, and thou 11 shalt be blind, not seeing the sun for a season. And immediately there fell on him a mist and a darkness; and he went about seeking some to lead him by the hand. Then the deputy, 12 when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at the doctrine of the Lord. Now when Paul and his company loosed 13 from Paphos, they came to Perga in Pamphylia. And John departing from them, returned to Jerusalem. But when they de- 14 parted from Perga, they came to Antioch in Pisidia, and went into the synagogue on the sabbath, and sat down. And after 15 the reading of the law and the prophets, the rulers of the synagogue sent to them, saying, Men, brethren, if ye have any word of exhortation for the people, speak. Then Paul stood up, and 16 beckoning with his hand, said, Men of Israel, and ye that fear God, give audience. The God of this people Israel chose our 17 fathers, and exalted the people when they dwelt as strangers in the land of Egypt, and with a high arm he brought them out of it. And about the time of forty years he suffered their 18 manners in the wilderness. And when he had destroyed seven 19 nations in the land of Canaan, he divided their land to them by lot. And after that he gave to them judges, about the space of 20 four hundred and fifty years, until Samuel the prophet. And 21 afterward they desired a king: and God gave to them Saul the son of Kish, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, by the space of 22 forty years. And when he had removed him, he raised up to them David to be their king: to whom also he gave testimony, and said, I have found David the son of Jesse, a man after my 23 own heart, who shall fulfill all my will. Of this man's offspring hath God, according to his promise, raised up to Israel a Sav-24 ior, Jesus: John having first preached, before his coming, the baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel. And as John 25 fulfilled his course, he said, Whom think ye that I am? I am not he. But behold, there cometh one after me, whose shoes of 26 his feet I am not worthy to loose. Men, brethren, children of the stock of Abraham, and whoever among you feareth God, to 27 you is the word of this salvation sent. For they that dwell at Jerusalem, and their rulers, because they knew him not, nor yet the words of the prophets which are read every sabbath, 28 they have fulfilled them in condemning him. And though they found no cause of death in him, yet they desired Pilate that 29 he should be put to death. And when they had fulfilled all that was written concerning him, they took him down from the 30 tree, and laid him in a sepulcher. But God raised him from the dead: And he was seen many days by them who came 31 up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are his witnesses to the people. And we declare to you the glad tidings, that 32 the promise which was made to the fathers, God hath fulfilled the same to us their children, in that he hath raised up Jesus again; as it is also written in the second psalm, Thou art my 33 Son, this day have I begotten thee. And as concerning that he raised him from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, he said on this wise, I will give you the sure mercies of David.

34 Wherefore he saith also in another psalm, Thou wilt not suffer thy Holy One to see corruption. For David, after he had 35 served his own generation by the will of God, fell asleep, and was laid to his fathers, and saw corruption: But he whom God 36 raised again, saw no corruption. Be it known to you therefore, men, brethren, that through this man is preached to you 37 the forgiveness of sins; And by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by 38 the law of Moses. Beware therefore, lest that come upon you which is spoken in the prophets; Behold, ye despisers, and 39 wonder, and perish: for I work a work in your days, a work which ye will in no wise believe, though a man declare it to 40 41

you. And when the Jews had gone out of the synagogue, the Gentiles besought that these words might be preached to them the next sabbath. Now when the congregation was broken up, many of the Jews and religious proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas; who speaking to them, persuaded them to continue in the grace of God. And the next sabbath came almost the whole city together to hear the word of God. But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with envy, and spoke against those things which were uttered by Paul, contradict-ing and blaspheming. Then Paul and Barnabas became bold, and said, It was necessary that the word of God should first be spoken to you: but seeing ye reject it, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, we turn to the Gentiles. For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying, I have set thee to be a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldst be for salvation to the ends of the earth. And when the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of the Lord: and as many as were ordained to eternal life, believed. And the word of the Lord was published throughout all the region. But the Jews stirred up the devout and honorable women, and the chief men of the city, and raised persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them from their borders. But they shook off the dust of their feet against them, and came to Iconium. And the disciples were filled with joy and with the Holy Spirit.

And it came to pass in Iconium, that they went both together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spoke, that a great multitude both of the Jews, and also of the Greeks, believed. But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles, and made their minds evil-affected against the brethren. A long time therefore they abode speaking boldly in the Lord, who gave testimony to the word of his grace, and granted signs and wonders to be done by their hands. But the multitude of the city was divided: and part held with the Jews, and part with the apostles. And when there was an assault made both of the Gentiles, and also of the Jews, with their rulers, to use them despitefully, and to stone them, Being apprised of it, they fled to Lystra and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and to the region in that vicinity. And there they preached the gospel. And there sat a certain man at Lystra, impotent in his feet, being a cripple from his mother's womb, who had never walked. The same heard Paul speak: who steadfastly beholding him, and perceiving that he had faith to be healed, Said with a loud voice, Stand upright on thy feet. And he leaped and walked. And when the people saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voices, saying in the speech of Lycaonia, The gods have come down to us in the likeness of men. And they called Barnabas, Jupiter, and Paul, Mercurius, because he was the chief speaker. Then the priest of Jupiter, who was before their city, brought oxen and garlands to the gates, and would have done sacrifice with the people. Which, when the apostles Barnabas and Paul heard of, they rent their clothes, and ran in among the people, crying out, And saying, Sirs, why do ye these things? We also are men of like passions with you, and preach to you, that ye should turn from these vanities to the living God, who made heaven and earth, and the sea, and all things that are in them. Who in times past suffered all nations to walk in their own ways. Nevertheless he left not himself without witness, in that he did good, and gave us rain from heaven, and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness. And with these sayings they scarce restrained the people from doing sacrifice to them. And there came thither certain Jews from Antioch, and Iconium, who persuaded the people, and having stoned Paul, drew him out of the city, supposing him to be dead. But as the disciples stood around him, he rose, and came into the city: and the next day he departed with Barnabas to Derbe. And when they had preached the gospel to that city, and had taught many, they returned again to Lystra, and to Iconium, and to Antioch, Confirming the souls of the disciples, exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that we must through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God. And when they had ordained for them elders in every church, and had prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord, on whom they believed. And after they had passed throughout Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia. And when they had preached the word in Perga, they went down into Attalia: And thence sailed to Antioch, from whence they had been commended to the grace of God, for the work which they fulfilled. And when they had come, and had assembled the church, they rehearsed all that God had done with them, and that he had opened the door of faith to the Gentiles. And there they abode a long time with the disciples.

And certain men who came down from Judea, taught the brethren, and said, Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved. When therefore Paul and Barnabas had no small dissension and disputation with them, they determined that Paul and Barnabas, and certain others of them, should go to Jerusalem to the apostles and elders about this question. And being brought on their way by the church, they passed through Phenice, and Samaria, declaring the conversion of the Gentiles: and they caused great joy to all the brethren. And when they had come to Jerusalem, they were received by the church, and by the apostles and elders, and they declared all things that God had done with them. But there rose certain of the sect of the Pharisees, who believed, saying, That it was needful to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the law of Moses. And the apostles and elders came together to consider of this matter. And when there had been much disputing, Peter rose and said to them, Men, brethren, ye know that a good while ago, God made choice among us, that the Gentiles, by my mouth should hear the word of the gospel, and believe. And God, who knoweth the hearts, bore them witness, giving to them the Holy Spirit, even as he did to us: And put no difference between us and them, purifying their hearts by faith. Now therefore why tempt ye God, to put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear? But we believe, that through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, we shall be saved even as they. Then all the multitude kept silence, and gave audience to Barnabas and Paul, declaring what miracles and wonders God had wrought by them among the Gentiles. And after they held their peace, James answered, saying, Men, hearken to me. Simeon hath declared how God at the first visited the Gentiles to take from among them a people for his name. And to this agree the words of the prophets; as it is written, After this I will return, and will build again the tabernacle of David which is fallen down; and I will build again the ruins of it; and I will set it up: That the residue of men may seek after the Lord, and all the Gentiles, upon whom my name is called, saith the Lord, who doeth all these things. Known to God are all his works from the beginning 19 of the world. Wherefore my sentence is, that we trouble not 20 them, who from among the Gentiles are turned to God: But that we write to them that they abstain from pollutions of idols, and from lewdness, and from things strangled, and from blood.

21 For Moses of old time hath in every city them that preach him, 22 being read in the synagogues every sabbath. Then it pleased the apostles and elders, with the whole church, to send chosen men of their own company to Antioch, with Paul and Barnabas; namely, Judas surnamed Barsabas, and Silas, chief men 23 among the brethren: And they wrote letters by them after this manner; The apostles, and elders, and brethren, send greeting to the brethren who are of the Gentiles in Antioch, and Syria, 24 and Cilicia. Forasmuch as we have heard, that certain who went out from us, have troubled you with words, subverting your souls, saying, Ye must be circumcised, and keep the law; 25 to whom we gave no such commandment: It seemed good to us, being assembled with one accord, to send chosen men to 26 you, with our beloved Barnabas and Paul: Men that have hazarded their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.
27 We have sent therefore Judas and Silas, who will also tell you 28 the same things by mouth. For it seemed good to the Holy Spirit, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these 29 necessary things; That ye abstain from things offered to idols, and from blood, and from things strangled, and from lewdness: from which if ye keep yourselves, ye will do well. Fare ye well.
30 So when they were dismissed, they came to Antioch: and when they had convened the multitude, they delivered the epistle.
31 Which when they had read, they rejoiced for the consolation.
32 And Judas and Silas, being prophets also themselves, exhorted 33 the brethren with many words, and confirmed them. And after they had tarried there a time, they were dismissed in peace 34 from the brethren to the apostles. Notwithstanding, it pleased 35 Silas to abide there still. Paul also and Barnabas continued in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with 36 many others also. And some days after, Paul said to Barnabas, Let us go again and visit our brethren, in every city where we 37 have preached the word of the Lord, and see how they do. And Barnabas determined to take with them John, whose surname 38 was Mark. But Paul thought not good to take him with them, who departed from them from Pamphylia, and went not with them to the work. And the contention was so sharp between 39 them, that they departed, separating one from the other: and so Barnabas took Mark, and sailed to Cyprus. And Paul chose 40 Silas, and departed, being commended by the brethren to the grace of God. And he went through Syria and Cilicia, confirm- 41 ing the churches.

Then he came to Derbe and Lystra: and behold, a certain 16 disciple was there, named Timothy, the son of a certain woman who was a Jewess, and believed, but his father was a Greek.
Who was well reported of by the brethren that were at Lystra 2 and Iconium. Him would Paul have to go forth with him; and 3 took and circumcised him, because of the Jews who were in those quarters: for they all knew that his father was a Greek.
And as they went through the cities, they delivered to them the 4 decrees to keep that were ordained by the apostles and elders who were at Jerusalem. And so were the churches established 5 in the faith, and increased in number daily. Now when they 6 had gone throughout Phrygia, and the region of Galatia, and were forbidden by the Holy Spirit to preach the word in Asia; After they had come to Mysia, they essayed to go into Bithy- 7 nia: but the Spirit suffered them not. And they, passing by 8 Mysia, came down to Troas. And a vision appeared to Paul in 9 the night: There stood a man of Macedonia, and prayed him, saying, Come over into Macedonia, and help us. And after 10 he had seen the vision, immediately we endeavored to go into Macedonia, assuredly gathering, that the Lord had called us to preach the gospel to them. Therefore loosing from Troas, we 11 came with a straight course to Samothracia, and the next day to Neapolis; And from thence to Philippi, which is the chief 12 city of that part of Macedonia, and a colony: and we were in that city abiding certain days. And on the sabbath we went 13 out of the city by a river side, where prayer was wont to be made; and we sat down, and spoke to the women who resorted thither. And a certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, 14 of the city of Thyatira, who worshiped God, heard us: whose heart the Lord opened, that she attended to the things which were spoken by Paul. And when she was baptized, and her 15 household, she besought us, saying, If ye have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house, and abide there: And she constrained us. And it came to pass as we went to 16 prayer, a certain damsel possessed with a spirit of divination, met us, who brought her masters much gain by sooth-saying:

17 The same followed Paul and us, and cried, saying, These men are the servants of the most high God, who show to us the way

18 of salvation. And this she did many days. But Paul being grieved, turned and said to the spirit, I command thee in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her. And he came out the 19 same hour. And when her masters saw that the hope of their gains was gone, they caught Paul and Silas, and drew them

20 into the market-place to the rulers, And brought them to the magistrates, saying, These men, being Jews, do exceedingly

21 trouble our city, And teach customs which are not lawful for us to receive, neither to observe, being Romans. And the multitude rose together against them: and the magistrates rent

22 off their clothes, and commanded to beat them. And when they had laid many stripes upon them, they cast them into

23 prison, charging the jailer to keep them safely. Who, having received such a charge, thrust them into the inner prison, 24 and made their feet fast in the stocks. And at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and sang praises to God: and the prisoners

25 heard them. And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken: and immediately all the doors were opened, and every one's bands were

26 loosed. And the keeper of the prison awaking out of his sleep, and seeing the prison doors open, he drew out his sword, and would have killed himself, supposing that the prisoners had

27 fled. But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, Do thyself no harm: for we are all here. Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paul and 28 Silas; And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, 29 and thou shalt be saved, and thy house. And they spoke to him the word of the Lord, and to all that were in his house.

30 And he took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes; and was baptized, he and all his, without delay. And when he had brought them into his house, he set food before 31 them, and rejoiced, believing in God with all his house. And when it was day, the magistrates sent the sergeants, saying, 32 Let those men go. And the keeper of the prison told this saying to Paul, The magistrates have sent to let you go: now therefore depart, and go in peace. But Paul said to them, They have 37 beaten us openly uncondemned, being Romans, and have cast us into prison; and now do they thrust us out privately? no verily; but let them come themselves and bring us out. And 38 the sergeants told these words to the magistrates: and they feared when they heard that they were Romans. And they 39 came and besought them, and brought them out, and desired them to depart out of the city. And they went out of the prison, 40 and entered into the house of Lydia: and when they had seen the brethren, they comforted them, and departed.

Now when they had passed through Amphipolis, and Apol- 17 lonia, they came to Thessalonica, where was a synagogue of the Jews. And Paul, as his manner was, went in to them, and 2 on three sabbaths reasoned with them out of the scriptures, Opening and alledging, that it was needful that Christ should 3 suffer, and rise again from the dead; and that this Jesus, whom I preach to you, is Christ. And some of them believed, and 4 consorted with Paul and Silas: and of the devout Greeks a great multitude, and of the chief women not a few. But the 5 Jews who believed not, moved with envy, took to them certain vile fellows of the baser sort, and gathered a company, and set all the city in an uproar, and assaulted the house of Jason, and sought to bring them out to the people. And when they 6 found them not, they drew Jason and certain brethren to the rulers of the city, crying, These that have turned the world upside down, have come hither also; Whom Jason hath received: 7 and these all do contrary to the decrees of Cesar, saying, That there is another king, one Jesus. And they troubled the peo- 8 ple, and the rulers of the city, when they heard these things.
And when they had taken security of Jason and of the other, 9 they let them go. And the brethren immediately sent away 10 Paul and Silas by night to Berea: who coming thither, went into the synagogue of the Jews. These were more noble than 11 those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so. Therefore many of them believed; also of 12 honorable women who were Greeks, and of men not a few. But 13 when the Jews of Thessalonica had knowledge that the word of God was preached by Paul at Berea, they came thither also, and stirred up the people. And then immediately the brethren 14 sent away Paul, to go as it were to the sea: but Silas and Timothy abode there still. And they that conducted Paul brought him to Athens: and receiving a commandment to Silas and Timothy to come to him with all speed, they departed. Now, while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was stirred in him, when he saw the city wholly given to idolatry. Therefore he disputed in the synagogue with the Jews, and with the devout persons, and in the market daily with them that met with him. Then certain philosophers of the Epicureans, and of the Stoics, encountered him. And some said, What will this babbler say? some others, He seemeth to be a setter-forth of strange gods: because he preached to them Jesus, and the resurrection. And they took him, and brought him to Areopagus, saying, May we know what this new doctrine is, of which thou speakest? For thou bringest certain strange things to our ears; we would know therefore what these things mean. (For all the Athenians and strangers who were there, spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell, or to hear some new thing.) Then Paul stood in the midst of Mars-hill, and said, Ye men of Athens, I perceive that in all things ye are too superstitious. For as I passed by, and beheld your devotions, I found an altar with this inscription, TO THE UNKNOWN GOD. Whom therefore ye ignorantly worship, him declare I to you. God that made the world, and all things therein, seeing that he is Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands; Neither is worshiped with men's hands, as though he needed any thing, seeing he giveth to all life, and breath, and all things; And hath made of one blood all nations of men to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath determined the times before appointed, and the bounds of their habitation; That they should seek the Lord, if haply they might feel after him, and find him, though he is not far from every one of us: For in him we live, and move, and have our being; as certain also of your own poets have said, for we are also his offspring. Being then the offspring of God, we ought not to think that the Godhead is like to gold, or silver, or stone graven by art and man's device. And the times of this ignorance God winked at; but now commandeth all men every where to repent: Because he hath appointed a day, in which he will judge the world in righteousness, by that man whom he hath ordained: of which he hath given assurance to all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead. And when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked: and others said, We will hear thee again concerning this matter. So Paul departed from among them. But certain men adhered to him, and believed: among whom was Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

After these things, Paul departed from Athens, and came to Corinth; And found a certain Jew named Aquila, born in Pontus, lately come from Italy, with his wife Priscilla (because that Claudius had commanded all Jews to depart from Rome) and he came to them. And because he was of the same occupation, he abode with them, and wrought (for by their occupation they were tent-makers) And he reasoned in the synagogue every sabbath, and persuaded the Jews and the Greeks. And when Silas and Timothy had come from Macedonia, Paul was pressed in spirit, and testified to the Jews, that Jesus was Christ. And when they opposed themselves, and blasphemed, he shook his raiment, and said to them, Your blood be upon your own heads: I am clean: from henceforth I will go to the Gentiles. And he departed thence, and entered into the house of a certain man named Justus, one that worshiped God, whose house joined close to the synagogue. And Crispus the chief ruler of the synagogue believed on the Lord with all his house: and many of the Corinthians hearing, believed, and were baptized. Then the Lord spoke to Paul in the night by a vision, Be not afraid, but speak, and hold not thy peace: For I am with thee, and no man shall lay hands on thee, to hurt thee: for I have many people in this city. And he continued there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them. And when Gallio was the deputy of Achaia, the Jews made insurrection with one accord against Paul, and brought him to the judgment-seat, Saying, This man persuadeth men to worship God contrary to the law. And when Paul was now about to open his mouth, Gallio said to the Jews, If it were a matter of wrong, or hainous crime, O ye Jews, reason would that I should bear with you: But if it is a question of words and names, and of your law, look ye to it: for I will be no judge of such matters. And he drove them from the judgment-seat. Then all the Greeks took Sosthenes, the chief ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgment-seat. And Gallio 18 cared for none of those things. And Paul after this tarried there yet a good while, and took his leave of the brethren, and sailed thence into Syria, and with him Priscilla and Aquila; 19 having shorn his head in Cenchrea: for he had a vow. And he came to Ephesus, and left them there: but he himself en-20 tered into the synagogue, and reasoned with the Jews. When they desired him to tarry longer time with them, he consented 21 not: But bade them farewell, saying, I must by all means keep this feast that cometh in Jerusalem: but I will return to you, 22 if God will. And he sailed from Ephesus. And when he had landed at Cesarea, and gone up and saluted the church, he 23 went down to Antioch. And after he had spent some time there, he departed and went over all the country of Galatia and 24 Phrygia in order, strengthening all the disciples. And a certain Jew named Apollos, born at Alexandria, an eloquent man, 25 and mighty in the scriptures, came to Ephesus. This man was instructed in the way of the Lord: and being fervent in the spirit, he spoke and taught diligently the things of the Lord, 26 knowing only the baptism of John. And he began to speak boldly in the synagogue: Whom, when Aquila and Priscilla had heard, they took him to them, and expounded to him the way 27 of God more perfectly. And when he was disposed to pass into Achaia, the brethren wrote, exhorting the disciples to receive him: who, when he had come, helped them much who had be-28 lieved through grace. For he mightily convinced the Jews, and that publicly, showing by the scriptures, that Jesus was Christ.

19 And it came to pass, that while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul having passed through the upper region, came to Ephesus; and 2 finding certain disciples, He said to them, Have ye received the Holy Spirit since ye believed? And they said to him, We have not so much as heard whether there is any Holy Spirit.
3 And he said to them, Into what then were ye baptized? And 4 they said, Into John's baptism. Then said Paul, John verily baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying to the people, That they should believe on him who should come after him, 5 that is, on Christ Jesus. When they heard this, they were bap-6 tized into the name of the Lord Jesus. And when Paul had laid his hands upon them, the Holy Spirit came on them; and they 7 spoke in languages, and prophesied. And all the men were about twelve. And he went into the synagogue, and spoke 8 boldly for the space of three months, disputing and persuading the things concerning the kingdom of God. But when divers 9 were hardened, and believed not, but spoke evil of that way before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the disciples, disputing daily in the school of one Tyrannus. And 10 this continued for the space of two years; so that all they who dwelt in Asia heard the word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks. And God wrought special miracles by the hands of 11 Paul: So that from his body were brought to the sick, handkerchiefs, or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and the 12 evil spirits went out of them. Then certain of the vagabond 13 Jews, exorcists, took upon them to call over them who had evil spirits, the name of the Lord Jesus, saying, We adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preacheth. And there were seven sons of one 14 Sceva a Jew, and chief of the priests, who did so. And the evil 15 spirit answered and said, Jesus I know, and Paul I know; but who are ye? And the man in whom the evil spirit was, leaped 16 on them, and overcame them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded. And 17 this was known to all the Jews and Greeks also dwelling at Ephesus: and fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified. And many that believed came, and con- 18 fessed, and showed their deeds. Many also of them who used curious arts, brought their books together, and burned them 19 before all men; and they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver. So mightily grew the word 20 of God, and prevailed. After these things were ended, Paul 21 purposed in the spirit, when he had passed through Macedonia, and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem, saying, After I have been there, I must also see Rome. So he sent into Macedonia two 22 of them that ministered to him, Timothy and Erastus; but he himself stayed in Asia for a season. And the same time there 23 arose no small stir about that way. For a certain man named 24 Demetrius, a silver-smith, who made silver shrines for Diana, brought no small gain to the artificers; Whom he called to- 25 gether with the workmen of like occupation, and said, Sirs, ye know that by this craft we have our wealth: Moreover, ye see 26 and hear, that not alone at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul hath persuaded and turned away many people, 27 saying, that they are no gods which are made with hands. So that not only this our craft is in danger to be set at naught; but also that the temple of the great goddess Diana should be despised, and her magnificence should be destroyed, whom all 28 Asia, and the world worshipeth. And when they heard these sayings, they were full of wrath, and cried out, saying, Great 29 is Diana of the Ephesians. And the whole city was filled with confusion: and having caught Gaius and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, Paul's companions in travel, they rushed with one 30 accord into the theater. And when Paul would have entered 31 in to the people, the disciples suffered him not. And certain of the chief of Asia, who were his friends, sent to him, desiring him that he would not adventure himself into the theater.

32 Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was confused, and the greater part knew not why they 33 had come together. And they drew Alexander out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. And Alexander beckoned with the hand, and would have made his defense to the peo-34 ple. But when they knew that he was a Jew, all with one voice about the space of two hours cried out, Great is Diana of 35 the Ephesians. And when the town-clerk had appeased the people, he said, Ye men of Ephesus, what man is there that knoweth not that the city of the Ephesians is a worshiper of the great goddess Diana, and of the image which fell down 36 from Jupiter? Seeing then that these things cannot be con-37 tradicted, ye ought to be quiet, and to do nothing rashly. For ye have brought hither these men, who are neither robbers of 38 churches, nor yet blasphemers of your goddess. Wherefore, if Demetrius and the artificers who are with him, have a matter against any man, the law is open, and there are deputies: 39 let them implead one another. But if ye inquire any thing concerning other matters, it shall be determined in a lawful 40 assembly. For we are in danger to be called in question for this day's uproar, there being no cause by which we may give 41 an account of this concourse. And when he had thus spoken, he dismissed the assembly.

20 And after the uproar had ceased, Paul called to him the disciples, and embraced them, and departed to go into Macedonia.
2 And when he had gone over those parts, and had given them 3 much exhortation, he came into Greece, And there abode three months. And when the Jews laid wait for him, as he was about to sail into Syria, he purposed to return through Macedonia. And there accompanied him into Asia Sopater of Berea; and of the Thessalonians, Aristarchus and Secundus; and Gaius of Derbe, and Timothy; and of Asia, Tychicus, and Trophimus. These going before, tarried for us at Troas. And we sailed away from Philippi, after the days of unleavened bread, and came to them to Troas in five days; where we abode seven days. And upon the first day of the week, when the disciples came together to break bread, Paul preached to them (ready to depart on the morrow) and continued his speech until midnight. And there were many lights in the upper chamber, where they were assembled. And there sat in a window a certain young man named Eutychus, having fallen into a deep sleep: and as Paul was long preaching, he sunk down with sleep, and fell from the third loft, and was taken up dead. And Paul went down, and fell on him, and embracing him, said, Trouble not yourselves; for his life is in him. When he had come up again, and had broken bread, and eaten, and discoursed a long while, even till break of day, so he departed. And they brought the young man alive, and were not a little comforted. And we went before to a ship, and sailed to Assos, there intending to take in Paul: for so he had appointed, intending himself to go on foot. And when he met with us at Assos, we took him in, and came to Mitylene. And we sailed thence, and came the next day over against Chios; and the next day we arrived at Samos, and tarried at Trogyllium; and the next day we came to Miletus. For Paul had determined to sail by Ephesus, because he would not spend the time in Asia: for he hasted, if it were possible for him, to be at Jerusalem the day of Pentecost. And from Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called the elders of the church. And when they had come to him, he said to them, Ye know, from the first day that I came into Asia, after what manner I have been with you at all seasons, Serving the Lord with all humility of mind, and with many tears and temptations, which befell me by the lying in wait of the Jews: And how I kept back nothing that was profitable to you, but have shown you, and have taught you publicly, and from house to house, Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance towards God, and faith towards our Lord Jesus Christ. And now behold, I go bound in the spirit to Jerusalem, not knowing the things that shall befall me there: Save that the Holy Spirit testifieth in every city, saying, that bonds and afflictions abide me. But none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear to myself, so that I may finish my course with joy, and the ministry which I have received from the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God. And now behold, I know that ye all, among whom I have gone preaching the kingdom of God, will see my face no more. Wherefore I call you to witness this day, that I am pure from the blood of all men. For I have not shunned to declare to you all the counsel of God. Take heed therefore to yourselves, and to all the flock over which the Holy Spirit hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood. For I know this, that after my departure grievous wolves will enter in among you, not sparing the flock. Also from your own selves will men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them. Therefore watch, and remember, that by the space of three years I ceased not to warn every one night and day with tears. And now, brethren, I commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them who are sanctified. I have coveted no man's silver, or gold, or apparel. And ye yourselves know, that these hands have ministered to my necessities, and to them that were with me. I have shown you all things, that so laboring ye ought to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, that he said, It is more blessed to give than to receive. And when he had thus spoken, he kneeled down, and prayed with them all. And they all wept bitterly, and fell on Paul's neck, and kissed him, sorrowing most of all for the words which he spoke, that they should see his face no more. And they accompanied him to the ship.

21 And it came to pass, that after we were separated from them, and had lunched, we came with a straight course to Coos, and the day following to Rhodes, and from thence to Patara: And finding a ship sailing over to Phenicia, we went aboard, and set forth. Now when we had discovered Cyprus, we left it on the left hand, and sailed into Syria, and landed at Tyre: for there the ship was to unlade her burden. And finding disciples, we tarried there seven days: who said to Paul through the Spirit, that he should not go up to Jerusalem. And when 5 we had accomplished those days, we departed, and proceeded on our way; and they all conducted us with wives and children, till we were out of the city; and we kneeled down on the shore, and prayed. And when we had taken our leave one of another, 6 we took ship; and they returned home again. And when we 7 had finished our course from Tyre, we came to Ptolemais, and saluted the brethren, and abode with them one day. And the 8 next day we that were of Paul's company departed, and came to Cesarea; and we entered into the house of Philip the evangelist, who was one of the seven; and abode with him. And the 9 same man had four daughters, virgins, who prophesied. And 10 as we tarried there many days, there came down from Judea a certain prophet, named Agabus. And when he had come to us, 11 he took Paul's girdle, and bound his own hands and feet, and said, Thus saith the Holy Spirit, So will the Jews at Jerusalem bind the man that owneth this girdle, and will deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles. And when we heard these things, 12 both we, and they of that place, besought him not to go up to Jerusalem. Then Paul answered, What mean ye to weep, and 13 to break my heart? for I am ready not to be bound only, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus. And 14 when he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, The will of the Lord be done. And after those days we took up our furniture, and went up to Jerusalem. There went with us also 15 certain of the disciples of Cesarea, and brought with them one Mnason of Cyprus, an old disciple, with whom we should lodge.

And when we had come to Jerusalem, the brethren received us 17 gladly. And the day following Paul went in with us to James: and all the elders were present. And when he had saluted 18 them, he declared particularly what things God had wrought among the Gentiles by his ministry. And when they heard it, 20 they glorified the Lord, and said to him, Thou seest, brother, how many thousands of Jews there are who believe; and they are all zealous of the law: And they are informed concerning 21 thee, that thou teachest all the Jews who are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, saying, That they ought not to circum-cise their children, neither to walk after the customs. What 22 is it therefore? the multitude must needs come together: for 23 they will hear that thou art come. Do therefore this that we 24 say to thee: we have four men who have a vow on them; Take them, and purify thyself with them, and be at charges with them, that they may shave their heads: and all may know that those things of which they were informed concerning thee, are nothing; but that thou thyself also walkest orderly, and keep-25 est the law. As concerning the Gentiles who believe, we have written and concluded that they observe no such thing, save only that they keep themselves from things offered to idols, 26 and from blood, and from strangled, and from lewdness. Then Paul took the men, and the next day purifying himself with them, entered into the temple, to signify the accomplishment of the days of purification, until an offering should be offered 27 for every one of them. And when the seven days were almost ended, the Jews who were from Asia, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the people, and laid hands on him, 28 Crying out, Men of Israel, help. This is the man that teacheth all men every where against the people, and the law, and this place: and further, hath brought Greeks also into the temple; 29 and hath polluted this holy place. (For they had seen before with him in the city, Trophimus, an Ephesian, whom they sup-30 posed that Paul had brought into the temple.) And all the city was moved, and the people ran together: and they took Paul and drew him out of the temple. And forthwith the doors were 31 shut. And as they went about to kill him, tidings came to the chief captain of the band, that all Jerusalem was in an uproar.

32 Who immediately took soldiers and centurions, and ran down to them. And when they saw the chief captain and the soldiers, 33 they left beating Paul. Then the chief captain came near and took him, and commanded him to be bound with two chains: 34 and inquired who he was, and what he had done. And some cried one thing, some another, among the multitude: and when he could not know the certainty for the tumult, he commanded 35 him to be carried into the castle. And when he came upon the stairs, so it was that he was borne by the soldiers, for the vio-36 lence of the people. For the multitude of the people followed, 37 crying, Away with him. And as Paul was to be led into the castle, he said to the chief captain, May I speak to thee? Who 38 said, Canst thou speak Greek? Art not thou that Egyptian, who before these days madest an uproar, and leddest out into the wilderness four thousand men that were murderers? But Paul said, I am a man who am a Jew of Tarsus, a city of Cilicia, a citizen of no mean city: and I beseech thee suffer me to speak to the people. And when he had given him license, Paul stood on the stairs, and beckoned with the hand to the people. And when there was made entire silence, he spoke to them in the Hebrew language, saying,

Men, brethren, and fathers, hear ye my defense which I 22 make now to you. (And when they heard that he spoke to them in the Hebrew language, they kept the more silence: and he saith,) I am verily a man who am a Jew, born in Tarsus, a city in Cilicia, yet brought up in this city at the feet of Gamaliel, and taught according to the perfect manner of the law of the fathers, being zealous towards God, as ye all are this day. And I persecuted this way even to death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women. As also the high priest doth bear me testimony, and all the estate of the elders; from whom also I received letters to the brethren, and went to Damascus, to bring them who were there bound to Jerusalem, to be punished. And it came to pass, that as I was passing on my journey, and had come nigh to Damascus about noon, suddenly there shone from heaven a great light around me. And I fell to the ground, and heard a voice saying to me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? And I answered, Who art thou, Lord?
And he said to me, I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom thou persecutest. And they that were with me saw indeed the light, and were afraid; but they heard not the voice of him that spoke to me. And I said, What shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said to me, Arise, and go into Damascus, and there it shall be told thee concerning all things which are appointed for thee to do. And when I could not see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of them that were with me, I came into Damascus. And one Ananias, a devout man according to the law, having a good report of all the Jews who dwelt there, Came to me, and stood, and said to me, Brother Saul, receive thy sight. And the same hour I looked up upon him. And he said, The God of our fathers hath chosen thee, that thou shouldst know his will, and see that Just One, and shouldst hear the voice of his mouth.
For thou shalt be his witness to all men of what thou hast seen and heard. And now why tarriest thou? arise, and be bap- 16

tized, and wash away thy sins, calling on the name of the Lord.

17 And it came to pass, that when I had come again to Jerusalem, 18 even while I prayed in the temple, I was in a trance; And saw him saying to me, Make haste, and depart quickly from Jerusalem; for they will not receive thy testimony concerning 19 me. And I said, Lord, they know that I imprisoned, and beat 20 in every synagogue them that believed on thee: And when the blood of thy martyr Stephen was shed, I also was standing by, and consenting to his death, and kept the raiment of them that 21 slew him. And he said to me, Depart: for I will send thee far 22 hence to the Gentiles. And they gave him audience to this word, and then lifted up their voices, and said, Away with such 23 a man from the earth: for it is not fit that he should live. And as they cried out, and cast off their clothes, and threw dust into 24 the air, The chief captain commanded him to be brought into the castle, and bade that he should be examined by scourging; that he might know for what cause they cried so against him.
25 And as they bound him with thongs, Paul said to the centurion that stood by, Is it lawful for you to scourge a man that is a Ro-26 man, and uncondemned? When the centurion heard that, he went and told the chief captain, saying, Take heed what thou 27 doest; for this man is a Roman. Then the chief captain came, 28 and said to him, Tell me, art thou a Roman? He said, Yes. And the chief captain answered, With a great sum I obtained this 29 freedom. And Paul said, But I was free born. Then forthwith they departed from him who were about to examine him: and the chief captain also was afraid, after he knew that he was a 30 Roman, and because he had bound him. On the morrow, because he would have known the certainty why he was accused by the Jews, he loosed him from his bands, and commanded the chief priests and all their council to appear, and brought Paul down, and set him before them.

23 And Paul, earnestly beholding the council, said, Men, brethren, I have lived in all good conscience before God until this day.
2 And the high priest Ananias commanded them that stood by 3 him, to strike him on the mouth. Then said Paul to him, God shall smite thee, thou whited wall: for sittest thou to judge me according to the law, and commandest me to be smitten con-4 trary to the law? And they that stood by, said, Revilest thou 5 God's high priest? Then said Paul, I knew not, brethren, that he is the high priest: for it is written, Thou shalt not speak evil of the ruler of thy people. But when Paul perceived that 6 the one part were Sadducees, and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the council, Men, brethren, I am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee: concerning the hope and resurrection of the dead I am called in question. And when he had so said, there arose 7 a dissension between the Pharisees and the Sadducees: and the multitude was divided. For the Sadducees say that there 8 is no resurrection, neither angel, nor spirit: but the Pharisees confess both. And there arose a great cry: and the scribes 9 that were of the Pharisees' part arose, and contended, saying, We find no evil in this man: but if a spirit or an angel hath spoken to him, let us not fight against God. And when there 10 arose a great dissension, the chief captain, fearing lest Paul would have been pulled in pieces by them, commanded the soldiers to go down, and to take him by force from among them, and to bring him into the castle. And the night following the 11 Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good cheer, Paul: for as thou hast testified concerning me in Jerusalem, so must thou bear testimony also at Rome. And when it was day, certain of the 12 Jews banded together, and bound themselves under a curse, saying, that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul. And they were more than forty who had made 13 this conspiracy. And they came to the chief priests and elders, 14 and said, We have bound ourselves under a great curse, that we will eat nothing until we have slain Paul. Now therefore 15 ye with the council signify to the chief captain, that he bring him down to you to-morrow, as though ye would inquire something more perfectly concerning him: and we, before he shall come near, are ready to kill him. And when the son of Paul's 16 sister heard of their lying in wait, he went and entered into the castle, and told Paul. Then Paul called one of the centurions 17 to him, and said, Bring this young man to the chief captain: for he hath a certain thing to tell him. So he took him, and 18 brought him to the chief captain, and said, Paul the prisoner called me to him, and prayed me to bring this young man to thee, who hath something to say to thee. Then the chief cap- 19 tain took him by the hand, and went with him aside privately, and asked him, What is that thou hast to tell me? And he 20 said, The Jews have agreed to desire thee, that thou wouldst bring down Paul to-morrow into the council, as though they 21 would inquire somewhat concerning him more perfectly. But do not thou yield to them: for there are of them who lie in wait for him more than forty men, who have bound themselves with an oath, that they will neither eat nor drink till they have killed him: and now they are ready, looking for a promise from 22 thee. So the chief captain then let the young man depart, and charged him, See thou tell no man that thou hast shown these 23 things to me. And he called to him two centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred soldiers to go to Cesarea, and seventy horsemen, and spearmen two hundred, at the third hour of the 24 night; And provide for them beasts, that they may set Paul on, 25 and bring him safe to Felix the governor. And he wrote a let-26 ter after this manner: Claudius Lysias, to the most excellent 27 governor Felix, sendeth greeting. This man was taken by the Jews, and would have been killed by them: then I came with a body of soldiers, and rescued him, having understood that he 28 was a Roman. And when I would have known the cause for which they accused him, I brought him forth into their council: 29 Whom I perceived to be accused of questions of their law, but to have nothing laid to his charge worthy of death, or of bonds.

30 And when it was told to me that the Jews laid wait for the man, I sent forthwith to thee, and gave commandment to his accusers also, to say before thee what they had against him.
31 Farewell. Then the soldiers, as it was commanded them, took 32 Paul, and brought him by night to Antipatris. On the morrow they left the horsemen to go with him, and returned to the cas-33 tle: Who, when they came to Cesarea, and delivered the epis-34 tle to the governor, presented Paul also before him. And when the governor had read the letter, he asked of what province he 35 was. And when he understood that he was of Cilicia, I will hear thee, said he, when thy accusers also have come. And he commanded him to be kept in Herod's judgment-hall.

24 And after five days, Ananias the high priest descended with the elders, and with a certain orator named Tertullus, who in-2 formed the governor against Paul. And when he was called forth, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, Seeing that by thee we enjoy great quietness, and that very worthy deeds 3 are done to this nation by thy providence, We accept it always, and in all places, most noble Felix, with all thankfulness.

Notwithstanding, that I may not be further tedious to thee, I 4 pray thee, that thou wouldst of thy clemency hear us a few words. For we have found this a pestilent man, and a mover of 5 sedition among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes: Who also hath gone about 6 to profane the temple: whom we took, and would have judged according to our law. But the chief captain Lysias came and 7 with great violence took him out of our hands, Commanding 8 his accusers to come to thee: by examining whom, thou thyself mayest take knowledge of all these things of which we accuse him. And the Jews also assented, saying, that these things 9 were so. Then Paul, after the governor had beckoned to him 10 to speak, answered, Forasmuch as I know that thou hast been for many years a judge to this nation, I do the more cheerfully answer for myself: That thou mayest understand, that there 11 are yet but twelve days since I went up to Jerusalem to worship. And they neither found me in the temple disputing with 12 any man, neither exciting the people to sedition, neither in the synagogues, nor in the city: Neither can they prove the things 13 of which they now accuse me. But this I confess to thee, that 14 after the way which they call heresy, so I worship the God of my fathers, believing all things which are written in the law and in the prophets: And have hope towards God, which they them- 15 selves also allow, that there will be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust. And in this I exercise myself, to 16 have always a conscience void of offense towards God, and to- wards men. Now after many years, I came to bring alms to 17 my nation, and offerings. Upon which certain Jews from Asia 18 found me purified in the temple, neither with multitude, nor with tumult. Who ought to have been here before thee, and 19 object if they had aught against me. Or else let these same 20 here say, if they have found any evil-doing in me, while I stood before the council, Except it is for this one voice, that I cried, 21 standing among them, Concerning the resurrection of the dead I am called in question by you this day. And when Felix heard 22 these things, having more perfect knowledge of that way, he deferred them, and said, When Lysias the chief captain shall come down, I will know the uttermost of your matter. And 23 he commanded a centurion to keep Paul, and to let him have liberty, and that he should forbid none of his acquaintance to 24 minister, or come to him. And after certain days, when Felix came with his wife Drusilla, who was a Jewess, he sent 25 for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Christ. And as he reasoned of righteousness, temperance, and judgment to come, Felix trembled, and answered, depart for this time; when 26 I have a convenient season, I will call for thee. He hoped also that money would have been given him by Paul, that he might loose him: wherefore he sent for him the oftener, and communed with him. But after two years Porcius Festus came as successor to Felix: and Felix willing to show the Jews a pleasure, left Paul bound.

25 Now when Festus had come into the province, after three 2 days he ascended from Cesarea to Jerusalem. Then the high priest and the chief of the Jews informed him against Paul, 3 and besought him, And desired favor against him, that he would send for him to Jerusalem, laying wait in the way to kill 4 him. But Festus answered, that Paul should be kept at Cesarea, and that he himself would depart shortly thither. Let them therefore, said he, who among you are able, go down with me, and accuse this man, if there is any wickedness in 6 him. And when he had tarried among them more than ten days, he went down to Cesarea; and the next day sitting on the 7 judgment-seat, commanded Paul to be brought. And when he had come, the Jews who came down from Jerusalem stood around, and laid many and grievous complaints against Paul, 8 which they could not prove; While he answered for himself, Neither against the law of the Jews, neither against the temple, nor yet against Cesar have I committed any offense. But Festus, willing to do the Jews a pleasure, answered Paul, and said, Wilt thou go to Jerusalem, and there be judged concerning these things before me? Then said Paul, I stand at Cesar's tribunal, where I ought to be judged: to the Jews have I 11 done no wrong, as thou very well knowest. For if I am an offender, or have committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there is none of these things of which these accuse me, no man may deliver me to them. I appeal to Cesar. Then Festus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, Hast thou appealed to Cesar? to Cesar thou shalt 13 go. And after certain days, king Agrippa and Bernice came to Cesarea, to salute Festus. And when they had been there many days, Festus declared Paul's cause to the king, saying, 15 There is a certain man left in bonds by Felix: About whom, 15 when I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews informed me, desiring to have judgment against him.

To whom I answered, It is not the manner of the Romans to 16 deliver any man to die, before he who is accused hath the accusers face to face, and hath license to answer for himself concerning the crime laid against him. Therefore, when they 17 had come hither, without any delay on the morrow I sat on the judgment-seat, and commanded the man to be brought forth; Against whom, when the accusers stood up, they brought no 18 accusation of such things as I supposed: But had certain ques- 19 tions against him of their own superstition, and of one Jesus who was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive. And because I 20 doubted of such manner of questions, I asked him whether he would go to Jerusalem, and there be judged concerning these matters. But when Paul had appealed to be reserved to the 21 hearing of Augustus, I commanded him to be kept till I might send him to Cesar. Then Agrippa said to Festus, I would also 22 hear the man myself. To-morrow, said he, thou shalt hear him.
And on the morrow, when Agrippa had come, and Bernice, with 23 great pomp, and had entered into the place of hearing, with the chief captains and principal men of the city, at the command of Festus Paul was brought forth. And Festus said, 24 King Agrippa, and all men who are here present with us, ye see this man about whom all the multitude of the Jews have dealt with me, both at Jerusalem, and also here, crying that he ought not to live any longer. But when I found that he had 25 committed nothing worthy of death, and that he himself hath appealed to Augustus, I have determined to send him. Of 26 whom I have no certain thing to write to my lord. Wherefore I have brought him forth before you, and specially before thee, O king Agrippa, that after examination had, I may have somewhat to write. For it seemeth to me unreasonable to send a 27 prisoner, and not also to signify the crimes laid against him.

Then Agrippa said to Paul, Thou art permitted to speak for 26 thyself. Then Paul stretched forth the hand, and answered for himself: I think myself happy, king Agrippa, because I 2 shall answer for myself this day before thee, concerning all the things of which I am accused by the Jews: Especially, be- 3 cause I know thee to be expert in all customs and questions which are among the Jews: wherefore I beseech thee to hear 4 me patiently. My manner of life from my youth, which was at the first among my own nation at Jerusalem, know all the 5 Jews, Who knew me from the beginning, (if they would testify) that after the strictest sect of our religion, I lived a Pharisee. And now I stand, and am judged for the hope of the 6 promise made by God to our fathers: To which promise our twelve tribes, assiduously serving God day and night, hope to come. For which hope's sake, king Agrippa, I am accused by the 8 Jews. Why should it be thought a thing incredible with you, that God should raise the dead? I verily thought with myself, that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jesus 10 of Nazareth. Which thing I also did in Jerusalem: and many of the saints did I shut up in prison, having received authority from the chief priests; and when they were put to death, 11 I gave my voice against them. And I punished them often in every synagogue, and compelled them to blaspheme; and being exceedingly enraged against them, I persecuted them even 12 to foreign cities. Upon which as I went to Damascus, with authority and commission from the chief priests, At mid-day, 13 O king, I saw in the way a light from heaven, surpassing the brightness of the sun, shining around me, and them who journeyed with me. And when we had all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking to me, and saying in the Hebrew language, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? It is hard for 15 thee to kick against the goads. And I said, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest. But rise, and stand upon thy feet: for I have appeared to thee for this purpose, to make thee a minister and a witness both of the things which thou hast seen, and of the things in which I will 17 appear to thee; Delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, to whom now I send thee, To open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them who are sanctified by faith that is in me.

19 Upon which O king Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision. But showed first to them of Damascus, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the region of Judea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, and do works meet for repentance. For these causes the Jews caught 21 me in the temple, and went about to kill me. Having therefore 22 obtained help from God, I continue to this day, testifying both to small and great, saying no other things than those which the prophets and Moses did say should come: That Christ should 23 suffer, and that he should be the first that should rise from the dead, and should show light to the people, and to the Gentiles.

And as he was thus speaking for himself, Festus said with a 24 loud voice, Paul, thou art beside thyself; much learning doth make thee insane. But he said, I am not insane, most noble 25 Festus; but speak forth the words of truth and soberness. For 26 the king knoweth of these things, before whom also I speak freely. For I am persuaded that none of these things are hidden from him; for this thing was not done in a corner. King 27 Agrippa, believest thou the prophets? I know that thou believest. Then Agrippa said to Paul, Almost thou persuadest 28 me to be a Christian. And Paul said, I would to God, that not 29 only thou, but also all that hear me this day, were both almost, and altogether such as I am, except these bonds. And when he 30 had thus spoken, the king rose, and the governor, and Bernice, and they that sat with them: And when they had gone aside, 31 they talked between themselves, saying, This man doeth nothing worthy of death, or of bonds. Then said Agrippa to Festus, 32 This man might have been set at liberty, if he had not appealed to Cesar.

And when it was determined that we should sail into Italy, 27 they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners to one named Julius, a centurion of Augustus' band. And entering into a 2 ship of Adramyttium, we lunched, meaning to sail by the coasts of Asia, one Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica, being with us. And the next day we touched at Sidon. And 3 Julius courteously treated Paul, and gave him liberty to go to his friends to refresh himself. And when we had lunched from 4 thence, we sailed under Cyprus, because the winds were contrary. And when we had sailed over the sea of Cilicia and 5 Pamphylia, we came to Mira, a city of Lycia. And there the 6 centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing into Italy; and he put us therein. And when we had sailed slowly many days, 7 and scarce had come over against Cnidus, the wind not suffering us, we sailed under Crete, over against Salmone: And 8 hardly passing it, came to a place which is called, The fair 9 havens; nigh to which was the city of Lasea. Now when much time was spent, and when sailing was now dangerous, because 10 the fast was now already past, Paul admonished them. And said to them, Sirs, I perceive that this voyage will be with hurt and much damage, not only of the lading and ship, but also 11 of our lives. Nevertheless, the centurion believed the master and the owner of the ship more than the things which were spo-12 ken by Paul. And because the haven was not commodious to winter in, the greater part advised to depart thence also, if by any means they might attain to Phenice, and there to winter; which is a haven of Crete, and lieth towards the south-west 13 and north-west. And when the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, loosing thence, 14 they sailed close by Crete. But not long after there arose against it a tempestuous wind, called Euroclydon. And when the ship was caught, and could not bear up into the wind, we 15 let her drive. And running under a certain isle which is called 16 Clauda, we had much work to come by the boat: Which when they had taken up, they used helps, undergirding the ship; and fearing lest they should fall into the quicksands, struck 18 sail, and so were driven. And we being exceedingly tossed 19 with a tempest, the next day they lightened the ship; And the third day we cast out with our own hands the tackling of the 20 ship. And when neither sun nor stars in many days appeared, and no small tempest lay on us, all hope that we should be 21 saved was then taken away. But after long abstinence, Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and said, Sirs, ye should have hearkened to me, and not have loosed from Crete, and to have 22 gained this harm and loss. And now I exhort you to be of good cheer: for there shall be no loss of life among you, but of the 23 ship. For there stood by me this night the angel of God, whose 24 I am, and whom I serve, Saying, Fear not, Paul; thou must be brought before Cesar: and lo, God hath given thee all them 25 that sail with thee. Wherefore, sirs, be of good cheer: for I 26 believe God, that it will be even as it was told to me. But we 27 must be cast upon a certain isle. When the fourteenth night was come, as we were driven up and down in Adria, about mid-28 night the shipmen suspected that they drew near to some country: And sounded, and found it twenty fathoms: and when they had gone a little further, they sounded again, and found it fifteen fathoms. Then fearing lest we should fall upon rocks, 29 they cast four anchors out of the stern, and wished for the day.

And as the shipmen were about to flee out of the ship, when 30 they had let down the boat into the sea, under color as though they would cast anchors out of the foreship, Paul said to the 31 centurion, and to the soldiers, Except these abide in the ship, ye cannot be saved. Then the soldiers cut off the ropes of 32 the boat, and let her fall off. And while the day was coming 33 on, Paul besought them all to take food, saying, This day is the fourteenth day that ye have tarried, and continued fast- 34 ing, having taken nothing. Wherefore I pray you to take some food; for this is for your health: for there shall not a hair fall 35 from the head of any of you. And when he had thus spoken, he took bread, and gave thanks to God in presence of them all; and when he had broken it, he began to eat. Then they were 36 all of good cheer, and they also took food. And we were in all 37 in the ship two hundred and seventy six souls. And when they 38 had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, and cast the wheat into the sea. And when it was day, they knew not the land: but 39 they discovered a certain creek with a shore, into which they purposed, if it were possible, to thrust in the ship. And when 40 they had taken up the anchors, they committed themselves to the sea, and loosed the rudder bands, and hoisted the mainsail to the wind, and made towards the shore. And falling into a 41 place where two seas met, they ran the ship aground; and the forepart stuck fast, and remained immovable, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waves. And the sol- 42 diers' counsel was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out, and escape. But the centurion, willing to save Paul, 43 kept them from their purpose, and commanded that they who could swim, should cast themselves first into the sea, and get to land: And the rest, some on boards, and some on broken 44 pieces of the ship: And so it came to pass, that they all escaped safe to land.

And when they had escaped, then they knew that the isle 28 was called Melita. And the barbarous people showed us no 2 little kindness: for they kindled a fire, and received us every one, because of the present rain, and because of the cold. And 3 when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks, and laid them on the fire, there came a viper out of the heat, and fastened on 4 his hand. And when the barbarians saw the animal hang on his hand, they said among themselves, No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he hath escaped the sea, yet 5 vengeance suffereth not to live. And he shook off the animal 6 into the fire, and felt no harm. Yet they looked when he would have swelled, or fallen down dead suddenly: but after they had looked a great while, and saw no harm come to him, they 7 changed their minds, and said that he was a god. In the same quarters were possessions of the chief man of the isle, whose name was Publius; who received us, and lodged us three days 8 courteously. And it came to pass that the father of Publius lay sick with a fever, and a bloody-flux: to whom Paul entered in, 9 and prayed, and laid his hands on him, and healed him. So when this was done, others also who had diseases in the isle, 10 came, and were healed: Who also honored us with many honors; and when we departed, they laded us with such things as 11 were necessary. And after three months we departed in a ship of Alexandria, which had wintered in the isle, whose sign was 12 Castor and Pollux. And landing at Syracuse, we tarried there 13 three days. And from thence we made a circuit, and came to Rhegium: and after one day the south wind blew, and we 14 came the next day to Puteoli: Where we found brethren, and were desired to tarry with them seven days: and so we went to-15 wards Rome. And from thence when the brethren heard of us, they came to meet us as far as Appii-forum, and the Three taverns: whom when Paul saw, he thanked God, and took courage.

16 And when we came to Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard: but Paul was suffered to 17 dwell by himself, with a soldier that kept him. And it came to pass, that after three days, Paul called together the chief of the Jews. And when they were assembled, he said to them, Men, brethren, though I have committed nothing against the people, or customs of our fathers, yet I was delivered prisoner from 18 Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans. Who when they had examined me, would have let me go, because there was no 19 cause of death in me. But when the Jews spoke against it, I was constrained to appeal to Cesar; not that I had aught to 20 accuse my nation of. For this cause therefore have I called for you, to see you, and to speak with you: because that for the hope of Israel I am bound with this chain. And they said to 21 him, We have neither received letters from Judea concerning thee, neither have any of the brethren that came shown or spoken any harm of thee. But we desire to hear from thee, what 22 thou thinkest: for as concerning this sect, we know that every where it is spoken against. And when they had appointed 23 him a day, there came many to him into his lodging; to whom he expounded and testified the kingdom of God, persuading them concerning Jesus, both out of the law of Moses, and out of the prophets, from morning till evening. And some believed 24 the things which were spoken, and some believed not. And 25 when they agreed not among themselves, they departed, after Paul had spoken one word, Well spoke the Holy Spirit by Isaiah the prophet to our fathers, Saying, Go to this people, and say, 26 Hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and not perceive. For the heart of this people is 27 become gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes have they closed; lest they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them. Be it known therefore 28 to you, that the salvation of God is sent to the Gentiles, and they will hear it. And when he had said these words, the 29 Jews departed, and had great reasoning among themselves.

And Paul dwelt two whole years in his own hired house, and 30 received all that came in to him, Preaching the kingdom of 31 God, and teaching those things which concern the Lord Jesus Christ, with all confidence, no man forbidding him.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE ROMANS.

1 Paul, a servant of Jesus Christ, called to be an apos-2 tle, separated to the gospel of God, (Which he had 3 promised before by his prophets in the holy scriptures) 4 Concerning his Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who was 5 born of the seed of David according to the flesh. And declared 6 to be the Son of God, with power, according to the spirit of ho-7 liness, by the resurrection from the dead: By whom we have 8 received grace and apostleship for obedience to the faith among 9 all nations for his name: Among whom are ye also the called 10 of Jesus Christ: To all that are in Rome, beloved of God, called 11 to be saints: Grace to you, and peace from God our Father, and 12 the Lord Jesus Christ. First, I thank my God through Jesus 13 Christ for you all, that your faith is spoken of throughout the 14 whole world. For God is my witness, whom I serve with my 15 spirit in the gospel of his Son, that without ceasing I make 16 mention of you always in my prayers, Making request (if by 17 any means now at length I may have a prosperous journey by 18 the will of God) to come to you. For I long to see you, that I 19 may impart to you some spiritual gift, to the end ye may be established; That is, that I may be comforted together with you, by the mutual faith both of you and me. Now I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that I have often purposed to come to you (but have been hitherto hindered) that I might have some fruit among you also, even as among other Gentiles. I am debtor both to the Greeks, and to the barbarians, both to the wise, and to the unwise. So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the gospel to you that are at Rome also. For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God to salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek. For in this is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, The just shall live by faith. For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness, and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness. Because that which may be known of God, is manifest in them; for God hath shown it to them. For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse: Because that when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful, but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened. Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools: And changed the glory of the incorruptible God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and four-footed beasts, and creeping animals. Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleanness, through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonor their own bodies between themselves: Who changed the truth of God into a lie, and worshiped and served the creature more than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen. For this cause God gave them up to vile affections. For even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature: And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one towards another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompense of their error which was meet. And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not convenient; Being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, debate, deceit, malignity; whisperers, Backbiters, haters of God, spiteful, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents, Without understanding, covenant-breakers, without natural affection, implacable, unmerciful: Who, knowing the judgment of God, that they who commit such things are worthy of death; not only do the same, but have pleasure in them that do them.

Therefore thou art inexorable, O man, whoever thou art, 2 that judgest: for wherein thou judgest another, thou condemnest thyself; for thou that judgest, doest the same things. But we are sure that the judgment of God is according to truth, against them who commit such things. And thinkest thou this, O man, that judgest them who do such things, and doest the same, that thou shalt escape the judgment of God? Or despisest thou the riches of his goodness, and forbearance, and long-suffering; not knowing that the goodness of God leadeth thee 5 to repentance? But after thy hardness and impenitent heart, treasurest up to thyself wrath against the day of wrath, and 6 revelation of the righteous judgment of God; Who will render 7 to every man according to his deeds: To them who by patient continuance in well-doing, seek for glory, and honor, and im-8 mortality; eternal life: But to them that are contentious, and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness; indignation 9 and wrath: Tribulation and anguish upon every soul of man 10 that doeth evil, of the Jew first, and also of the Gentile; But glory, honor, and peace, to every man that worketh good, to the 11 Jew first, and also to the Gentile; For there is no respect of 12 persons with God. For as many as have sinned without law, shall also perish without law: and as many as have sinned in 13 the law, shall be judged by the law, (For not the hearers of the law are just before God, but the doers of the law shall be 14 justified. For when the Gentiles, who have not the law, do by nature the things contained in the law, these having not 15 the law, are a law to themselves. Who show the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience also bearing testimony, and their thoughts the mean while accusing, or else 16 excusing one another) In the day when God shall judge the 17 secrets of men by Jesus Christ, according to my gospel. Behold, thou art called a Jew, and retest in the law, and makest 18 thy boast of God, And knowest his will, and approvest the things that are more excellent, being instructed out of the law, 19 And art confident that thou thyself art a guide of the blind, a 20 light of them who are in darkness, An instructor of the foolish, a teacher of babes, who hast the form of knowledge, and 21 of the truth in the law: Thou therefore who teachest another, teachest thou not thyself? thou that preachest a man should 22 not steal, dost thou steal? Thou that sayest a man should not commit adultery, dost thou commit adultery? thou that abhor-23 rest idols, dost thou commit sacrilege? Thou that makest thy boast of the law, through breaking the law dishonorest thou 24 God? For the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles, 25 through you, as it is written. For circumcision verily profiteth, if thou keepest the law; but if thou art a breaker of the 26 law, thy circumcision is made uncircumcision. Therefore, if the uncircumcision keepeth the righteousness of the law, shall not his uncircumcision be counted for circumcision? And shall 27 not uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfilleth the law, judge thee, who by the letter and circumcision dost transgress the law? For he is not a Jew, who is one outwardly; neither is 28 that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh: But he is a 29 Jew who is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not from men, but from God.

What advantage then hath the Jew? or what profit is there 3 of circumcision? Much every way: chiefly, because that to 2 them were committed the oracles of God. For what if some 3 did not believe? will their unbelief make the faith of God without effect? By no means: verily let God be true, but every 4 man a liar; as it is written, That thou mayest be justified in thy sayings, and mayest overcome when thou art judged. But 5 if our unrighteousness commendeth the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unrighteous who taketh vengeance?
 (I speak as a man.) By no means: for then how shall God 6 judge the world? For if the truth of God hath more abounded 7 through my lie to his glory; why yet am I also judged as a sinner? And not rather (as we are slanderously reported, and as 8 some affirm that we say) Let us do evil, that good may come? whose damnation is just. What then? are we better than 9 they? No, in no wise: for we have before proved both Jews and Gentiles, that they are all under sin; As it is written, There 10 is none righteous, no, not one: There is none that under-standeth, there is none that seeketh God. They are all gone 12 out of the way, they are together become unprofitable: there is none that doeth good, no, not one. Their throat is an open 13 sepulchre; with their tongues they have used deceit; the poison of asps is under their lips: Whose mouth is full of cursing and 14 bitterness. Their feet are swift to shed blood. Destruction 15, 16 and misery are in their ways: And the way of peace have they not known. There is no fear of God before their eyes. Now 17 we know that whatever things the law saith, it saith to them 18, 19 who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God. Therefore by the 20 deeds of the law, there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin. But now the righteousness 21 of God without the law is manifested, being testified by the 22 law and the prophets; Even the righteousness of God, which 23 is by faith of Jesus Christ to all, and upon all them that be-24 lieve; for there is no difference: For all have sinned, and come 25 short of the glory of God; Being justified freely by his grace, 26 through the redemption that is in Jesus Christ: Whom God 27 hath set forth to be a propitiation, through faith in his blood, 28 to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are 29 past, through the forbearance of God; To declare, I say, at this 30 time his righteousness: that he may be just, and the justifier 31 of him who believeth in Jesus. Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? of works? No; but by the law of faith.

Therefore we conclude, that a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law. Is he the God of the Jews only? is he not also of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also: Seeing it is one God who will justify the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith. Do we then make void the law through faith? By no means: but we establish the law.

4 What shall we then say that Abraham our father, as per-2 taining to the flesh, hath found? For if Abraham were justified 3 by works, he hath whereof to glory, but not before God. For 4 what saith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was 5 counted to him for righteousness. Now to him that worketh, is 6 the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt. But to him that 7 worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, 8 his faith is counted for righteousness. Even as David also 9 describeth the blessedness of the man to whom God imputeth 10 righteousness without works, Saying, Blessed are they whose 11 iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered. Blessed 12 is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin. Cometh this blessedness then upon the circumcision only, or upon the uncircumcision also? For we say that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousness. How then was it reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision. And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith, which he had yet being uncircumcised: that he might be the father of all them that believe, though they are not circumcised, that righteousness might be imputed to them also; And the father of circumcision to them who are not of the circumcision only, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham which he had being yet uncircumcised. For the promise that he should be the heir of the world was not to Abraham, or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith. For if they who are of the law are heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of no effect. Because the law worketh wrath: for where no law is, there is no transgression. Therefore it is of faith, that it might be by grace; to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed, not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all; (As it is written, I have made thee a father of many nations) before him whom he believed, even God, who reviveth the dead, and calleth those things which are not, as though they were. Who against hope believed with hope, that he should become the father of many nations; according to that which was spoken, So shall thy seed be. And being not weak in faith, he considered not his own body now dead, when he was about a hundred years old, neither yet the deadness of Sarah's womb. He staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God; And being fully persuaded, that what he had promised, he was able also to perform. And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness. Now it was not written for his sake alone, that it was imputed to him; But for us also, to whom it will be imputed, if we believe on him that raised Jesus our Lord from the dead, Who was delivered for our offenses, and raised again for our justification.

Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God, through our Lord Jesus Christ: By whom also we have access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God. And not only so, but we glory in tribulations also; knowing that tribulation worketh patience; And patience, experience; and experience, hope: And hope maketh not ashamed, because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts, by the Holy Spirit which is given to us. For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly. For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet perhaps for a good man some would even dare to die. But God commendeth his love towards us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through 10 him. For if when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son; much more, being reconciled, we shall 11 be saved by his life. And not only so, but we also joy in God, through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received 12 the atonement. Wherefore as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, 13 for that all have sinned. For until the law, sin was in the 14 world: but sin is not imputed when there is no law. Nevertheless, death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over them that had not sinned after the similitude of Adam's transgres-15 sion, who is the figure of him that was to come. But not as the offense, so also is the free gift. For if through the offense of one many are dead, much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man, Jesus Christ, hath abounded to 16 many. And not as it was by one that sinned, so is the gift. For the judgment was by one to condemnation, but the free gift is 17 of many offenses to justification. For if by one man's offense death reigned by one; much more they who receive abundance of grace, and of the gift of righteousness, shall reign in life by 18 one, Jesus Christ. Therefore, as by the offense of one, judg- ment came upon all men to condemnation, even so by the righteousness of one the free gift came upon all men to justification 19 of life. For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous.

20 Moreover the law entered, that the offense might abound. But 21 where sin abounded, grace did much more abound: That as sin hath reigned to death, even so might grace reign through righteousness to eternal life, by Jesus Christ our Lord.

6 What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace 2 may abound? By no means: how shall we, that are dead to sin, 3 live any longer therein? Know ye not, that so many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ, were baptized into his death?
4 Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, 5 even so we also should walk in newness of life. For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be 6 also in the likeness of his resurrection: Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin may be de-7 stroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin. For he that 8 is dead is freed from sin. Now if we are dead with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him: Knowing that Christ, 9 being raised from the dead, dieth no more; death hath no more 10 dominion over him. For in that he died, he died to sin once: 10 but in that he liveth, he liveth to God. Likewise reckon ye also 11 yourselves to be dead indeed to sin, but alive to God through 11 Jesus Christ our Lord. Let not sin therefore reign in your 12 mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts of it. Neither 13 yield ye your members as instruments of unrighteousness to 13 sin: but yield yourselves to God, as those that are alive from 13 the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness 13 to God: For sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are 14 not under the law, but under grace. What then? shall we 15 sin, because we are not under the law, but under grace? By no 15 means. Know ye not, that to whom ye yield yourselves ser- 16 vants in obedience, his servants ye are whom ye obey; whether 16 of sin to death, or of obedience to righteousness? But God be 17 thanked, that ye were the servants of sin; but ye have obeyed 17 from the heart that form of doctrine which was delivered you. 17 Being then made free from sin, ye became the servants of righ- 18 teousness. I speak after the manner of men, because of the in- 19 firmity of your flesh: for as ye have yielded your members ser- 19 vants to uncleanness and to iniquity, to (work) iniquity; even so 19 now yield your members servants to righteousness, to (work) 19 holiness. For when ye were the servants of sin, ye were free 20 from righteousness. What fruit had ye then in those things 21 of which ye are now ashamed? for the end of those things is 21 death. But now being made free from sin, and having become 22 servants to God, ye have your fruit to holiness, and the end 22 everlasting life. For the wages of sin is death: but the gift of 23 God is eternal life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. 23 Know ye not, brethren, (for I speak to them that know the 7 law) that the law hath dominion over a man as long as he liveth? For the woman who hath a husband, is bound by the 2 law to her husband so long as he liveth; but if the husband is 2 dead, she is loosed from the law of her husband. So then, if 3 while her husband liveth, she is married to another man, she 3 shall be called an adulteress: but if her husband is dead, she is free from that law; so that she is no adulteress, though she be married to another man. Wherefore, my brethren, ye also are 4 become dead to the law by the body of Christ; that ye should be married to another, even to him who is raised from the dead, 5 that we should bring forth fruit to God. For when we were in the flesh, the motions of sins, which were by the law, did work 6 in our members to bring forth fruit to death: But now we are delivered from the law, that being dead by which we were held; that we should serve in newness of spirit, and not in the old-7 ness of the letter. What shall we say then? Is the law sin? By no means. No, I had not known sin, but by the law: for I had not known lust, except the law had said, Thou shalt not covet.

8 But sin, taking occasion by the commandment, wrought in me all manner of concupiscence. For without the law sin was dead.
9 For I was alive without the law once: but when the command-10 ment came, sin revived, and I died. And the commandment 11 which was ordained to life, I found to be to death. For sin, taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me, and by it 12 slew me. Wherefore the law is holy, and the commandment 13 holy, and just, and good. Was then that which is good made death to me? By no means. But sin, that it might appear sin, working death in me by that which is good; that sin by the 14 commandment might become exceeding sinful. For we know 15 that the law is spiritual: but I am carnal, sold under sin. For that which I do, I allow not: for what I would, that I do not; 16 but what I hate, that I do. If then I do that which I would not, 17 I consent to the law that it is good. Now then it is no more 18 I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me. For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh,) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me; but how to perform that which is good, I find 19 not. For the good that I would, I do not; but the evil which 20 I would not, that I do. Now if I do that which I would not, 21 it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me. I find then a law, that when I would do good, evil is present with me.
22, 23 For I delight in the law of God, after the inward man: But I see another law in my members warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is 24 in my members. O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver 25 me from the body of this death? I thank God, through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then, with the mind I myself serve the law of God; but with the flesh the law of sin.

8 There is therefore now no condemnation to them who are in Christ Jesus, who walk not according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit. For the law of the Spirit of life, in Christ 2 Jesus, hath made me free from the law of sin and death. For 3 what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God, sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh: That the righteous- 4 ness of the law may be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit. For they that are 5 according to the flesh, do mind the things of the flesh: but they that are according to the Spirit, the things of the Spirit. For 6 to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace: Because the carnal mind is enmity against 7 God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be. So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God. But 8, 9 ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if the Spirit of God dwelleth in you. Now if any man hath not the Spirit of Christ, he is not his. And if Christ is in you, the body is dead because 10 of sin; but the Spirit is life because of righteousness. But if 11 the Spirit of him that raised Jesus from the dead dwelleth in you, he that raised Christ from the dead will also revive your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you. Therefore, 12 brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh. For if ye live according to the flesh, ye shall die: 13 but if ye through the Spirit mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live. For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they 14 are the sons of God. For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adop- 15 tion, by which we cry, Abba, Father. The Spirit itself testifieth with our spirit, that we are the children of God: And if chil- 17 dren, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if we suffer with him, that we may be glorified together. For 18 I reckon, that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us. For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for 19 the manifestation of the sons of God. For the creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who 20 hath subjected the same in hope: Because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption, into the 21 glorious liberty of the children of God. For we know that the whole creation groaneth, and travaileth in pain together un- 22 til now: And not only they, but ourselves also, who have the 23 first-fruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our 24 body. For we are saved by hope: But hope that is seen, is not 25 hope: for what a man seeth, why doth he yet hope for? But if we hope for what we see not, then with patience we wait for 26 it. Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for we know not what we should pray for as we ought: but the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot 27 be uttered. And he that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit, because he maketh intercession for 28 the saints, according to the will of God. And we know that all things work together for good, to them that love God, to them 29 who are the called according to his purpose. For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the first-born among many 30 brethren. Moreover, whom he did predestinate, them he also called: and whom he called, them he also justified: and whom 31 he justified, them he also glorified. What shall we then say 32 to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, 33 how shall he not with him also freely give us all things? Who will lay any thing to the charge of God's elect? It is God that 34 justifieth: Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, or rather that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of 35 God, who also maketh intercession for us. Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or 36 persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? As it is written, For thy sake we are killed all the day long; we are 37 accounted as sheep for the slaughter. But in all these things 38 we are more than conquerors, through him that loved us. For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to 39 come, Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, will be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

9 I say the truth in Christ, I lie not, my conscience also bear-2 ing me testimony in the Holy Spirit, That I have great heavi-3 ness and continual sorrow in my heart. For I could wish that myself were accursed from Christ, for my brethren, my kins-4 men according to the flesh: Who are Israelites; to whom per- tain the adoption, and the glory, and the covenants, and the giving of the law, and the service of God, and the promises; Whose are the fathers, and from whom according to the flesh, 5 Christ came, who is over all, God blessed for ever. Amen. Not 6 as though the word of God hath taken no effect. For they are not all Israel, who are descendants from Israel? Neither be- 7 cause they are the seed of Abraham, are they all children: but, In Isaac shall thy seed be called. That is, They who are the 8 children of the flesh, these are not the children of God; but the children of the promise are counted for the seed. For this is 9 the word of promise, At this time will I come, and Sarah shall have a son. And not only this; but when Rebecca also had 10 conceived by one, even by our father Isaac, (For the children 11 being not yet born, neither having done any good or evil, that the purpose of God, according to election might stand, not of works, but of him that calleth) It was said to her, The elder 12 shall serve the younger. As it is written, Jacob have I loved, 13 but Esau have I hated. What shall we say then? Is there un- 14 righteousness with God? By no means. For he saith to Moses, 15 I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion. So then, it is not 16 of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that showeth mercy. For the scripture saith to Pharaoh, Even for 17 this same purpose have I raised thee up, that I might show my power in thee, and that my name might be declared through- 18 out all the earth. Therefore he hath mercy on whom he will have mercy, and whom he will he hardeneth. Thou wilt say 19 then to me, Why doth he yet find fault? for who hath resisted his will? No, but, O man, who art thou that repliest against 20 God? shall the thing formed say to him that formed it, Why hast thou made me thus? Hath not the potter power over the 21 clay of the same lump to make one vessel to honor, and another to dishonor? What if God, willing to show his wrath, and to 22 make his power known, endured with much long-suffering the vessels of wrath fitted to destruction: And that he might make 23 known the riches of his glory on the vessels of mercy, which he had before prepared for glory, Even us whom he hath called, 24 not of the Jews only, but also of the Gentiles. As he saith also 25 in Hosea, I will call them My people, who were not my people; and her Beloved, who was not beloved. And it shall come 26 to pass, that in the place where it was said to them, Ye are not my people; there shall they be called, The children of the living God. Isaiah also crieth concerning Israel, Though the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, a remnant shall be saved: For he will finish the work, and cut it short in righteousness: because a short work will the Lord make upon the earth. And as Isaiah said before, Except the Lord of Sabaoth had left us a seed, we had been as Sodom, and been made like Gomorrah. What shall we say then? That the Gentiles who followed not after righteousness, have attained to righteousness, even the righteousness which is by faith: But Israel, who followed after the law of righteousness, hath not attained to the law of righteousness. Why? Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the works of the law. For they stumbled at that stumbling-stone; As it is written, Behold, I lay in Sion a stumbling-stone, and rock of offense: and whoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.

10 Brethren, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they may be saved. For I bear them testimony that they have a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge. For they, being ignorant of God's righteousness, and seeking to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves to the righteousness of God. For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth. For Moses describeth the righteousness which is by the law, That the man who doeth these things shall live by them. But the righteousness which is by faith speaketh on this wise, Say not in thy heart, Who shall ascend into heaven? (that is, to bring Christ down.) Or, Who shall descend into the deep? (that is, to bring Christ again from the dead.) But what saith it? The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach: That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thy heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth to righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made to salvation. For the scripture saith, whoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed. For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same Lord over all, is rich to all that call upon him, For whoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher? And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things? But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Isaiah saith, Lord, who hath believed our report? So then, faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God. But I say, Have they not heard? Yes verily, their sound went into all the earth, and their words to the ends of the world. But I say, Did not Israel know? First, Moses saith, I will provoke you to jealousy by them that are no people, and by a foolish nation I will anger you. But Isaiah is very bold, and saith, I was found by them that sought me not; I was made manifest to them that asked not for me. But to Israel he saith, All day long I have stretched forth my hands to a disobedient and gainsaying people.

I say then, Hath God cast away his people? By no means. For I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin. God hath not cast away his people which he foreknew. Know ye not what the scripture saith of Elijah? how he maketh intercession to God against Israel, saying, Lord, they have killed thy prophets, and digged down thy altars; and I am left alone, and they seek my life. But what saith the answer of God to him? I have reserved to myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to Baal. Even so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace. And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work. What then? Israel hath not obtained that which he seeketh for; but the election hath obtained it, and the rest were blinded. (According as it is written, God hath given them the spirit of slumber, eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear;) to this day. And David saith, Let their table be made a snare, and a trap, and a stumbling-block, and a recompense to them: Let their eyes be darkened, that they may not see, and bow down their back always. I say then, Have they stumbled that they should fall? By no means: but rather through their fall salvation is come to the Gentiles, to provoke them to jeal-

12 ousy. Now if the fall of them be the riches of the world, and 13 the diminishing of them the riches of the Gentiles; how much 14 more their fullness? For I speak to you Gentiles, inasmuch as 15 I am the apostle of the Gentiles, I magnify my office: If by any 16 means I may incite to emulation them who are my flesh, and 17 may save some of them. For if the rejection of them be the rec-18 onciling of the world, what shall the receiving of them be, but 19 life from the dead? For if the first fruit is holy, the lump is also 20 holy: and if the root is holy, so are the branches. And if some 21 of the branches be broken off, and thou, being a wild olive-tree, 22 art ingrafted among them, and with them partakest of the root 23 and fatness of the olive-tree; Boast not against the branches.
24 But if thou boastest, thou bearest not the root, but the root 25 thee. Thou wilt say then, The branches were broken off, that 26 I might be ingrafted. Well; because of unbelief they were bro-27 ken off, and thou standest by faith. Be not high-minded, but 28 fear: For if God spared not the natural branches, take heed 29 lest he also spare not thee. Behold therefore the goodness 30 and severity of God: on them who fell, severity; but towards 31 thee, goodness, if thou shalt continue in his goodness: other-32 wise thou also shalt be cut off. And they also, if they abide not still in unbelief, shall be ingrafted: for God is able to ingraft them again. For if thou wast cut out of the olive-tree which is wild by nature, and wast ingrafted contrary to nature into a good olive-tree; how much more shall these, which are the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive-tree? For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, (lest ye should be wise in your own conceits) that blindness in part hath happened to Israel, until the fullness of the Gentiles shall be come in. And so all Israel shall be saved: as it is written, There shall come out of Sion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob: For this is my covenant to them, when I shall take away their sins. As concerning the gospel, they are enemies for your sakes: but as concerning the election, they are beloved for the father's sakes. For the gifts and calling of God are without repentance. For as ye in times past have not believed God, yet have now obtained mercy through their unbelief; Even so have these also now not believed, that through your mercy they also may obtain mercy. For God hath concluded them all in unbelief, that he might have mercy upon all. O the depth of the riches both 33 of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out! For who hath 34 known the mind of the Lord? or who hath been his counselor?

Or who hath first given to him, and it shall be recompensed 35 to him again? For from him, and by him, and to him are all 36 things: to whom be glory for ever. Amen.

I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, 12 that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your reasonable service. And be not con- 2 formed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good and acceptable, and perfect will of God. For through the grace given to 3 me, I say, to every man that is among you, not to think of him- self more highly than he ought to think; but to think soberly, according as God hath dealt to every man the measure of faith.
For as we have many members in one body, and all members 4 have not the same office: So we, being many, are one body 5 in Christ, and every one members one of another. Having 6 then gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us, whether prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith; Or ministry, let us wait on our ministering: or he 7 that teacheth, on teaching: Or he that exhorteth, on exhor- 8 tation: he that giveth, let him do it with simplicity; he that ruleth, with diligence; he that showeth mercy, with cheerfulness. Let love be without dissimulation. Abhor that which 9 is evil; cleave to that which is good. Be kindly affectioned 10 one to another with brotherly love; in honor preferring one another; Not slothful in business; fervent in spirit; serving 11 the Lord; Rejoicing in hope; patient in tribulation; continu- 12 ing earnest in prayer; Distributing to the necessity of saints; 13 given to hospitality. Bless them who persecute you; bless, and 14 curse not. Rejoice with them that rejoice, and weep with them 15 that weep. Be of the same mind one towards another. Mind 16 not high things, but condescend to men of low estate. Be not wise in your own conceits. Recompense to no man evil for 17 evil. Provide things honest in the sight of all men. If it is 18 possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men.
Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place to 19 wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith 20 the Lord. Therefore if thy enemy hungereth, feed him; if he thirsteth, give him drink: for in so doing thou shalt heap coals 21 of fire on his head. Be not overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

13 Let every soul be subject to the higher powers. For there is no power but from God: the powers that are, are ordained 2 by God. Whoever therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist shall receive to them-3 selves damnation. For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power; do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise from the same: 4 For he is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou doest that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is the minister of God, an avenger to execute wrath 5 upon him that doeth evil. Wherefore ye must needs be subject, not only for wrath, but also for conscience sake. For, for 6 this cause ye pay tribute also: for they are God's ministers, 7 attending continually upon this very thing. Render therefore to all their dues: tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to 8 whom custom; fear to whom fear; honor to whom honor. Owe no man any thing, but to love one another: for he that loveth 9 another hath fulfilled the law. For this, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Thou shalt not covet; and if there is any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this 10 saying, namely, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. Love worketh no ill to one's neighbor: therefore love is the fulfill-11 ing of the law. And this, knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleep: for now is our salvation nearer than 12 when we believed. The night is far spent, the day is at hand: let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put 13 on the armor of light. Let us walk honestly, as in the day; not in rioting and drunkenness, not in chambering and wanton-14 ness, not in strife and envying. But put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make not provision for the lusts of flesh.

14 Him that is weak in the faith receive ye, but not to doubt-2 ful disputations. For one believeth that he may eat all things: 3 another, who is weak, eateth herbs. Let not him that eateth, despise him that eateth not; and let not him who eateth not, 4 judge him that eateth: for God hath received him. Who art thou that judgest another man's servant? to his own master he standeth or falleth: and he shall be held up: for God is able to make him stand. One man esteemeth one day above another: another esteemeth every day alike. Let every man be fully persuaded in his own mind. He that regardeth the day, regardeth it to the Lord: and he that regardeth not the day, to the Lord he doth not regard it. He that eateth, eateth to the Lord, for he giveth God thanks; and he that eateth not, to the Lord he eateth not, and giveth God thanks. For none of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself. For whether we live, we live to the Lord; and whether we die, we die to the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's. For to this end Christ both died, and rose, and revived, that he might be Lord both of the dead and the living. But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at naught thy brother? for we shall all stand before the judgment-seat of Christ. For it is written, As I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God. So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God. Let us not therefore judge one another any more: but judge this rather, that no man put a stumbling-block, or an occasion to fall in his brother's way. I know, and am persuaded by the Lord Jesus, that there is nothing unclean by itself: but to him that esteemeth any thing to be unclean, to him it is unclean. But if thy brother is grieved with thy food, now walkest thou not charitably. Destroy not him with thy food, for whom Christ died. Let not then your good be evil spoken of: For the kingdom of God is not food and drink, but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Spirit. For he that in these things serveth Christ, is acceptable to God, and approved by men. Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace, and things with which one may edify another. For the sake of food, destroy not the work of God. All things indeed are pure; but it is evil for that man who eateth with offense. It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor any thing by which thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or is made weak. Hast thou faith? have it to thyself before God. Happy is he that condemneth not himself in that thing which he alloweth. And he that doubteth is damned if he eateth, because he eateth not from faith: for whatever is not from faith is sin.

15 We then that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of 2 the weak, and not to please ourselves. Let every one of us 3 please his neighbor for his good to edification. For even Christ 4 pleased not himself; but, as it is written, The reproaches of 5 them that reproached thee fell on me. For whatever things 6 were written formerly, were written for our learning, that we 7 through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope.
8 Now the God of patience and consolation grant you to be like-9 minded one towards another according to Christ Jesus: That 10 ye may with one mind and one mouth glorify God, even the 11 Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. Wherefore receive ye one 12 another, as Christ also received us to the glory of God. Now 13 I say that Jesus Christ was a minister of the circumcision for 14 the truth of God, to confirm the promises made to the fathers: 15 And that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy; as it is 16 written, For this cause I will confess to thee among the Gen-17 tiles, and sing to thy name. And again he saith, Rejoice, ye 18 Gentiles, with his people. And again, Praise the Lord, all ye 19 Gentiles; and laud him, all ye people. And again Isaiah saith, 20 There shall be a root of Jesse, and he that shall rise to reign 21 over the Gentiles; in him shall the Gentiles trust. Now the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the Holy Spirit.
And I myself also am persuaded concerning you, my brethren, that ye also are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one another. Nevertheless, brethren, I have written the more boldly to you in some sort, as putting you in mind, because of the grace that is given to me from God.
That I should be the minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, ministering the gospel of God, that the offering up of the Gentiles might be acceptable, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit.
I have therefore cause for glorying through Jesus Christ, in those things which pertain to God. For I will not dare to speak of any of those things which Christ hath not wrought by me, to make the Gentiles obedient, by word and deed, Through mighty signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God; so that from Jerusalem, and around to Illyricum, I have fully preached the gospel of Christ. And so have I strived to preach the gospel, not where Christ was named, lest I should build upon another man's foundation: But as it is written, They shall see to whom he was not spoken of: and they that have not heard shall understand. For which cause also I have been much hindered from coming to you. But now having no more place in these parts, and having a great desire these many years to come to you; Whenever I take my journey into Spain, I will come to you: for I trust to see you in my journey, and to be brought on my way thitherward by you, if first I shall be somewhat filled with your company. But now I go to Jerusalem to minister to the saints. For it hath pleased them of Macedonia and Achaia to make a certain contribution for the poor of the saints who are at Jerusalem. It hath pleased them verily; and their debtors they are. For if the Gentiles have been made partakers of their spiritual things, their duty is also to minister to them in carnal things. When therefore I have performed this, and have sealed to them this fruit, I will go by you into Spain. And I am sure that when I come to you, I shall come in the fullness of the blessing of the gospel of Christ. Now I beseech you, brethren, for the Lord Jesus Christ's sake, and for the love of the Spirit, that ye strive together with me in your prayers to God for me; That I may be delivered from them in Judea who do not believe; and that my service which I have for Jerusalem, may be acceptable to the saints; That I may come to you with joy by the will of God, and may with you be refreshed. Now the God of peace be with you all. Amen.

I commend to you Phebe our sister, who is a servant of the church which is at Cenchrea: That ye receive her in the Lord, as it becometh saints, and that ye assist her in whatever business she hath need of you: for she hath been a succorer of many, and of myself also. Greet Priscilla and Aquila my helpers in Christ Jesus: Who have for my life laid down their own necks: to whom not only I give thanks, but also all the churches of the Gentiles. Likewise greet the church that is in their house. Salute my well-beloved Epenetus, who is the first-fruits of Achaia to Christ. Greet Mary, who bestowed much labor on us. Salute Andronicus and Junia my kinsmen, and my fellow-prisoners, who are of note among the apostles, who also were in Christ before me. Greet Amplias my beloved in the Lord. Salute Urbane, our helper in Christ, and Stachys my beloved. Salute Apelles approved in Christ. Salute them who are of Aristobulus' household. Salute Herodion my kinsman.

Greet them that are of the household of Narcissus, who are 12 in the Lord. Salute Tryphena and Tryphosa, who labor in the Lord. Salute the beloved Persis, who labored much in the Lord.
13 Salute Rufus chosen in the Lord, and his mother and mine.
14 Salute Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermas, Patrobas, Hermes, and 15 the brethren who are with them. Salute Philologus, and Julia, Nereus, and his sister, and Olympas, and all the saints 16 who are with them. Salute one another with a holy kiss. The 17 churches of Christ salute you. Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them who cause divisions and offenses, contrary to the 18 doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them. For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts 19 of the simple. For your obedience is come abroad to all men.
I am glad therefore on your behalf: but yet I would have you 20 wise to that which is good, and simple concerning evil. And the God of peace will soon bruise Satan under your feet. The 21 grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen. Timothy my work-fellow, and Lucius, and Jason, and Sosipater my 22 kinsmen, salute you. I Tertius, who wrote this epistle, salute 23 you in the Lord. Gaius my host, and of the whole church, saluteth you. Erastus the chamberlain of the city saluteth you, 24 and Quartus a brother. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be 25 with you all. Amen. Now to him that is able to establish you according to my gospel, and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery, which hath been kept 26 secret since the world began, But now is made manifest, and by the scriptures of the prophets, according to the commandment of the everlasting God, made known to all nations for 27 the obedience of faith: To God the only wise, be glory through Jesus Christ for ever. Amen.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE CORINTHIANS.

 Paul, called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ through 1 the will of God, and Sosthenes our brother, To the 2 church of God which is at Corinth, to them that are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, with all that in every place call upon the name of Jesus Christ our Lord, both theirs and ours. Grace be to you, and peace from God 3 our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ. I thank my God 4 always on your behalf, for the grace of God which is given you by Jesus Christ; That in every thing ye are enriched by him, 5 in all utterance, and in all knowledge; Even as the testimony 6 of Christ was confirmed in you: So that ye come behind in no 7 gift; waiting for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ: Who will 8 also confirm you to the end, that ye may be blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. God is faithful, by whom ye were 9 called to the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Now 10 I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind, and in the same judgment. For it hath been declared to 11 me concerning you, my brethren, by them who are of the house of Chloe, that there are contentions among you. Now this I 12 say, that every one of you saith, I am of Paul; and I of Apollos; and I of Cephas; and I of Christ. Is Christ divided? was Paul 13 crucified for you? or were ye baptized in the name of Paul? I 14 thank God that I baptized none of you, but Crispus and Gaius; Lest any should say that I had baptized in my own name. And 15, 16 I baptized also the household of Stephanas; besides, I know not whether I baptized any other. For Christ hath not sent me to 17 baptize, but to preach the gospel: not with wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of no effect. For the 18 preaching of the cross is to them that perish, foolishness; but to us who are saved, it is the power of God. For it is written, I 19 will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing 20 the understanding of the prudent. Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? hath not 21 God made foolish the wisdom of this world? For when in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe.

22, 23 For the Jews require a sign, and the Greeks seek wisdom: But we preach Christ crucified, to the Jews a stumbling-block, and 24 to the Greeks foolishness; But to them who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God, and the wisdom 25 of God. Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men; 26 and the weakness of God is stronger than men. For ye see your calling, brethren, that not many wise men after the flesh, 27 not many mighty, not many noble are called: But God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound 28 the things which are mighty; And base things of the world, and things which are despised, hath God chosen, and things 29 which are not, to bring to naught things that are: That no 30 flesh should glory in his presence. But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who from God is made to us wisdom, and righteousness, 31 and sanctification, and redemption: That, according as it is written, He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

2 And I, brethren, when I came to you, came not with excellence of speech, or of wisdom, declaring to you the testimony of 2 God. For I determined not to know any thing among you, save 3 Jesus Christ, and him crucified. And I was with you in weak-4 ness, and in fear, and in much trembling. And my speech and my preaching was not with enticing words of man's wisdom, 5 but in demonstration of the Spirit, and of power: That your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power 6 of God. However, we speak wisdom among them that are perfect: yet not the wisdom of this world, nor of the princes of 7 this world, that come to naught: But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom which God ordained 8 before the world to our glory: Which none of the princes of this world knew: for had they known it, they would not have 9 crucified the Lord of glory. But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love 10 him. But God hath revealed them to us by his Spirit; for the Spirit searcheth all things, even the deep things of God. For what man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God. Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is from God; that we may know the things that are freely given to us by God. Which things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Spirit teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual. But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness to him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned. But he that is spiritual judgeth all things, yet he himself is judged by no man. For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ. 11 12 13 14 15 16

And I, brethren, could not speak to you as to spiritual, but as to carnal, even as to babes in Christ. I have fed you with milk, and not with meat: for hitherto ye were not able to bear it, neither yet now are ye able. For ye are yet carnal: for whereas there is among you envying, and strife, and divisions, are ye not carnal, and walk as men? For while one saith, I am of Paul; and another, I am of Apollos; are ye not carnal? Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but ministers by whom ye believed, even as the Lord gave to every man? I have planted, Apollos watered: but God hath given the increase. So then, neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth: but God that giveth the increase. Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one: and every man shall receive his own reward, according to his own labor. For we are laborers together with God: ye are God's husbandry, ye are God's building. According to the grace of God which is given to me, as a wise master-builder, I have laid the foundation, and another buildeth upon it. But let every man take heed how he buildeth upon it. For other foundation can no man lay than that which is laid, which is Jesus Christ. Now if any man buildeth upon this foundation, gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble; Every man's work will be made manifest: for the day will declare it, because it will be revealed by fire; and the fire will try every man's work, of what sort it is. If any man's work abideth which he hath built upon it, he shall receive a reward. If any man's work shall be burned, he will suffer loss: but he 3 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire. Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in 17 you? If any man defileth the temple of God, him will God de-18 stroy: for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are. Let no man deceive himself. If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise.

19 For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it 20 is written, He taketh the wise in their own craftiness. And again, The Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they 21 are vain. Therefore let no man glory in men: for all things 22 are yours: Whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are 23 yours; And ye are Christ's; and Christ is God's.

4 Let a man so account of us, as of the ministers of Christ, 2 and stewards of the mysteries of God. Moreover, it is required 3 in stewards that a man be found faithful. But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged by you, or by man's 4 judgment: yes, I judge not my own self. For I know nothing against myself; yet am I not hereby justified: but he that jud-5 geth me is the Lord. Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord shall come, who will both bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts: and then shall every man have praise from God.
6 And these things, brethren, I have in a figure transferred to myself, and to Apollos, for your sakes; that ye may learn in us not to think of men above that which is written, that no one of 7 you on account of one, may be puffed up against another. For who maketh thee to differ from another? and what hast thou that thou didst not receive? now if thou didst receive it, why 8 dost thou glory, as if thou hadst not received it? Now ye are full, now ye are rich, ye have reigned as kings without us: and 9 I wish ye did reign, that we also might reign with you. For I think that God hath set forth us the apostles last, as it were appointed to death: for we are made a spectacle to the world, 10 and to angels, and to men. We are fools for Christ's sake, but ye are wise in Christ; we are weak, but ye are strong; ye are 11 honorable, but we are despised. Even to this present hour we both hunger, and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and 12 have no certain dwelling-place; And labor, working with our own hands. Being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we suffer it; Being defamed, we entreat: we are made as the filth 13 of the world, the offscouring of all things to this day. I write 14 not these things to shame you, but as my beloved sons I warn you. For though ye have ten thousand instructors in Christ, 15 yet have ye not many fathers: for in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the gospel. Wherefore I beseech you, be 16 ye followers of me. For this cause have I sent to you Timo- 17 thy, who is my beloved son, and faithful in the Lord, who will bring you into remembrance of my ways which are in Christ, as I teach every where in every church. Now some are puffed 18 up, as though I would not come to you. But I will come to you 19 shortly, if the Lord will, and will know, not the speech of them who are puffed up, but the power. For the kingdom of God is 20 not in word, but in power. What will ye? shall I come to you 21 with a rod, or in love, and in the spirit of meekness?

It is reported commonly that there is lewdness among you, 5 and such lewdness as is not so much as named among the Gentiles, that one should have his father's wife. And ye are 2 puffed up, and have not rather mourned, that he who hath done this deed might be taken away from among you. For I 3 verily, as absent in body, but present in spirit, have judged already as though I were present, concerning him that hath so done this deed, In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, when 4 ye are assembled, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ, To deliver such one to Satan for the destruction 5 of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus. Your boasting is not good. Know ye not, that a little 6 leaven leaveneth the whole lump? Cleanse out therefore the 7 old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened.
For even Christ our passover is sacrificed for us: Therefore let 8 us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth. I have written to you in this epistle, not to 9 associate with persons guilty of lewdness: Yet not altogether 10 with lewd persons of this world, or with the covetous, or extortioners, or with idolaters: for then ye must needs go out of the world. But now I have written to you not to keep company, if 11 any man that is called a brother is a lewd person, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner: with such person no not to eat. For what have I to do to judge them 12 also that are without? do ye not judge them that are within?

13 But them that are without God judgeth. Therefore put away from among yourselves that wicked person.

6 Dare any of you, having a matter against another, go to law before the unjust, and not before the saints? Do ye not know that the saints will judge the world? and if the world shall be judged by you, are ye unworthy to judge the smallest matters? Know ye not that we shall judge angels? how much more, things that pertain to this life? If then ye have judgments of things pertaining to this life, set them to judge who are least esteemed in the church. I speak to your shame. Is it so, that there is not a wise man among you? no, not one that will be able to judge between his brethren? But brother goeth to law with brother, and that before unbelievers. Now therefore there is utterly a fault among you, because ye go to law one with another. Why do ye not rather take wrong? why do ye not rather suffer yourselves to be defrauded? But ye do wrong, and defraud, and that your brethren. Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived; neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind, Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God. And such were some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God. All things are lawful to me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the power of any. Meats for the belly, and the belly for meats: but God will destroy both it and them. Now the body is not for lewdness, but for the Lord; and the Lord for the body. And God hath both raised up the Lord, and will also raise up us by his own power. Know ye not, that your bodies are the members of Christ? shall I then take the members of Christ, and make them the members of a harlot? By no means. What? know ye not that he who is joined to a harlot is one body? for two, saith he, shall be one flesh. But he that is joined to the Lord is one spirit. Flee lewdness. Every sin that a man doeth, is without the body; but he that committeth lewdness, sinneth against his own body. What, know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit which is in you, which ye have from God, and ye are not your own? For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's. 20

Now concerning the things of which ye wrote to me: It is 7 good for a man not to touch a woman. Nevertheless, to avoid 2 lewdness, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband. Let the husband render to the wife 3 due benevolence: and likewise also the wife to the husband.
The wife hath not power of her own body, but the husband: and 4 likewise also the husband hath not power of his own body, but the wife. Defraud ye not one the other, except with consent 5 for a time, that ye may give yourselves to fasting and prayer; and come together again, that Satan may not tempt you for your incontinence. But I speak this by permission, and not as 6 a commandment. For I would that all men were as I myself. 7 But every man hath his proper gift from God, one after this manner, and another after that. I say therefore to the unmar- 8 ried and widows, It is good for them if they remain even as I.
But if they cannot contain, let them marry: for it is better to 9 marry than to burn. And to the married I command, yet not I, 10 but the Lord, Let not the wife depart from her husband: But 11 if she shall depart, let her remain unmarried, or be reconciled to her husband: and let not the husband put away his wife.
But to the rest I speak, not the Lord, if any brother hath a wife 12 that believeth not, and she is pleased to dwell with him, let him not put her away. And the woman who hath a husband 13 that believeth not, and if he is pleased to dwell with her, let her not leave him. For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by 14 the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband: else were your children unclean; but now are they holy. But if 15 the unbelieving departeth, let him depart. A brother or a sister is not under bondage in such cases; but God hath called us to peace. For how knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt 16 save thy husband? or how knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt save thy wife? But as God hath distributed to every 17 man, as the Lord hath called every one, so let him walk. And so I ordain in all churches. Is any man called being circum- 18 cised? let him not become uncircumcised. Is any called in uncircumcision? let him not become circumcised. Circumcision 19 is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of 20 the commandments of God. Let every man continue in the 21 same calling in which he was called. Art thou called being a servant? care not for it; but if thou mayest be made free, use 22 it rather. For he that is called in the Lord, being a servant, is the Lord's free-man: likewise also he that is called, being 23 free, is Christ's servant. Ye are bought with a price; be not 24 ye the servants of men. Brethren, let every man in the state 25 in which he is called, continue in it with God. Now concerning virgins, I have no commandment of the Lord: yet I give my judgment as one that hath obtained mercy from the Lord to be 26 faithful. I suppose therefore that this is good for the present 27 distress, I say, that it is good for a man so to be. Art thou bound to a wife? seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a 28 wife? seek not a wife. But if thou marry, thou hast not sinned: and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned. Nevertheless, such 29 will have trouble in the flesh; but I spare you. But this I say, brethren, The time is short. It remaineth, that both they that 30 have wives, be as though they had none; And they that weep, as though they wept not; and they that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and they that buy, as though they possessed not; 31 And they that use this world, as not abusing it. For the fash-32 ion of this world passeth away. But I would have you without anxious care. He that is unmarried, is anxious for the things 33 that belong to the Lord, how he may please the Lord: But he that is married, is anxious for the things that are of the world, 34 how he may please his wife. There is a difference also between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman is anxious for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy, both in body and in spirit: but she that is married, is anxious for the things 35 of the world, how she may please her husband. And this I speak for your own profit; not that I may cast a snare upon you, but for that which is comely, and that ye may attend upon 36 the Lord without distraction. But if any man thinketh that he behaveth himself uncomely towards his virgin, if she hath passed the flower of her age, and need so requireth, let him do 37 what he will, he sinneth not: let them marry. Nevertheless, he that standeth steadfast in his heart, having no necessity, but hath power over his own will, and hath so decreed in his 38 heart that he will keep his virgin, doeth well. So then he that giveth her in marriage doeth well; but he that giveth her not in marriage doeth better. The wife is bound by the law as long as 39 her husband liveth; but if her husband is dead, she is at liberty to be married to whom she will; only in the Lord. But she is 40 happier if she so remain, after my judgment; and I think also that I have the Spirit of God.

Now as concerning things offered to idols, we know that we 8 all have knowledge. Knowledge puffeth up, but charity edifi-eth. And if any man thinketh that he knoweth any thing, he 2 knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know. But if any man 3 loveth God, the same is known by him. Therefore as concern- 4 ing the eating of those things that are offered in sacrifice to idols, we know that an idol is nothing in the world, and that there is no other God but one. For though there are that are 5 called gods, whether in heaven or upon earth, (as there are gods many, and lords many) Yet to us there is but one God, 6 the Father, from whom are all things, and we in him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we by him.
 But there is not in every man that knowledge: for some with 7 conscience of the idol to this hour eat it as a thing offered to an idol; and their conscience, being weak, is defiled. But food 8 commendeth us not to God: for neither if we eat, are we the better; neither if we eat not, are we the worse. But take 9 heed lest by any means this liberty of yours should become a stumbling-block to them that are weak. For if any man 10 shall see thee, who hast knowledge, sit eating in the idol's temple, will not the conscience of him who is weak be emboldened to eat those things which are offered to idols; And through 11 thy knowledge shall the weak brother perish, for whom Christ died? But when ye thus sin against the brethren, and wound 12 their weak conscience, ye sin against Christ. Wherefore, if 13 food maketh my brother to fall into sin, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, lest I make my brother to fall into sin.

Am I not an apostle? am I not free? have I not seen Jesus 9 Christ our Lord? are ye not my work in the Lord? If I am not 2 an apostle to others, yet doubtless I am to you: for ye are the seal of my apostleship in the Lord. My answer to them that 3 examine me is this, Have we not power to eat and to drink? 4 Have we not power to lead about a sister, a wife, as well as 5 other apostles, and as the brethren of the Lord, and Cephas?
 Or I only and Barnabas, have we not power to forbear work- 6 7 ing? Who goeth a warfare at any time at his own charges? who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of its fruit? or who 8 feedeth a flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock? Do I say these things as a man? or saith not the law the same also?

9 For it is written in the law of Moses, Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corn. Doth God take care 10 for oxen? Or saith he this altogether for our sakes? for our sakes, no doubt, this is written: that he that ploweth should plow in hope; and that he that thresheth in hope should be 11 partaker of his hope. If we have sown to you spiritual things, 12 is it a great thing if we shall reap your carnal things? If others are partakers of this power over you, are not we rather? Nevertheless we have not used this power; but suffer all things, 13 lest we should hinder the gospel of Christ. Do ye not know that they who minister about holy things live from the things of the temple, and they who wait at the altar are partakers 14 with the altar? Even so hath the Lord ordained that they who 15 preach the gospel should live by the gospel. But I have used none of these things: neither have I written these things, that it should be so done to me: for it were better for me to die, than 16 that any man should make my glorying void. For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to boast of: for necessity is 17 laid upon me; and woe is to me, if I preach not the gospel! For if I do this thing willingly, I have a reward: but if against my 18 will, a dispensation of the gospel is committed to me. What is my reward then? Verily that, when I preach the gospel, I may make the gospel of Christ without charge, that I may not 19 abuse my power in the gospel. For though I am free from all men, yet I have made myself servant to all, that I might gain 20 the more. And to the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain the Jews; to them that are under the law, as under the 21 law, that I might gain them that are under the law; To them that are without law, as without law, (being not without law to God, but under the law to Christ,) that I might gain them 22 that are without law. To the weak I became as weak, that I might gain the weak: I have become all things to all men, that 23 I might by all means save some. And this I do for the gospel's 24 sake, that I may be partaker of it with you. Know ye not, that they who run in a race, all run, but one receiveth the prize? So 25 run, that ye may obtain. And every man that striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown; but we an incorruptible. I therefore so run, 26 not as uncertainly; so I fight, not as one that beateth the air: But I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection: lest by 27 any means when I have preached to others, I myself should be a cast-away.

Moreover, brethren, I would not that ye should be igno- 10 rant, that all our fathers were under the cloud, and all passed through the sea; And were all baptized to Moses in the cloud 2 and in the sea; And all ate the same spiritual food; And all 3, 4 drank the same spiritual drink: (for they drank of that spiritual Rock that followed them: and that Rock was Christ.) But 5 with many of them God was not well pleased: for they were overthrown in the wilderness. Now these things were our 6 examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as they also lusted. Neither be ye idolaters, as were some of 7 them: as it is written, The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play. Neither let us commit lewdness, as some 8 of them committed, and fell in one day three and twenty thousand. Neither let us tempt Christ, as some of them also tempted, 9 and were destroyed by serpents. Neither murmur ye, as some 10 of them also murmured, and were destroyed by the destroyer.
 Now all these things happened to them for examples: and they 11 are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the world are come. Wherefore let him that thinketh he standeth, 12 take heed lest he fall. There hath no temptation taken you 13 but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above what ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be 14 able to bear it. Wherefore, my dearly beloved, flee from idolatry. I speak as to wise men; judge ye what I say. The cup of 15, 16 blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ? For we being many are one bread, and one 17 body: for we are all partakers of that one bread. Behold Israel 18 after the flesh: are not they who eat of the sacrifices, partakers of the altar? What then do I say? that the idol is any thing, or 19 that which is offered in sacrifice to idols is any thing? But I 20 say, that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to demons, and not to God: and I would not that ye should have 21 fellowship with demons. Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of demons: ye cannot be partakers of the Lord's 22 table, and of the table of demons. Do we provoke the Lord to 23 jealousy? are we stronger than he? All things are lawful for me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for 24 me, but all things edify not. Let no man seek his own, but ev-25 ery man another's wealth. Whatever is sold in the provision 26 market, that eat, asking no question for conscience' sake: For 27 the earth is the Lord's, and its fullness. If any of them that believe not invites you to a feast, and ye are disposed to go; whatever is set before you, eat, asking no question on account 28 of conscience. But if any man shall say to you, This is offered in sacrifice to idols, eat not for his sake that showed it, and for conscience' sake: for the earth is the Lord's, and its fullness: 29 Conscience, I say, not thy own, but of the other: for why is my 30 liberty judged by another man's conscience? For if I by grace am a partaker, why am I evil spoken of for that for which I give 31 thanks? Whether therefore ye eat or drink, or whatever ye do, 32 do all to the glory of God. Give no offense, neither to the Jews, 33 nor to the Gentiles, nor to the church of God: Even as I please all men in all things, not seeking my own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be saved.

11, 2 Be ye followers of me, even as I also am of Christ. Now I praise you, brethren, that ye remember me in all things, 3 and keep the ordinances, as I delivered them to you. But I would have you know, that the head of every man is Christ; and the head of the woman is the man; and the head of Christ 4 is God. Every man praying or prophesying, having his head 5 covered, dishonoreth his head. But every woman that prayeth or prophesieth with her head uncovered, dishonoreth her head: 6 for that is even all one as if she were shaved. For if the woman is not covered, let her also be shorn: but if it is a shame for a 7 woman to be shorn or shaved, let her be covered. For a man indeed ought not to cover his head, forasmuch as he is the image and glory of God: but the woman is the glory of the man.
8 For the man is not from the woman, but the woman from the 9 man. Neither was the man created for the woman, but the 10 woman for the man. For this cause ought the woman to have 11 power on her head, because of the angels. Nevertheless, neither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man in the Lord. For as the woman is from the man, 12 even so is the man also by the woman; but all things from God.

Judge in yourselves: Is it comely that a woman should pray to 13 God uncovered? Doth not even nature itself teach you, that if 14 a man hath long hair, it is a shame to him? But if a woman 15 hath long hair, it is a glory to her: for her hair is given her for a covering. But if any man seemeth to be contentious, we have 16 no such custom, neither the churches of God. Now in this that 17 I declare to you, I praise you not, that ye come together not for the better, but for the worse. For first of all, when ye come 18 together in the church, I hear that there are divisions among you; and I partly believe it. For there must be also heresies 19 among you, that they who are approved may be made manifest among you. When therefore ye come together in one place, 20 this is not to eat the Lord's supper. For in eating every one taketh before another his own supper: and one is hungry, and 21 another is drunken. What? have ye not houses to eat and to drink in? or despise ye the church of God, and shame them 22 that have not? What shall I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I praise you not. For I have received from the Lord, 23 that which also I delivered to you, That the Lord Jesus, the same night in which he was betrayed, took bread: And when 24 he had given thanks, he broke it, and said, Take, eat: this is my body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me. After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had 25 supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as often as ye drink it, in remembrance of me. For 26 as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do show the Lord's death till he shall come. Wherefore, whoever shall eat 27 this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord. But let a man exam- 28 ine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup. For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and 29 drinketh condemnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's body. For this cause many are weak and sickly among you, 30 and many sleep. For if we would judge ourselves, we should 31 not be judged. But when we are judged, we are chastened 32 by the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world.
Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eat, tarry 33 one for another. And if any man hungereth, let him eat at 34 home; that ye come not together to condemnation. And the rest will I set in order when I come.

12 Now concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I would not have 2 you ignorant. Ye know that ye were Gentiles, carried away 3 to these dumb idols, even as ye were led. Wherefore I give you to understand, that no man speaking by the Spirit of God, 4 calleth Jesus accursed: and that no man can say that Jesus is 5 the Lord, but by the Holy Spirit. Now there are diversities 6 of gifts, but the same Spirit. And there are differences of ad-7 ministrations, but the same Lord. And there are diversities 8 of operations, but it is the same God who worketh all in all.
9 But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man for 10 profit. For to one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom; 11 to another, the word of knowledge by the same Spirit; To an-12 other, faith by the same Spirit; to another, the gifts of healing 13 by the same Spirit; To another, the working of miracles; to 14 another, prophecy; to another, discerning of spirits; to another, 15 divers kinds of languages; to another, the interpretation of lan-16 guages: But all these worketh that one and the same Spirit, 17 dividing to every man severally as he will. For as the body 18 is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that 19 one body, being many, are one body: so also is Christ. For 20 by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether Jews 21 or Gentiles, whether bond or free; and have been all made to 22 drink into one Spirit. For the body is not one member, but 23 many. If the foot shall say, Because I am not the hand, I am 24 not of the body; is it therefore not of the body? And if the ear shall say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body? If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling? But now hath God set the members every one of them in the body, as it hath pleased him. And if they were all one member, where were the body? But now are they many members, yet but one body. And the eye cannot say to the hand, I have no need of thee: nor again the head to the feet, I have no need of you. Nay, much more those members of the body, which seem to be more feeble, are necessary: And those members of the body, which we think to be less honorable, upon these we bestow more abundant honor; and our un-comely parts have more abundant comeliness. For our comely parts have no need: but God hath tempered the body together, having given more abundant honor to that part which lacked: That there should be no schism in the body; but that the members should have the same care one for another. And thus if one member suffers all the members suffer with it; or, if one member is honored, all the members rejoice with it. Now ye are the body of Christ, and members in particular. And God hath set some in the church, first apostles, secondly prophets, thirdly teachers, next miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, diversities of languages. Are all apostles? are all prophets? are all teachers? are all workers of miracles? Have all the gifts of healing? do all speak in languages? do all interpret? But covet earnestly the best gifts. And yet I show to you a more excellent way.

Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal. And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing. And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing. Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up, Doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not its own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil; Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth; Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things. Charity never faileth: but whether there are prophecies, they shall fail; whether there are languages, they shall cease; whether there is knowledge, it shall vanish away. For we know in part, and we prophesy in part. But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away. When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things. For now we see through a glass darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known. And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity.

Follow after charity, and desire spiritual gifts, but rather

2 that ye may prophesy. For he that speaketh in an unknown 3 language, speaketh not to men, but to God: for no man under-4 standeth him; yet in the spirit he speaketh mysteries. But he 5 that prophesieth, speaketh to men to edification, and exhorta-6 tion, and comfort. He that speaketh in an unknown language 7 edifieth himself; but he that prophesieth edifieth the church. I 8 would that ye all spoke in languages, but rather that ye prophesied: 9 for greater is he that prophesieth than he that speaketh 10 in languages, except he interpret, that the church may receive 11 edifying. Now, brethren, if I come to you speaking in lan-12 guages, what shall I profit you, except I shall speak to you ei-13 ther by revelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by 14 doctrine? And even things without life giving sound, whether 15 pipe or harp, except they give a distinction in the sounds, how 16 shall it be known what is piped or harped? For if the trumpet 17 shall give an uncertain sound, who will prepare himself for bat-18 tle? So likewise ye, except ye utter by the tongue words easy 19 to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken? for ye 20 will speak into the air. There are, it may be, so many kinds of 21 voices in the world, and none of them is without signification.
Therefore, if I know not the meaning of the voice, I shall be to him that speaketh a barbarian, and he that speaketh will be a barbarian to me. Even so ye, forasmuch as ye are zealous of spiritual gifts, seek that ye may excel to the edifying of the church. Wherefore, let him that speaketh in an unknown language, pray that he may interpret. For if I pray in an un- known language, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is unfruitful. What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also: I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also. Else, when thou shalt bless with the spirit, how shall he that occupieth the room of the unlearned say Amen at thy giving of thanks, seeing he understandeth not what thou sayest? For thou verily givest thanks well, but the other is not edified. I thank my God, I speak in languages more than ye all: Yet in the church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, that by my voice I may teach others also, than ten thousand words in an unknown language. Brethren, be not children in understanding: yet in malice be ye children, but in understanding be men. In the law it is written, With men of other tongues and other lips will I speak to this people; and yet for all that will they not hear me, saith the Lord. Wherefore languages are for a sign, not to them that believe, but to them that believe not: but prophesying serveth not for them that believe not, but for them who believe. If therefore the whole church is assembled in one place, and all speak in languages, and there come in those that are unlearned, or unbelievers, will they not say that ye are insane? But if all prophesy, and there come in one that believeth not, or one unlearned, he is convinced by all, he is judged by all: And thus are the secrets of his heart made manifest; and so falling down on his face, he will worship God, and report that God is in you in truth. How is it then, brethren? when ye are assembled, every one of you hath a psalm, hath a doctrine, hath a language, hath a revelation, hath an interpretation. Let all things be done to edification. If any man speaketh in an unknown language, let it be by two, or at the most by three, and that by course; and let one interpret. But if there is no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church; and let him speak to himself, and to God. Let the prophets speak two or three, and let the others judge. If any thing is revealed to another that sitteth by, let the first hold his peace. For ye may all prophesy one by one, that all may learn, and all may be comforted. And the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets. For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints. Let your women keep silence in the churches; for it is not permitted to them to speak: but they are commanded to be under obedience, as also saith the law. And if they will learn any thing, let them ask their husbands at home; for it is a shame for women to speak in the church. What? came the word of God out from you? or came it to you only? If any man thinketh himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him acknowledge that the things that I write to you are the commandments of the Lord. But if any man is ignorant, let him be ignorant. Wherefore, brethren, covet to prophesy, and forbid not to speak in languages. Let all things be done decently, and in order.

Moreover, brethren, I declare to you the gospel which I preached to you, which also ye have received, and in which ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached to you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered to you first of all, that which I also received, that Christ died for our 4 sins, according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures: 5, 6 And that he was seen by Cephas, then by the twelve: After that he was seen by above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater part remain to this present, but some have 7 fallen asleep. After that he was seen by James; then by all 8 the apostles. And last of all he was seen by me also, as by one 9 born out of due time. For I am the least of the apostles, who am not worthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the 10 church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which was bestowed upon me, was not in vain; but I labored more abundantly than they all: yet not I, but the grace 11 of God which was with me. Therefore whether it was I or they, 12 so we preach, and so ye believed. Now if Christ is preached that he rose from the dead, how say some among you that there 13 is no resurrection of the dead? But if there is no resurrection 14 of the dead, then is Christ not raised. And if Christ is not raised, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain.

15 And indeed we are found false witnesses of God; because we have testified concerning God that he raised up Christ: whom 16 he raised not, if in truth the dead rise not. For if the dead rise 17 not, then is not Christ raised: And if Christ is not raised, your 18 faith is vain; ye are yet in your sins. Then they also who have 19 fallen asleep in Christ have perished. If in this life only we 20 have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable. But now is Christ raised from the dead, and become the first-fruits 21 of them that slept. For since by man came death, by man came 22 also the resurrection of the dead. For as in Adam all die, even 23 so in Christ shall all be made alive. But every man in his own order: Christ the first-fruits; afterward they that are Christ's 24 at his coming. Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall 25 have put down all rule, and all authority, and power. For he 26 must reign, till he hath put all enemies under his feet. The 27 last enemy that shall be destroyed is death. For he hath put all things under his feet. But when he saith, all things are put under him, it is manifest that he is excepted who did put all 28 things under him. And when all things shall be subdued to him, then shall the Son also himself be subject to him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all. Else what 29 will they do, who are baptized for the dead, if the dead rise not at all? why are they then baptized for the dead? And why 30 stand we in jeopardy every hour? I protest by your rejoicing 31 which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily. If after the 32 manner of men I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantage is it to me, if the dead rise not? let us eat and drink; for to-morrow we die. Be not deceived: Evil communications 33 corrupt good manners. Awake to righteousness, and sin not; 34 for some have not the knowledge of God. I speak this to your shame. But some man will say, How are the dead raised? and 35 with what body do they come? Thou fool, that which thou 36 sowest is not vivified except it die: And that which thou sow- 37 est, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare grain; it may be of wheat, or of some other grain: But God giveth 38 it a body as it hath pleased him, and to every seed its own body. All flesh is not the same flesh; but there is one kind 39 of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of fowls. There are also celestial bodies, and bodies 40 terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another. There is one glory of the sun, and 41 another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for one star differeth from another star in glory. So also is the 42 resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption, it is raised in incorruption: It is sown in dishonor, it is raised in glory: it 43 is sown in weakness, it is raised in power: It is sown a natural 44 body, it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body. And so it is written, The first man 45 Adam was made a living soul, the last Adam was made a viv-ifying spirit. However, that was not first which is spiritual, 46 but that which is natural; and afterward that which is spiritual. The first man is from the earth, earthy: the second man 47 is the Lord from heaven. As is the earthy, such are they also 48 that are earthy: and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly. And as we have borne the image of the earthy, 49 we shall also bear the image of the heavenly. Now this I say, 50 brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption. Behold, I 51 show you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last 52 trumpet; for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be 53 raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. For this cor-ruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put 54 on immortality. So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death 55 is swallowed up in victory. O death, where is thy sting? O 56 grave, where is thy victory? The sting of death is sin; and the 57 strength of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, who giveth 58 us the victory, through our Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord.

16 Now concerning the collection for the saints, as I have given 2 order to the churches of Galatia, even so do ye. Upon the first day of the week, let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him, that there be no collections when I 3 come. And when I come, whomsoever ye shall approve by your letters, them will I send to bring your liberality to Jerusalem.
4 And if it be proper that I should go also, they shall go with me.
5 Now I will come to you, when I shall pass through Macedonia: 6 for I am to pass through Macedonia. And it may be that I shall abide, and even winter with you, that ye may bring me 7 on my journey whithersoever I go. For I will not see you now by the way; but I trust to tarry a while with you, if the Lord 8, 9 permit. But I shall tarry at Ephesus until Pentecost. For a great door and effectual is opened to me, and there are many 10 adversaries. Now if Timothy come, see that he may be with you without fear: for he worketh the work of the Lord, as I 11 also do. Let no man therefore despise him: but conduct him forth in peace, that he may come to me: for I look for him with 12 the brethren. As concerning our brother Apollos, I greatly desired him to come to you with the brethren: but his will was not at all to come at this time; but he will come when he shall 13 have convenient time. Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, acquit 14 yourselves like men, be strong. Let all your things be done 15 with charity. I beseech you, brethren, (ye know the house of Stephanas, that it is the first fruits of Achaia, and that they 16 have addicted themselves to the ministry of the saints,) That ye submit yourselves to such, and to every one that helpeth with us, and laboreth. I am glad of the coming of Stephanas, 17 and Fortunatus, and Achaicus: for that which was lacking on 18 your part, they have supplied. For they have refreshed my spirit and yours: therefore acknowledge ye them that are such.

The churches of Asia salute you. Aquila and Priscilla salute 19 you much in the Lord, with the church that is in their house.
All the brethren greet you. Greet ye one another with a holy 20 kiss. The salutation of me Paul with my own hand. If any 21, 22 man loveth not the Lord Jesus Christ, let him be Anathema, Maran-atha. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. 23 My love be with you all in Christ Jesus. Amen. 24

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE CORINTHIANS.

1  aul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, to the church of God which is at Corinth, with all the saints who are in all Achaia: 2 Grace be to you and peace from God our Father, and 3 from the Lord Jesus Christ. Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God 4 of all consolation. Who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them who are in any trouble by the consolation with which we ourselves are comforted by God.
5 For as the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our consolati-6 on also aboundeth by Christ. And whether we are afflicted, it is for your consolation and salvation, which is effectual in the enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer: or whether we are comforted, it is for your consolation and sal-7 vation. And our hope of you is steadfast, knowing, that as ye are partakers of the sufferings, so shall ye be also of the 8 consolation. For we would not, brethren, have you ignorant of our trouble which came to us in Asia, that we were pressed out of measure, above strength, so that we despaired even of 9 life: But we had the sentence of death in ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God who raiseth the dead: 10 Who delivered us from so great a death, and doth deliver: in 11 whom we trust that he will yet deliver us: Ye also helping together by prayer for us, that for the gift bestowed upon us by the means of many persons, thanks may be given by many on 12 our behalf. For our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and godly sincerity, not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our manner of 13 life in the world, and more abundantly toward you. For we write no other things to you, than what ye read or acknowl-14 edge; and I trust ye will acknowledge even to the end; As also ye have acknowledged us in part, that we are your rejoicing, 15 even as ye also are ours in the day of the Lord Jesus. And in this confidence I purposed to come to you before, that ye might have a second benefit; And to pass by you into Macedonia, and to come again from Macedonia to you, and by you to be brought on my way towards Judea. When I therefore was thus minded, did I use levity? or the things that I purpose, do I purpose according to the flesh, that with me there should be yea, yea, and nay, nay? But as God is true, our word towards you was not yea and nay. For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us, even by me, and Silvanus, and Timothy, was not yea and nay, but in him was yea. For all the promises of God in him are yea, and in him Amen, to the glory of God by us. Now he who establisheth us with you in Christ, and hath anointed us, is God; Who hath also sealed us, and given the earnest of the spirit in our hearts. Moreover, I call God for a witness upon my soul, that to spare you I have not as yet come to Corinth. Not for that we have dominion over your faith, but are helpers of your joy: for by faith ye stand.

But I determined this with myself, that I would not come again to you in heaviness. For if I make you sorry, who is he then that maketh me glad, but the same who is made sorry by me? And I wrote this same to you, lest, coming I should have sorrow from them by whom I ought to rejoice; having confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all. For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote to you with many tears; not that ye should be grieved, but that ye might know the love which I have more abundantly to you. But if any hath caused grief, he hath not grieved me, but in part: that I may not overcharge you all. Sufficient to such a man is this punishment, which was inflicted by many. So that on the other hand, ye ought rather to forgive him, and comfort him, lest perhaps such one should be swallowed up with excessive sorrow. Wherefore I beseech you that ye would confirm your love towards him. For to this end also I wrote, that I might know the proof of you, whether ye are obedient in all things. To whom ye forgive any thing, I forgive also: for if I forgave any thing, to whom I forgave it, for your sakes I forgave it, in the person of Christ; Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices. Furthermore, when I came to Troas to preach the gospel of Christ, and a door was 13 opened to me by the Lord, I had no rest in my spirit, because I found not Titus my brother; but taking my leave of them, I 14 went from thence into Macedonia. Now thanks be to God, who always causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest 15 the savor of his knowledge by us in every place. For we are to God a sweet savor of Christ, in them that are saved, and 16 in them that perish: To the one we are the savor of death to death; and to the other the savor of life to life. And who is suf-17 ficient for these things? For we are not as many, who corrupt the word of God: but as from sincerity, but as from God, in the sight of God we speak in Christ.

3 Do we begin again to commend ourselves? or need we, as some others, epistles of commendation to you, or letters of com-2 mendation from you. Ye are our epistle written in our hearts, 3 known and read by all men: Forasmuch as ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not on tables 4 of stone, but on fleshly tables of the heart. And such trust we 5 have through Christ toward God. Not that we are sufficient by ourselves to think any thing as from ourselves; but our suf-6 ficiency is from God; Who also hath made us able ministers of the new testament; not of the letter, but of the spirit: for 7 the letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life. But if the ministration of death, written and engraven on stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not steadfastly behold the face of Moses for the glory of his countenance; which glory was 8 to be done away; How shall not the ministration of the Spirit 9 be rather glorious? For if the ministration of condemnation was glory, much more doth the ministration of righteousness 10 exceed in glory. For even that which was made glorious had no glory in this respect, by reason of the glory that excelleth.
11 For if that which was done away was glorious, much more that 12 which remaineth is glorious. Seeing then that we have such 13 hope, we use great plainness of speech: And not as Moses, who put a vail over his face, that the children of Israel could 14 not steadfastly look to the end of that which is abolished: But their minds were blinded: for until this day the same vail remaineth untaken away in the reading of the old testament; 15 which vail is done away in Christ. But even to this day, when 16 Moses is read, the vail is upon their heart. Nevertheless, when it shall turn to the Lord, the veil shall be taken away. Now the Lord is that Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty. But we all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord.

Therefore, seeing we have this ministry, as we have received 4 mercy, we faint not; But have renounced the hidden things of 2 dishonesty; not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God deceitfully; but, by manifestation of the truth, commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God. But if our gospel is hid, it is hid to them that are lost: In 3, 4 whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them who believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine to them. For we preach 5 not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord; and ourselves your servants for Jesus' sake. For God, who commanded the light 6 to shine out of darkness, hath shined into our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that 7 the excellence of the power may be of God, and not from us. We are troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but not in despair; Persecuted, but not forsaken; cast 9 down, but not destroyed; Always bearing about in the body 10 the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life also of Jesus may be made manifest in our body. For we who live are always delivered to death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus may be made manifest in our mortal flesh. So then death worketh in us, but life in you. We having the same spirit of faith, 13 according as it is written, I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak; Knowing, that he 14 who raised the Lord Jesus, will raise us also by Jesus, and will present us with you. For all things are for your sakes, that 15 the abundant grace may, through the thanksgiving of many, redound to the glory of God. For which cause we faint not; 16 but though our outward man is wasted, yet the inward man is renewed day by day. For our light affliction, which is but for 17 a moment, worketh out for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory; While we look not at the things which are 18 seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal.

5 For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, a house not made 2 with hands, eternal in the heavens. For in this we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed with our house which is from 3 heaven: If so be that being clothed we shall not be found 4 naked. For we that are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened: not because we would be unclothed, but clothed, that 5 mortality might be swallowed up in life. Now he that hath wrought us for this same thing is God, who also hath given to 6 us the earnest of the Spirit. Therefore we are always confident, knowing that, while we are at home in the body, we are 7 absent from the Lord: (For we walk by faith, not by sight:) 8 We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from 9 the body, and to be present with the Lord. Wherefore we labor, that, whether present or absent, we may be accepted 10 by him. For we must all appear before the judgment-seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, 11 according to what he hath done, whether good or bad. Knowing therefore the terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but we are made manifest to God; and I trust also are made manifest 12 in your consciences. For we commend not ourselves again to you, but give you occasion to glory on our behalf, that ye may have somewhat to answer them who glory in appearance, and 13 not in heart. For whether we are beside ourselves, it is to God: or whether we are sober, it is for your cause. For the love of Christ constraineth us; because we thus judge, that if one died 14 for all, then were all dead: And that he died for all, that they who live should not henceforth live to themselves, but to him 15 who died for them, and rose again. Wherefore henceforth we know no man according to the flesh: though indeed we have known Christ according to the flesh, yet now henceforth we 16 know him no more. Therefore, if any man is in Christ, he is a new creature: old things have passed away; behold, all things 17 have become new. And all things are from God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us 18 the ministry of reconciliation; To wit, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world to himself, not imputing their trespasses to them; and hath committed to us the word of reconciliation.
19 Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God. For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him. 21

We then, as co-workers with him, beseech you also that ye receive not the grace of God in vain. (For he saith, I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succored thee: behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation.) Giving no offense in any thing, that the ministry be not blamed: But in all things approving ourselves as the ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses, In stripes, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labors, in watchings, in fastings; By pureness, by knowledge, by long-suffering, by kindness, by the Holy Spirit, by love unfeigned, By the word of truth, by the power of God, by the armor of righteousness on the right hand and on the left, By honor and dishonor, by evil report and good report: as deceivers, and yet true; As unknown, and yet well known; as dying, and behold, we live; as chastened, and not killed; As sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things. O ye Corinthians, our mouth is open to you, our heart is enlarged. Ye are not straitened in us, but ye are straitened in your own bowels. Now for a recompense in the same (I speak as to my children,) be ye also enlarged. Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness? And what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel? And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you; And I will be a Father to you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty. 6

Having therefore these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God. Receive us; we have wronged no man, we have corrupted no man, we have defrauded no man. I speak not this to condemn you: for I have said before, that

4 ye are in our hearts to die and live with you. Great is my boldness of speech towards you, great is my glorying concerning you: I am filled with comfort, I am exceeding joyful in all 5 our tribulation. For, when we had come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled on every side; without were fightings, within were fears. Nevertheless God, that comforteth those that are cast down, comforted us by the coming of Titus; And not by his coming only, but by the consolation with which he was comforted in you, when he told us your earnest desire, your mourning, your fervent mind towards me; 6 so that I rejoiced the more. For though I made you sorry with a letter, I do not repent, though I did repent: for I perceive that the same epistle hath made you sorry, though it was but 7 for a season. Now I rejoice, not that ye were made sorry, but that ye sorrowed to repentance: for ye were made sorry after a godly manner, that ye might receive damage by us in nothing.
8 For godly sorrow worketh penitence to salvation not to be repented of: but the sorrow of the world worketh death. For behold this very thing, that ye sorrowed after a godly sort, what carefulness it wrought in you, yea, what clearing of yourselves, yea, what indignation, yea, what fear, yea, what vehement desire, yea, what zeal, yea, what avenging! In all things ye have 9 approved yourselves to be clear in this matter. Wherefore, though I wrote to you, I did it not for his cause that had done the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered wrong, but that our 10 care for you in the sight of God might appear to you. Therefore we were comforted in your comfort: and exceedingly the more we rejoiced for the joy of Titus, because his spirit was 11 refreshed by you all. For if I have boasted any thing to him concerning you, I am not ashamed; but as we spoke all things to you in truth, even so our boasting, which I made before Titus, is found a truth. And his tender affection is more abundant towards you, whilst he remembereth the obedience of you 12 all, how with fear and trembling ye received him. I rejoice therefore that I have confidence in you in all things.

8 Moreover, brethren, we make known to you the grace of God 2 bestowed on the churches of Macedonia; That in a great trial of affliction, the abundance of their joy, and their deep poverty, 3 abounded to the riches of their liberality. For to their power, I bear testimony, and even beyond their power, they were willing of themselves; Praying us with much entreaty, that we would 4 receive the gift, and take upon us the fellowship of the ministering to the saints. And this they did, not as we hoped, but 5 first gave their own selves to the Lord, and to us by the will of God: So that we desired Titus, that as he had begun, so he 6 would also finish in you the same grace also. Therefore, as ye 7 abound in every thing, in faith and utterance, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love to us, see that ye abound 8 in this grace also. I speak not by commandment, but by occasion of the forwardness of others, and to prove the sincerity of your love. For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, 9 that though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich. And in this I give 10 my advice: for this is expedient for you, who have begun before, not only to do, but also to be forward a year ago. Now there- 11 fore finish the doing of it; that as there was a readiness to will, so there may be a performance also out of that which ye have.

For if there is first a willing mind, it is accepted according to 12 what a man hath, and not according to what he hath not. For 13 I mean not that other men should be eased, and you burdened:
But by an equality, that now at this time your abundance may 14 be a supply for their want, that their abundance also may be a supply for your want: that there may be equality: As it is 15 written, He that had gathered much had nothing over; and he that had gathered little had no want. But thanks be to God, 16 who put the same earnest care into the heart of Titus for you.
For indeed he accepted the exhortation; but being more for- 17 ward, of his own accord he went to you. And we have sent 18 with him the brother, whose praise is in the gospel throughout all the churches; And not that only, but who was also chosen 19 by the churches to travel with us with this grace, which is administered by us to the glory of the same Lord, and declaration of your ready mind: Avoiding this, that no man should blame 20 us in this abundance which is administered by us: Providing 21 for honest things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men. And we have sent with them our brother, 22 whom we have often proved to be diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, upon the great confidence which I have in you. If any inquire concerning Titus, he is my partner 23 and fellow-helper concerning you: or our brethren be inquired of, they are the messengers of the churches, and the glory of 24 Christ. Wherefore show ye to them, and before the churches, the proof of your love, and of our boasting on your behalf.

9 For as concerning the ministering to the saints, it is super-2 fluous for me to write to you: For I know the forwardness of your mind, for which I boast of you to them of Macedonia, that Achaia was ready a year ago; and your zeal hath incited 3 very many. Yet have I sent the brethren, lest our boasting of you should be in vain in this behalf; that, as I said, ye may be 4 ready: Lest haply if they of Macedonia come with me, and find you unprepared, we (that we say not, ye) should be ashamed in 5 this same confident boasting. Therefore I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren, that they would go before to you, and make up before hand your bounty, of which ye had notice before, that the same might be ready, as a matter of bounty, and 6 not of covetousness. But this I say, He who soweth sparingly, shall reap also sparingly; and he who soweth bountifully, shall 7 reap also bountifully. Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or by constraint: for 8 God loveth a cheerful giver. And God is able to make all grace abound towards you; that ye always having all sufficiency in all 9 things, may abound to every good work: (As it is written, He hath dispersed; he hath given to the poor: his righteousness 10 remaineth for ever. Now may he that ministereth seed to the sower, both minister bread for your food, and multiply your 11 seed sown, and increase the fruits of your righteousness;) Being enriched in every thing to all bountifulness, which causeth 12 through us thanksgiving to God. For the administration of this service not only supplieth the want of the saints, but is 13 abundant also by many thanksgivings to God; While by the experiment of this ministration they glorify God for your professed subjection to the gospel of Christ, and for your liberal 14 distribution to them, and to all men; And by their prayer for you, who long after you, for the exceeding grace of God in you.
15 Thanks be to God for his unspeakable gift.

10 Now I Paul myself beseech you, by the meekness and gentleness of Christ, who in presence am base among you, but 2 being absent am bold towards you: But I beseech you, that I may not be bold when I am present with that confidence, with which I think to be bold against some, who think of us as if we walked according to the flesh. For though we walk in the flesh, 3 we do not war according to the flesh: (For the weapons of our 4 warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds;) Casting down imaginations, and every 5 high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ; And having in a readiness to avenge all disobedience, 6 when your obedience is fulfilled. Do ye look on things after 7 the outward appearance? If any man trusteth to himself that he is Christ's, let him of himself think this again, that, as he 8 is Christ's, even so are we Christ's. For though I should boast somewhat more of our authority, which the Lord hath given 8 us for edification, and not for your destruction, I should not be ashamed: That I may not seem as if I would terrify you by 9 letters. For his letters (say they) are weighty and powerful; 10 but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech contemptible.

Let such one think this, that such as we are in word by let- 11 ters when we are absent, such will we be also in deed when we are present. For we dare not make ourselves of the number, 12 or compare ourselves with some that commend themselves: but they measuring themselves by themselves, and compar- 13 ing themselves among themselves, are not wise. But we will not boast of things without our measure, but according to the 13 measure of the rule which God hath distributed to us, a measure to reach even to you. For we stretch not ourselves be- 14 yond our measure, as though we reached not to you; for we are come as far as to you also in preaching the gospel of Christ: Not boasting of things without our measure, that is, of other 15 men's labors; but having hope, when your faith is increased, that we shall be enlarged by you, according to our rule abundantly, To preach the gospel in the regions beyond you, and 16 not to boast in another man's line of things made ready to our hand. But he that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord. For not 17, 18 he that commendeth himself is approved, but whom the Lord commendeth.

I earnestly wish ye could bear with me a little in my folly: 11 and indeed bear with me. For I am jealous over you with godly 2 jealousy: for I have espoused you to one husband, that I may present you as a chaste virgin to Christ. But I fear, lest by 3 any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in 4 Christ. For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not ac-5 cepted, ye might well bear with him. For I suppose I was not a 6 whit behind the very greatest apostles. But though I am rude in speech, yet not in knowledge; but we have been thoroughly 7 made manifest among you in all things. Have I committed an offense in abasing myself that ye might be exalted, because 8 I have preached to you the gospel of God without reward? I robbed other churches, taking wages of them, to do you service.

9 And when I was present with you, and wanted, I was chargeable to no man: for that which was lacking to me the brethren who came from Macedonia supplied: and in all things I have kept myself from being burdensome to you, and so will I keep 10 myself. As the truth of Christ is in me, no man shall stop me 11 of this boasting in the regions of Achaia. Why? because I love 12 you not? God knoweth. But what I do, that I will do, that I may cut off occasion from them who desire occasion; that in 13 what they glory, they may be found even as we. For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into 14 the apostles of Christ. And no wonder; for Satan himself is 15 transformed into an angel of light. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also are transformed as the ministers of 16 righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works. I say again, Let no man think me a fool; if otherwise, yet as a 17 fool receive me, that I may boast myself a little. That which I speak, I speak it not according to the Lord, but as it were fool-18 ishly, in this confidence of boasting. Seeing that many glory 19 after the flesh, I will glory also. For ye suffer fools gladly, see-20 ing ye yourselves are wise. For ye suffer, if a man bringeth you into bondage, if a man devoureth you, if a man taketh from you, if a man exalteth himself, if a man smiteth you on 21 the face. I speak as concerning reproach, as though we had been weak. But in whatever respect any is bold, (I speak fool-22 ishly) I am bold also. Are they Hebrews? so am I. Are they Israelites? so am I. Are they the offspring of Abraham? so am 23 I. Are they ministers of Christ? (I speak as a fool) I am more; in labors more abundant, in stripes above measure, in prisons 24 more frequent, in deaths often. From the Jews five times I received forty stripes save one. Thrice was I beaten with rods, 25 once I was stoned, thrice I suffered shipwreck, a night and a 26 day I have been in the deep; In journeyings often, in perils 26 of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils by my own countrymen, in perils by the heathen, in perils in the city, in perils 27 in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren; In weariness and painfulness, in watchings often, 27 in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness.

 Besides those things that are without, that which cometh upon 28 me daily, the care of all the churches. Who is weak, and I am 29 not weak? who is made to fall into sin, and I burn not? If I 30 must needs glory, I will glory of the things which concern my infirmities. The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, 31 who is blessed for evermore, knoweth that I lie not. In Dam- 32 ascus the governor under Aretas the king kept the city of the Damascenes with a garrison, desirous to apprehend me: And 33 through a window in a basket I was let down by the wall, and escaped his hands.

It is not expedient for me doubtless to glory. I will come to 12 visions and revelations of the Lord. I knew a man in Christ 2 above fourteen years ago, (whether in the body, I cannot tell; or whether out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;) such 3 one caught up to the third heaven. And I knew such a man, 3 (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;) That he was caught up into paradise, and heard 4 unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter.
 Of such one will I glory: yet of myself I will not glory, but in 5 my infirmities. For though I would desire to glory, I shall not 6 be a fool; for I will say the truth: but now I forbear, lest any man should think of me above that which he seeth me to be, or 7 what he heareth from me. And lest I should be exalted above measure through the abundance of the revelations, there was 7 given to me a thorn in the flesh, the messenger of Satan to buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure. For this 8 thing I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me. And he said to me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my 9 strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me. Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, 10 in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for

- 11 Christ's sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong. I am become a fool in glorying; ye have compelled me: for I ought to 12 have been commended by you: for in nothing am I behind the very greatest apostles, though I am nothing. Truly the signs 13 of an apostle were wrought among you in all patience, in signs, and wonders, and mighty deeds. For what is that in which ye 14 were inferior to other churches, except that I myself was not burdensome to you? forgive me this wrong. Behold, the third 15 time I am ready to come to you; and I will not be burdensome to you: for I seek not yours, but you. For the children ought not 16 to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children. And I will very gladly spend and be spent for you; though the more 17 abundantly I love you, the less I am loved. But be it so, I did not burden you: nevertheless, being crafty, I caught you with 18 guile. Did I make a gain of you by any of them whom I sent to you? I desired Titus, and with him I sent a brother. Did 19 Titus make a gain of you? walked we not in the same spirit? walked we not in the same steps? Again, think ye that we 20 excuse ourselves to you? we speak before God in Christ: but we do all things, dearly beloved, for your edification. For I fear, lest, when I come, I shall not find you such as I would,
and that I shall be found by you such as ye would not: lest 21 there be debates, envyings, wraths, strifes, backbitings, whis-perings, swellings, tumults: And lest, when I come again, my God may humble me among you, and I shall bewail many who have sinned already, and have not repented of the uncleanness, and lewdness, and lasciviousness, which they have committed.
- 13 This is the third time I am coming to you: By the mouth 2 of two or three witnesses shall every word be established. I told you before, and foretell you, as if I were present, the sec-3 ond time; and being absent now I write to them who heretofore have sinned, and to all others, that, if I come again, I will not 4 spare; Since ye seek a proof of Christ speaking in me, who toward you is not weak, but is mighty in you. For though he was 5 crucified through weakness, yet he liveth by the power of God.
For we also are weak in him, but we shall live with him by the 6 power of God towards you. Examine yourselves, whether ye are in the faith; prove your own selves. Know ye not your own 7 selves, that Jesus Christ is in you, except ye are reprobates. Now But I trust that ye will know that we are not reprobates. Now

I pray to God that ye do no evil; not that we should appear approved, but that ye should do that which is honest, though we should be as reprobates. For we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth. For we are glad, when we are weak, and ye are strong: and this also we wish, even your perfection. Therefore I write these things being absent, lest being present I should use sharpness, according to the power which the Lord hath given me to edification, and not to destruction. Finally, brethren, farewell. Be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love and peace will be with you. Greet one another with a holy kiss. All the saints salute you. The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit, be with you all. Amen.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE GALATIANS.

1 Paul, an apostle, (not from men, neither by man, but 2 by Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who raised him 3 from the dead;) And all the brethren who are with 4 me, to the churches of Galatia: Grace be to you and 5, 6 peace from God the Father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ, 7 Who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from 8 this present evil world, according to the will of God and our 9 Father: To whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen. I mar-10 vel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into 11 the grace of Christ, to another gospel: Which is not another; 12 but there are some that trouble you, and would pervert the 13 gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, 14 should preach any other gospel to you than that which we have 15 preached to you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so I 16 say now again, If any man preacheth any other gospel to you 17 than that ye have received, let him be accursed. For do I now 18 persuade men, or God? or do I seek to please men? for if I yet 19 pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ. But I cer-20 tify you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached by me is not according to man. For I neither received it from man, neither was I taught it, but by the revelation of Jesus Christ.
For ye have heard of my manner of life in time past in the Jews' religion, that beyond measure I persecuted the church of God, and wasted it; And profited in the Jews' religion above many my equals in my own nation, being more exceedingly zealous of the traditions of my fathers. But when it pleased God, who separated me from my mother's womb, and called me by his grace, To reveal his Son in me, that I might preach him among the heathen; immediately I conferred not with flesh and blood: Neither did I go to Jerusalem to them who were apostles before me: but I went into Arabia, and returned again to Damascus.
Then after three years I went to Jerusalem to see Peter, and abode with him fifteen days. But I saw no other of the apostles, save James the Lord's brother. Now the things which I write to you, behold, before God, I lie not. Afterwards I came 21 into the regions of Syria and Cilicia; And was unknown by 22 face to the churches of Judea which were in Christ: But they 23 had heard only, That he who persecuted us in times past, now preacheth the faith which once he destroyed. And they glori- 24 fied God in me.

Then fourteen years after I went again to Jerusalem with 2 Barnabas, and took Titus with me also. And I went by reve- 2 lation, and communicated to them that gospel which I preach among the Gentiles, but privately to them who were of reputation, lest by any means I should run, or had run in vain.
But neither Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was com- 3 pelled to be circumcised: And that because of false brethren 4 unawares brought in, who came in privately to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage: To whom we gave place by subjection, no, 5 not for an hour; that the truth of the gospel might continue with you. But of these, who seemed to be somewhat, (what- 6 ever they were, it maketh no matter to me: God accepteth no man's person:) for they who seemed to be somewhat, in conference added nothing to me: But on the contrary, when they 7 saw that the gospel of the uncircumcision was committed to me, as the gospel of the circumcision was to Peter; (For he 8 that wrought effectually in Peter to the apostleship of the circumcision, the same was mighty in me towards the Gentiles:) And when James, Cephas, and John, who seemed to be pillars, 9 perceived the grace that was given to me, they gave to me and Barnabas the right hands of fellowship; that we should go to the heathen, and they to the circumcision. Only they would 10 that we should remember the poor; the same which I also was forward to do. But when Peter had come to Antioch, I with- 11 stood him to the face, because he was to be blamed. For before 12 that certain came from James, he used to eat with the Gentiles: but when they had come, he withdrew, and separated himself, fearing them who were of the circumcision. And the other 13 Jews dissembled likewise with him; so that Barnabas also was carried away with their dissimulation. But when I saw that 14 they walked not uprightly according to the truth of the gospel, I said to Peter before them all, If thou, being a Jew, livest after the manner of Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, why compellest 15 thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jews? We who are Jews by 16 nature, and not sinners of the Gentiles, Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we may be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: 17 for by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified. But if, while we seek to be justified by Christ, we ourselves also are found sinners, is therefore Christ the minister of sin? By no 18 means. For if I build again the things which I destroyed, I 19 make myself a transgressor. For I through the law am dead 20 to the law, that I may live to God. I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless, I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh, I live by the faith of the Son 21 of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me. I do not frustrate the grace of God: for if righteousness is attainable by the law, then Christ hath died in vain.

3 O foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been 2 evidently set forth, crucified among you? This only would I learn from you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, 3 or by the hearing of faith? Are ye so foolish? having begun 4 in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh? Have 5 ye suffered so many things in vain? if it is yet in vain. He therefore that ministereth to you the Spirit, and worketh miracles among you, doeth he this by the works of the law, or by 6 the hearing of faith? Even as Abraham believed God, and it 7 was accounted to him for righteousness. Know ye therefore, that they who are of faith, the same are the children of Abra-8 ham. And the scripture foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel to Abraham, 9 saying, In thee shall all nations be blessed. So then they who 10 are of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham. For as many as are of the works of the law, are under the curse: for it is written, Accursed is every one that continueth not in all things 11 which are written in the book of the law to do them. But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, is evident: 12 for, The just shall live by faith. And the law is not of faith: 13 but, The man that doeth them shall live by them. Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Accursed is every one that hangeth on a tree: That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gen- 14 tiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive the promise 15 of the Spirit through faith. Brethren, I speak after the man- 16 ner of men; Though it is but a man's covenant, yet if it is con- 17 firmed, no man disannulleth or addeth to it. Now to Abraham 18 and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to 19 seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is 20 Christ. And this I say, that the covenant that was confirmed 21 before by God in Christ, the law, which was four hundred and 22 thirty years after, cannot disannul, that it should make the 23 promise of no effect. For if the inheritance is by the law, it is 24 no more by promise: but God gave it to Abraham by promise. 25 What purpose then serveth the law? It was added because of 26 transgressions, till the seed should come to whom the promise 27 was made; and it was ordained by angels in the hand of a medi- 28 ator. Now a mediator is not a mediator of one; but God is one. 29 Is the law then against the promises of God? By no means: 30 for if there had been a law given which could give life, verily 31 righteousness would have been by the law. But the scripture 32 hath concluded all under sin, that the promise by faith of Je- 33 sus Christ might be given to them that believe. But before 34 faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up to the faith 35 which should afterwards be revealed. Wherefore the law was 36 our school-master to bring us to Christ, that we might be justi- 37 fied by faith. But after faith is come, we are no longer under a 38 school-master. For ye are all children of God by faith in Christ 39 Jesus. For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ, 40 have put on Christ. There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is 41 neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye 42 are all one in Christ Jesus. And if ye are Christ's, then are ye 43 Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise. 44

Now I say, That the heir, as long as he is a child, differ- 4 eth nothing from a servant, though he is lord of all; But is 2 under tutors and governors until the time appointed by the fa- 3 ther. Even so we, when we were children, were in bondage 4 under the elements of the world: But when the fullness of 5 the time was come, God sent forth his Son, born of a woman, 6 born under the law, To redeem them that were under the law, 7 that we might receive the adoption of sons. And because ye 8 are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your 9 7 hearts, crying, Abba, Father. Wherefore thou art no more a 8 servant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God through 9 Christ. However then, when ye knew not God, ye did service 10 to them which by nature are no gods. But now, after ye have 11 known God, or rather are known by God, how turn ye again 12 to the weak and beggarly elements, to which ye desire again 13 to be in bondage? Ye observe days, and months, and times, 14 and years. I am afraid of you, lest I have bestowed upon you 15 labor in vain. Brethren, I beseech you, be as I am; for I am 16 as ye are: ye have not injured me at all. Ye know that in in-17 firmity of the flesh I preached the gospel to you at the first.

18 And my temptation which was in my flesh ye despised not, nor 19 rejected; but received me as an angel of God, even as Christ Je-20 sus. What then was the blessedness ye spoke of; for I bear you 21 testimony, that, if it had been possible, ye would have plucked 22 out your own eyes, and have given them to me. Am I there-23 fore become your enemy because I tell you the truth? They 24 zealously affect you, but not well; for, they would exclude you, 25 that ye may affect them. But it is good to be zealously affected 26 always in a good thing, and not only when I am present with 27 you. My little children, of whom I travail in birth again, un-28 til Christ be formed in you, I desire to be present with you 29 now, and to change my voice; for I stand in doubt of you. Tell 30 me, ye that desire to be under the law, do ye not hear the law?
For it is written, that Abraham had two sons; the one by a bond-maid, the other by a free-woman. But he who was of the bond-woman, was born according to the flesh; but he of the free-woman was by promise. Which things are an allegory: for these are the two covenants; the one from the mount Sinai, which gendereth to bondage, which is Agar. For this Agar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and answereth to Jerusalem which now is, and is in bondage with her children. But Jerusalem which is above is free, which is the mother of us all. For it is written, Rejoice, thou barren that bearest not; break forth and cry, thou that travailest not: for the desolate hath many more children than she who hath a husband. Now we, brethren, as Isaac was, are the children of promise. But as then he that was born according to the flesh persecuted him that was born according to the Spirit, even so it is now. Nevertheless, what saith the scripture? Cast out the bond-woman and her son: for the son of the bond-woman shall not be heir with the son of the free-woman. So then, brethren, we are not children of the 31 bond-woman, but of the free.

Stand fast therefore in the liberty with which Christ hath 5 made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage. Behold, I Paul say to you, that if ye be circum- 2 cised, Christ will profit you nothing. For I testify again to 3 every man that is circumcised, that he is a debtor to do the whole law. Christ is become of no effect to you, whoever of 4 you are justified by the law; ye have fallen from grace. For we 5 through the Spirit wait for the hope of righteousness by faith.
For in Jesus Christ neither circumcision availeth any thing, 6 nor uncircumcision; but faith which worketh by love. Ye did 7 run well, who hindered you that ye should not obey the truth?
This persuasion cometh not from him that calleth you. A lit- 8,9 tle leaven leaveneth the whole lump. I have confidence in you 10 through the Lord, that ye will be no otherwise minded: but he that troubleth you shall bear his judgment, whoever he may be. And I, brethren, if I yet preach circumcision, why do I yet 11 suffer persecution? then hath the offense of the cross ceased.
I would they were even cut off who trouble you. For, brethren, 12, 13 ye have been called to liberty; only use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but by love serve one another. For all the 14 law is fulfilled in one word, even in this, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. But if ye bite and devour one another, 15 take heed that ye be not consumed one by another. This I say 16 then, Walk in the Spirit, and ye will not fulfill the lust of the flesh. For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit 17 against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other; so that ye cannot do the things that ye would. But if ye are led 18 by the Spirit, ye are not under the law. Now the works of the 19 flesh are manifest, which are these, Adultery, fornication, un-cleanness, lasciviousness, Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, vari- 20 ance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies, Envyings, 21 murders, drunkenness, revelings, and such like: of which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they who 22 do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God. But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, long-suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, Meekness, temperance: against such there is 23 no law. And they that are Christ's have crucified the flesh, 24 25 with the affections and lusts. If we live in the Spirit, let us 26 also walk in the Spirit. Let us not be desirous of vain-glory, provoking one another, envying one another.

6 Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye who are spiritual, restore such one in the spirit of meekness; considering 2 thyself, lest thou also be tempted. Bear ye one another's bur-3 dens, and so fulfill the law of Christ. For if a man thinketh himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceiveth him-4 self. But let every man prove his own work, and then shall he 5 have rejoicing in himself alone, and not in another. For every 6 man shall bear his own burden. Let him that is taught in the 7 word communicate to him that teacheth in all good things. Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatever a man soweth, 8 that shall he also reap. For he that soweth to his flesh shall from the flesh reap corruption: but he that soweth to the Spirit, 9 shall from the Spirit reap life everlasting. And let us not be weary in well-doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we 10 faint not. As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good to all men, especially to them who are of the household of faith.
11 Ye see how large a letter I have written to you with my own 12 hand. As many as desire to make a fair show in the flesh, they constrain you to be circumcised; only lest they should suf-13 fer persecution for the cross of Christ. For neither they themselves who are circumcised keep the law; but desire to have 14 you circumcised, that they may glory in your flesh. But may it never be that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the world is crucified to me, and I to 15 the world. For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision availeth 16 any thing, nor uncircumcision, but a new creature. And as many as walk according to this rule, peace be on them, and 17 mercy, and upon the Israel of God. From henceforth let no man trouble me: for I bear in my body the marks of the Lord 18 Jesus. Brethren, the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE EPHESIANS.

 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, to 1 the saints who are at Ephesus, and to the faithful in 2 Christ Jesus: Grace be to you, and peace from God 2 our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ. Blessed 3 be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath 3 blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in 4 Christ: According as he hath chosen us in him, before the 4 foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without 5 blame before him in love: Having predestinated us to the 5 adoption of children to himself by Jesus Christ, according to 6 the good pleasure of his will, To the praise of the glory of 6 his grace, in which he hath made us accepted in the beloved: 6 In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgive- 7 ness of sins, according to the riches of his grace; In which he 8 hath abounded towards us in all wisdom and prudence; Hav- 9 ing made known to us the mystery of his will, according to 9 his good pleasure which he hath purposed in himself: That 10 in the dispensation of the fullness of times he might collect in 10 one all things in Christ, both which are in heaven, and which 11 are on earth; even in him: In whom also we have obtained 11 an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose 12 of him who worketh all things after the counsel of his own will: 12 That we should be to the praise of his glory, who first trusted 12 in Christ. In whom ye also trusted, after ye heard the word of 13 truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after ye be- 13 lieved, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, Which 14 is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the 14 purchased possession, to the praise of his glory. Wherefore 15 I also, having heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus, and love 15 to all the saints, Cease not to give thanks for you, making 16 mention of you in my prayers; That the God of our Lord Jesus 17 Christ, the Father of glory, may give to you the spirit of wisdom 17 and revelation in the knowledge of him: The eyes of your un- 18 derstanding being enlightened; that ye may know what is the hope of his calling, and what the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints, And what is the exceeding greatness of his power toward us who believe, according to the working of his mighty power, Which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places, Far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come: And put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the head over all things to the church, Which is his body, the fullness of him that filleth all in all.

2 And you hath he revived, who were dead in trespasses and sins; In which in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience: Among whom also we all had our manner of life in times past in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind; and were by nature the children of wrath, even as others. But God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love with which he loved us, Even when we were dead in sins, hath made us alive together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved;) And hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places, in Christ Jesus: That in the ages to come he might show the exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness towards us, through Christ Jesus. For by grace are ye saved, through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not by works, lest any man should boast. For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus to good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them. Wherefore remember, that ye being in time past Gentiles in the flesh, who are called Uncircumcision by that which is called the Circumcision in the flesh made by hands; That at that time ye were without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world: But now, in Christ Jesus, ye, who formerly were far off, are made nigh by the blood of Christ. For he is our peace, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us; Having abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances: to make in himself of two one new man, so making peace; And that he might reconcile both to God in one body by the cross, having by it slain the enmity: And came and preached peace to you who were afar off, and to them that were nigh. For through him we both have an access by one Spirit to the Father. Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellow-citizens with the saints, and of the household of God; And are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner -stone; In whom all the building fitly framed together, groweth to a holy temple in the Lord: In whom ye also are built together, for a habitation of God through the Spirit.

For this cause, I Paul, the prisoner of Jesus Christ for you 3 Gentiles, If ye have heard of the dispensation of the grace of God which is given me on your account. That by revelation he made known to me the mystery, as I wrote before in few words; By which when ye read, ye may understand my knowledge in the mystery of Christ, Which in other ages was not made known to the sons of men, as it is now revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit; That the Gentiles should be joint-heirs, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in Christ by the Gospel: Of which I was made a minister, according to the gift of the grace of God given to me by the effectual working of his power. To me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ; And to make all men see what is the fellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God, who created all things by Jesus Christ: To the intent that now to the principalities and powers in heavenly places might be known by the church the manifold wisdom of God, According to the eternal purpose which he purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord: In whom we have boldness and access with confidence by the faith of him, Wherefore I desire that ye faint not at my tribulations for you, which is your glory. For this cause I bow my knees to the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named, That he would grant you according to the riches of his glory to be strengthened with might by his Spirit in the inner man; That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; that ye, being rooted and

18 grounded in love, May be able to comprehend with all saints 19 what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and highth. And to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye 20 may be filled with all the fullness of God. Now to him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, 21 according to the power that worketh in us. To him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, world without end. Amen.

4 I therefore, the prisoner of the Lord, beseech you that ye 2 walk worthy of the vocation by which ye are called, With all lowliness and meekness, with long-suffering, forbearing one 3 another in love; Endeavoring to keep the unity of the Spirit 4 in the bond of peace. There is one body, and one Spirit, even 5 as ye are called in one hope of your calling; One Lord, one 6 faith, one baptism, One God and Father of all, who is above 7 all, and through all, and in you all. But to every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ.
8 Wherefore he saith, When he ascended on high, he led cap-9 tivity captive, and gave gifts to men. Now that he ascended, what is it but that he also descended first into the lower parts 10 of the earth? He that descended is the same also that as-11 cended far above all heavens, that he might fill all things. And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evan-12 gelists; and some, pastors and teachers; For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of 13 the body of Christ: Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to a perfect man, to 14 the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ: That we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and 15 cunning craftiness, by which they lie in wait to deceive: But speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, 16 who is the head, even Christ: From whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body to the edifying of 17 itself in love. This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that ye henceforth walk not as other Gentiles walk, in the van-18 ity of their mind, Having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart: Who being past 19 feeling have given themselves over to lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greediness. But ye have not so learned 20 Christ; If indeed ye have heard him, and have been taught 21 by him, as the truth is in Jesus: That ye put off concerning 22 the former manner of life the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts: And be renewed in the Spirit 23 of your mind; And that ye put on the new man, which after 24 God is created in righteousness and true holiness. Wherefore 25 putting away lying, speak every man truth with his neighbor: for we are members one of another. Be ye angry, and sin not: 26 let not the sun go down upon your wrath: Neither give place 27 to the devil. Let him that stole steal no more: but rather let 28 him labor, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have to give to him that needeth. Let no corrupt 29 communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace to the hearers. And grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are 30 sealed to the day of redemption. Let all bitterness, and wrath, 31 and anger, and clamor, and evil-speaking, be put away from you, with all malice: And be ye kind one to another, tender- 32 hearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you.

Be ye therefore followers of God, as dear children; And 5, 2 walk in love, as Christ also hath loved us, and hath given himself for us an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet-smelling savor. But lewdness and all uncleanness or covetous- 3 ness, let it not be once named among you, as becometh saints; Neither filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, which are 4 not convenient: but rather giving of thanks. For this ye know, 5 that no lewd, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God. Let no man deceive you with vain words: for because of 6 these things cometh the wrath of God upon the children of disobedience. Be ye not therefore partakers with them. For ye 7, 8 were sometime darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord: walk as children of light; (For the fruit of the Spirit is in all good- 9 ness, and righteousness, and truth;) Proving what is accept- 10 able to the Lord. And have no fellowship with the unfruitful 11 works of darkness, but rather reprove them. For it is a shame 12 even to speak of those things which are done by them in secret. But all things that are reprov'd, are made manifest by the light: for whatever doth make manifest is light. Wherefore he saith, Awake, thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ will give thee light. See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, Redeeming the time, because the days are evil. Wherefore be ye not unwise, but understanding what the will of the Lord is. And be not drunk with wine, in which is excess; but be filled with the Spirit; Speaking to yourselves in psalms, and hymns, and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord, Giving thanks always for all things to God and the Father, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ; Submitting yourselves one to another in the fear of God. Wives, submit yourselves to your own husbands, as to the Lord. For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the church: and he is the Savior of the body. Therefore as the church is subject to Christ, so let wives be to their own husbands in every thing. Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it; That he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word, That he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish. So ought men to love their wives, as their own bodies. He that loveth his wife, loveth himself. For no man ever yet hated his own flesh; but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as the Lord the church: For we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones. For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined to his wife, and they two shall be one flesh. This is a great mystery: but I speak concerning Christ and the church. Nevertheless, let every one of you in particular so love his wife even as himself: and the wife see that she reverence her husband.

6 Children, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right. Honor thy father and mother (which is the first commandment with promise) That it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth. And, ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. Servants, be obedient to them that are your masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, as to Christ; Not with eye- 6 service, as men-pleasers; but as the servants of Christ, doing 7 the will of God from the heart; With good will doing service, 7 as to the Lord, and not to men: Knowing that whatever good 8 thing any man doeth, the same will he receive from the Lord, 8 whether he be bond or free. And, ye masters, do the same 9 things to them, forbearing threatening: knowing that your 9 Master also is in heaven; neither is there respect of persons 10 with him. Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in 10 the power of his might. Put on the whole armor of God, that 11 ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. For 12 we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, 12 against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this 13 world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. Where- 13 fore take to you the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to 14 withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand. Stand 14 therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having 15 on the breast-plate of righteousness; And your feet shod with 15 the preparation of the gospel of peace; Above all, taking the 16 shield of faith, with which ye will be able to extinguish all the 16 fiery darts of the wicked. And take the helmet of salvation, 17 and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God: Praying 18 always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and 18 watching for this purpose with all perseverance and supplica- 19 tion for all saints; And for me, that utterance may be given to 19 me, that I may open my mouth boldly, to make known the mys- 20 tery of the gospel, For which I am an ambassador in bonds: 20 that therein I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak. But that 21 ye also may know my affairs, and how I do, Tychicus, a beloved 21 brother and faithful minister in the Lord, will make known to 22 you all things: Whom I have sent to you for the same pur- 22 pose, that ye may know our affairs, and that he may comfort 23 your hearts. Peace be to the brethren, and love with faith from 23 God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. Grace be with all 24 them that love our Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity. Amen. 24

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE PHILIPPIANS.

1 aul and Timothy, the servants of Jesus Christ, to all the saints in Christ Jesus who are at Philippi, with 2 the bishops and deacons: Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ.
3, 4 I thank my God upon every remembrance of you, Always in 5 every prayer of mine for you all making request with joy, For 6 your fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now; Being confident of this very thing, that he who hath begun a good work in you, will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ: 7 Even as it is meet for me to think this of you all, because I have you in my heart; inasmuch as both in my bonds, and in the defense and confirmation of the gospel, ye all are partakers of my 8 grace. For God is my witness, how greatly I long after you all 9 in the bowels of Jesus Christ. And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all judg-10 ment; That ye may approve things that are excellent; that ye 11 may be sincere and without offense till the day of Christ; Being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus 12 Christ, to the glory and praise of God. But I would ye should understand, brethren, that the things which happened to me 13 have fallen out rather to the furtherance of the gospel; So that my bonds in Christ are manifest in all the palace, and in all 14 other places; And many of the brethren in the Lord, becoming confident by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word 15 without fear. Some indeed preach Christ even from envy and 16 strife; and some also from good will. The one preach Christ from contention, not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to 17 my bonds: But the other from love, knowing that I am set for the defense of the gospel. What then? notwithstanding, every 18 way, whether in pretense or in truth, Christ is preached; and I 19 therein do rejoyce, yes, and will rejoyce. For I know that this will turn to my salvation through your prayer, and the supply 20 of the Spirit of Jesus Christ, According to my earnest expectation and hope, that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but that with all boldness, as always, so now also, Christ will be magnified in my body, whether by life, or by death. For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain. But if I live in the flesh, this is the fruit of my labor: yet what I shall choose I know not. For I am in a strait betwixt two, having a desire to depart, and to be with Christ; which is far better: Nevertheless, to abide in the flesh is more needful for you. And having this confidence, I know that I shall abide and continue with you all for your furtherance and joy of faith; That your rejoicing for me may be more abundant in Jesus Christ by my coming to you again. Only let your manner of life be as it becometh the gospel of Christ: that whether I come and see you, or else be absent, I may hear of your affairs, that ye stand fast in one spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the gospel; And in nothing terrified by your adversaries: which is to them an evident token of perdition, but to you of salvation, and that from God. For to you it is given in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for his sake; Having the same conflict which ye saw in me, and now hear to be in me.

If there is therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any bowels and mercies, Fulfill ye my joy, that ye be like-minded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind. Let nothing be done through strife or vain glory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves. Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others. Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus: Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God: But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men: And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient to death, even the death of the cross. Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name: That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things on earth, and things under the earth; And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling. 2

13 For it is God who worketh in you both to will and to do of his 14 good pleasure. Do all things without murmurings and dis-15 putings: That ye may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse 16 nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world; Holding forth the word of life; that I may rejoice in the day of Christ, 17 that I have not run in vain, neither labored in vain. And if I am even offered upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, 18 I joy, and rejoice with you all. For the same cause also do 19 ye joy, and rejoice with me. But I trust in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy shortly to you, that I also may be of good com-20 fort, when I know your state. For I have no man like-minded, 21 who will naturally care for your state. For all seek their own, 22 not the things of Jesus Christ. But ye know the proof of him, that as a son with the father, he hath served with me in the 23 gospel. Him therefore I hope to send presently, so soon as I 24 shall see how it will go with me. But I trust in the Lord that I 25 also myself shall come shortly. Yet I supposed it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus, my brother, and companion in labor, and fellow-soldier, but your messenger, and he that ministered 26 to my wants. For he longed after you all, and was full of heav-27 iness, because ye had heard that he was sick. For indeed he was sick nigh to death: but God had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon 28 sorrow. I sent him therefore the more speedily, that, when ye see him again, ye may rejoice, and that I may be the less sor-29 rowful. Receive him therefore in the Lord with all gladness; 30 and hold such in reputation: Because for the work of Christ he was nigh to death, not regarding his life, to supply the want of your service towards me.

3 Finally, my brethren, rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not grievous, but for you it is 2 safe. Beware of dogs, beware of evil-workers, beware of the 3 concision. For we are the circumcision, who worship God in the spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence 4 in the flesh. Though I might also have confidence in the flesh.
If any other man thinketh that he hath reason to trust in the 5 flesh, I more: Circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of the Hebrews; with 6 respect to the law, a Pharisee; Concerning zeal, persecuting the church; with respect to the righteousness which is by the law, blameless. But what things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ. Yes doubtless, and I count all things to be loss for the excellence of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them to be dung, that I may win Christ, And be found in him, not having my own righteousness, which is from the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is from God by faith: That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable to his death; If by any means I may attain to the resurrection of the dead. Not as though I had already attained, either were already perfect: but I pursue, if that I may apprehend that for which also I am apprehended by Christ Jesus. Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forward to those things which are before, I press towards the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus. Let us therefore, as many as are perfect, be thus minded: and if in any thing ye are otherwise minded, God will reveal even this to you. Nevertheless, to what we have already attained, let us walk by the same rule, let us mind the same thing. Brethren, be followers together of me, and mark them who walk so as ye have us for an example. (For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ: Whose end is destruction, whose God is their belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who mind earthly things.) For our conversation is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ: Who will change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like to his glorious body, according to the working by which he is able even to subdue all things to himself.

Therefore, my brethren dearly beloved and longed for, my joy and crown, so stand fast in the Lord, my dearly beloved. I beseech Euodias, and beseech Syntyche, that they be of the same mind in the Lord. And I entreat thee also, true yoke-fellow, help those women who labored with me in the gospel, with Clement also, and with other my fellow-laborers, whose names are in the book of life. Rejoice in the Lord always: 4 5 and again I say, Rejoice. Let your moderation be known to 6 all men. The Lord is at hand. Be anxious for nothing; but 7 in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving 8 let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of 9 God, which passeth all understanding, will keep your hearts 10 and minds through Christ Jesus. Finally, brethren, whatever 11 things are true, whatever things are honest, whatever things 12 are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, 13 whatever things are of good report; if there is any virtue, and 14 if there is any praise, think on these things. Those things, 15 which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen 16 in me, do: and the God of peace will be with you. But I rejoiced 17 in the Lord greatly, that now at the last your care of me hath 18 flourished again; wherein ye were also careful, but ye lacked 19 opportunity. Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have 20 learned, in whatever state I am, with that to be content. I 21 know both how to be abased, and I know how to abound: every 22 where and in all things I am instructed both to be full and to be 23 hungry, both to abound and to suffer need. I can do all things through Christ who strengtheneth me. Notwithstanding ye have done well, that ye did communicate with my affliction.

Now, ye Philippians, know also, that in the beginning of the gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, no church communicated with me as concerning giving and receiving, but ye only.
For even in Thessalonica ye sent once and again to my necessity. Not because I desire a gift: but I desire fruit that may abound to your account. But I have all, and abound: I am full, having received from Epaphroditus the things which were sent from you, an odor of a sweet smell, a sacrifice acceptable, well-pleasing to God. But my God will supply all your need according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus. Now to God and our Father be glory for ever and ever. Amen. Salute every saint in Christ Jesus. The brethren who are with me greet you. All the saints salute you, chiefly they that are of Cesar's household. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.
Amen.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE COLOSSIANS.

Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, 1 and Timothy our brother, To the saints and faith- 2 ful brethren in Christ who are at Colosse: Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. We give thanks to God and the Father of our 3 Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you, Since we heard of 4 your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love which ye have to all the saints, For the hope which is laid up for you in heaven, 5 of which ye have heard before in the word of the truth of the gospel; Which is come to you, as it is in all the world; and 6 bringeth forth fruit, as it doth also in you, since the day ye heard of it, and knew the grace of God in truth: As ye also 7 learned from Epaphras our dear fellow-servant, who is for you a faithful minister of Christ; Who also declared to us your love 8 in the Spirit. For this cause we also, since the day we heard 9 it, do not cease to pray for you, and to desire that ye may be filled with the knowledge of his will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding; That ye may walk worthy of the Lord 10 to all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God; Strengthened with all might, 11 according to his glorious power, to all patience and long-suffering with joyfulness; Giving thanks to the Father, who hath made 12 us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light: Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath 13 translated us into the kingdom of his beloved Son: In whom 14 we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins: Who is the image of the invisible God, the first-born 15 of every creature: For by him were all things created, that 16 are in heaven, and that are upon earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him: And he is before all 17 things, and by him all things consist. And he is the head of the 18 body, the church: who is the beginning, the first-born from the dead; that in all things he may have the pre-eminence. For it 19 20 pleased the Father that in him should all fullness dwell; And, having made peace through the blood of his cross, by him to reconcile all things to himself; by him, I say, whether they are 21 things on earth, or things in heaven. And you, that were formerly alienated and enemies in your mind by wicked works, 22 yet now hath he reconciled, In the body of his flesh through death, to present you holy and unblamable and unreprouable 23 in his sight: If ye continue in the faith grounded and settled, and are not moved away from the hope of the gospel, which ye have heard, and which hath been preached to every creature which is under heaven; of which I Paul am made a minister; 24 Who now rejoice in my sufferings for you, and fill up that which is behind of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh for his body's 25 sake, which is the church: Of which I am made a minister, according to the dispensation of God which is given to me for you, 26 to fulfill the word of God; Even the mystery which hath been hid from ages, and from generations, but now is made manifest 27 to his saints: To whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; which 28 is Christ in you, the hope of glory: Whom we preach, warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom; that we 29 may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus. For which I also labor, striving according to his working, which worketh in me mightily.

2 For I would that ye knew what great conflict I have for you, and for them at Laodicea, and for as many as have not seen 2 my face in the flesh; That their hearts may be comforted, being knit together in love, and to all riches of the full assurance of understanding to the acknowledgment of the mystery 3 of God, and of the Father, and of Christ; In whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge. And this I say, lest 4 any man should deceive you with enticing words. For though I am absent in the flesh, yet I am with you in the spirit, joying and beholding your order, and the steadfastness of your 5 faith in Christ. As ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in him: Rooted and built up in him, and established in the faith, as ye have been taught, abounding in 6 it with thanksgiving. Beware lest any man make a prey of you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, 7 after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ. For in him dwelleth all the fullness of the Godhead bodily. And ye are complete in him, who is the head of all principality and power: In whom also ye are circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ: Buried with him in baptism, in which also ye are raised with him through the faith of the operation of God, who hath raised him from the dead. And you, being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, hath he made alive together with him, having forgiven you all trespasses; Blotting out the hand-writing of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross; And having despoiled principalities and powers, he made a show of them openly, triumphing over them in it. Let no man therefore judge you in food, or in drink, or in respect of a holy-day, or or the new-moon, or of the sabbaths: Which are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ. Let no man beguile you of your reward in a voluntary humility and worshiping of angels, intruding into those things which he hath not seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind, And not holding the head, from which all the body by joints and bands having nourishment ministered, and knit together, increaseth with the increase of God. Wherefore, if ye are dead with Christ from the rudiments of the world, why, as though living in the world, are ye subject to ordinances, (Touch not; taste not; handle not; Which all are to perish with the using;) according to the commandments and doctrines of men? Which things have indeed a show of wisdom in will-worship, and humility, and neglecting of the body; not in any honor to the satisfying of the flesh.

If ye then be raised with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God. Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth. For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God. When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then will ye also appear with him in glory. Mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth; lewdness, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatry: For which things the wrath of God cometh on the children of disobedience: In which ye also walked formerly, when ye lived with them. But now ye also put off all these; anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy communication out of your mouth.

9 Lie not one to another, seeing ye have put off the old man with 10 his deeds; And have put on the new man, which is renewed 11 in knowledge after the image of him that created him: Where there is neither Greek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumci-12 sion, Barbarian, Scythian, bond nor free: but Christ is all, and in all. Put on therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, 13 bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, long-suffering; Forbearing one another, and forgiving one an-14 other, if any man hath a quarrel against any: even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye. And above all these things put on 15 charity, which is the bond of perfectness. And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to which also ye are called in one 16 body; and be ye thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms, and hymns, and spiritual songs, singing with grace in 17 your hearts to the Lord. And whatever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him. Wives, submit yourselves to your own hus-18 bands, as it is fit in the Lord. Husbands, love your wives, and 19 be not bitter against them. Children, obey your parents in all 20 things: for this is well-pleasing to the Lord. Fathers, provoke 21 not your children to anger, lest they be discouraged. Servants, obey in all things your masters according to the flesh; not with 22 eye-service, as men-pleasers; but in singleness of heart, fearing God: And whatever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, 23 and not to men; Knowing that from the Lord ye will receive the reward of the inheritance: for ye serve the Lord Christ.
24 But he that doeth wrong, will receive for the wrong which he hath done: and there is no respect of persons.

4 Masters, give to your servants that which is just and equal; 2 knowing that ye also have a Master in heaven. Continue in 3 prayer, and watch in the same with thanksgiving; At the same time praying also for us, that God would open to us a door of utterance, to speak the mystery of Christ, for which I am also 4 in bonds: That I may make it manifest, as I ought to speak.
5 Walk in wisdom towards them that are without, redeeming the 6 time. Let your speech be always with grace, seasoned with salt, that ye may know how ye ought to answer every man.
7 All my state shall Tychicus declare to you, who is a beloved brother, and a faithful minister and fellow-servant in the Lord: Whom I have sent to you for the same purpose, that he may know your state, and comfort your hearts; With Onesimus, a faithful and beloved brother, who is one of you. They will make known to you all things which are done here. Aristarchus, my fellow-prisoner, saluteth you; and Marcus, sister's son to Barnabas, (concerning whom ye received commandments: if he should come to you, receive him;) And Jesus, who is called Justus, who are of the circumcision. These only are my fellow-workers to the kingdom of God, who have been a comfort to me. Epaphras, who is one of you, a servant of Christ, saluteth you, always laboring fervently for you in prayers, that ye may stand perfect and complete in all the will of God. For I bear him testimony, that he hath a great zeal for you, and them that are in Laodicea, and them in Hierapolis. Luke, the beloved physician, and Demas, greet you. Salute the brethren who are in Laodicea, and Nymphas, and the church which is in his house. And when this epistle is read among you, cause that it be read also in the church of the Laodiceans; and that ye likewise read the epistle from Laodicea. And say to Archippus, take heed to the ministry which thou hast received in the Lord, that thou fulfill it. The salutation by the hand of me Paul. Remember my bonds. Grace be with you. Amen.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE THESSALONIANS.

1 aul, and Silvanus, and Timothy, to the church of the Thessalonians which is in God the Father, and in the 2 Lord Jesus Christ: Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. We give 3 thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers; Remembering without ceasing your work of faith, 4 and labor of love, and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, in the sight of God and our Father; Knowing, brethren beloved 5 by God, your election. For our gospel came not to you in word only, but also in power, and in the Holy Spirit, and in much 6 assurance; as ye know what manner of men we were among you for your sake. And ye became followers of us, and of the 7 Lord, having received the word in much affliction, with joy of the Holy Spirit: So that ye were examples to all that believe, 8 in Macedonia and Achaia. For from you sounded out the word of the Lord not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every 9 place your faith toward God is spread abroad; so that we need not to speak any thing. For they themselves show of us 10 what manner of entrance we had to you, and how ye turned to God from idols, to serve the living and true God; And to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, even Jesus, who delivered us from the wrath to come.

2 For yourselves, brethren, know our entrance to you, that it 3 was not in vain: But even after we had suffered before, and were shamefully treated, as ye know, at Phillippi, we were bold 4 in our God to speak to you the gospel of God with much contention. For our exhortation was not from deceit, nor from 5 impurity, nor in guile; But as we were allowed by God to be put in trust with the gospel, even so we speak; not as pleasing 6 men, but God, who trieth our hearts. For neither at any time used we flattering words, as ye know, nor a cloke of covetousness; God is witness: Nor from men sought we glory, neither from you, nor yet from others, when we might have been burdensome, as the apostles of Christ. But we were gentle among 7 you, even as a nurse cherisheth her children: So being affec- 8 tionately desirous of you, we were willing to have imparted to you, not the gospel of God only, but also our own souls, because ye were dear to us. For ye remember, brethren, our 9 labor and toil: for laboring night and day, because we would not be chargeable to any of you, we preached to you the gospel of God. Ye are witnesses, and God also, how holily, and justly, 10 and unblamably we behaved ourselves among you that believe: As ye know how we exhorted, and comforted, and charged ev- 11 ery one of you, as a father doth his children, That ye would 12 walk worthy of God, who hath called you into his kingdom and glory. For this cause also we thank God without ceasing, be- 13 cause, when ye received the word of God which ye heard from us, ye received it not as the word of men, but (as it is in truth) the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that be- 14 lieve. For ye, brethren, became followers of the churches of God which in Judea are in Christ Jesus: for ye also have suffered like things from your own countrymen, even as they have 15 from the Jews: Who both killed the Lord Jesus, and their own prophets, and have persecuted us; and they please not God, and are contrary to all men: Forbidding us to speak to the 16 Gentiles that they may be saved, to fill up their sins always: for the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost. But we, 17 brethren, being taken from you for a short time in presence, not in heart, endeavored the more abundantly to see your face with great desire. Wherefore we would have come to you, even 18 I Paul, once and again; but Satan hindered us. For what is our 19 hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Are not even ye in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at his coming? For ye are our 20 glory and joy.

Wherefore, when we could no longer forbear, we thought it 3 good to be left at Athens alone; And sent Timothy, our brother, 2 and minister of God, and our fellow-laborer in the gospel of Christ, to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith: That no man should be moved by these afflictions: for 3 yourselves know that we are appointed to it. For verily, when 4 we were with you, we told you before that we should suffer tribulation; even as it came to pass, and ye know. For this 5 cause, when I could no longer forbear, I sent to know your faith, lest by some means the tempter may have tempted you, and 6 our labor be in vain. But now when Timothy came from you to us, and brought us good tidings of your faith and charity, and that ye have good remembrance of us always, desiring greatly 7 to see us, as we also to see you: Therefore, brethren, by your faith we were comforted over you in all our affliction and dis-8,9 tress: For now we live, if ye stand fast in the Lord. For what thanks can we render to God again for you, for all the joy with 10 which we rejoice for your sakes before our God; Night and day praying exceedingly that we may see your face, and may per-11 fect that which is lacking in your faith? Now God himself and our Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ, direct our way to you.

12 And the Lord make you to increase and abound in love one towards another, and towards all men, even as we do towards 13 you: To the end he may establish your hearts unblamable in holiness before God, even our Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all his saints.

4 Furthermore then we beseech you, brethren, and exhort you by the Lord Jesus, that as ye have received from us how ye ought to walk and to please God, so ye would abound more and 2 more. For ye know what commandments we gave you by the 3 Lord Jesus. For this is the will of God, even your sanctifica-4 tion, that ye should abstain from lewdness. That every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and 5 honor; Not in the lust of concupiscence, even as the Gentiles 6 who know not God: That no man go beyond and defraud his brother in any matter: because the Lord is the avenger of all 7 such, as we also have forewarned you and testified. For God 8 hath not called us to uncleanness, but to holiness. He therefore that despiseth, despiseth not man, but God, who hath also 9 given to us his holy Spirit. But concerning brotherly love ye need not that I write to you: for ye yourselves are taught by 10 God to love one another. And indeed ye do it towards all the brethren who are in all Macedonia: but we beseech you, 11 brethren, that ye increase more and more; And that ye study to be quiet, and to do your own business, and to work with 12 your own hands, as we commanded you; That ye may walk honestly towards them that are without, and that ye may have 13 need of nothing. But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them who are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others who have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus 14 died and rose again, even so them also who sleep in Jesus will God bring with him. For this we say to you by the word of 15 the Lord, that we who are alive and remain to the coming of the Lord shall not precede them who are asleep. For the Lord 16 himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of an archangel, and with the trumpet of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: Then we who are alive and remain 17 shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.

 Wherefore, comfort one another with these words. 18

But of the times and the seasons, brethren, ye have no need 5 that I write to you. For yourselves know perfectly that the day 2 of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night. For when they 3 shall say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape. But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that 4 day should overtake you as a thief. Ye are all children of light, 5 and children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness. Therefore let us not sleep, as do others; but let us watch 6 and be sober. For they that sleep, sleep in the night; and they 7 that are drunken, are drunken in the night. But let us, who 8 are of the day, be sober, putting on the breast-plate of faith and love; and for a helmet, the hope of salvation. For God hath not 9 appointed us to wrath, but to obtain salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ, Who died for us, that, whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with him. Wherefore, comfort your- 11 selves together, and edify one another, even as also ye do. And 12 we beseech you, brethren, to know them who labor among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you; And to es- 13 teem them very highly in love for their work's sake. And be at peace among yourselves. Now we exhort you, brethren, warn 14 them that are disorderly, comfort the feeble-minded, support the weak, be patient towards all men. See that none render 15 evil for evil to any man; but ever follow that which is good, both among yourselves, and to all men. Rejoice evermore. Pray 16, 17 without ceasing. In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you. Quench not the 18 spirit. Despise not prophesyings. Prove all things; hold fast 19 that which is good. Abstain from all appearance of evil. And 20, 21 22, 23

the very God of peace sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body may be preserved blameless to the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. Faithful is he that calleth you, who also will do it. Brethren, pray for us. Greet all the brethren with a holy kiss. I charge you by the Lord that this epistle be read to all the holy brethren. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE THESSALONIANS.

Taul, and Silvanus, and Timothy, to the church of the 1 Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus 2 Christ: Grace to you, and peace, from God our Fa- 2 ther and the Lord Jesus Christ. We are bound to 3 thank God always for you, brethren, as it is meet, because your 3 faith groweth exceedingly, and the charity of every one of you 4 all towards each other aboundeth; So that we ourselves glory 4 in you in the churches of God, for your patience and faith in 4 all your persecutions and tribulations that ye endure: Which 5 is a manifest token of the righteous judgment of God, that ye 5 may be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which ye 5 also suffer: Seeing it is a righteous thing with God to recom- 6 pense tribulation to them that trouble you; And to you who 7 are troubled, rest with us, when the Lord Jesus shall be re- 7 vealed from heaven with his mighty angels, In flaming fire 8 taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey 8 not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ: Who shall be pun- 9 ished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the 9 Lord, and from the glory of his power; When he shall come to 10 be glorified in his saints, and to be admired by all them that be- 10 lieve (because our testimony among you was believed) in that 10 day. Wherefore also we pray always for you, that our God 11 would count you worthy of this calling, and fulfill all the good 11 pleasure of his goodness, and the work of faith with power: 11 That the name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in 12 you, and ye in him, according to the grace of our God, and of 12 the Lord Jesus Christ.

Now we beseech you, brethren, by the coming of our Lord 2 Jesus Christ, and by our gathering to him. That ye be not soon 2 shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter as from us, as that the day of Christ is at hand.
Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not 3 come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of 4 sin be revealed, the son of perdition; Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshiped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, showing himself 5 that he is God. Remember ye not, that when I was yet with 6 you, I told you these things? And now ye know what withholdeth that he might be revealed in his time. For the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now restraineth will 7 restrain, until he be taken out of the way. And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord will consume with the spirit of his mouth, and will destroy with the brightness of 8 his coming: Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan, with all power, and signs, and lying wonders, And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be 9 saved. And for this cause God will send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie: That they all may be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

3 Finally, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may 2 have free course, and be glorified, even as it is with you; And that we may be delivered from unreasonable and wicked men: 3 for all men have not faith. But the Lord is faithful, who will 4 establish you, and keep you from evil. And we have confidence in the Lord concerning you, that ye both do and will 5 do the things which we command you. And the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into the patient waiting for Christ. Now we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye withdraw yourselves from every brother that walketh disorderly, and not after the tradition which he received from us. For yourselves know how ye ought to follow us: for we behaved not ourselves disorderly among you; Neither did we eat any man's bread for naught; 8 but wrought with labor and toil night and day, that we might not be chargeable to any of you: Not because we have not 9 power, but to make ourselves a pattern to you to follow us. For 10 even when we were with you, this we commanded you, that if any would not work, neither should he eat. For we hear that 11 there are some who walk among you disorderly, working not at all, but are busy-bodies. Now them that are such we com- 12 mand and exhort by our Lord Jesus Christ, that with quietness they work, and eat their own bread. But ye, brethren, be not 13 weary in well-doing. And if any man obeyeth not our word 14 by this epistle, note that man, and have no company with him, that he may be ashamed. Yet count him not as an enemy, but 15 admonish him as a brother. Now the Lord of peace himself 16 give you peace always by all means. The Lord be with you all.

The salutation of Paul with my own hand, which is the token 17 in every epistle: so I write. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ 18 be with you all. Amen.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO TIMOTHY.

1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the commandment of God our Savior, and Lord Jesus Christ, who is our 2 hope; To Timothy, my own son in the faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God our Father and Jesus Christ 3 our Lord. As I besought thee to abide still at Ephesus, when I went into Macedonia, that thou mightest charge some that 4 they teach no other doctrine, Neither give heed to fables and endless genealogies, which minister questions, rather than godly 5 edifying which is in faith; so do. Now the end of the commandment is charity out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, 6 and of faith unfeigned: From which some having swerved, 7 have turned aside to vain jangling; Desiring to be teachers of the law; understanding neither what they say, nor concerning 8 what they affirm. But we know that the law is good, if a man 9 useth it lawfully; Knowing this, that the law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and for sinners, for unholy and profane, for murderers 10 of fathers, and murderers of mothers, for man-slayers, For lewd persons, for them that defile themselves with mankind, for men-stealers, for liars, for perjured persons, and if there is 11 any other thing that is contrary to sound doctrine, According to the glorious gospel of the blessed God, which was committed 12 to my trust. And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath enabled me, for that he counted me faithful, putting me into 13 the ministry; Who was before a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and injurious: but I obtained mercy, because I did it ignorantly 14 in unbelief: And the grace of our Lord was exceeding abund-15 ant with faith and love which is in Christ Jesus. This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief.
16 However, for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first Jesus Christ might show forth all long-suffering, for a pattern to them who should hereafter believe on him to life everlasting.
17 Now to the King eternal, immortal, invisible, God the only wise, be honor and glory for ever and ever. Amen. This charge I commit to thee, son Timothy, according to the prophecies which went before on thee, that thou by them mayest war a good warfare; Holding faith and a good conscience; which some having put away, concerning faith have made shipwreck: Of whom is Hymeneus and Alexander; whom I have delivered to Satan, that they may learn not to blaspheme.

I exhort therefore, that first of all supplications, prayers, 2 intercessions, and giving of thanks be made for all men; For kings, and for all that are in authority; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty. For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Savior; Who will have all men to be saved, and to come to the knowledge of the truth. For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus; Who gave himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time. For which I am ordained a preacher and an apostle, (I speak the truth in Christ, and lie not) a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and verity. I will therefore that men pray every where, lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting. In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in decent apparel, with modesty and sobriety; not with brodered hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array, But (which becometh women professing godliness) with good works. Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection. But I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence. For Adam was first formed, then Eve. And Adam was not deceived, but the woman being deceived was in the transgression. Notwithstanding, she will be saved in child-bearing, if they continue in faith, and charity, and holiness, with sobriety.

This is a true saying, If a man desireth the office of a bishop, 3 he desireth a good work. A bishop then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, of good behavior, given to hospitality, apt to teach; Not given to wine, no striker, not greedy of filthy lucre, but patient; not a brawler, not covetous; One that ruleth well his own house, having his children in subjection with all gravity; (For if a man knoweth not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the church of God?) Not a novice, lest being lifted up with pride he fall into the condemnation of the devil. Moreover, he must have a good report of them who are without; lest he fall into reproach and the 8 snare of the devil. Likewise must the deacons be grave, not double-tongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy 9 lucre, Holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience.

10 And let these also first be proved; then let them use the office 11 of a deacon, being found blameless. Even so must their wives 12 be grave, not slanderers, sober, faithful in all things. Let the deacons be the husbands of one wife, ruling their children, and 13 their own houses well. For they that have used the office of a deacon well, purchase to themselves a good degree, and great 14 boldness in the faith, which is in Christ Jesus. These things 15 I write to thee, hoping to come to thee shortly: But if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, 16 the pillar and ground of the truth. And without controversy, great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen by angels, preached to the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory.

4 Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some will depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits 2 and doctrines of demons; Speaking lies in hypocrisy, having 3 their conscience seared with a hot iron; Forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from meats, which God hath created to be received with thanksgiving by them who believe and 4 know the truth. For every creature of God is good, and noth-5 ing to be refused, if received with thanksgiving: For it is sanc-6 tified by the word of God, and prayer. If thou shalt put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou wilt be a good minister of Jesus Christ, nourished by the words of faith and of 7 good doctrine, to which thou hast attained. But refuse profane and old wives' fables, and exercise thyself rather to godliness.
8 For bodily exercise profiteth little: but godliness is profitable to all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that 9 which is to come. This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all 10 acceptation. For therefore we both labor and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God who is the Savior of all men, 11 especially of those that believe. These things command and 12 teach. Let no man despise thy youth; but be thou an example of the believers, in word, in deportment, in charity, in spirit, 13 in faith, in purity. Till I come, give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine. Neglect not the gift that is in thee, 14 which was given thee by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the presbytery. Meditate upon these things; give 15 thyself wholly to them; that thy profiting may appear to all.

Take heed to thyself and to thy doctrine; continue in them: for 16 in doing this thou wilt both save thyself, and them that hear thee.

Rebuke not an elder, but entreat him as a father; and the 5 younger men as brethren; The elder women as mothers; the 2 younger as sisters, with all purity. Honor widows that are 3 widows indeed. But if any widow hath children or nephews, 4 let them learn first to show piety at home, and to requite their parents: for that is good and acceptable before God. Now she 5 that is a widow indeed, and desolate, trusteth in God, and con-tinueth in supplications and prayers night and day. But she 6 that liveth in pleasure, is dead while she liveth. And these 7 things give in charge, that they may be blameless. But if any 8 provideth not for his own, and especially for those of his own house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel.
Let not a widow be taken into the number under sixty years 9 old, having been the wife of one man. Well reported of for 10 good works; if she hath brought up children, if she hath lodged strangers, if she hath washed the saints' feet, if she hath relieved the afflicted, if she hath diligently followed every good work. But the younger widows refuse: for when they have be- 11 gun to grow wanton against Christ, they will marry; Having 12 damnation, because they have cast off their first faith. And 13 at the same time they learn to be idle, wandering about from house to house, and not only idle, but tattlers also, and busybodies, speaking things which they ought not. I will therefore 14 that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, give no occasion to the adversary to speak reproachfully. For 15 some are already turned aside after Satan. If any man or 16 woman that believeth hath widows, let them relieve them, and let not the church be charged; that it may relieve them that are widows indeed. Let the elders that rule well, be counted 17 worthy of double honor, especially they who labor in the word and doctrine. For the scripture saith, Thou shalt not muzzle 18 the ox that treadeth out the corn. And, The laborer is worthy of his reward. Against an elder receive not an accusation, 19 20 but before two or three witnesses. Them that sin rebuke be-21 fore all, that others also may fear. I charge thee before God and the Lord Jesus Christ, and the elect angels, that thou observe these things without preferring one before another, doing 22 nothing by partiality. Impose hands hastily on no man, nei-23 ther be partaker of other men's sins: keep thyself pure. Drink no longer water, but use a little wine for thy stomach's sake, 24 and thy frequent infirmities. Some men's sins are open beforehand, going before to judgment: and some men they follow 25 after. Likewise also the good works of some are manifest beforehand; and they that are otherwise cannot be hid.

6 Let as many servants as are under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honor, that the name of God and 2 his doctrine may not be blasphemed. And they that have believing masters, let them not despise them, because they are brethren; but rather do them service, because they are faithful and beloved, partakers of the benefit. These things teach 3 and exhort. If any man teacheth otherwise, and consenteth not to wholesome words, even the words of our Lord Jesus 4 Christ, and the doctrine which is according to godliness, He is proud, knowing nothing, but doting about questions and strifes of words, from which cometh envy, strife, railings, evil surmis-5 ings, Perverse disputings of men of corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth, supposing gain to be godliness: from such 6 withdraw thyself. But godliness with contentment is great 7 gain. For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain 8 we can carry nothing out. And having food and raiment, with 9 these let us be content. But they that will be rich, fall into temptation, and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful 10 lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition. For the love of money is the root of all evil: which while some have coveted, they have erred from the faith, and pierced them-11 selves through with many sorrows. But thou, O man of God, flee from these things; and follow after righteousness, godli-12 ness, faith, love, patience, meekness. Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, to which thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses.
13 I give thee charge in the sight of God, who maketh alive all things, and before Christ Jesus, who before Pontius Pilate tes-14 tified a good confession; That thou keep this commandment without spot, unrebukable, until the appearing of our Lord Je- 15 sus Christ: Which in his times he will show who is the blessed 16 and only Potentate, the King of kings, and Lord of lords; Who only hath immortality, dwelling in the light which no man can approach; whom no man hath seen, nor can see: to whom be honor and power everlasting. Amen. Charge them that are 17 rich in this world, that they be not high-minded, nor trust in uncertain riches, but in the living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy; That they do good, that they be rich in good 18 works, ready to distribute, willing to communicate; Laying 19 up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life. O Timothy, 20 keep that which is committed to thy trust, avoiding profane and vain babblings, and oppositions of science falsely so called; Which some professing, have erred concerning the faith. Grace 21 be with thee. Amen.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO TIMOTHY.

1 aul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, ac-2 cording to the promise of life which is in Christ Jesus, 3 To Timothy, my dearly beloved son: Grace, mercy, and 4 peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.
5 I thank God, whom I serve from my forefathers with pure con-6 science, that without ceasing I have remembrance of thee in 7 my prayers night and day; Greatly desiring to see thee, be-8 ing mindful of thy tears, that I may be filled with joy; When I 9 call to remembrance the unfeigned faith that is in thee, which 10 dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and thy mother Eunice; 11 and I am persuaded that in thee also. For which cause I put 12 thee in remembrance, that thou stir up the gift of God, which is 13 in thee by the imposition of my hands. For God hath not given 14 us the spirit of fear, but of power, and of love, and of a sound 15 mind. Be not thou therefore ashamed of the testimony of our 16 Lord, nor of me his prisoner: but be thou partaker of the afflic-17 tions of the gospel according to the power of God; Who hath 18 saved us, and called us with a holy calling, not according to our 19 works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was 20 given to us in Christ Jesus before the world began; But is now 21 made manifest by the appearing of our Savior Jesus Christ, 22 who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immor-23 tality to light through the gospel: To which I am appointed a 24 preacher, and an apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles. For 25 which cause I also suffer these things: nevertheless I am not 26 ashamed: for I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded 27 that he is able to keep that which I have committed to him 28 against that day. Hold fast the form of sound words, which 29 thou hast heard from me, in faith and love which is in Christ 30 Jesus. That good thing which was committed to thee keep by 31 the Holy Spirit which dwelleth in us. This thou knowest, that 32 all they who are in Asia are turned away from me; of whom 33 are Phygellus and Hermogenes. The Lord give mercy to the 34 house of Onesiphorus; for he often refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chain: But, when he was in Rome, he sought 17 me out very diligently, and found me. The Lord grant to him 18 that he may find mercy from the Lord in that day: and in how many things he ministered to me at Ephesus, thou knowest very well.

Thou therefore, my son, be strong in the grace that is in 2 Christ Jesus. And the things that thou hast heard from me 2 among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also. Thou therefore endure 3 hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ. No man that war- 4 reth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier. And if a 5 man also striveth for masteries, yet is he not crowned, except he striveth lawfully. The husbandman that laboreth must be 6 first partaker of the fruits. Consider what I say; and the Lord 7 give thee understanding in all things. Remember that Jesus 8 Christ of the seed of David was raised from the dead according to my gospel: In which I suffer trouble, as an evil-doer, even to 9 bonds; but the word of God is not bound. Therefore I endure 10 all things for the sake of the elect, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. It 11 is a faithful saying: For if we are dead with him, we shall also live with him: If we suffer, we shall also reign with him: if 12 we deny him, he also will deny us: If we believe not, yet he 13 abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself. Of these things put 14 them in remembrance, charging them before the Lord that they contend not about words to no profit, but to the subverting of the hearers. Study to show thyself approved to God, a work- 15 man that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth. But shun profane and vain babblings: for they will 16 increase to more ungodliness. And their word will eat as doth 17 a canker: of whom is Hymeneus and Philetus; Who concern- 18 ing the truth have erred, saying that the resurrection is past already; and overthrow the faith of some. Nevertheless the 19 foundation of God standeth firm, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity. But in a great house 20 there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth; and some to honor, and some to dishonor. If 21 a man therefore will cleanse himself from these, he will be a vessel to honor, sanctified and meet for the master's use, and 22 prepared to every good work. Flee also youthful lusts: but follow righteousness, faith, charity, peace, with them that call 23 on the Lord out of a pure heart. But foolish and unlearned 24 questions avoid, knowing that they gender contentions. And the servant of the Lord must not contend; but be gentle to all 25 men, apt to teach, patient, In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God perhaps will give them repentance 26 to the acknowledging of the truth: And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will.

3 This know also, that in the last days perilous times will 2 come. For men will be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthank-3 ful, unholy, Without natural affection, truce-breakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good, 4 Traitors, heady, high-minded, lovers of pleasures more than 5 lovers of God; Having a form of godliness, but denying its 6 power: from such turn away. For of this sort are they who creep into houses, and lead captive silly women laden with 7 sins, led away with divers lusts; Ever learning, and never able 8 to come to the knowledge of the truth. Now as Jannes and Jambres withstood Moses, so do these also resist the truth: 9 men of corrupt minds, reprobate concerning the faith. But they shall proceed no further: for their folly will be manifest 10 to all men, as theirs also was. But thou hast fully known my doctrine, manner of life, purpose, faith, long-suffering, charity, 11 patience, Persecutions, afflictions which came to me at Antioch, at Iconium, at Lystra; what persecutions I endured: but 12 out of them all the Lord delivered me. And all indeed that will live godly in Christ Jesus will suffer persecution. But evil men and seducers will become worse and worse, deceiving, and be-14 ing deceived. But continue thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing from whom thou 15 hast learned them; And that from a child thou hast known the sacred scriptures, which are able to make thee wise to sal-16 vation through faith which is in Christ Jesus. All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for 17 reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished to all good works.

I charge thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, 4 who will judge the living and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom; Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; 2 reprove, rebuke, exhort with all long-suffering and doctrine. For the time will come, when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts will they multiply to themselves 3 teachers, having itching ears; And they will turn away their 4 ears from the truth, and will be turned to fables. But watch 5 thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, make full proof of thy ministry. For I am now ready to 6 be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have 7 fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will give me at that 8 day: and not to me only, but to all them also that love his appearing. Do thy diligence to come shortly to me: For Demas 9, 10 hath forsaken me, having loved this present world, and hath departed to Thessalonica; Crescens to Galatia, Titus to Dalmatia. Luke only is with me. Take Mark, and bring him with 11 thee: for he is profitable to me for the ministry. And Tychicus have I sent to Ephesus. The cloke that I left at Troas with 12 Carpus, when thou comest, bring with thee, and the books, but especially the parchments. Alexander the copper-smith did 14 me much evil: the Lord reward him according to his works: Of whom be thou aware also; for he hath greatly withstood our 15 words. At my first answer no man stood with me, but all men 16 forsook me: I pray God that it may not be laid to their charge. Notwithstanding, the Lord stood with me, and strengthened 17 me; that by me the preaching might be fully known, and that all the Gentiles might hear: and I was delivered out of the mouth of the lion. And the Lord will deliver me from every 18 evil work, and will preserve me to his heavenly kingdom; to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen. Salute Prisca and 19 Aquila, and the household of Onesiphorus. Erastus abode at Corinth: but Trophimus I have left at Miletum sick. Do thy 21 diligence to come before winter. Eubulus greeteth thee, and Pudens, and Linus, and Claudia, and all the brethren. The 22 Lord Jesus Christ be with thy spirit. Grace be with you. Amen.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO TITUS.

1 Paul, a servant of God, and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of God's elect, and the acknowl-2 edging of the truth which is according to godliness; 3 In hope of eternal life, which God, who cannot lie, 4 promised before the world began; But hath in due times man-5 ifested his word through preaching, which is committed to me 6 according to the commandment of God our Savior; To Titus, 7 my own son after the common faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, 8 from God the Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ our Savior.
9 For this cause I left thee in Crete, that thou shouldst set in 10 order the things that are wanting, and ordain elders in every 11 city, as I had appointed thee: If any is blameless, the hus-12 band of one wife, having faithful children, not accused of riot, 13 or disorderly. For a bishop must be blameless, as the stew-14 ard of God; not self-willed, not soon angry, not given to wine, 15 no striker, not given to filthy lucre; But a lover of hospital-16 ity, a lover of good men, sober, just, holy, temperate; Holding fast the faithful word as he hath been taught, that he may be able by sound doctrine both to exhort and to convince the gainsayers. For there are many disorderly and vain talkers and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision: Whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for the sake of sordid gain. One of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Cretians are always liars, evil beasts, slow bellies. This testimony is true: wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith; Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men that turn from the truth. To the pure all things are pure: but to them that are defiled and unbelieving is nothing pure; but even their mind and conscience is defiled. They profess that they know God; but in works they deny him, being abominable, and disobedient, and to every good work reprobate.

2 But speak thou the things which become sound doctrine: 2 That the aged men be sober, grave, temperate, sound in faith, 3 in charity, in patience; The aged women likewise, that they be in behavior as becometh holiness, not false accusers, not given to much wine, teachers of good things; That they may teach 4 the young women to be sober, to love their husbands, to love their children, To be discreet, chaste, keepers at home, good, 5 obedient to their own husbands, that the word of God be not blasphemed. Young men likewise exhort to be sober-minded. 6 In all things showing thyself a pattern of good works: in doc- 7 trine showing incorruptness, gravity, sincerity, Sound speech 8 that cannot be condemned; that he that is of the contrary part may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say concerning you.

Exhort servants to be obedient to their own masters, and to 9 please them well in all things; not answering again; Not pur- 10 loining, but showing all good fidelity; that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Savior in all things. For the grace of God 11 that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, Teaching 12 us, that denying ungodliness, and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and piously, in this present world; Look- 13 ing for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God, and our Savior Jesus Christ; Who gave himself 14 for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify to himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works. These things 15 speak, and exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Let no man despise thee.

Put them in mind to be subject to principalities and powers, 3 to obey magistrates, to be ready to every good work, To speak 2 evil of no man, to be no brawlers, but gentle, showing all meekness to all men. For we ourselves also were sometimes foolish, 3 disobedient, deceived, serving divers lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another. But 4 when the kindness and love of God our Savior towards man appeared, Not by works of righteousness which we have done, 5 but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Spirit; Which he shed on 6 us abundantly, through Jesus Christ our Savior; That being 7 justified by his grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life. This is a faithful saying, and these things 8 I will that thou affirm constantly, that they who have believed in God may be careful to maintain good works. These things are good and profitable to men. But avoid foolish questions, 9 and genealogies, and contentions, and strivings about the law; for they are unprofitable and vain. A man that is a heretic, 10 11 after the first and second admonition, reject; Knowing that 12 he who is such, is subverted, and sinneth, being condemned 13 by himself. When I shall send Artemas to thee, or Tychicus, 14 be diligent to come to me to Nicopolis: for I have determined 15 there to winter. Bring Zenas the lawyer and Apollos on their journey diligently, that nothing may be wanting to them. And let ours also learn to maintain good works for necessary uses, that they may not be unfruitful. All that are with me salute thee. Greet them that love us in the faith. Grace be with you all. Amen.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO PHILEMON.

aul, a prisoner of Jesus Christ, and Timothy our brother, to Philemon our dearly beloved, and fellow-laborer, And to our beloved Apphia, and Archippus our fellow- 2 soldier, and to the church in thy house: Grace to you, 3 and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. I 4 thank my God, making mention of thee always in my prayers, Hearing of thy love and faith, which thou hast towards the 5 Lord Jesus, and towards all saints; That the communication 6 of thy faith may become effectual by the acknowledging of ev- 7 ery good thing which is in you in Christ Jesus. For we have 7 great joy and consolation in thy love, because the bowels of the saints are refreshed by thee, brother. Wherefore, though I 8 might be very bold in Christ to enjoin thee that which is convenient. Yet for love's sake I rather beseech thee, being such 9 one as Paul the aged, and now also a prisoner of Jesus Christ.
I beseech thee for my son Onesimus, whom I have begotten in 10 my bonds: Who in time past was to thee unprofitable, but now 11 profitable to thee and to me: Whom I have sent again: thou 12 therefore receive him, that is, my own bowels: Whom I would 13 have retained with me, that in thy stead he might have ministered to me in the bonds of the gospel: But without thy mind 14 I would do nothing; that thy benefit should not be as it were of necessity, but willingly. For perhaps he therefore departed for 15 a season, that thou shouldst receive him for ever; Not now as 16 a servant, but above a servant, a brother beloved, specially to me, but how much more to thee, both in the flesh, and in the Lord? If thou accountest me therefore a partner, receive him 17 as myself. If he hath wronged thee, or oweth thee ought, put 18 that on my account; I Paul have written it with my own hand, 19 I will repay it: although I do not say to thee that thou owest to me even thy own self besides. Yes, brother, let me have 20 joy of thee in the Lord: refresh my bowels in the Lord. Hav- 21 ing confidence in thy obedience I wrote to thee, knowing that thou wilt also do more than I say. But at the same time pre- 22 pare me also a lodging; for I trust that through your prayers I 23 shall be given to you. There salute thee Epaphras, my fellow-24 prisoner in Christ Jesus; Marcus, Aristarchus, Demas, Lucas, 25 my fellow-laborers. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO HEBREWS.

od, who at sundry times and in divers manners spoke 1 in time past to the fathers by the prophets, Hath in 2 these last days spoken to us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds; Who being the brightness of his glory, and the 3 express image of his person, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself made purification of our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high; Being made so much better than the angels, as he hath by 4 inheritance obtained a more excellent name than they. For to 5 which of the angels said he at any time, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee? And again, I will be to him a Father, and he shall be to me a Son? And again, when he bringeth 6 in the first-begotten into the world, he saith, And let all the angels of God worship him. And of the angels he saith, Who 7 maketh his angels spirits, and his ministers a flame of fire.
But to the Son, he saith, Thy throne, O God, is for ever and 8 ever: a scepter of righteousness is the scepter of thy kingdom.
Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity; therefore 9 God, even thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows. And, Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid 10 the foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the works of thy hands. They shall perish; but thou remainest: and they 11 all shall become old as doth a garment; And as a vesture wilt 12 thou fold them up, and they shall be changed; but thou art the same, and thy years shall not fail. But to which of the angels 13 said he at any time, Sit on my right hand, until I make thy enemies thy footstool? Are they not all ministering spirits, 14 sent forth to minister for them who shall inherit salvation?

Therefore we ought to give the more earnest heed to the 2 things which we have heard, lest at any time we should let them slip. For if the word spoken by angels was steadfast, 2 and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompense of reward; How shall we escape, if we neglect so 3 great salvation; which at the first began to be spoken by the 4 Lord, and was confirmed to us by them that heard him; God also bearing them testimony, both with signs and wonders, and with divers miracles, and gifts of the Holy Spirit, according to 5 his own will? For to the angels he hath not put in subjection 6 the world to come, concerning which we speak. But one in a certain place testified, saying, What is man, that thou art mindful of him? or the son of man, that thou visitest him?

7 Thou madest him a little lower than the angels; thou crownedst him with glory and honor, and didst set him over the works 8 of thy hands: Thou hast put all things in subjection under his feet. For in that he put all in subjection under him, he left nothing that is not made subject to him. But now we see 9 not yet all things subjected to him. But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honor; that he by the grace of 10 God should taste death for every man. For it became him, for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons to glory, to make the Captain of their salvation 11 perfect through sufferings. For both he that sanctifieth, and they who are sanctified, are all of one: for which cause he is 12 not ashamed to call them brethren, Saying, I will declare thy name to my brethren, in the midst of the church will I sing 13 praise to thee. And again, I will put my trust in him. And again, Behold, I, and the children which God hath given me.
14 Since then the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the 15 devil; And deliver them, who, through fear of death, were all 16 their life-time subject to bondage. For verily he took not on him the nature of angels; but he took on him the seed of Abra-17 ham. Wherefore in all things it behooved him to be made like his brethren; that he might be a merciful and faithful High Priest in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for 18 the sins of the people. For in that he himself hath suffered, being tempted, he is able to succor them that are tempted.

3 Wherefore, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our profession, Christ 2 Jesus; Who was faithful to him that appointed him, as also 3 Moses was faithful in all his house. For this man was counted worthy of more glory than Moses, inasmuch as he who hath built the house, hath more honor than the house. For every house is built by some man; but he that built all things is God. And Moses verily was faithful in all his house, as a servant, for a testimony of those things which were afterwards to be spoken. But Christ as a son over his own house: whose house are we, if we hold fast the confidence, and the rejoicing of the hope firm to the end. Wherefore (as the Holy Spirit saith, To-day if ye will hear his voice, Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation, in the day of temptation in the wilderness: When your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my works forty years. Wherefore I was grieved with that generation, and said, They do always err in their heart; and they have not known my ways. So I swore in my wrath, They shall not enter into my rest.) Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God. But exhort one another daily, while it is called To-day; lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin. For we are made partakers of Christ, if we hold the beginning of our confidence steadfast to the end; While it is said, To-day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts, as in the provocation. For some, when they had heard, did provoke: yet, not all that came out of Egypt by Moses. But with whom was he grieved forty years? was it not with them that had sinned, whose carcasses fell in the wilderness? And to whom did he swear that they should not enter into his rest, but to them that believed not? So we see that they could not enter in because of unbelief.

Let us therefore fear, lest a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it. For to us was the gospel preached, as well as to them: but the word which they heard did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it. For we who have believed do enter into rest, as he said, As I have sworn in my wrath, if they shall enter into my rest: although the works were finished from the foundation of the world. For he spoke in a certain place of the seventh day on this wise, And God rested the seventh day from all his works. And in this place again, If they shall enter into my rest. Seeing therefore it remaineth that some must enter into it, and they to whom it was first

7 preached entered not because of unbelief: (Again, he limiteth a certain day, saying in David, To-day, after so long a time; as it is said, To-day, if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts.
8 For if Jesus had given them rest, then he would not afterward 9 have spoken of another day. There remaineth therefore a rest 10 to the people of God. For he that hath entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his.) 11 Let us labor therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall 12 after the same example of unbelief. For the word of God is living, and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and 13 intents of the heart. Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened to 14 the eyes of him with whom we have to do. Seeing then that we have a great High Priest, that hath passed into the heavens, 15 Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession. For we have not a high priest who cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but who was in all points tempted as we are, 16 yet without sin. Let us therefore come boldly to the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.

5 For every high priest taken from among men, is ordained for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both 2 gifts and sacrifices for sins: Who can have compassion on the ignorant, and on them that are out of the way; for that he him-3 self also is compassed with infirmity. And by reason of this he ought, as for the people, so also for himself, to offer for sins.
4 And no man taketh this honor to himself, but he that is called 5 by God, as was Aaron: So also Christ glorified not himself to be made a high priest; but he that said to him, Thou art my 6 Son, to-day have I begotten thee. As he saith also in another place, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.
7 Who in the days of his flesh, when he had offered up prayers and supplications with strong crying and tears to him that was able to save him from death, and was heard, in that he feared; 8 Though he was a Son, yet he learned obedience by the things 9 which he suffered; And being made perfect, he became the 10 author of eternal salvation to all them that obey him; Called 11 by God a high priest after the order of Melchisedec. Of whom we have many things to say, and hard to be uttered, seeing ye are dull of hearing. For when for the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need of one to teach you again which are the first principles of the oracles of God; and are become such as have need of milk, and not of strong food. For every one that useth milk, is unskillful in the word of righteousness: for he is a babe. But strong food belongeth to them that are of full age, even those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil.

Therefore leaving the principles of the doctrine of Christ, 6 let us go on to perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith towards God, Of the doctrine of baptisms, and of laying on of hands, and of the resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment. And this will we do, if God permit. For it is impossible for those who have been once enlightened, and have tasted the heavenly gift, and have been made partakers of the Holy Spirit. And have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the world to come, If they shall fall away, to renew them again to repentance; seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame. For the earth which drinketh in the rain that cometh often upon it, and bringeth forth herbs fit for them by whom it is dressed, receiveth blessing from God: But that which beareth thorns and briers is rejected, and is nigh to cursing; whose end is to be burned. But, beloved, we are persuaded better things of you, and things that accompany salvation, though we thus speak. For God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labor of love, which ye have shown towards his name, in that ye have ministered to the saints, and do minister. And we desire every one of you to show the same diligence to the full assurance of hope to the end: That ye be not slothful, but followers of them who through faith and patience inherit the promises. For when God made promise to Abraham, because he could swear by no greater, he swore by himself, Saying, Surely blessing I will bless thee, and multiplying I will multiply thee. And so, after he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise. For men verily swear by the greater: and an oath for confirmation is to them an end of all contradiction. Wherein God, willing more abundantly to show to the heirs of promise the immutability of his counsel, 18 confirmed it by an oath: That by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong 19 consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope set before us: Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and steadfast, and which entereth into that within 20 the vail; Whither the forerunner hath for us entered, even Jesus, made a high priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

7 For this Melchisedec, king of Salem, priest of the most high God, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the 2 kings, and blessed him; To whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all; first being by interpretation King of righteousness, and after that also King of Salem, which is, King of peace; 3 Without father, without mother, without descent, having neither beginning of days, nor end of life; but made like to the Son 4 of God; abideth a priest continually. Now consider how great this man was, to whom even the patriarch Abraham gave the 5 tenth of the spoils. And verily they that are of the sons of Levi, who receive the office of the priesthood, have a commandment to take tithes from the people according to the law, that is, 6 from their brethren, though they come from the loins of Abraham: But he whose descent is not counted from them received tithes from Abraham, and blessed him that had the promises.
7 And without all contradiction the less is blessed by the better.
8 And here men that die receive tithes; but there he receiveth 9 them, of whom it is testified that he liveth. And as I may say, Levi also, who receiveth tithes, payed tithes in Abraham.
10 For he was yet in the loins of his father, when Melchisedec 11 met him. If therefore perfection were by the Levitical priesthood (for under it the people received the law) what further need was there that another priest should rise after the order of Melchisedec, and not be called after the order of Aaron?
12 For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity 13 a change also of the law. For he of whom these things are spoken pertaineth to another tribe, of which no man gave at-14 tendance at the altar. For it is evident that our Lord sprang from Judah; of which tribe Moses spoke nothing concerning 15 priesthood. And it is yet far more evident: for that after the 16 similitude of Melchisedec there ariseth another priest, Who is made, not after the law of a carnal commandment, but af-17 ter the power of an endless life. For he testifieth, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec. For there is verily a disannulling of the preceding commandment on account of its weakness and unprofitableness. For the law made nothing perfect, but the introduction of a better hope did; by which we draw nigh to God. And inasmuch as not without an oath he was made priest: (For those priests were made without an oath; but this with an oath, by him that said to him, The Lord swore, and will not repent, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec:) By so much was Jesus made a surety of a better testament. And they truly were many priests, because they were not suffered to continue by reason of death: But this man, because he continueth ever, hath an unchangeable priesthood. Wherefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost that come to God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them. For such a high priest became us, who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher than the heavens; Who needeth not daily, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifice, first for his own sins, and then for the people's: for this he did once, when he offered up himself. For the law maketh men high priests who have infirmity; but the word of the oath, which was after the law, maketh the Son, who is consecrated for evermore.

Now of the things which we have spoken this is the sum: 8
We have such a high priest, who is set on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens; A minister of the sanctuary, and of the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, and not man. For every high priest is ordained to offer gifts and sacrifices: wherefore it is of necessity that this man should have somewhat also to offer. For if he were on earth, he would not be a priest, seeing there are priests that offer gifts according to the law: Who serve to the example and shadow of heavenly things, as Moses was admonished by God when he was about to make the tabernacle: for, See (saith he) that thou make all things according to the pattern shown to thee in the mount. But now hath he obtained a more excellent ministry, by how much also he is the mediator of a better covenant, which was established upon better promises. For if that first covenant had been faultless, then would no place have been sought for the second. For finding fault with them, he saith, 8 Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah: 9 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers, in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; because they continued not in my covenant, and 10 I regarded them not, saith the Lord. For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, saith the Lord; I will put my laws into their mind, and write them in their hearts: and I will be to them a God, and they shall 11 be to me a people: And they shall not teach every man his neighbor, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: 12 for all shall know me, from the least to the greatest. For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, and their sins and their 13 iniquities will I remember no more. In that he saith, A new covenant, he hath made the first old. Now that which decayeth and groweth old is ready to vanish away.

9 Then verily the first covenant had also ordinances of divine 2 service, and a worldly sanctuary. For there was a tabernacle made; the first, in which was the candlestick, and the table, 3 and the show-bread; which is called the sanctuary. And after the second vail, the tabernacle which is called the Holiest of 4 all; Which had the golden censer, and the ark of the covenant overlaid around with gold, in which was the golden pot that had manna, and Aaron's rod that budded, and the tables of 5 the covenant; And over it the cherubim of glory shadowing the mercy-seat; of which we cannot now speak particularly.
6 Now when these things were thus ordained, the priests went always into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the service of 7 God: But into the second went the high priest alone once every year, not without blood, which he offered for himself, and 8 for the errors of the people: The Holy Spirit this signifying, that the way into the holiest of all was not yet made manifest, 9 while the first tabernacle was yet standing: Which was a figure for the time then present, in which were offered both gifts and sacrifices, that could not make him that did the service 10 perfect, as pertaining to the conscience; Which stood only in meats and drinks, and divers washings, and carnal ordinances, 11 imposed on them until the time of reformation. But Christ being come a high priest of good things to come, by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, 12 not of this building; Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood; he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us. For if the blood of bulls and of goats, and the ashes of a heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctify to the purifying of the flesh: How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, cleanse your conscience from dead works to serve the living God? And for this cause he is the mediator of the new testament, that by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament, they who are called may receive the promise of eternal inheritance. For where a testament is, there must also of necessity be the death of the testator. For a testament is of force after men are dead: otherwise it is of no strength at all while the testator liveth. Hence even the first testament was not dedicated without blood. For when Moses had spoken every precept to all the people according to the law, he took the blood of calves and of goats, with water, and scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book and all the people, Saying, This is the blood of the testament which God hath enjoined to you. Moreover, he sprinkled likewise with blood both the tabernacle, and all the vessels of the ministry. And almost all things are by the law cleansed with blood; and without shedding of blood is no remission. It was therefore necessary that the patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these. For Christ hath not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us: Nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest entereth into the holy place every year with blood of others; For then must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world: but now once in the end of the world hath he appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself. And as it is appointed to men once to die, but after this the judgment: So Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and to them that look for him he will appear the second time without sin to salvation.

For the law having a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make the comers to them perfect. For then would they not have ceased to be offerred? because that the worshipers once cleansed, would have 3 had no more conscience of sins. But in those sacrifices there 4 is a remembrance again made of sins every year. For it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away 5 sins. Wherefore, when he cometh into the world, he saith, Sacrifice and offering thou wouldst not, but a body hast thou 6 prepared me: In burnt-offerings and sacrifices for sin thou 7 hast had no pleasure. Then said I, Lo, I come (in the volume of the book it is written concerning me,) to do thy will, O God.

8 Above, when he said, Sacrifice and offering and burnt-offerings and offering for sin thou wouldst not, neither hadst pleasure in 9 them; which are offered by the law; Then said he, Lo, I come to do thy will, O God. He taketh away the first, that he may 10 establish the second. By which will we are sanctified through 11 the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all. And every priest standeth daily ministering and offering often the same 12 sacrifices, which can never take away sins: But this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins, for ever sat down on the 13 right hand of God; From henceforth waiting till his enemies 14 are made his footstool. For by one offering he hath perfected 15 for ever them that are sanctified. Of this the Holy Spirit also 16 is a witness to us: for after that he had said before, This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, saith the Lord, I will put my laws into their hearts, and in their 17 minds will I write them; And their sins and iniquities will I 18 remember no more. Now where remission of these is, there 19 is no more offering for sin. Having therefore, brethren, bold-20 ness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus, By a new and living way, which he hath consecrated for us, through the 21 vail, that is to say, his flesh; And having a high priest over the house of God; Let us draw near with a true heart in full 22 assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil 23 conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water. Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; for he is 24 faithful that promised: And let us consider one another to ex-25 cite to love and to good works: Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching.
26 For if we sin willfully after we have received the knowledge 27 of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins, But a certain fearful apprehension of judgment and fiery indignation, which shall devour the adversaries. He that despised Moses' law, died without mercy under two or three witnesses: Of how much more severe punishment, suppose ye, shall he be thought worthy, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and hath counted the blood of the covenant, by which he was sanctified, an unholy thing, and hath done despite to the Spirit of grace? For we know him that hath said, Vengeance belongeth to me, I will recompense, saith the Lord. And again, The Lord will judge his people. It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God. But call to remembrance the former days, in which, after ye were illuminated, ye endured a great fight of afflictions; Partly, while ye were made a gazing-stock both by reproaches and afflictions; and partly, while ye became companions of them that were so used. For ye had compassion of me in my bonds, and took joyfully the seizing of your goods, knowing in yourselves that ye have in heaven a better and an enduring substance. Cast not away therefore your confidence, which hath great recompense of reward. For ye have need of patience, that, after ye have done the will of God, ye may receive the promise. For yet a little while, and he that is coming will come, and will not tarry. Now the just shall live by faith: but if any man shall draw back, my soul shall have no pleasure in him. But we are not of them who draw back to perdition; but of them that believe to the saving of the soul.

Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen. For by it the elders obtained a good report. Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which appeared. By faith Abel offered to God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, by which he obtained testimony that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts: and by it he being dead yet speaketh. By faith Enoch was translated, that he should not see death; and was not found, because God had translated him: for before his translation he had this testimony, that he pleased God. But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him. By faith Noah, being warned by God of things not seen as yet, moved with fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house; by which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is by faith. By faith Abraham, when he was called to remove into a place which he should afterwards receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out not knowing whither he was going. By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a foreign country, dwelling in tabernacles with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise: For he looked for a city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God. Through faith also Sarah herself received strength to conceive seed, and was delivered of a child when she was past age, because she judged him faithful who had promised. Therefore there sprang even from one, and him as good as dead, so many as the stars of the sky in multitude, and as the sand which is by the sea-shore innumerable. These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth. For they that say such things declare plainly that they seek a country. And truly, if they had been mindful of that country from whence they came, they might have had opportunity to return. But now they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed to be called their God; for he hath prepared for them a city. By faith Abraham, when he was tried, offered up Isaac: and he that had received the promises offered up his only-begotten son, Of whom it was said, That in Isaac shall thy seed be called: Accounting that God was able to raise him even from the dead; from whence also he received him in a figure. By faith Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau concerning things to come. By faith Jacob, when he was dying, blessed both the sons of Joseph; and worshiped, leaning upon the top of his staff. By faith Joseph, when he died, made mention of the departing of the children of Israel; and gave commandment concerning his bones. By faith Moses when he was born, was hid three months by his parents, because they saw he was a proper child; and they were not afraid of the king's commandment. By faith Moses, when he had come to years, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter; Choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season; Esteeming the reproach of Christ 26 greater riches than the treasures of Egypt: for he had respect to the recompense of the reward. By faith he forsook Egypt, 27 not fearing the wrath of the king: for he endured, as seeing him who is invisible. Through faith he kept the passover, and the 28 sprinkling of blood, lest he that destroyed the first-born should touch them. By faith they passed through the Red sea as by 29 dry land: which the Egyptians essaying to do were drowned.

 By faith the walls of Jericho fell down after they had been en- 30 compassed seven days. By faith the harlot Rahab perished 31 not with them that believed not, as she had received the spies with peace. And what shall I say more? for the time would 32 fail me to tell of Gideon, and of Barak, and of Samson, and of Jephthah, of David also, and Samuel, and of the prophets: Who through faith subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, 33 obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions, Quenched the 34 violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, out of weakness were made strong, became valiant in fight, turned to flight the 35 armies of the aliens. Women received their dead raised to 36 life again: and others were tortured, not accepting deliverance; that they might obtain a better resurrection: And others had 36 trial of cruel mockings and scourgings, and, moreover of bonds and imprisonment: They were stoned, they were sawn asunder, 37 were tempted, were slain with the sword: they wandered about in sheep-skins, and goat-skins; being destitute, afflicted, tormented; (Of whom the world was not worthy:) they wander- 38 ed in deserts, and in mountains, and in dens and caves of the earth. And these all, having obtained a good report 39 through faith, received not the promise: God having provided 40 some better thing for us, that they without us should not be made perfect.

Wherefore, seeing we also are encompassed with so great a 12 cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us, Looking to Jesus the author and 2 finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God. For consider him that en- 3 dured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest ye be wearied and faint in your minds. Ye have not yet resisted to 4 5 blood, striving against sin. And ye have forgotten the exhortation which speaketh to you as to children, My son, despise not 6 thou the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked by him: For whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and 7 scourgeth every son whom he receiveth. If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons: for what son is he 8 whom the father chasteneth not? But if ye are without chastisement, of which all are partakers, then are ye bastards and 9 not sons. Furthermore, we have had fathers of our flesh who corrected us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much 10 rather be in subjection to the Father of spirits, and live? For they verily for a few days chastened us after their own pleasure; but he for our profit, that we might be partakers of his 11 holiness. Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous: nevertheless, afterward it yieldeth the peaceable fruit of righteousness to them who are exercised by 12 it. Wherefore lift up the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees; And make straight paths for your feet, lest that 13 which is lame be turned out of the way; but let it rather be healed. Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without 14 which no man shall see the Lord: Looking diligently, lest any man fail of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing 15 up, trouble you, and by it many be defiled; Lest there be any fornicator, or profane person, as Esau, who for one morsel 16 of food sold his birth-right. For ye know that afterward, when he would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected: for he found no place of repentance, though he sought it carefully 17 with tears. For ye are not come to the mount that might be touched, and that burned with fire, nor to blackness, and to darkness, and tempest, And the sound of a trumpet, and the 18 voice of words; which voice they that heard, entreated that the word should not be spoken to them any more: (For they could 19 not endure that which was commanded, And if so much as a beast touch the mountain, it shall be stoned, or thrust through 20 with a dart: And so terrible was the sight, that Moses said, I exceedingly fear and tremble:) But ye are come to mount 21 Sion, and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels, To the general assembly and church of the first-born, who are written in heaven, 22 and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of just men made perfect, And to Jesus the mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things than that of Abel. See that ye refuse not him that speaketh. For if they escaped not who refused him that spoke on earth, much more shall not we escape, if we turn away from him that speaketh from heaven: Whose voice then shook the earth: but now he hath promised, saying, Yet once more I shake not the earth only, but also heaven. And this word, Yet once more, signifieth the removing of those things that are shaken, as of things that are made, that those things which cannot be shaken may remain. Wherefore we receiving a kingdom which cannot be moved, let us have grace, by which we may serve God acceptably, with reverence and godly fear. For our God is a consuming fire.

Let brotherly love continue. Be not forgetful to entertain strangers: for by this some have entertained angels unawares. Remember them that are in bonds, as bound with them; and them who suffer adversity, as being yourselves also in the body. Marriage is honorable in all, and the bed undefiled: but lewd persons and adulterers God will judge. Let your manner of life be without covetousness; and be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee. So that we may boldly say, The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do to me. Remember them who have the rule over you, who have spoken to you the word of God: whose faith follow, considering the end of their manner of life. Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to-day, and for ever. Be not carried about with divers and strange doctrines: for it is a good thing that the heart be established with grace; not with meats, which have not profited them that have been occupied in them. We have an altar, of which they have no right to eat who serve the tabernacle. For the bodies of those beasts, whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the high priest for sin, are burned without the camp. Wherefore Jesus also, that he might sanctify the people with his own blood, suffered without the gate. Let us go forth therefore to him without the camp, bearing his reproach. For here we have no continuing city, but we seek one to come. By him therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips, giving thanks to his name. But to do good, 13, 2 and to communicate, forget not: for with such sacrifices God 17 is well pleased. Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit yourselves: for they watch for your souls, as they that must give account, that they may do it with joy, and not with 18 grief: for that is unprofitable for you. Pray for us: for we trust we have a good conscience, in all things willing to live hon-19 estly. But I beseech you the rather to do this, that I may be 20 restored to you the sooner. Now the God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of the 21 sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, Make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well-pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ; 22 to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen. And I beseech you, brethren, suffer the word of exhortation: for I have written a 23 letter to you in few words. Know ye, that our brother Timothy is set at liberty; with whom, if he come shortly, I will see you.

24 Salute all them that have the rule over you, and all the saints.
25 They of Italy salute you. Grace be with you all. Amen.

THE GENERAL EPISTLE OF JAMES.

James, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, 1 to the twelve tribes which are scattered abroad, greet- 2 ing. My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into 2 divers temptations. Knowing this, that the trying of 3 your faith worketh patience. But let patience have her per- 4 fect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing.
If any of you lacketh wisdom, let him ask of God, who giveth 5 to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given to him. But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering. For he 6 that wavereth is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind and tossed. For let not that man think that he shall receive 7 any thing from the Lord. A man unsettled in his opinions is 8 unstable in all his ways. Let the brother of low degree re- 9 joice in that he is exalted: But the rich, in that he is made 10 low: because as the flower of the grass he shall pass away.
For the sun hath no sooner risen with a burning heat, but it 11 withereth the grass, and its flower falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth: so also shall the rich man fade away in his ways. Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for 12 when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him. Let no man say 13 when he is tempted, I am tempted by God: for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth he any man: But every 14 man is tempted, when he is drawn away by his own lust, and enticed. Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin: 15 and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death. Do not err, 16 my beloved brethren. Every good gift and every perfect gift is 17 from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning. Of his 18 own will he hath begotten us with the word of truth, that we should be a kind of first-fruits of his creatures. Wherefore, 19 my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath: For the wrath of man worketh not the 20 righteousness of God. Wherefore lay apart all filthiness and 21 superfluity of naughtiness, and receive with meekness the in-22 grafted word, which is able to save your souls. But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves.

23 For if any is a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like 24 a man beholding his natural face in a glass: For he behold-eth himself, and goeth away, and immediately forgetteth what 25 manner of man he was. But he who looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth in it, he being not a forgetful 26 hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed. If any man among you seemeth to be religious, and brid-27 dleth not his tongue, but deceiveth his own heart, this man's religion is vain. Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this, To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world.

2 My brethren, have not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, the 2 Lord of glory, with respect of persons. For if there come into your assembly a man with a gold ring, in goodly apparel, and 3 there come in also a poor man in vile raiment; And ye have respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and say to him, Sit thou here in a good place; and say to the poor, Stand thou there, 4 or sit here under my footstool: Are ye not then partial in your-5 selves, and are become judges of evil thoughts? Hearken, my beloved brethren, Hath not God chosen the poor of this world rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which he hath promised 6 to them that love him? But ye have despised the poor. Do not rich men oppress you, and draw you before the judgment-7 seats? Do they not blaspheme that worthy name by the which 8 ye are called? If ye fulfill the royal law according to the scrip-9 ture, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself, ye do well: But if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convicted 10 by the law as transgressors. For whoever shall keep the whole 11 law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all. For he that said, Do not commit adultery; said also, Do not kill. Now if thou committest no adultery, yet if thou killest, thou art be-12 come a transgressor of the law. So speak ye, and so do, as they 13 that shall be judged by the law of liberty. For he shall have judgment without mercy that hath shown no mercy; and mercy 14 rejoiceth against judgment. What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man sayeth he hath faith, and hath not works? can 15 faith save him? If a brother or sister is naked, and destitute of daily food, And one of you sayeth to them, Depart in peace, 16 be you warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body; what doth it profit?

 Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone. Also a 17, 18 man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: show me thy faith without thy works, and I will show thee my faith by my works. Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: 19 the demons also believe, and tremble. But wilt thou know, O 20 vain man, that faith without works is dead? Was not Abra- 21 ham our father justified by works, when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar? Seest thou how faith wrought with his 22 works, and by works was faith made perfect? And the scrip- 23 ture was fulfilled, which saith, Abraham believed God, and it was imputed to him for righteousness: and he was called the Friend of God. Ye see then that by works a man is justified, 24 and not by faith only. Likewise also was not Rahab the harlot 25 justified by works, when she had received the messengers, and had sent them out another way? For as the body without the 26 spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also.

My brethren, be not many teachers, knowing that we shall 3 receive the greater condemnation. For in many things we all 2 offend. If any man offendeth not in word, the same is a perfect man, able also to bridle the whole body. Behold, we put 3 bits in the mouths of horses, that they may obey us; and we turn about their whole body. Behold also the ships, which 4 though they are so great, and are driven by fierce winds, yet they are turned about with a very small helm, withersoever the governor willeth. Even so the tongue is a little member, 5 and boasteth great things. Behold, how great a matter a little fire kindleth! And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: so 6 is the tongue among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the course of nature; and it is set on fire from hell. For every kind of beasts, and of birds, and of 7 serpents, and of animals in the sea, is tamed, and hath been tamed by mankind: But the tongue can no man tame; it is 8 an unruly evil, full of deadly poison. With this we bless God, 9 even the Father; and with this we curse men, who are made after the similitude of God. Out of the same mouth proceedeth 10 blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be. Doth a fountain send forth at the same place sweet water 11 12 and bitter? Can the fig-tree, my brethren, bear olive-berries? or a vine, figs? so no fountain can yield both salt water and 13 fresh. Who is a wise man and endued with knowledge among you? let him show by a good deportment his works with meek-14 ness of wisdom. But if ye have bitter envying and strife in 15 your hearts, glory not, and lie not against the truth. This wisdom descendeth not from above, but is earthly, sensual, de-16 moniacal. For where envying and strife is, there is confusion 17 and every evil work. But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easy to be entreated, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without 18 hypocrisy. And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace by them that make peace.

4 From whence come wars and fightings among you? come they not hence, even from your lusts that war in your mem-2 bers? Ye lust and have not: ye kill, and desire to have, and cannot obtain: ye fight and war, yet ye have not, because ye 3 ask not. Ye ask, and receive not, because ye ask amiss, that 4 ye may consume it upon your lusts. Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? whoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the 5 enemy of God. Do ye think that the scripture saith in vain, 6 The spirit that dwelleth in us lusteth to envy? But he giveth more grace. Wherefore he saith, God resisteth the proud, but 7 giveth grace to the humble. Submit yourselves therefore to 8 God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, 9 ye sinners, and purify your hearts, ye double-minded. Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to 10 mourning, and your joy to heaviness. Humble yourselves in 11 the sight of the Lord, and he will lift you up. Speak not evil one of another, brethren. He that speaketh evil of his brother, and judgeth his brother, speaketh evil of the law, and judgeth the law: but if thou judgest the law, thou art not a doer of the 12 law, but a judge. There is one lawgiver, who is able to save, 13 and to destroy: who art thou that judgest another? Come now, ye that say, To-day or to-morrow we will go into such a city, and continue there a year, and buy, and sell, and get gain: 14 Whereas ye know not what will be on the morrow: For what is your life? It is even a vapor, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away. Instead of that ye ought to say, If 15 the Lord will, we shall live, and do this, or that. But now ye 16 rejoice in your boastings: all such rejoicing is evil. Therefore 17 to him that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin.

5
Come now, ye rich men, weep and howl for your miseries 5 that shall come upon you. Your riches are corrupted, and your 2 garments are moth-eaten. Your gold and silver is cankered; 3 and the rust of them shall be a testimony against you, and 3 shall eat your flesh as it were fire. Ye have amassed treasure for the last days. Behold, the hire of the laborers who have 4 reaped your fields, which is by you kept back by fraud, crieth: 4 and the cries of them who have reaped have entered into the ears of the Lord of Sabaoth. Ye have lived in pleasure on the 5 earth, and been wanton; ye have nourished your hearts, as in 5 a day of slaughter. Ye have condemned and killed the just; 6 and he doth not resist you. Be patient, therefore, brethren, to 7 the coming of the Lord. Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, until he receiveth the early and the latter rain. Be ye also pa- 8 tient; establish your hearts; for the coming of the Lord draweth nigh. Grudge not one against another, brethren, lest ye be 9 condemned: behold, the judge standeth before the door. Take, 10 my brethren, the prophets, who have spoken in the name of the Lord, for an example of suffering affliction, and of patience.
Behold, we count them happy who endure. Ye have heard of 11 the patience of Job, and have seen the end of the Lord; that the Lord is very pitiful, and of tender mercy. But above all 12 things, my brethren, swear not, neither by heaven, neither by the earth, neither by any other oath: but let your yea, be yea: and your nay, nay; lest ye fall into condemnation. Is any 13 among you afflicted? let him pray. Is any cheerful? let him sing psalms. Is any sick among you? let him call for the elders of 14 the church; and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord: And the prayer of faith will save the 15 sick, and the Lord will raise him up; and if he hath committed sins, they will be forgiven him. Confess your faults one to 16 another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed. The effectual fervent prayer of the righteous man availeth much.
Elijah was a man subject to like passions as we are, and he 17 prayed earnestly that it might not rain: and it rained not on 18 the earth by the space of three years and six months. And he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain, and the earth brought 19 forth its fruit. Brethren, if any one of you should err from the 20 truth, and one should convert him; Let him know, that he who converteth a sinner from the error of his way will save a soul from death, and will hide a multitude of sins.

THE FIRST EPISTLE GENERAL OF PETER.

eter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the strangers scattered throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia, Elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through sanctification of the Spirit, to obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ: Grace to you, and peace, be multiplied. Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again to a living hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you, Who are kept by the power of God through faith to salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. In which ye greatly rejoice, though now for a season (if need be) ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations: That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though tried with fire, might be found to praise, and honor, and glory, at the appearing of Jesus Christ: Whom having not seen, ye love; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable, and full of glory: Receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls. Concerning which salvation the prophets have inquired and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that should come to you: Searching what, or what manner of time the Spirit of Christ which was in them did signify, when it testified beforehand the sufferings of Christ, and the glory that should follow. To whom it was revealed, that not to themselves, but to us they ministered the things which are now reported to you by them that have preached the gospel to you, with the Holy Spirit sent down from heaven; which things the angels desire to look into. Wherefore gird up the loins of your mind, be sober, and hope to the end for the grace that is to be brought to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ; As obedient children, not fashioning yourselves according to the former lusts in your ignorance: But as he who hath called you is holy, so be ye 16 holy in all manner of deportment. Because it is written, Be 17 ye holy; for I am holy. And if ye call on the Father, who without respect of persons judgeth according to every man's work, 18 pass the time of your sojourning here in fear: Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain course of life received by tradi-19 tion from your fathers; But with the precious blood of Christ, 20 as of a lamb without blemish and without spot: Who verily was fore-ordained before the foundation of the world, but was 21 manifested in these last times for you, Who by him do believe in God, that raised him from the dead, and gave him glory; that 22 your faith and hope might be in God. Seeing ye have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit to unfeigned 23 heart fervently: Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth 24 for ever. For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and its flower falleth 25 away: But the word of the Lord endureth for ever. And this is the word which by the gospel is preached to you.

2 Wherefore, laying aside all malice, and all guile, and hypocrisies, 2 and envies, and all evil-speakings, As new-born babes, desire 3 the pure milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby: If indeed 4 ye have tasted that the Lord is gracious. To whom coming as to a living stone, disallowed indeed by men, but chosen by God, 5 and precious, Ye also, as living stones, are built up a spiritual house, a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, accept-6 able to God by Jesus Christ. Wherefore also it is contained in the scripture, Behold, I lay in Sion a chief corner-stone, elect, precious: and he that believeth on him shall not be confounded.
7 To you therefore who believe he is precious: but to them who are disobedient, the stone which the builders disallowed, the 8 same is made the head of the corner, And a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offense, even to them who stumble at the word, 9 being disobedient: to which also they were appointed. But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should show forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvelous light: 10 Who in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God: who had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy. Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul; Having your manner of life honest among the Gentiles: that, whereas they speak against you as evil-doers, they may by your good works, which they shall behold, glorify God in the day of visitation. Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake: whether to the king, as supreme; Or to governors, as to them that are sent by him for the punishment of evil-doers, and for the praise of them that do well. For so is the will of God, that with well-doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men: As free, and not using your liberty for a cloke of maliciousness, but as the servants of God. Honor all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the king. Servants, be subject to your masters with all fear; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the froward. For this is thank-worthy, if a man for conscience towards God endureth grief, suffering wrongfully. For what glory is it, if, when ye are buffeted for your faults, ye bear it patiently? but if, when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye bear it patiently, this is acceptable with God. For even to this were ye called: because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps: Who committed no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth: Who, when he was reviled, reviled not again; when he suffered, he threatened not; but committed himself to him that judgeth righteously: Who himself bore our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live to righteousness; by whose stripes ye were healed. For ye were as sheep going astray; but are now returned to the Shepherd and Bishop of your souls.

Likewise, ye wives, be in subjection to your own husbands; 3 that, if any obey not the word, they also may without the word be won by the deportment of the wives; While they behold 2 your chaste manner of life coupled with fear. Whose adorning 3 let it not be that outward adorning of plaiting the hair, and of wearing gold, or of putting on apparel; But let it be the hid- 4 den man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price. For after this manner in former times 5 the holy women also, who trusted in God, adorned themselves, being in subjection to their own husbands: Even as Sarah 6 obeyed Abraham, calling him lord: whose daughters ye are, as long as ye do well, and are not afraid with any amazement.

7 Likewise, ye husbands, dwell with them according to knowledge, giving honor to the wife, as to the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life; that your prayers be

8 not hindered. Finally, be ye all of one mind, having compassion one of another; love as brethren, be pitiful, be courteous:

9 Not rendering evil for evil, or railing for railing: but on the contrary, blessing; knowing that ye are called to this, that ye

10 should inherit a blessing. For he that will love life, and see good days, let him restrain his tongue from evil, and his lips 11 that they speak no guile: Let him shun evil, and do good; let 12 him seek peace, and pursue it. For the eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, and his ears are open to their prayers: but

13 the face of the Lord is against them that do evil. And who is he that will harm you, if ye are followers of that which is

14 good? But if ye suffer for righteousness' sake, happy are ye: and be not afraid of their terror, neither be troubled; But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts: and be ready always to give

15 an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you, with meekness and fear. Having a good conscience; that, whereas they speak evil of you, as of evil-doers, they may be ashamed that falsely accuse your good deportment

17 in Christ. For it is better, if the will of God is so, that ye suffer

18 for well-doing, than for evil-doing. For Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh, but made alive by

19 the Spirit: By which also he went and preached to the spirits in prison; Who formerly were disobedient, when once the long-suffering of God waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was preparing, in which few, that is, eight souls, were saved by

21 water. The like figure to which, even baptism, doth also now save us (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience towards God,) by the resurrection

22 of Jesus Christ: Who is gone into heaven, and is on the right hand of God; angels, and authorities, and powers being made subject to him.

4 Forasmuch then as Christ hath suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves likewise with the same mind: for he that hath

2 suffered in the flesh hath ceased from sin; That he no longer should live the rest of his time in the flesh to the lusts of men, but to the will of God. For the time past of our life may suffice us to have wrought the will of the Gentiles, when we walked in lasciviousness, lusts, excess of wine, revelings, banquetings, and abominable idolatries: In which they think it strange that ye run not with them to the same excess of riot, speaking evil of you: Who shall give account to him that is ready to judge the living and the dead. For, for this cause was the gospel preached also to them that are dead, that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, but live according to God in the spirit. But the end of all things is at hand: be ye therefore sober, and watch to prayer. And above all things have fervent charity among yourselves: for charity will cover a multitude of sins. Use hospitality one to another without grudging. As every man hath received the gift, even so minister the same one to another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God. If any man speaketh let him speak as the oracles of God; if any man ministereth let him do it as of the ability which God giveth: that God in all things may be glorified through Jesus Christ; to whom be praise and dominion for ever and ever. Amen. Beloved, think it not strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened to you: But rejoice, seeing ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings; that, when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy. If ye are reproached for the name of Christ, happy are ye; for the spirit of glory and of God resteth upon you. On their part he is evil spoken of, but on your part he is glorified. But let none of you suffer as a murderer, or as a thief, or as an evil-doer, or as a busy-body in other men's matters. Yet if any man suffereth as a Christian, let him not be ashamed; but let him glorify God on this behalf. For the time is come that judgment must begin at the house of God: and if it first beginneth at us, what will be the end of them that obey not the gospel of God? And if the righteous is scarcely saved, where will the ungodly and the sinner appear? Wherefore, let them that suffer according to the will of God, commit the keeping of their souls to him in well-doing, as to a faithful Creator.

The elders who are among you I exhort, who am also an elder, and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, and also a

2 partaker of the glory that shall be revealed: Feed the flock of God which is among you, taking the oversight of it, not by constraint, but willingly; not for filthy lucre, but from a ready 3 mind; Neither as being lords over God's heritage, but being 4 examples to the flock. And when the chief Shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive a crown of glory that fadeth not away.
5 Likewise, ye younger, submit yourselves to the elder. Yes, all of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility: for God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble.
6 Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, 7 that he may exalt you in due time: Casting all your care upon 8 him; for he careth for you. Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seek-9 ing whom he may devour: Whom resist steadfast in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your 10 brethren that are in the world. But the God of all grace, who hath called us to his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after ye have suffered a while, make you perfect, establish, strengthen, 11 settle you. To him be glory and dominion for ever and ever.
12 Amen. By Silvanus, a faithful brother to you, as I suppose, I have written briefly, exhorting, and testifying that this is the 13 true grace of God in which ye stand. The church that is at Babylon, elected together with you, saluteth you; and so doth 14 Mark my son. Greet ye one another with a kiss of charity.
Peace be with you all that are in Christ Jesus. Amen.

THE SECOND EPISTLE GENERAL OF PETER.

Simon Peter, a servant and an apostle of Jesus Christ, 1 to them that have obtained like precious faith with us through the righteousness of God and our Savior Jesus Christ: Grace and peace be multiplied to you 2 through the knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord, Accord- 3 ing as his divine power hath given to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and virtue: Whereby are given to us exceed- 4 ing great and precious promises; that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust. And besides this, giving all dili- 5 gence, add to your faith virtue; and to virtue knowledge; And 6 to knowledge temperance; and to temperance patience; and to patience godliness; And to godliness brotherly kindness; and 7 to brotherly kindness charity. For if these things be in you, 8 and abound, they make you that ye shall neither be barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. But he 9 that lacketh these things is blind, and cannot see afar off, and hath forgotten that he was purified from his old sins. Where- 10 fore the rather, brethren, give diligence to make your calling and election sure: for if ye do these things, ye shall never fall: For so an entrance shall be ministered to you abundantly into 11 the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.
Wherefore I will not be negligent to put you always in remem- 12 brance of these things, though ye know them, and are established in the present truth. Indeed, I think it meet, as long as 13 I am in this tabernacle, to stir you up by putting you in remembrance; Knowing that shortly I must put off this my taberna- 14 cle, even as our Lord Jesus Christ hath shown me. Moreover, 15 I will endeavor that ye may be able, after my decease, to have these things always in remembrance. For we have not fol- 16 lowed cunningly devised fables, when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but were eyewitnesses of his majesty. For he received from God the Father 17 honor and glory, when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. And this voice which came from heaven we heard, when we were with him on the holy mount. We have also a more sure word of prophecy; to which ye do well that ye take heed, as to a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the day-star arise in your hearts: Knowing this first, that no prophecy of the scripture is of any private interpretation. For prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spoke as they were moved by the Holy Spirit.

2 But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there will be false teachers among you, who will privately bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction. And many will follow their pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth will be evil spoken of. And through covetousness they will with feigned words make merchandise of you: whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not. For if God spared not the angels that sinned, but cast them down to hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved to judgment; And spared not the old world, but saved Noah the eighth person, a preacher of righteousness, bringing the flood upon the world of the ungodly; And turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes, condemned them with an overthrow, making them an example to those that afterwards should live ungodly lives. And delivered just Lot, grieved with the habitual lewdness of the wicked: (For that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, grieved his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds;) The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust to the day of judgment to be punished: But chiefly them that walk after the flesh in the lust of uncleanness, and despise government. Presumptuous are they, self-willed; they are not afraid to speak evil of dignities. Whereas angels, who are greater in power and might, bring not railing accusation against them before the Lord. But these, as natural brute beasts, made to be taken and destroyed, speak evil of the things that they understand not; and shall utterly perish in their own corruption: And shall receive the reward of 13 unrighteousness, as they that count it pleasure to riot in the day-time. Spots they are and blemishes, sporting themselves 14 with their own deceivings while they feast with you; Having eyes full of adultery, and that cannot cease from sin; beguil- 14 ing unstable souls: they have a heart exercised with covetous practices; cursed children: Who have forsaken the right way, 15 and gone astray, following the way of Balaam the son of Bosor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness; But was rebuked 16 for his iniquity: the dumb ass speaking with man's voice, for-bad the madness of the prophet. These are wells without wa- 17 ter, clouds that are carried with a tempest; to whom the mist of darkness is reserved for ever. For when they speak great 18 swelling words of vanity, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through much wantonness, those that had quite escaped 19 from them who live in error. While they promise them liberty, they themselves are the servants of corruption: for by whom a 20 man is overcome, by the same is he brought into bondage. For if after they have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they are again entangled in them, and overcome, the latter end is worse 21 with them than the beginning. For it had been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after they have known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered 22 to them. But it hath happened to them according to the true proverb, The dog is turned to his own vomit again; and, The sow that was washed, to her wallowing in the mire.

This second epistle, beloved, I now write to you; in both 3 which I stir up your pure minds by way of remembrance: That 2 ye may be mindful of the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, and of the commandment of us the apostles of the Lord and Savior: Knowing this first, that there will 3 come in the last days scoffers, walking after their own lusts, And saying, Where is the promise of his coming? for since 4 the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation. For this they willingly are ig- 5 norant of, that by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth standing out of the water and in the water: By 6 which the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished: But the heavens and the earth, which are now, by 7 the same word are kept in store, reserved to fire against the 8 day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men. But, beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord 9 as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day. The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is long-suffering toward us, not willing that any 10 should perish, but that all should come to repentance. But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in which the heavens will pass away with a great noise, and the elements will melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works 11 that are therein will be burned up. Seeing then that all these things will be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be 12 in all holy deportment and godliness, Looking for and hasting to the coming of the day of God, in which the heavens being on fire will be dissolved, and the elements will melt with fervent 13 heat? Nevertheless we, according to his promise, look for new heavens and a new earth, in which dwelleth righteousness.

14 Wherefore, beloved, seeing that ye look for such things, be diligent that ye may be found by him in peace, without spot, and 15 blameless. And account that the long-suffering of our Lord is salvation; even as our beloved brother Paul also, according to 16 the wisdom given to him, hath written to you; As also in all his epistles, speaking in them of these things; in which are some things hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other scriptures, to 17 their own destruction. Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things before, beware lest ye also, being led away with 18 the error of the wicked, fall from your own steadfastness. But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To him be glory both now and for ever. Amen.

THE FIRST EPISTLE GENERAL OF JOHN.

What which was from the beginning, which we have 1 heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled, of the word of life; (For the life was manifested, and 2 we have seen it, and testify, and show to you that eternal life which was with the Father, and was manifested to us;) That 3 which we have seen and heard we declare to you, that ye also may have fellowship with us: and truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ. And these things 4 we write to you, that your joy may be full. This then is the 5 message which we have heard from him, and declare to you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all. If we say 6 that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth: But if we walk in the light, as he 7 is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin. If we 8 say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to 9 forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.
If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his 10 word is not in us.

My little children, these things I write to you, that ye sin 2 not. And if any man sinneth, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous: And he is the propitiation 2 for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world. And by this we do know that we know him, if 3 we keep his commandments. He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not 4 in him. But whoever keepeth his word, in him verily is the 5 love of God perfected: by this we know that we are in him. He 6 that saith he abideth in him, ought himself also so to walk, even as he walked. Brethren, I write no new commandment 7 to you, but an old commandment which ye had from the beginning: The old commandment is the word which ye have heard 8 from the beginning. Again, a new commandment I write to 9 you, which thing is true in him and in you: because the dark-10 ness is past, and the true light now shineth. He that saith he 11 is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkness even until 12 now. He that loveth his brother abideth in the light, and there 13 is no occasion of stumbling in him. But he that hateth his 14 brother is in darkness, and walketh in darkness, and knoweth 15 not whither he goeth, because darkness hath blinded his eyes.

16 I write to you, little children, because your sins are forgiven 17 you for his name's sake. I write to you, fathers, because ye 18 have known him that is from the beginning. I write to you, 19 young men, because ye have overcome the wicked one. I write 20 to you, little children, because ye have known the Father. I 21 have written to you, fathers, because ye have known him that 22 is from the beginning. I have written to you, young men, be-23 cause ye are strong, and the word of God abideth in you, and 24 ye have overcome the wicked one. Love not the world, nei-25 ther the things that are in the world. If any man loveth the 26 world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not from the Father, but is from the world.
And the world passeth away, and the lust of it: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever. Little children, it is the last time: and as ye have heard that antichrist cometh, even now are there many antichrists; by which we know that it is the last time. They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us: but they went out, that they might be made manifest that they were not all of us. But ye have an unction from the Holy One, and ye know all things. I have not written to you because ye know not the truth, but because ye know it, and that no lie is of the truth. Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son. Whoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: but he that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father also. Let that therefore abide in you, which ye have heard from the beginning. If that which ye have heard from the beginning shall remain in you, ye also shall continue in the Son, and in the Father. And this is the promise that he hath promised us, even eternal life. These things have I written to you concerning them that seduce you. But the anointing 27 which ye have received from him abideth in you, and ye need not that any man should teach you: but as the same anointing teacheth you concerning all things, and is truth, and is no lie, and even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in him. And 28 now, little children, abide in him; that when he shall appear, we may have confidence, and not be ashamed before him at his coming. If ye know that he is righteous ye know that every 29 one that doeth righteousness is born of him.

Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon 3 us, that we should be called the sons of God: therefore the world knoweth us not, because it knew him not. Beloved, now 2 are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is. And every man that 3 hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as he is pure.
 Whoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law; for sin is 4 the transgression of the law. And ye know that he was man- 5 ifested to take away our sins; and in him is no sin. Whoever 6 abideth in him sinneth not: whoever sinneth hath not seen 7 him, neither known him. Little children, let no man deceive 8 you: he that doeth righteousness is righteous, even as he is 9 righteous. He that committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil 10 sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil.
 Whoever is born of God doth not commit sin; for his seed re- 9 maineth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God.
 In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of 10 the devil: whoever doeth not righteousness is not of God, neither he that loveth not his brother. For this is the message 11 that ye have heard from the beginning, that we should love one another. Not as Cain, who was of that wicked one, and 12 slew his brother. And why did he slay him? Because his own works were evil, and his brother's righteous. Marvel not, my 13 brethren, if the world hate you. We know that we have passed 14 from death to life, because we love the brethren. He that loveth not his brother, abideth in death. Whoever hateth his brother, 15 is a murderer: and ye know that no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him. By this we perceive the love of God, because 16 he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives 17 for the brethren. But he who hath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compas- 18 sion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him? My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue, but in deed 19 and in truth. And by this we know that we are of the truth, 20 and shall assure our hearts before him. For if our heart con-demneth us, God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all 21 things. Beloved, if our heart doth not condemn us, then have 22 we confidence towards God. And whatever we ask, we receive from him, because we keep his commandments, and do 23 those things that are pleasing in his sight. And this is his commandment; That we should believe on the name of his Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, as he gave us command-24 ment. And he that keepeth his commandments, dwelleth in him, and he in him. And by this we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us.

4 Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets have gone out 2 into the world. By this ye know the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesseth that Jesus Christ hath come in the flesh, 3 is from God: And every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh, is not from God. And this is that spirit of antichrist, of which ye have heard that it should come; 4 and even now already it is in the world. Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them: because greater is he that 5 is in you, than he that is in the world. They are of the world: therefore they speak from the world, and the world heareth 6 them. We are of God. He that knoweth God, heareth us; he that is not of God, heareth not us. By this we know the spirit of 7 truth, and the spirit of error. Beloved, let us love one another: for love is from God; and every one that loveth is born of God, 8 and knoweth God. He that loveth not, knoweth not God; for 9 God is love. In this was manifested the love of God towards us, because that God sent his only begotten Son into the world, 10 that we might live through him. In this is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the pro-11 pitiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought 12 also to love one another. No man hath seen God at any time.
If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and his love is per-13 fected in us. By this we know that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit. And we have seen 14 and do testify, that the Father sent the Son to be the Savior of 14 the world. Whoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, 15 God dwelleth in him, and he in God. And we have known and 16 believed the love that God hath to us. God is love: and he that 16 dwelleth in love, dwelleth in God, and God in him. In this is 17 our love made perfect, that we may have boldness in the day 17 of judgment: because as he is, so are we in this world. There 18 is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because 18 fear hath torment. He that feareth, is not made perfect in love.

We love him, because he first loved us. If a man sayeth, I love 19, 20 God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar. For he that loveth not his brother, whom he hath seen, how can he love God, whom he hath not seen? And this commandment have we from him, 21 That he who loveth God, love his brother also.

Whoever believeth that Jesus is the Christ, is born of God: 5 and every one that loveth him that begat, loveth him also that is begotten by him. By this we know that we love the children 2 of God, when we love God, and keep his commandments. For 3 this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments; and 3 his commandments are not grievous. For whatever is born of 4 God, overcometh the world: and this is the victory that over- 4 cometh the world, even our faith. Who is he that overcometh 5 the world, but he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God?
This is he that came by water and blood, even Jesus Christ; not 6 by water only, but by water and blood. And it is the Spirit that beareth testimony, because the Spirit is truth. For there are 7 three that bear testimony in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Spirit, and these three are one. And there are three 8 that bear testimony on earth, the spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one. If we receive the tes- 9 timony of men, the testimony of God is greater: for this is the testimony of God which he hath testified of his Son. He that 10 believeth on the Son of God hath the witness in himself: he that believeth not God, hath made him a liar, because he hath not believed the testimony that God gave of his Son. And this 11 is the testimony, that God hath given to us eternal life: and this life is in his Son. He that hath the Son, hath life; and he 12 that hath not the Son of God, hath not life. These things have 13 I written to you that believe on the name of the Son of God;

that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may 14 believe on the name of the Son of God. And this is the confidence that we have in him, that if we ask any thing according 15 to his will, he heareth us: And if we know that he heareth us, whatever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we 16 desired from him. If any man shall see his brother sin a sin which is not to death, he shall ask, and he will give him life for them that sin not to death. There is a sin to death: I do not say 17 that he shall pray for it. All unrighteousness is sin: and there 18 is a sin not to death. We know that whoever is born of God, sinneth not; but he that is begotten of God, keepeth himself, 19 and that wicked one toucheth him not. And we know that we 20 are of God, and the whole world lieth in wickedness. And we know that the Son of God hath come, and hath given us an understanding, that we may know him that is true, and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true 21 God, and eternal life. Little children, keep yourselves from idols. Amen.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF JOHN.

She elder to the elect lady, and her children, whom I 1 love in the truth; and not I only, but also all they that 2 have known the truth; For the truth's sake which 2 dwelleth in us, and shall be with us for ever. Grace 3 be with you, mercy, and peace from God the Father, and from 3 the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.
I rejoiced greatly, that I found of thy children walking in truth, 4 as we have received a commandment from the Father. And 5 now I beseech thee, lady, not as though I wrote a new commandment to thee, but that which we had from the beginning, that we love one another. And this is love, that we walk 6 according to his commandments. This is the commandment, that as ye have heard from the beginning, ye should walk in 7 it. For many deceivers have entered into the world, who confess not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh. This is a de- 8 ceiver, and an antichrist. Look to yourselves, that we lose not those things which we have wrought, but that we receive 8 a full reward. Whoever transgresseth, and abideth not in the 9 doctrine of Christ, hath not God. He that abideth in the doctrine of Christ, he hath both the Father and the Son. If any 10 one cometh to you, and bringeth not this doctrine, receive him not into your house, neither wish him happiness: For he that 11 wisheth him happiness, is partaker of his evil deeds. Having 12 many things to write to you, I would not write with paper and ink: but I trust to come to you, and speak face to face, that our joy may be full. The children of thy elect sister greet thee. 13 Amen.

THE THIRD EPISTLE OF JOHN.

1  he elder to the well-beloved Gaius, whom I love in 2 truth. Beloved, I wish above all things that thou 3 mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul 4 prospereth. For I rejoiced greatly, when the brethren 5 came and testified of the truth that is in thee, even as thou 6 walkest in the truth. I have no greater joy than to hear that 7 my children walk in truth. Beloved, thou doest faithfully 8 whatever thou doest to the brethren, and to strangers; Who 9 have borne testimony of thy charity before the church: whom 10 if thou shalt bring forward on their journey after a godly sort, 11 thou wilt do well: Because for his name's sake they went 12 forth, taking nothing from the Gentiles. We therefore ought 13 to receive such, that we may be fellow-helpers to the truth. I 14 wrote to the church: but Diotrephes, who loveth to have the pre-eminence among them, receiveth us not. Wherefore, if I come, I will remember his deeds which he doeth, prating against us with malicious words: and not content with that, neither doth he himself receive the brethren, and forbiddeth them that would, and casteth them out of the church. Beloved, follow not that which is evil, but that which is good. He that doeth good is of God: but he that doeth evil hath not seen God.
Demetrius hath good report by all men, and by the truth itself: and we also bear testimony; and ye know that our testimony is true. I had many things to write, but I will not with ink and pen write to thee: But I trust I shall shortly see thee, and we shall speak face to face. Peace be to thee. Our friends salute thee. Greet the friends by name.

THE GENERAL EPISTLE OF JUDE.

ude, the servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James, 1 to them that are sanctified by God the Father, and preserved in Jesus Christ, and called: Mercy to you, 2 and peace, and love, be multiplied. Beloved, when I 3 gave all diligence to write to you concerning the common salvation, it was needful for me to write to you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith, which was once delivered to the saints. For certain men have crept in un- 4 awares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ. I 5 will therefore put you in remembrance, though ye once knew this, that the Lord, having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed them that believed not. And the 6 angels who kept not their first state, but left their own habitation, he hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness to the judgment of the great day. Even as Sodom and Gomorrah, 7 and the cities about them in like manner, giving themselves over to impurity, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire. Like- 8 wise also these filthy dreamers defile the flesh, despise dominion, and speak evil of dignities. Yet Michael the archangel, 9 when contending with the devil he disputed about the body of Moses, durst not bring against him a railing accusation, but said, The Lord rebuke thee. But these speak evil of those 10 things which they know not: but what they know naturally, as brute beasts, in those things they corrupt themselves. Woe to 11 them! for they have gone in the way of Cain, and run greedily after the error of Balaam for reward, and perished in the gainsaying of Core. These are spots in your feasts of char- 12 ity, when they feast with you, feeding themselves without fear: clouds they are without water, carried about by winds; withered autumnal trees, without fruit, twice dead, plucked out by the roots; Raging waves of the sea, foaming out their own 13

shame; wandering stars, to whom is reserved the blackness of 14 darkness for ever. And Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, the Lord cometh with ten 15 thousands of his saints, To execute judgment upon all, and to convict all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have impiously committed, and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him.
16 These are murmurers, complainers, walking after their own lusts; and their mouth speaketh great swelling words, hav-17 ing men's persons in admiration because of advantage. But, beloved, remember ye the words which were spoken before by 18 the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ; That they told you there would be mockers in the last time, who would walk after their 19 own ungodly lusts. These are they who separate themselves, 20 sensual, having not the Spirit. But ye, beloved, building up yourselves on your most holy faith, praying by the Holy Spirit, 21 Keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our 22 Lord Jesus Christ to eternal life. And of some have compas-23 sion, making a difference: And others save with fear, pulling them out of the fire; hating even the garment spotted by the 24 flesh. Now to him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with 25 exceeding joy, To God the only wise, our Savior, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever. Amen.

THE REVELATION OF ST. JOHN

THE DIVINE.

 he Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave to him, 1 to show to his servants things which must shortly come to pass; and he sent and signified it by his angel to his servant John: Who bore testimony of the 2 word of God, and of the testimony of Jesus Christ, and of all things that he saw. Blessed is he that readeth, and they 3 that hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written therein: for the time is at hand. John 4 to the seven churches which are in Asia: Grace be to you, and peace, from him who is, and who was, and who is to come; and from the seven Spirits who are before his throne; And from Je- 5 sus Christ, who is the faithful witness, and the first-begotten of the dead, and the prince of the kings of the earth. To him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood, And hath made us kings and priests to God and his Father; to 6 him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen. Behold, 7 he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him, and they also who pierced him: and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, Amen. I am Alpha and Omega, the 8 beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, who is, and who was, and who is to come, the Almighty. I John, who also am your 9 brother, and companion in tribulation, and in the kingdom and patience of Jesus Christ, was in the isle that is called Patmos, for the word of God, and for the testimony of Jesus Christ. I 10 was in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and heard behind me a great voice, as of a trumpet, Saying, I am Alpha and Omega, 11 the first and the last: and, What thou seest, write in a book, and send it to the seven churches which are in Asia; to Ephesus, and to Smyrna, and to Pergamos, and to Thyatira, and to Sardis, and to Philadelphia, and to Laodicea. And I turned 12 to see the voice that spoke with me. And having turned, I saw seven golden candlesticks; And in the midst of the seven can- 13 dlesticks one like the Son of man, clothed with a garment down to the foot, and girt about the paps with a golden girdle. His 14 head and his hairs were white like wool, as white as snow; and 15 his eyes were as a flame of fire; And his feet like fine brass, as if they burned in a furnace; and his voice as the sound of 16 many waters. And he had in his right hand seven stars: and out of his mouth went a sharp two-edged sword: and his coun-17 tenance was as the sun shineth in his strength. And when I saw him, I fell at his feet as dead. And he laid his right hand upon me, saying to me, Fear not; I am the first and the 18 last: I am he that liveth, and was dead; and behold, I am alive for evermore, Amen; and have the keys of hell and of 19 death. Write the things which thou hast seen, and the things 20 which are, and the things which shall be hereafter; The mystery of the seven stars which thou sawest in my right hand, and the seven golden candlesticks. The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches: and the seven candlesticks which thou sawest are the seven churches.

2 To the angel of the church of Ephesus write; These things saith he that holdeth the seven stars in his right hand, who 2 walketh in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks; I know thy works, and thy labor, and thy patience, and that thou canst not bear them who are evil; and thou hast tried them who say 3 they are apostles, and are not; and hast found them liars: And hast borne, and hast patience, and for my name's sake hast la-4 bored, and hast not fainted. Nevertheless, I have somewhat 5 against thee, because thou hast left thy first love. Remember therefore from whence thou hast fallen, and repent, and do the first works; or else I will come to thee quickly, and will remove 6 thy candlestick out of its place, except thou repent. But this thou hast, that thou hatest the deeds of the Nicolaitans, which 7 I also hate. He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of God.
8 And to the angel of the church in Smyrna, write; These things 9 saith the first and the last, who was dead, and is alive; I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but thou art rich) and I know the blasphemy of them who say they are Jews, and are 10 not, but are the synagogue of Satan. Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer. Behold, the devil will cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and ye shall have tribulation ten days. Be thou faithful to death, and I will give thee a crown of life. He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith 11 to the churches; He that overcometh, shall not be hurt by the second death. And to the angel of the church in Pergamos 12 write; These things saith he who hath the sharp sword with two edges; I know thy works, and where thou dwellest, even 13 where Satan's seat is: and thou holdest fast my name, and hast not denied my faith, even in those days wherein Antipas was my faithful martyr, who was slain among you, where Satan 14 dwelleth. But I have a few things against thee, because thou hast there them that hold the doctrine of Balaam, who taught Balak to cast a stumbling-block before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed to idols, and to commit lewdness. So hast 15 thou also them that hold the doctrine of the Nicolaitans, which thing I hate. Repent; or else I will come to thee quickly, and 16 will fight against them with the sword of my mouth. He that 17 hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the hidden manna, and will give him a white stone, and on the stone a new name written, which no man knoweth, he excepted, that receiveth it.

And to the angel of the church in Thyatira write; These things 18 saith the Son of God, who hath his eyes like a flame of fire, and his feet are like fine brass; I know thy works, and charity, 19 and service, and faith, and thy patience, and thy works; and the last to be more than the first: Notwithstanding, I have 20 a few things against thee, because thou sufferest that woman Jezebel, who calleth herself a prophetess, to teach and to seduce my servants to commit lewdness, and to eat things sacrificed to idols. And I gave her time to repent of her lewdness, 21 and she repented not. Behold, I will cast her into a bed, and 22 them that commit adultery with her into great tribulation, except they repent of their deeds. And I will kill her children 23 with death; and all the churches shall know that I am he who searcheth the reins and hearts: and I will give to every one of you according to your works. But to you I say, and to the rest 24 in Thyatira, As many as have not this doctrine, and who have not known the depths of Satan, as they speak; I will put upon you no other burden: But that which ye have already hold fast 25 till I come. And he that overcometh, and keepeth my works 26 to the end, to him will I give power over the nations: (And he 27 shall rule them with a rod of iron; as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken to shivers:) even as I received of my Father. And I will give him the morning-star. He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches.

3 And to the angel of the church in Sardis write; These things saith he that hath the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars; I know thy works, that thou hast a name, that thou livest, and art dead. Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God. Remember therefore how thou hast received and heard, and hold fast, and repent. If therefore thou shalt not watch, I will come on thee as a thief, and thou shalt not know what hour I will come upon thee. Thou hast a few names even in Sardis which have not defiled their garments; and they shall walk with me in white: for they are worthy. He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will not blot out his name out of the book of life, but I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels. He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches. And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write; These things saith he that is holy, he that is true, he that hath the key of David, he that openeth, and no man shutteth; and shutteth, and no man openeth: I know thy works: behold, I have set before thee an open door, and no man can shut it: for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my name. Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, who say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie; behold, I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee. Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth. Behold, I come quickly: hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crown. Him that overcometh, will I make a pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go out no more: and I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is new Jerusalem, which cometh down out of heaven from my God: and I will write upon him my new name. He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches. And to the angel of the church of the Laodiceans write; These things saith the Amen, the faithful and true witness, the beginning of the creation of God; I know thy works, that thou art neither cold 15 nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot. So then, because thou 16 art luke-warm, and neither cold nor hot, I will vomit thee out of my mouth: Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased 17 with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked: I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that 18 thou mayest be rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness may not appear; and anoint thy eyes with eye-salve, that thou mayest see. As 19 many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent. Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: If any 20 man shall hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me. To him that 21 overcometh will I grant to sit with me on my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father on his throne.

He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the 22 churches.

After this I looked, and behold, a door was opened in heaven: 4 and the first voice which I heard, was as it were of a trumpet talking with me; which said, Come up hither, and I will show thee things which must be hereafter. And immediately I was 2 in the spirit: and behold, a throne was set in heaven, and one sat on the throne. And he that sat was in appearance like a 3 jasper and a sardine stone: and there was a rainbow around the throne in sight like an emerald. And around the throne 4 were four and twenty seats; and upon the seats I saw four and twenty elders sitting, clothed in white raiment; and they had on their heads crowns of gold. And out of the throne proceeded 5 lightnings and thunders and voices. And there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seven Spirits of God. And before the throne there was a sea of glass 6 like crystal: And in the midst of the throne, and around the throne, were four living beings full of eyes before and behind.
And the first living being was like a lion, and the second living 7 being like a calf, and the third living being had a face as a man, and the fourth living being was like a flying eagle. And the 8 four living beings had each of them six wings about him; and they were full of eyes within: and they rest not day and night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, who was, and is,

9 and is to come. And when those living beings give glory, and honor, and thanks to him that sat on the throne, who liveth 10 for ever and ever, The four and twenty elders fall down before him that sat on the throne, and worship him that liveth for ever and ever, and cast their crowns before the throne, say-11 ing, Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory, and honor, and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created.

5 And I saw in the right hand of him that sat on the throne a book written within and on the backside, sealed with seven 2 seals. And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, 3 Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose its seals? And no man in heaven, nor in earth, neither under the earth, was able 4 to open the book, neither to look upon it. And I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open, and to read the 5 book, neither to look upon it. And one of the elders saith to me, Weep not: behold, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, hath prevailed to open the book, and to loose its seven 6 seals. And I beheld, and lo, in the midst of the throne, and of the four living beings, and in the midst of the elders stood a Lamb as it had been slain, having seven horns, and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God sent forth into all the earth.
7 And he came and took the book out of the right hand of him 8 that sat upon the throne. And when he had taken the book, the four living beings, and four and twenty elders fell down before the Lamb, having every one of them harps, and golden 9 vials full of odors, which are the prayers of saints. And they sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals of it: for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood out of every kindred, and language, 10 and people, and nation; And hast made us to our God kings 11 and priests: and we shall reign on the earth. And I beheld, and I heard the voice of many angels around the throne, and the living beings, and the elders: and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands; 12 Saying with a loud voice, Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and 13 honor, and glory, and blessing. And every creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, I heard saying, Blessing, and honor, and glory, and power, be to him that sitteth upon the throne, and to the Lamb for ever and ever. And the four living beings said, Amen. And the four and twenty elders fell down and worshiped him that liveth for ever and ever. 14

And I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals, and I 6 heard, as it were the noise of thunder, one of the four living beings saying, Come and see. And I saw, and behold, a white horse: and he that sat on him had a bow; and a crown was given to him: and he went forth conquering, and to conquer. And when he had opened the second seal, I heard the second living being say, Come and see. And there went out another horse that was red: and power was given to him that sat upon him to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another: and there was given to him a great sword. And when he had opened the third seal, I heard the third living being say, Come and see. And I beheld, and lo, a black horse; and he that sat on him had a pair of balances in his hand. And I heard a voice in the midst of the four living beings say, A measure of wheat for a penny, and three measures of barley for a penny; and see thou hurt not the oil and the wine. And when he had opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living being say, Come and see. And I looked, and behold, a pale horse: and his name that sat on him was Death, and hell followed with him. And power was given to them over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beasts of the earth. And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of them that were slain for the word of God, and for the testimony which they held: And they cried with a loud voice, saying, How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth? And white robes were given to every one of them; and it was said to them, that they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellow-servants also and their brethren, that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled. And I beheld when he had opened the sixth seal, and lo, there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood: And the stars of heaven fell to the earth, even as a fig-tree casteth its untimely figs, when it is shaken by a mighty wind. And the heaven departed as a scroll when 14 it is rolled together; and every mountain and isle were moved 15 out of their places. And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bond-man, and every free-man, hid themselves 16 in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains; And said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the 17 Lamb: For the great day of his wrath is come; and who will be able to stand?

7 And after these things I saw four angels standing on the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, that the wind should not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, 2 nor on any tree. And I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God: and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt 3 the earth and the sea, Saying, Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have sealed the servants of our 4 God in their foreheads. And I heard the number of them who were sealed: and there were sealed a hundred and forty four 5 thousand of all the tribes of the children of Israel. Of the tribe of Judah were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Reuben were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Gad were 6 sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Asher were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Naphtalim were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Manasses were sealed twelve thou-7 sand. Of the tribe of Simeon were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Levi were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of 8 Isachar were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Zabulon were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Joseph were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Benjamin were sealed 9 twelve thousand. After this I beheld, and lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and languages, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands; 10 And cried with a loud voice, saying, Salvation to our God who sitteth upon the throne, and to the Lamb. And all the angels 11 stood around the throne, and about the elders and the four living beings, and fell before the throne on their faces, and wor-12 shipped God, Saying, Amen: Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honor, and power, and might, be to our God for ever and ever. Amen. And one of the elders answered, 13 saying to me, Who are these that are arrayed in white robes? and whence came they? And I said to him, Sir, thou knowest. 14 And he said to me, These are they who came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. Therefore they are before the throne 15 of God, and serve him day and night in his temple: and he that sitteth on the throne will dwell among them. They shall 16 hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat. For the Lamb who is in the midst 17 of the throne will feed them, and will lead them to living fountains of waters: and God will wipe away all tears from their eyes.

And when he had opened the seventh seal, there was silence 8 in heaven about the space of half an hour. And I saw the seven 2 angels who stood before God; and to them were given seven trumpets. And another angel came and stood at the altar, 3 having a golden censer; and there was given to him much incense, that he should offer it with the prayers of all saints upon the golden altar which was before the throne. And the smoke 4 of the incense, which came with the prayers of the saints, ascended before God out of the angel's hand. And the angel took 5 the censer, and filled it with fire of the altar, and cast it upon the earth: and there were voices, and thunderings, and lightnings, and an earthquake. And the seven angels who had the 6 seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound. The first angel 7 sounded, and there followed hail and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast upon the earth: and the third part of trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up. And the sec- 8 ond angel sounded, and as it were a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea: and the third part of the sea became blood; And the third part of the creatures which were in 9 the sea, and had life, died; and the third part of the ships were destroyed. And the third angel sounded, and there fell a great 10 star from heaven, burning as it were a lamp, and it fell upon the third part of the rivers, and upon the fountains of waters; And the name of the star is called Wormwood: and the third 11 part of the waters became wormwood; and many men died by the waters, because they were made bitter. And the fourth 12 angel sounded, and the third part of the sun was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars; so that the third part of them was darkened, and the day shone 13 not for a third part of it, and the night likewise. And I beheld, and heard an angel flying through the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice, Woe, woe, woe, to the inhabitants of the earth, by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels, which are yet to sound!

9 And the fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star fall from heaven to the earth: and to him was given the key of the 2 bottomless pit. And he opened the bottomless pit; and there arose a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke 3 of the pit. And there came out of the smoke locusts upon the earth: and to them was given power, as the scorpions of the 4 earth have power. And it was commanded them that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree; but only those men who have not the seal of 5 God in their foreheads. And to them it was given that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented five 6 months: and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion, when he striketh a man. And in those days shall men seek 7 death, and shall not find it; and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them. And the shapes of the locusts were like 8 to horses prepared for battle; and on their heads were as it were crowns like gold, and their faces were as the faces of men.
9 And they had hair as the hair of women, and their teeth were as the teeth of lions. And they had breast-plates, as it were 10 breast-plates of iron; and the sound of their wings was as the sound of chariots of many horses running to battle. And they 11 had tails like scorpions, and there were stings in their tails: and their power was to hurt men five months. And they had 12 a king over them, who is the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hebrew language is Abaddon, but in the Greek 13 language he hath his name Apollyon. One woe is past; and behold, there come two woes more hereafter. And the sixth 14 angel sounded, and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar which is before God, Saying to the sixth angel 15 who had the trumpet, Loose the four angels who are bound in the great river Euphrates. And the four angels were loosed, who were prepared for an hour, and a day, and a month, and a year, to slay the third part of men. And the number of the army of the horsemen was two hundred thousand thousand: and I heard the number of them. And thus I saw the horses in the vision, and them that sat on them, having breast-plates of fire, and of jacinth, and brimstone: and the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions: and out of their mouths issued fire, and smoke, and brimstone. By these three was the third part of men killed, by the fire, and by the smoke, and by the brimstone, which issued out of their mouths. For their power is in their mouth, and in their tails: for their tails were like to serpents, and had heads, and with them they do hurt. And the rest of the men who were not killed by these plagues yet repented not of the works of their hands, that they should not worship demons, and idols of gold, and silver, and brass, and stone, and of wood: which neither can see, nor hear, nor walk: Neither repented they of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their lewdness, nor of their thefts.

And I saw another mighty angel come down from heaven, clothed with a cloud: and a rainbow was upon his head, and his face was as it were the sun, and his feet as pillars of fire: And he had in his hand a little book open: and he set his right foot upon the sea, and his left foot on the earth, And cried with a loud voice, as when a lion roareth: and when he had cried, seven thunders uttered their voices. And when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write: and I heard a voice from heaven saying to me, Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered, and write them not. And the angel which I saw stand upon the sea and upon the earth lifted up his hand to heaven, And swore by him that liveth for ever and ever, who created heaven, and the things that are in it, and the earth, and the things that are in it, and the sea, and the things which are in it, that there should be time no longer: But in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he shall begin to sound, the mystery of God should be finished, as he hath declared to his servants the prophets. And the voice which I heard from heaven spoke to me again, and said, Go, and take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel which standeth upon the sea and upon the earth. And I went to the angel, and said to him, Give me the little book. And he said to me, Take it, and eat it, and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth sweet as 10 honey. And I took the little book out of the angel's hand, and ate it; and it was in my mouth sweet as honey: and as soon as 11 I had eaten it my belly was bitter. And he said to me, Thou must prophesy again before many peoples, and nations, and languages, and kings.

11 And there was given me a reed like a rod: and the angel stood, saying, Rise, and measure the temple of God, and the al-2 tar, and them that worship in it. But the court which is without the temple, leave out, and measure it not; for it is given to the Gentiles: and the holy city shall they tread under foot 3 forty and two months. And I will give power to my two witnesses, and they shall prophesy a thousand two hundred and 4 sixty days, clothed in sackcloth. These are the two olive-trees, and the two candlesticks standing before the God of the earth.
5 And if any man will hurt them, fire proceedeth out of their mouth, and devoureth their enemies: and if any man will hurt 6 them, he must in this manner be killed. These have power to shut heaven, that it rain not in the days of their prophecy: and have power over waters to turn them to blood, and to smite 7 the earth with all plagues, as often as they will. And when they shall have finished their testimony, the beast that ascen-deth out of the bottomless pit shall make war against them, 8 and shall overcome them, and kill them. And their dead bodies shall lie in the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where also our Lord was crucified.
9 And they of the people, and kindreds, and languages, and nations, shall see their dead bodies three days and a half, and 10 shall not suffer their dead bodies to be put in graves. And they that dwell upon the earth shall rejoice over them, and make merry, and shall send gifts one to another; because these 11 two prophets tormented them that dwelt on the earth. And after three days and a half the Spirit of life from God entered into them, and they stood upon their feet; and great fear fell 12 upon them who saw them. And they heard a great voice from heaven, saying to them, Come up hither. And they ascended 13 to heaven in a cloud; and their enemies beheld them. And the same hour was there a great earthquake, and the tenth part of the city fell, and in the earthquake were killed of men seven thousand: and the remnant were affrighted, and gave glory to the God of heaven. The second woe is past; and behold, the third woe cometh quickly. And the seventh angel sounded; and there were great voices in heaven, saying, The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; and he will reign for ever and ever. And the four and twenty elders, who sat before God on their seats, fell upon their faces, and worshiped God, Saying, We give thee thanks, O Lord God Almighty, who art, and wast, and art to come; because thou hast taken to thee thy great power, and hast reigned. And the nations were angry, and thy wrath is come, and the time of the dead, that they should be judged, and that thou shouldest give reward to thy servants the prophets, and to the saints, and them that fear thy name, small and great; and shouldest destroy them who destroy the earth. And the temple of God was opened in heaven, and there was seen in his temple the ark of his testament: and there were lightnings, and voices, and thunderings, and an earthquake, and great hail.

And there appeared a great wonder in heaven; a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars: And she being with child, cried, travailing in birth, and pained to be delivered. And there appeared another wonder in heaven; and behold, a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and seven crowns upon his heads. And his tail drew the third part of the stars of heaven, and cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood before the woman who was ready to be delivered, to devour her child as soon as it was born. And she brought forth a male child, who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her child was caught up to God, and to his throne. And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared by God, that they should feed her there a thousand two hundred and sixty days. And there was war in heaven: Michael and his angels fought against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels, And prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in heaven. And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out upon the earth, and his angels were cast out with him. And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, who accused them before our God day and night. And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives to the death. Therefore rejoice, ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them. Woe to the inhabitors of the earth, and of the sea! for the devil is come down to you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time. And when the dragon saw that he was cast to the earth, he persecuted the woman who brought forth the male -child. And to the woman were given two wings of a great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent. And the serpent cast out of his mouth water as a flood after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away by the flood. And the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed up the flood which the dragon cast out of his mouth. And the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, who keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ.

13 And I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw a beast rise out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the name of blasphemy. And the beast which I saw was like a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority. And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and all the world wondered after the beast. And they worshiped the dragon which gave power to the beast: and they worshiped the beast, saying, Who is like the beast? who is able to make war with him? And there was given to him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and power was given to him to continue forty and two months. And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heaven. And it was given to him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all kindreds, and languages, and nations. And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world. If any man hath an ear, let him hear. He that leadeth into captivity shall go into captivity: he that killeth with the sword must be killed with the sword. Here is the patience and the faith of the saints. And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth, and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spoke as a dragon. And he exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him, and causeth the earth and them who dwell in it to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed. And he doeth great wonders, so that he maketh fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men, And deceiveth them that dwell on the earth by the means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, which had the wound by a sword, and lived. And he had power to give life to the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed. And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads: And that no man might buy or sell, save him that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name. Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man; and his number is six hundred and sixty six.

And I looked, and lo, a lamb stood on the mount Sion, and with him a hundred and forty four thousand, having his Father's name written in their foreheads. And I heard a voice from heaven, as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of a great thunder: and I heard the voice of harpers harping with their harps: And they sung as it were a new song before the throne, and before the four beasts, and the elders: and no man could learn that song but the hundred and forty four thousand, who were redeemed from the earth. These are they who were not defiled with women; for they are virgins. These are they who follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth. These were redeemed from among men, being the first-fruits to God and to the Lamb. And in their mouth was found no guile: for they are without fault before the throne of God. And I saw another angel fly in the midst of heaven, having the everlasting gospel to preach to them that dwell on the earth, and to every 7 nation, and kindred, and language, and people, Saying with a loud voice, Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come: and worship him that made heaven, and 8 earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters. And there followed another angel, saying, Babylon is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of 9 the wrath of her lewdness. And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, If any man worshipeth the beast and his image, and receiveth his mark in his forehead, or in his 10 hand, The same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the 11 Lamb: And the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whoever receiveth the mark of his 12 name. Here is the patience of the saints: here are they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus. And I heard a voice from heaven, saying to me, Write, Blessed are 13 the dead who die in the Lord from henceforth: Verily, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors; and their works follow them. And I looked, and behold, a white cloud, and upon the cloud one sat like the Son of man, having on his head 14 a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle. And another angel came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to him that sat on the cloud, Thrust in thy sickle, and reap: for the time is come for thee to reap; for the harvest of the earth is 15 ripe. And he that sat on the cloud thrust in his sickle on the earth; and the earth was reaped. And another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle.

16 And another angel came out from the altar, who had power over fire; and cried with a loud cry to him that had the sharp sickle, saying, Thrust in thy sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth; for her grapes are fully ripe. And the angel thrust in his sickle into the earth, and gathered the 17 vine of the earth, and cast it into the great wine-press of the wrath of God. And the wine-press was trodden without the city, and blood came out of the wine-press, even to the horses' bridles, by the space of a thousand and six hundred furlongs.

And I saw another sign in heaven, great and marvelous, 15 seven angels having the seven last plagues; for in them is filled up the wrath of God. And I saw as it were a sea of glass 2 mingled with fire: and them that had gained the victory over the beast, and over his image, and over his mark, and over the number of his name, stand on the sea of glass, having the harps of God. And they sing the song of Moses the servant of 3 God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, Great and marvelous are thy works, Lord God Almighty; just and true are thy ways, thou King of saints. Who shall not fear thee, O Lord, and glo- 4 rify thy name? for thou only art holy: for all nations shall come and worship before thee; for thy judgments are made manifest.
And after that I looked, and behold, the temple of the taberna- 5 cle of the testimony in heaven was opened: And the seven an- 6 gels came out of the temple, having the seven plagues, clothed in pure and white linen, and having their breasts girded with golden girdles. And one of the four living beings gave to the 7 seven angels seven golden vials full of the wrath of God, who liveth for ever and ever. And the temple was filled with smoke 8 from the glory of God, and from his power; and no man was able to enter into the temple, till the seven plagues of the seven angels were fulfilled.

And I heard a great voice out of the temple, saying to the 16 seven angels, Go, and pour out the vials of the wrath of God upon the earth. And the first went, and poured out his vial 2 upon the earth; and there fell a noisome and grievous sore upon the men who had the mark of the beast, and upon them who worshiped his image. And the second angel poured out 3 his vial upon the sea; and it became as the blood of a dead man: and every living soul died in the sea. And the third an- 4 gel poured out his vial upon the rivers and fountains of waters; and they became blood. And I heard the angel of the waters 5 say, Thou art righteous, O Lord, who art, and wast, and wilt be, because thou hast judged thus. For they have shed the 6 blood of saints and prophets, and thou hast given them blood to drink; for they are worthy. And I heard another from the 7 altar say, Even so, Lord God Almighty, true and righteous are thy judgments. And the fourth angel poured out his vial upon 8 the sun; and power was given to him to scorch men with fire.

- 9 And men were scorched with great heat, and blasphemed the 10 name of God, who hath power over these plagues: and they re-11 pent not to give him glory. And the fifth angel poured out 12 his vial upon the seat of the beast; and his kingdom was full of 13 darkness; and they gnawed their tongues for pain, And blas-14 phemed the God of heaven, because of their pains and their 15 sores, and repented not of their deeds. And the sixth angel 16 poured out his vial upon the great river Euphrates; and the 17 water of it was dried up, that the way of the kings of the east 18 might be prepared. And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs 19 come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of 20 the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet. For they 21 are the spirits of demons, working miracles, which go forth to the kings of the earth, and of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty. Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame. And he gathered them into a place called in the Hebrew tongue Armageddon. And the seventh angel poured out his vial into the air; and there came a great voice out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, It is done. And there were voices, and thunders, and lightnings; and there was a great earthquake, such as hath not been since men were upon the earth, so mighty an earthquake, and so great. And the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell: and great Babylon came in remembrance before God, to give to her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath. And every isle fled away, and the mountains were not found. And there fell upon men a great hail out of heaven, every stone about the weight of a talent: and men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail; for the plague of it was exceeding great.
- 17 And there came one of the seven angels who had the seven vials, and talked with me, saying to me, Come hither; I will show to thee the judgment of the great harlot that sitteth upon many waters; With whom the kings of the earth have committed lewd deeds, and the inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her lewdness. So he carried me away in the spirit into the wilderness: and I saw a woman sit upon a scarlet-colored beast, full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns. And the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet-color, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness of her lewdness: And upon 5 her forehead was a name written, MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS, AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH. And I saw the woman drunken with the 6 blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus: and when I saw her, I wondered with great admiration. And 7 the angel said to me, Why didst thou wonder? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads and ten horns. The beast that 8 thou sawest, was, and is not; and shall ascend out of the bottomless pit, and go into perdition: and they that dwell on the earth shall wonder, whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is. And here is the mind 9 which hath wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth. And there are seven kings: five are 10 fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a short time. And the beast that 11 was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goeth into perdition. And the ten horns which thou sawest 12 are ten kings, who have received no kingdom as yet; but receive power as kings one hour with the beast. These have one 13 mind, and shall give their power and strength to the beast. These will make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb will overcome them: for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings; and they that are with him are called, and chosen, and faithful. And he saith to me, The waters which thou sawest, where the 14 harlot sitteth, are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and languages. And the ten horns which thou sawest upon the 15 beast, these shall hate the harlot, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and burn her with fire. For 16 God hath put in their hearts to fulfill his will, and to agree, and give their kingdom to the beast, until the words of God shall be fulfilled. And the woman whom thou sawest is that great 17 city, which reigneth over the kings of the earth. 18

And after these things I saw another angel come down from 18 heaven, having great power; and the earth was lightened with his glory. And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, 2

Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of demons, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage 3 of every unclean and hateful bird. For all nations have drank of the wine of the wrath of her lewdness, and the kings of the earth have committed lewd deeds with her, and the merchants 4 of the earth have become rich through the abundance of her delicacies. And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, 5 Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues. For her sins have reached to heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities.
6 Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double to her double according to her works: in the cup which she hath filled, 7 fill to her double. How much she hath glorified herself, and lived deliciously, so much torment and sorrow give her: for she saith in her heart, I sit a queen, and am no widow, and 8 shall see no sorrow. Therefore shall her plagues come in one day, death, and mourning, and famine; and she shall be utterly burned with fire: for strong is the Lord God who judgeth her.
9 And the kings of the earth, who have committed lewdness and lived deliciously with her, shall bewail her, and lament for her, 10 when they shall see the smoke of her burning, Standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, Alas, alas, that great city Babylon, that mighty city! for in one hour is thy judgment 11 come. And the merchants of the earth shall weep and mourn 12 over her; for no man buyeth their merchandise any more: The merchandise of gold, and silver, and precious stones, and of pearls, and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet, and all thyine wood, and all vessels of ivory, and all vessels of most 13 precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble, And cinnamon, and odors, and ointments, and frankincense, and wine, and oil, and fine flour, and wheat, and beasts, and sheep, and 14 horses, and chariots, and slaves, and souls of men. And the fruits that thy soul lusted after have departed from thee, and all things which were dainty and goodly have departed from 15 thee, and thou shalt find them no more at all. The merchants of these things who were made rich by her, shall stand afar 16 off, for the fear of her torment, weeping and wailing, And saying, Alas, alas, that great city, that was clothed in fine linen, and purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold, and precious 17 stones, and pearls! For in one hour so great riches is come to naught. And every ship-master, and all the company in ships, and sailors, and as many as trade by sea, stood afar off, And 18 cried when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, What city is like this great city! And they cast dust on their heads, 19 and cried, weeping and wailing, saying, Alas, alas, that great city, in which were made rich all that had ships in the sea by reason of her opulence! for in one hour is she made desolate. Rejoice over her thou heaven, and ye holy apostles and 20 prophets; for God hath avenged you on her. And a mighty an- 21 gel took up a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and shall be no more found. And the voice of 22 harpers, and musicians, and of pipers, and trumpeters, shall be no more heard in thee; and no artificer, of whatever craft he be, shall be found any more in thee; and the sound of a millstone shall be no more heard in thee; And the light of a candle shall 23 shine no more in thee; and the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no more in thee: for thy merchants were the great men of the earth; for by thy sorceries were all nations deceived. And in her was found the blood of prophets, 24 and of saints, and of all that were slain upon the earth.

And after these things I heard a great voice of many people 19 in heaven, saying, Alleluia: Salvation, and glory, and honor, and power, to the Lord our God: For true and righteous are 2 his judgments: for he hath judged the great harlot, who corrupted the earth with her lewdness, and hath avenged the blood of his servants at her hand. And again they said, Al- 3 leluia. And her smoke rose up for ever and ever. And the 4 four and twenty elders and the four living beings fell down and worshiped God who sat on the throne, saying, Amen; Alleluia. And a voice came out of the throne, saying, Praise our 5 God, all ye his servants, and ye that fear him, both small and great. And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, 6 and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, Alleluia: for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth. Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honor to him: 7 for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready. And to her was granted that she should be 8 arrayed in fine linen, clean and white: for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints. And he saith to me, Write, Blessed 9

- are* they who are called to the marriage supper of the Lamb.
- 10 And he saith to me, These are the true sayings of God. And I fell at his feet to worship him. And he said to me, See thou do it not: I am thy fellow-servant, and of thy brethren that have the testimony of Jesus: worship God: for the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy. And I saw heaven opened, and behold,
- 11 a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he doth judge and make war.
- 12 His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many crowns; and he had a name written, that no man knew, but he himself. And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood:
- 13 and his name is called, The Word of God. And the armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, clothed
- 14 in fine linen, white and clean. And out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations: and he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and he treadeth the wine-press of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God. And he hath on his vesture and on his thigh a name written, KING OF
- 15 KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS. And I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the fowls that fly in the midst of heaven, Come, and assemble
- 16 yourselves to the supper of the great God; That ye may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and bond, both small
- 17 and great. And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, assembled to make war against him that sat on the horse, and against his army. And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshiped his image. These both
- 18 were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone. And the remnant were slain with the sword of him that sat upon the horse, which sword proceedeth out of his mouth: and all the fowls were filled with their flesh.
- 19
- 20 20 And I saw an angel come down from heaven, having the key of the bottomless pit and a great chain in his hand. And he laid hold on the dragon, that old serpent, which is the Devil,
- 21 and Satan, and bound him a thousand years. And cast him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up, and set a seal upon him, that he should deceive the nations no more, till the thousand years should be fulfilled; and after that he must be loosed a little season. And I saw thrones, and they sat upon them, and judgment was given to them: and I saw the souls of them that were beheaded for the testimony of Jesus, and for the word of God, and who had not worshiped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years. But the rest of the dead lived not again until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection. Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: on such the second death hath no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with him a thousand years. And when the thousand years have expired, Satan shall be loosed from his prison, And shall go out to deceive the nations which are in the four quarters of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them to battle: the number of whom is as the sand of the sea. And they went up on the breadth of the earth, and encompassed the camp of the saints, and the beloved city: and fire came down from God out of heaven, and devoured them. And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever. And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away; and there was found no place for them. And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of the things which were written in the books, according to their works. And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works. And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death. And whoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire.

And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away; and there was no more sea. And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a great voice out of heaven, saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself 4 will be with them, and be their God. And God will wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: 5 for the former things have passed away. And he that sat upon the throne said, Behold, I make all things new. And he said 6 to me, Write: for these words are true and faithful. And he said to me, It is done. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. I will give to him that is thirsty of the fountain 7 of the water of life freely. He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son. But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and lewd men, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brim-9 stone: which is the second death. And there came to me one of the seven angels, who had the seven vials full of the seven last plagues, and talked with me, saying, Come hither, I will show 10 thee the bride, the Lamb's wife. And he carried me away in the spirit to a great and high mountain, and showed me that great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from 11 God, Having the glory of God: and her light was like to a stone most precious, even like a jasper-stone, clear as crystal; And had a wall great and high, and had twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names written on them, which are 13 the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel. On the east three gates; on the north three gates; on the south three gates; and on the west three gates. And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and on them the names of the 15 twelve apostles of the Lamb. And he that talked with me, had a golden reed to measure the city, and its gates, and its wall. And the city lieth foursquare, and the length is as large as the breadth: and he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs. The length and the breadth and the hight of 17 it are equal. And he measured the wall of it a hundred and forty four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of the angel. And the building of the wall of it was of jasper: 18 and the city was pure gold, like clear glass. And the foundations of the wall of the city were garnished with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, a chalcedony; the fourth, an emerald; The 20 fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolite; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, a topaz; the tenth, a chrysoprase; the eleventh, a jacinth; the twelfth, an amethyst. And the twelve 21 gates were twelve pearls; every several gate was of one pearl; and the street of the city was pure gold, as it were transparent glass. And I saw no temple in it: for the Lord God Almighty 22 and the Lamb are the temple of it. And the city had no need 23 of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God enlightened it, and the Lamb is the light of it. And the 24 nations of them who are saved shall walk in the light of it: and the kings of the earth bring their glory and honor into it. And 25 the gates of it shall not be shut by day: for there shall be no night there. And they shall bring the glory and honor of the 26 nations into it. And there shall in no wise enter into it any 27 thing that defileth, neither whatever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie; but they who are written in the Lamb's book of life.

And he showed me a pure river of water of life, clear as 22 crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb.
 In the midst of the street of it, and on each side of the river, 2 was there the tree of life, which bore twelve kinds of fruits, and yielded her fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations. And there shall be no more 3 curse: but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it; and his servants shall serve him: And they shall see his face; and 4 his name shall be in their foreheads. And there shall be no 5 night there; and they need no candle, neither light of the sun; for the Lord God giveth them light: and they shall reign for ever and ever. And he said to me, These sayings are faithful 6 and true. And the Lord God of the holy prophets sent his angel to show to his servants the things which must shortly be done.
 Behold, I come quickly: blessed is he that keepeth the sayings 7 of the prophecy of this book. And I John saw these things, 8 and heard them. And when I had heard and seen, I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel who showed me these things. Then saith he to me, See thou do it not: for I am thy 9 fellow-servant, and of thy brethren the prophets, and of them who keep the sayings of this book: worship God. And he saith 10 to me, Seal not the sayings of the prophecy of this book: for the 11 time is at hand. He that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he who is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy 12 still. And behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, 13 to give to every man according as his work shall be. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the 14 last. Blessed are they that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the 15 gates into the city. For without are dogs, and sorcerers, and lewd men, and murderers, and idolaters, and whoever loveth 16 and maketh a lie. I Jesus have sent my angel to testify to you these things in the churches. I am the root and the offspring of 17 David, and the bright and morning-star. And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth, say, Come. And let him that is thirsty, come: And whoever will, let him take 18 the water of life freely. For I testify to every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, if any man shall add to these things, God will add to him the plagues that are written 19 in this book: And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God will take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things 20 which are written in this book. He who testifieth these things saith, Surely I come quickly: Amen. Even so, come, Lord Jesus.

21 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.
